TWO DEAD RESULT OF SHOOTING AFFAIR AT COURTENAY, VANCOUVER ISD.

Premier Macdonald Warns Soviet Against Bolshevik Propaganda During Convention now in Session

LONDON, April 14.—The opening session of the Anglo-Russian conference here today assumed broad lines. Premier Ramsay Macdonald, in outlining the work to be done at the conference, said liquidation of past relationships of the two countries had to be considered as well as the peaceful relations of the future. He warned Soviet delegates against engaging in Bolshevik propaganda in England during the present negotiations and said that if there were any indications of such propaganda a halt in the negotiations would be called.

Labor Member Challenges Liberals and Conservatives to Object to Budget

LONDON, April 14.—Albert Alexander, secretary of the Board of Trade, declared in a speech at Loughborough that the British people were likely to see a reduction in the taxation on foodstuffs. The allusion is believed to be to the duty on tea and sugar.

Jack Jones, labor member for Silvertown, predicted that there would be a great struggle in parliament over the budget. He hoped the Liberals and Conservatives would object to its proposals because the labor members were ready for the fight.

Premier Will Try to Force Issue on Freight Rates at Ottawa: Campaign to Begin

The latter have most of their candidates yet to nominate.

Premier Oliver, who has gone to Ottawa, will be delayed some time in getting in the field. He will try to force the railway freight and express rates issue and will take up other matters of interest to B.C. Other ministers, especially Hon. A. M. Manson, will begin active campaigning very soon.

The vessel, which has been owned for some time by the B.C. Salvage Association, has commodious freight space and also passenger accommodation.

Rakovsky, head of the Soviet delegates, assured the convention that Russia desired close financial and commercial relations with Great Britain. All outstanding matters must be settled, including the debt question, and old treaties must be revised.

MEMORIAL TO HEROES OF WAR

Brass Lectern at Anglican Church Dedicated at Service Yesterday

PARADE OF SOLDIERS Large Attendance and Flowers are Placed on Memorial: Last Post Sounded

A brass memorial lectern erected in honor of the twenty-seven members of St. Andrew's Anglican Church who lost their lives during the Great War was unveiled yesterday morning. The memorial, which cost $300, was really provided through the efforts of the Women's Auxiliary. There was a large attendance at the ceremonies and about fifty members of the Great War Veterans' Association and North B.C. Regiment participated, having gathered at the rooms of the former and marched to the church.

Archdeacon G. A. Rix officiated and gave the unveiling address. In the course of his remarks, he stated that 112 members of the church had enlisted and served during the war. The unveiling was actually performed by Miss Winnie White, daughter of one of the heroes whose name is engraved on the memorial. The Last Post was played at the unveiling by Bugler Fred Hardy and, after the names were read, the Reveille was sounded. A large church choir was present.

Names of Heroes

The text on the lectern, a handsomely wrought piece of handcraft, is as follows: "To the glory of God and in honored memory of the members of St. Andrew's Church, Prince Rupert, who gave their lives in the Great War, 1914 to 1918.

- A. W. Agnew, F. Adams, E. Biddle, W. Booth, A. Garss, L. Grippen, F. N. Clifton, F. F. B. Darley, J. W. Dowling, E. S. Denison, V. F. G. Gamble, F. Holland, W. Hutchins, E. H. Honeyman, W. H. Kirk, F. T. Lucas, V. Noble, W. G. Oakley, C. T. Parfitt, G. C. Purdy, J. F. Peters, Gerald Peters, E. O. Reichel, J. E. Stephen, A. Williamson, R. I. B. Warton and B. White."

FRENCH STEAMER IS ANNOUNCED TO BE LOST

PARIS, April 14.—The ministry of marine announced the loss of the steamer Port De Brest at Bordeaux on February 8 bound for Dakar, Senegal, with 37 officers and men aboard.

Among the provincial government appointments mentioned in the current number of the B.C. Gazette is James Herbert Matthews of Kitimat to be a justice of the peace; Joseph Newton McPhee of Butedale to be a notary public; T. J. Shenton of Prince Rupert to be health inspector for the purpose of inspecting such mines as come under his jurisdiction.

While the Duke of York was in Cardiff to attend the international rugby match between Ireland and Wales, he was tagged by one of the "daffodil" sellers, who also pinned one on Mr. Ramsay Macdonald.

Treasurer of Farmer Government was Arrested this Afternoon and Charged with Defrauding Province

TORONTO, April 14.—The investigations into the alleged charges of corruption in Ontario under the farmer government, led by Premier Drury have developed so far that one of the prominent members of that government is under arrest. Declining, on the advice of his counsel, to make a statement or to give evidence before the public accounts committee of the legislature, Hon. Peter Smith, treasurer in the late Drury government, was arrested and charged with defrauding the Ontario government. The decision to summon Mr. Smith to appear before the public accounts committee was reached as a result of evidence given by E. H. McMillan, former teller of the Bank of Toronto at Stratford, who told the Legislature that Mr. Smith had deposited one or more thousand dollar bills in his bank in December, 1919, a few weeks after becoming Provincial Treasurer. Mention had been made at former hearings that the Home Bank had used thousand dollar bills to pay commissions on deposits. The manager of the bank having Mr. Smith's account was later summoned. The deputy treasurer of the province was suspended last week.

Fatal Shooting Affair Took Place at Courtenay: Man and Women Killed, one Wounded

COURTENAY, April 14.—One man was killed and two women are in the hospital seriously wounded, the outcome of gunplay in a restaurant here yesterday afternoon. While Spencer Teed, an employee of the city, was dining, Alfred Corbett, owner of the restaurant, was quarrelling with his wife. Thinking him about to strike the woman, Teed went to intervene when Corbett is alleged to have drawn a gun and shot Teed in the lung and above the heart. He then shot Mrs. Corbett in the side and right breast and finally turned the gun on Mrs. Simpson, a restaurant employee and shot her in the shoulder. Teed died a few minutes after his admission into the hospital and Mrs. Corbett is not expected to recover.

ANNUAL REPORT PREMIER MINE

Dividend of $1,738,000 Was Paid—Vast Quantity of Ore Still Remains

The Premier Gold Mining company's annual report shows that the company made a net operating profit of $2,135,018, from which administrative expenses, $6,918,941; taxes, $196,771.13; depreciation, $142,215.83; and depletion, $956,327, making a total of $4,202,233.35, have to be deducted, leaving $832,185.40 available for dividends. As a matter of fact, dividends totalling $1,738,000 in Canadian currency were paid, but the larger part were paid out of depletion reserve. The company shipped 87,869 tons of crude ore to the smelters, and treated 57,796 tons in its own mill; from the latter operation 7175 tons of concentrate and 1136 tons of cyanide precipitate were obtained. The meals produced from these various sources were 117,294 ounces of gold, 2,946,551 ounces of silver, and 62,191 pounds of lead.

Operating Cost Cut

The cost of operation appears to have been reduced markedly, compared with the previous year, and figures out at $7.51 per ton, which considering the situation of the property and the difficulty of transporting material going to and from the mine over an 11 1/2 mile aerial tramway, seems moderate. It was estimated that at the end of last year there were 93,000 tons of ore, averaging 0.67 ounce of gold and 16.5 ounces of silver, broken in the stopes, and 360,000 tons, an averaging 0.85 ounce in gold and 15 ounces in silver, blocked out. Thus, it will be seen, there still is $10,526,900 worth of actual ore of a commercial grade in the mine. Besides this there is a considerable tonnage of complex ore above the present bottom level, which, though it cannot be treated profitably at the present time, may be profitably treated at a later date, when a process has been devised to handle it.

Claims Purchased

During the year, the company added thirteen claims to its holdings, for which it paid rather less than $25,000. None of these claims, the report states, has any surface showings of particular promise, but they were considered to be a fair gamble at the price paid for them.

DR. BRIGGS OF BUCKLEY BAY DISAPPEARS

Supposed to Have Gone Overboard From Prince John Yesterday

Dr. J. A. Briggs, physician for the Massett Timber Co. at Buckley Bay and provincial health officer for the Queen Charlotte Islands, is presumed to have been lost overboard last night from the C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Queen Charlotte Islands for Vancouver, according to a wireless message received this morning by Reginald Beaumont, local C.G.M.M. superintendent, from Capt. Neil McLean, master of the Prince John.

Dr. Briggs boarded the Prince John at Buckley Bay yesterday afternoon and was going to Vancouver. He was missed this morning and it was presumed that he went overboard. The message to Mr. Beaumont arrived at 9.30 this morning.

The provincial police was immediately notified and further action is pending receipt of reply to an enquiry as to the position of the steamer when the accident was supposed to have taken place.

Dr. Briggs was well known in Prince Rupert, having visited the city on several occasions. He followed his profession on the Queen Charlotte Islands for several years having formerly been located at Massett. Shortly over a year ago he moved his headquarters to Buckley Bay. A native of New Westminster, B.C., he served overseas during the Great War and, on his return to British Columbia, married Miss Molly Bunberry, formerly surgical supervisor in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. They had one child.

Early this Morning

Further information received this afternoon by Mr. Beaumont is to the effect that Dr. Briggs fell overboard from the Prince John about 2.30 this morning when the vessel was off Cape Ball on the East coast of Graham Island. He was leaving his Buckley Bay position and it is understood that Mrs. Briggs and family were with him.

HEBRIDEANS GO TO VANCOUVER ISLAND

VICTORIA, April 14.—At the week end Hon. T. D. Pattullo in a speech mentioned that about 200 Hebrideans were expected to settle on Vancouver Island in the near future. This is apparently a change of plans from the original which contemplated sending them to the Queen Charlottes.

Everyone Working For This Port.

The prairie people seem to be all working in the interests of Prince Rupert, not because they have any particular affection for this city but because they see benefit to themselves in so doing. One of the most recent concerns to take up the campaign is the Great Western Garment Company of Edmonton. It is issuing posters urging that there be development of the western grain route. It says in part:

"A proper and impartial survey must be made for the comprehensive development of the railway and ocean terminal facilities of the ports of Vancouver and Prince Rupert in the interest of the whole people of Western Canada and not of any single transportation system or private undertaking. All such terminal freight-transportation facilities should be pooled and equitably administered on behalf of the shippers and consignees, whose servants these facilities properly are."

Welcome Every Force That Can Help Us.

Prince Rupert people, too, are animated by selfish motives in carrying on the fight for terminal grain shipping facilities. The selfish aspect of the case does not, however, help much. It is because this port and its development is essential to the proper development of the interior of the country that we are likely to succeed. To benefit six thousand people no large expenditure would be warranted. To benefit hundreds of thousands and to be an important factor in the settlement of an immense new country, is a different matter. To do that any government would be justified in spending money.

It is because of the need of a second outlet to the sea, not only for the people of the prairies but for the people of the British Columbia central valleys, that we are able to press upon the government the desirability of developments here. In that we are having the backing of the people of the prairies,

Women Of Smithers And A Clean Town.

The women of Smithers apparently do not intend to let the men run the town, as is usually done in the west. The other day they took a hand in the conduct of affairs and, if all the stories coming through are true, there was some very plain talk at a meeting at which they were present. They made it very clear that in the future they were to be a factor in the government of the town.

Women now have votes the same as men and there is no reason why they should not take the keenest interest in governmental affairs.

How They See Things Way Back East.

Toronto is opposing the building of branch railway lines in the west. One of the members for that city complains that the city cannot get a customs house, not even a shack. Other things for which they are asking are denied them because there is not money with which to carry them out. This is given as an argument why work should not be done at other places. It is the dog in the manger policy which is apt to obtain under the present system of government and which is fatal to advancement.

IN LAWFUL LARCENY WOMAN SAVES HUSBAND FROM DESIGNING VAMP

Allan Dwan's Paramount picture, "Lawful Larceny," featuring Hope Hampton, Nita Naldi, Lew Cody and Conrad Nagel, will be seen here tonight.

The story concerns a young wife who on returning from a trip abroad finds that her husband has fallen into the clutches of a designing woman and her male accomplice, and has given an I.O.U. for a large amount. The wife sets about to get back his money, as well as her husband's I.O.U., and thereby save his honor.

How she succeeds is interestingly shown in the ensuing scenes of the picture, in which Miss Hampton, in the role of Marion Dorsey, manages in a decidedly novel manner to effect an acquaintance with Guy Tarlow, accomplice of Vivian Hepburn, the modern Cleopatra, who has Marion's husband under her thumb, and through him is brought to Vivian's gambling rooms. Matters start to hum when the latter learns the identity of this new visitor.

"Lawful Larceny" is the last word in lavish costuming and elaborate settings. There are some special dance numbers that are real knockouts in themselves. The atmosphere of ancient Egypt is introduced by means of a prologue, in which Nita Naldi is seen as Cleopatra.

THIS IS ONCE WHERE THE WOMAN SCORES

"To the Ladies" is a Play in Which the Ability of the Wife Makes Her Husband

Under the direction of James Cruze, who produced "The Covered Wagon," "Hollywood" and "Ruggles of Red Gap," it is predicted that the screen version of "To the Ladies," a Paramount picture coming Wednesday will surpass in popularity the stage presentation of the three-act domestic comedy which New York critics acclaimed one of the best human interest stories theatre-goers had seen in many seasons.

The photoplay is built on a theme rather than a plot. This emphasizes to what extent a clever wife can prove an important factor in her husband's success. Edward Horton as "Leonard Beebe" becomes manager of the Kincaid Piano Factory through activities of his wife, "Elsie Beebe," portrayed by Helen Jerome Eddy, after "Elsie" discovers that "John Kincaid," the factory owner, enacted by Theodore Roberts, owes his success to his wife, a part taken by Louise Dresser, the aforementioned all appearing in featured roles.

NORMA TALMADGE IN ASHES OF VENGEANCE

"Ashes of Vengeance," Norma Talmadge's latest starring production, which comes at the week end, is a most ambitious motion picture combining a narvellous spectacle of the 16th Century and a love story of delicate charm executed in a thoroughly entertaining manner. Naught but praise is due Joseph M. Schenck, the producer of this picture, for the magnificent settings of this film. Not only do they suggest the time and locale of the story, but endow the whole with a realism that transports the spectator to the days of chivalry.

But it is the story itself which stands out from these massive settings, a story of hereditary hate and desire for vengeance which is dissipated by the valor of a man upon whom humiliation in every form is visited, and turns to an exalted love which wipes out a long existing feud of two noble families. It would require columns to describe the rush of incident, of physical and emotional conflict through which this transition is accomplished. Mob scenes, thrilling sword fights, romance and political intrigue figure in a succession of situations in natural and logical sequence — and dominating it all is Norma Talmadge. More beautiful than ever, she seemed to us, as the proud Yoelani de Breux, more regal, more admirable in her emotional scenes.

The Story

This story is novel. Rupert de Vriac is in love with Margot Vaincioro. They are Huguenots. Comte de la Roche, of the opposite party, is also hereditary enemy of the de Vriac house. To taunt Rupert he makes love to Margot, and is challenged to a duel by Rupert. Rupert wins, but spares la Roche's life to humiliate him. La Roche turns the tables that night by saving Margot from the Huguenot massacre on condition that Rupert becomes his servant for five years. He then places Rupert in the service of his sister, Yoeland, who loses no opportunity to humiliate him. He saves her life and that of her invalid sister when a wolf attacks them. Yoeland resents owing her life to a family enemy. He later protects her when men-at-arms, outraged at the brutality of Duce de Tours, attack the castle. And then would suffer torture to save her from the despicable Duc. The Duc is killed, and Yoeland, learning that Margot has killed Rupert, and that a lock of blond hair in his doublet was not that of a sweetheart, pleads with her brother to release Rupert from his bondage. The rest may be imagined.

TEN COMMANDMENTS IS SHOWN UNDER NEW PLAN

Touring Orchestra and Car Load of Effects Goes With Picture

NEW YORK, April 14.—Cecil de Mille's "Ten Commandments" is at present playing in six of the largest cities of the U.S. Plans are laid, however, for touring companies, exactly like the ones now playing, to go through the country to all the larger cities, showing only in the best theatres. A large special orchestra and a complete car load of effects will provide a most elaborate presentation of a moving picture, different from anything hitherto seen. The first company starts in August.

BOWSER IS NOT CLEARED YET

So Declares Premier Oliver in Reviewing Charges Made by Provincial Party

VICTORIA, April 14. — While he has been absolved from the charges of the Provincial Party, W. J. Bowser, K.C., leader of the Conservative Party, has been in no way cleared of the serious allegations made against him in connection with the Pacific Great Eastern Railway at the investigation of 1917...

"Mr. Bowser says he has been absolved by the Provincial Party and by me," the premier remarked. "Well, I want to say that that is a pretty poor absolution. A committee of the Legislature in 1917 made the most damaging report on the P.G.E. ever put on the journals of any legislature in Canada and nothing which took place at the recent investigation mitigated the report of 1917 in the smallest degree."

"While Mr. Bowser has been absolved from the charges of the Provincial Party, the charge condemning him in 1917 stands today as firmly as when that report was adopted by the Legislature."

Party Funds

The premier recalled that D. Arey Tate, formerly associate of Foley, Welch and Stewart, P.G.E. builders, had said at the 1917 inquiry that he had taken care of the Conservative Party's campaign funds. Then at the recent investigation he had stated that he had paid money to one man only. The logical conclusion, the premier said, was that the money must have been paid out only for the good of the Conservative Party.

TRAGEDY OF BIRTH IN KINGSTON JAIL AVERTED BY OFFICIALS

KINGSTON, Ont., April 14. — That prison officials have hearts despite their calling was demonstrated here when after frequent visits to officials of the department of justice at Ottawa, Warden Ponsford of the Portsmouth Penitentiary secured the parole of a young married Scotch lassie, who had been sentenced to two years for a slight theft in Toronto. Prison officials were struck with the fact that a penal institution was no place for the clear-eyed Scotch lassie with unborn babe, and they worked fast to secure her release in time to avert the tragedy of the birth of her babe in the prison, as a result of the girl's first conflict with justice. The parole has arrived, and the husband met the girl at the gates of the prison, whence they went to their new home at Toronto.

DOES NOT APPRECIATE TRAVEL BY AIR AS IT TAKES TOO MUCH TIME

The Edmonton Bulletin says: The airplane is a world-beater while it is on the wing. The chief trouble is that it loses too much time between hops. The British round-the-world plane had to stop at the island of Corfu to instal a new engine. One of the four U.S. round-the-world planes was held at Seattle for a like replacement, and another one had to delay at Prince Rupert for repairs. The Canada goose does not undertake such long journeys, but it does not have to stop to fix its machinery after each day's flight. In a race from the Gulf of Mexico to Great Bear Lake it would beat the human flier to a "frazzle."

TALKING POLITICS IN INTERIOR RIDINGS

Olof Hanson Mentioned as a Possible Candidate for Skeena with R. S. Sargent Opposing Him

Reports from the interior indicate that some interest is taken in the forthcoming provincial election. It is understood that Hon. A. M. Manson will be again asked to be a candidate for the Omineca riding. For Skeena there is mention of the name of Olof Hanson, the lumber king. While at present it is only talk and it is not even known if Mr. Hanson would accept a nomination should it be offered him, it is generally felt that he is one of the most popular men in the district and would receive a large support.

On the Conservative side R. S. Sargent is spoken of as a possible candidate to oppose Mr. Hanson. He lives at Hazelton and is well known in that section of the constituency.

THE CROW OF CROUP A WARNING TO ALL MOTHERS

Croup starts with a dry cough and rattling in the throat; after which the croupy crow gives warning of the disease. The child, after tossing restlessly about, with start up with a flushed face, protruding eyeballs, and a distressing look of terror and anxiety. There is a struggle for breath, and the expectation of the mucous matter is so difficult to get rid of that the effort appears to threaten strangulation.

On the first sign of the "croupy crow" mothers should administer Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and thus give the child prompt and permanent relief, and perhaps the life saved by taking this precaution.

Mrs. H. A. Langhorn, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"My little boy was very bad with the croup and I could not get anything to relieve him until I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I cannot praise it too highly for the relief it gave him."

PROOF OF THE PUDDING

A Scotsman went to London for a holiday. Walking along the streets he noticed a bald-headed druggist standing at his shop door, and asked if he had any hair restorer. "Yes, sir," said the druggist. "Here is an article I can recommend. I have testimonials from great men who have used it. It makes the hair grow in twenty-four hours." "Aweel," said the Scot, "ye can give the top o' your head a rub wi' it, and I'll look back in the moon an' see if ye're tellin' the truth."—Yorkshire Post.

HAIR BOBBING IN THE EAST

Toronto is Centre of Craze for Eliminating the Locks of Old and Young

BARBERS RUSHED TO DEATH

At Least a Thousand Women a Week Pass Through Hands of Hairdressers

TORONTO, April 14. — Some infernal spirit seems to have taken possession of the regiment of women in Toronto who are flocking to the beauty parlors to have their long tresses bobbed at the rate of 1,600 a week. Mothers troop with the young flappers, Grandmothers of sixty with silver white locks are company commanders. What has come over the world?

The sound of catastrophe was in our informant's voice as he broke the news to us on the crowded street at noon hour one day this week. "Have you heard the news?" he asked, with bated breath. Not since the day of Kitchener's death had we heard such tones. And then he stammered out the rumor that 1,600 women had been "bobbed" at Blank's last week.

It was a few minutes afterwards that we broke in with a gasp on a typical "bobbing" scene. It was then for the first time that we caught sight of the new excitement in these women's eyes.

Snick-Snick

Above even the buzzing of the electrical machine rose the "snick-snick" of the scissors. At intervals, women came through the brown-curtained doors of the compartments, the decisive mowing having been performed. Others, waiting impatiently in the wicker chairs, rose to take their turn. Always there were at least twenty waiting.

Only one woman was actually dramatic. She was crying. "She began to cry as soon as she had it off," the attendant explained. "When she saw herself in the glass she said that she looked awful. She said she was ruined, and she wished she had never had it done."

This, however, was an unusual scene. Only two or three similar cases could be recalled by the attendant.

63 Get Snappy Shingle

The manager of this establishment was a woman. She was a very pleasant sensible woman. She did not have her hair bobbed. She said that she thought bobbed hair looked all right for young girls, but that long hair seemed more dignified, in her opinion, for women of middle age.

One of the peculiar things that struck us, as we made the rounds of the beauty parlors on the trail of the epidemic, was that most of the women attendants, where women attendants were in charge, did not have bobbed hair.

An incident related by the woman in charge of one of these establishments in the down-town section of Yonge street probably explains this phenomenon. "One old lady came in about three weeks ago. 'Yes?' I asked. 'I want my hair bobbed,' she said. I was amazed. She told me before she left that she was 63 years old. Her hair was as white as snow. I wanted to smile, and it was all I could do to keep myself from doing it. But I succeeded, and I asked her whether there was any particular way she wanted to have it done. There certainly was. She went into the most minute details. 'I want the very latest cut, tight to the head, just like they do boys,' she said. 'I want it worn with a little point on the back of the neck, like a boy's; that's the latest, you know, in New York.'"

Absolute Crime

"Oh it was a crime," laughed the young lady attendant. "Absolutely. The way they ruin themselves!"

"Why?" innocently inquired mere man.

"Would you like your mother to come down here and get her hair bobbed?" replied the lady attendant, trying to make the thing personal as an answer to somewhat impersonal mirth. "I shouldn't recognize mine if she ever did that. Why, it doesn't give the youngsters a chance."

"Well, I got so sick looking at others having their hair bobbed that I put mine up," she added,

YOU CAN EAT ANYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOT HAVE HEARTBURN

In all cases of heartburn there is a crawling and burning pain in the stomach attended by a disturbed appetite, as when too much food is taken into the stomach it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, vomiting occurs, and what is thrown up is generally sour and bitter. When you are in this condition you will find that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will give you relief right away.

Mr. Joseph H. MacDonald, Christmas Island, N.S., writes:—"Two years ago I suffered all the time from heartburn. I took one vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have never been troubled since. It is very nice to be able to eat anything you like and not have heartburn any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

with a worldly tone of ennui. Just as no man is a hero to his valet, so very likely is no woman a heroine to her hairdresser, especially some who have joined the battalions of the bobbed.

Colossal Epidemic

Did we exaggerate things at the start? Not at all. The rumor that Blank passed on was a double-decker, as most rumors are, but the conservative total of bobbing given by the managers of the hairdressing parlors soon surpassed the 1,000 mark a week.

It is real, it is phenomenal, it is colossal, this epidemic of the bobbed.

Hear the hairdressers themselves:

"There is a regular epidemic at present. Women a great deal older than before are having it done."

"Since Christmas I never saw anything like it."

"We're simply dizzy with it." The poor man passed his hand over his forehead and a pair of fatigue-rimmed eyes.

The names of seven shops on Yonge street were given as the largest in the city. In these last week more than 1,600 women had their hair bobbed for the first time. It is principally since New Year's that the crusade has set in.

There is no better description of it, perhaps, than a crusade—the flair of the flapper. For in the eyes, particularly of the middle-aged converts, is a strange glitter, pride of the decisive step taken, dear delusion and simulation. Only behind an old maid's back, though, may bobbing be described as a confession of failure.

Rush Unabated

So the mad rush continues unabated. Some time, it would seem, it must stop from exhaustion of human material; but so far, in spite of statistics, such an end is not anticipated, at least in one big shop whose proprietor is pushing four new torsorial specialists from the Old Country. A cable has already notified him of the sailing of the first. Nine barbers, in the meantime, do their utmost against the onrushing hordes, like Gough's overwhelmed Fifth Army.

Flapper styles coming in again, perhaps, explains the giddy current. But there are many other explanations advanced to the dazed attendants. "Some women say they simply can't get a hat to go on," continued a frisk manager. "Some say they have so much hair they don't know what to do with it. Some say it's a nuisance; it makes their head ache. Others say their hair is falling out. They think that cutting it off will make it come in."

WHY DO PEOPLE LEAVE CANADA?

Written for the Daily News by Jean Haan in Pattullo Competition

Canada from east to west is making great preparations for her increasing immigration.

Canada with her great snow-capped mountains looking down on the golden fields of grain, in the east, and her winding rivers and chains of lakes with green islands in the west. What a beautiful country,—and still the ever-old yet ever-new question arises "Why do so many Canadians leave Canada each year?"

What's wrong with Canada? Thousands of Canadians are deserting their own native land to seek their fortune in the United States, a country already vast-

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY FOR INTERIOR ALASKA

Dr. Smith Going Into Colville River Basin to Fill in Blank on Map

NENANA, Alaska, April 14.—Through the bitter weather of late winter in the Arctic Circle and the peril of an unsettled, unknown region, a party of the United States Geological Survey, headed by Dr. Phillip S. Smith, is bound for the remote Colville river basin.

This is probably the most hazardous mission ever undertaken by this branch of the government service. The purpose is to fill in a big blank spot on the map of Alaska, containing 35,000 square miles of unexplored wilderness and also to determine by mineralogical tests the scope of an oil bearing structure known to exist between Point Barrow, on the Arctic coast and the Colville basin.

Barren Stretch

According to Gerald FitzGerald, topographical engineer with the party, the barren stretch is uninhabited except along the Arctic shores, where isolated bands of Eskimos eke out a living by beach-combing. The country is devoid of timber, but overlain by tundra moss save where streams cut the structure and reveal coal beds and oil seepages. It is a territory calculated to test the stamina of the most hardy explorer. FitzGerald has penetrated far enough in the direction to learn that game is apparently negligible, except for ptarmigan and an occasional colony of beaver and muskrat. Without timber, the party will be compelled to rely on exposed coal for fuel, and lacking that, on the meagre supply of gasoline and alcohol they can transport.

BINDERY GIRLS SAY $15.45 A WEEK LOWEST

Budget They Have Prepared Shows Girl Cannot Live on Less

TORONTO, April 14.—After a month of work, bindery girls of Local 28, International Brotherhood of Bindery Workers, who questioned the budget and the minimum wage of the Minimum Wage Board, and were determined to make investigations if need be, have completed their labors. The girls have decided that $15.45 is the minimum weekly wage on which a girl can maintain herself in frugal comfort. Board and lodging is fixed at $8.45, clothing at $3.36 and sundries at $3.64 a week. The minimum wage of the board is $12.50 and while there is some difference in board and lodging the major differences between the girls and the board are regard-

Pacific Gets Credit

One of the finest cakes we have ever eaten, was baked by Mrs. W. in Kitsilano and a generous cut sent down for a sample. It was of fine texture, rich, and had a kind of "melting" quality which is not easily forgotten. The icing was an idea we have never seen used—orange with a white icing over it. Mrs. W. is good enough to give Pacific Milk all the credit for the cake, but we know it took skill besides the best materials.

MARRIES HOUSEKEEPER ON ARRIVING CANADA

Norwegian Brings Lady with Him and Leaves for Prairie Man and Wife

HALIFAX, April 14.—Should an intending settler be asked to marry the lady he brings along with him to act as his housekeeper before he is allowed to pass the immigration officials and proceed to his destination?

That was the problem which might have arisen had Johan Egge, widower, who arrived in Halifax with his little eight-year-old daughter, raised any strenuous objection to marriage with Maria Magdalen Horn, which the immigrant chief is said to have insisted upon before the passage of the trio was "O Kayed." The little party are on their way from Norway to Bromhead, Sask., where Egge plans to take up land. The problem of his little daughter made a housekeeper necessary so he brought one along with him, having no doubt heard that women were not very plentiful in the Canadian west.

Both were quite agreeable to the plan of immediate marriage.

In the case of Louis Storhang and Maria Anda, also of Norway, who had been engaged for five years and were contemplating marriage on their arrival at Weldon, Sask., the officials also persuaded them that it would be advisable not to wait any longer, so they too were married without further delay.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ORGANIZING TENNIS

Propose to Use Skating Rink Site Cleared This Winter by Gyros as Venue

The local employees of the Canadian National Railways are planning the formation of a tennis club with the site cleared last winter by the Gyro Club for a skating rink proposed as the venue. A committee headed by A. R. Nichols is going further into the project and will report at an organizing meeting scheduled to take place this Saturday.

Sport Chat

The individual city billiard championship series is scheduled to come to a close this week with the final taking place on Friday and Saturday evenings. With the first and second rounds concluded, only the players who entered the series as favorites are now left. The first third round game takes place tonight between Sgt. Jebson and W. E. Hutchinson. These two players met in the last game of the Bulger & Cameron cup series and the latter won by a score of 200 to 179. On Wednesday evening, Col. McMordeie will play George McIlmoyle. Jebson or Hutchinson and McMordeie or McIlmoyle will meet in the 1000 point final now scheduled to be split up between Friday and Saturday evenings.

The athletic program for the 1924 Exhibition is now being tentatively drawn up by the sports and attractions committee of the Fair Board. While it is hoped to stage as complete a bill this year as has ever been given in the past, finances have to be taken into consideration in deciding on the scope of the undertaking and it will probably be some time yet before anything in the nature of definite announcements are forthcoming. The arrangements are in the hands of a strong committee headed by Ben Self so fans may rest assured that the very best possible will be offered them at the big fall celebration. Fair time has now become recognized as the occasion for the most important sporting meets of the season in Prince Rupert.
