CANADIAN POLITICAL SITUATION IS TENSE

RAMSAY MACDONALD SHEDS LITTLE LIGHT ON IMMEDIATE PLANS OF PARTY

With Arrival of Crerar and Dunning in Ottawa, Much Conjecture Arises

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Not since the days before the formation of the King cabinet has the political situation aroused so much interest and comment as it is doing today.

The arrival here tomorrow of Hon. T. A. Crerar and Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan will, it is expected, herald the opening of direct negotiations for a wider western representation in the cabinet.

The emphatic declaration at Winnipeg by Robert Forke, leader of the Progressives, that his party is going "to keep the banner flying" next session is regarded as precluding any possibility of a formal arrangement between Liberals and Progressives.

GOVERNOR OF QUEBEC NAMED

Hon. Narcisse Perodeau to Succeed Late Hon. L. P. Brodeur

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Hon. Narcisse Perodeau, L.L.D., member of the legislative council of Quebec since 1897, has been appointed lieutenant-governor of Quebec, succeeding the late Hon. Louis Philippe Brodeur who died during the week.

Mr. Perodeau is a notary of Montreal and is the director of several financial institutions in that city. He was born at St. Urs, Richelieu County, Quebec, in 1851, and was a graduate of McGill University. He became a professor of Laval University in 1897 and the same year was appointed member of the legislative council for Sorel. He was born into the executive council in 1910 as minister without portfolio. He is married and has three sons and one daughter. In politics he is a Liberal and in religion, a Roman Catholic.

PROGRESSIVE LEADER HEARD

Robert Forke Says His Party Will Continue United With No Compromise

WINNIPEG, Jan. 9.—Addressing a farmers' convention here, Robert Forke, leader of the Progressive Party in Parliament, said that, as far as he was concerned, the Progressives would continue their present united party in Parliament with no compromise on any principles of procedure.

This statement causes much speculation as to what the effect would be if Hon. T. A. Crerar, former leader of the Progressives, entered the cabinet.

WILL BE SHIPPED BACK TO ALASKA ON NEXT STEAMER

Dutée Roy Smith of Anchorage, who was picked up by the city police in the Royal Hotel on Sunday evening for acting strangely, appeared before Dr. H. S. Tremayne, Dominion government immigration agent, yesterday afternoon in custody of staff Sgt. Warrior, R.C.M.P. Smith arrived in the city aboard the Victoria on Sunday night and will be placed aboard that steamer on her return trip from the south.

MISUNDERSTANDING AS TO BOAT'S ARRIVAL

Canadian Transporter Due in Port This Afternoon Instead of Yesterday

Owing to the misreading of a wireless message from the vessel, there was general misunderstanding yesterday as to the time of arrival of the Canadian Transporter for docking here. Having been informed that the vessel was to arrive at Triple Island at noon yesterday, Capt. McGoskrie went out in the morning to pilot her in. She failed to turn up, however, and the captain returned to port last night to find that she was not due until noon today. Capt. McGoskrie went out again this morning to meet the steamer which is really due here late this afternoon.

FLORIDA DESPERADO WAS KILLED TODAY

Sheriff and Five Members of Gang Lose Lives in Fight

WEST PALM BEACH, Florida, Jan. 9.—The notorious Ashley Mobley, head of a gang of bank robbers and desperados, which made the Florida Everglades a rendezvous for years, was killed today by police posse. Sheriff Fred Baker and the five members of the gang were killed in the fight.

NEW MOTOR FUEL

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—Gas generated from charcoal is being used instead of gas generated from benzine on Berlin motorbuses. Experiments have been conducted for a year with charcoal-burners, and they have been found economical and otherwise successful.

CANADA'S DEBT

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Canada's debt on December 31, was $2,415,539,100, an increase of three billions over last year.

Captain Ernest A. Ingram and his bride, formerly Mrs. Enrico Garuso, accompanied by her daughter, Gloria Garuso, arrived in America recently to spend the Christmas holidays.

HOSPITAL DISCUSSED

Trades and Labor Council Against Reduction in Training Nurses' Pay

Delegate J. J. Gillis inquired at last night's meeting of the Trades and Labor Council as to the motives which had prompted the proposed reductions in the pay of nurses in training at the General Hospital. Messrs. Wiggins, Macdonald and Black all protested against any action that would reduce the standard of living of the hospital girls or that would make it more difficult for the daughters of working men to train for the nursing profession.

FRANCE HAS TIDAL WAVE

Damage to Shipping and Property Done by Phenomenon

BIARRITZ, France, Jan. 9.—A tidal wave here today tore a dozen fishing vessels from their moorings and wrecked them. The wave swept away the parapet of the promenade on the embankment. During the tempest, sand from the sea was washed hundreds of yards inland into the grounds of seashore home and shops. At Rouen the tide in the English Channel backed up in the Seine estuary and meeting the flooded stream sent the water over the rocks higher than the 1910 record. Shipping has been badly crippled and the river front buildings are flooded.

DE VALERA NOT TO FACE TRIAL

Release of Influential Republican Leaders is Not Contemplated, However

DUBLIN, Jan. 9.—It is stated in Republican circles in Dublin that the government has no intention of bringing De Valera to trial, and this decision is believed to apply to other prominent Republican leaders now in custody.

The release of the more influential of the leaders, however, is not at present contemplated. If they are to be held after February some parliamentary provision extending the temporary power to hold them will have to be made, and this may be done as part of the usual measure for continuing various acts which expire annually unless renewed.

President Coolidge Popular with Americans Because he is Plain, Unvarnished Man

By BEN DEACON, Canadian Press Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The other day William L. Ward, an iron manufacturer at Port Chester, finding that his men appeared to be almost solidly for Calvin Coolidge for President, asked a foreman what there was about Coolidge that he liked. This was the answer:
"He's a plain sort of guy, goes along without much noise, and besides, two or three years ago he lived in half a double house for which he paid $32.50 a month. He's like a lot of us."
That foreman disclosed what in all probability will prove Coolidge's greatest asset in the coming Presidential campaign; he is a "plain sort of guy," and has lived like a lot—like the great majority—of his fellow citizens.

MISS CALDERONE TO MARRY AT ANYOX

Will Become Bride of G. Ciconne of This City

Miss Vienna Calderone, who has been employed in the Canadian National freight office here for several years, left for Anyox last week to be married to G. Ciconne. Mr. Ciconne has a fruit business on Sixth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Ciconne intend to return to the city and will reside on Eighth Avenue East.

BRITISH IMMIGRANTS GIVEN PREFERENCE

Will get $15 Cheaper Fare to Canada Compared with Other Europeans

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—The ministry of immigration announces the making of arrangements whereby British immigrants will get special preference of $15 in fares from Europe as compared with other European nationalities.

NAME OF HULL TO BE CHANGED

Old English Port to be Officially Called Kingston-upon-Hull, It is Said

LONDON, January 9.—In order to prevent confusion with other ports of the same name throughout the world, it is considered likely that the ancient port of Hull on the East coast of England will change its name to Kingston-upon-Hull, by which name it is already known on some foreign registers.

Laborites in Britain Apparently Intend to Move Slowly in House

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Ramsay Macdonald, leader of the Labor Party, delivered a conservative and restrained speech on the opening day of parliament making no reference to any plans Labor might have in the event it were called on form a government. He stressed only a policy of appeasement in foreign affairs with special reference to renewed relations with Russia. He also suggested social reform in regard to employment and housing. None of the radical planks in the Labor platform were mentioned.

MONUMENT TO CAPTAIN COOK

Land Secured at Friendly Cove, Vancouver Island, for Purpose

VICTORIA, Jan. 9.—On behalf of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada, the Department of Indian Affairs has arranged a lease from the Indians of No. 1 reserve of land for a monument to be erected to Captain Cook and the British and Spanish seamen of the eighteenth century on a spot just west of the village of Friendly Cove on the west coast of Vancouver Island. There is already a monument on a small island off the village erected in 1903 by the Washington University Historical Society.

Local Men Were On The Job.

The two local citizens who voluntarily interviewed the Alberta grain commissioner at Vancouver on Monday and told him of the advantages of Prince Rupert as an elevator port as well as inviting him to come here to see for himself are to be congratulated on seeing the opportunity and taking advantage of it. Such is the spirit that gets things. If it were manifested a little more generally Prince Rupert would be brought more distinctly into the limelight and eventually would gain something tangible through it.

Many Admire Frank Statements.

While these little outbreaks of the Attorney General in telling people what he thinks of them without employing varnished language may be criticized by some persons, they at least indicate Mr. Manson's sincerity and show that he is tied to no one. Mr. Manson has narrowly escaped getting into hot water more than once when he assailed the dignity of benign organizations and individuals—first Hon. H. H. Stevens, then the Senate and now the Vancouver Ministerial Association—but, in the long run, the average person admires him for his frankness. Between Premier Oliver and the Attorney General there has been instilled lately a novel touch in provincial politics. Both have indicated more than once that their sincere opinions are not to be camouflaged in the usual cloak of tactful affability which is the popular savior for doubtful votes.

Way Clear To Improve Salt Lake.

Now that the provincial government has come into possession of the Salt Lake, that popular summer and winter resort may be more advantageously improved to make it suitable as the community recreation park. Arrangements will likely be made whereby the city obtains rights in return for which it will be expected to take a hand in making the betterments necessary. Some limited improvements have already been made but, up to now, the interests that have been responsible for them have at ways been at a disadvantage in not being assured of quiet enjoyment.

Vancouver Is Not The Only Port.

After going at length into an editorial discussion of port charges at Vancouver and administration of the harbor commission there, the Edmonton Bulletin concludes:

Fortunately Vancouver is not the only Pacific port accessible by rail from the prairies. Prince Rupert in the north and Portland in the south are equally accessible. More than half of our eastbound grain now reaches the seaboard through United States Atlantic ports. There is no reason why westbound grain from the more southerly section of the prairies should not reach the Pacific at Portland, if Vancouver is not going to play fair. Rupert is practically as near the northern section of the prairies as Vancouver and is quite as much entitled to the trade. Instead of urging a still further increase of the elevator accommodation at Vancouver it would seem to be the part of wisdom for the people of the prairies to urge elevator construction at Prince Rupert. The support that Vancouver has received from the prairies in the past has been given under the impression that Vancouver would play fair towards the trade that it was so anxious to get. The board of harbor commissioners have made plain that that is not their intention.

HEAD CHIEF IS DULY INSTALLED

Rufus Dudoward Vested With Office at Port Simpson Amid Much Ceremony

PORT SIMPSON, Jan. 9.—Ten years ago the head chief of this village, A. S. Dudoward, before his death, nominated his successor. The matter has lain in abeyance until last Monday when, Rufus Dudoward, nominee of the late chief was, at the request of the Kitandaw tribe, publicly installed in office by Rev. Dr. J. C. Spencer, the resident missionary. In his address previous to installation, Dr. Spencer gave an address stating that there must be a head officer in every business, village and city, that these men were under appointment of God which was given through the people and that any nuisance or abuse of power so conferred was disloyalty to God as well as to men. The names of some rulers were as a bad smell in the nostrils of the people while those of others were as perfume.

Qualifications of a chief, Dr. Spencer said, were that he should have a mind of his own; should make it known to the people; and he should be willing to reason and debate on all questions bearing on the welfare of his people.

The duties of a chief were to lead his people in everything that was good and helpful, to advise, and if need be, reprove what he knew would harm his people, to stand for the right on all questions affecting the well being of his people and set a good example for his people to follow.

Followed by Banquet

After the installation about three hundred people sat around well filled tables and partook of a three course meal well prepared and tastefully served, followed by dessert of fresh and preserved fruit. The dinner ended, a number of speeches were made, all assuring the newly-appointed chief of appreciation and co-operation.

While Rufus Dudoward was installed as head chief, his nephew, Clarence Watson, was installed in the office vacated by the now head chief.

The brass band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with choice selections.

In honor of the event some small donations were made by the Kitandaw tribe to the several institutions in the village.

There was general goodwill and everybody was happy.

FRANCE TO WITHDRAW FORTY THOUSAND MEN

PARIS, Jan. 9. — (Canadian Press)—Forty thousand men will be withdrawn from the French forces of occupation in the Ruhr and Rhine within the next few weeks, it was made known today. The French government, it was declared, had decided to keep in the occupied territories the minimum number of soldiers required to maintain the occupation. The men will be evacuated in four stages, some remaining at frontier garrisons in eastern France and others demobilized altogether in enforcement of the eighteen months' service law now becoming effective, under which ten divisions of the present army will disappear.

OBJECTS TO HEADLINE

Editor, Daily News.

Your headline "Vancouver Clergymen Lectured for failing to Aid Liquor Reforms" leaves a bad impression in many unbiased minds. Why try so hard to boost the stock of Attorney General Hanson? Why not say in your headline "Manson Withdraws Objectionable Phrase?" The Ministerial Association fought tooth and nail against Premier Oliver's government sale of liquor. When it passed they said "We will remain quiet and see how it works." It was a colossal failure under Mr. Farris' administration and it is a colossal failure under Mr. Manson's administration.

Mr. Manson tries to put the blame on the municipalities, the Senate and the Clergy. He passed the buck to the municipalities. They retaliated. He passed the buck to the Senate and even that sleepy body retaliated. He now passes the buck to the Clergy and that peaceable body of men resent it. Still your paper gives him a glorious headline.

I am a Liberal in politics but not Liberal enough to let this pass unchallenged. Why should the Ministerial Association help patch up a failure which they have opposed from its inception?

CHANCELLORS IN GERMANY

Many Men Have Tried to Keep Government Together During Five Years of Republic

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—There have been nine different chancellors during five years of troublous democratic regime in Germany while, in the 47 years which elapsed from the time Bismarck expanded Germany into an empire and became its first chancellor until the republic was declared, there were only eight chancellors.

Bismarck himself served 19 years before he fell out with the deposed emperor, who is now in Holland, and made way for General von Caprivi in 1890. Caprivi held office for four years and was succeeded by Prince Hohenlohe who retained office for six years. Prince Buelow then became chancellor for nine years. Von Bethmann-Hollweg took over the office in 1909 and left it eight years later.

After the Republic
Dr. Michaelis was chancellor from July until November, 1917. Count Hertling took over the office then, and held it till September, 1918. He was succeeded by Prince Max of Baden, who was in office only a few weeks. Friedrich Ebert, the present president of the Reich, became chancellor for two days, from November 9 to November 14, 1918. He marked the transition into the democratic period. After his two days of service a commission of six socialists: Ebert, Scheidemann and Landsberg of the majority party and Haase, Dittmann and Barth of the Independents, took over the government and there was no regular cabinet until February, 1919, when the national assembly met at Weimar and Philip Scheidemann became chancellor. He resigned the following June rather than sign the Versailles Treaty, and Gustav Bauer took over the office for about a year.

Hermann Mueller became chancellor in March, 1920, and remained in office three months.

Catholic Regime
Then Constantin Fehrenbach, of the Catholic party became chancellor and held the post for a year. Joseph Wirth, also of the Catholic party, came into office in May, 1921, and retired in November, 1922.

Dr. William Cuno took over the post of chancellor upon Wirth's retirement and held it till last August under the trying situation brought about by the occupation of the Ruhr by the French, and the efforts of the German government to defeat the French by passive resistance.

The catastrophic financial collapse and the decline of the mark to a point never before reached by any other great power's money forced Dr. Cuno's retirement, and Dr. Gustav Stresemann attempted to patch up what remained of the republic after the disastrous attempt to

As the roll unwinds, music works its magic. Gone are the cares of a work-a-day world. A dear old tune touches the chords of tender memory—brings back boyish dreams—stirs the fires of inspiration.

Whatever your mood as you sit down before the Gulbransen registering piano you find it sympathetic, responsive. For it is as ready to reflect the exuberance of youth in the latest and gayest of popular tunes as it is to free the majestic music imprisoned in the score of a composer's masterpiece.

We invite you to our store today and try the Gulbransen registering piano. A few moments will reveal the pleasures it offers. We will gladly explain the advantages of its many exclusive features.

KETCHIKAN MILL IS CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

Plant at Alaskan Centre Makes Record in Remaining Open Until Late Date

KETCHIKAN, Jan. 9.—The Ketchikan Spruce Mill is closed to make repairs for the coming season's work. The mill made a record in staying open until this time, and will remain closed for only two or three weeks.

It has been the custom in the past to close the mill for at least a month during the winter due to weather conditions, and in some cases because of lack of orders. Word from the north indicates that the mills up there were forced to close several weeks ago, due to unfavorable conditions of the weather.

The work of repairing is being pushed through, and it is hoped that the opening will take place as planned.

THIS LADY SAYS THERE'S NOTHING TO EQUAL

"Dr. Wood's" Norway Pine Syrup For Coughs and Colds

Mrs. David Thompson, West River St., Paris, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. For myself and children I use nothing else. My little girl, five years old, has had bronchial trouble ever since she had the 'flu' a few years ago, and now, whenever she gets a slight cold she develops a very nasty cough, but all I have to do is give her a few doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Also for myself, and the other children, can find nothing to equal it, in fact, it was only a short time ago that I gave it to my ten months old baby, and could immediately see the difference it made in her. Now, I always keep Norway Pine Syrup in the house, as I feel there is nothing to equal it." Price 25c a bottle; the large family size 60c; put up only by The T. McBurn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LLOYD'S TO HAVE NEW BUILDING IN LONDON

Leaving Offices in Royal Exchange Occupied for 150 Years

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Lloyd's are to have a new home. Nearly an acre of ground is being bought in the East India Avenue Estate in Leadenhall Street, and a large hall, with accompanying rooms and offices, is to be built thereon. It is believed that the demolition of the existing buildings in the East India Avenue Estate and the construction of the new Lloyd's can be carried out within a period of two or three years. Lloyd's have occupied their present premises at the Royal Exchange for exactly 150 years, and it is with the greatest regret that the committee have been driven to the conclusion that it is practically impossible for the institution to be continued at the present site. They have gone, in the words of the chairman, A. Lloyd Sturge, "right down to the bowels of the earth under the Royal Exchange and up on to the roof and built there on every available foot of space."

FUR ANIMALS EAT RABBITS

United States Biological Board Taking Interesting Steps in Alaska

WRANGLE, Alaska, Jan. 9.—The United States biological survey has started stocking islands in this vicinity with rabbits, in the hope that they will become established well enough to provide a continuous supply of food for carnivorous animals with valuable fur.

Two kinds of rabbits have been placed on the islands, the Snowshoe, from the vicinity of Anchorage, Alaska, and the Varying Hare, from the Puget Sound region in Washington. Ernest P. Walker, agent for the bureau, has issued an appeal to the people to protect the rabbits.

"Mrs. McMordie, Prince Rupert, Ireland, America."

"Mrs. McMordie, Prince Rupert, Ireland, America," is the address on the envelope of a letter from England which has just been safely delivered to Mrs. S. P. McMordie of this city. The letter contained a Christmas greeting card from an old lady in Folkestone, England, whose acquaintance Mrs. McMordie made while Col. McMordie was at war. The letter was delivered direct here but the envelope carried a hint from the London post office as follows: "Please advise your correspondent of your correct address."

PRINCESS' SON IS PLAIN COMMONER

The 1924 Debrett Calls Him Plain Mon. Henry Hubert Lascelles

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Ever since Princess Mary's son and heir came into the world last winter there has been much speculation as to whether he is a plain commoner or a prince of the Royal blood. But the speculation is ended and Great Britain now knows that the King's grandson is not a prince of the Royal blood, but simply the Hon. Henry Lascelles, or "Master Lascelles" for short.

This decisive information is conveyed by the 1924 Debrett, the unquestioned guide to the genealogy of Royalty and the aristocracy of the kingdom. The new issue says that a Royal warrant of December 11, 1917, debars young Lascelles from being a Royal prince. The warrant asserts that none but children of the sons of the Sovereign and "the eldest living son of the Prince of Wales shall have and hold the style, title and at-

During 1924, 31,474 Books Were Issued to Borrowers—1377 Members

MILLIONS and Movies

THROUGH the medium of slender strips of celluloid an actor appears simultaneously on thousands of screens in as many different towns. On the same evening, he entertains great armies of film fans who eagerly pay their money to see his performance.

So the movie star commands a king's ransom for a salary, and a fortune is spent profitably, to provide a proper background for his art. The movie multiplies personality—and earning power.

Advertising does the same thing for a merchant or manufacturer. In a single day it takes his message into thousands of homes—to tell folks why they should have his goods and how to get them. Advertising endows him with a thousand voices with which to tell his story.

But the value of advertising is by no means confined to the advertiser. It has a very definite value to you.

A glance through this paper enables you to sift out the things that interest you. Sitting in your easy chair you can compare values and prices. In a moment you can tell exactly where to go for what you want and how much to pay.

Figure how much useless walking and talking and how much actual money you can save by spending a few moments daily with the advertisements.

UNITED STATES TO QUELL PIRATES ON THE YANGTSE RIVER

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Orders suspending naval construction temporarily on the Pacific coast has disclosed that the government plans to build a flotilla of light boats solely for the purpose of combatting pirates on the Yangtse river in China. It was said that the Bethlehem plant here and the Todd plant at Tacoma will be able to bid on the vessels if congress grants an appropriation for their construction.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE POPULAR WITH AMERICANS BECAUSE HE IS PLAIN, UN-VARNISHED MAN.

tion, but his hat was not definitely in the ring until Dec. 9, when Frank W. Sterns, one of his close friends and political advisers, made the announcement of his candidacy. William M. Butler, Massachusetts member of the Republican national committee, is Coolidge's campaign manager. For several months Butler has been quietly operating in behalf of the President, laying plans to have delegates chosen from the various states. With Butler and Sterns in the foreground Coolidge will have a splendid organization, for in the background will be George Harvey, former U.S. Ambassador to Great Britain, a majority of the Republican senators and congressmen, and the bulk of the National Committee.

Front Porch Campaign
Coolidge will conduct a "front porch" campaign. There will be no tearing around the country on a presidential special train. There will be no rear-end talks every half hour while the delayed special knocks the railroad schedule askew. There will be no baby-kissing and but little handshaking. The Coolidge voice, while not at all melodious, is almost ideally adapted to the radio. This was discovered when he read his message to Congress.

BY NO MEANS ALLOW YOUR BOWELS TO GET CONSTIPATED

If you allow your bowels to become constipated you will have bilious attacks, sick headaches, coated tongue, foul breath, sallow complexion, specks floating before the eyes, whites of the eyes dull and yellow, heartburn, water brash, etc.

Keep your bowels regular by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, as by doing so you will be able to keep well and have no more trouble with your liver.

Mrs. I. Rubin, Halbrite, Sask., writes:—"I was very badly troubled with constipation, often had bad headaches, my tongue was coated, and I felt anything but well."

After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills I have felt much better as they certainly did me a lot of good."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The speech was broadcast and Coolidge's sharp twang crackled through the air and was caught in every part of the country without damage to a single receiving set. Therefore his managers are planning to use the radio extensively. Coolidge will stay at home when he makes most of his speeches and every radio fan who wants to tune in can listen.

The official opening of the Coolidge campaign was held back until after the President had read his message to Congress. Coolidge, it is reported, was personally responsible for this, having the conviction that the people would have an opportunity to read his views on the many controversial questions pending before being asked definitely to commit themselves to him for nomination.

That message was eagerly awaited, particularly so as it was felt that it would bear a weighty influence upon the 1924 campaign. When it finally came, it was just the type of thing to catch the public fancy. It was a plain, matter-of-fact statement of policy, without frills or political buncombe. Coolidge did not straddle on a single item. He left nothing out, and took a definite stand on everything.

The speech appeared to make a favorable impression. The consensus of press opinion was that the President had dealt with public problems in a sane and definite way, and that his pronouncements would strengthen him among the taxpayers of the country regardless of party. Leaders of the banking, industrial and commercial world united in declaring that the path to industrial prosperity had been opened by the President's proposals.

Conflict With Johnson

In declaring for participation in the World Court and in opposing a bonus for soldiers Coolidge came directly in conflict with Hiram Johnson, so far his only openly avowed opponent for the Republican nomination. Johnson counts upon opposition to the World Court, which he characterizes as parcel and parcel of the League of Nations, and support of the bonus as the issues that will win him votes in the primaries. Naturally his supporters hastened to make political capital out of the speech. Spokesmen for Johnson loudly denounced Coolidge as a "reactionary" whose policies were destined to win the support of the "interests."

Similar comment came from the camp of William Gibbs McAdoo the leading aspirant for the Presidential nomination on the Democratic side. McAdoo admitted that the Coolidge message contained good points, but all of its commendable features were first advocated by Democrats and were pinched by the President, he maintained. He also asserted that in some features of the address Coolidge proved himself to be on the side of the "trusts, monopolies and combinations," and completely out of sympathy with the "plain people."

But the "plain people," to judge by the many letters that have been printed by the newspapers and by the casual comment one hears on the streets, do not appear to be greatly disturbed by these interpretations of Coolidge's attitude. They seem to share the view of the Port Chester foreman. He is a "plain sort of guy," and "like a lot of us," they say.
