ANNUAL REPORT OF FEDERATION OF LABOR

HALIBUT COMMISSION CONCLUDES ITS OPENING SESSION AT SEATTLE

Pattullo Replies on Taxation Issue; Number of Subjects Discussed

Legislature Hears of Licensing Motor Vehicles; Horse Racing; and Sale of P.G.E. Railway

VICTORIA, Nov. 20.—Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, in resuming the budget debate yesterday criticized the remarks of J. W. Jones, member for South Okanagan, in asking for a reduction of taxes. He declared that the opposition had a fertile field to cultivate when he told the taxpayers they were carrying too heavy a burden, as nobody likes to pay taxes. Mr. Pattullo asserted that the present high tax rate was the result of the alienation of the natural resources of the province during the McBride regime. Settlement was established in all corners of the province thus causing the machinery of government to be very costly.

P.G.E. Sale

R. H. Pooley, member for Esquimalt and leader of the opposition, presented the opposition amendment to the Pacific Great Eastern Bill. This amendment called for the almost complete redrafting of the original resolution, the principal object of which was the curtailment of the powers of the government in connection with any proposed sale of the railway in favor of a decision on the sale by the Legislature.

Horse Racing

T. G. Covatry declared the measure limiting racing to six days each season on each track would be downright prohibition and would result in not one track being operated next year, if enacted. He hoped a reasonable compromise would be reached.

Motor Vehicles Act

A further change in the Motor Vehicles Act was forecasted by the Attorney General to provide for the issue of white licenses. On the first conviction of the driver his white tag would be withdrawn and a blue one issued. If there were no conviction for six months the driver could apply for a new white tag but if convicted within the six months he would get a red tag and a third conviction within six months would cause the suspension or cancellation of his license altogether.

The Tillamook will be brought here and overhauled at the dry dock prior to being put into the service.

The resolution is to be debated in which the Canadians take the affirmative is: "Resolved that the external affairs of Canada should be conducted by His Imperial Majesty upon the advice of his Canadian Ministers and that the obligations so incurred should be binding on and enforced by Canada alone."

STARVING MAN IS BROUGHT TO CITY

William Webb, an Englishman, aged 48, was brought in by the provincial police last night from North Pacific cannery suffering from starvation. Dr. H. E. Tremayne also made the trip with the police. Webb was found in one of the cannery shacks in an emaciated condition and, on arrival here, was admitted to the hospital. He is said to have become exhausted and crawled into the shack where he was found by the cannery watchman after he had had nothing to eat for 4 days.

SPIRIT OF PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT BUDGET

John Oliver is already preparing to cut down expenses as forecasted by Finance Minister McLean in recent speech.

Assizes Opened Yesterday When Mr. Justice Gregory Complimented City on Lightness of the Docket

In addressing the Grand Jury at the opening of the fall session of the Supreme Court assizes yesterday afternoon, Mr. Justice Gregory congratulated the city on the lightness of the docket coming before the court. Humorously he stated that he did not know if this was due to the two new church buildings he had noticed in course of erection. Seriously, he said that it was a good thing to keep the churches in a state of preservation. It indicated good feeling in a community that was trying to do the right thing. He mentioned the fine weather and apologized for having been unavoidably late.

FLYERS LOST GULF GEORGIA

NANAIMO, Nov. 20.—Two Seattle aviators, David and Edward Mooney, left here late yesterday afternoon presumably for Anacortes. No report was received of them since they left this place. Simpson, private secretary. Mr. Warren was anxious to keep this end of the line by daylight.

State intrusion, it added, "must inevitably lead to bureaucracy and breakdown."

URGES VALUE OF CHILDREN

J. C. Brady Makes Plea to Parent-Teachers For Increased Interest

Making a plea for better environment for the children of Prince Rupert, J. C. Brady, principal of the High School, addressed the Parent-Teachers' Association at some length last night and enthused the large gathering with the need of better home training, more co-operation between parents and teachers and improved moral and physical surroundings. He urged the value of education in the training of the child but also gave equal stress to the value of careful home training and a re-establishment of home life. Added to this should be the best possible environment, especially for the period between the time of school dismissal and the dinner hour, and for Saturdays. The boys and girls of today were the future citizens and were of more value to the city than elevators.

The Cape Spear returned to the scene of the wreck this morning in the hope of salvaging the engine.

Some of the fishermen who appeared before the commission told of the use of small hooks which take the fish before they are fully grown and suggested that this ought to be prohibited. The hearing here was completed but the commissioners will remain on Puget Sound for the remainder of the week. W. A. Found and John P. Babcock represented Canada. T. H. Johnson, manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., returned on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon after a business trip to the East. DAILY EDITION Thursday, Nov. 20, 1924.

Petty Restrictions Are Annoying.

The proposed restriction against the custom of carrying a passenger on the rear of a motor cycle seems to be one of those petty restrictions that might prove annoying. So far as we have heard there has been no unusual number of accidents resulting from the taking of a passenger on a motor cycle. The custom has been in force for years and it is said that those who ride that way get a great deal of exhilaration from it. Probably it is less dangerous than riding day after day in an unsanitary closed car.

There is a great tendency of late to interfere with personal liberty on these little things. On the larger issue that car drivers should be licensed, there can be little objection taken. There must be some check on the motor traffic which of late has increased to such an extent as to make it dangerous and most of the danger is from unrestrained drivers.

What Will Be Next Plan To Restrict.

Everyone knows that it is dangerous to hunt in the woods in this country, much more dangerous than to ride on the rear end of a motorcycle, yet there is no bill yet introduced to prohibit hunting. Even mountain climbing has its dangers, yet it is not yet prohibited. There are annually many accidents from swimming and canoeing, yet people are allowed to ride in canoes and to enjoy a swim. It will be seen from these few examples that there are plenty of opportunities yet for petty restrictions. If the craze is to be started, why not keep it up and make life as miserable as possible. Fat men should be prohibited from riding in cars at any time. It is dangerous to their health.

Sinking Fund For P.G.E. Debt.

Whatever else the provincial government may be, no one can deny that they are good financiers. They have pulled the province out of a financial slough and made its securities rank with almost any in the world. Now they propose to redeem the railway debt by providing a sinking fund. If subsequent governments will follow up the good work and keep the sinking funds intact, we shall see ourselves emerging from the financial incubus of the P.G.E. Financial concerns in particular will appreciate this action of the government. It will benefit the province because it will make provincial bonds much more readily saleable and they will command a better price than otherwise would be the case. It always pays to keep the credit of the country good, and that can be done only by keeping the finances of the country in good shape.

Where Are Prophecies Of Calamity Howlers.

There have been visiting lecturers and professed labor leaders visit this city within the past six or seven years who have predicted that the whole financial fabric of the world could last only a few years and that it was crumbling under its own weight and would collapse. Nothing has happened to bear out that prediction so far and there seems to be no likelihood of an immediate change. We are carrying on, using the same kind of money to buy the same kind of goods at somewhat similar prices except that the purchasing power of money was lessened as a result of the war financing. There is a general tendency toward a more stable condition rather than in the direction suggested.

Beware Of German Money Or Bonds.

Repeated warnings are being sent out to Canadians against the purchase of German money or bonds. Many of the bonds are absolutely worthless and the old German money is not worth the paper it is printed on. There are some bonds that are valuable and the new money has value but except for an expert, this German finance is not one to be played with. As one writer says it would be much better to bet money on a horse race where you could have some fun for your money than to buy bonds on which there is no possible chance of getting either return or amusement.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

HALF the people of Prince Rupert seem to be spending their time wondering how the other half get away with it.

PROSPECTIVE civic candidates are reminded that in the land of Popular Fancy there are numerous quicksands.

IF some people were not so ignorant they would not be married.

I EXPECT to hear the British Liberals asking for the passing of a proportional representation law in order to protect minority groups in that country.

WHERE does the wind all come from? There is no election on.

ONCE upon a time there was a severe storm at Prince Rupert, but that was a very long time ago.

DOWN in Montreal the old women keep their money in tip cans? Here people ride in them.

THE difficulty with this town is that there is no outside club here. If there were one, I know several people I should like to recommend for membership.

THIS bedtime story craze is being carried too far. Mother tells them to the kids before they retire and then her eldest son tells me to somebody else's kid just outside her front door.

HOTEL MAN PRAISES DRECO

Retired hotel proprietor finds Dreco a splendid aid to health. One bottle of it corrects digestive disorders that had bothered him for years.

"Dreco helped me after everything else failed," says Mr. M. J. Conlin, of 1138 Cardero Street, Vancouver, B.C. "It showed me the way to better health. For a long time I suffered from stomach trouble and my food would sour and form gas, which was very distressing. I was always tired out and my kidney's were weak, so that I often had sharp pains across my back. My liver was sluggish and constipation bothered me a great deal. I suffered in this way for years and had about given up hope of ever getting better.

"Today, thanks to Dreco, I feel like a new man. I have only taken Dreco for ten days and I feel 100 per cent better. My food digests properly and no longer sours or forms gas and I sleep soundly at night. My kidney's are stronger too, and the pains in my back have disappeared, while my liver is active again. Constipation is a thing of the past too, and I owe it all to Dreco, which has certainly made life worth-while for me once more."

Dreco is made from the pure juices of twelve medicinal herbs, roots, barks and leaves. It is a safe and reliable tonic and regulator and contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.

Dreco is being specially introduced in Prince Rupert by W. J. McCutcheon. It is also sold in Smithers by J. Mason Adams, and by a good druggist everywhere.

WHAT HE LACKED

The worried countenance of the bridegroom disturbed the best man. Tiptoing up the aisle, he whispered:

"No, I ain't lost no ring," blurted out the unhappy Erasmus, "dat's safe enough. But Joe, 's certainly last mah enthusiasm!"

LABOR AND INDUSTRY IS DISCUSSED IN REPORT OF FEDERATION AT EL PASO

right of wage earners to organize freely and to be represented by men of their own choosing, progress toward democratic practice still continues."

In consideration of national political effort to which the federation has committed itself, the report placed first the submission by congress to the states of the constitutional amendment empowering federal regulation of child labor, and notified its constituent membership of unions that it would still be "necessary to keep up educational work in the states for the purpose of changing the attitudes of legislators."

"It is one of the highest duties of men and women of our time to safeguard and protect the child life of our America," the report said, in concluding, its argument on the subject.

Anti-Trust Law

In defining the status of the judicial use of injunction in labor controversy, with which the federation has long concerned itself, the executive committee reviewed proceedings during the year which "raised the issue. It considered the advisability of constitutional amendment as well as federal legislation to support the position labor organizations have taken in challenging the use of such power. It included some criticism of the Sherman anti-trust law, on the ground that this status had been "applied to outlaw the rightful and just collective actions of wage earners through their trade unions."

"The development of legislation to provide for the fundamental economic needs of workers and industry should come not from one of the groups concerned, but should be the recommendation of all elements affected," it was said on this point. "Labor would welcome an opportunity to participate in such constructive work."

Labor Banks

As a result of recent labor union policy, the report proceeded, there are now 23 banks in existence which are owned by their members, with resources estimated at $60,000,000." Their work was praised, but a warning was issued to extension and increase was coupled up with the resume.

"Labor in this new field has not passed the complete period of experimentation," the report said. "Upon those in whose care the continued successful administration of these banking ventures depends, there rests a great and grave responsibility, to maintain the integrity of labor's ability and competence. Handling other people's money is a sacred and public obligation."

Labor Life Insurance

Proposals for a general labor life insurance company have been put before the federation, and the executive committee presented without comment the findings of a special investigation made into the subject by its own members.

"We have been convinced, and fully persuaded that it is, not only advisable and safe but almost the duty of unions jointly to adopt some form of proper insurance," the investigating committee declared. "However we are opposed to having the American Federation of Labor as such actually engage in the insurance business."

The federation had supported all proposals during the year to abolish or limit the functions of the railroad labor board of the federal government, the general report continued. It described the fight in Congress to pass the Howell-Barkley bill which the unions endorsed for this purpose.

"It is the intent and purpose of all the forces of organized labor and of all friends desirous of maintaining the freedom of the workers," it was declared, "to carry on this fight insistently and vigorously."

Education

The labor federation is committed to the project of carrying on educational establishments for adult workers, it was said, as well as to the preceding program of supporting public schools for the nation's youth. "Comprehensive plans and substantial accomplishment" had been made during the year, it was declared, and the movement has been taken up internationally. Many unions were declared to have enlisted in extending the opportunities to adults for increasing education, and the indications showed that "American labor is fundamentally interested in cultural opportunities."

A continuation of the policy of linking farm organizations to unions in state and national movements was urged, and progress was said to have been made in bettering such relationships as have been established. A supplement to the report, upon the actual political record of the year, and the presidential campaign, was promised later.

A series of reports from state and craft union bodies, and from committees assigned to special work was included with the main document. These discussed the proposals put before state legislatures, jurisdictional agreements between trades unions, and other aspects of the federation's work and the work of its allied bodies.

MACDONALD CASE IS ON

True Bills Brought in at Assizes This Morning in Two Criminal Cases

True bills in the cases of Rex vs. Jack Macdonald and Rex vs. George Bremer and Fred Bremer in connection with the assault of Provincial Constable Arthur Collins at Ocean Falls on August 20 last were returned by the Grand Jury at the Supreme Court Assizes this morning before Mr. Justice Gregory. Macdonald's case was then proceeded with. He pleaded not guilty and a petit jury, as follows was empanelled after many stand asides and challenges: William Gilchrist (foreman), James A. Brown, Samuel Wood, O. T. Sundal, H. F. Glassey, C. G. Minns, W. Longwill, W. G. Oakley, Joseph Lindsay, H. F. Westmouth, J. McKechnie and H. A. Breen.

H. Castillon, counsel for the defence, challenged S. Darton, G. C. Walker, T. W. Silversides, Mrs. Martha Leek, H. Letourneau, George H. Arnold, John Bulger, G. W. Nickerson, W. O. Viger, Steve King.

At the instance of E. F. Jones, crown prosecutor, E. H. Shockeye, Fred Scadden, F. Aldridge, C. K. Yreberg and F. W. Wesch were stood aside.

Several of those summoned for petit jury service being ill, an order was made by Mr. Justice Gregory for more to be summoned for the case to follow.

Review of Case

After E. F. Jones briefly reviewed the case for the crown stating that simple evidence would be submitted which would not require much deliberation to convince the jury that the charges against Macdonald were well founded, the first witness called was Constable Collins. He was on the stand for nearly two hours, the most of this time being taken up with a lengthy and detailed cross-examination by Mr. Castillon who sought to shake the testimony of the witness and establish that he himself might have been under the influence of liquor at the time in question. This was stoutly denied by Collins, however, who asserted that he had had only one drink during the day. Mr. Castillon's examination evoked many tart remarks from Mr. Justice Gregory who was good humoredly sarcastic.

The second witness, Dr. Mustard of Ocean Falls, told of the wounds he had found on Collins and expressed the opinion that he was perfectly sober and had not been under the influence of liquor.

The third witness, Sam Zirlich corroborated Constable Collins' evidence.

POPULATION IS PRIME NEED OF THIS COUNTRY

Sir Henry Thornton told an audience at Boston that Canada's sole problem was that of population. If we had 25,000,000 people, he said, the serious difficulties which we now have to face would disappear. This cannot be insisted upon too strongly. Prior to the war we built railways and expanded our national plant in other ways in anticipation of a continuance of the growth in the number of our citizens which was then being made. It came to a sudden stop and we have suffered as a consequence. The prime duty of our governments is now to promote immigration on a large scale and they are failing in their duty when they neglect to take adequate measures with this object in view. At no stage in its history has a country had more to offer to those seeking new locations and there has been altogether too long a delay in the adoption of effective immigration policies.—Edmonton Journal.

GREAT EVENT IS CELEBRATED. Religious Services, Dance and Banquet at Anyox. ANYOX, Nov. 20.—The sixth anniversary of the Armistice was very generally observed in Anyox. On Sunday evening there was a joint service conducted by the Anglican and Union churches, the speakers being Rev. J. B. Gibson and Rev. J. Herdman. Mrs. R. Lambert was the soloist and St. T. Brown recited in "Flanders Field" a collection, was taken on behalf of St. Dunstan's school for the blind. On Monday night a dance was given in Recreation Hall and the returned men went into the front box as entertainers and proved all they were as good at that sort of thing as they were in the front line fighting overseas. A capacity crowd was present, and many expressions of approval were heard in connection with the decorations. The boys reviewed their memories of war days by erecting canopies and bunting, adorning the sand bags with mementoes of Fritz in the shape of bayonets, grenades, tin hats and the like, while shields emblazoned with the names of the fallen places on the western front, stood out from the walls, hanging from ribbons of red, white and blue crepe paper. Over the entrance to the dancing floor, the eagle of Uncle Sam spread its wings, clutching in its claws a shield on which was lettered Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel. The whole represented a bit of hard work, but the success of the night undoubtedly outweighed the trouble necessary to put the affair "over the top," and the different committees have the satisfaction of knowing how well their efforts were appreciated. Arthur Sinclair, as chairman of the dance committee, had Rev. J. Herdman and R. Cornish as his able lieutenants in the matter of decorations, etc., while J. Thompson was in charge of the supper; R. O. Fricker, of the poppy sale; P. Harris and J. Wilson, of advertising and tickets. The shields and other decorative work were done by H. Dargy, H. A. Berry and A. B. Morkill were masters of ceremonies. The committees were also fortunate in having the services of Mrs. W. F. Eve, who assisted in a number of ways. Others who gave their services in connection with the dance were Messrs. Mahon, Ryan, Hutchings, Smith, Tolhurst, Sparling, Thorley, Maheff, Cleal and Lahill. Annual Banquet. On Tuesday night, the Annual Armistice Day banquet was held in the Mine Hall, and which was attended by some hundred and fifty returned men, the guests of the evening being the nursing sisters of Granby Bay hospital staff who had been overseas. Chas. Wing, Dr. Whalen, Dr. Kinsman and F. M. Kelley. Everybody had a great time. Anyox Band starting proceedings while the diners were being seated. The dinner was supplied by the Mine Mess, and full justice was done to it. There was a toast list and a program. The chairman, Dr. Briscoe, proposed the King, which was accomplished in time-honored fashion; Dr. Kinsman, Fallen Comrades and Mr. Wing, the Returned Men. Items on the program were songs by Ed. Blundell, J. Mitchell, T. Kirkwood; recitation, Geo. Warwick, and comedy stunts by V. Grukshank and G. Greenwell. The evening was featured by the singing of war songs, the words and choruses of which were projected on a screen by Rev. J. Herdman. The committees for this banquet were, Ed. Blundell, banquet, assisted by Messrs. Harris and Jones; program, R. Cornish; transportation, W. Pearce. In addition to the dance and banquet, poppies were sold at the Beach by Mrs. W. E. Eve and at the Mine by Mrs. R. Harris. Receipts for the dance, banquet and poppy sale totalled over $600.00.

DEMPSEY MAY GO TO ENGLAND

No Fighters There Who Have Chance of Winning in go With Champion

Grotto and Gallies, cellar teams in the Billiard League, are scheduled to meet tonight. With clean sweeps all the rage in this particular league this winter, both teams meeting tonight are hoping by that route to put themselves in a more enviable position on the standing sheet. There have been so many surprises in intermediate billiards so far that the fans will not be shocked at anything that might happen.

The Ladies' League basketball players are certainly showing the Seniors and Intermediates the way as far as putting up tight games is concerned. Nothing could have been more interesting than the two games so far played between the Maple Leafs and Gil's and the girls promise to be the big drawing cards of the season. Their play in these two games has been splendid, especially considering the early stage of the season and it should improve with further practice.

The question of whether or not golf is beneficial in the matter of getting in training for other sports has again come up in baseball and Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, has announced that he will carefully supervise the indulgence of his players in this line when they arrive for their spring training at St. Petersburg, Florida. When asked what he thought of golf as a training stunt for baseball players, Huggins said that golf in moderation did no harm to the younger players but it did more harm than good to the older ones whose muscles and sinews are "set."

LONDON, Nov. 20—Jack Dempsey has let it be noised about that he wouldn't mind coming over to England to take a punch or two at some of the British heavyweights. All of which has caused the sophisticated sportsmen of this land to smile, and the unsophisticated to foresee even darker days ahead for British prestige in the boxing business.

There isn't a boxer in all of Britain who gives any promise of standing up against Dempsey for even a few rounds, unless the champion had a mind to be playful. And the British know this, in fact they poked just as much of their quiet fun at their boxing predicament as do the more roisterous humorists overseas.

Possibilities After all, who might be matched with Dempsey in a London ring? There is Frank Goddard, the champion, who got his title on a foul. And just the other day he crossed the Channel to do a little lighting in the Basque country with a man named Paolini. Nobody in the boxing game in Britain except Goddard had ever heard of Paolini, for his main business in life had previously been chopping down trees. He gave Goddard a sound thrashing. Then there is a Joe Beckett who has a long record of sockknocks registered against him. Not long ago Beckett retired, married, and settled down to a quiet life of watching the goats come and go at Southampton. He sent a little piece to the papers the other day saying he would like to try a "come-back." Nobody else, seemingly, cares to see him try, and he has had no encouragement.

ONTARIO RABBITS STALL MOTOR CARS

Picks His Way Among Shoppers in City Streets
MIRA, Ont., Nov. 20.—A year ago Elmira startled the world by statements that the cotton-tail rabbits were so thick in this district that they were stalling the motorcars on the country roads and blinding the drivers with clouds of dust thrown up as they rampered along in herds. Apparently they have not diminished this fall.
The other day a big fellow did a funny hug down Arthur St., along the asphalt road with no concern whatever for busy shoppers.

This story is vouched for by one of the Elmira ministers, but a local merchant goes him one better and declares that a big and hungry cotton-tail bearded him in the lane beside his home and actually chased him to his store. The effects of the hops of these rabbits on the home brew problem is being hotly debated.

INTERFERENCE ON RADIO SETS

Local Fans When Receiving Radiate Squeals to Those of Neighbors

The local interference question is becoming acute, terrifically so. Indeed, such a stage has been reached right in this city that it is not possible to receive for ten minutes at one time without the exasperating interference caused by the radiation of local receivers. This is said without the slightest exaggeration in any way. Radio receiving is being dangerously menaced by an overwhelming force which, unprevented, may kill and blot out this very interesting sport in Prince Rupert for good. Instead of sitting down to enjoy the thrills of an excellent concert hundreds of miles away, one is forced to sit for hours on end in the hope of really hearing something good, and listen to such a riot of ear-splitting squeals and groans that in the end it becomes provoking, disgusting and even maddening. The most disagreeable part of it is that most of this interference is absolutely preventable, were the interfering receiver operated correctly. Evidently they are not, in spite of many fruitless attempts, here and elsewhere, to call listeners-in to control their sets as they should. There is a courtesy on the air the same as there is anywhere else, but it seems to be absolutely disregarded here by most radio fans. Remember that the air is a vast theatre and improper actions in a theatre would be similar to those on the air.

Two Types

The two types of receivers that seem to be causing a great deal of the interference in town are the single circuit and the Flewelling. The latter type have been positively outlawed in all of the larger cities and it is peculiar that Rupert radio fans are allowing this type of interference to continue. This Flewelling is doubtless an excellent receiver, but it should be operated miles from any other receiving set. The single circuit receiver is, on the other hand, an excellent receiver if operated as it should be. If not, however, it becomes nearly as bad an interferer as the above mentioned Flewelling. Moreover, it is the source of much trouble here in Prince Rupert. Obviously one of two things is at fault. Either the persons owning these sets are ignorant as to how they should be controlled, or else the interference is intentional, malicious, designed to destroy the entertainment for others. It is hard to credit the latter to be the case; therefore the former must be the cause, that of lack of sufficient knowledge.

Fans Should Learn

Now this is not a difficult point to get around, since it only requires the reading of a few points in any of the radio magazines. How to operate single circuits and how to prevent them from radiating unnecessarily has ever been and still is the continual subject of every radio periodical today. The search then is not long for a person desiring information along this line. Any experienced radio fan will be only too glad to answer any questions the novice will have to put, provided of course it is put in the right manner. Every radio owner should know his set, know the fundamentals on which it functions, and know when it is or is not radiating. Failure here is the cause not only for poor results on the part of the owner, but of poor results on the part of the whole neighborhood on account of the interference produced.

Take Effective Action

Something has to be done, and to be done quickly if radio is to enjoy popularity here, as elsewhere. The fans, amateurs, and dealers should interest themselves wholeheartedly in this matter and take some effective action immediately, not only as a benefit to themselves but to the whole radio fraternity. Now is the time to strike while the iron is hot! It has been done elsewhere, why not here?

THOUGHT STATIC WAS PEOPLE GOSSIPING ALL OVER THE WORLD

VIENNA, Nov. 20.—The establishment of a regular service of radio concerts and entertainments by the post office department has resulted in provoking the first case of radio insanity on record here.

A 46-year-old laborer, lithographer by trade, went to the police the other day to complain that the whole world was talking about him. He said he was connected with a radio receiver and could distinctly hear people in every part of the world gossiping about him. His pitiful plea ended in an urgent request to disconnect him from the radio.
It developed that the radio had gone to his head, and he was placed in an insane asylum for observation.

Football Fans

College football fans who tune in on KGO Saturday evening, November 22, will hear the familiar voices of seven "old-timer" football players and coaches in various phases of the big game between the University of California and Stanford University teams, played at the California Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Walt Christie, veteran track coach of the University of California, will introduce each speaker before the microphone. Here are the old-timers who will be heard: Walter Christie, Paul M. Downing, "Greek" Howard, "Billy" Harrleston, Ollie Snedigar, Percy Hall and "Slip" Madigan.

A program of unusual interest will be offered KGO radio listeners Thursday evening, November 20, by the Roos Brothers organization of San Francisco. The feature musical novelty of the evening will be a radio quartet rehearsal conducted by Carl Anderson. N. L. Bourgeault, of Roos Bros., will give some interesting sidelights on "Fitting the Heads of the Family."

In the Letter Box

GOLD AT MASSETT
Editor Daily News,
Prince Rupert, B.C.
Under the heading "Masset Gold" in your issue of November 7, there is a letter over the signature of Richard Evans, may I congratulate Mr. Evans on putting his name to it but why did he not do so when he sent an unsigned communication to your paper on a former occasion.
Do you recall Sir, a statement printed in your paper a few months ago that the first consignment of gold had arrived under armed guard and had been shipped out of Massett, I cannot find my copy of that issue and therefore cannot quote date or exact words. You will be surprised to hear that the writer of the letter dated Nov 6 claims to be the inventor of that astounding statement and now he says less than an ounce of gold was recovered from 60 to 100 tons. A little sum for a mathematical expert: How many tons of sand would have to be concentrated to require the services of an armed guard at 75 tons to the oz.

The above extraordinary untruth which might have done such incalculable harm only for the fact that the statement was too apparently either a poor attempt to temporarily raise the value of some claim or the act of a humorless humorist, was one of the many reasons for the formation of our Association. The same of a similar brain might formulate a less crude but equally untrue story of Graham Island gold which might be believed and cause a great deal of harm to what we hope is going to be a sound industry in this neighborhood.

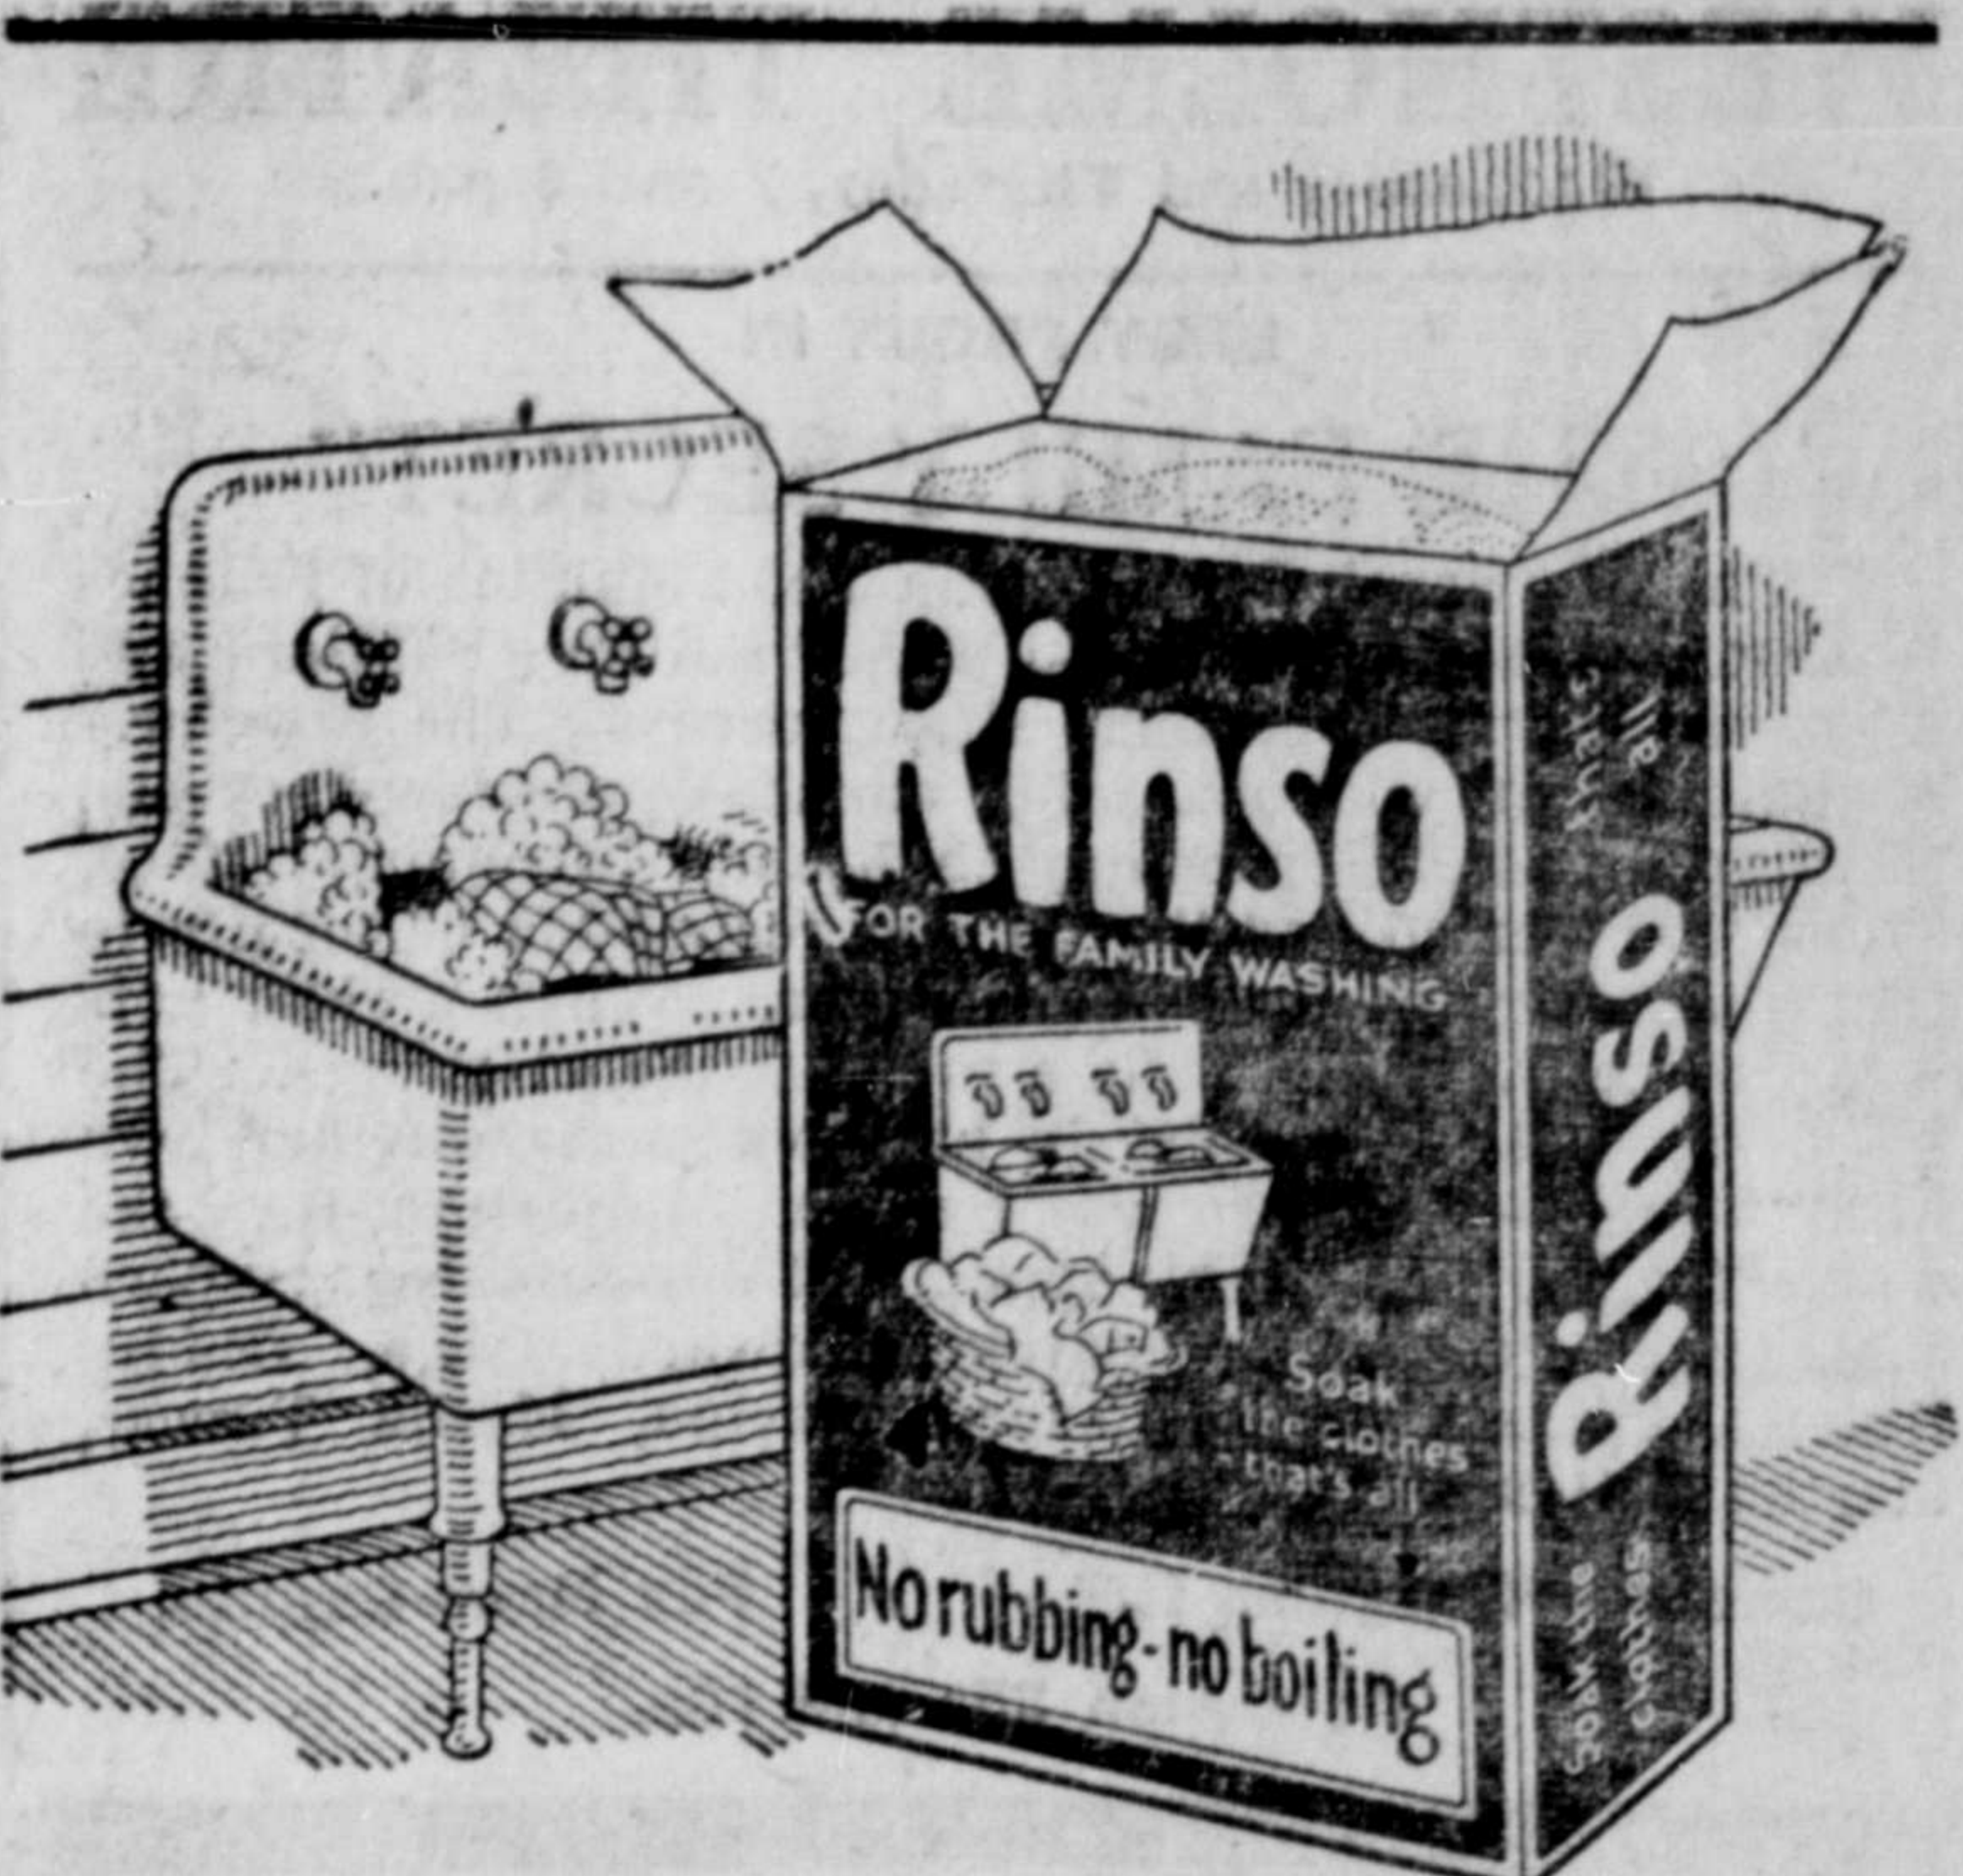

The letter of Nov. 6, from a writer with such a record for inaccuracies cuts no ice and can do no harm.
J. CECIL S. DUNN,
Sec. Graham Island Miners' Association.

Soaking takes the place of rubbing—

JUST by soaking the clothes in the suds of this new soap, dirt is gently loosened and dissolved.

Even the dirt that is ground in at neckbands and cuff-edges yields to a light rubbing with dry Rinso. Not a thread is weakened. The mild Rinso suds work thoroughly through and through the clothes without injury to a single fabric.

Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. For the family wash it is as wonderful as Lux is for fine things.

All grocers and department stores sell Rinso.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 231.

BUSY WINTER LOOKED FOR IN CALIFORNIA

C. E. Bainter, Formerly of This City, is Visitor for a Few Days on Private Business

Falling off of the boom in California and a marked reduction in building activities caused quiet business conditions in that state during the summer but a large tourist trade it is expected will make things lively again this winter, states C. E. Bainter, former insurance man of Prince Rupert, who arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Long Beach where he has been located for the past several years. Mr. Bainter asserts that the many former Prince Rupert citizens now located in California continue to do well.

Accompanied by Jess Croft of Idaho, Mr. Bainter arrived from the south on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon. They left today on the gasboat Point May, Charles Wallace, for a trip down the coast and expect to be back on Saturday. They will return south on Tuesday night. Mr. Bainter is here on private business.

WANT MILK TRAIN HERE SATURDAY

Parent-Teachers Endorse Request to Have Train Arrive Saturdays

The Parent-Teachers' Association last night at their regular meeting endorsed a request which is being made to the railway company asking that the time freight which now arrives here on Sunday should be changed to Saturday to enable fresh milk to be brought into the city on that day.

It seems that at present the time freight and the passenger train arrive on the same day with the result that no fresh milk arrives from Thursday to Sunday. With a Saturday train there would be fresh milk all the time and this would be of great benefit to children.
