IMPERIAL MATTERS ARE TO BE DISCUSSED

SIR HENRY THORNTON TO BE GUEST OF BOARD OF TRADE AT DINNER

Greater Share in All Empire Policies for Dominions in Future

OTTAWA, July 30.—Canada's representation at the forthcoming round table conference of the Empire in London mentioned by Colonial Secretary Thomas yesterday as necessary, will be discussed at meetings of the cabinet in the forthcoming week. Advice received here indicates that the conference will not be a formal imperial conference but rather a frank round table talk on better methods of securing Dominion representation in international conferences; improvement in communication of information between the governments within the empire and in regard to continuous consultation in the formulating of policies affecting the Empire as a whole.

KASHMIR SCENE BLOODY RIOTS

Conflict With Troops Following
Dissemination of Leaflets
Among People

CALCUTTA, July 30.—Seven rioters were killed and forty wounded in a conflict between a mob and a small force of state cavalry in the state of Kashmir. News of trouble seldom comes from that part of the country. Printed leaflets, without any signature attached to indicate their origin, are being circulated announcing that the Bengal revolutionary council passed a resolution deciding to begin ruthless assassination of police officers.

GUN CHANGES NOT ALLOWED

Action by United States or Japan
Would be Breach of Washington Treaty

LONDON, July 30.—The British government has made representation to the governments of the United States and Japan that alteration of elevations of the guns on capital war vessels or expenditures for the purpose of increasing the radius of action of these guns would be, in the opinion of the British government, a breach of the Washington convention. This declaration was made in the House of Commons by Arthur Ponsonby, under secretary of state for foreign affairs.

While proceeding to the halibut banks about ten days ago, the Canadian halibut schooner Margalice, Capt. Jack Christiansen, bumped a rock in Skidegate Channel. Temporary repairs were made and the vessel continued her trip, returning to port this morning with a catch of 7,500 pounds which was sold to the Atlin Fisheries. After unloading, the Margalice will go into the Canadian National dry dock where a new false keel will be installed as well as new planks in the hull and other minor repairs.

U. S. FLYERS REACH ORKNEYS

KIRKWALL, ORKNEY ISLANDS, July 30.—The American round the world aviators on their homeward lap, arrived from Brough, England, at 4.10 o'clock this afternoon. Weather conditions today were ideal and, if they remain favorable, it is likely the flyers will hop off tomorrow or Friday for Iceland, via the Faroe Islands.

REPRESENTATION OF DOMINIONS

Whole Matter To Be Reviewed In Conference To Be Held This Autumn.

System Unsatisfactory.

LONDON, July 30.—Colonial Secretary Thomas announced in the House of Commons that the British Government has determined to alter the entire system of Dominion representation. He said the system of Dominion representation at the inter-allied conference was unsatisfactory. The Government had decided to invite the Dominions to send representatives to a conference which will examine the entire situation with a view to avoiding difficulties hitherto encountered. It is hoped that the conference will be held in October.

The announcement of the conference follows a disagreement between the British and Canadian Governments in regard to the matter of representation at the London conference which is now sitting, in connection with the Dawes report for settlement of the German reparations and other matters.

POSSIBILITIES OF ISLANDS

George Bryant Says Things Look
Prosperous And Will Benefit
City.

Though Massett Inlet is capable of producing splendid vegetables and peas, carrots, etc., that are grown there are remarkable in their size and quality, the future of that district will lie in the development of the fisheries, minerals and timber industry, thinks G. A. Bryant who returned this afternoon on the Prince John from his first trip to the Islands.

While the Massett Timber Co.'s mill at Buckley Bay is closing down and there are no signs yet of activity at the Port Clements plant, Mr. Bryant says that there is quite a good deal of stir at the Islands and things look prosperous. The gold smelting project seems to be a going proposition and the canning industry is going strong. The Anderson pole camp near Port Clements is employing a number of men.

Mr. Bryant is of the opinion that the large stand of pulpwood on the Islands will eventually come under development there. All development on the Islands will be of direct benefit to the city of Prince Rupert, Mr. Bryant declares.

Sir Henry Thornton Makes a New Suggestion in Regard to Keeping Railway Non-Political

VANCOUVER, July 30.—Speaking at a luncheon of the Canadian Club and Board of Trade, Sir Henry Thornton, head of the Canadian National Railway system, declared it a comparatively easy matter to keep politics out of the purchasing and other departments of the railway but it was most difficult to meet unfair criticism made for political prestige.

"The time should come," said Sir Henry, "when all political parties should feel they have a direct interest in the railway of the people. The railways belong to way to keep the railway from being used in politics is to give proper representation to all political parties with men of outstanding business ability representing each political group."

AIR FORCE CLUB TO MAKE MACLAREN HONORARY MEMBER

VANCOUVER, July 30.—Members of the Air Force Club of British Columbia at a meeting last night decided to make Stuart MacLaren, the British round the world flyer, an honorary member of the club, when he arrives at Prince Rupert.

POLICE ARE BUSY ON SKEENA RIVER

Three Cases Tried at Port Essington Yesterday and More
Coming up Friday

Dominion and provincial police have been busy around the Skeena River canneries lately.

Yesterday at Port Essington William Smart, Indian, was assessed $65 and costs by Justices of the Peace G. W. Taylor and Dr. Sager for having liquor in his possession and resisting arrest. P. Anderson, a white man, was fined $15 for being drunk on an Indian reserve, and Matthew Wesley, Indian, was fined $15 for intoxication. The arrests were made by Dominion Constable Watkinson and Provincial Constables Crate and Gibson. Several more cases of drunkenness and supplying will be tried at Port Essington on Friday.

Intrepid Newspaperman Made Voyage from Seattle with Wife, Baby and Goat in Open Boat

Cruising up the Pacific coast from Puget Sound to Alaska by gas boat is becoming quite a common thing but possibly the most novel and adventurous method of doing it yet recorded is being employed by E. Pentz, an American newspaperman, who was here yesterday.

Mr. Pentz, who is making the trip from Seattle to Skagway in a 16 foot open boat powered with a 3 horse-power Elko outboard motor, is accompanied by his wife and eight month old baby. Aboard the boat there is also a goat to provide milk for the baby. When Mr. Pentz left Seattle, he had a dog and cat as well but these were lost coming up the coast.

The boat, which is named the Ark, has a speed of about six miles an hour and to increase this speed a sail is used when the weather is suitable. Having left Seattle on June 2, landings have been made at various suitable points and ten days were spent at Alert Bay after a strenuous passage through Johnston Straits, where the boat almost came to grief in a tide rip. A suitable tide having been taken advantage of, there was no difficulty in getting through Seymour Narrows and Queen Charlotte Sound was also navigated safely though there were some large swells for such a small boat. Yesterday, Mr. Pentz ran in from Klew Nugget in Grenville Channel, and after coming into port for gasoline, proceeded to the Wearmouth camp at Lakanian Island in Metlakatla Passage, where the night was spent. Early this morning the Ark left for Dundas Island and the run to Ketchikan it is expected will be made in three days.

Mr. Pentz expects to remain in Alaska, and, after reaching Skagway, will look for a job. He is writing articles for the Seattle Star, describing his novel cruise up the coast.

SIR HENRY GUEST HERE AT DINNER

Will be Entertained at Dinner
Here by Board of Trade

After leaving here Sir Henry will stop off at Hazelton where he will be driven out to see the surrounding country. It is possible that other stops may be made along the line of railway. He will also visit the Peace River country.

GOLD WASHING PROCEEDING

Reports From the Islands Indicate That Success is Being Attained in Operations

Reports from Massett by the steamer Prince John today confirm the story of gold having been brought in from the east coast where gold washing is going on with considerable success. Much of the country is now staked and it is thought the present operations are likely to prove successful.

It is said by those in a position to know that a good margin of profit can be secured if the sands are properly treated but that there will be no big money to be obtained. Rather it is suggested that a steady industry is likely to be established in connection with the work at Massett.

Lawns, Gardens And Window Boxes.

Those who keep up nice lawns, gardens or window boxes deserve the thanks of the community. They are public benefactors in that they improve the appearance of the whole town. Nothing looks so well as a lawn mown once or twice a week, a garden of flowers or boxes of flowers in apartments or houses where other gardens are not possible.

This is the time of year when most gardens look their best, so it is the time when our attention is drawn to them. Also it is nearly time to plan new ones for next year.

Need Of Developing Islands Off Shore.

There is great need of developing the islands of the coast in this neighborhood. Many proposals have been made at different times and people have talked of embarking on industries there, but it seems to take the government a long time to act in regard to the matter. In Alaska they have fox and sheep farms and this adds to the wealth of the district. Every encouragement should be given to genuine schemes for settling the islands and increasing the population of the north.

Hard To Get Land In This Neighborhood.

It seems to be a most difficult matter to get a piece of land in this neighborhood. Around other cities there is plenty of land for sale but here there is none. No one can get a suburban place because some corporation or railway or government or the Indians have it all tied up. This interferes with the development of the district. It is difficult to clear and cultivate the land here and anyone so inclined should have a chance to do something in the way of improving the district.

Settlement On Homestead Terms.

It has been suggested that sales should be made only to people who will improve the land. In the terms of sale there might be a proviso that a certain amount of work be done on the place in the way of building or clearing land. This would to some extent prevent buying for speculation and would tend to encourage those who wish a piece of land on which to play during their spare time.

Definite Settlement Of Indian Reserves.

The settlement of the Indian reserves question in this province has been definitely settled, according to a Victoria despatch. This is good news for unsettled questions are apt to breed bad feeling.

The time should come before very long when the Indian reserves may be all abolished. As the Indians develop in education and general intelligence they will wish to actually own their own homes and to vote. Today they may vote if they live off the reserves, but it is rather much to expect them to give up everything in order to secure a vote. With the abolition of the reserve and the division of the land among them, the Indians could either live at the old place or sell it and gradually the tribe or village as a distinct entity would disappear and the Indian question would be settled.

The younger natives have all discarded native methods of life and been educated like the white people who have crowded in on their former domain. As this tendency increases, many of them will wish to live off the reserve which sets them apart as a dependent people. The only fair method then would be to give them their share of the property and let them do with it as they wish.

GAME SANCTUARIES STIKINE AND TAKU

M. B. Jackson Takes Matter up With Alaskan Authorities at Juneau

JUNEAU, July 30.—Orders have been issued by the Game Conservation Board of British Columbia for the establishment of game sanctuaries on the Taku and Stikine river watersheds above the Alaska-Canada boundary, according to mail advices received by the Juneau Chamber of Commerce. It was also indicated that the board contemplates the creation of a closed season on marten all over northern British Columbia at an early date.

It was indicated recently that the British Columbia authorities were preparing to close all the northern parts of the province to big game hunters. The board defied the correctness of this.

Outlines Official Plans
A letter received today by Secretary M. S. Whittier, of the local chamber, from M. B. Jackson, chairman of the board, said in part:

"We are not contemplating prohibiting hunting in Northern British Columbia, but quite the converse. That is an excellent big game country, as we know, and will stand considerably more hunting than heretofore. The fur situation is not so satisfactory, and I am contemplating establishing a closed season on marten in co-operation with your own Alaska, and Yukon Territory.

"As to the proposals heretofore canvassed with you, I have already given instructions to as that a game sanctuary be established on the watersheds of the Taku and Stikine Rivers and their tributaries within 25 miles of the international boundary. That will give us a mutual opportunity to protect against illicit trapping and shooting, as no one can be lawfully in the area with fire arms or traps unless carrying a special permit, and permits in proper cases will readily be obtained. I may say we propose putting extra game officials in the Territory so as to see that the law and regulations are enforced.

Trapping is Restricted

"I may mention that the legislature at the last session enacted that no non-resident, non-British subject can lawfully trap in British Columbia, but there is no embargo on the big game hunter or any sportsman. Provision is, however, made for more caution in issuing big game guide licenses and the guide will hereafter be required to see that the game regulations are not violated by any party in his charge, and his failure to do so will prevent his thereafter obtaining a license.

"This is all, in our opinion, wisely in the interests of game conservation, and clean sportsmanship."

AUSTRIAN ARISTOCRAT EXPELLED COUNTRY AS RESULT OF CARD GAME

Count Refuses to Prosecute or Fight Duel But Gets Police to Act

VIENNA, July 30.—Aristocratic Vienna has been split into two camps as the outcome of the expulsion of Count Adalbert Sternberg from Austria by the police, at the request of Count Herbert Herberstein, controller of the household of the former Archduke Friedrich.

Accusations growing out of a game of cards at the Jockey Club led to Herberstein, as president of the club, ordering Sternberg's expulsion. Sternberg subsequently slapped Herberstein's face in a crowded street.

Herberstein, declaring that it was beneath his dignity to cross swords with a man like Sternberg, or to appeal to the law against him, moved the police to expel him from the country and Sternberg was in Czecho-Slovakia within 12 hours.

The affair has aroused intense excitement in Vienna, and opinion on the propriety of Herberstein's action is divided. The Neue Freie Presse, in a leading article, reminds its readers that Sternberg is a scion of the oldest noble house in Austria, which has figured in the country's history since the thirteenth century.

New apricots and peaches from British Columbia are selling at 20 cents a pound, as these fruits have not yet come in in large quantities. The first of the season's pears, Bartlett's and Summer Sweets, are on the market at 20 cents a pound. All these fruits will be on hand in much larger quantities and at correspondingly lower prices within the next few weeks, with the approach of the preserving season.

Vegetable marrows are making their appearance, and are selling at three pounds for 25 cents. A few watermelons are still available at 10 cents a pound, and cantaloupes are still plentiful at 20 cents each. Cucumbers, grown in the open, are in from British Columbia, quoted at $1.75 a case, or 10 cents each. Locally grown new potatoes have appeared on the market and are selling at the same price as the imported tubers, six pounds for 25 cents. The few old potatoes which are still on hand are selling at a cent a pound. New carrots, turnips and beets from local market gardens are plentiful.

Eggs and butter prices are practically steady on the market. Fresh extras are retailing at 35 cents, with firsts at 25 and 30 cents a dozen. Dairy butter is worth 30 cents a pound, and the creamery product sells at two pounds for 75 cents.

Black and tan stripes on the narrow bosom front of a dress of tan flannel made one of the new rather insidiously simple dresses worn at a recent out-of-town horse show.

This season smart clothes are not merely simple—they are aggressively so. Except for afternoon frocks that occasionally frill themselves with narrow ruffles of lace or footings, they keep to the simplest of trimmings—contrasting bands and gilets, bound pockets, stripes running in two directions; or for the lingerie frock, tucks and drawn-work. At the out-of-town Horse Shows and Kennel Clubs, where one sees particularly smart Summer frocks—many of the best-dressed women of the younger set are wearing simply cut dresses of flannel, ponce or silk crepe cut on narrow lines and worn rather short. White, powder blue, Lanvin green, beige, tan, corn color, brick-dust and maple are the favorite colors.

ANYOX SCENE TENNIS GAMES

Visitors Gathered There From Stewart and Alice Arm For Tournament and Dance

ANYOX, July 30.—The Anyox Tennis Club entertained visiting wielders of the racquet over the week-end. They came from Stewart and Alice Arm, the latter contingent arriving in Anyox early Saturday afternoon, while the experts from the town of the Dunwell and the Premier came in by Azurite, of the Grand Company's fleet between eight and nine Saturday night, in time for the dance in the gymnasium, which was staged in honor of the tennis players and largely attended by the town folk. The matches were played off on Sunday and some spirited contests developed during the day, which was an ideal one for tennis, there being very little sun and just enough breeze to temper the customary heat of a northern summer day. In all twenty-one events were contested. There were three ladies' singles, three ladies' doubles, six men's singles, and three men's doubles. Anyox won every game entered, while Stewart and Alice Arm had to battle for second place, the latter just managing to get four wins to the three made by Stewart. During the progress of the playing afternoon tea was served just outside the courts by a refreshment committee under the capable leadership of Mesdames Eve and Conway. Later Sunday evening, the gymnasium was again the scene of entertainment, cards being the order at this gathering, while songs were rendered between times by local entertainers. During their stay in Anyox the visiting players were entertained in Anyox homes, and all were loud in their praises of the hospitality extended them, and they are looking forward to the next occasion of a like kind. The committee in charge of the whole entertainment are to be heartily congratulated on a very successful gathering. The tennis committee consisted of J. E. C. Stroud, president, Geo. Lacey, secretary, and Mesdames Eve, Conway and D. Cole.

ANYOX BASEBALL TEAMS PLAY TWICE
Both Elks and Mine Win Game in Closely Contested Matches

ANYOX, July 30.—As a general rule, Anyox sport fans get a good average of baseball and football throughout the season. These games are always played in the evening, the baseball being limited to seven innings. In baseball and football the past week developed games in both lines of sport that were away above the average and as good as one would wish to witness anywhere. In football the Mine and the Smelter aggregations fought to a draw, the score being one all at the end of play, which was exciting and hotly contested through both periods. Playing a regular scheduled game, the Mine and the Elks' baseball teams met on Thursday night last, the "Brother Bills" winning, the tally being one to nothing, and it was practically errorless baseball at that. Both pitchers received great support from their team-mates, several sensational catches being made by Anderson, Brown and Campbell. The Mine got four hits off Fitzpatrick and the Elks three off Ferguson.

Second Game
On Saturday night the same teams played a postponed game, the same batteries working, with practically the identical players filling the field positions. Cody and Fitzpatrick worked for the Elks and C. Ferguson and Les Lane for the Mine. This was Lane's second game, and he is certainly doing splendidly behind the bat. This game went nine innings, and errors were few, three to the Elks and two to the Mine. The tally was two to one, the Mine getting the winning score in the last half of the ninth. Features of the game were the catches made by Deane and Halverson. Hits were made for the Mine by Brown, Kirk, Ferguson and Allen; for the Elks Greenwell, Sheen and Cody. Olson umpired the first game and Wells the second. The teams were practically the same for both games. Mine—Lane, Brown, Kirk, Ferguson, Anderson, Clark, Allan Halverson and Deane. Elks—Greenwell, Campbell, Sheen, Cody, Hall, McIntyre, Fitzpatrick, Smith and Watson.

Sport Chat

Though the Sons of Canada are leading in the Stuart Shield soccer series, it looks as though they will get a better run for their money than they were given in the Mobley Cup series for city championship. The Callies and Great War Veterans are making a strong bid for the third piece of silverware of the season. So energetic were these two teams that they prevented each other from stepping into first place with the Canucks when they tied in Monday night's game. Tomorrow night, the Canucks and the Sons of England will meet, and the native sons are hoping to win and thus remove from their heels the two rivals who are but one point behind them in second place. To those fans who like to see the trophies of the season distributed, the Callies are favorites. The Canucks have won their share of the silverware with the Mobley Cup and the Vets captured the Dominion Day cup. The Sons of England will have to look for the Gilhuly Cup as their share of the spoils. The semi-finals for this trophy will take place next week between the first and second half of the Stuart Shield competition.

The standing for the Stuart Shield to date is as follows:

	W	D	L	Pts.
S. of C.	2	0	0	4
Callies	1	1	1	3
G. W. V. A.	1	1	1	3
S. of E.	0	2	0	0

If any body disputed their moral or legal right to be known as the lady basketball champions of the world, the Grads have settled the matter by disposing of the Strassburg team and thus annexing the championship of Europe, says the Edmonton Bulletin, editorially. They did it too in the decisive way that has become characteristic of them by a score of 37 to 8. The victory was not unexpected but is none the less gratifying on that account. This remarkable company of Edmonton girls stands in a class of its own. They have no serious rivals for premier honors and all aspirants for second place are a long way in the rear.

MacLAREN RECEPTION.

Editor Daily News: After the tremendous amount of complimentary advertising given to this city as a result of the visit of the American aviators there can be question of the wisdom of the suggestion made in your issue of Saturday last that Major MacLaren be given a unique reception. After traveling among people whose various customs and language were new to him, a reception such as proposed in Monday's News would be most appropriate. Without a doubt the sound of the pipes and the sight of kilts would make the daring major realize more quickly than anything else could that he was again among people in whose veins flowed blood akin to his own. Such a demonstration would not only appeal to the British aviator, it would be a splendid display for our city from a publicity standpoint.

Visitors to our city are often much impressed with the number of launches in our harbor. It should not require much effort to muster three hundred power driven craft. Assuming that they average thirty feet in length and

URGES GETTING SETTLERS FROM GREAT BRITAIN

Men From Devon and Cornwall Would Come, Says Visitor, If Government Anxious.

Going To Australia.

EDMONTON, July 29.—"You people here in Canada say you want the Dominion peopled with British stock, and the cry on all sides is for properly qualified farm laborers. In England we have many hundreds of skilled agricultural helpers, who would be willing to come to Canada. The British government has set aside the sum of seven and a half million pounds sterling to take these people to the Dominions. Still they do not arrive. They want to go, you want them, and it is apparent that there is something very much amiss somewhere." So said W. R. Park, of Exeter, England, in an interview here.

He says further that, in so far as Devon and Cornwall are concerned, those who desire to emigrate to Canada are men and women who have been bred on farms and who know no other occupation. They have been accustomed to mixed farming and dairying such as is in vogue in Northern Alberta and in the visitor's opinion they would "fit in" admirably with the conditions here.

Should Utilize Branch.
"It is an astonishing thing to me," he said, "with an organization here such as the Land Settlement Branch, that its services are not more widely utilized by the government. I consider that this department is a particularly efficient one; it has achieved remarkable results with what settlers have been sent through and I am confident that our people from Devon and Cornwall would be in good hands if they were placed by the branch in the same manner as the Hebrideans, the Czechoslovaks and the people of other nationalities."

So much was the visitor struck with the operations of this organization that after visiting Jasper on his way back to England from Vancouver, he returned to Edmonton to make a thorough investigation of the schemes followed in this district, and as a result hopes to send out farm laborers from the west of England to be placed by the Land Settlement Branch. "In other parts of the Dominion I found the authorities more or less apathetic in regard to the settlement of British people. The reverse is true here, however, and for some reason the general feeling towards this question seems very much more acute in the Edmonton district," he asserts.

Government Must Apply.
According to Mr. Park the hitch in transferring the farming folk without farms to agricultural areas in Alberta which require them is not the fault of the Old Country authorities. They have set aside a vast sum of money to pay the emigrants' passages to the Dominion, but it is necessary for the Canadian government to apply for the Britishers. This has not been and is not being done, he says.

He says further that there is no haphazard shipping out of undesirables from the Old Country, citing the care exercised with the emigrants to Australia. First they are got in touch with in the country, then brought to the city where they go before an examining committee of responsible citizens, next passing to a doctor. When this is completed the Australian government agents take the matter over and the settlers are once more examined in every way.

Australia Gets Choice.
"By this means the Australian governments are getting the pick of the British agricultural element, and why Canada does not avail herself of the opportunity is a mystery to more people than myself," he said.

"Canada has never put forward any scheme that it was possible for us in the old country to work upon; no Canadian government agents in the United Kingdom appear to have any idea of what is being done in the west for immigrants, and as far as can be visualized an impasse has been reached. However, I am hopeful that something will be done as the farm people you want here in Alberta are to be had in England, but you will have to do something as well as us if you want this province populated by British stock instead of foreigners," he said in conclusion.

NORTHERN VISITORS TO VANCOUVER WARNED

Band of Tricksters Lying in Wait For Out of Town Easy Money At Southern City

Warning is given to Prince Rupert and other out of town visitors to Vancouver that a clever bank of tricksters from the United States is working there, making out of town visitors their victims. One party was recently touched for $7,700 and another for $6,700, it is said, one of which was on a fake race track swindle. A number of others have lost money but are ashamed to report it.

None of the victims so far have been Vancouver people but the ones picked up are those from out of town, mostly from the north and from interior points. One or two tricksters have been run out of town by the police after having their pictures taken for the rogues' gallery and their finger print record secured. Lack of evidence made it impossible to prosecute them for criminal offenses.

MANY ATTENDED AT TRIAL OF ESKIMO

British Justice as Carried Out in Far North Impresses North-ers

Traditional British justice, without display or sensationalism, was meted out to the Eskimo Ikluksiak for the killing of his compatriot, Havougaeh, by Judge Dubuc at the sitting of the court, held on the 'tween-decks of the steamer Distributor at Aklavik on July 7, says an Edmonton paper.

The lower section of the vessel was cleared of cargo for the sitting of the court, which, draped with Union Jacks, carried to the minds of the Eskimos present that where this emblem flies justice to white men and brown alike is to be found. Thirty Eskimos' schooners were tied up at Aklavik when the Alberta & Arctic Company's liner reached her last post of call north, and with the opening of the court every native in the settlement was present as well as all the white residents.

At one end of the covered deck was a raised platform on which the judge had his seat, and facing him was the prisoner with his Mounted Police escort and the witnesses brought up from Herschel Island by Inspector Wood. The law in the north is slow but sure, and due to the distances and to the ever-present ice rendering communication with the police headquarters impossible, the prisoner had been in the hands of the R.C.M.P. for over two years, while the witnesses had been brought in from the Eastern Arctic the previous summer, all arriving too late to be present at last year's trials, because of the sea ice.

Jury of White Men

The jury consisted entirely of white men. Pat Quinn, post manager for the Northern Trading Company at Aklavik, was chosen foreman, the jurors being J. A. McDougall, government official from Fort Smith; Captain Gardner of the Distributor; Post Office Inspector Hale, S. Tyrrel and H. Pardy. Irving B. Howatt, K.C., appeared for the Crown, with J. Boyd McBride for the defence.

Bishop Stringer and Bishop Lucas of the Church of England missions were present, the former giving evidence for the defence, while Dr. Hammond the Rhode Island physician tourist, examined the prisoner medically.

Prisoner Pleads Guilty

The trial commenced at 8.30 a.m. on Monday, the session being a continuous one until 2.30 a.m. Tuesday, when the prisoner was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Three Eskimos appeared as witnesses for the Crown, with no evidence for the defence, the prisoner pleading guilty.

Unlike his compatriots last year, who were sentenced to death, and hanged, and who regarded the matter with extreme indifference, Ikluksiak exhibited some little concern in the trial, but throughout his confinement this child of the wilderness gave his captors not the slightest trouble, and is marked in the annals of the Mounted Police as a "good boy."

OWNER OF HOCKEY TEAM FUR TRADER

Kenny Mackenzie Returns From Far North With Big Shipment of Pelts

Kenny Mackenzie, owner of the Eskimo Hockey Club, and also a fur trader of note, was among the passengers who stepped off the train from the north this afternoon says the Edmonton Journal. Mackenzie, who had the distinction of being the first trader in to the Arctic this year, left Edmonton about the first of March, freighted his goods up the Peace from the end of steel to Fort St. John, and then across country some two hundred miles to Fort Nelson. Kenny and his partner, Joe Paquette held north by way of the Nelson, Liard and the Mackenzie and were in the Arctic June 8. The next trader in was George Slater, who arrived here on the 20th and 25th of June.

First in the field, after a trip that was comparatively uneventful, though hard, Mackenzie and his partner succeeded in getting plenty of fur, and Kenny states he brought out a bigger quantity of pelts than he ever did before. The bulk of his fur is marten, but he also has considerable sup-

The "Ad" that Saved a City

Rome was being attacked. The massive walls were breached. The enemies pressed hard on every side. To the north, the invaders crept stealthily through the night to storm the gates. In the dark, they stumbled on a flock of geese. The fowls cackled loud and long--the sentries heard--and Rome was saved.

Advertising is continually saving something for someone. It will save for you, too, if you use it properly.

It will save you money by pointing out real bargains, by telling you of true values, by giving you prices to compare and by telling you how much you should pay.

It will save you time and effort by telling you exactly where and when to go for what you want to buy. You don't have to "shop around."

It will save you disappointment by telling you just what you can expect from your purchases. Every time a merchant or manufacturer advertises, he obliges himself to sell you goods that fulfil his claims. He knows it doesn't pay to advertise unworthy wares.

Read the advertisements as a plain, every-day business proposition. It is a duty you owe yourself and your purse.

The only untoward happening during the trip was encountered on the last day they were going down the Mackenzie, when they ran into a heavy storm and had their scow piled up on the rocks and were in danger for some time. Fortunately they were able to reach the shore and managed to salvage most of their supplies. Mackenzie was in the north roughly five months, and at Fort McMurray was joined by Mrs. Mackenzie, who accompanied him to the city today.

JAPANESE SHOT GIRL
THEN WOUNDED HIMSELF

Tragedy At Petersburg, Alaska, Ends Fatally For One and Third Wounded.

JUNEAU, July 30.—A special despatch to the Empire from Petersburg, says: M. Husukoi, a Japanese, who has lived here two years, with an automatic .45 Colts, shot Margaret Andreanoff in the side, then shot her mother in four places, and then, after reloading his revolver, shot himself in the head.

The girl died a short time after being wounded and her mother and the Jap are still living, but expected to die any moment.

Shooting in Cannery.

The shooting took place in the shrimp cannery of the Alaska-Glacier Sea Food Company where all three were employed.

After shooting the girl and her mother, the Jap started up the dock reloading his gun but with Paul Owens behind him going for the deputy marshal and Ohmer on the other side making for the cannery, the Jap sat down on the dock and sent a bullet through his temple.

Girl Respected.

Margaret Andreanoff was 17 years of age, of quiet disposition and universally respected. Her mother was an Eskimo and the father is a Russian.

The Jap had been bothering the girl with his attentions for the past two years, but the girl and her parents refused to have anything to do with him.

DRY AREA RESIDENTS OF ALBERTA TO MOVE

Survey Being Carried Out With View To Action By Government.

EDMONTON, July 30.—Agents of the Department of Agriculture have already started work making a survey in the drought-stricken areas of the province so that the Government may be able to base a working policy for dealing with the migration of farmers from these districts to a good crop belt.

Numerous representations have been made to the Government," said the Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, "by individual farmers, municipal officials, and U.F.A. organizations for transfers from drought areas to irrigated lands, or to a more certain rainfall district, and in some cases they have been accompanied by actual requests for removal."

"No action, however, will be taken," according to the Minister, "until the survey has been completed."

"We shall endeavor to find out," says Mr. Hoadley, "the exact situation in the case, including such details as the farmer's financial condition, the amount of stock he has, his stock of farm implements, what experience he has had, and whether he wishes to take up irrigated land, or a homestead in some other part of the Province."

Some Leaving Already.
Already there has been a small movement of farmers from the dry areas of Central and Southern Alberta to irrigated lands belonging to the Canadian Pacific land watering system, on which they will take up dairying and cattle raising.

No arrangements have yet been made with the railways for the transportation of settlers thus moving to new locations, as the Government has not yet any idea of the number of settlers that will be affected.

About one hundred families were moved last year to new farms, mostly in mid-northern Alberta, where new homes were purchased on the crop payment plan, or on other terms.

EDMONTON, July 30.—The local branch of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have sent a letter to Mayor Blatchford commending his efforts to have the postal department use the Canadian National lines for carrying mail on its coast bound trains. D. Dean, Alberta secretary treasurer, and D. Powers, chief engineer of the organization, sign the letter which says:

"In recent press despatches we have noticed where you are endeavoring to have the Edmonton mails routed over the C.N.R. lines to Vancouver.

"We beg to say we are instructed by the membership to write you and not only thank you, but to endorse the straightforward and energetic stand that you are taking in bringing this important matter to the attention of the dominion postal authorities.

"We hope your efforts will be crowned with success in the near future."

U.S. VESSELS IN FAR
NORTH CONFORM TO ALL
CANADIAN REGULATIONS

Call At Herschel Island and Only Allowed to Visit One Port.

EDMONTON, July, 30.—Despite the enforcement of the Canadian coastwise shipping laws in the Arctic for the first time in history, this is not deterring the American trading vessels from visiting Canadian territory to trade with the Eskimos, and the usual ships which make the annual voyage to the Far North via the Alaska coasts and the Behring Straits are now on their way in, according to arrivals from the north.

New Maritime Laws.
Previously they were merely assessed the customary duty, but this year they will have to conform to the Canadian maritime laws, which will mean that they cannot visit more than one Canadian port. The alternatives are that they place their vessels under the British flag or transfer their cargoes at Herschel Island to British vessels. They have announced, however, that they intend to how to the new regulations, and no trouble is anticipated by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who are charged with the duties of customs officers in the Far North.

In addition to the American boats, the Hudson's Bay Company's schooner, the Lady Kindersley, is also on the way, as are the vessels owned by Captain Pedersen and Captain Klengenber, both Arctic traders of many years' standing. Tom Estlie (Kanaka Tom) will not go North this year. He has invested a portion of his fortune in a gold mine in Southern British Columbia, which he is now operating.

Report Much Building.
Considerable building activity is reported from the Far North. The Church of England mission church at Aklavik has been completed and was dedicated by Bishop Stringer before the northern passengers, who arrived in Edmonton yesterday, left the delta.

The new Mounted Police buildings at the Aklavik headquarters are nearing completion and a commencement has been made with the Roman Catholic church. Later a hospital will be constructed, which is urgently required in the Eskimo country.

Further South the Mounted Police are active in putting up their new barracks at Good Hope and Providence, and though the settlements are placed at widely separated distances the old-timers of the fur country state that this season considerable changes are noticeable.
