BRITISH PREMIER OPPOSED TO COMMUNISM

CAR ACCIDENTS AND HIJACKING FEATURES IN NEWS OF PROVINCE TODAY

British Labor Premier Plain in Condemnation of Communism and is Promised Full Support

LONDON, Oct. 7.—In his big speech at the annual meeting of the Labor party yesterday, Premier J. Ramsay Macdonald scored Communism as a product of czarism and war brutality, and as such "we will have nothing to do with it." He expressed a hope that eminent labor men of Britain and other countries would not be induced to fall into the communist trap.

The Premier admitted that the cure for unemployment had not yet been found but no government had done more in such conditions to alleviate the hard lot of the workless.

Mr. Macdonald said the next labor budget would carry a further reduction of taxation and there would be lessening of the duties on commodities for the workers' benefit.

The address was loudly applauded and the conference unanimously congratulated the government on its record and promised it full support.

LABOR PARTY STANDING PAT

Will Not Recede From Position In British Parliament Even If Election Forced

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Premier Ramsay Macdonald, addressing the annual conference of the Labor party, confirmed overnight indications that the government purposes resisting both the vote of censure advanced by Conservatives and the Liberal amendment proposing an inquiry into the circumstances under which sedition charges against a communist editor were recently abandoned.

Premier Macdonald indicated that the government would not shrink from dissolution and an election if put to the test. He declares the responsibility for an election will not be on the Labor party.

TWO MEN DROWNED IN THOMPSON RIVER

KAMLOOPS, Oct. 7.—John Wallstrom and Patrick Faridie, workers on the construction of a bridge spanning the Thompson River, were drowned when the staging on which they were standing was carried away by the current.

DUTY ON HALIBUT IS BEING INVESTIGATED

Representative of U.S. Tariff Commission Inquiring Into Prices

L. T. Hepkinson, fisheries expert for the U.S. Tariff Commission, arrived in Seattle recently to undertake the investigation of comparative costs of Pacific halibut production in the United States and competing countries. The work is being done under Section 315 of the Tariff Act of 1922. With comparative cost figures in hand, the president will determine what the proper duty should be, and if in his judgment it is to the public interest he will proclaim a change in the tariff, to be effective 30 days after announcement.

It is mandatory that American individuals, firms, etc., supply all cost records desired by the Tariff Commission.

SENATORS ARE BALL VICTORS

Washington Beats New York 7 to 4 in Fourth Game of Series
Today

GOSLIN IS AGAIN HERO

Knocked Home Run in Third Inning
With Two Men Ahead of Him

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Leon Goslin, Senators' star outfielder, made a hero of himself again today and was largely responsible for hanging up the second victory—as he did the first—for Washington in the fourth game of the World Series. Washington won over the New York Giants by a score of seven to four. The game went to Washington, not on account of the Senators' superior playing, but because of their seemingly uncanny ability to hit the Giant pitchers.

Goslin opened the scoring for the Senators in the third inning when he touched Barnes, the New York pitcher, for a home run on the first ball pitched to him. There were two runners ahead of the batter. Besides Goslin made three other safe hits during the game and was instrumental in bringing home more scores. The Giants used three pitchers—Virgil Barnes, Howard Baldwin and Wayland Dean—but were unable to stem the tide. Harry Gowdy caught. The Washington battery consisted of George McGrath and Harold Ruel.

The weather was clear and hot and 35,000 fans paid entry to the Polo Grounds.

The score by innings:

4|2|3|4|5|6|7|8|9
Wash 0|0|3|0|2|0|0|2|0|7
New York . . 1|0|0|0|0|0|1|0|1|4

Washington made thirteen hits and three errors; New York, six hits and one error.

The Giants and Yankees have each two games to their credit now.

Battle With Bullets as Hijackers Raid Customs Vessel Which Took Whiskey From Tacoma Launch

VICTORIA, Oct. 7.—Riddling the Dominion Customs launch Winimac with bullets as she lay anchored at Ganges Harbor on Salt Spring Island, hijackers vainly attempted to wrest from her the largest haul of whiskey made in British Columbia in years, it was learned yesterday.

The seizure was made when the Winimac captured the launch Eva B. of Tacoma with a cargo of 700 cases.

When the hijacking craft crept into Ganges Harbor with a display of arms, the Winimac's crew opened fire, which was returned. Both vessels were riddled with bullets, the stranger fleeing after the encounter and escaping in the darkness.

Retiring Bank Manager Entertained at Banquet and Given Purse of Gold

REGRETS EXPRESSED

Large and Representative Gathering in St. Regis Cafe Last Evening

About a hundred of Prince Rupert's most prominent citizens gathered last night at dinner at the St. Regis cafe dining hall to do honor to Stuart J. Macleod, manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, who is leaving for Moncton to take charge of the branch there. F. G. Dawson, director of the Canadian National Railways presided and supporting him at the head table besides Mr. Macleod were Judge Young, American Consul Wakefield, Dr. R. H. Grant, D.D., J. W. Scott, president of the Board of Trade, and Police Magistrate Thomas McClymont.

Complimentary speeches were made following the banquet, and before adjourning Mr. Dawson, on behalf of the gathering, presented Mr. Macleod with a purse of gold. In doing so Mr. Dawson said:

"I have been selected by the members and officers of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade, will be prosecuted."

Motor Car Turned Somersault And Dropped 28 Feet With 4 People Inside: Local Man Hurt

(Special to Daily News)

Four people were injured in an auto wreck 200 yards west of the Devil's Elbow between Decker and Burns Lake Sunday morning while returning from a dance at Decker Lake when the car rolled 28 feet over the embankment and made a complete somersault on the rocks and boulders below. Walter H. Perry of Prince Rupert was the most seriously injured, suffering contusions of the head, his face was cut and hips badly crushed when he was thrown out of the car and it rolled over his body. It is thought no bones are broken but he will be taken to Prince Rupert for hospital and medical treatment.

Miss Zella Clark, Bruce Kerr, driving, and S. Goodwin were the other three occupants, when the car made its revolution. They were not thrown out and with the exception of Miss Clark who suffered a damaged ankle they escaped with minor cuts and bruises. After the accident Goodwin, who was the least injured, sprinted to Burns Lake for assistance, but while preparations were being made for relief three other cars came to the scene of the disaster, driven by Ronald Prosser, Andrew Anderson and Clarencee Hickey and brought the victims to town where Mrs. H. J. Jewell and R. Commons rendered first aid until the arrival of Nurse Moore who is now residing at Burns Lake.

Further rolling of the car, which is a complete wreck, was arrested by a telephone pole, otherwise it would have probably rolled on to the railway track and thence into Decker Lake as the bank is very steep at this point.

Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark of Burns Lake, and waitress in the Omenica dining room where she is very popular. She will be confined to her bed for several days as the result of the accident. All people viewing the scene of the wreck are marvelling that the occupants escaped death. The roads were muddy and are in very bad condition where the accident occurred and the visibility was poor owing to a fog arising from the lake and obscuring the trees.

All seining on the mainland closes on October 10 and Queen Charlotte fishing will close a week or perhaps two weeks later.

LABOR PARTY TO HAVE CANDIDATES IN 235 RIDINGS

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The labor party expects to have 235 candidates in the field for the general election that seems imminent. This is 34 less laborites than in the last election.

Walter H. Perry the chief victim of the accident and R. Commons who rendered first aid to the injured are both well known in Prince Rupert. The latter was formerly at the Rupert branch of the Royal Bank of Canada.

FINDS HOT SPRINGS IN ALASKA WHERE WATER IS BOILING

SEWARD, Alaska, Oct. 7.—A group of hot springs has been discovered in the vicinity of the valley of ten thousand smoke, the vast region of multiform earth disturbances 300 miles southwest of here on the Alaskan peninsula.

From these springs the water boils constantly emitting steam voluminously. The water contains much mineral in solution.

SOCIAL WORKER TO VISIT UNITED STATES

TOKIO, Oct. 7.—Japan's outstanding social service worker, Toyohiko Kazawa, widely known as "Kagawa of Kobe," plans to visit the United States late this year. Mr. Kazawa, a novelist with a wide public, conducts a social settlement in Kobe. During the past year he has been much in Tokio doing relief work among the earthquake sufferers.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—Preparations were made for hanging five Hochelega bank bandits on October 24 are under way. Arthur Ellis, the hangman, stated there would be three scaffolds and the men would be hanged singly.

OLIVER MENTIONED DOMINION CABINET

Speculation as to Who is Likely to be Given Western Representation in King Ministry

BRANDON, Oct. 7.—Premier Mackenzie King's announcement that additional cabinet representation would be given the West, gives rise to speculation as to who is to get the position. The name frequently mentioned in gossip is that of Premier Oliver, who it is believed may be invited to round out his quarter century of public life in the federal cabinet before the next Dominion election.

Losing President Of Board Of Trade.

Prince Rupert is losing a bank manager, but there are other bank managers and he can be replaced. Prince Rupert is losing a good citizen but there are other good citizens. Prince Rupert is losing a president of the Board of Trade and a good one and that is hard to replace. S. J. McLeod is leaving the city to take a similar banking position at Moncton. It is a promotion which he well deserves, but Prince Rupert is the loser. Last night a large number of prominent citizens gathered at a banquet to bid farewell in a fitting manner to Mr. McLeod. To what was said there we would like to add that if Moncton is wise she will get Mr. McLeod interested in the board of trade or chamber of commerce and give him the presidency at the first possible occasion.

Cheering Words For Those Who Fail.

Here is something picked up by chance from a house organ that came through the mail that may be of interest to many people in Prince Rupert:

A young man ran for the Legislature of Illinois and was badly swamped.

He next entered business, failed and spent seventeen years of his life paying up debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful woman, to whom he became engaged—then she died.

Entering politics again, he ran for congress and was badly defeated. He then tried to get an appointment to the United States land office, but failed.

He became a candidate for the vice-presidency of the United States and was once more defeated.

One bad failure after another—bad failures—great setbacks.

Then he became one of the greatest men of America—Abraham Lincoln.

Farmers As Well Off As For Previous Year.

The prairie farmers will likely be as well off this year as they were for 1923. While crops generally are not as large, prices are better and the cost of harvesting will not be as great as last year. The Royal Bank report says there will be close on three hundred million bushels and farmers will get approximately fifty per cent more for their crop than last year. The railways will be the main losers from the smaller crop.

Opportunities To Hear Good Music.

Although there are fewer concerts than at one time, there is more good music. Nearly everyone has a phonograph of some kind and many of the records bring the world's best music to those who like it. Every radio outfit brings more good music. The piano players bring the classics to everyone. While there is a large amount of jazz, doubtless, there is also plenty of music in some of the jazz. It will be noticed that many of the tunes of the great composers are very jazzy.

Music is being brought to the homes of almost everyone and if it has a good effect on the lives of the individuals, our lives should be more harmonious as the years go by.

More Production At Anyox Than Ever.

The production at the Anyox mines is greater than ever. Last month was a record in the history of the Hidden Creek mine and the camp is prosperous. The development of the mine at Maple Bay has also added to the activities of the neighborhood. To take out 120 tons of ore a day as has been done of late at Maple Bay requires a great deal of labor and to smelt it takes more. It is good to hear of progress being made.

MISSION BOAT FOR ALASKAN COAST IS TO BE COSTLY ONE

KETCHIKAN, Oct. 7.—The Presbyterian Board of Missions announced that plans for their new mission cruiser, "Warden G. Harding" have been completed by Lee, Brinton and Wayland, Seattle naval architects and it is expected to start construction in the near future. When completed, the boat will be used in the Alaskan mission service of the Presbyterian Church according to present plans.

The vessel, which is to cost in the neighborhood of $40,000, will be 85 feet long and she will be powered with a diesel engine of 150 horse-power. The vessel will be electric throughout and will have electric winches for the anchor and boat davits. Sleeping accommodations for four persons are provided and a feature of the vessel will be an auditorium which will seat forty persons. It is planned to use this auditorium to show motion pictures in and to deliver sermons. It is expected to have the craft ready for use by next spring at the latest, say the board.

Tommy Smith left on last night's train for Telkwa where he will take charge of J. Mason Adams' drug store.

SNOW ON HILLS IS EARLIER THAN USUAL

New snow was seen on the hills this morning for the first time this season. This is earlier than it has been since 1914 when it was a few days earlier. In 1912 it came on the seventh, last year on the thirty-first and the previous year on the thirtieth. One year shortly before the war the hills were white on October 1. As soon as the snow comes to stay the deer will be driven from the hilltops and will be easier to get than they have been for the past few weeks.

PRESENTATION TO S. J. MACLEOD

(continued from page one) Dogherly was a fine genial Irishman and then following this they sent three men consecutively of the name of Cameron, Macleod and Robertson. He did not know if there was any significance in that.

Dr. Grant said he had great regard for Mr. Macleod and his family. They had been neighbors and local friends.

Judge Young

Judge Young expressed regret that Mr. Macleod had to leave Prince Rupert. That the regret was general was evidenced by the large number present at that gathering. Mr. Macleod had been a decent neighbor. He, the judge, had never missed anything except a garden hoe and even that he could not prove that Mr. Macleod took.

Speaking more seriously, Judge Young said Mr. Macleod had always been a zealous advocate for Prince Rupert, and he felt that when moved to the east he would still be an advocate for this city. He spoke humorously of the shattered hopes of some of the people here but expressed the opinion that the future held promise of large developments. He hoped with Mr. Scott that later Mr. Macleod would be promoted back to Prince Rupert. He was sorry to see him go and wished him and Mrs. Macleod and their splendid little family health, wealth and a long life and happiness.

Consul Wakefield

Consul Wakefield said it was part of human life to meet and part. It was difficult to pack up for the new home and not always pleasant. It took a year of two of earnest endeavor to build up friendships. He concurred in the sentiments expressed by the others and wished them as many true friends in Moncton as they had in Prince Rupert.

Thomas McClymont

Thomas McClymont said he was glad to be able to add a word to what had been said. The occasion to them was one of sorrow at losing a friend. A friend was a real treasure. He spoke of the good work done by Mr. Macleod in the Board of Trade and of the position Mrs. Macleod had so well filled in social activities of the community. Life here was a procession, a coming and going. He felt, however, that Mr. Macleod would not have lost anything by living here. His vision would have been broadened and he would be better able to fill higher positions. Praise was not necessary. He only hoped that when the next promotion came unless it was to the head office it would be west.

S. J. Macleod

Following the presentation by Mr. Dawson, Mr. Macleod thanked them for the honor done him and for the gift. A little over three years ago he had been a stranger to all but they had made him feel at home with true hospitality. He had moved a number of times but had never felt it so hard to pull up stakes as from here. If he had been of assistance here it was due to the character of the people with whom he had associated. Any person living here must be optimistic. He was only sorry he was not able to stay a little longer and see some of the hopes come to fruition.

The gathering joined in singing a number of choruses led by J. W. Nicholls, Percy Tinker, Consul Wakefield and W. O. Fulton.

Mr. Macleod on rising was received with musical honors and cheers. W. Vaughan Davies presided at the piano.

RESTORING BUILDINGS DAMAGED IN REVOLTS

DUBLIN, Oct. 7.—The Free State government has at last started rebuilding the Dublin post office destroyed in the rebellion of Easter, 1916. Work has now commenced on the old site with a view to preserving the tradition and character of the original building intact.

Dublin's next most beautiful building, the Four Courts, was destroyed in the fighting of July, 1922. The dangerous parts of the ruins have been repaired and the walls are considered good enough to justify the rebuilding of the whole edifice. The restorations so far designed are in keeping with the treatment of the original eighteenth century architect, James Gandon, and stone similar to that in the original structure is being used.

"We have used Zam-Buk with remarkable success"

WHEN I happened an injury to my left foot," says Mr. Edward Whiteman, of 463, Notre Dame St., Lachine, Que., "it was painful enough, but didn't seem to call for special attention. A few days later, however, trouble began which I tried to check with poultices. But the sore got worse, the tendons became affected, and I could scarcely move about.

PAIN & INFLAMMATION WAS DREADFUL until I was persuaded to put Zam-Buk on to the foot. I renewed the dressings at regular intervals, and gave the treatment every chance by resting the foot as much as I could. Zam-Buk drew soreness and impurity out of the wound in a surprising way and caused inflammation to quickly disappear. As a result, the foot went on steadily mending until perfectly healed.

IN MY WIFE'S CASE poison and lancing combined had caused a painful wound that wouldn't heal. So without telling the doctor she set her mind upon Zam-Buk. Sure enough, healing commenced soon after the balm was applied. Within a few days my wife could wear a shoe and the foot was soon made sound and strong again. In future we shall always keep Zam-Buk in the house. It really is wonderful.

ZAM-BUK, the favorite home skin-remedy, is made from pure and costly medicinal herbs. Its soothing, healing and antiseptic virtues are never found in ordinary ointments. Zam-Buk is 50c. bx. 3 for $1.25. Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap 25c. the cake. Of dealers everywhere.

Miss May Wall of Ottawa, who has been visiting at Anyox with her niece, Mrs. Dr. Learoyd, arrived in the city on Saturday from the north on the Prince John and left by last night's train for the East.

A letter from the Japanese consul at Vancouver officially expressing appreciation for the assistance that had been rendered by the city in connection with earthquake relief last summer was received and filed by the city council last night.

Accounts up to October 4 totalling $21,884.12 and including various civic payrolls were passed for payment at last night's council meeting.

Passengers booked to sail for Vancouver on the Princess Alice this afternoon include Mrs. G. Goldson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Andrew, Mrs. Bohlen, J. Smith, E. C. Neison and Mrs. J. Haslett.

A. C. Sinclair of Victoria applied to the city council last night for a surplus of $71 which he claims is coming to him from lot 30, block 29, section 5 receiving that much over the upset price at tax sale. The matter was referred to the finance committee with power to act.

George Rorie, city auditor, reported at last night's council meeting that he had been able to complete his work on the city books up to July 31 and had found everything correct, in order and up-to-date. Ald. Collart was of the opinion that the report reflected credit upon D. J. Matheson, city treasurer.

Under the auspices of the Corner Club, Fred Stork, M.P., delivered an illustrated lecture last night before a good crowd in the Baptist Church on Wembley, London and various European points. R. Howard, president of Club, was chairman and the pictures were projected by P. H. Linzey.

Ald. Perry, chairman of the Board of Works, reported at last night's council on the building bylaw which was to have come before the council ere this for revision. The city engineer, he said, on account of the press of street construction work had been unable to attend to the matter and he asked that it be laid over for another month when outside work will not be so heavy. This was agreed to and it was also decided to refer the bylaw to the building committee of which Ald. Casey is chairman.

CALLIES' FOOTBALL TEAM WHIST DRIVE

Successful and Enjoyable Affair
Took Place Last Night in St. Andrew's Rooms

The Callies' football team staged a successful whist drive in the St. Andrew's Rooms last night. There were sixteen tables and the prize winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. G. Frizzell; ladies' consolation, Mrs. Howard Steen; men's first, James Andrews; men's consolation, Robert Wood. Howard Steen was in charge and the committee consisted of Tom Beattie, George Abbott and J. Watson.

Refreshments were served, cakes being furnished by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Andrew's Society. Before the gathering dispersed, there was a set of quadrilles, music being furnished by Mrs. Bruce Love at the piano.

SPECTACULAR FINISH TO YESTERDAY'S GAME

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In the big ball game yesterday the Giants emerged victorious in the third game of the world series after one of the widest baseball maelstroms ever witnessed. The Giants won 6 to 4 but the outcome was in doubt to the final play in the ninth inning when the Senators staged a typically spectacular finish. They were three runs behind when going in for the ninth. The Senators scored one run and had the bases full with only one out, when Long John Watson, the third Giant pitcher of the inning, stopped fighting for three or four years and never had a chance against Jess Willard at Havana in 1915. Willard ate, drank and lived luxuriously and Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, is becoming anxious about his standing in the pugilistic world. The big fellow feels he is rusting out for the want of work in the ring. The only real fight he has had within the past two years was his match with Tom Gibbons. His encounters with Carpenter and Firpo he does not put in the same class with the set-to with Gibbons. He had been out of the ring for a long spell when he met Gibbons, and it was the first time he experienced any uncertainty as to his ability to take care of himself and force the fighting. Had he met Firpo before he tied up with Gibbons the big man is willing to admit it might have been different. Dempsey has it doped out right. Athletes who stay out of competitions for long periods of time seldom come back to their best form.

Jim Corbett knocked out John L. Sullivan in 1892 and, five years later after taking life easy, was knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons. Jim Jefferies, greatest heavyweight of his time, dropped out of the ring for six years and was beaten by Jack Johnson. Jack Johnson in turn stopped fighting for three or four years and never had a chance against Jess Willard at Havana in 1915. Willard ate, drank and lived luxuriously and was practically knocked out by Jack Dempsey in the first round a couple of years later. Even Bob Fitzsimmons, when he lost to Jefferies, underestimated his young opponent's ability after having led the easy life for a couple of years. Dempsey can look back at the whole line of heavyweight champions who preceded him and see that they all except little Tommy Burns, went to defeat through losing their ability by not fighting.

RUSSIAN EDICT SAYS KISSING NOT ALLOWED

MOSCOW, Oct. 7.—Dr. Nicholas Semashko, Soviet commissioner of health, has issued an edict against kissing, which, he contends, is one of the most potent means of spreading disease. The new order, if observed, will fall hard on the Russian peasantry who are in the habit of kissing one another, not only on the lips but three times on each cheek in salutation. Dr. Semashko is also opposed to the kissing of ladies' hands by men, a national custom in Russia. Not only is this unhygienic, he says, but it is a practice of the bourgeoisie which has no place in a proletarian republic.

Hand-shaking has been prohibited in many departments of the government and signs are appearing warning employees that the practice frequently results in communication of disease. The conventional salute, hand from forehead, is suggested as a safer greeting.

As a further health measure, the doctor advocates a ban on smoking, urging tobacco users to substitute candy.

WHEAT CROP THIS SEASON NOT SO LARGE

World Supply Estimated at Three Hundred Million Bushels Short

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(By Canadian Press)—The probable production of wheat in the Northern Hemisphere, outside of Russia, will be about 2,700,000,000 bushels compared with 3,000,000,000 bushels produced last year, says the United States Department of Agriculture, basing its statement on official estimates and forecasts from 25 countries, and unofficial advices from three countries. Wheat harvests in the Northern Hemisphere are reported to be practically completed.

Figures for the 25 countries, which exclude France, Germany, Rumania and Russia, show an aggregate of 2,242,000,000 bushels compared with 2,500,000,000 bushels last year. No reliable estimate of the Russian crop is available but various reports indicate that the exportable surplus will be less than last year. Private forecasts of the French crop range from 200,000,000 bushels to 312,000,000 bushels, as compared with 276,000,000 bushels last year.

The German crop estimated on the basis of forecasts from Prussia and Bavaria is about 92,000,000 bushels compared with 106,000,000 bushels last year, and the Rumanian crop according to private reports will be about 70 per cent of last year when the harvest was 101,000,000 bushels.

Canadian Crop Improved

The Canadian crop has improved during the past month under favorable weather conditions, the department reports. The September 1 forecast is 294,000,000 bushels, which is an increase of 9,000,000 bushels over the August forecast but 183,000,000 bushels less than the final estimate of last year. Harvesting in the Prairie Provinces is about two weeks late and there is still some chance of gain or loss in the crop. Rains during August improved conditions generally, but in Alberta rain was too late to save the crop where drought injury was severe. Some damage has been caused by frost but its extent has not yet been determined. Grain yields in Manitoba are reported as considerably above average, but due to the late season the area to be harvested is less than last year. Yields in Saskatchewan and Alberta are considerably below average.

Production of flaxseed in Canada is reported to be 10,846,000 bushels compared with 7,139,500 bushels last year; rye 12,799,000 bushels compared with 23,232,000 bushels, barley 90,769,000 bushels compared with 563,998,000 bushels last year.

hering about 700, proceeded to the Catholic church of St. Thomas, where Mass was celebrated by the Bishop of Brentwood in the presence of Cardinal Bourne. A civic welcome was accorded by the Mayor of Canterbury.

From the church the pilgrims marched to the ruins of the old Franciscan Friary, where seven centuries ago the Little Brethren of St. Francis found a haven in a skeptical land. In this perfect setting of old brick walls, framing one of the loveliest gardens in England, a solemn Te Deum was sung.

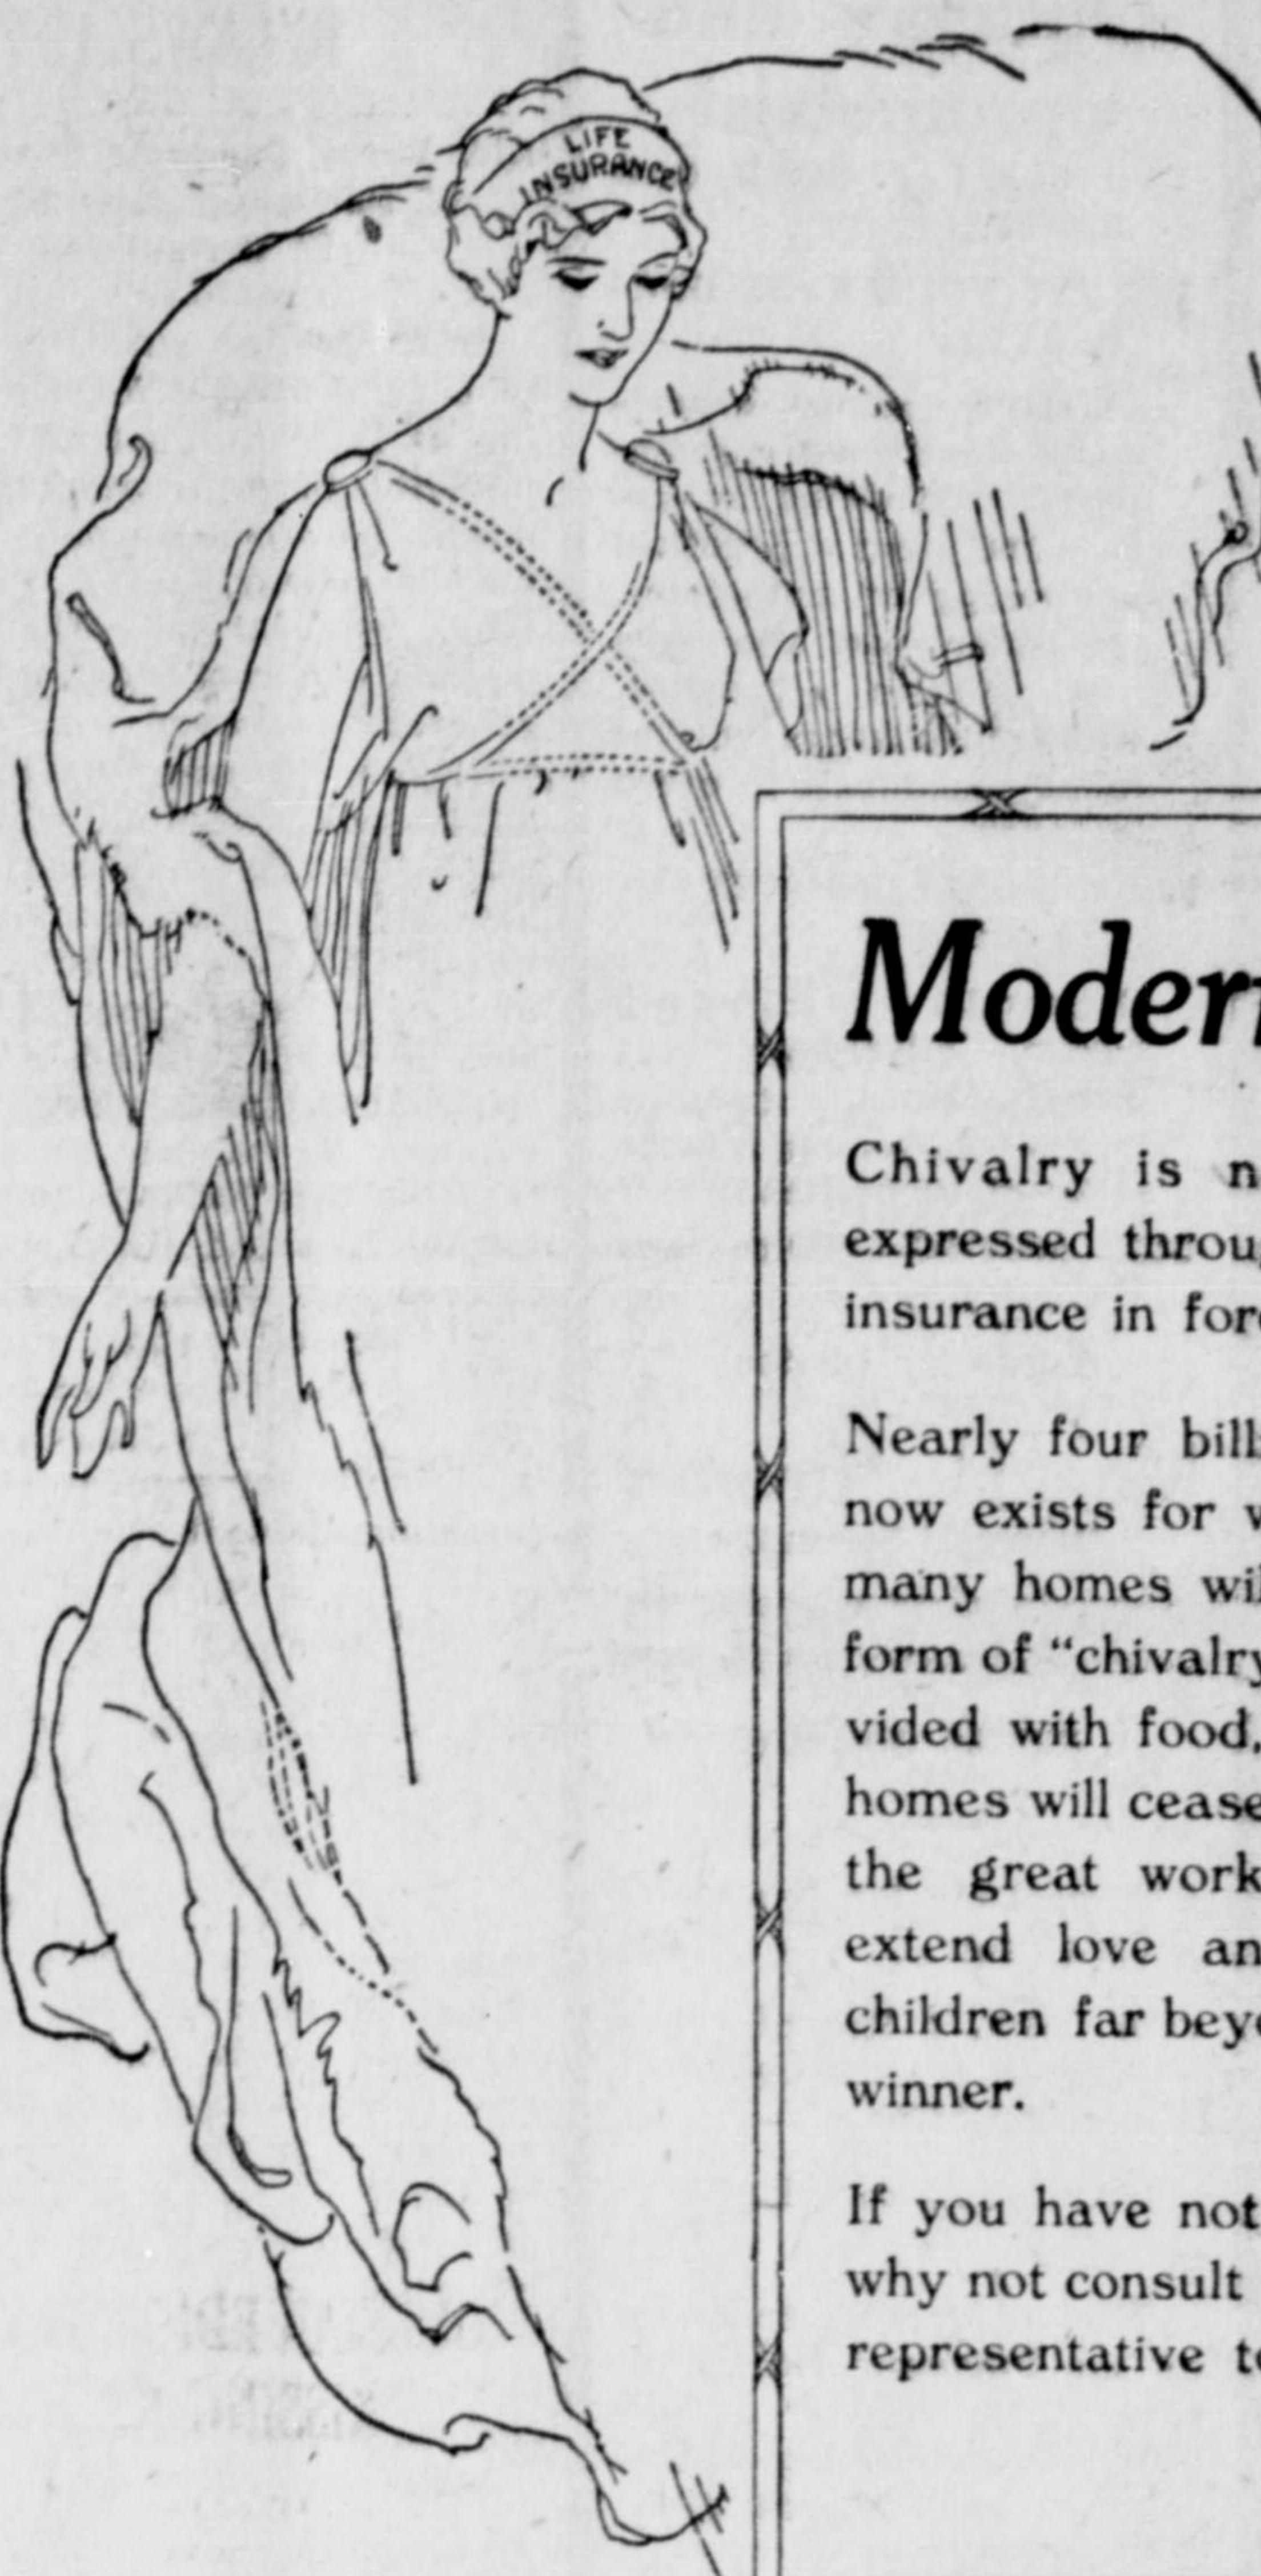

TO BROADCAST WEATHER

TOKIO, Oct. 7.—(Canadian Press).—Not since Geoffrey Chaucer's pilgrims passed beneath the city gates of ancient Canterbury has this, the mother-city of England, seen a stranger pilgrimage than that which took place the other day in celebration of the 700th anniversary of the coming of the Franciscans to England.

A Cardinal in scarlet robes walked in procession through the streets. Behind him were two mitred bishops of the Church of Rome, and then a long file of Franciscans in their brown cowled robes, with sandalled feet, and shaven crowns. Dominicans in black and white habits, Capucines, Benedictines, white coiffed nuns in flowing robes of black and grey, and a great following of the laity from all parts of England.

Before the Cardinal walked white-surpiced acolytes, one of whom bore aloft a great silver crucifix. They chanted as they walked, and the sun, filling the ancient streets with light and shadow, invested the spectacle with an illusion of mediaeval splendor.

On arrival the pilgrims num-

Modern Chivalry

Chivalry is not dead. It has been expressed through the large sums of life insurance in force in Canada.

Nearly four billion dollars of protection now exists for women and children, and many homes will be saved through this form of "chivalry". Children will be provided with food, clothing and education, homes will cease to be broken up because the great work of life insurance is to extend love and care for women and children far beyond the life of the Breadwinner.

If you have not sufficient life insurance, why not consult the nearest life insurance representative to-day?

The Love that never Dies

STAR ATTACKS POLICE METHOD

Says Should be no Need to Have Arrested Orders From Police Commission

The Vancouver Star in criticizing the police methods of Vancouver says:

A clean up of Vancouver underworld has been ordered by the police commission! Both Chief of Police Long and Inspector Jackson have promptly reported that Chinatown's gambling joints are now dark, and will stay dark. The lid is on.

Why were orders from the police commission necessary at all? Was the chief ever in doubt as to his duty? Is not the law the same today as it was yesterday? Gambling, dope peddling, bootlegging have been wide open for years. Holdups, assaults, robberies have been monotonous in their regularity.

And through it all a dumb paralysis seemed to hold the chief and his force in its grip. The law was always plain. Its enforcement was the chief's sworn obligation. But month after month a tragic farce was carried on.

Rounded Up

Raids were made. Sheep-like Orientals, rounded up in droves, were let out on a paltry bail and promptly went back to their dives. The bail was forfeited; but the gambling went on in the same old places with the same old people right under the eyes of the police.

It is not Chinatown that needs a clean up. The work needs to be started near home. The police force itself needs investigation.

The Star still has confidence in Chief of Police Long, but that confidence is being very sorely tried. The chief knows where the weakness lies, but he has not two countries.

MAE MARSH in
"PADDY, THE NEXT BEST THING."

A picturization of Gertrude Page's novel and play of that name. One of the greatest stage successes of modern times. A comedy-drama with fascinating Mae as an incomparable Irish flapper, whose big heart always guides her straight as her quick wit turns real troubles into great happiness and griefs into joys. A pulse-stirring story so tender that tears spring up only to be dashed away by bits of delicious, quaint comedy, quickly followed by a climax so dramatic it leaves you gasping. A romantic tale of love that runs a rough course before it comes to the smooth path. Mae as Paddy, who was "the next best thing" to the son for whom her father had prayed. Delightful acting. Magnificent English and Irish scenery. Elaborate settings. Exciting hunting and yachting. Exceptional Anglo-American cast. Mae Marsh, Darby Foster, Sir Simeon Stuart, George K.
