SOVIET SHIP SEIZES WRANGELL ISLAND

OVER MILLION CASES OF SALMON PACKED THIS YEAR IN THIS DISTRICT

Russian Soviet Seizes Wrangell Island and Inhabitants Imprisoned

British Attitude One of Don't Care on Receiving the News in London

MOSCOW, Sept. 19.—The crew of the Russian ship "Red October" hoisted the Soviet flag on Wrangell Island on August 30. They found one American and some Eskimos on the island. They claimed the island in the name of the Soviet government and took the inhabitants prisoners.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—"They can have it," is the unofficial attitude in British diplomatic circles in regard to the action of the Soviet in raising the Russian flag on Wrangell Island. It is pointed out that in the negotiations between the British and Soviet delegations, which resulted in the signing of the Anglo-Russian treaty, it was made clear to the Russians that the island would again become Russian territory.

Russia Pleased

LENINGRAD, Sept. 19.—Russia is sending a scientific expedition to Wrangell Island to chart the coast line and the interior and to make a complete survey of the natural resources and other features.

Soviet officials express satisfaction over the success of the expedition in planting the Red Flag on the island and taking formal possession. They believe this action will settle the status of the island, which has been in dispute for more than a century. They regard it as an important base for a wireless station and for supplies in the event of war.

C.N.R. MANAGER FOR VANCOUVER

A. E. Warren Will Open Office at Coast and Spend Part of Time There

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—Official announcement was made last night that in view of the increasing importance of the port of Vancouver and the interests of the Canadian National Railways in British Columbia, it has been decided that A. E. Warren, general manager of the western region, will, in addition to his office in Winnipeg, maintain an office in Vancouver and spend a considerable portion of his time there. The proposed office arrangements in Vancouver and the new organization will enable the administration of the Canadian National Railway system to keep in close touch with developments in British Columbia and provide the business people of that province with a speedy and authoritative means of communication with the company. It is also the intention of the president, Sir Henry W. Thornton, and the various vice-presidents of the company to spend more time in British Columbia in the future than has been the case in the past.

The proposed office will be opened as soon as circumstances will permit.

Freight Rates Are Before Railway Commission and the Lawyers to Argue Next Week

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—With all the evidence, most of it in documentary form, before it, the railway commissioners adjourned the hearing of complaints against the Crows Nest Pass rates until Monday, when counsel for the protestants against discriminations resulting from tariffs filed by the railways since the revival of the Crows Nest Pass agreement on July 7 last will open fire. Both H. J. Symington, representing Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and G. G. McGeer, counsel for B.C. announced their willingness to proceed with the argument then. They will be followed by representatives of the railways headed by Eugene Lafleur, counsel for the railway association of Canada.

The hearing has been featured by the filing of affidavits from British Columbia declaring the fruit growing industry of that province is imperilled by discriminations resulting from the Crows Nest rates. Mr. McGeer declared the discrimination having been proved the onus was on the railways to justify it. They must prove their rates to be fair and just.

Over Million Cases Salmon Packed Already This Year in This Fishery District

The total salmon pack for the district this year to date amounts to 1,023,701 cases and the work is not yet completed. This compares favorably with last year's pack of 875,803 cases in all.

The pink salmon run is over but several canneries are still in operation packing cohoes and chums. On the Naas River, two canneries — Wales Island and Somerville—are still open; on the Queen Charlotte Islands, Lagoon Bay and Lockport, and in the Central division, Namu, Bella Bella and Butedale.

Wales Island will be closing down in a few days but Somerville will probably continue until the end of the month.

All five canneries on the Skeena, it is expected, will run until September 30.

Canneries on the north of the Queen Charlotte Islands—Watum River, Laura Whalen and Langara—are closed but on the south—Lagoon Bay and Lockport—will probably continue till the middle of October. The run of chums there to date has not been good. The pack of pinks on the Islands has, however, been very good and on the north end a total pack of 100,000 cases constitutes the highest on record. Four salteries are putting up chums on the Islands—one at Jedway, one at Lagoon Bay in conjunction with the Canadian Fishing Co.'s cannery, and two at Skidegate. On account of the poor run of chums, their plants have not done much so far, however.

LOYALTY BUT NOT BUSINESS

Fred Stork Tells Rotary Club of Disabilities Which Canadians Suffer

LUMBER, BEEF AND BUTTER

Visit to Exhibition is Subject of Address at Luncheon Yesterday

Fred Stork in an address to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club on the British Empire Exhibition yesterday stated that while one heard a great deal about loyalty to the Empire in Great Britain and about inter-imperial trade there was a lot of work to be done by Canadians before they could expect to get business. While good advertising would result from the splendid exhibit, which he graphically described, conditions were not very satisfactory in that the British people bought outside the empire even more freely than in it.

Mr. Stork told of the arrangements for the British Empire Exhibition and that the big stadium was constructed from lumber purchased outside the empire. Apparently it was difficult to do business even with our own friends. So keenly did the Canadians feel this that they had threatened to close down the Canadian building if the arrangements were not carried out.

Beef Situation Mr. Stork then instanced the beef situation. The Argentine practically controlled the beef supply to Great Britain and until quite recently Canadian cattle had been kept out of the country by an embargo. The Argentinians controlled 4,500 shops in England and quite recently had acquired 4,500 more.

The case of Denmark was instanced. That country supplied Britain with butter and other products until the war broke out. Then she transferred to Germany but recently she was again capturing the British market. Yet Denmark had done nothing to help win the war and neither had Argentina.

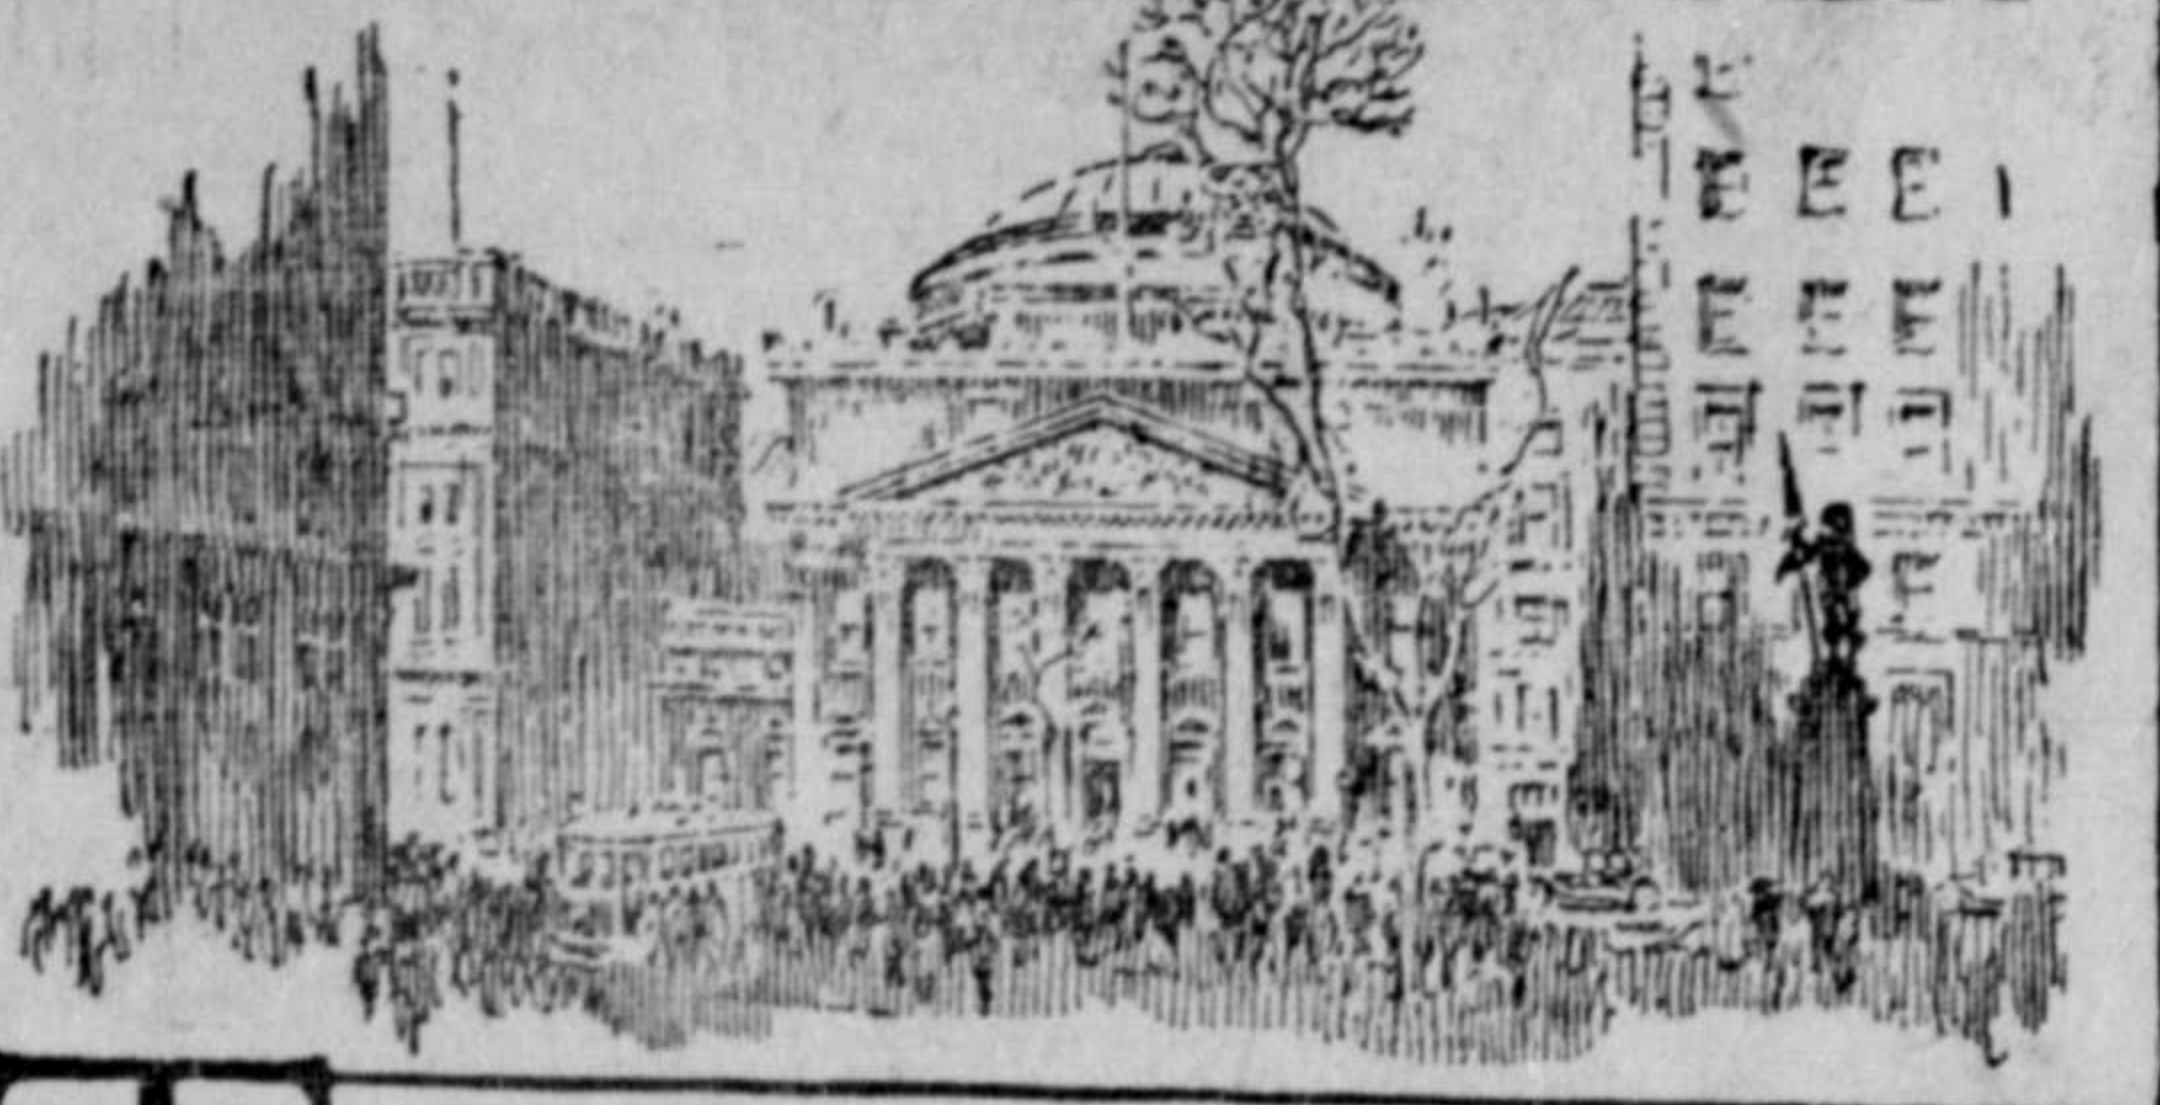

Sockeye Salmon The sockeye salmon was instanced. A British firm had been buying British Columbia sockeye and putting its own label on it. By this means it had built up a reputation. Now they were buying Siberian salmon from the Japanese below the price at which it could be produced here and were selling it on the reputation built up on B.C. sockeye. Loyalty to the empire and trade was all right but when they got down to cases they were told the British must buy where they could do it best.

Mr. Stork said he thought a tremendous drive was necessary. President Beatty of the C.P.R. said we did not talk loud enough. The exhibition he thought should be followed up by an aggressive campaign. Mr. Stork described in a picturesque manner the exhibits in London and their effect on the visitors. Up to the time he left ten million people had visited it. The Canadian building was much admired. He told of the remarks made in the visitors' book in the column set aside for this purpose. The most amusing was that of a man from Edinburgh who remarked that "After Scotland it was the best yet."

A great number of good sized fish have been caught recently in the Telkwa and Bulkley rivers.

EIGHTH of the series dealing with the establishment of the BANK OF MONTREAL at representative points in CANADA and elsewhere

IN THE CAPITALS OF CANADA

THE year 1867, when the foundations of modern Canada were laid by Confederation, was the year in which the Bank of Montreal celebrated the 50th anniversary of its foundation. By that time the Bank was already a strong and stable institution, with Branches well distributed throughout Upper and Lower Canada.

Established in Montreal in 1817, the Bank opened an Office in Quebec in the same year, in York (now Toronto) in 1818, in Ottawa in 1842, in Halifax in 1868, in Winnipeg in 1878, in Regina in 1882, in Victoria in 1891, in Fredericton in 1899, in Edmonton in 1903, and in Charlottetown in 1907.

Today the Bank has more than 550 Branches in Canada and offices in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Spokane, London, Paris and Mexico.

LAW-BREAKERS POOR CITIZENS

So Say Prohibition Enforcement Officer in Address to Ketchikan Businessmen

Speaking before the Chamber of Commerce today, F. A. Hazeltine, divisional director of prohibition enforcement declared that those who encourage the violation of the Volstead Act by patronizing bootleggers are not good citizens and are worse than I.W.W. in many instances because they are more intelligent says the Ketchikan Chronicle.

"I am here to help raise the price of so-called 'good' booze," declared Mr. Hazeltine. "Cheap moonshine and home brew are going to take care of themselves and those who drink it," he continued. "While the price of moonshine and homebrew can't be expected to advance with better enforcement, because the demand is getting less, those who want alleged bottled-in-bond and Scotch stuff seem to be willing to pay any price and the price is a fair evidence of the degree of enforcement. The price per bottle of such stuff in Alaska seems to range from $10 to $18 which is over three times what the stuff used to sell for in the saloon days. I submit that the price alone shows a good degree of enforcement, and at that, I doubt if there is a bottle of genuine bottled in bond American whiskey in Alaska."

Short Memories

"We prohibitionists as well as the wets have terrible short memories and don't stop to think how few drunks they see on the streets compared to the saloon days, how different the Fourth of July celebration is and how many former 'Old Soaks' have straightened up and are now supporting their families and have money in the bank."

Referring to moonshine and home brew, the speaker justified his assertion that they would take care of themselves and those who drank the stuff, by calling attention to the poisonous nature of the stuff.

Wants Funerals

In closing he said: "Men who have the money to pay ten dollars or more for a bottle of so-called 'good' booze and who put a premium on bootlegging and make it profitable are not good citizens and the sooner we have some first class funerals as a result of having fallen victims to their own disloyalty the better. And yet we find among this class some prominent lawyers, doctors, bankers and other professional men who talk loudly about being one hundred per cent American. I would like some of them define their brand of one hundred per cent Americanism. How can it be otherwise but include respect and obedience to the laws of the land. Who else can be so interested in inculcating respect for law than these very moneyed people? Can't they see that the nullification of this law by a small minority means the nullification of other laws, notably the laws protecting property and investments by the I.W.W. minority who would nullify such laws? I contend that they are worse than the I.W.W.'s because many of the latter are ignorant foreigners who know no better."

WHAT HE WANTED

He had just comfortably settled himself in the parlor with his arm around his sweetheart when her little brother came into the room and sat down. "Here's a dime," said he to the boy. "Go get yourself some candy." "Don't want any candy," retorted the brother. "Then here's a quarter; chase yourself." "Don't want a quarter, either." "Well, then, here's a dollar; go to a show." "Well, for cat's sake, what do you want?" "I want to watch."

WONDERFUL NEW AIRPLANE FLIES

Has Thousand Horsepower and Manipulates Easy as Scout: Cub Engine

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(By Canadian Press).—The first official flight of an aeroplane of 1,000 horsepower, the largest single-engine machine yet devised, took place recently at Brough. The machine and its initial flight are thus described in the Times by the aeronautical correspondent of the Thunderer:

"The Blackburn-Napier Cubaroo, the largest single-engined aeroplane in the world, built specially to utilize the full power of the 1,000 horsepower Napier Cub engine, in itself the highest-powered aero engine in existence, is designed to be either a torpedo or bomb carrier of exceptionally long range in point of duration, and may fairly be said to represent a notable achievement in British aviation.

Nine Tons Weight

"It is the result of the aircraft skill of the Blackburn Aeroplane Company, whose works are situated here on the edge of the Humber, and the long experience of internal combustion engines possessed by Messrs. D. Napier and Son, and its flight has been awaited with considerable interest, not only in British air circles, but in many foreign countries. As the machine has been built to the order of the Air Ministry for service purposes, it is not permissible to refer in detail either to the performance of the machine, which in itself is noteworthy, or to all the interesting features of all the internal arrangements, but it may be stated that the gross weight the Napier Cub has to take through the air is over nine tons, and that the carrying capacity is approximately three tons.

"The span of the machine, which positively towers above one when standing on the ground, is 88 feet, and despite its size, the wings are so arranged that they can be folded back for storage. The length is 54 feet and the overall height is slightly more than 19 feet.

"The machine is the product of Major Bumpus, the chief designer of the Blackburn Aeroplane Company, who has already an exceedingly useful deck landing torpedo plane (now in extensive use in the service) to his credit, and it utilizes the special triangular form of steel fuselage construction which is a feature of Blackburn productions.

The Flight

"If the machine were impressive, its actual flight was even more so, and despite its size it obviously was handled as easily as a scout. Its pilot, Flight-Lieut. W. S. Bulman, certainly did many of the things one associates with a small machine, such as throttling down close to the ground, flying directly toward a group of cinema operators on a mound, and then opening out on a climbing turn over their heads.

"At one time it looked as if low clouds and heavy rain would prevent the flight, but at 4 o'clock a watery sun broke through the clouds and the internal self-starter was at once set to work to charge up the big engine. Once the Cub got going it generally grumbled to itself in a deep-throated rumble during the preliminary warming-up process, and then the pilot, a tiny figure it seemed, perched high up in the fuselage, 'taxied' over to the far side of the aerodrome, turned, and at once opened up the engine.

Splendid Control

"With a powerful roar the Napier Cub lifted the machine into the air after a run of less than 200 yards. Then followed over 20 minutes' delightful flying, and though one never lost the impression of the size of the machine, or the spread of its silver-colored wings, the ease with which it turned, banked and climbed over and around the sheds on the aerodrome, and the smallness of the circle in which it manoeuvred, suggested more the control of a single-seater scout than that of a machine weighing tons.

"The landing was the most perfect it has been one's pleasure to see for a long time; the huge machine glided slowly to the earth, and without any perceptible moment of contact with the ground sank on to the oleo gear of its double undercarriage and came to rest in a very short run."

SMITHERS SCHOOL TO PLAY RUGBY FOOTBALL

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—The local school boys have visions of being yet proclaimed the champion rugby players of the world, judging by the preparations under way to get the game in force here. The school grounds are undergoing a course of treatment in readiness for the "rough stuff," and the sporting goods catalogues have usurped the grammar and arithmetic books. F. Rendle, teacher, will act as coach.

Jack Joseph Brought Them Into Smithers Tuesday: Over Seven Feet Long

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—Big game is the rage here now, and to start it off auspiciously Jack Joseph drove into town with two grizzly bears on Tuesday. The animals were shot in the Babines and are splendid specimens, the largest measuring in excess of seven feet long.

PRINCE RUPERT MEN FINED AT SMITHERS

Two Exceeded Bag Limit When Hunting in Bulkley Valley This Week

The rosy reports broadcast on the coast by the members of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade who recently spent a week in these parts spelled disaster for Geo. Findlay and Wm. Reid of that town, who, carried away by the glowing accounts of excellent shooting, backed by numerous exhibits, made a trip to Barrett on Monday. The conditions were found to be all that was claimed and the hunters started right in, which was quite within their list of privileges. But in failing to stop at the bag limit they fell foul of Constable Fairbairn and Chief Service, who confiscated the total cut together with the weapons. Last night the men walked in and pleaded guilty to exceeding the speed limit on game, paying in ten dollars and costs, which they charged up to the rattling good time they had in a country where the grouse are plentiful and tempting.—Interior News.

Charles Ryan of Port Simpson, charged with the theft of a gas engine, was committed for trial by Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod yesterday afternoon. Accused will come up in the County Court for election on the return of Judge Young from Smithers.

Sport Chat

It is sixteen years since such an exciting wind-up as that now in progress has been recorded in the big baseball leagues. Every game from now to the end of the season will count in the deciding of which teams are to enter the world series. In fact the games are now attracting as much general attention as the big series probably will. Both the Giants and Yanks are fighting hard to be in the big fall garden party but whether this affair will again be exclusive to Gotham is indeed a matter of doubt. The chances of the Senators in the American League and the Brooklyn Dodgers are just as good to get in on the finals. It is a pretty safe bet that financial returns for club owners, officials and players will be higher this year than ever before—not to mention the proceeds that will go in the way of taxes to the United States treasury.

The closing stretches of the two pennant races take one back to 1908. That was the year when New York and Chicago had to play off a post season tie in the National League, with Pittsburg only a game away. In that same season Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis and Chicago were all snarled up in another tangle where the final run in the final game decided the issue. Through the last few days a base hit meant a pennant in more than one camp. The same status may exist the last few spans of the present race. It was mainly the pitching arm of Wild Bull Donovan that pulled Detroit through sixteen years ago. The pitching

SON SHOT IN MISTAKE FOR A GRIZZLY BEAR

Antoine Isadore of Moricetown Victim of Hunting Accident in Bulkley Valley

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—The provincial police were called on to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Antoine Isadore, aged 16, who was killed at Moricetown on Friday last.

It appears that the deceased in company with his father and another Indian, One-eyed William, were out after grizzly, and in the hunt became separated. Some time after the father seeing a stealthy movement in the distance, immediately concluded it was a bear and placing his rifle to his shoulder made unerring aim. Hastily proceeding to the spot where the supposed bear should be he was horrified to find the lifeless body of his son—another victim to mistaken identity. Chief Constable W. J. Service was communicated with and, accompanied by the coroner for the district, S. H. Hoskins, was quickly on the ground. All the facts of the case being fully investigated it was decided that an inquest was unnecessary as the shooting was purely the result of an accident.

Next Thursday an official visit will be paid to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club by Frank C. Riggs, district governor. Special arrangements for this are in the hands of the executive.

W. H. Chapman Expects to Terminate His Sixteen Thousand Mile Tramp at Prince Rupert

(Special to Daily News)
SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—Almost 80 years "young" and the spirit of youth personified, W. H. Chapman, who is hiking across the continent, arrived here Wednesday at 5.00 p.m. on his way to Prince Rupert, where he will terminate a walk of 16,000 miles. He is averaging 25 miles a day, but expects this average will be lessened when he "hits the ties" from Hazelton to Prince Rupert. On his arrival in Prince Rupert he will report to the mayor, and then proceed to Vancouver where a wager of $5,500 awaits him. He is 20 months ahead of his schedule, so is "taking it easy" from here on. He carries official documents from the mayor of every city and town he has passed through, as well as letters bearing the official seals of the premiers of the provinces. While here he is the guest of Mayor Orchard at the Bulkley Hotel. He left Smithers on Thursday morning taking with him the good wishes of the citizens, for a long and happy life.

COLLEYMOUNT PEOPLE MARRIED AT SMITHERS

Miss Alice Louise Eastment Becomes Bride of Delmer Wellington Cassidy

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—A very quiet wedding took place in the Union Church, Smithers, on Wednesday, Sept. 17, at 5.00 p.m., when Mrs. Alice Louise Eastment, postmistress, of Colleymount, B.C., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gothard, of London, England, and Delmer Wellington Cassidy, of Colleymount, B.C., and third son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cassidy, of Saskatoon, Sask., were united in marriage by Rev. M. W. Lees. Miss Elizabeth Noek, was bridesmaid, and L. S. McGill supported the groom. The happy couple will make their home at Colleymount where Mr. Cassidy is engaged in ranching. Mrs. Cassidy is just back from England where she enjoyed a year's holiday in London and the county of Somerset.

THANKSGIVING AT SMITHERS

Service Conducted in Union Church Was Well Attended: Mrs. Bennett Sang

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—The annual thanksgiving service was held in the Union Church on Sunday last. The church which was packed to capacity, was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the delicate tints and flaunting hues of the flowers, blending admirably with the amber-colored grains and grasses of the field. The north and south walls were covered with grains, grasses and shrubbery, most tastefully arranged, while from the platform and pulpit was emitted the sweet fragrance of hundreds of blooms. It was a most beautiful display, the like of which has never been seen in town before. In keeping with the occasion Rev. M. W. Lees preached an able and inspiring sermon. Special emphasis was laid on the necessity of our recognizing the natural and inherent good in each and every individual and fostering this inherent good. A choir under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Boyer, augmented by the Gray Orchestra, rendered special music. Mrs. S. B. Bennett sang "A Dream of Paradise."

SMITHERS PEOPLE ARE ENTERTAINED BY VISITING GEOLOGISTS

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—Dr. G. Hanson, Dominion geologist, and Mrs. Hanson, were hosts at a most delightful party held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Millar, Third Ave., on Tuesday night, in honor of Messrs. Gunning and Barton, assistants to Dr. Hanson, who are shortly leaving for their homes in Vancouver. There was a most representative gathering of the young people of the town, who completely filled the spacious residence at their disposal. Games, songs, music and dancing, were all in order, after a tempting lunch had been served.

CHALCOPYRITE ORE ON HUDSON BAY MOUNTAIN

SMITHERS, Sept. 19.—John Watt has made a notable discovery of chalcopyrite ore on one of his mineral claims. The scene of his find is on the Wait Group, on the south slope of the Hudson Bay Mountain. The vein is three feet wide, and is in sight for a considerable distance on the surface. So far no assays have been made for gold or silver — which will probably run high, as copper ore in the section referred to assays usually as high as Galena.

SMITHERS

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bannister have returned from their honeymoon and have taken up their residence on Second Avenue.

R. Baird, Inspector of Municipalities, is in town in his official capacity.

C. Kelley has reopened his meat market on the corner of Main and Broadway.

A son was born at the Bulkley Valley District Hospital on September 14 to Mr. and Mrs. B. Hoops, of Telkwa.

It is reported that J. F. Duthie will arrive in Smithers at the end of the current month in connection with his mining interests in this part of the province.

Dr. G. Hanson, Dominion Government Geologist, is at present on Hudson Bay Mountain looking over the claims of H. Thompson and D. Lamont. These properties are on that side of the mountain facing Lake Kathlyn.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Union Church held in the home of Mrs. P. Chapman, Alfred St., it was decided to hold the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner on November 10. November 26 was the date selected for the Annual Church Bazaar.

The fact of the grouse being more numerous since the beginning of the week is explained by J. J. Beesley returning to Prince Rupert on Monday. He made several good bags which substantiated his prowess in the field. Mr. Beasley and children are remaining for a longer period at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. E. Page.

"Thundering Dawn"

A gripping, melodramatic thriller. A stirring love story of two women, one good, the other bad, and their struggle for the soul of a man. Glamour! Romance! Tremendous sensations! Spectacular effects! A mighty typhoon, an awe-inspiring tidal wave are amongst the big scenes pictured in this colossal love drama. Crashing storms. Devastating avalanches of water-wind-lashed seas, and amidst all, the fierce, primitive struggle of a woman of culture and a woman of the underworld for the soul of a human derelict. Superb cast. J. Warren Kerrigan, Anna Q. Nilsson, Tom Santschi, Edward Burns, Chas. Glary, Winifred Bryson and many others.

SPIRITS FOILED BRITISH FLYER

Natives of Urup Island Declare
Stuart MacLaren Courted
Bad Luck at Totokan Bog

TOKIO, Sept. 19.—Ill fortune, which attended the attempt of A. Stuart MacLaren, British round-the-world aviator, and his companions to fly across the remainder of the globe after leaving Japan, is attributed by the natives of Urup Island, one of the bleak Kuriles, to the airman's own indifference to evil spirits.

When Major MacLaren's big Vickers amphibian hopped off from Toshimoye, Yotorofu Island, one day in July, with Paramushiru Island, at the north of the Kurile chain, as his goal, fogs and wind compelled him to land at Totokan Bay, on the southwest coast of Urup Island. The bay is exposed, and when the wind rose Major MacLaren flew his plane a short distance inland, alighting on a body of brackish water known as Totokan Bog. In so doing, according to the sparse population of Urup Island, he courted the malevolence of evil spirits.

Totokan Bog is an ill-omened water. The natives say it is bottomless, and that no man has ever entered its water and come out alive. There is an evil female spirit, the natives believe, who makes a specialty of handsome men, and when such a one comes to the bog he "vanishes like smoke" and his body is seen no more.

Four years ago two sailors attempted to cross the bog by swimming. They were seen to reach the middle of the lake, swimming strongly, and then together went down without a sound.

Major MacLaren rested for four hours on the shores of the bog, living at an experimental fox farm, maintained on the island by the Japanese Department of Agriculture and Commerce, and then hopped off on a successful flight to Paramushiru.

GYRO CLUB AS ROTARY GUEST

Will be Entertained at Dinner
Week From Thursday: Bridge
Drive After

Instead of the regular Rotary luncheon on Thursday, October 2, arrangements have been made for the Rotary Club to entertain the members of the local Gyro Club at a dinner to be followed by a bridge tournament in which all members of each club will participate.

At the luncheon there will be fifteen minute addresses by one person from each club on what seems the most feasible undertaking for the club during the coming year and whether it should be undertaken by the clubs individually or jointly. This will be followed by a short discussion by three men on either side after which the bridge will be started.

The bridge tournament is to be under the management of Col. McMorde and the general arrangements for the dinner are to be handled by George Bryant, Thomas McClymont, W. E. Williams, George Woodland and Jim Lee.

DISAGREEABLE POLICE WORK

Proprietor of Clinton Rooms Appears Before Commission
Regarding Recent Search

At the meeting of the police commission last night, J. Anderson, proprietor of the Clinton Rooms, Fraser Street, appeared in person to complain of the action of the police in connection with a search that was made there. It was explained that the search was made by the Dominion Police of the Indian department, complaint having been made that Indians had been getting liquor there. They were aided by Sergeant Bailey of the city force.

Sergeant Bailey and Constable Watkinson both gave evidence of the complaints that had been made of these rooms and of the search that had been made there. One Indian was found there drunk but a white woman, who was suspected, and who had been previously convicted, although she got off on a technicality had refused to admit them. Indians were suspected of being in her room. They had not conducted themselves in any uncouth or indecorous manner.

Mayor Newton said he was not presuming to tell Mr. Anderson how he should run the Clinton rooms but advised him to keep objectionable characters away.

Commissioner Montgomery said he was satisfied the officers had not exceeded their duty. He referred to the possibility of people over the line moving up town if the place was not kept clean.

Mr. Anderson commented on the fact that the people over the line seemed to have a great deal of prestige. He objected to being dictated to by the people there.

The mayor said they had no prestige at all. If others were allowed to carry on that kind of business up town they would think they could come and do the same, where they could make more money.

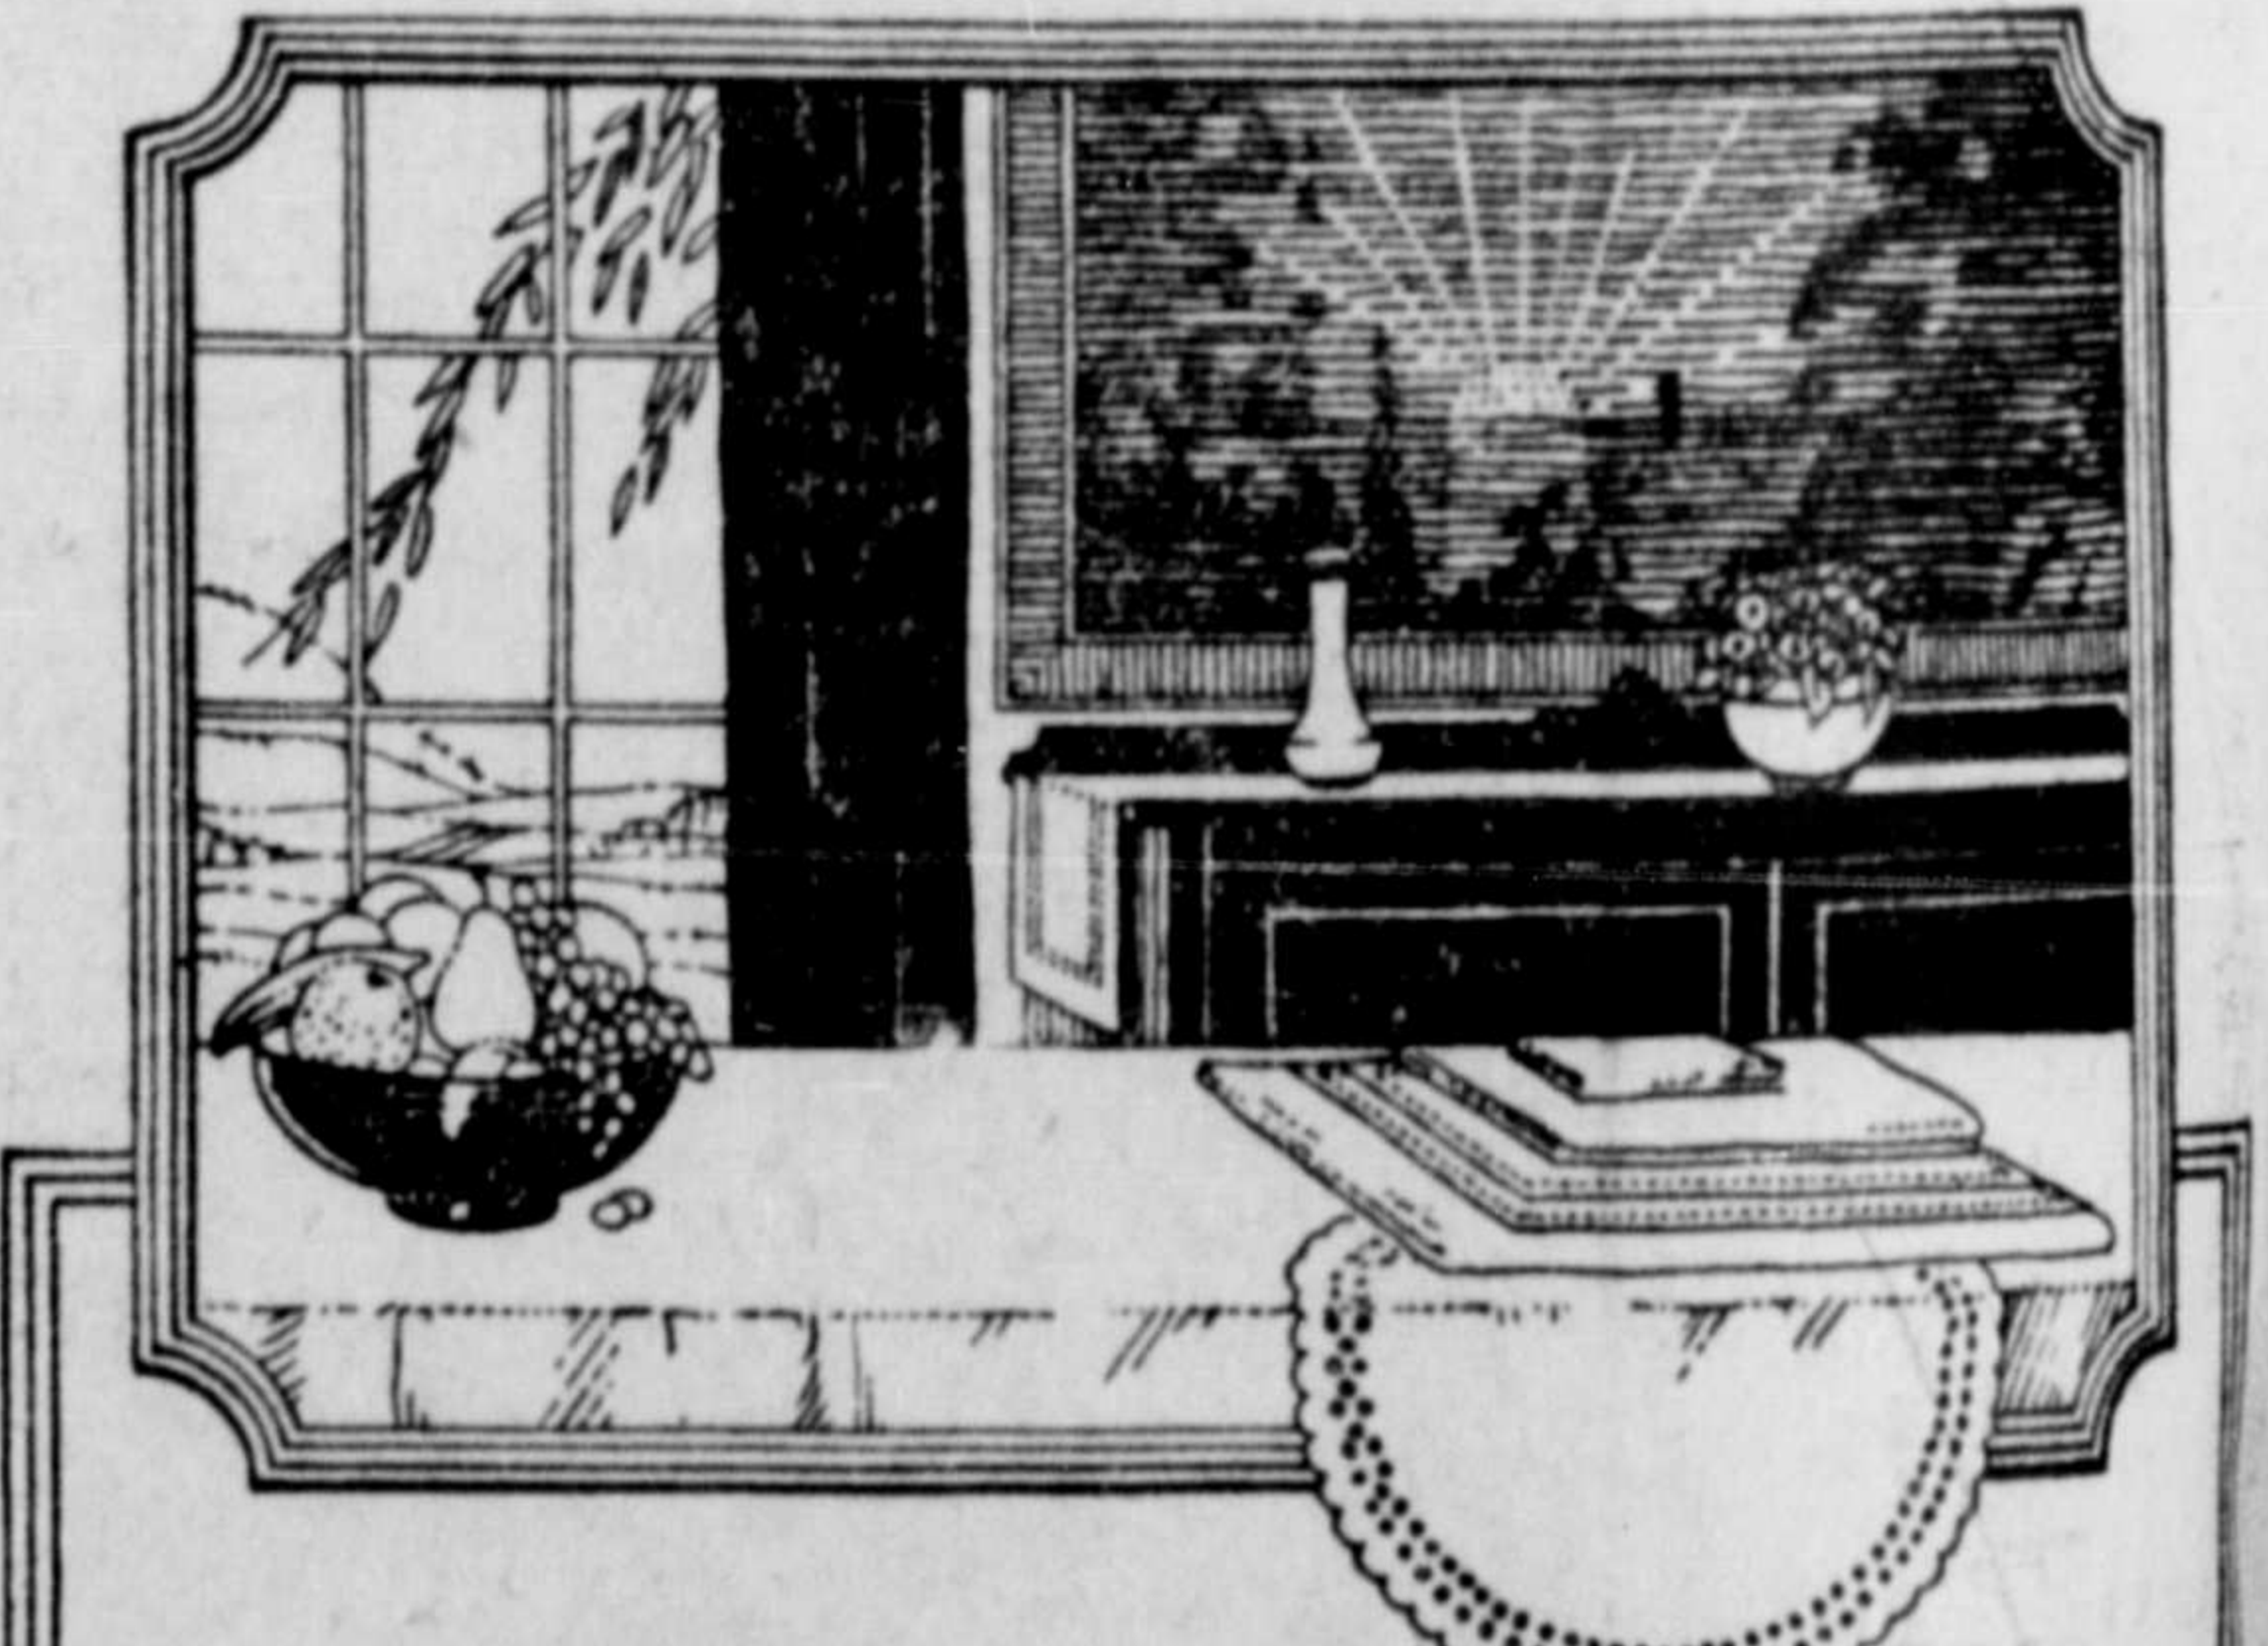

Commissioner Montgomery said they were not dictating. He had simply used that argument to show that they must improve conditions uptown instead of allowing them to become worse.

Snowy Table Linen

Of all things, table cloths and napkins benefit most from the mild, cleansing Sunlight bath. An ordinary washing wears table linen out even more than table use. How different the Sunlight way! Just soak the clothes, after rubbing lightly with Sunlight Soap, and all dirt is loosened, all grease dissolved—and this without any grinding rub on the wash board. Then you rinse and the dirt just runs away. Result: freshness, purity and snowy cleanliness.

Commissioner Cameron also not apprehend. Summing up, the mayor stated that there was no dictation but it was impossible to keep people from talking. The Mayor said a couple had come up and started near the Clinton rooms but had run against obstacles which they did not want to see anyone unduly bothered but hoped police would keep at the job.
