CANADIAN NATIONAL OFFICERS OFFER AID

MACLAREN NOW PREPARING FOR HARD FLIGHT TO KURILES AND ALEUTIANS

Railway Staff Willing to Give Days' Pay per Month to Reduce Costs

MONTREAL, July 7.—In view of industrial and trade conditions which have resulted in a falling off of the gross receipts, officials of the Canadian National Railways from the president down have volunteered to give one day's pay per month to the management to help in the reduction of operating expenses.

The offer, which emanated entirely from the officers themselves, has been gratefully acknowledged by the chairman and the board of directors. The situation is being fully gone into to ascertain if it will be necessary to accept the voluntary offer and, if so, to what extent it will be necessary to put into force reductions in the salary list of employees throughout the system.

HOME BANK IN PRIVY COUNCIL

Judgment is Reserved on Petition of Directors Against Jury Trial

LONDON, July 7.—The judicial committee of the privy council today reserved judgment on the petition on behalf of the accused directors of the Home Bank from the original decision of the committee that the matter in question was of a criminal and not civil nature and therefore did not come within the jurisdiction of the judicial committee. Argument in the appeal of the attorney general of Ontario against the judgment of Mr. Justice Middleton of the Ontario Supreme Court granting speedy trial to the accused directors therefore was brought to a rather sudden and unexpected end.

SPECIAL TRAIN ON WAY HERE

C.N.R. Tour Party Entertained at Prince George—at Kitwanga and Sunnyside Today

PRINCE GEORGE, July 7.—Nearing the end of the first lap of the trip, the special train carrying the third annual personally conducted tour over Canadian National lines arrived here on schedule at 5:30 o'clock last evening. After dining on the train, the party was entertained by the board of trade to a two hour motor drive.

Today the train will make stops at Kitwanga and Sunnyside where the passengers will be given an opportunity to see the famous Indian village and inspect a salmon cannery respectively and is due to arrive at Prince Rupert at 8 this evening.

The party leaves on the Canadian National S.S. Prince Rupert for Vancouver where it will disband for various points.

The Hazelton Horticultural Association supplied bouquets of flowers for the dining car of the special train. This is the practice of the Association with all tourist trains this year and it is proving a valuable means of advertising the district.

MacLaren plans to remain here for several days while the plane is overhauled and made ready for the long and strenuous jumps through the Kurile Islands and across to the Aleutians. He hopes to get away Saturday, his first stop being Minato on the northern end of the Island of Honshu.

A program of entertainment for the British flyers similar to that given the Americans is arranged to take place during their stay.

U.S. FLAG AFFAIR IN CITY OF TOKIO IS SMOOTHED OVER

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Charge Caffery at Tokio has advised the State Department he has been officially informed that the man who tore down the United States flag in the American Embassy compound here has been arrested and that a representative of the Tokio police department called upon Caffery July 1 and apologized on behalf of the police.

The ban on publicly was removed on July 1, the Charge said, and the vernacular press gave the affair much prominence in the Mississauga Conservatory of Music examinations with very creditable amination.

The standing of the most of them have been receiving instruction for less than a year. They were:

Elementary, Archie Thompson;

British Sprinter Leads in Olympic Semi-Finals; Will Race with Yanks in Final

COLOMBES, France, July 7.—Cyril Coaffee, Winnipeg's crack sprinter, failed to qualify today in the finals for the 100 meter event at the Olympic Games. Entering the qualifying round by winning in two heats on Sunday, he was beaten today in the semi-finals of the same event.

The second semi-final in the 100 meters was won by Harold Abrahams, the British star, who beat Charley Paddock and Chester Bowman, the United States entrants. The latter finished second and third thus putting four American sprinters in the finals.

Abrahams equalled the previous Olympic record, his time being 10.35 seconds.

Ritola of Finland won the 10,000 meter Olympic race on Sunday.

COMMITTEE FAVORS BUILDING OF SHIP

Alaska Steamer Endorsed at Ottawa—C.G.M.M. May Have Other New Boats

The Vancouver Province says that the Dominion Parliament standing committee on national railways and merchant marine has recommended the construction of a new steamer for the Alaska service. This apparently is the steamer which is to be built at Prince Rupert.

The committee also indicates that some new vessels may be bought or built for the development of fresh fruit and passenger traffic between Canada and the West Indies.

ONTARIO NIGHT WATCHMAN MURDERED

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 7.—That Newman H. Orth, 52, night watchman at the freight sheds of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto railway, missing since Friday night, June 4, was murdered, was made certain this morning when a body taken from the Welland canal at Port Robinson, 13 miles from here, was identified as that of the missing man.

Orth's hands were tied behind his back by piece of rope and he had been rendered further helpless by long portions of stout wire which had been wound around his body from the hips upwards, to the ends of which railway fish plates were attached for the purpose of sinking the body. After being fettered this way his coat had been placed about him.

His duties took him through the freight yards inspecting the seals of cars. The first theory points to his having come upon car thieves who struck him down, placed him in an automobile and threw him into the canal.

MISS WAY'S STUDENTS SUCCESSFUL AT EXAMS

Eight Students Pass Their Tests Creditably—Most of Them Have Been Studying Only Short Time

The eight students entered by Miss M. A. Way passed their Toronto Conservatory of Music examinations with very creditable amination. The Jiji Shimpo characterized the act as "a stain on our national honor." The standing of the most of them have been receiving instruction for less than a year. They were: Elementary, Archie Thompson; Intermediate, Gwen Brady, Molly Lawrence, Jean Ritchie, Irene Mitchell, Billy Fuller, Eleanor Moxley, and Edith Kergin.

FRANCE IS SURPRISED

At Premier Macdonald's Sudden Decision to Consult With Premier Heriot

PARIS, July 7.—Premier Ramsay Macdonald of Great Britain informed Premier Heriot of France today that he would arrive in Paris at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to confer with him regarding the proposed inter-allied conference in London next week. The message took the political world by surprise particularly so in view of the fact that Premier Heriot has an appointment for three o'clock tomorrow afternoon to reply to questions in the senate on the very subjects which Premier Macdonald is coming to discuss.

The French foreign office declines to comment on the sudden decision of the British premier.

Industrial Population is What We Want.

What this district wants is people here to consume agricultural products. If those people come, there will be no difficulty in getting the farmers to grow what will be needed. The capabilities of the Skeena and Bulkley valleys, the Nass River valley and the Queen Charlotte Islands to produce fruits, hay, grain, meat, and dairy produce do not need to be further proven. There are plenty of fine lands in the districts awaiting the settler, but farmers and ranchers can hardly be expected to take them up unless some market is in prospect for their goods. That market can only be provided if there is a population engaged in industrial pursuits. It is not sensible to expect that the agricultural possibilities of this large hinterland back of Prince Rupert will be realized in full or nearly so until there is an assured market found for the goods. A country producing grain or meat exclusively can grow and prosper with its market far removed but not so with the mixed farming district which the country back of Prince Rupert must necessarily be for some time yet.

Agricultural Situation As It Stands Today.

Therefore the immediate and pressing necessity for the future progress of Prince Rupert and district is industrial rather than agricultural population. Already the fishing industry centred at Prince Rupert is capable of supporting a certain amount of agricultural production. The mining, lumbering and shipping businesses of the port through their employees are making a further demand. The fact of the matter, however, is that, from an economically sound standpoint, more industries are needed here if agriculture is to be properly fostered.

Soon Our Hopes May Be Realized.

This industrial development, which the city and district needs so badly at the present time, we still confidently hope will be brought to pass within the space of a very brief time. The ship that is to be built here will provide only temporary employment. While it will mean perhaps one year of good times, what we really want is not one ship but ships building all the time. It may be a little over optimistic to expect, however, that we may see this at once.

What is not over optimistic, however, is the hope for the development of this port as a grain shipping centre. The establishment of one grain elevator here will mean a great deal more to the general prosperity of the place than most people realize. Much more will two or more grain elevators mean. Once there is an elevator here, ships may be expected to come to the port to load full—something that has never been done here before. There will be essential adjuncts such as coal bunkers, flour mills, etc. Ships coming here from the Orient will bring cargoes from there and plants for the remanufacture of products from across the western ocean will be required. One may go at great length conjuring up the things that may be reasonably expected.

In addition to grain handling here, something may be expected in the way of the lumber industry such as sawmills and pulp mills. There may also be a greater centering of the mineral business here with the possible establishment of a smelter.

It is these things that are needed for the permanent prosperity of Prince Rupert and the vast agricultural hinterland that lies behind it. This district when it starts to advance must necessarily go forward as a unit and when it does there need be no fear of losing ground. It all takes time but the profits from this spent time will doubtless be realized in fullest measure.

BASEBALL PICTURE COMING THIS WEEK

"Trifling With Honor" is Story
Replete With Dramatic Interest and Human Touch

Honor is a fragile thing, a thread taut before the eyes of the world, sustained by the favor of public regard or broken by the whim of public disdain.

The motion picture public is brought poignantly to this realization in "Trifling With Honor," the Universal-Jewel photodrama which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Bat Shugrue had a good name. He was the home run king of the Pacific Coast Baseball League and a romantic hero to thousands of followers of the game. He was classed as a "regular," and he never disappointed the boys in the bleachers who cheered for him. He always "delivered," and his presence at the "plate" in a pinch meant victory for his team. But as the wind shifts the course of a straw in its path, public opinion one day cornered Bat Shugrue, and the home-run king was brought face to face with a decision that held his life's freedom and happiness in an unbreakable clasp. To hit the ball meant the loss of all but one thing that every man holds dear—his honor, and failure in this pinch to "deliver" meant his freedom, but at the loss of his good name.

It is a story filled with dramatic interest and has a human touch that is like a chapter from real life. Prominent players in the cast include Rockcliffe Fellowes, Buddy Messinger, Fritz Ridgeway and Hayden Stevenson. Fellowes is ideally suited for the leading role.

When you buy advertising you buy CIRCULATION, and see that you get it.

EXCELLENT VEHICLE FOR POPULAR STAR

Pola Negri to be Seen Here at End of Week in "Shadows of Paris"

The Pola Negri of "Passion" is to be returned in the Herbert Brenon Paramount production of "Shadows of Paris," which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre at the end of the week. The star once more comes into her own. She is quite her old self as Claire, leader of the Apache bands of the Parisian underworld. Then there is Charles de Roche as her Apache lover, who is called away to war and falsely reported killed; Huntly Gordon as Raoul whom Claire, posing as a Polish war widow, marries; and Adolphe Menjou as Raoul's secretary and friend—all are featured and all give excellent accounts of themselves.

The story is one of the upper and lower world of Paris, the playground of the entire world. It is a colorful and appealing tale, an adaptation of the French play, "Mon Homme," by the author of "Kiki."

Gareth Hughes and Vera Reynolds head the strong support.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

I WONDER what the flies would do in the summertime if there were no bald headed men.

THE wickedness of playing the stock market generally consists of being unlucky.

THE crime wave is now worn on the head judging from the appearance of the bobbed haired damsels.

THE taster of the bride's cake generally has more pleasant dreams than the man who is obliged to eat her cookies.

THE man who wilfully argues the right of way with a truck driver or a woman driver is wilfully looking for trouble.

"HAVE you seen a policeman around here recently?" innocently asked the thug of the prosperous looking gentleman. "No, I have not," replied he of the heavy watch chain. "Then hand over your valuables," quickly snapped the purse snatcher as he produced his gat.

HAVING money left you and having money leaving you are two totally different things.

AN optimist is a man who sets his own obituary to jazz.

LOVE may make the world go round but it doesn't always seem to make the pay go round.

IT used to be that a gentleman asked a lady if she objected to smoking him now he passes her his cigarette case.

ELKS' MINSTRELS AT ESSINGTON

Rain Interfered With Picnic Although Many People Made Trip

While the Elks' minstrel show given at Port Essington under the management of Ben Self was a distinct success the picnic was marred yesterday by a heavy rainfall, the latter part of the celebration taking the form of a dance and general entertainment.

The minstrel show was held on Saturday evening in Cunningham's Hall before a crowd of between 350 and 400 people. The program had been changed slightly from that given in the city recently. The audience was very appreciative of the many turns offered. The minstrel program, comprising songs, jokes and instrumental selections was performed by J. Mitchell, Master Bruce Stevens, W. Mitchell, W. E. Williscroft, Dick Howe, Harvey Fraser, D. Balfour, A. Astoria, L. Astoria, G. Couture, E. Sabourin, H. Astoria, J. Batchford, Jack Cobb, Art Easson, J. Pinder-Moss, Geo. Crate, H. Seton, and Laura and Howard Frizzell. The Elk's orchestra comprised Chas. Balagno, leader; A. Mitchell, drums; K. Rood, R. Frizzell, W. H. Derry and Art Easson.

A party of about 150 people went over to Essington yesterday morning on the boats Atlin, Laura F., Rose Spit, Nornen and Malamute. The heavy rainfall prevented any outdoor celebrations and the Cunningham Hall was consequently crowded with picnickers who enjoyed dancing to music furnished by the Elk's orchestra and a general entertainment.

The minstrel troupe returned to the city on last night's train and the picnickers returned to port on the boats at 9:30 last night.

THE MILK FIRST

We had a guest out to see one of our plants last week. She was amazed at the care the men take to see that Pacific Milk maintains its high standard of richness. Each can must yield its sample for testing. It can't be too rich, but if it drops a point below our high minimum, the lot is rejected. She was quite flattering in her remarks about the cleanliness of the place, though we keep it spotless as a matter of daily routine.

RACE WITH BALLOT BOX

ANNUAL TOUR PARTY IS HERE

Two Hundred Persons Coming in on C.N.R. Special Train Tonight

Charles M. McIntyre of Anyox arrived in the city Saturday evening with him the ballot boxes of the Telegraph Creek and Dease Lake polling stations, the two places in the province which are the hardest of access.

Mr. McIntyre says it was the most memorable trip of his career. Leaving Prince Rupert on June 9, he arrived at Wrangell on June 10. At this point, the Barrington boat Hazel B. was waiting and a start was made at 4 p.m. for the Stikine river. The river was in flood and, after hard bucking the canoe was reached the evening of June 11. Here the water was coming through in a seething mass, making it impossible for the boat to proceed further, so a stop was made until the 12th, in the hope that the water would subside, instead it kept on rising, so the boat had to return to Wrangell, a fresh start being made on the 17th. After considerable effort, Telegraph Creek was reached on June 19, so the ballot boxes for this point was in time.

Dease Lake however, was one hundred miles distant, and the boxes had to be there next day. The task appeared hopeless, as there was no mode of conveyance except to Wards Hill—20 miles—by a motor truck. Bob Quinn, the returning officer, a lean and bronzed mountaineer, said he would make the effort and young Jack Dodd, the crack musher of the North, was sent along as pacemaker and relief man with the pack. The party piled into the old motor truck at noon, just one hour after our arrival, and climbed the grade out of Telegraph with the population cheering.

The official in charge for the Canadian National Railways is E. G. Wickerson, travelling passenger agent of Regina. The party was met at Jasper by R. F. McNaughton, district passenger agent, who will arrive with the tourists tonight.

PIONEERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

John Dybhavn is President—Two New Members Admitted — Picnic Discussed

The annual general meeting of the Prince Rupert Pioneers' Association was held in the Metropole Hall on Saturday evening. The report of the secretary-treasurer showed the organization to be in a fairly good financial condition.

Offices were elected for the ensuing term as follows:

President—John Dybhavn.
Vice-president—Mayor S. M. Newton.

Secretary-treasurer—H. M. Dargett.
Historian—P. W. Anderson.
Second vice-president—Mrs. P. W. Anderson.

Executive—F. W. Hart, Geo. W. Johnston, A. J. Galland, W. J. Raymond and A. Ivanson.

The question of the annual picnic was discussed and the matter left in the hands of the executive for final action. W. F. Cameron and U. Rothwell were admitted to membership. The meeting hoped that all pioneers of the city would lend active future support to the association.

animals are susceptible. Horses, dogs, cats, and even poultry, have been victims of the infection; the last three classes being dangerous as carriers of infection. Man may also become infected and children frequently suffer through drinking raw milk from infected cattle.

Highly Infectious

As all the natural discharges of affected animals are highly infective, and as some of them, particularly the saliva, are largely increased during the attack, the disease is readily conveyed by these media. It is frequently conveyed from place to place by human agency, such as attendants, owners and interested neighbors, as also by dogs and small animals.

Although the fatalities are quite low serious losses result from the diminution or cessation of the milk secretion and consequent interference with the business of the dairy, as well as through the extreme loss of flesh in animals. Dairy farmers are put entirely out of business for indefinite periods. Quarantine restrictions seriously interfere with the movement of live stock, their parts and products, also of hay, straw and other fodders, in addition to other farm produce. Stockyard operations and the business of slaughtering centres are seriously interfered with. Marketing, transportation, feeding and slaughtering operations are deranged and interfered with. Losses of this character may reach enormous proportions. The foreign markets are promptly closed and the export trade of an infected country is lost for long periods.

Stringent Regulations

The British authorities have been endeavoring at a cost of millions of pounds to eradicate the infection of this disease in that country for over two years, and those of the United States are similarly engaged in the State of California, where it was recently introduced from foreign countries through the Port of San Francisco.

The Canadian Federal Department of Agriculture, with a view to protecting our live stock interests, are enforcing the most stringent regulations which cover the species of animals and commodities that are likely to carry the infection of the disease.

If live stock owners should have reason to suspect the existence of this disease in Canada, it is of the utmost importance that they notify the nearest Veterinary Inspector and telegraph collect to the Veterinary Director General at Ottawa. In the meantime they should tie up their dogs and not permit anything to leave their premises. Prompt control measures and the willing and intelligent co-operation of the stockmen are essential to prevent disastrous results if the infection of this disease gains entrance to Canada. Every one should remember, however, that prevention is better than control.

CANADA'S POLICY TOWARD REDS

Hon. Hugh Guthrie Proposes Dominion Should Take Advantages of U.S. Regulations

OTTAWA, July 7.—Canada's policy towards "red" immigrants came under discussion in the House of Commons last week.

Following the Winnipeg strike of 1919, rigid changes were made in the Immigration Act in regard to the admission of persons seeking to overthrow constituted authority by force. A government bill discussed modifies the 1919 legislation to some extent. J. S. Woodsworth, Labor Centre Winnipeg, said that the amendments proposed were an attempt to get rid of some of the "vicious legislation" of 1919, but they did not go far enough. Hon. J. A. Robb, minister of Immigration, argued that immigrants accused of holding views opposed to the social code of the country were not, under the bill, deprived of a fair trial, but he did not think trial in the ordinary courts necessary.

Chinese on Shipboard

Incidentally the question was raised of Chinese employed on boats owned by the British Empire Steel Corporation. Mr. Robb contending that the men had not been admitted to Canada but were on the seas.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, former Solicitor-General, urged that Canada should take advantage of the severe immigration laws of the United States and select the best of the European immigrants.

The bill passed the committee stage after prolonged discussion and stands for third reading.

Chinese Immigration

A. W. Neill, Independent, Comox-Alberni, brought up the subject of Chinese immigration. There was nothing to prevent the Chinese Exclusion Act being disregarded and permits authorized in this act being issued to Chinese for indefinite residence in Canada. He moved an
