VANCOUVER LAWYER SKIPS FROM STATES

LOCAL CHURCH CARRIED FROM SILLS BY FORCE OF GALE ON SATURDAY

Anderson Skips Bail and Arrived Vancouver Other Bail is Doubled

VANCOUVER, Dec. 1.—F. L. Anderson, the Vancouver lawyer, who was arrested in San Francisco in connection with the steamer Quadra seizure, returned to Vancouver Saturday without permission of the United States authorities but declared he intended to return to San Francisco for the trial of his case in January. He was released on bail of ten thousand dollars but denied permission of the court to leave its jurisdiction.

When it was learned that Anderson had returned to Vancouver District Attorney Sterling intimated in San Francisco that he would take steps to secure forfeiture of the bond.

"I expect nothing else than an attempt to forfeit my bail," said Anderson, when shown the report. "The action of the United States authorities along this line will simply be in keeping with the way they treated me from the time of my arrival at San Francisco."

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The district court forfeited the ten thousand dollars bail put up by F. L. Anderson. Anderson's leaving without permission of the court is "but another illustration of the cynical disregard of the laws of the United States by the defendant said Judge Partridge. He said Anderson could be extradited.

The bail of the three other defendants Captain George Ford, first mate John Harris, second mate John Evelyn of the Quadra was raised from $10,000 to $20,000 each.

Mabbs, arrived from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands at 11 o'clock last night. She brought a light freight and passenger list, there being about 30 first-class passengers for here.

The vessel will return south on the same route at 8 o'clock this evening and it is expected will make up the two days that she is now behind on her schedule.

Bert Robson, the regular purser, is still holding down the office of the John but Chief Engineer Alex. Munro of the Prince George is in charge below and Chief Steward Adam Ramsay from the Prince George is supervising the work of feeding the Island passengers' palates. Captain McLean and Chief Engineer Mulhern, regular officers of the John, are ashore in Vancouver and Chief Steward Danny Main is on a long desired vacation.

MRS. HANKINSON WAS BURIED YESTERDAY

Wife of Smithers Doctor Laid to Rest at Interior Town

The funeral took place at Smithers yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Lucretia Sangster Hankinson, wife of Dr. C. H. Hankinson of that place who died at the hospital after a long illness.

The deceased lady had always taken an active part in the welfare of the community being a great worker in connection with the Union Church Ladies' Aid and of the Hospital Auxiliary. She was also a member of the Rebekahs Lodge. The last time she took part in public affairs was when she gave her assistance in connection with the Church Christmas Tree and concert at the end of last year. It was soon after that she was forced to give up her community and social activities and was confined to her home practically an invalid up to the time of her death, which was caused by valvular disease of the heart.

The late Mrs. Hankinson was born in Guysboro, N.S., on September 15, 1895, and came west to Alberta to accept a position as school teacher. It was while teaching that she met Dr. Hankinson who was then attending college in Edmonton, and to whom she was married on September 11, 1918.

In addition to Dr. Hankinson, three little sons, a father and two sisters are left to mourn her loss. Charles Hadley, the eldest boy is four years old, Hazen Wood, 2 1/2 years and Elmore Llewellyn one year and three months. The father, D. C. Sangster, is a contractor in Smithers. One sister, Miss Jean Sangster is a school teacher at Vulean, Alta., and Isabel, the other sister is the wife of Roy Elsey, a principal at Vancouver.

MEN ARE MORE SHORT TEMPERED THAN WOMEN

Is it so, or is it not so? Some men naturally will dispute the statement, but these same men should recollect the times they have lost their tempers when they lit the fire in the morning and it went out, leaving them to do the whole thing over again.

Fortunately this trouble can easily be eliminated. Coal is being sold today which can be ignited from paper rolled into balls. A good fire is going in a few minutes and breakfast is ready in no time.

This coal is the famous Nainaimo-Wellington, sold only by Albert & McCaffery. Every pound of it double screened—no rock or shale, no slack and very little ash. It lasts longer, gives greater heat and better service. These are some of the reasons for so many repeat orders. Be one of the many wise people. Do as they do by ordering nothing but Nainaimo-Wellington coal. Prompt and civil service. Remember the phone numbers are 116 and 564.

tures. What he has been able to accomplish with the aid of his owner and trainer—notably in "Where the North Begins"—gives him undisputed title to being the "wonder dog." It is doubtful if a more intelligent canine has ever lived.

"Find Your Man," which is soon to be shown at our theatre, is a photoplay story especially written by Darryl Francis Zanuck to show Rin-Tin-Tin at his best. While it is in no sense merely a "stunt" picture, it provides abundant opportunity for the dog to offer additional proof that here is an animal governed more by a thinking, trained intellect than by instinct. It has a climax which is ingenious in the extreme and exciting to the nth degree.

The principal "humans" in the cast are also of more than passing interest. June Marlowe plays the leading feminine role and Eric St. Clair has the male lead.

Rin-Tin-Tin Was Found Behind German Lines in France and is Now Movie Star

Rin-Tin-Tin, the "wonder-dog," with the name of the famous French good luck doll that every "dough boy" encountered during the closing days of the World War if he happened to be "somewhere in France," is almost an American institution. It is like "carrying coals to Newcastle" to attempt to introduce him to the average motion picture theatregoer. He was "made over night" some months ago when the Warner Bros. produced "Where the North Begins" with Rin-Tin-Tin as its star.

Picked up as he wandered aimlessly back to the German lines in the closing days of the war, Rin-Tin-Tin was brought to this country by Lieut. Lee Duncan. With him came his wife, Nanette. The head of the family had been taught to earn his living amidst unusual surroundings as he dodged shells and poison gases and it was only reasonable that he turned to motion pic-

CHANGING HUSBANDS IS CURIOUS STORY

Mutual Falling in Love Saves Difficult Situation in Mid-Week Play

Realizing that his wife, Gwynne, is bored with her life of idle ease and luxury, Oliver Evans agrees to her plan that for three months she is to be free to try for a stage career. He promises to keep away from her for this period of time, although she is to live in their Park Avenue apartment.

In New York, Gwynne discovers that she has a double in the theatrical world, by name Eva Graham, whose lack of histrionic ability is retarding her success. Their remarkable resemblance to each other prompts Gwynne to propose that Eva change places with her for three months. The bargain is struck. Eva takes up her residence at the Park Avenue apartment while Gwynne moves to a hotel, assuming the name and role of Eva Graham.

Bob Hamilton, Eva's fiancee,

BRITISH AUTHORITY IN STIRRING PLAY

Sir Percy Sykes, of London, England, former commander-in-chief of the British forces in Persia, and authority in royal court etiquette, aided D. W. Griffith in staging several of the most spectacular scenes in "America," the romantic photodrama of the War of Independence, which will be here at the week end.

Until Sir Percy, who has been thrice presented at the Court of St. James, as well as at the royal courts of India, Persia and other eastern countries, volunteer, Griffith and his research workers were at a loss to learn the details of court ceremonies in 1775, for despite the voluminous writings of the diarists of that period, none of them described formal court etiquette in detail.

Just prior to Sir Percy's arrival, Griffith, after months of search, had engaged a foreign actor who bore an uncanny resemblance to the best authenticated pictures of King George Third, for that role.

So much did this actor look the part and play it that Sir Percy, a deep student of George's reign, seemed to forget that he was dealing with a modern actor, and when addressing the latter always did so with a deep bow, and with the words, "If his Majesty will deign—"

In the Letter Box
WHARF AT SKIDEGATE

Editor Daily News.

The kindness of the forestry department in calling an open season again for burning is greatly appreciated by the residents of this district who have to make their weekly "trek" to the wharf at the Indian reserve to meet the Prince John.

They can now, instead of freezing with cold, build camp fires to keep themselves warm during their long vigil, very often in vain, during the long winter nights, waiting to see the good ship arrive.

This is a common occurrence especially during the winter, and it makes it especially hard for the settlers, whose lot is none too easy anyhow.

The condition of the wharf at the Indian reserve is in a disgraceful condition and is indeed now in an unsafe condition.

Your newspaper has consistently tried to boost the Islands and we know that you are interested in their welfare, and we feel that we are entitled to some support from Prince Rupert in our struggle to get at least fair communication with the outside world.

Not Unreasonable

We have not been asking for anything unreasonable, as we know that the Government has enough troubles, but we feel that we are entitled to the wharf here if for no other reason than to help lighten the burden of the "men who have stuck" and are trying to do their little to develop the country.

We have petitioned the Government repeatedly, and although various influential men have stated in public that we will get it, there is apparently a hitch somewhere.

All who have visited here and are competent to judge, bear out our statements, and more especially the masters of the Grand Trunk boats, and who are better qualified than they?

We bear no ill will to those who have opposed our applications, for what reason we know not, but we do feel that questions that concern the benefit of the community at large, no matter how small they may be, should be taken out of the "mire" of politics, and be treated with proper consideration as they deserve.

Of Vital Interest

In closing we would ask you to do your best in our interests at this time to help us procure our wharf here. The matter is of vital interest at the present time, owing as we have stated, to the condition of the Indian wharf.

The question as to this being the most suitable location is beyond argument, and it will be to the benefit of both steamboat service and Rupert fishermen, who are behind us in our request, to have it placed here.

Thanking you in anticipation,
E. C. STEVENS.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY AT CHURCH YESTERDAY

Sermon Preached on Scottish History Theme by Rev. H. R. Grant

Led by the pipe band the members of St. Andrew's Society, fifty strong, last evening marched in a body to the Presbyterian Church where the members of the auxiliary also sat in a body as part of the celebration of St. Andrew's Day.

The sermon was preached by Rev. H. R. Grant, D.D., who reviewed that phase of Scottish history revolving around the signing of the solemn league and covenant. He urged his hearers to stand firm in the cause of right just as their fathers had stood firm in days of old.

A solo was sung by Mrs. McMillan and there were special hymns for the occasion led by the choir. The old church building was packed to the doors.

A "Batch" Cook

A man who "batches" writes a humorous sort of letter, making light of his cookery, yet an underlying sound, common sense is there. He says if all B.C. products were as good as Pacific Milk they wouldn't have to "Boost B.C." He says he hasn't tried them all. We know that many manufacturers here make better things than are imported, though people are slow in finding it out.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day, "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.
