LOYD GEORGE ON OFFENSIVE

Makes Caustic Remarks in Addressing Edinburgh Audience—Likens Party to Old Topper

EDINBURGH, Dec. 22.—Ex-Premier David Lloyd George, in addressing an audience of three thousand people on Saturday night, admitted that many Liberals had poured double scorn on the Liberal party's parliamentary leader. He though this was rather an ill-conditioned piece of folly and said that it was only in the last few days that the Liberals had succeeded in revealing a conspiracy against the country's fiscal scheme.

"Eighty-eight years ago the cry was protection. Now the party, like an old topper, is getting back to its old tittle and is changing its name at every turn." Lloyd-George declared it was no use Premier Baldwin declaring war on the city slums if he permitted land monopoly to rob and pillage the community with impunity.

The Citizenship Of Doukhobors.

The strange community of Doukhobors that gathered in conclave at Brilliant, elected a spiritual leader to succeed Peter Verigin, whose accidental death left it without a head after he had led these people for thirty-eight years, says the Manitoba Free Press. They have chosen Peter Lordy, a son of Verigin. He is understood to be a Russian, in the prime of life, and is said to be educated. The report of the proceedings at Brilliant states that he was in Canada for six months some ten or twelve years ago and that he is now in this country on his way to accept the leadership. The hold Peter Verigin had upon these people has been more tenacious than has been any similar association in this country. Will that of his successor be as close, as unbreakable, as undefeatable?

It is strange that so little should be known of these people. They have lived here a quarter-century and yet are as inscrutable as when they first struck the prairies, or very nearly so. They have not been allowed to mix but have been hemmed in by ignorance of language and conditions. They have been so hedged, they could not break out, and Canadians could not get in. Verigin had it so. The only approach had to be made through him, or one of his chosen supporters. Even the government of Canada could not get at the heart of these people for they were unapproachable so long as Verigin willed it so.

What will be the attitude of the leader who has been chosen? Will he maintain his anomalous isolation or advance gradually into the common citizenship? The answer will depend upon the manner of man he is, and more particularly, on the relationship in which the community will hold him. They may regard him as they regarded Verigin when he will hold a sway over them that may continue to add to their vast prosperity but divorce them more than ever from the citizenship which protects them.

Communism Cannot Last In Russia.

The future of Russian politics may turn to a large extent on the success or otherwise of the attempt now being made to banish Leon Trotsky, who, with the late Nikolai Lenine, was instrumental perhaps more than any other in putting communism actually into effect in Russia.

Now that the system of sovietism in Russia has been in operation for some six years, it has been given a good try-out. It has been found that the principle of nationalization of industry will not work. With private enterprise stifled, production has decreased. Russia has been trying to develop foreign trade but, under the system of strict communism, it has been fully ascertained that the country cannot even produce enough for its own demands—much less for export.

Levine some three years ago moderated the policy of strictly collective bargaining and instituted a temporary measure permitting of private trade. The country immediately began to benefit but the "new economic policy" was gradually put out of business again. Trotsky was in favor of restoring private trade again to a certain degree but to this his fellow governors of Russia were opposed. Hence the move that has now developed to oust him. It will be interesting to note if the Red Army, which he organized and which is solidly behind him, will allow his deposition.

If Trotsky does go, strict communism will be vogue perhaps a little longer but, no matter what happens, it cannot last. The Russian peasant agriculturalist, and most of the Russians are such, is by nature a private trader. As long as he is not pinched with want, he may stand for communism. Communism is pinching him, however, and if the old order is not restored governmentally, it sooner or later will be by revolution.

It is perhaps significant that Red tendencies have been emphatically repudiated in the United States and Great Britain recently.

XMAS SUNDAY AT CHURCHES

Appropriate Sermons and Special Music Featured Services Before Large Congregations Yesterday

Christmas was generally observed in the city churches yesterday. Sermons were appropriate, special music was a feature and the churches were all elegantly decorated. The weather being auspicious, the attendance is almost all cases was large.

The service at the Methodist Church included special Christmas music and anthems by the choir, the church being filled to capacity. Rev. G. G. Backer in his Christmas address, "A Merry Christmas — and Then Some" spoke of the generosity of people at Christmas when they would give and do things which they never thought of doing the rest of the year. He urged his congregation to endeavor to carry out the spirit of Christmas throughout the year.

A feature of the service was the playing of the orchestra under the direction of H. A. Pryce. This orchestra rendered "Simple Confession" by Thome, and "War March of the Priests" by Mendelssohn. Both were splendidly executed. The orchestra included H. A. Pryce, conductor; A. J. Lancaster (organ), Mrs. Martin, Miss Osborn, P. Black Jr., E. Walters, Eric Dingwell, Frank Cameron, H. L. Mann, Mr. Easton, C. W. Kirkendal, J. Gawthorn, D. Munro, W. M. Boss, F. Derry and W. Brown. Miss K. Jones sang solos accompanied by A. J. Lancaster at the organ.

Salvation Army
 The Salvation Army band played for the first time on the city streets last night. The hall was well filled for the service in the citadel that followed. Those who spoke were Mr. Martin, Miss E. Mumford and Mrs. Rea. The band rendered "Winchester Old," "Abide With Me," and "Uttermost." The Bible lesson on the unwise men was read by Capt. Rea. The following young people were enrolled as junior soldiers under the Army flag: Annie Smith, Doris Smith, Carl Smith, Henry Smith, and Jack Gawthorn. Usual services took place in the morning and at Sunday school in the afternoon.

Baptist Church
 At the Baptist Church the service took the form of special Christmas anthems by the choir supplemented by Christmas carols and hymns. S. Wylie gave a special Christmas address, taking as his subject, "Christmas" W. Vaughan Davies presided at the organ.

Central City Mission
 Special Christmas services were held at the home of the Fourfold Gospel presided over by Pastor J. W. Knights. Instrumental and vocal solos were rendered and Christmas carols and hymns sung. In the evening Pastor Knights took as his subject "A Christmas Message on the Individuality of the Gospel."

Presbyterian Church
 A children's Christmas service was held at the Presbyterian Church in the morning, the choir of 40 children, under the leadership of Mrs. H. B. Grant, singing "We Three Kings of Orient Are," and the primary class, Luther's cradle song, "Away in a Manger." Several Christmas carols and hymns were also rendered. Rev. Dr. H. B. Grant gave an appropriate Christmas address entirely for the little folks. The church was artistically decorated in green floral and poinsettia effect.

In the evening special Christmas music was rendered. The choir sang the anthem, "Let Us Now Praise Thee, O Bethlehem," and various Christmas carols and hymns. A quartet consisting of Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. McMillan, John Currie and A. Clapperton sang "Sleep, Holy Babe." Mrs. R. A. Harlow was accompanist.

Special services will take place in other city churches on Christmas Day.

Miss Ruth Rix arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the Cardena from New Westminster, where she has a position on the public school staff as a domestic science instructor, to spend the Christmas and New Year vacation with her parents, Archdeacon and Mrs. G. A. Rix, Archdeacon Place.

MANY CLAIMS TO VALUABLE LEGACY

Correct Use of Famous Title has Encouraged Pretenders

About the year 1880 the pioneer prospectors of British Columbia discovered a remarkable coal. After many trials and tests it was positively established that this coal represented the acme of economy, efficiency and comfort. To this fuel they gave the new famous name of "Nanaimo-Welington," representing all that was best in coal.

No sooner was it found that the public insisted on getting this Wonder Fuel than other coals were put on the market under very similar names. So much so that the public were at a loss to say which was the genuine and which the imitation. Of course it was easy after a trial—a single sack will prove it—more lasting and more powerful heat from a few shovelfuls, hardly any ash, no clinker or rock, all these points stand out when you make a practical test in furnace, fireplace, heater or cook-stove.

This famous Nanaimo-Welington coal is sold only by Albert & McCaffery to whom all orders should be phoned direct. Prompt delivery service given by their own teams and trucks; Their phone numbers are 416 and 564.

BRINGING UP FATHER

SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HERE AND EVERYWHERE

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

AN optimist is a man who always carries a corkscrew.

THE government build homes for the feeble minded and the motor factories turn out high powered cars for the lunatics.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

Captain McGee, well-known in Prince Rupert, is about to establish a navigation school in Prince Rupert. He has rented quarters in the Helgerson block and will shortly be in a position to commence instruction.

Sport Chat

At the first of last week, the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor and the Great War Veterans' Association teams were leading in the second division billiard league. This week finds the Billiard Parlor still in first place but the Vets have made a sudden drop from second to fourth position, clean sweeps made in last week's tournaments by the St. Andrew's and Grotto teams having been responsible for their downfall. In tomorrow night's league fixture, the Vets will meet the Billiard Parlor and there is a possibility that the two teams will be drawn closer together. With the St. Andrew's and Grotto teams now between them, it looks as if the first half of the schedule will end in an interesting manner with the four top teams still much in the running for the season's honors.

Like everything else, local sport is this week drawing into the holiday season and there will be a general cessation of various activities along this line until after the New Year. The basketball leagues finished their first half of the season last week with the Anyox-Prince Rupert High Schools giving a suitable finish to the year. Early in the New Year, basketball will be resumed again and the schedule will be published in a few days. The first division billiard league finished up a couple of weeks ago and the last game of the second division will take place tomorrow night. Both men's and ladies' sections of the Fraternal Whist League are suspended until the middle of January.

The ending of the first half of the season in the various lines of winter sports sees the competitions in almost every case in a very uncertain state and it is hard to say who are going to emerge champions next spring. This makes it certain that the games between now and then will be followed with a great deal of interest. Teams now in the lead in the various lines of sport are:

Senior Basketball—Elks.
Intermediate Basketball—Maple Leafs.

Ladies' Basketball—Maple Leafs.
Junior Basketball—Tiny Tims.
Men's section of Whist League—Sons of Canada.
Ladies' Section—Daughters of England.

First Division Billiard—Billiard Parlor.
Second Division Billiards—Billiard Parlor.

There is one good point about the radio. The well intentioned singer is invisible to the audience.

THESE are the days when Tom and Jerry begin to pay their Christmas calls.

ONE good resolution to make in the New Year is to get out and vote on every conceivable occasion and vote right.

ENGLISH COMEDY SUCCESS IN FILM

"Mord Em'ly," Being Presented Here on Wednesday and Thursday is Novel Picture

Mord Em'ly, the big English comedy success, opens at the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday. Mord Em'ly is one of the greatest hits of recent years, having met with tremendous success in the Old Country. It is the story of a young Cockney girl, who lives in Pandora Mews. Mord Em'ly finds it necessary to secure a position as an "housemaid" general, and there the fun commences.

Mord finds herself in the service of three prim old maids, who, to use her own expression, "give her the 'ump.'" Mord has some hilarious and cyclonic adventures as a servant girl, but finds herself unequal to sticking it, and forthwith she does a bunk, which lands her once more amongst her old friends on the Walworth road. Here she once more meets her bloke, Battling 'Fury Barden, who has earned himself a reputation as a box fighter of no mean ability; and for a while Mord is happy, being as she is now "kerosene to the one what she loves."

But further adventures await Mord Em'ly, and after several reckless and carefree escapades she finds herself "haccidentally and unfortunately interned" in the Worcester reformatory—but even here the sunshine of Mord Em'ly's personality is shed over the unfortunate inmates, and the pedagogical authorities are subject to the amusing and daring pranks of the Cockney girl. Meanwhile Mord becomes fed up with the bloomin' reformatory and she culminates her escapade by making a daring escape from the reformatory right under the eyes of the law; and then she has a right merry time for a while keeping away from the watchful eyes of the various copers. However, Mord always was an artful dodger, and everything turns out well on that score.

Meanwhile Mord Em'ly's sweetheart is preparing for the biggest fight of his career where-in he will tackle the Brighton Bomber, the champion of Sussex, Essex and Wassex. The Bomber is a prohibitive favorite over Mord Em'ly's sweetheart, and the fight is conceded by all to be nothing but a slaughter, but young 'Fury Barden has a few tricks of his own to display, and when the big bout of the evening is called at the London East End Boxing Club, the public is due for the surprise of its life, for the fight turns out to be one of the greatest bouts ever pulled off in the history of that same athletic club.

GLORIA SWANSON IN "HER LOVE STORY"

Popular Star Scores Another Hit in Picture to be Seen Here at End of Week

Gloria Swanson scores another big success in her picture "Her Love Story" that is coming to the Westholme Theatre at the end of this week. The synopsis of this interesting story is as follows:

Gloria, as Princess Marie of the tiny Balkan kingdom of Vlatavia, falls deeply in love with Capt. Rudi, handsome young officer of the King's guards. It is hopeless from the first, especially when her father, the Archduke, decides the Princess would make a satisfying Queen for the reprobate King of Mergovina, a neighboring country. The Archduke hopes that such a marriage will greatly enrich him.

Hoping to avert Fate, Rudi and the Princess are secretly married by a gypsy, so when the Duke informs his daughter, she tells him she is already married to Rudi. Rudi is sent to join a regiment in Australia. The duke ignores the existence of the gypsy marriage, and the royal wedding takes place.

A child is born to the Queen—Rudi's child. The king celebrates the birth of his "heir." The Queen, too honest to live a lie, tells him the boy is Rudi's. The King keeps the boy, but orders the Queen confined in an old castle. Rudi returns and helps the Queen to escape.

Later they hear of the child's illness and go to the castle. Rudi holds off the King's guards while the Queen escapes with her son. In a storm she makes for the castle of her father. She finds that the old man's mind is gone. A physician tells them that the boy is in no danger.

The King dies, and the boy is about to occupy the throne when the Queen makes the startling announcement that the child is Capt. Rudi's, and all she asks is to be able to leave the country with her husband and child. Capt. Rudi falls on his knees and begs the Queen's forgiveness for any doubts he may have had concerning the boy. Later, the couple, with their child, leave for a neighboring country and happiness.

BROADWAY LIFE IN TONIGHT'S PICTURE

Scenes That Beggar all Description Presented in "Broadway at Night"

Off with the old love,
On with the new.

That seems to be the motto on Broadway, where pampered sons of wealth, actors and chorus girls—sensation seekers of all descriptions throw off all restraints and go in for the wild flings that make Broadway notorious, a theme for fiction, a mecca for all who wish to see life with a capital L.

Speed and zip, necking parties, studio affairs—all the night life of the great light-flaming street lives in "Broadway After Dark," the screen version of the Owen Davis play scheduled to make an appearance at the Westholme Theatre tonight and Tuesday.

Scenes that beggar description, episodes more bizarre than those found in the Arabian Thousand and One Nights, a veritable fairland of midnight adventures are found in this romance of the Great White Way.

Besides an all-star cast in the picture appear scenes from the famous Actors' Equity Ball, at which the following Broadway stars appear: Fred and Dorothy Stone, Mary Eaton, Raymond Hitchcock, Elsie Ferguson, Florence Moore, James J. Corbett, John Steel, Frank Tinney, Paul Whitman, Irene Castle, Buster West, and a thousand others.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, who have been on a trip to Vancouver returned home on the Cardena yesterday afternoon.

FINE CONCERT AT SEAL COVE

Affair Friday Night Had Large Attendance and Reflected Credit on Training

About 95 appreciative friends of Seal Cove scholars assembled in one of the school rooms for the concert on Friday night which every child in the school endeavored to make a success.

The playlet entitled "Mother Goose's Party" gave scope to varied gifts. Mother Goose was Miss Thelma Skinner, who acted as a charming hostess. Her helpers were the Misses Angelica Colussi and Margaret Fergusson. Miss Edith Brewerton was Mother Hubbard and led in the singing of "Jingle Bells" with great sweetness. A feature of the evening causing great amusement was Brown Betty's (Ivan Bussanich's) hen which persisted in cackling before it's appointed role. Miss Charlotte Soriano made a charming daffidown dilly and Miss Aleza Dodd as Betty Blue. Lillian Vacheher as Bo-Peep, Edna Strand as Miss Muffet, were dainty favorites. The boys' parts were taken well. Jack Meadley was loyal to his Jill in the person of Miss Ethel Moorhouse. Geo. Veirick took the part of Jack Horner, Charles Wood was Boy Blue, Miss Bertha Bjornson was a lively Mistress Mary and Fred Peachy was a perfect Peter Piper. Mark Cayenaile was Simple Simon, and Briand Parsons and William Watt were friends who helped the party by their singing and recitations.

The four children dancing the minuet were Misses Edith Fergusson, Eleanor Sievert, Leo Dorian, and Jim Colussi. This was one of the prettiest features of the evening. A drill perfectly carried out was executed by Rupert Soriano, Rupert Businich, Darrow Gomez, Jimmy Colussi, Misses Cecile Cayenaile, Kazui Nishil, Ethel Moorhouse and Alice Gomez. There were action carols in which Primo Vacheher, Thorston Bjornson and Amego Soriano took part and were gorgeously dressed as the Three Kings. The shepherds Rene Cayenaile, Guido Businich, Michael Colussi, and Charles Anderson formed a picturesque group, and Angelica Colussi, with three angels, Edna Strand, Edith Fergusson, Alice Gomez, in the cradle scene were well received.

Costume Drill

The costumed drill "Playing at Soldiers" was performed by Robert Peachey, George Fergusson, Briand Parsons and William Watt with their partners Charlotte Soriano, Laura Bjornson, Aleza Dodd and Mary Martin.

The recitations were "Hiawatha's Hunting" by Amego Soriano, who spoke with much feeling; "The Inebriate Roe" by Fred Peachey; "If I were Santa" by Jim Colussi and "Pockets" by Kazu Nishil. Others who pleased the audience with recitations were Eleanor Sievert and Charlotte Soriano.

The entire performance reflected great credit upon the careful training given to the children by their teachers, Miss Winnie Larson and Miss Beth Stewart, while the parents of the children rendered valuable service in building a stage and in helping with the costumes and refreshments. Mark Cayenaile and Frederick Peachey had charge of the curtain.

ELKS' CANDLE WAS LIT ON SUNDAY

Mayor Newton Ignites Taper that Will Decide Winner of Guessing Contest

With all due ceremony the Elk's Christmas cheer candle, in the window of the St. Regis Cafe, was touched off by Mayor Newton at 1.30 yesterday afternoon. Exalted Ruler Ben Self, presided over the ceremony assisted by officers of the order. The guessing contest as to the number of hours the candle will burn has proved very popular and, while the total receipts from this source are not yet known, it is expected a goodly sum will be realized for the purpose of helping the needy this Christmastide.

SCHOOL CONCERTS ARE HELD AT SMITHERS

Pupils at Interior Centre Appeared to Advantage in Term Closing Exercises

SMITHERS, Dec. 22.—Three divisions of the Smithers school held Christmas closing exercises on Friday last. Grades III and IV, under the supervision of their teacher Mr. Reynolds, had their concert beginning at 1 p.m. Grades VII and VIII, under once you allow your bowels to become constipated you will become troubled with bilious and sick headaches, and for relief you must help your liver to remove the poisonous bile that is circulating in the blood and upsetting the entire biliary system. For this purpose there is no other remedy so certain.

MILBURN'S LAXA - LIVER PILLS

Mrs. L. G. Seabrook, R. R. No. 1, Orman, Ont., writes:—"I was awfully troubled with constipation, and sick and bilious headaches accompanied with severe vomiting spells which made me very miserable. I tried different remedies, without relief, but since taking Laxa-Liver Pills the headaches and constipation have disappeared, and I am very thankful for what they have done for me."

For sale at all druggists and dealers; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Miss Fetterly, starting at 1.30 and Grades V and VI, under Miss Hanna, at 2 o'clock.

The program consisted of games, recitations, dialogues, class singing, class readings, piano solos and vocal solos, all of which were performed most creditably by the scholars taking part and reflected much patience and coaching by the teachers in training the pupils for these events. A large number of parents and friends accepted the invitations to attend and were very much pleased with the entertainments.

L. B. Morton, conductor on the Canadian National Railway who has been residing in Los Angeles, arrived in the city on last night's train.

Jobs We've Sent Away

There is considerable talk about idle men and creating work for them to do. Certainly we must.

But the whole problem is one of our creation. Last year we spent enough for imported shoes alone to have given every idle man a job if we had bought Made-in-B.C. Boots instead of imported ones.

Preference for home products—more work, better wages for us all.

MOOSE CHRISTMAS TREE ON SUNDAY

Enjoyable Affair Took Place in Metropole Hall Yesterday

The annual Christmas tree entertainment given by the Loyal Order of Moose was held yesterday afternoon in the Metropole Hall. The place was packed to capacity with happy Moose kiddies and their parents. Sons and daughters were a feature of the program. Fred Scadden was chairman and Mayor Newton, in a fitting speech, opened the proceedings.

The several enjoyable items on the program included a solo by Mrs. J. Field; recitations by Alfred Larson, Dannie Sigmond, Adell M. Scadden, Miss L. Ytreberg, Miss Edna Unger, Miss Olive Hildebrand and Miss Freda Mussallem. Mrs. Scadden and M. Mussallem sang songs, and F. Miller rendered a mouth-organ solo.

At the conclusion of the musical program the chairman read a wire from Santa Claus, which caused much merriment. The wire stated that Santa's reindeer had broken a leg and that he had secured a moose to help things along. Harry Astoria, who took the part of Santa Claus, then appeared on the scene and, prior to handing out the presents, made a suitable speech to the children urging them to always be of good behaviour. The distribution of presents then took place and every child in the room received a gift and bags of candies, nuts and apples.

The committees responsible for the success of the entertainment comprised Jim Bacon, chairman; Fred Scadden, N. Mussallem, Ralph Kieflhaber, Gillis Royer, M. L. Stepp, M. Ohmesorg and E. Larson. The ladies assisting were Mrs. F. Scadden, Mrs. J. Field, Mrs. Thor Johnson and Mrs. Unger.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT AT OONA RIVER IS SPLENDID AFFAIR

OONA RIVER, Dec. 22.—A delightful evening, which will linger long in the memories of the people here, was spent in witnessing the closing exercises for the Christmas holidays on Friday evening under the guidance of Miss Gross of Prince Rupert. The schoolhouse was crowded to the doors. The program was well carried out and reflected much credit upon Miss Gross, not only as a teacher but as an entertainer also.

The program included "Star of the East" by the class; "Joy-bells," Misses Marguerite Fossum, and Gertrude, Anna and Lilly Halland; star drill by ten girls; Lullaby by Miss Thelma Norberg and Miss Vera Morse; Swedish Christmas song, the Misses Ingrid and Vera Morse; Three Kings, Misses Lillian Franks, Astrid Hanson and Dagby Norberg; Manner class, Fred Letts, instructor in manners, and Vernard Fossum chairman.

The thanks of the people of Oona River is extended to Murray Fuller and Mrs. A. O. Franks of Prince Rupert who both helped to make the event such a success, the former with many Christmas gifts and the latter for her hard work. Mr. Redmond made an ideal Santa Claus and delighted the kiddies with the many seasonable gifts.

SESSION FEATURED BY GOOD FEELINGS

H. F. Kergin, Member for Atlin Pleased with Proceedings at Victoria this Fall

"It was a splendid session in which the absence of bitterness was a feature," stated H. F. Kergin, M.L.A. who was in the city yesterday afternoon on the Gardnera returning to his home in Alice Arm for Christmas after having spent the past couple of months at Victoria attending the legislative session. "Much important business was disposed of and the predictions that the government would have a hard time in getting through were proven to be incorrect. The government received a substantial margin on every division of importance. The proceedings were featured by amiability of feeling on the part of the members of all parties."

FORMER LOCAL MAN WAS PRINCIPAL IN RACE WITH DEATH

David Greenwood Drifted Down Fraser River in Icy Tempest With Dead Companion, George Watts

David Greenwood, who is said to have resided for ten years in Prince Rupert, figured as the principal in a thrilling race with death on the Fraser River last week. His companion, George Watts, having fallen ill while employed on a dredge near Chilliwack, Greenwood undertook to take him by rowboat to the hospital at New Westminster. Greenwood lost control of his little craft in a furious storm and the boat drifted down the river in the freezing night and finally went ashore on Matsqui Island. Rescuers found Watts dead and Greenwood in an unconscious condition. The latter is now making a rapid recovery at the Mission Hospital.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.

PRINCE RUPERT WINNERS AGAIN

Defeated Anyox School Basketball Teams in Second Games Saturday Night

In the second basketball games of the series between the Anyox High School and the local High School basketball teams played in the Auditorium on Saturday night before a good crowd of enthusiasts, the home teams were again victorious. The score in the boys' game was 19-9 and, in the girls' game, 30-8 in favor of the local teams.

At the conclusion of the basketball games, the Anyox and Prince Rupert teams were the guests of the Elks at the cabaret entertainment in the Elks' Hall on Saturday night. Yesterday afternoon the students visited the plants of the dry dock and the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company.

Entertained Hosts

The Anyox basketball teams entertained their hosts at a delightful dinner in the St. Regis Cafe yesterday evening. Miss Kathleen Haslett, on behalf of the Anyox teams, thanked their opponents in a fitting speech for the great measure of hospitality they had received. Miss Blanche Macdonald made a suitable reply on behalf of the local High School students. Principal J. C. Brady addressed the gathering in a humorous and seasonal farewell Christmas vein and impressed upon the students the importance of the playing of inter High School games which promoted good sportsmanship and a friendly feeling.

Farewell

At the conclusion of the dinner the local High School teams and friends of the Anyox players went down to the steamer Cardena to wish the visitors farewell. There was much jollification at the dock and serpentine was thrown and grasped until the boat was well away from the shore.

A BAD COLD DEVELOPED INTO BRONCHITIS

Mrs. Levi Ogden, Amherst, N.S., writes: "My baby girl had a very bad cold which turned to bronchitis, and she could not sleep at night for the coughing. I gave her everything I could think of to relieve her, but nothing seemed to do her any good, and she was not getting any better. I was advised, by a friend, to try

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

I did so, and after giving her a few doses I saw good effects so I kept on with it. I gave her two bottles, and her cough soon left her, and now she is as well as can be. I cannot praise Dr. Wood's enough; it is certainly a wonderful medicine."
