Stuart MacLaren Scarcely Stops at Bushire but Continues to next Station: Americans still Stalled

BUSHIRE, Persia, April 22.—Stuart MacLaren, the British aviator essaying a world flight, arrived here today by the air route from Baghdad and after a short halt set out again bound for Bender Abbas, near the southern extremity of the Persian Gulf.

GORDOVA, April 22.—Major Martin succeeded about midnight in completing the installation of a new motor to his plane, according to advices received from Kanatak. He reiterates his intention of leaving today to fly 550 miles to Dutch Harbor to join his command of three planes awaiting him there, unless the weather forbids.

Word from Dutch Harbor was that Lieutenant Wade had placed a new motor in his machine and that he and his companions will be ready to depart for Atka Island, 350 miles west, as soon as Flight Commander Martin has joined them.

PRINCE LEAVES FRANCE TODAY

Travelled in That Country Incognito and Kept it up to the Last

LETOUQUETTE, France, April 22.—The Prince of Wales, resuming to the last his incognito as the Earl of Chester, motored to Boulogne today and sails tomorrow for England. The Prince passed the morning on the golf links and the afternoon in the Casino. Before leaving he expressed great satisfaction at the manner in which his incognito had been respected during his visit.

MAIL CLERKS WOULD STRIKE

Proposals of Government to Civil Service Commission Are Declared Unsatisfactory

LONDON, Ont., April 22.—At a meeting of railway mail clerks on Monday, the wage proposals of the government to the civil service commission were declared to be unsatisfactory. It was also declared that a strike in this branch of the postal service would be inevitable if the schedule was adopted.

ADDED TO COST OF PRODUCING STEEL

Abolition of Twelve Hour Day Makes Big Difference to Big Corporation

HOBOKEN, N.J., April 22.—The abolition of the twelve hour day in the steel industry is costing the United States Steel Corporation about $35,000,000 yearly and adding ten per cent to the cost of operation, Chairman Gary told the stockholders at their annual meeting.

SOVIET BOOKS AND POSTERS

Literature Brought by Russian Trade Delegation Attacks Christian Religion

OTTAWA, April 22.—The Soviet trade delegates who came recently to Ottawa to secure government recognition in their mission for the development of trade between Canada and Russia, were back here yesterday afternoon on a somewhat different errand. They were asked to do some explaining and the process is still in progress.

It appears that customs authorities going through cases of books addressed to the delegation and which supposedly were to be presented to private libraries, have discovered a very large proportion of Bolshevik propaganda literature. Some of which is an attack upon Christ and the Christian religion.

Other parts of the literature are in defense of the monarchial or even republican forms of government, and of the countries where such exist, and in enigma of Communism. Those who have seen the samples declare them to be a peculiarly lurid "red."

Asked to Explain

Yesterday afternoon a part of the delegation was haled before some high authorities here and asked to explain the importation of such quantities of questionable matter. The explanation, it is understood was that it was for private libraries and in fact some of the works were text books on Russian geology and the like, which might be acceptable for such a purpose.

The explanation does not so satisfactorily cover the other literature, and especially flaming posters in propagation of Bolshevism, and authorities are now engaged in conducting a further investigation. It is said that the delegation has been in touch with a sympathetic element in Winnipeg and other cities and generally their activities are being checked up.

No Propaganda

While there is a willingness to trade with Russia, if they have the money—and it does not appear to be prolific—it is being made clear here as it was to a similar delegation by Premier Ramsay MacDonald in England, that the dissemination of Bolshevik propaganda is not to be carried on under any camouflage of trade expansion, or otherwise. It is doubtful if the literature, which is said to be peculiarly offensive in many respects, is allowed to reach its intended destination.

Schools are Burned in Doukhobor Settlement Around Brilliant and Residence of Peter Veregin Gone

NELSON, April 22.—Three Doukhobor schools and the residence of Peter Veregin, president of the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, were destroyed by fires believed to have been of incendiary origin this morning. All were in the Brilliant area about 25 miles from here.

There have been a succession of fires in the area occupied by the Doukhobors. About seven schools have been destroyed in this and the Grand Forks settlement area within the last two years and it is understood it has been done as a protest against the forcing of the Doukhobors to educate their children according to Canadian laws.

Storms Tore Away Rudder and Sails of Motor Schooner as she was Bound for this Port

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—With her rudder, bowsprit and jib boom torn away by storms, the 65-ton British motor schooner Pescawha put in here Monday after having drifted 900 miles down the Pacific Coast.

With a crew of six men, the Pescawha left New Westminster for Prince Rupert on March 20. She was caught by north-west gales off Cape Scott, the north end of Vancouver Island, and was forced to run with sail before the wind. She drifted south as far as San Luis Obispo. There was no cargo on board.

BENNY LEONARD TO BE MOVIE STAR AT BIG PRICE LIKE DEMPSEY

Railway Station at Vanderhoof Destroyed by Fire Last Night While Agent Away at Concert

VANDERHOOF, April 22.—The Canadian National Railways station and freight shed here was completely destroyed by fire last night. It was first noticed shortly before ten o'clock, when it had already got a firm hold and before any assistance could be obtained it was well beyond control. In less than an hour the buildings were a total wreck.

The agent's private property, to the value of two thousand dollars was covered by insurance. No one was around at the time, nearly all the townpeople, including the agent, were attending a concert in the community hall.

So far the origin of the fire is not known, but appeared to have started from the kitchen in the house, as the fire first got a thorough grip in that section. The loss to the company will be about $6,000.

Temporary facilities both for a ticket office and telegraph office are being provided and business will proceed as usual.

Judging by the inquiries which are coming in, there will be a great many entries for the essay competition. The only qualification is that the person writing it shall do the work himself or herself and shall be under the age of sixteen.

Intending competitors are asked to read carefully the rules of the competition and the proclamation as published on page 5 of this issue. It must not be forgotten that May 3 is the latest date on which competitors may mail their essays to this office.

FRENCH IMITATE PRINCE OF WALES

Even His Limp Caused by Accident Thought to be New Dance Step

PARIS, April 22.—The Prince of Wales danced in the dawn on Montmartre again today.

England's heir-apparent spent his fourth successive night on the hill where night life hits its zenith. Crowds stormed the doors of the cabaret when the word went around Montmartre that "Le Prince de Galles" was there.

Visitors waved 500-franc notes dian representative at Washington trying to bribe the doorman to let them in. French dandies are Yorkshire Post says Hon. P. C. going lame trying to imitate the Larkin, high commissioner in prince's supposedly new dance London, before coming to London was invited by the Canadian government to go to Washington as official representative to that country. He declined the position then, the Post says, but probably would receive the appointment if the Mackenzie King government should be returned to power after the next general election.

Earlier in the evening the prince dined and danced at Henry's, where one of his companions was said to be the beautiful Lady Mountbatten. She took attention away from the handsome prince for a little while, no one being able to determine whether she wore stockings, and none having quite the audacity to ascertain for certain.

Buffalo, April 22.—Rocky Kansas outpointed Johnny Dundee, the world's featherweight and junior lightweight champion, in ten rounds last night. Dundee's title, however, was not at stake. Kansas weighed 132½ pounds and Dundee, 132.

PRINCE JOHN BRINGS CROWD

Calls on Way to Islands With Loggers and Others for Camps

Enroute from Vancouver to the Queen Charlotte Islands with 137 passengers—59 first class and 78 second—which fills her accommodation to capacity, G.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, was in port this morning from 11:15 to 12:45 having come up the inside passage instead of direct to the Islands through Heceta Straits. The vessel, after doing all her Island calls, will return here towards the end of the week and will sail about Sunday for Vancouver via the Islands.

The most of the John's passengers this morning were loggers and mill workers for the Massett Timber Co. and other timbering points. Included in her list were also forty members of the crews of the Rose and Naden Harbor whaling stations in charge of J. Kingsbury, one of the officials of the Consolidated Whaling Co.

LARKIN REFUSED WASHINGTON JOB

Would Not Go as Canadian Representative to the United States

LONDON, April 22.—Discussing the appointment of a Canadian representative at Washington trying to bribe the doorman to let them in, the London editor of the Yorkshire Post says Hon. P. C.

going lame trying to imitate the Larkin, high commissioner in prince's supposedly new dance London, before coming to London was invited by the Canadian government to go to Washington as official representative to that country. He declined the position then, the Post says, but probably would receive the appointment if the Mackenzie King government should be returned to power after the next general election.

AMERICANS WATCH BRITISH COLUMBIA

Roger Babson Tells People of States About this Province

Reasons that Roger Babson, the business statistician of Boston, gives why his American financial clients should "watch British Columbia" are important to British Columbians in forming their opinions as to the immediate outlook in this Province says the Victoria Times.

Mr. Babson in his latest analysis points out that the chart of business in Canada today shows activity at five per cent below normal, while business in the United States is at three per cent above normal.

"Western Canada," he says, "has been the slowest to recover from the post-war slump. But for the first time in four years business is now looking up in this great empire. Business in British Columbia is better today than at this time for some years previous."

He finds agricultural conditions here good, mining more active, and fishing satisfactory. Building operations throughout the West have been above the average, with a preponderance of contracts in British Columbia. This domestic demand, of course constitutes only a partial basis for the almost unprecedented activity in the lumber industry.

Of the Western part of the Prairies, with their record wheat crop of the season, he reports that improved conditions have resulted in a quickening of retail trade, a strengthening of the banking situation and a better feeling generally.

"It seems almost ridiculous to treat these great provinces with only a few words of comment," he adds. "But they are so vast that their very greatness causes one to hesitate in making forecasts."

HEAR the put, put, put of the motor
And the flop, flop, flop of the waves,
As we skim along over the water,
With beneath us the ocean caves.

Then the dam, dam, dam of the boatman

As he turns the reluctant crank
And other strange words he is saying

Induced by an empty tank.

WELL all go back to meet again
The people who elected us
And pray that they will not then say

They should not have selected us.—J.O.

Some lurk amid the lonely swamps

To shoot the wary duck;

But just as they are hoping most
The vision takes to wings.

DAFFODIL BALL USUAL SUCCESS

Post-Lenten Dancing Season was Fittingly Opened at Event in Elks' Home Last Night

The post-Lenten dancing season has once again been fittingly opened with a Daffodil Ball by Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire. In keeping with past successes for many years, this event last night in the Elks' Home was one of much pleasure and enjoyment to the many couples who attended. The senior chapter of the I.O.D.E. in Prince Rupert again demonstrated the ability of its members along the line of the popular terpsichorean entertainment.

The decorations were the subject of much complimentary comment and the scheme was as beautiful as it was novel. Yellow and green were the predominating colors with daffodils, large and small, in prominence. The walls were adorned with festoons of the spring flowers and foliage interspersed with window and lattice effects. Hanging baskets were strung from the ceiling and streamers from the lamps. The I.O.D.E. emblem and the Union Jack occupied prominent positions. Mrs. George Rorie supervised the arrangement of the decorations which reflected much artistic taste.

Splendid Music

Music for the evening was dispensed by the Harmony Orchestra consisting of Miss Nora Pryce, Miss Louie Fisher, Sidney Bazett-Jones, Alex Mitchell, George Rorie, Jr. and Jack Barnsley. This clever group of youthful musicians has been steadily gaining a reputation for itself this winter and their performance last night was a crowning triumph.

Delicious refreshments were served at midnight—this being another feature of favorable comment. Mrs. D. McD. Hunter and Mrs. W. S. Fisher had charge of this end with Mrs. Carroll assisting in the kitchen.

Reception Committee

The reception committee consisted of Mrs. J. G. Steen, regent of Queen Mary Chapter; Mrs. David Thomson, first vice-regent; Mrs. A. E. Bazett-Jones, second vice-regent and Mrs. A. Parkin regent for Municipal Chapter. Mrs. Bazett-Jones was in charge of arrangements for music and hall.

A. E. Bazett-Jones made an efficient master of ceremonies and George Rorie was at the door.

MADAME DUSE NOTED ITALIAN ACTRESS IS NUMBERED WITH DEAD

Famous Woman was Great Tragedienne and Friend of Gabriel D'Annunzio

PITTSBURG, April 22.—Madame Eleonora Duse, the noted Italian tragedienne, who arrived in the United States three weeks ago on a farewell tour, died yesterday of influenza and complications.

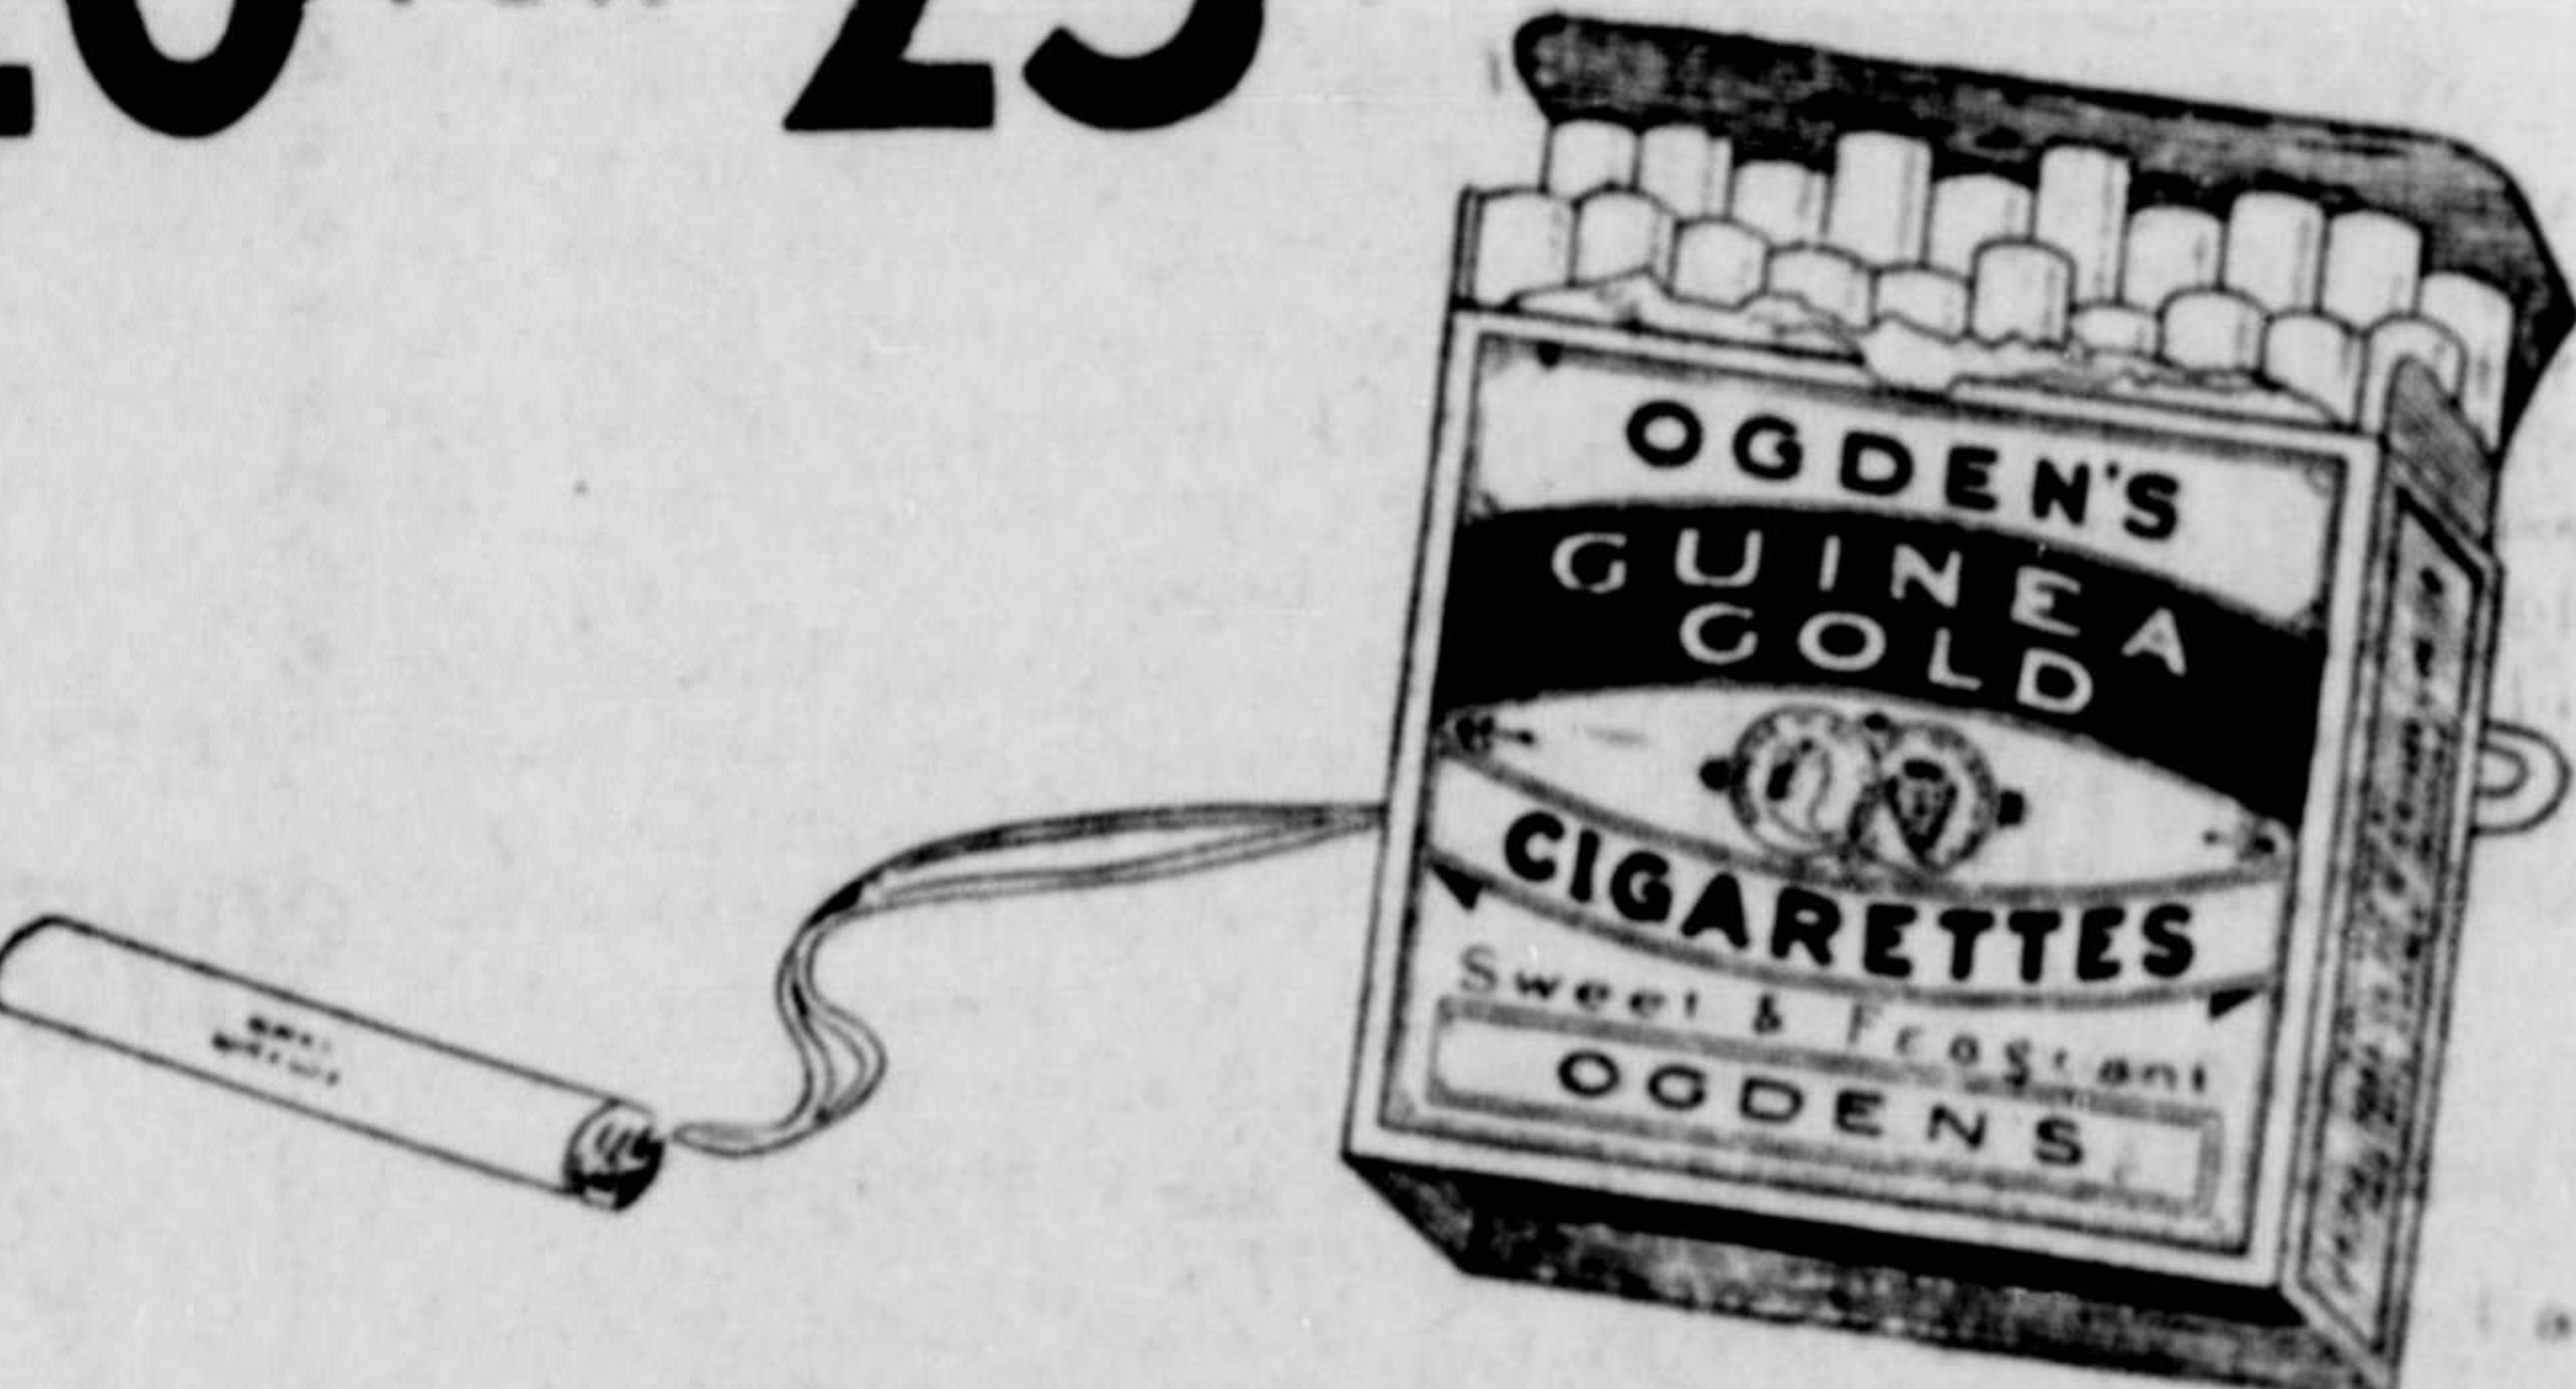

Madame Duse emerged from fifteen years' retirement as an actress at Turin, Italy, on May 6, 1921, by appearing in Ibsen's "Lady of the Sea." Her re-appearance in public was the signal for an enthusiastic gathering from a distinguished audience which showered her with roses amid frantic cheers for Italy. "La Duse," as she was popularly known, and for Gabriel d'Annunzio, former poet-dictator of Fiume, who wrote several plays for her. The two were friends for many years until estranged by a quarrel in which all Italy took a sympathetic interest.

Mme. Duse's father and grandfather were Italian actors. She first appeared when 12 years old in minor parts with strolling players. She was born in a wagon on October 3, 1859, at Vigevano, Pavia, a village on the outskirts of Venice. By the time she had reached the age of 20 she had won recognition in Naples as an actress of great power. Her successes called her to Rome in the early 80's to Paris in 1885, to Vienna and Berlin in 1892 and London and New York in 1893. In 1887 she had married an actor of the company of which she was at the time a member, a Signor Checi, from

BRINGING UP FATHER

BIG FOOTBALL GAME SATURDAY

Aston Villa to Play Newcastle United in Final for English Cup

LONDON, April 22.—(By Canadian Press).—When Aston Villa and Newcastle United meet at Wembley Stadium in the Association Football Cup Final game on Saturday, they will be repeating an encounter of 19 years earlier—except for the ground on which it was played—when Aston Villa defeated Newcastle by two goals to none. Another fact about the 1905 game was that it was the first time that Newcastle had got as far as the final as compared with the fact that Aston Villa had figured in it as winner or runner-up four times previously.

This year both teams have had a hard time in their struggle for the Blue Ribbon of English Association Football. Aston Villa have defeated Ashington, Swansea, Leeds United, West Bromwich and Burnley while Newcastle United have eliminated Portsmouth, Derby County, Watford, Liverpool and Manchester City. Of the two Newcastle have had the worse time and they played eight games to overcome the five teams between them and the final. In the last three of those games their defence was not pierced.

Aston Villa commenced their Cup Tie career when they won the Cup in 1887 and since that year they have won it in 1895, 1897, 1905, 1913, and 1920 and have been runners-up once, in 1892.

Newcastle have only won the Cup once—in 1910—but they were runners-up in 1905, 1906, 1908 and 1911.

The fact that this year Aston Villa commemorated their Golden Jubilee as a club would seem to be an incentive to the team to make it also the seventh time they have taken away the Football Cup.

The Association Cup was first contested in the 1871-2 season when Wanderers won it from the Royal Engineers. In those days it was an amateur affair and continued so far the first dozen years of its career when the professional clubs stepped in. From the time Blackburn Rovers won it in the 1883-84 season it has always been won by a professional club. Only two clubs have accomplished the double feat of heading the League table and capturing the Cup in the same season. These were Preston North End in 1888-89 and Aston Villa in 1896-97. Another cup tie fact with which Aston Villa are associated was the stealing of the cup from a shop window in Birmingham in 1895 when that team were holders.

The final was played for the first time at Wembley Stadium last year when the crowd was so great that the management could not handle it and there were scenes approaching near riot.

CONSTANT HEADACHES AND DIZZINESS

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time, and in nine cases out of ten the persistent headaches are due to some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels.

Undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief may be had.

Burdock Blood Bitters removes the cause of the headaches, as it acts on every organ of the body and strengthens, purifies and regulates the whole system.

Mrs. Peter Curran, 27 Morrison St., Sydney, N.S., writes: — "I have been troubled for the last five years with constant headaches and dizziness. After trying several remedies, which I found to be of no avail, Burdock Blood Bitters was recommended to me."

B.B.B. did me a world of good, and cannot praise this remedy enough." Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The crowd stormed the stadium walls and gates and it is estimated that 200,000 persons saw the match. The official number of those who paid or were ticket-holders was 126,047, which established a record. Better arrangements for dealing with the crowds this year have been promised.

Organization of Junior football and baseball leagues of the season will soon be undertaken. The school teachers, after the Easter holidays, will be taking an active hand in preparing for the season's activities. It is possible that evening games for school boys will be discontinued this year and that the matches will be staged in the afternoon. This plan is favored by the teachers for it would prevent the only white men allowed on the grounds interfering with home island are governmental officials. Living is comfortable. We had

Miss Deichmann is the daughter of a Danish physician, who shortly after her birth left the luxury of his native land for the world's most northerly settlements. His duties took him from settlement to settlement all summer long, the entire family travelling in an open boat through the Arctic waters and pitching camp each night.

"It was a wonderful life," says Miss Deichmann. "Of course, Greenland probably was lonesome but to me every winter, but to me every mor-

WONDERFUL COUNTRY

NEW YORK, April 22.—(By Canadian Press).—Under the shadow of the North Pole, Denmark is conducting a unique experiment. It is putting the culture of Europe into the ice igloos of Greenland without allowing the native population to be contaminated by white men.

Such is the testimony of Miss Liska Deichmann, a research student at the new National Museum in Washington, D.C., Washington's only Greenlander and one

COUNTESS TO BE STRANGLED

ound Guilty of Inducing Young Cousin to Murder Her Husband

PRAGUE, April 22.—Found guilty of having induced her young cousin to murder her husband and then commit suicide, the beautiful Countess Hilda Hanika has been sentenced to be strangled to death in the public square of Brunn.

After the announcement of the verdict a mob stormed the court room, seeking to lynch the wrongdoer.

The trial of Countess Hanika aroused interest throughout Europe, and brought forth testimony for a unique and sensational nature. When the Count, a brilliant cavalry officer, married Hilda Charvat five years ago, everyone agreed it was a match.

The bride was of an aristocratic family of Brunn, and a

Happiness Short

Their happiness did not survive the honeymoon, however, for she was a coquette, while the Count soon came to spend much his time at the gambling tables. Violent discussions were the order of the day in the Hanika household. At the beginning of 1923 the countess sent for her mother to come and live with them, and the elderly woman sought with her young Johann boy, sixteen year old cousin the Countess.

Late one night last December the Hanika family was in the room after dinner, Johann suddenly drew a revolver and fired three bullets into the Count's chest. Count Hanika collapsed instantly. Johann fired a last bullet at himself and dropped to the floor mortally wounded.

Countess Hanika met the police with unruffled mien. She declared there had been a duel, saying that the Count had been jealous of the affection she showed her young relative, and that the two men had agreed to fight it out. The mother of the Countess told a similar story. But the police became suspicious, investigated, and discovered that there was only one revolver in the house, and that all six shots had been fired from it.

Detective Work

A policeman, dressed as a hospital orderly, was placed on duty in the room where Johann lay dying. From the boy's mumbled words the officer pieced together an astounding story.

From his earliest years Johann had adored his cousin. She had exercised a despotic influence over him, however, forcing him to do whatever she desired. When her love for her husband changed to hate she sent for the boy and told him she wanted to get rid of her spouse. Johann tried to resist her influence but failed. He consented to kill the Count.

On the day set for the crime the Countess had Johann write letters to his father and mother expressing his intention of killing the Count and begging for clemency.

Music at Funeral

"Have them play my favorite music at my funeral," he had written. "It will make your pain less hard to bear. I love you too much."

Everything had been carried out as the woman ordered. She had planned the whole scene in which her husband died.

At the trial Johann was brought into the courtroom on a stretcher. Doctors testified that he had only a few days to live. Nevertheless he was condemned to three years' imprisonment. Kenneth is to attend a boy's school after

MANY WOULD GO TO BIG CONVENTION

Curious Reasons Given by People in States Why Should Attend Nomination

CLEVELAND, April 22—Varied appeals for tickets to the Republican national convention, to open here June 10, are deluging headquarters of the local convention committee. They are referred to the national committee at Washington. Probably the briefest and most sanguine follows:

"Please mail to me in the enclosed stamped envelope a ticket to the Republican convention."

"Lost $125 on you for governor," was the commanding argument hurled at a Cleveland leader by one applicant for tickets.

"You will probably recall," urged another, "having met me when you were in L— during your campaign. We were together on the bandstand from which you spoke that evening."

"From the time I was large enough to carry a drum," a fourth proclaimed, "I have done my part. I am a thirty-second degree Mason, have a wife who was reared a Republican and three sons whom I expect to vote for the Republican ticket. Mr. X, in the bank here, is a very good friend of mine."

"I have been an ardent Republican, as are all my relatives," is a typical argument. Similar pleas follow:

"I have nine children and everyone (doubly underscored) votes the Republican ticket."

"I have never attended a convention of the party for which I have always worked and supported, to say nothing of a father and four brothers and as many sisters."

CUFFED BOY BANDIT THEN CALLED POLICE

NEW YORK, April 22.—A youthful bandit who attempted a hold-up with a big revolver, was soundly cuffed recently and turned over to the police by his intended victim, Michael Sevick. George Heroze, 18 years of age, pointed the gun at Sevick as he rounded a dark corner.

"Don't point that gun at me," snapped Sevick, and making a quick move he wrenches it from the gunman's hand. After cuffing the bandit, Sevick marched him down the street and turned him over to the police.

ALBERTA'S VIEWPOINT ON THE BRULE RAILWAY

Premier Oliver says he is opposed to the construction of a G.N.R. branch from Brule to Grande Prairie and strongly in favor of the extension of E.D. and B.C. system through the mountains to Prince George. That was to be assumed. The Brule-Grande Prairie line would open up new territory in British Columbia; the construction of a line through one of the northern passes to Prince George would open up a section of British Columbia that is not likely to be otherwise developed. The same reason that impels the British Columbia Premier to oppose the Brule-Grande Prairie line should cause the Alberta Government to back that project with all the energy it can exert. There is no fault to be found with Premier Oliver for wanting a railway that would serve the interest of British Columbia in preference to one that would open up a stretch of Alberta territory. But the fact that he is opposing the Alberta project is an added reason why every possible Alberta influence should be brought to bear to secure the construction of the line that will be to the advantage of this Province.—Edmonton Bulletin.

ROBBERS PAID BOY HIS WEEK'S SALARY

NEW YORK, April 22.—A generous robber held up a grocery clerk at 99 Linden Street, Yonkers, recently, and, after forcing Herbert Miller, the clerk, to turn over the day's receipts of $203 at the point of a revolver, paid him his week's wages out of the pilfered cash.

After stripping the cash register, the robber turned to the clerk and asked: "What do you get here?"

"Forty dollars," said the clerk. "Well, here's your pay anyway," said the gunman as he tossed forty dollars in currency on the counter, and backed out of the door.

"There is no use crying over spilt milk." But who lost the milk? Prince Rupert's spilt milk is the huge sum sent weekly to the mail order houses. We're not crying about it. There is no use. But ours is not the only loss! If we had but 5 per cent of this business added to our present turnover, we feel sure we could treble our staff, thus providing more opportunities for local employment and also carry a greater and more varied stock to supply your needs. Thus possibly in time the city would be supplied with a real department store at which the people at nearby points would shop, instead of with the catalogue houses.

This is your problem, Mr. Citizen, whether you be wage earner, business or professional man, as the children of today will be seeking employment tomorrow. Give us the support we merit and we will endeavor to solve a question which means more to Rupert than does a grain elevator.
