Tragic Death Takes Captain Freeman: Body Found Lying Beside Engine in Own Boat

Death towards the end of last week closed the picturesque career of Capt. Hoomes K. Freeman, owner and master of the launch Narbethoug and one of the best known mariners in British Columbia waters. After the many adventures and unique incidents which marked the fast eighteen years of his life, which he spent in Prince Rupert and the vicinity of the port, following age, a car inspector, and his wife the small boat business, his demise came in a manner both tragic of the same age were found on and unexpected.

Value Of Publicity In Public Life.

The white light of publicity is the most powerful influence there is in public life. People fear publicity more than anything else. The duty of a newspaper in seeing that the public is pro-derfoot. He suggested that the terms of her bargain she recoils was shown. Being very adept in perly informed of what is being done by public bodies or semi-limit be raised from twenty-five and the "Prince" brands her as a responding to my direction, I public bodies as well as in the law courts is clear. It is to the interest of the public life of the country that public records be; made of all important proceedings.

Scientists are trying to find out a method by which thoughts may be recorded. Already they leave a record in the brain of the person who thinks them and to a great extent they influence! the minds of those around. If, however, ill thoughts were publie properly, there would be much more care exerted in controlling thought than is the case at present. If we knew that a neighbur could listen in at any time and possibly was listening in. there would be less planning of evil and brooding over those things which tend to degrade. Publicity in the matter of thoughts would be the greatest reforming agency the world could know! and it may come some day. If it does, we shall revise our estimates of many of our neighbors. A great many who are at present despised or ignored will become heroes and those who now are looked to as leaders in intellect or morals will be relegated to the dump heap.

Captain Freeman's Tragic End.

The whole community was shocked yesterday to hear of the tragic death of Captain Hoomes K. Freeman, one of the hest known men in Prince Rupert. While the captain had little pecultarities he was esteemed and respected by all in the community and especially for his unselfish efforts in the cause of freedom from what he considered oppressive restrictions. The fight he waged with the authorities over boat licensing and the carrying of lifeboats as well as his campaign for the elimination of prohibitive regulations brought him neither profit nor glory, others agreed. The heaviest immigration to Canada experienced during the last ten years is looked for this year. Already the arrivals are running ahead of those for the same months in 1923, those from European countries being especially large. The enquiries from prospective settlers in the United States are numerous.

Canada exported 6.532 pairs of leather footwear during January. 1924, according to a report of the 652. Bureau of Statistics. Of these 2.179 went to the United States, 2,038 to New Zealand and 2,031 to China and ments and Newfoundland took the rest. The value was $21,301

Canadians imported 5,326,567 pounds of tea last month, or about three-fifths of a pound per head of population. The value of last month's tea imports was $1,661,176. and for the twelve months ending January 31, the value of the 43,223,-119 pounds imported into Canada was $13,253,642. The bulk of it came from India.

Special trains of immigrants have recently carried lunch counter cars similar to those used on the harvesters' trains last summer. It is understood that the Canadian feature of all long distance immigrant trains, thus doing away with the necessity of the newcomers providing their own food or using station lunch counters en route.

The completion of plans for the development of hydro-electric power 900,000 h.p., to the present total of 3,228,000 h.p., already installed in Canada. This additional power will be used in British Columbia to assist mining and pulp industries in Manitoba to supply rural needs, and in Ontario for go'd-mining and other industries. In Quebec the chief developments are in connection with the pulp and paper industries, and farther east, in the Maritime Provinces, for public utility purposes.

It is indeed gratifying to get first-hand information on how people like made-in-British Columbia foods. We have found only two homes in six weeks where they use jam's not made here. There is a strong preference for local made boots. And they are nearly all purchased because of superior quality. In our own line we find that almost four in five use Pacific and it is generally because they like its fresh, natural flavor.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

WHEN you see a person making a great display he may not have been engaged in bootlegging but have earned the money! in some legitimate manner.

WHEN a man spends more than he seems to earn, he may not be dishonest. Men have been known to have incomes outside? their business.

EVEN if he does not always say much, the boss may know something about the business. You never can tell.

THERE is one thing about boating you do not have to carry a spare tire,

IT is not necessary to go as C. H. Gyles, T. J. Stephens, N. far as the South Seas to see fish Murchie, C. Frederickson, Henry climbing trees. A visit to Fraser R. Moore and W. H. Wark, Van- Street is sometimes effective in couver; W. Laing, Victoria; W. making people see queer things.

CVERY good ship, nearing port, takes on a pilot. L. Usually, the law requires it. The pilot knows the channel. With his capable hands at the helm, the vessel is safe. Without him, there is danger of the shoals.

When you set sail on a shopping tour you, too, should have a pilot. Everybody needs one. And wellinformed shoppers always have one---ADVERTISING.

Advertising keeps you off the rocks of extravagance and waste. It takes you straight into the port of economy. It tells you plainly where to go for what you want. It shows you how to save steps---and money--and time. By watching it carefully, each day, you are able to buy to best advantage.

Often, the advertisements will keep you from making an unwise purchase by pointing out just why one article suits better than another. It points out for you the pick of the country's market and the selection of the particular kind, shape, size and color that best suits your taste and fits your pocket-book.

Whether you want food, clothing, furniture or a toy for the children, the advertisements can help you.

Let Advertising Steer Your Steps

TO wake a sleeping man On Sunday morning's hard Unless he wants to fish Or hunt with some old pard.

To the Ladles HERE's to the infant

In swaddling clothes Why they all like her Nobody knows.

Here's to the miss In primary school; Already she's showing Strong signs of home rule;

Here's to the maiden So gladsome and sweet, Selfconscious and winsome As any you'd meet.

Here's to the flapper Just bursting her shell; In spite of her gushing We still like her well.

Here's to the girl With a lover in tow; Just now they are off To take in the show.

Here's to the bride Who has captured a mate. She is joyous while he Is resigned to his fate.

Here's to the matron So buxom and strong, With children and home And a husband along.

Here's to the widow Now setting her cap At the best of the men She can get in her trap.

Here's to the grandmother Still full of fun Children are fond of her Everyone.

Here's to the ladies Wherever they be. We tease them and love them And kiss them maybe.
