OUTLOOK FOR SALMON PACK IS UNCERTAIN

Expected That Most of Skeena River Fish Will be Cleaned up Before New Season Starts

The outlook for the new salmon pack is very uncertain, and no prediction can be made as to Sockeye prices, says the Pacific Fisherman. Much depends on European conditions; if the franc can be stabilized at a reasonable level, Pinks will move off readily with some improvement in prices; otherwise the outlook would be for continued weakness. A better market for Pinks would greatly improve the situation all round, as packers now depend very largely on the cheaper grades to take care of their overhead costs, and unless this can be done the packing of Sockeyes is unprofitable.

It is expected that all the Skeena River Sockeyes will be cleaned up without difficulty before the new season opens, and other offerings on the basis of present prices will also probably be absorbed, though a considerable quantity is being held above the current market and will no doubt be carried into the new season.

Russia Offers to Pay Pre-War Debts; Needs Help to Raise Money

LONDON, May 21.—At an Anglo-Soviet conference yesterday, the Russian government offered to set aside a lump sum to cover pre-war debts to British subjects providing a loan could be arranged with the assistance of the British government. Only the claims of those who held Russian bonds prior to March 17, 1917, would, however, be considered.

The British delegation replied that it would not undertake to guarantee such a loan but it would take a sympathetic attitude towards the efforts of the Russians to raise a loan privately.

BRIDGE AT ALICE ARM FINISHED

Was Thrown Open to Traffic Last Saturday—Greatly Needed Facility

ALICE ARM, May 21.—The government forces constructing the bridge across the Kitsault River finished their work on Saturday and the bridge was thrown open for traffic. The bridge, which is located about one-fourth of a mile above the town is a single track cable span bridge 230 feet in length. In the construction of the bridge about 90,000 feet of timber was used, most of which was purchased locally. Also 3,000 lineal feet of cedar piling was used, also being obtained here.

The bridge gives the people of Alice Arm and the Kitsault valley a much needed access to the east side of the river. Heretofore during summer high waters the only way to reach Silver City and the east side was by row boat two miles across the head of the Colorado Arm. A road for wagons or motor trucks is being constructed down the east side of the river connecting up with the Abbotsford Lumber Co. camps and Silver City on the east side of Alice Arm.

After leaving the bank with the loot, Martin jumped into an automobile but was overtaken by the police and in a revolver fight was shot through the head. The money was recovered.

Timber Industry Is Carrying On.

Naturally the present condition of the Japanese lumber market and the low prices being offered in the south for logs is not giving any stimulus to the timber industry of the district. In spite of this, however, the season is opening up well and activity is considerable. While some of the smaller mills along the line of the G.T.P. near Prince Rupert remain closed on account of the lack of market, large plants in the Prince George district continue operations and on the Queen Charlotte Islands logging is being carried on in full swing to say nothing of the milling operations of the Massett Timber Co. which are still going full blast. Local operators are hopeful of a better turn in market conditions before very long and it is expected that towards summer operations will generally be resumed in spite of the rather discouraging start.

Why Not Use
Waiting Rooms?

The waiting rooms in the Canadian National station here are comfortable and nicely fitted out although the general public may not be aware of it, because of the rare occasions on which they are open for use. While the citizens of Prince Rupert may not be inconvenienced very much through not being able to get into these quarters, it must be rather annoying for travellers awaiting boats and trains to go up to the doors under the waiting room signs and find them more often locked than not. In other cities possessing station waiting rooms, these quarters are kept open for the public convenience day and night, but in Prince Rupert they are more or less sealed chambers. We are not aware whether or not the local waiting rooms are kept closed so as to follow out an economy regime and save janitors' wages in keeping them in order, but we do know that it would be a great convenience if they were available a little oftener. Now that the summer tourist season is about to open, the company might be a little more generous in the use it extends the public of these facilities.

Success Promised For Round-the-World Flights.

If mechanical difficulties do not arise, it may be expected that the two round-the-world flights may make better progress from this on. The Americans have successfully negotiated what was admitted to be the most difficult stage of their entire globe-encircling cruise. When they start on the second difficult stage—that of the North Atlantic by way of Iceland and Greenland—weather conditions will be more auspicious than those encountered on the trans-Pacific passage. The chances of the U.S. globe flight being successful are now much better than they were ten days ago. While the British flyers have had mechanical rather than climatic difficulties, with the experiences they have already had, it is to be hoped that they will be better prepared for what is to follow. If their course had been as well outfitted as that of the Americans, Stuart MacLaren would undoubtedly be away ahead of where he is today. He is now emerging from the tropical belt and will make the Pacific crossing under better weather conditions than did the Americans. The flight across Canada should present no outstanding difficulties and, as for the Atlantic, he will be following a course that has been flown before. Provided nothing happens to the lone British machine, its chances of accomplishing the feat upon which it is embarked seem good.

TRIAL TRIP OF VANIDIS

Power Cruiser for Fisheries Department Built Here Tuned Up Yesterday

The official trial trip of the Vanidis, the power cruiser recently completed by the Canadian National Dry Dock for the department of marine and fisheries, took place yesterday afternoon under the direction of J. W. Allen, supervising engineer for the department. A fine run was made in ideal weather to the mouth of the harbor and several minor adjustments were made. On the return trip a bearing became overheated in the engine necessitating putting in to the marine station where a new bearing was installed. Mr. Allen spoke very highly of the excellent manner in which she had been built and finished. Capt. Eburn, skipper of the fishery patrol boat Marfish, was on the bridge. Accompanying Mr. Allen on the trip were F. P. Quinn, mechanical superintendent; W. Smith, engineer; W. J. Sloan, assistant engineer; Geo. Macaulay, foreman rigger; and Howard White, accountant; representing the Dry Dock; Ray Love, electrical engineer; Bob Blance, mechanical superintendent for the Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Co.; Alan Quinn, Howard Quinn; and Sid Webb of the Daily News.

Splendid Craft

The Vanidis is a splendid craft and is fitted up with every modern convenience for both passengers and crew. The boat, measuring 60 feet long by 14 foot beam, is built of interior British Columbia lumber. The hull is of fir with gunwood stern and stem posts. The interior of the craft is panelled with fir and teak. The bunks, tables and lockers are decorated in oak finish. The whole is white enameled and presents an airy and comfortable appearance. Toilets and wash basins with running water connect with the living quarters. A Bungalow hot water system supplies the heat to all cabins in which radiators are placed. The interior has been so constructed that, in case of fire or any other untoward occurrence, it is possible to walk direct from one end of the ship to the other. The captain's bridge is spacious and is fitted with a speaking tube to the engine room as well as telegraph and bell communication. Behind the cabin is situated the captain's stateroom. Below deck the fishery inspector's stateroom is placed in the stern leading to the dining saloon. The cook's galley, fitted up like a modern hotel kitchen, adjoins the dining saloon and connects with the engine room. From the engine room there is direct access by a companion way to the bridge. Forward of the engine room are situated the crews quarters of four bunks.

Fine Engine

The Vanidis is powered with a 60 horse power semi-diesel Beardmore (Glasgow) engine which gives her a normal speed of 9 knots per hour. The vessel has an auxiliary Gardner engine for generating electricity and pumping air. The whole ship is splendidly lighted, electric swanneck lights of nickel plate fitted to teak blocks being hung in all quarters and gangways. The engine tanks have a capacity of one thousand gallons of fuel oil and 60 gallons of lubricating oil giving the boat a cruising radius of 2,000 miles. The Vanidis together with her sister ship the Rividis is entirely a northern B.C. product with the exception of the engine which was made in Glasgow.

The following local firms have been responsible for work on the Vanidis in their respective lines: Ray Love, electrical; Steens' Ltd., sheet metal work; Rowe's Sheet Metal Works, tanks; and Geo. D. Tite, interior furnishings.

To Vancouver

After completing minor adjustments to the machinery on the Vanidis, Mr. Allen will take her to Vancouver where she will be handed over to the department of marine and fisheries by the local Dry Dock. The craft will be used on fishery department business in the Vancouver Island district, as her name implies, her home station being Nanaimo. It is expected the new boat will be taken south on Saturday.

JAPAN RISES FROM OCEAN

Volcanologist Declares the Earthquake Resulted from Volcanic Action

TOKIO, May 21. — Although eminent seismologists, both Japanese and foreign, had discounted the supposition that the recent terrible earthquake was the result of volcanic disturbances, and that it was caused by a depression in the bed of the ocean, Dr. T. A. Jagger, noted American volcanologist, who for some years has been studying volcanic phenomena from an observatory that he had specially built near Kilauea, Hawaiian Islands, declares that he is firmly of the opinion that the disturbances were of volcanic origin.

He also declares that Japan is rising from the sea and that the district embracing Tokio, Yokohama and the regions recently stricken are several feet higher than a century ago. Dr. Jagger believes that the entire coast of Asia is rising and that within a short space of time, speaking in terms of history of the world, the appearance of the surface of the globe will be entirely transformed.

"The Japanese earthquake," stated Dr. Jagger, "caused great change in the surface of the earth in the vicinity. The extent of the changes is yet unknown, but from investigations already made it is evident that far greater changes took place than is the case generally in similar disasters. Although the quake centered about Yokohama and Tokio the level of the ground has been changed for hundreds of miles in all directions, and it is possible that the coast of China has also been affected."

Mr. Walton replied suitably stating that it was not without regrets that he was leaving.

Mr. Chas. Ayland, Frankville, Ont., writes:—"I used to be awfully bothered with floating specks before my eyes, headaches and sickness to my stomach. I took just half a vial of your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and ever since I have felt as well as I ever did. Now I always keep them on hand."

USE MACHINE GUN TO KILL HAIR SEALS

Fisheries Official Takes a Flight Over Sandbanks of Fraser River

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 21.—Following a seaplane flight over the sandbanks of the Fraser River, with a view to locating herds of hair seals, by W. E. Maiden, secretary of the B.C. Fisherman's Protective Association, and Alfred Monk, chairman of the Fisheries Committee of the Westminster Board of Trade, action will, in all probability, be immediately taken to destroy the mammals by machine-gun fire.

Flying at an altitude of 150 feet the party located several small herds of the seals lying on the sandbanks.

The day was not particularly favorable for observing the mammals, as lack of sunshine and the rough weather prevented them from congregating in any numbers on the sandbanks," stated Mr. Maiden on his return from the flight.

"However, immediate measures will have to be taken to shoot

Reid and Bill Williseroff. It was left there and will be a convenience to local anglers visiting the popular lake. It would be appreciated, however, by the men who took it in as well as the piscatorial fraternity generally, if proper care is taken of the craft by those using it. In the past there has been a good deal of carelessness by certain individuals visiting the lake. This is neither thoughtful of the interests of others or these individuals own future convenience.

Finland bids fair to be one of the strongest contenders at the Paris Olympiad this year. During the past few years this country has come forward in athletics by leaps and bounds. The little Scandinavian nation, with but two score athletes carrying her colors, demonstrated her strength four years ago at Antwerp by capturing nine first places as many as the United States, with all her representation, was able to take.

Finland, review of the records of previous Olympiads discloses, has displaced Sweden and Great Britain in track and field sports, though this season there are also signs of a British come-back. From 1896 to 1908, the United States swept to overwhelming victories in the international meets, but since then the margin of triumph has been narrowing rapidly. Great Britain formed the stiffest opposition in 1908, Sweden jumped into second place in 1912, while Finland, just beginning to come into prominence in 1912, gave Uncle Sam's stars a strenuous fight four year's ago in Antwerp.

FINE CONCERT BY GYRO CLUB

Program of Unusual Merit Embodying Several New Features Was Presented Last Night

A program of unusual merit embodying a number of features that were both novel and highly enjoyable made the concert staged last night in the Westholme Theatre by the Prince Rupert Gyro Club an affair quite in keeping with the reputation that the club, in its brief history, has achieved along entertainment lines. There were two parts—first, a recital of eight numbers in which the school children took a prominent part, second, a one-act play entitled "The Boy Comes Home." The entire program met with the distinct approval of the audience and all the numbers were greeted with insistent demands for encores.

The opening item was a series of choral numbers by a group of school children under the direction of H. S. Hurn, superintendent of schools. Something new in the way of harmony was here introduced. The school children of the city have often been heard ere this on the concert platform but it was the first time that any public attempt was made to develop part-singing among them. The result was most successful and reflected not only careful training on the part of the instructor but vocal ability by the children. The choruses were "Floating Down on the Glistening Tide," "June, Lovely June," "Tally-Ho," and "Soldiers' Chorus," from Faust. They evoked much applause.

Physical Drill
Eight girls and eight boys took part in a splendidly executed physical training drill under the direction of James Mitchell. The youngsters were neatly costumed and the exercises were performed with exact precision making the exhibition a pleasant one to observe.

Mrs. P. S. Bonney was as usual pleasing with her solos. She sang "The Little Damsel" and "Almond Blossoms" and was heartily applauded.

A new male quartette made its appearance and elicited much favorable comment. Two numbers on the program were provided by this aggregation which consisted of J. E. Davey and S. K. Campbell, tenors; A. E. Wakefield, baritone, and S. C. Jackson, bass. It was the first appearance on the concert platform of this city by Mr. Wakefield and Mr. Jackson, both of whom proved themselves vocalists of some ability. Their numbers, which were persistently encoored, were "O Peaceful Night," and "The Wreath."

Ladies' Quartette
A ladies' vocal quartette, consisting of Mrs. P. S. Bonney, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. C. Woodworth and Mrs. H. C. Fraser furnished another highly acceptable item on the program which called for a second appearance.

The daintiness of the costumes and accuracy of the movements in an intricate folk dance presented by senior school girls made this another popular number and one which made a distinct hit. It was directed by Miss Mercer.

The augmented Westholme Orchestra, under the leadership of Gyro Charles Balagno, contributed the splendid rendition of "The Pink Lady" to the program and also furnished opening, closing and interim music. Mr. Balagno also had charge of the accompaniments for the evening.

One Act Playlet
The one act playlet, "The Boy Comes Home," proved a most entertaining concluding number. The farce depicted the arguments between an obstinate old English uncle of means and his nephew following his return from four years at war. The principal roles of uncle and nephew were taken respectively by Gyro Art Easson and H. S. Hurn, both of whom sustained their parts in excellent manner. Miss Dorothy Gillingham made a charming aunt while Mrs. Walker took the part of a vacillating cook. Miss Caroline Mitchell appeared as a maid.

The committee in charge of the concert consisted of S. K. Campbell, chairman, A. Lionel Holtby, Frank Dibb and A. A. Easson. Other members of the club gave assistance and the club was greatly indebted to the aid given by Superintendent H. S. Hurn and other members of the school teaching staffs. The ushers were Gyros Norris Pringle, Clarence Woodruff, Douglas Stork and Sydney Bazzett-Jones. Gyro George R. Title loaned and arranged the stage furniture.

For Playground Fund
The concert was staged for the Gyro Club playground fund. Returns were not completed this morning but it is expected that they will show the affair to have been financially successful.

W. Moss, who has been in the city on a business trip for the past few weeks, returned to Vancouver on the Union steamer Cardena last night.

Forest fires are now raging all over the country and the forestry branch of the provincial department of lands is taxed to its utmost in an endeavor to keep them under control. Thos. Brewer, of the forestry service, states there are nine fires being fought in the Vanderhoof ranger's district between Finmoore and Fraser Lake employing seventy men. All of them are reported to be under control.

Prosperous advertising means regular continuous advertising.

INTO THE ATTIC

Few youngsters today ever saw a horse-hair sofa. They wouldn't know what to do with a fire taper, carpet stretcher, or coal oil lamp. They couldn't braid rags into a rug, or wind yarn without tangling. But they know the how and why of typewriters, phonographs, telephones, automobiles; what happens when a push of the button gives light, or a kodak's flash fixes their image on paper.

Their education is as modern as the advertisements they see. They have no more use for the lamp and chimney of yesterday than you for the wick and tallow of the day before.

Advertisements induce such progress. They urge wide use that means improvement. They help you lift the out-of-date into the attic—rid you of the water buckets and soap kettles of slavery. They bring late improvements within your reach.

Read the advertisements regularly. Keep alert to the new.

Without advertising, you would never know a product's worth until you had bought it.

Professor Carlyle is going to the ranch for the purpose of making a thorough inspection of it, and to prepare for the reception of a consignment of full-blooded horses and dairy cattle which will shortly arrive here.

Professor Carlyle stated that when he was speaking to the prince the last time in London the prince did not make mention of another visit to Canada in the near future, but added that the prince never grew tired of enquiring about his last trip. ## FLAPPERS IN JERUSALEM

Totes Swagger Stick and Wears No Stockings But Helps the Men

TORONTO, May 21.—There's something wrong, somewhere. It isn't the meek who are inheriting the earth, after all. It's the flapper and she isn't paying any inheritance tax, either.

There are flappers in Toronto, of course. But now comes Louis Gurofsky, lately returned from Palestine, who says that the young things are also flapping in Jerusalem.

In the Holy Land they carry swagger sticks, and wear low-heeled shoes, go to the movies and smoke cigarettes occasionally.

But that isn't all they do according to Mr. Gurofsky. They are flappers with a difference. Sometimes they don't wear stockings.

Sometimes there are no stockings to wear for the girls of the swanky swagger-sticks and low-heeled shoes. And, when they aren't carrying swagger sticks they are carrying rakes or axes, or other tools with which they are working side by side with the men in the rebuilding of Palestine.

Lives of Pioneers

"It is difficult for the young flappers of Toronto, or any great city for that matter, to realize just how their sister flappers live today in this truly remarkable eastern city," said Mr. Gurofsky. "They are living the lives of pioneers, and they are happy, remarkably so."

"It is a strange thing, but common in that country, to see women of refinement and education at work on the roads or on building construction. Manual labor is not considered beneath anyone there, neither man nor woman, no matter what their former position in life may have been. I have known university graduates to take in washing.

"Domestically Palestine is a very happy country. There is no time for domestic difficulties. A divorce court there would be a dismal failure. Married couples are not only sweethearts, but comrades as well. Often they both work barefooted together, for there may be no money with which to buy stockings. But they do not seem to care. They remember that their ancestors may have had to go about in the same way.

Everybody Helps

"It is a community in which everybody helps everybody else. When a couple put up a new house, all their friends pitch in and help them build it.

"There simply isn't any money in the country. When I think of these people who have come from south-eastern Russia, from Roumania, from Austria and other stricken countries to begin life anew I can only think of the Pilgrim fathers who came to America and landed on Plymouth Rock. Like them they have come to seek freedom and happiness, and they, too, are finding it."

SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT OF GASLESS AIRPLANE

Frenchman Uses Novel Type of Engine in Going from Paris to Lyons

PARIS, May 21.—Lieut. Batelier of the French Aerial Service last week made a sensational flight from Paris to Lyons with a new type of engine, called a "turbo compressor." It does not use gas and is worked by a series of copper tubes, through which air rushes, causing a suction, which works a number of small pumps, which force the pistons to work in the same manner as ordinary airplane engine. Lieut. Batelier reached an altitude of more than 18,000 feet and an average speed of 137 miles an hour.

FERNIE LOOKING FOR INDUSTRIAL BOOM

Opening up of Iron Ore Deposits and Steel Mill Are Involved

LETHBRIDGE, May 21.—Plans for the investment in development and construction work at Fernie, B.C., of five million dollars are said to be a long way toward completion, the enterprise involving the opening up of the adjacent iron ore deposits, the construction of a steel mill and the manufacture of a half score of by-products from the coal resources at Coal Creek, and other properties near the East Kootenay city.

It was learned here Monday that the success of the prospective industrial boom at Fernie hinges on the agreement to a five years' peace with organized labor, if labor is willing to enter such a pact the backers of the steel industry are said to be willing to start development at once. The name of W. R. Wilson, president of the Crownest Pass Coal Company and part owner of the Premier mine, one of the richest gold mines in the world, is connected with the report.

According to the information gathered Monday the scheme involves the extraction of a number of by-products from the coal. By-products worth $10, it is said, can be secured from a ton of coal, leaving still the coke. This will be used as fuel for the projected steel mill, it is stated. The report is creating no little stir in Fernie and the Pass.
