B. C. KEELEY TELLS VICTORIA OF NEW SHIP TRAGEDY AT VANCOUVER IN WHICH MANAGER OF P.G.E. CLOSELY CONCERNED

New Vessel to be Built Here Will Next Year Run to Skagway and Call Seattle and Victoria

Several important announcements were made this morning regarding Canadian Government Merchant Marine expansion, by B. C. Keeley, coast manager of the C.G.M.M. and Grand Trunk Pacific, who arrived in the city this morning on a business trip from Vancouver says the Victoria Times.

Regarding the new Grand Trunk Pacific liner for the B.C. Coast and Alaska service, Mr. Keeley stated that he expected something definite to be announced within the next week.

Plans and specifications have been offered and a decision is now expected. In any event the vessel will be the largest operating on the coastwise run, it being planned to have her built 300 feet long with a speed of twenty knots an hour.

When this vessel is added to the present fleet of coastwise liners, the Prince George, Prince Rupert and Prince John, a new itinerary will be arranged, stated Mr. Keeley. Practically the old schedule will be resumed, that is calling at Victoria, Seattle and Vancouver and going as far North as Skagway instead of Prince Rupert. "It is hoped," stated Mr. Keeley, "to have the vessel ready for the 1925 season."

EMPIRE PAGEANT IS POSTPONED
Takes Place on Friday of This Week And Will Be Great Event at Wembley.
LONDON, July 21.—The pageant of the Empire due to open today at Wembley has been postponed until Friday, when Prince Arthur of Connaught and members of the cabinet, as well as representatives of the Dominions and India will attend. The postponement was due to the council failing to obtain possession of the stadium in time to permit a full rehearsal and also on account of the enormous scale of the pageant which is to cost £100,000.

Fifteen thousand performers take part and three nights are required to produce the entire pageant.

ELECTION MAY BE HELD SOON

Ottawa Suggests Toward End of Year as Possible Time

OTTAWA, July 21.—In some quarters here there is a general feeling that a general election is likely to take place before the end of the present year. Writs were issued today for bye-elections in the riding of St. Antoine and Rimouski. Nominations will take place on August 16 and the polling on August 30. The forthcoming bye-elections are the result of the resignations of Hon. W. G. Mitchell, former Liberal member for St. Antoine, and J. E. Dandurand, former Liberal member for Rimouski. Members of the government are at present scattering all over the country in search of rest and Premier Mackenzie King has gone to his summer cottage on Lake Gatineau.

VISITING ELKS ARE ENTERTAINED HERE

Number of Prominent Members of Order Arrive in City and Later go South

Visiting delegates to the recent Elks' convention, held in Edmonton, who arrived in the city on Saturday night's train, were entertained in the evening by the members of the local lodge. The visiting brethren were taken by automobiles on a sightseeing trip to the Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Co.'s plant and to the Canadian National dry dock. Later in the evening a dance was held in the Elks' Home in honor of the visitors who afterwards left on the steamer Prince George for the south. Among the visitors present were E. W. Hackmoult, Vancouver, past grand exalted ruler of the Grand Lodge B.P.O.E.; Ald. D. W. Eagle, exalted ruler of St. Catherine's Lodge, St. Catherine's, Ont., and A. Sealuth, delegate from Lodge No. 4 Calgary, Alta.; W. H. Beemer, St. Catherine's, Ont.; Miss Mary S. Davis, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss O. G. Strenitz, Chicago; Miss E. H. Klein, Chicago; and Mr. Morden, North Vancouver.

STEWART PEOPLE EXCITED OVER A DUNWELL STRIKE

Word received from Stewart arrivals on Saturday was that all the residents of the mining camp were much worked up over the reported new strike in the Dunwell mine. Just what was the nature of the strike is not known but it not only goes to show that a big mine is in course of development there but also that some of the adjoining properties are likely to prove rich.

PARIS, July 21.—Steps toward a more normal relation between France and Russia are foreshadowed in letters published between Premier Herriot and the Bolshevik foreign minister Tchitcherine.

Terrace Output is Steadily Increasing; Demand Has Been Satisfactory

About two thousand crates of strawberries have been shipped from Terrace this season already and it is expected that there will be another thousand crates shipped out when the picking is finished. The crop this year has been good, although the acreage is less than in previous years. Prices have been satisfactory to the growers and the demand for the Terrace berries has remained steady. More careful grading and packing have brought higher prices to those farmers who paid attention to this particular.

The cherry crop has been somewhat spoiled by the rains of last week and there will not be so many available for shipment as was expected. Raspberries and red currants are up to the usual, and the scent from the crates of raspberries on the express truck at the station has been proving particularly annoying to hot and thirsty passengers, who couldn't get them.

The Terrace growers are realizing that a small canning plant operating even for a few months of the year for either canning or preserving or both, would be a profitable investment and it is possible that this may be in operation for next season's crop.

Beats Up Manager of P.G.E. Railway then Shoots Himself Dead

VANCOUVER, July 21.—One man is dead and the assistant general manager of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, Robert Wilson, is in hospital as a result of a terrific battle this morning between the railway official and E. G. Cordingley, formerly accountant on the P.G.E. who was discharged two weeks ago following alleged irregularities in his work. The dead man is Cordingley. He followed Wilson into his office in the Vancouver Block and jumped at him, striking him on the head with the butt end of a heavy revolver.

Wilson ran through the manager's office into the corridor. Cordingley fired at him and missed, but when Wilson fell after the second shot had grazed him, Cordingley jumped on him and started to beat his head with a gun.

Large numbers of people had by this time assembled and when Cordingley saw them closing in on him he jumped up, put the gun to his mouth and fired, dying instantly.

Cordingley was about 60 years of age and leaves a widow and three grown up children.

OLIVER REMAINS AS HEAD OF GOVERNMENT

Will Secure Safe Liberal Seat and Continue to Have Charge of Affairs in B.C.

VICTORIA, July 21.—It seems certain now that Premier Oliver will retain the position as leader of the government and that a seat will be found for him in some constituency which elected a Liberal member. Whether or not that constituency will be Skeena where Dr. Winch secured a good majority, is not stated. Any constituency, other than Victoria, it seems would be glad to be represented by the premier.

The Premier said that a number of Liberal members had offered to resign to allow him to run in their ridings, and intimated that he proposed to accept one offer. "I expect to remain in my present position and that a constituency will be found for me," said the premier.

MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR THE MAYORALTY

F. W. Hart is spoken of as a probable candidate for the mayoralty in case the present incumbent of that office resigns in order to contest the seat with Alderman Collart. Other names are mentioned as men who may be in the field, but none have definitely announced themselves so far.

AILY EDITION Monday, July 21, 1924.

Senate Annals Action Of Commons.

The House of Commons spent a good deal of time discussing and deciding to pass two bills recently, both of which the Senate has defeated. This is simply one of many cases where the second chamber has proved to be little more than an interference with the rights of the people to pass what legislation it may think fit.

Members of the Senate are mostly old men whose usefulness has passed and who represent a past generation in their ideas and ideals. To have the Legislature of the country controlled by such a body does not speak well for the intelligence of the people of Canada, who are willing to stand for the system. Until the people of Canada express their views plainly on the matter, evidently nothing will be done toward a change.

Borrowing Money For The Dominion.

This autumn the Dominion Government will have to borrow $300,000,000 to retire maturing war bonds and for other purposes and financial people in the East are discussing how this money should be raised.

On several occasions the Government has appealed to the people of the Dominion for money for such purposes with very good results and today the people of Canada own a large quantity of Dominion Government bonds on which they draw interest.

The objection to this plan of financing is that when people invest in Government bonds they cannot at the same time use their money for developing the industries of the country. The result has been that while Canadians have been investing in Government securities, Americans have been coming here and developing the natural resources and today people from the U.S. own or control most of the big industries in this country.

An effort is being made now to get the minister of finance to borrow the three hundred million outside Canada and thus release Canadian money for purely Canadian development purposes.

Will Canadians Develop Industries.

Even if borrowing is done outside Canada, will Canadians develop the industries? It is claimed by many that they will not and that if they do not invest their cash in Government securities they will invest in the United States or Great Britain. The whole question is an interesting one and no one seems to be well informed in regard to the matter. The banks find that if the people put their money into bonds, the deposits in the savings department are less and there is less cash to use for loans. If it were possible to depend on the opinion of experts we should do that, but the difficulty is that most of the experts are biased because they are financially interested in the outcome.

In the meantime the minister of finance is sitting tight and saying he will raise the money where he can get it cheapest, which, after all is the best policy.

How Small Things Influence Big Projects.

Showing how small things influence very big projects may be cited the case of a bluejay alighting on a high power wire at Seattle close to where the wire was insulated from the pole. By flicking its tail or flapping its wing a short circuit was caused to the pole, the jay was electrocuted and the whole electric system was put out of business for half an hour.

Just a whisper or a careless word is sufficient sometimes to upset the equilibrium of the whole town or to change the course of events in a community.

HEAVY TAX BURDEN ON WOOD PRODUCTS

TAXES ON STANDING TIMBER
INCREASE EIGHT-FOLD
IN 20 YEARS.

Operating End of the Industry
Also Contributes Increasing Millions in Support of Community.

The forest industries of British Columbia contribute more to the upkeep of the Province than all the other industrial groups put together.

The B. C. timberholders during the last fifteen years have paid into the Provincial treasury, in the shape of royalties and rentals, the enormous sum of $40,000,000, or approximately one-fourth of the total revenue of British Columbia for that period.

The timberholders' direct payments towards the running expenses of the Province in 1923 were more than four times greater than they were in 1904, and almost twice as great as in 1915.

In twenty years the receipts from B. C. timber-owners have risen from $455,000 to $3,600,000.

Many Forms of Taxation.

Again the operating end of the industry, represented by the loggers and manufacturers of wood products, pays annually several millions of dollars in income tax and other form of Dominion, Provincial and Municipal taxation. Heavy customs duties on equipment, workmen's compensation, and other direct imposts also enter into the cost of manufacture of a product, the price of which is not arbitrarily fixed by the producer but by the actual consumer in a highly competitive market.

Embarking in the lumber industry entails a big initial outlay and the menace of over taxation is even now actually diverting the entry of fresh capital from British Columbia's basic industry.

COAST HALIBUT REVIEWED BY FISH JOURNAL

Pacific Fisherman Says Large Business at all Ports on Coast

Halibut landings in June were large at all Pacific ports, the total being some 680,000 lbs., larger than for May, and 800,000 lbs. ahead of June, 1923, says the Pacific Fisherman. Prince Rupert shows a substantial gain over both previous months mentioned, as does also Seattle. Fishing conditions have been far more favorable than earlier in the season, and the new boats, as well as older ones recently equipped with heavy-oil engines, are contributing largely to the supply.

Prince Rupert shows a decided increase in number of fares, and the Canadian vessels increased their catch somewhat, while the American boats did considerably better than in May. The largest fare of the month was landed June 18 by the C. F. & C. S. Co. boat Foster, 70,000 lbs.; while the Republic on May 31 landed 65,000 lbs., selling to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage company at 11c. The Omaney or the 11th, the Kelly on the 16th, and the Resolute and Commonwealth on the 17th landed 60,000 lb. fares, and several others brought in 50,000 lbs. at a trip. Prices fluctuated between 10.6c and 17.5c, being most of the time between 11c and 14c. Landings at Ketchikan kept well up to recent average, with a few large fares, but no great number of trips. The New England on the 4th landed 105,000 lbs., the Scandia on the 12th, 63,000 lbs., sold to New England at 12.1c. Vancouver also had about an average month for this time of year, all fares being delivered by Canadian boats.

Fewer at Seattle

Arrivals by Seattle fishing vessels showed a decrease as compared with May, and also with the summer months of last year, but this was more than made up by a further increase in shipments from Alaska by steamers, which reached the exceptional total of 1,268,797 lbs. This brought the grand total at Seattle to the highest figure in several years, and within about 600,000 lbs. of the month's record at Prince Rupert. The number of fares was quite a bit less than for May, while the average showed a seasonable increase. These included several of very fair volume, the largest, 50,000 lbs., being brought in by the Seymour on the 30th, selling to Sebastian at 14 3/4c. La Paloma on the 26th landed 43,000 lbs., sold to Booth at 12 1/4c; and 42,000-lb. fares were brought by the Corona on the 19th and the Seattle on the 21st. The former brought 16 3/4c for No. 1 and 10c for No. 2, in equal quantities. Most of the large fares appeared in the latter part of the month.

All at Ten Cents

For the last week of June no distinction in price was made between No. 1 and No. 2 fish, the latter selling most of the month at 10c. The lowest price for No. 1 was about the same as for several months previous, while one small fare was sold at 30c, and others at 21c. This is not a guide to the market, however, the highest price aside from these being 19c. Most sales were at 13c to 17c, and during the latter part of the month got down to a range of 12 1/2c to 14c. The only Booth Fisheries company vessel landing for the month was the Zapora, arriving at Sitka on the 19th with 85,000 lbs.

The Prince Rupert halibut schooner Edward Lipsett was in port recently for the installation of a new 30 h-p. Frisco Standard engine.

The new five-man halibut boat Prosperity, built for himself by Andrew Christiansen at Vancouver, B.C., landed her first catch, amounting to 17,000 lbs., at Prince Rupert June 7.

M. M. Stephens and Family Visited Anyox, Alice Arm, Stewart and Other Points

STOPPED AT CANNERY

M. M. Stephens returned on Saturday from a very enjoyable two weeks tour of Northern B.C. waters in his pleasure cruiser Vera S. Fry. Mr. Stephens was accompanied by Mrs. Stephens, Miss Laura Stephens, Elgood Stephens, and Mr. Lemieux.

It was a beautiful afternoon when the little party set out for a 2½ hours run to Port Simpson. The afternoon breeze was at its height and, after crossing the Mellakalla bar, the good launch received quite a tossing off Ryan Point. Off Slippery Rock it was noticed that the boat was taking water around the stuffing box, and it was necessary to pump all the way into Port Simpson. At Port Simpson the Fry was beached and the stuffing box repacked. As this was a good opportunity, the bottom was also painted.

Setting out early the next morning the nine hours run to Alice Arm was made, arriving there the same afternoon. A stop of four days was made in this thriving little town.

Alice Arm Prosperous

The prosperous little Esperanza Mine, operated by one of its owners, Norman Fraser, formerly of this city, is constantly producing a high grade of ore. The several logging camps and the mill are working full blast and everything is booming. The new suspension bridge over the Kit-sault River has just been completed.

Wednesday a rough journey to Anyox was made. This was Mr. Lemieux's destination, so the party was then reduced to four persons. Here were visited the mine, smelter, concentrator and power house. Few people realize the great extent and value of these. There is no scarcity of work and everyone is looking forward to a prosperous year.

At Maple Bay

After a sojourn of two days the remaining party of four made a nine and one-half hours run to Maple Bay. Sunday morning they moved up to Swamp Point, where a day's good fishing was enjoyed.

Sunday evening they journeyed to Stewart, a run of about 3½ hours, arriving there in a heavy fog. A pleasant day was spent in visiting the sights of both Stewart and Hyder. Everything is booming in these two places, and the Premier Mine is working full swing.

Turned Homeward

On Tuesday the homeward journey commenced with the 9½ hours run to Dogfish Bay.

The next day it was intended to complete the homeward journey but they were doomed to disappointment, for clutch trouble detained them. Drifting in the rough water at the mouth of the Naas, they were picked up by a native fishing boat and towed in to Arrandale Cannery. This cannery is working full blast.

The next morning the sturdy boat was towed to Hidden Inlet Cannery, Alaska, where a good machine shop is situated. Repairs were here made but as the customs officer was away, it was necessary to delay the following day, awaiting his return. They received fine treatment by the Americans during their whole stay at this thriving cannery.

Seattle to Skagway

Leaving the following morning (Saturday), the party arrived home Saturday afternoon. Inside the harbor a small launch, with a party of four, who are making the extraordinary journey from Seattle to Skagway, was found in a disabled condition, having broken a connecting rod, and was towed safely to Cow Bay.

Although the weather was not very favorable, the journey was greatly enjoyed by all. Everyone returned with an enlightened impression of the country to the north.

CAPT. CANNING SHOT SMITHERS

Was Found by Constable Service in Shack; Inquest Wednesday

Provincial Constable Charles Canning was found shot dead in a shack at Smithers on Friday afternoon by Corporal Service, who is in charge of the provincial police station at that point. Details of the tragic occurrence are not yet available and the coronor's inquest has been postponed until Wednesday. The provincial police are making investigations, and inspector T. W. S. Parsons, who will arrive from the south this afternoon, will proceed immediately to Smithers to take charge.

Deceased was a single man, aged 30, and a nephew of the late T. Dunlop, who was drowned recently in the Bulkley River.

The late Constable Canning was a native of County Antrim, Ireland, and had only been in Canada for the past twelve months having been in the provincial police service for the past six months, most of the time as a special constable. He served in France with the Imperial forces and suffered from shell shock as a result. He held the 1914-15 star, general service medal and the victory medal. From 1917 to 1918 he was assistant D.A.Q.M.G. with headquarters 36th Division and was appointed a General Staff Officer, third grade, in November, 1918.

NAAS RIVER SPEED BOAT ARRIVES IN PORT FOR REPAIRS

Henry Derby arrived in port yesterday afternoon with his 200 horse power boat "Naas River," from the Naas river district, after having met with a slight mishap while in the Naas River

Canyon. The boat is not leaking, but the stem is rather badly broken and this will be repaired here. Mr. Derby was endeavoring to tie up his boat in the canyon when it got caught in a whirlpool and was swept away, leaving its owner hanging to the branches of the tree to which he was trying to anchor the craft. The boat was then carried down the river, when the damage to the stem occurred. Mr. Derby soon recovered the craft and immediately made preparations to return to Prince Rupert to carry out the necessary repair work.

Sport Chat

The following is the outdoor sport card for the week:

Tuesday — Gallies vs. Sons of England, Stuart Shield series.
Wednesday — Senior Lacrosse, Maple Leafs vs. Kaiens.
Friday — G.W.V.A. vs. S.O.C. Stuart Shield series. Trap shooting at Park Avenue.

It was learned on Saturday that a local football team had been invited by the Ocean Falls Athletic Club to journey south and play two games, and also that a baseball team will probably visit us from the paper-town early in August. This invitation from our southern neighbors is doubtless the outcome of the recent visit of the Prince Rupert lacrosse team to Ocean Falls, which visit was arranged by Ben Self and Harry Lipsett. It is very gratifying to see the local boys invited south again and speaks volumes for the good fellowship existing between this city and the worthy paper makers. The local lacrosse team met with a wonderful measure of hospitality at Ocean Falls on their recent visit and there is not much doubt that the paper boys will be given a rousing reception when they arrive to enjoy their baseball game with local stars.

The Sons of England football team seem to have been running into hard luck lately by the absence of regular players. Dick Lambe, who always plays such a consistently good game at full back, has been absent in the last two matches which has caused a re-arrangement of the line-up and judging from the results attained in the last two matches it does not appear to be working out as well as might have been expected. It is very difficult for players, who have been accustomed to playing in certain positions, to play their regular game in a new position. In their last game the Sons could only muster ten men and a one back game was the consequence. It takes all the glamor off the play when one side is so handicapped and the laurels of the winners do not look so fresh. In the best interests of the Stuart Shield series, and the game generally, it is to be hoped that the Englishmen will be able to put a full team in the field in their forthcoming fixture against the

A number of these maidens who are evidently loath to part with "woman's crowning glory" are being instructed in advanced swimming and will receive life-saving certificates at the end of their course, which lasts five weeks.

Great interest is being taken in the football game that is to be played at Winnipeg this evening between the B. C. and Manitoba teams that are entered for the Connaught Cup. This is an elimination series and the winner tonight will play in the final series. Saturday's game between these teams being a scoreless draw makes today's match doubly interesting.

TOURNAMENT AT TENNIS COURT

Mrs. S. P. McMordie Was Winner of Ladies' Singles Saturday

The American tennis tournament of the Prince Rupert Tennis Club, played on the Aeropolis Hill courts on Saturday afternoon, resulted in Mrs. S. P. McMordie winning the ladies' singles and W. H. Hamilton and Eddie Smith winning the men's doubles. Owing to the small attendance there was not the keenness of play that might otherwise have been expected. Refreshments were served during the afternoon under the supervision of Miss Pete Tremayne. The committee in charge of the tournament consisted of Miss Pete Tremayne, R. Bartlett and R. A. Press.

OBJECTION TO ONTARIO USING OUR REVENUE

Tax on Liquor Consumed Here Goes to Aid Provinces Where No Liquor Sold.

This article has nothing to do with the controversy between Prohibitionists and Moderationists over the liquor question, says Vancouver's new paper, "The Star." It refers merely to the question of who is entitled to the customs revenues exacted from the sales of liquor in this province.

We are all familiar with the large profits made by the B. C. Liquor Control Board in its operations, because the government makes the board hand over half the net profits to the municipalities for hospital and educational purposes, and uses its own share for road building. But the profit that the local government makes and shares with the public is negligible compared with the profit made by the Dominion government, Ottawa, through the customs officers, imposes a tax of nearly $2 a bottle on liquor entering British Columbia. Usually this is twice what the stuff costs in Scotland at the distillery. Fifty cents out of every dollar handed over the counters at the government stores goes to Ottawa. Who gets it?

Is Distributed.

Speaking in general terms, it is distributed to all the provinces in a per capita distribution, in the annual grants made from the consolidated revenues for carrying out public works. Or if the phrase does not seem an absurdity under present circumstances it goes "to the relief of taxation."

Being a luxury, it is right that liquor should contribute generously to the treasury. But what color of right has Ontario, for instance, to get the lion's share of the revenue from the sale of liquor in British Columbia? Ontario is a "dry" province. Long ago it decided for its own pure self that it would neither touch, taste nor handle the unclean thing sold by the Scotch distilleries. Unofficially, of course, it is a patron of the bootlegger and moonshiner who contribute nothing to the treasury.

What Ontario does is its own business. Nobody here would be so presumptuous or interfering as to want to meddle with its decisions on the liquor question any more than we relish Ontario folk meddling with our own decisions on purely B. C. matters. But having decided not to touch, taste or handle liquor or to raise a cent of revenue from it for Ottawa, why should it share in the profits of liquor vending in British Columbia?

Comes Back in Loan.

The Harbor Board is getting a loan of $5,000,000 from Ottawa for harbor improvements. By an odd circumstance it may be part of the $6,000,000 which Ottawa took from us in liquor taxes last year. Wouldn't it be

ANOTHER BOOTH TARKINGTON TALE

"The Fighting Coward" is Story of Shooting Man Who Never Killed Anybody

Tom Rumford is southern-born but is brought up by Quaker relatives in Philadelphia. At the age of twenty-one he returns to his folks' mansion on the Mississippi and becomes engaged to his pretty cousin, Elvira.

Released from jail where he has been serving a sentence for duelling, Major Patterson, also interested in Elvira and finding Tom in his way, promptly challenges him to gun fight. Tom, not understanding the southern duelling code, refuses. His family, aghast, practically drive him from home. Elvira's younger sister, Lucy, is the only sympathetic one.

In a Mississippi shore-front gambling house Tom meets the notorious card shark and gun fighter, Gen. Orlando Jackson. Jackson is interested in the boy, and, under the former's teaching, Tom develops into the most famous and dangerous shooting man along the Mississippi. He is known as "Cunel" Blake.

When Tom returns to his folks' mansion several years later, they see him as "Cunel" Blake and are scared to death of him. He makes monkeys out of everybody who once called him a coward. Only to Lucy does he confess who he is and that he has never killed anybody, having won his name as a killer on bluff and noise alone.

She tells him she loves him.

GLORIA SWANSON IS IN CORRECT ROLE

Was Never Happy in Comedy She Says: Plays in "Humming Bird"

They told Gloria Swanson she never could do it.

"Why, my dear," explained a studio chum, "you simply haven't the looks for it. 'You've a beautiful classic face with regular features, a complexion like wax, and a figure! You're just the ideal Mack Sennett bathing girl and you'd best resign yourself to jolling about the California beaches the rest of your movie days."

That's what Miss Swanson's fellow-Sennettite told her in the days when Gloria was the chief reason why Mack is called "Ziegfeld of the Movies."

But fortunately, Miss Swanson didn't listen to her—at least she didn't take her friend seriously. For already this strikingly beautiful Chicago girl, who had come to California and broken into pictures via the comedies had ambitions to succeed in the serious drama.

"I was never happy in comedy," Miss Swanson explained recently, when she was in New York on a brief vacation. "I had come to Los Angeles to do drama. I had been working in comedy at the Essanay studio in Chicago and didn't like it. But I did like motion pictures and I wanted to succeed. When I came to the West Coast and found the only available opening was in comedy, I turned it down at first. After I thought it over, I decided any way of breaking in was better than no way and took the job."

It was not long before the producers began to agree with Gloria Swanson. Though she could pose superbly in a bathing suit, they discovered that she would wear the most exquisite Parisian models of evening dresses with the grace of a professional model and possessed the poise

The "Ad" that Saved a City

Rome was being attacked. The massive walls were breached. The enemies pressed hard on every side. To the north, the invaders crept stealthily through the night to storm the gates. In the dark, they stumbled on a flock of geese. The fowls cackled loud and long—the sentries heard—and Rome was saved.

Advertising is continually saving something for someone. It will save for you, too, if you use it properly.

It will save you money by pointing out real bargains, by telling you of true values, by giving you prices to compare and by telling you how much you should pay.

It will save you time and effort by telling you exactly where and when to go for what you want to buy. You don't have to "shop around."

It will save you disappointment by telling you just what you can expect from your purchases. Every time a merchant or manufacturer advertises, he obliges himself to sell you goods that fulfil his claims. He knows it doesn't pay to advertise unworthy wares.

Read the advertisements as a plain, every-day business proposition. It is a duty you owe yourself and your purse.

The advertisements will help you save and bearing of a society dame. Moreover, they found that this eager woman with her expressive black eyes and ivory complexion was a real actress.

So Miss Swanson's opportunity to rise into the serious drama came quickly, and she seized it with both hands.

DEATH BATTLE WITH AN IMMENSE SHARK

Attacked Man and Boy in Open Boat But Was Finally Driven Away

A story comes from Newport Beach, California of a death battle with a giant killer shark which attacked his open fishing boat in the sea a mile off shore from Newport Beach, and won by Richard Gunther only after he had reached the point of exhaustion, and after the monster had torn the gunwale from his pitching boat.

Gunther and Donald Cavanaugh, 14 years of age, were fishing in the boat when the huge shark, more than 20 feet in length, rose alongside, apparently attracted by the smell of the bait.

Circles Boat

The shark circled the boat several times, and then raced toward it. It attempted to seize the boy, who sat cowering in his seat. The manoeuvre was repeated a number of times, the boat threatening to capsize each time.

Gunther commanded the boy to lie down in the bottom of the boat. He took a smooth bladed spear which he keeps in the boat, and as the shark flashed in again, slashed at it.

This appeared only to infuriate the creature. It returned to the attack again and again, dyeing the water about the boat crimson with its blood. Finally the shark flashed part way up from the water, and seizing the gunwale of the boat between its jaws, tore a jagged hole in the craft.

Battle an Hour

The battle had lasted an hour, and Gunther was nearing exhaustion. The frantic cries of the boy, however, finally brought aid in the person of Al Warnick and Albert Hines. They drew near the imperilled boat, and also attacked the shark. Apparently mortally stricken by a thrust from the spear, it swam slowly away and disappeared.

The shark had a flat head, with large saucer-shaped eyes, and a huge mouth with double rows of spear-shaped teeth. Gunther stated. The dorsal fin of the giant fish seemed as large as a sailboat's jib, he said, and it was considerably longer than his 18-foot boat.

SOCKEYE HALVES ARE SOLD BUT NOT TALLS

Says the Pacific Fisherman: The carryover of British Columbia Sockeye halves is fairly well sold out, but there is still a fair stock of tall, and new halves are beginning to arrive. Sales of this grade are reported fairly active for all sizes.

The remaining stock of Chum falls is estimated at only about 10,000 cases, and there are a few halves of this grade also available. The stock of Pink halves is fairly large, but as none of the new pack is being canned in this size a shortage is expected by the end of the year. Pink tall and Cohoes are said to be completely cleaned up.

Opening prices for all grades of British Columbia salmon are expected to appear this month.

WOMEN MAY WEAR ANY CLOTHES SHE WISHES IN CANADA

In Some Countries She Would Be Prosecuted For Appearing in Public in Male Attire

TORONTO, July 24.—(Canadian Press).—May a Canadian woman wear masculine clothes, and assume a masculine name? She may, according to the laws of this country. She may wear anything from a dinner jacket to a Palm Beach suit; she may wear bell trousers and a Derby hat, stiff collars or prospectors' boots without infringing on the law. She may call herself Mrs. even if unmarried, and may also call herself Jack or Bob or any other masculine name.

The question arose when two young "fellows" were brought into court the other morning. They had been found in a boxcar in the terminal freight yards, and would soon have been on their way to Fort William and Port Arthur. The usual program when hobos were found in the railway yards had been gone through when the smaller lad pulled off his cap and disclosed a mass of blonde curls. The pair were again marched before the sergeant, the girl sobbing a story of home neglect and a desire "to get away from it all." She was acquitted, while her much older companion was sent to Guelph reformatory. But the question came up: "Was this girl guilty of impersonating insofar as she wore masculine attire? The answer was no.

More Than Ever

Girls are going in for male attire more than ever. But in this country they may do so without fear of the law. Inspector McKinney of the Toronto Morality Department is sponsor for this statement. Only when a woman in masculine attire creates a disturbance of some kind on the street can she be arrested, on a charge of vagrancy.

In parts of the United States an unmarried girl may and has been arrested for calling herself Mrs., and a small city in Kansas recently opened a strong campaign against girls wearing masculine and semi-masculine clothes, under authority of an old statute that a person must not wear clothes of the opposite sex.

SOVIET BUSY TRYING TO CONVERT BRITAIN

Would Centre Efforts on This Empire as Fruitful Field

At a time when governmental efforts are being made to negotiate trade treaties between Britain and Soviet Russia the Congress of the Third Internationale at Moscow has been outlining what Communism must do in Britain, says the Victoria Colonist. Its officials are also members of the Soviet government. Its dictum is that the Internationale must cultivate this fruitful field (Britain) more than any other until the British Communist party has become a real power, dominating the trade unions and the whole of the Labor party. The Communists must establish their own daily English Communist newspaper; they must worm their way into the vital centres of trade unionism and create a revolutionary left wing; they must make special efforts to influence British working class youth; and they must attack the colonial question boldly, as becomes militant Bolsheviks.

One delegate to the International Congress, an Indian revolutionary named Roy, pleaded for more energetic Communist efforts in the British Dominions, because, he said, "every British workman is an Imperialist and the only possible way of completely overthrowing British Imperialism is loosening the widespread roots in outlying dependencies, at the same time aiming the severest blows at the centre." This is the character of the propaganda which is carried on by Soviet ministers, and with the sanction of the Soviet government, and in the face of it Britain, and other nations, have extended de jure recognition to Russia.

U.S. IS PREPARING TO ENFORCE TREATY

Says the Pacific Fisherman: The North Pacific halibut treaty, establishing a closed season from Nov. 16 to Feb. 15, inclusive, is now made effective by laws enacted in both the United States and Canada, giving final assurance that halibut fishing in the North Pacific will be suspended for the period mentioned during the coming fall and winter. This step was taken after prolonged effort on the part of practically all engaged in the industry, who have felt that such action was urgently needed to preserve the fishery. For this reason it is expected that all interested will willingly co-operate in its enforcement.

Plans of the Canadian government for enforcement of the law have not yet been announced, but the Canadians will no doubt act with their customary vigor and thoroughness. On the United States side, preparations are already going forward. The Bureau of Fisheries is planning to take up this work by detailing its wardens for the purpose during the winter months, when the salmon fishery is inactive, and will have a warden stationed at every halibut port of Alaska and at Seattle to see that the law is enforced during the closed season.

McAFEE WEDDING AT VANCOUVER WAS QUIET

Says the Vancouver Province: A quiet wedding of special interest in University circles took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 1014 Eleventh avenue, west, when Miss Nina Vivian Bell Munn, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Munn, became the bride of Mr. Weldon Robert McAfee, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George McAfee, fourteenth avenue west. The home was prettily decorated with a profusion of summer flowers and the service was read by Rev. J. S. Henderson. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a girlish frock of poudre blue roshnara crepe with chic hat of grey duvelyn. She carried pale pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. McAfee left immediately after the ceremony for Jasper Park and Prince Rupert. They will reside at Georgetown.

METHODISTS OF CANADA TO SPEND LARGE SUM ON MISSIONARY WORK

TORONTO, July 24.—Canadian Methodists have been asked to finance their denominational enterprises in the coming year, including widespread missionary and moral reform activities, with an amount totalling slightly under five dollars per member. In a statement just issued from the office of the General Superintendent, Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., L.L.D., numerous plans for co-ordinating activities and conserving funds are announced. The total asked for all non-local purposes is $1,943,20.

Dr. Chown assures the church that the General Board of Missions and the Women's Missionary Society have reached "happy mutual understanding," that the prohibition campaigns are being vigorously prosecuted and that economy is the watchword of all departments. He strongly urges tithing as a means to spiritual grace and financial soundness, in Methodism.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Day will be glad to know Mr. Day, who has been in a critical condition for the past two weeks, is now improving slowly.
