VENeer MILL TO BE OPERATED THIS YEAR

U.S. AERIAL COMMANDER'S MACHINE SAVED BUT HIS FLIGHT IS DELAYED

Laminated Wood Factory is to be Started Within Month on Skeena River Island Near Salvus Station

N. B. WALTON GOING FRIDAY

Will Take up New Duties at Winnipeg Immediately; Successor Not Appointed

N. B. Walton, assistant general superintendent of the Canadian National Railway, who was recently appointed general superintendent for Manitoba with offices at the general headquarters for the west at Winnipeg, returned here on last night's train from Montreal where he has been for the past several weeks on company business.

The site obtained for the mill is Devil's Island, three miles west of Salvus Station and 57 miles east of Prince Rupert. This island is crossed by the main line of the Canadian National Railway.

SECURING SIDING

Mr. Burdett today interviewed the government agent arranging further details in connection with the site and also is taking up with the G.N.R. engineering department the matter of putting in a siding. For the purposes of the mill a siding 600 or 700 feet long will be required but it will probably be somewhat longer. This may not seem very large but the production of a veneer mill is not large in volume proportionately for it is more a matter of quality than quantity.

Piles for the foundation of the mill are already being cut near Terrace. Starting of actual work of putting in the foundation will now depend on weather. It is hoped that it will be under way within a month. It would be started now if the snow were gone and weather conditions were otherwise favorable. Last reports are that the snow has not yet left the ground at Salvus. Once construction is started the plant will be rushed through to completion as it is desired to start operating before September 1, when the fall rains usually commence.

At Brandon 18 inches of snow has fallen since Monday morning.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVERTED

Two City Workmen on Second Avenue Excavation were Caught Down by Large Rock

Two of the city workmen engaged on the excavation at the corner of Fifth Street and Second Avenue narrowly escaped serious injuries yesterday afternoon. A large rock, which they were attempting to dislodge, suddenly came loose and started to roll down carrying them with it. Fortunately, they were hurled to the side instead of going under and reached the bottom little the worse for their experience although somewhat shocked.

LEGISLATIVE EASTER RECESS

Labor Government of Britain Safely Weathered Storms of Opening Period of Session

LONDON, April 17.—Having safely weathered the storms of official life during the first term, the Labor government of Great Britain adjourned yesterday until April 29 for the Easter recess. They have so far been kept in power by the Liberals in the House of Commons who have supported them faithfully on almost every occasion, the one exception being the time when they tried to force through a provision in the Evictions Act of which the Liberals did not approve. Then the government was defeated but it did not accept the vote as a want of confidence, it being understood before the vote was taken that it would not be so considered.

During the time they have been in office the Labor cabinet has increased its prestige and has impressed the people of the country and the House of Commons with its ability to deal with affairs of state and its desire to proceed slowly with pressing reforms.

Wonderful Interest In U.S. Flying Men.

Nationality counts little when humanity is in the balance. The immense interest taken by Prince Rupert people in the fate of the flying men who passed through here recently and who are braving the dangers of air and ocean in a round-the-world journey shows that the fact that they are Americans and not Canadians counts nothing. We like them just as well and we are just as interested in their great attempt as any person south of the boundary.

Every move of the four intrepid airmen is followed here and we like to visualize the scene where they land and to share with them mentally the dangers they brave. When it was announced that Major Martin had been lost, all the city was concerned about it. When he was found everyone rejoiced. This bond of interest is wonderful.

Prize Essay For Whole District.

The Daily News is arranging for a prize essay for the whole district for young people under the age of sixteen. The prizes for the competition which will be managed by this paper are valuable. The first is a complete two step radio set worth at least $120 and there are good cash prizes in addition, particulars of which are given in the news columns. The idea of the competition is to stimulate in the young the idea of the value of the forests and the necessity of protecting them. Any person either attending school or not may enter as long as an affidavit is given by a school teacher or clergymen that the person writing it is under sixteen and that it is his or her own work. Parents are asked to co-operate to make this a success. In all there are eight prizes as well as a chance to compete in a grand central prize for the whole of Canada.

What Is Value Of Government Inspection.

What is the value of a government inspection of banks if no action is to be taken to prevent such a thing happening as occurred in the case of the defunct Home Bank. Evidence given yesterday showed that as far back as 1916 the government department knew of the conditions of the bank yet it took no action and the institution was allowed to go on paying dividends which were never earned and to delude the public into believing that it was a sound institution. The result is that instead of the public losing part of their deposits they now lose them all.

Too Much Interference With Individual Freedom.

There is too much interference with individual freedom in the world for any great improvement in general conditions to be brought about. Every nation excludes some people from other nations and also preserves privileges for their own citizens which are not granted to foreigners. Selfishness, which we would not tolerate in an individual, is considered all right for a nation.

Just now the United States has taken action against the Japanese, which has aroused Nippon and caused the people to talk loud and even to threaten to fight. The only thing that keeps them back is the knowledge of the futility of such action. If they felt sure they could overcome their opponents without too great a loss to themselves, there would be a war on right now.

The Ramsay Macdonald policy of diplomacy will not prove effective if at any time the pride of a rival nation is aroused over what it considers to be an injustice. A policy of reasonableness may avert trouble but the difficulty is that neither people or nations are reasonable.

WOMEN do not vamp their husbands because the old foals are not worth the trouble.

IT'S really not a simple trick To write a snappy limerick For if I write one that has spice The folks remark "That isn't nice" And should I print a harmless one At once I hear "A rotten pun."

IF when your boat runs out of gas with you a mile from home you remark that "life is a dream," you can make up your mind that you will dream for ever for you are a dead one.

WHAT is the good of an old fashioned Sunday suit when the old fashioned Sunday is with us no more?

WHEN I buy an engine for my boat I intend to have one that will run without oil, that will have no needle valve to adjust, that will never short circuit, that will never spring a leak anywhere and that will have no gas feed pipe to get stopped. I shall buy an engine probably during the millennium, Jake says.

THERE are two things that any young man should remember. Be careful in the selection of your wife and your wall paper for both will haunt you for many a day if you make a mistake.

INDIGESTION GAS ON STOMACH PAINS AFTER MEALS

Many people suffer terribly from gas and pains in the stomach after every meal, and are kept in constant misery.

For the past 44 years Burdock Blood Bitters has been bringing hope and joy to thousands suffering from various forms of stomach trouble, helping them to eat three square meals a day; helping them to eat anything they wish, without having to suffer for it after.

Mr. Fred Nelson, Moose Jaw, Sask., writes:—"All last summer I was troubled with stomach trouble and indigestion, and also gas on the stomach. I could not eat anything except some light food and even then I would be bothered with pains after each meal. I could not work a whole day without being done out. I had tried everything: doctors, medicines and pills, until I read about Burdock Blood Bitters. I have taken four bottles and it has nearly, if not completely, restored me to health again."

IN TORONTO

A YEAR after being founded, the Bank of Montreal spread its Branches westward, in July of 1818 establishing Agencies at Kingston and York.

York, which afterwards became the city of Toronto, had then just had its first stage-coach communication established with Kingston and Montreal. It was merely a settlement in a clearing amid unbroken forests from which the Indians came to trade with farmers and other members of the little community. Today Toronto ranks among the largest cities on the continent.

Of the Bank's 567 Branches, 26 are in Toronto and 207 in the Province of Ontario, including Toronto.

BRINGING UP FATHER

LAMINATED WOOD FACTORY IS TO BE STARTED WITHIN MONTH ON SKEEA RIVER ISLAND NEAR SALVUS STATION.

100,000 square feet of three-ply veneer daily. This will require the using of 20,000 feet of timber daily. The value of the product will be $6,000 per day which would correspond to 220,000 feet of ordinary lumber.

Process of Production

The process of production in a veneer mill differs entirely from that of a sawmill. The logs are suspended in a lathe and revolved, a large knife peeling the wood off from outside to centre in a circular manner. A 120-inch lathe is to be put in which will turn out panels to a length of ten feet.

An illustration of the process followed in a veneer mill gives some idea of the equipment that is required and which will be installed in this plant.

After leaving the lathe, the wood goes into clippers where it is cut to the width required. Then it goes to a dry kiln where a large proportion of the moisture is taken out. The wood for the centre ply is then put through a glue spreader and the top and bottom plies are attached. Going through a hydraulic press is the next step. Here the veneer is clamped down and held tight to flatten it out and the product is complete and ready for shipment after it has passed through a joister and sizer.

Quick Work

A log entering the mill can be turned into the finished product in five hours time. The longest individual process is that of drying which takes from forty minutes to two hours depending on the percentage of moisture.

The most important and most expensive machine is the lathe and peeler. The lathe for the Devil's Island mill is of a very large size and is being built especially for this plant. It will be the largest lathe for this kind of work in operation on the Pacific Coast.

The dry kiln will be heated with moist heat from steam pipes and the air will be circulated by means of fans operated electrically. It is necessary to have even heat not too dry in order to allow for even drying.

The plies will be put together with waterproof casein glue so that the veneer may be used either inside or out. The glue will be made at the plant from casein obtained from creameries. The logs will come to the mill in ordinary lengths—10 feet is the limit of the lathe—with a drag saw.

Best Veneer Timber

Logging for the proposed mill will be a simple matter because not nearly so many logs are used in such a plant as in a sawmill. A veneer mill is a highly economic proposition because all the wood may be used. Clear is used for the upper ply, common may be used for the under ply and cull may be used for the centre. Cottonwood is the best

SHOULD HAVE AN ELEVATOR

That Is Opinion of Prominent Canadian Who Is Visiting This City

PACIFIC COAST HOPPER

That Prince Rupert has just claim to a grain elevator, that the port has every advantage for the establishment of such a facility and that it must come in the course of a very short time is the opinion of John Ferguson, original owner of the townsite of North Bay, Ontario, reeve of that city for five years, mayor for four years, eight years on the council and four years president of the Board of Trade, who is in the city today with Mrs. Ferguson in the course of a tour of the United States and Canada which started last August and which they expect will continue for another year.

Mr. Ferguson is much impressed with this port and marvels that its development is not already far advanced. The Panama Canal, he says, has revolutionized transportation for Western Canada. It will cause the division of Canada from this standpoint into two—east of Moose Jaw and west and the two Pacific Coast hoppers will be Prince Rupert and Vancouver. As for Oriental shipping, Prince Rupert should be the central port.

Mr. Ferguson believes, on account of the shorter distance across the Pacific Ocean and the splendid grade of the Canadian National Railways.

The development of the Canadian National Railways, with Sir Henry Thornton as its head, is in safe hands, Mr. Ferguson declares. D. B. Hanna, the former president, left it in excellent shape and was succeeded by a man of whom all Canada should be proud.

Peace River Neglect

Mr. Ferguson deeply regrets that the Peace River country should have been neglected as it has from a transportation standpoint. Immediate steps should be taken to open up such a fine agricultural area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson since last fall have motored through the northern states to Vancouver. They arrived here on the Prince George yesterday afternoon. Tonight they leave for Edmonton and Regina enroute to Detroit, Michigan, where they will again resume their motor trip on an automobile which is being especially built for them.

They will go to Northern Ontario and later plan going to Florida and other southern states.

Mr. Ferguson is an old friend of Mayor Newton whom he regrets is out of the city while he is here. Mr. Newton's brother, George Newton, publishes a paper in North Bay.

IMMIGRATION AND SUCCESS

Must Develop Resources Says Dr. Creelman Addressing Edmonton Board of Trade

NOTHING IS WRONG

Pick and Shovel Men Needed Says President of Ontario Agricultural College

EDMONTON, April 17.—An irresistible optimism pervaded the address of George C. Creelman, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, in addressing the Board of Trade here at their luncheon.

There is nothing wrong with the west, Dr. Creelman forcefully pointed out. All that is needed to put the country on the high-road to prosperity is the right sort of spirit among the citizens, coupled with a real effort to better conditions through extensive immigration.

"We need settlers," the speaker asserted. "We need and should get within the next ten years an increase of at least twenty-five per cent in our population. If we do this there is no reason, as I see it, why prosperity cannot be increased by just that figure."

Attract British Settlers

Dr. Creelman emphasized the desirability of attracting settlers from Great Britain. There were thousands of men in the old land who, if brought into this country and given half a chance, would make good in the fullest sense of the word.

Dr. Creelman quoted various statistics to prove that Canada is in a position to attract all settlers, sound in mind and body, and offer them wonderful opportunities.

In investigating this question, he had found that one in every five men, women and children in Canada owned a bank account. One in every nine own municipal or other debentures, and 500,000 automobiles and trucks were possessed by Canada's nine millions, while Great Britain, with a population of 45,000,000, had only 100,000 motors and motor trucks.

Since 1915, the people of Canada had subscribed in loans to pay off Canada's own debt, some $2,500,000,000.

"Does this look as though the country and its people are in a bad way?" the speaker asked.

Canada, Dr. Creelman declared, has such opportunities that she should have no difficulty in attracting thousands of immigrants from less fortunate countries. In the next twenty-five years, the country should see a vast increase in population.

Pick and Shovel' Men

"The type of men we need from other lands are 'pick and shovel' men," the speaker maintained. "All too few of our own boys are following this line of work. We need good tradesmen, and we need, too, good farm laborers."

Dr. Creelman outlined to the board a scheme of his origination which was being tried out in On-

"Liver Trouble so Severe I Had to Quit Work"

Mr. Thomas Honey, Brantford, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from enlargement of the liver for ten months, and finally I had to quit work. I would wake up in the mornings with a bitter taste in my mouth, had frequent headaches, yellow complexion, and pain in my right side, and between the shoulder blades. It was almost unbearable, and terribly weakening. I could not sleep at night and my heart also bothered me. But the whole trouble has now left me, thanks to that wonderful medicine, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

Social Event Staged by Group of Young Men in Boston Banquet Last Evening Was Appreciated

The Hermit's soiree which was arranged to be held last night in the Boston banquet hall and which was looked forward to with such lively anticipation by many of the young people, proved to be all that was expected of it.

CANADIAN LAW BENEFIT ALASKA

Open Market for Halibut at Prince Rupert Brings Prosperity to Ketchikan

In an article advocating support for Dan Sutherland's re-election to Congress, the Alaska Fisherman speaks of the prosperous condition of the halibut industry as follows:

"The splendidly prosperous condition that now obtains in the halibut fishing industry should awaken the people of the Territory to the fact that the same conditions that prevail in halibut fishing can be made to apply to other branches of fishing and there is no good reason why they should not apply.

"You cannot today find a single halibut fisherman who is dissatisfied with conditions that govern his branch of fishery but on the contrary every halibut fisherman you meet is loud in his words of approval of these conditions.

"There is no monopoly in the halibut fishery either in fishing or marketing. All halibut is sold in open competitive market and as the demand for this fish is strong, good prices are paid to the fishermen for their catch.

"It was indeed a fortunate day for the halibut fishermen of the North Pacific when the Poindexter amendment to close the market at Prince Rupert and create a monopolistic market at Ketchikan was defeated in the U.S. Senate. It was also a fortunate day for the town of Ketchikan, as the contentment with present conditions on the part of the halibut fishermen is evidenced in the increase of trade at this port. A satisfied, contented people is the object of civil government, and the purpose of laws is to bring about that social condition.

"If laws have brought about the conditions that obtain in the halibut industry, why is it not possible to correct conditions in the salmon fishery in the same manner? When the laws are enacted for the abolishment of all monopolistic methods of fishing and marketing salmon then will the same satisfactory conditions prevail in that branch that are so noticeable in the halibut fishery."

It is a great blessing that today so many delicious foods as well as tea and coffee can be procured in tins and sealed metal packages. "SALADA" Tea was one of the first pure food products to become widely popular in Canada. The flavor preserving aluminum package keeps the tea fresh and delicious. Skilful blending maintains the quality absolutely uniform.
