RAMSAY MACDONALD ON FOREIGN POLICY

WOODROW WILSON BURIED TODAY IN CATHEDRAL UNITED STATES CAPITAL

President Wilson Buried Today with Highest Honors Nation Could Bestow on one of Private Citizens

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Former President Woodrow Wilson was buried here this afternoon without martial display but with the highest honors a nation can bestow on a citizen. The final ceremony took place in Bethlehem chapel of the cathedral of Saint Peter and Saint Paul.

Sixty of the former president's oldest friends attended a service at his home and 4,500 took part in the service at the cathedral, the latter including President Coolidge, members of the cabinet, high officials of the army and navy. Congress adjourned in honor of the dead and in many states commerce and governmental activities rested during the time of the funeral. The funeral service was heard throughout the country by radio.

"Strongheart," the canine star of the movies, was "snapped" by over seventy cameras at one time, just before the one hundred mile grand prix dog race near Banff.

COLONIZATION BY RAILWAY

Conference at Winnipeg Discusses Various Phases of Work

WINNIPEG, Feb. 6.—The colonization and development policy of the Canadian National Railways, as recently announced by vice-president W. D. Robb, was the chief topic of discussion at the annual meeting of the staff of the land and towns site departments and the colonization and development department held here yesterday.

Plans were laid for the extension of the department's activities on a large scale in Europe and United States, as laid down in the policy and E. F. Field, land commissioner and head of the departments convening, expressed the opinion that the increased work would undoubtedly direct a steady increasing number of immigrants into Western Canada. He is gradually extending the facilities of his departments to handle this influx efficiently.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Evidently the new Labor government intends concentrating on internal policies such as housing, unemployment and agriculture. An important conference will take place tomorrow between the government labor leaders and employers connected with the building industry. The government's aim is to induce the unions to allow relaxation of the trade union rule in order to provide more skilled labor for building. In return the unions claim the government ought to guarantee continuance of the housing policy over a period of fifteen to twenty years.

It is reported that Premier Ramsay Macdonald contemplates making a visit to Paris in May after the French elections, which it is hoped will bring together a chamber more disposed to meet British views on reparations.

Premier Macdonald says there is difficulty in including Russia in the League of Nations but Germany's inclusion should be insisted upon.

Discussing British relations with France, the Premier says the hesitating, negative attitude of the former British Government has been mainly responsible for the misunderstandings. "All that is past," he declared, "and Britain will be no longer content to sit and watch events and the result is that the new attitude seems to be succeeding beyond expectations."

SLOVAK WIZARD HOPES TO SEND POWER BY RADIO

Whole Town of Twelve Thousand People Aiding Him Perfecting System

HIS FUNDS GAVE OUT Everything placed at Disposal of Fritz Havlitzek for His Inventive Work

OBERLEUTENSORF, Czechoslovakia, Feb. 6.—This industrial town of 12,000 persons has voluntarily transformed itself into one great electrical workshop to assist Fritz Havlitzek, a local electrician, in his struggle to improve apparatus of his own invention designed to transfer electrical power without wires. Every man, woman and child in Oberleutensdorf consider themselves Havlitzek's assistants. Every house, every machine shop, every telegraph pole in the town has been placed at the disposal of the young inventor.

Just at the time when Havlitzek had nearly perfected the machine upon which he had been at work for years, his funds gave out and he found himself unable to carry on his endeavors. But the burgomaster of the town deputies quickly came to Havlitzek's aid and gave him money with which to continue.

Oberleutensdorf manufactures toys, textiles, hats and steel goods. Every worker in town looks upon young Havlitzek as a second Edison, and the men of science who have seen his work predict great accomplishments for the local wizard of electricity.

TOURISTS WELCOMED IRELAND ONCE MORE

Tailteann Games to be Held in August and 100,000 Visitors Expected

DUBLIN, Feb. 6.—For some years past the tourist trade in Ireland has been at its lowest ebb. Now that normal conditions of life have been restored it is hoped to revive its old prosperity and the railway companies, as well as those in control of Ireland's famous beauty spots, contemplate an advertising campaign to lure the tourist back.

The holding of the Tailteann games in August is expected to attract to Dublin and Ireland about one hundred thousand visitors. There is still much discussion as to the possibility of housing them if they do come, but the postmaster general, who is in charge of the project, is very sanguine. He believes that the visitors can be comfortably accommodated in private houses and he has the co-operation in his efforts of the Royal Dublin Society, the organizers of the annual horse show. Citizens are being invited to promote a scheme for the decoration of the city, and the Rotary Club is assisting the project.

QUESTIONS RIGHT OF IRISH PEERS TO SIT WITH BRITISH LORDS

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The question of allowing the Irish representative peers to retain their seats in the House which was not touched upon in the treaty that created the Irish Free State, is being actively attacked by the Conservative press and anti-Irish organizations in England.

This question, however, has not arisen since the treaty was signed as a vacancy has not occurred in the list of Irish representative peers who are elected to the House of Lords for life. Neither the Free State government nor the British officials have mentioned the subject in their various communications nor is it believed that the matter will be discussed until the question is formally raised in the legislative chambers.

Political Parties For Good Of The Country.

At the Liberal meeting Monday night Hon. T. D. Pattullo urged that party politics should have ever in mind the good of the country rather than the party. He expressed the view that the partisan politics which had in view nothing but the good of the party and did not work for the benefit of the whole country had little value. He struck a high note in political affairs and urged that members of the party combat the idea of blue ruin as preached by some of his opponents.

It is to be assumed that there always will be parties in connection with government. Directly a group of people unites for a common cause, there is a party. There may be two parties only or there may be forty, but parties there must be. Last year there was the germ of a party when a section of the city council united in the cause of economy. Also there was an opposition party, not always clearly defined but always there. So it always will be.

Liberal Party And Its Aim.

At the meeting the other night Fred Stork gave a very brief resume of the work of the Liberal party. He told of the fight put up in Great Britain to obtain a place in the sun for the common people and he told of the fight in Canada against the party of privilege known as the "family compact." He urged that the work of this party should still continue, not being too extreme but gradually moving forward with a view to improving conditions. Mr. Stork intimated that the country got the kind of government for which it voted.

Doubtless the Conservative leaders may trace the history of their party, showing the beneficent results obtained from Tory administration and urging that they too have been influenced by a desire to serve and that a high moral purpose has permeated all their acts.

It is clear that the leaders of political thought believe the people value unselfish service and demand in the leaders a high moral purpose. In that they are not wrong. The political parties make mistakes and in the past leaders have sometimes been actuated wholly by selfish purposes. That was because of the frailty of human nature. The parties are what the people make them. Apart from the people they have no existence.

All Should Take Part In Politics.

Every citizen should be a politician. Politics is the science of government and until every person studies the science of government and uses his vote intelligently, there will be no such thing as true democracy. Liberals may organize and Conservatives may organize and dozens of petty parties may be formed for various purposes but if the people of the country study the political situation and vote intelligently, if they take an interest in the selection of candidates and see that the issues are placed clearly before the people, then the parties will have less effect on government than they have today. Independent thought will be the influence at work and purity in public life will be the rule.

Are We Developing Leaders Today?

Are we developing political leaders today? Where are our young men? Why are they not in politics? If the country is to be great, it must have great leaders and the leaders should be the young men who have been developed here. Our public schools and high schools are doing their best but after the young men leave school, little is heard of them. The hope of the country is that they should take part in political life. If they do not study politics our government system will become a failure. We must develop professional politicians instead of trusting our affairs to amateurs who cannot even run their own businesses successfully. This is the age of specialists and men need to specialize in politics just as in anything else.

A GROUP of men gathered in the little back room to decide what to do about the weather. It had been raining in Prince Rupert and this was so unusual that it had to be discussed. One man suggested that they cut the trees off Mount Oldfield; another would sell the rain to the rain-maker; but the business head buffed in and made it clear that the only thing necessary to prosperity was to erect a big cold storage, keep all the rain there until spring and then export it to the Southern Alberta dry belt and make a fortune.

SERVE FOOD ON COLONIST CARS

Innovation Introduced to Provide For Those Travelling Second Class

WINNIPEG, Feb. 6.—The Canadian National Railways are now operating between Winnipeg and Toronto, Colonist cars equipped with lunch counters. As far as is known this is the first time that a serious endeavor has been made to provide hot food at reasonable prices outside of the regular dining cars, to second class passengers.

The service, the result of a plan conceived by Walter Pratt, general manager of sleeping, dining and parlor cars, railway restaurants and hotels of the Canadian National Railways is designed to cater to the requirements of those passengers in Colonist cars who are unable to provide themselves with food prior to the commencement of the journey or who for various reasons are unable to cook their own food throughout the trip or to make use of restaurants at stations along the line.

Former Discomfort

Although all Colonist cars on the National system are equipped with a kitchen where passengers may prepare their own food, cases of discomfort have been recorded of people who had not necessary time to purchase food before the departure of the train and in the cases of women, whose time was so fully occupied in caring for their children that they were unable either to prepare food or to purchase it at the standard restaurants. It has been observed also, that considerable inconvenience was sometimes caused when passengers were forced to alight in inclement weather at stations to procure food. These inconveniences will be overcome, it is expected, by the innovation now being given a trial.

The lunch counter is built into the kitchen end of the Colonist car and an attendant will be on duty there all day. Coffee and tea urns, sufficient to keep on hand a supply of hot beverages, are installed and a small refrigerator will keep perishable food in good condition throughout the journey. In addition to hot drinks, sandwiches, pies and jams, there will also be available milk, bread and butter, baked beans, horvill, etc., with additional articles as requirements develop.

An Experiment

The new service was begun several days ago and it has already proved a success. On the first trip 177 passengers took advantage of the service and many favorable comments were passed by the travelling public. For the present, seven cars only are being equipped, these will be given a thorough trial between Toronto and Winnipeg and if the service proves as successful as expected, consideration will be given providing the service in Colonist car equipment on all transcontinental routes of the system.

Committee a scheme to purchase the entire holdings of reverted lands. The plans of the syndicate have been before the committee in camera, and no report has yet been submitted to the council for consideration.

The company would be not merely a land-selling medium, but a development organization. The fundamental object is not to make a profit, although outside investors would have to be offered some encouragement on their investments, but to restore confidence in realty values in Victoria, thereby restoring depreciated mortgage values. The effect on loans, it is expected, will be to facilitate borrowings, and give more encouragement to lenders, both as investors in municipal loans, and for private development.

The object primarily is stated to be to check the continuous flow of properties into the city's possession through the inability of owners to pay taxes.

One desire of the promoters, who have intimate knowledge of Victoria realty, is to prevent the selection of the best reverted parcels by individual purchasers, leaving the city to carry the less desirable holdings, which averaged last year a sale value of about one-third of their assessed value.

The syndicate would deal not only with existing delinquent properties, but seek an option on properties which in future years may revert to the city at tax sale.

The constitution of the Victoria League contains four principal objectives. First co-operation with provincial and municipal authorities in efforts to suppress the narcotic drug traffic. Second, to inaugurate a system of investigation of drug traffic methods. Third, to educate the public concerning the uses and misuses of narcotic drugs, by public lectures, literature, distribution and other methods. Fourth, to take steps to secure the erection by the provincial government of a suitable institution for the treatment of drug addicts.

Officers elected were: Doctor Melbourne Raynor, president; Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, first vice-president; Mrs. C. B. Schofield, second vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Hammond, secretary; C. B. Deaville, treasurer.

CHINESE WOMAN SELLS HER CHILD

Uses Money to Bury Her Mother-in-law, Says Pekin Police Records

PEKIN, Feb. 6. — A young Chinese woman, poverty-stricken through the long absence of her husband, recently sold her five-year-old daughter for $30 and used the proceeds to bury her mother-in-law, according to Pekin police records.

The husband many months ago joined one of the army divisions in Hupeh. The young wife supported her aged mother-in-law and child by sewing. She was highly respected by her neighbors because of her piety and diligence.

When the old woman died the daughter-in-law, prompted by devotion born of generations of reverence for the elders of the family, sacrificed her child that her husband's mother might receive proper burial.

SCHOOL TEACHES TO AVOID DIVORCE COURT

Students at Dana Manor Have so Far Never Given up Husbands

BOSTON, Feb. 2. — (By Canadian Press) — Students at Dana Manor, an aristocratic graduate school for girls, are being taught not how to be the divorcees of tomorrow. This special course is called the "human relations" course and has to do solely with love and marriage. It is said to be the most popular course in the curriculum with the future leaders of society who are attending the school, Mrs. Richard C. Cabot, wife of a noted diagnostician and author, is in charge.

For several years Mrs. Cabot has been telling the Dana Manor students how to size up men and how to hold them when once obtained. The records prove that the instruction is effective. So far not one of the misses who has gone out into the marriage market has visited the divorce courts.

"Society girls are much more serious minded and interested in life than people give them credit for," said Mrs. Cabot. "I tell the girls that the sexes are equal. I do not believe in feminism. I loathe the woman who apes the man. I impress on my pupils the fact that they must neither claim superiority nor admit inferiority. The girls are really pledged not to marry for wealth or prestige, but for love."

Some of the rules for happy married life that the girls learn are:

- "Never say 'I told you so,' Tell your husband everything." "Be truthful and honest in word and deed." "Cultivate a sense of humor." "Be happy in each other's success."

BANK TROUBLES UNITED STATES

Period of Deflation Causes Many Failures: Too Much Frozen Paper Held

VERY NEARLY A PANIC

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. — (By Canadian Press) — Reports of numerous bank failures in the United States, especially in the western and northwestern agricultural sections, are so frequent as to give no little concern to government officials here. It is declared that these failures are not taking place on a scale which forebodes a financial crisis in the country, but they are undoubtedly having an adverse effect on business, especially in a part of the country and they are helping to accentuate the already grave troubles of the farmers in a number of states.

The question as to why bank failures are occurring in the agricultural regions is an interesting one. Opinions have been sought here from well informed members of the agricultural bloc and from other authorities. The general opinion is expressed that these failures are an after effect of the disastrous deflation of the values of farm products and agricultural lands of several years ago. The consequences of this deflation, severe as they were at the time, are by no means yet ended.

Many of the failures are those of state or other banks instead of national banks. At the same time, some national banks are closing their doors.

Failed to Open

A typical story of what is happening is that told this week of a prominent national bank in Nebraska. It is to the effect that an old-established national bank with a capital of $100,000 and surplus of $125,000 has failed to open its doors. At the time of its last statement December 31, it had loans totaling over $1,000,000 and deposits of more than $1,000,000.

The explanation is given as primarily "frozen paper."

As a matter of fact, this is what is at the bottom of the troubles of the banks in the agricultural regions and the regions more or less dependent on agriculture. The national banks cannot loan money on farm mortgages. The state and private banks can. Many of these state and private banks took much such paper, some of it second mortgage paper, when the price of farm lands were inflated about the close of the war period and some time after that. Then came the decline or deflation of values. Banks found themselves unable to collect on much of the paper they held. A great deal of the farm mortgage paper ran for five years. Now the time has come to renew it. Because of the decline in values, it is now renewable. Banks have taken over by foreclosure con-

"Dr. Wood's" Norway Pine Syrup For Coughs and Colds

Mrs. David Thompson, West River St., Paris, Ont., writes:—"I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. For myself and children I use nothing else.

My little girl, five years old, had bronchial trouble ever since she had the "flu" a few years ago, and now, whenever she gets a slight cold she develops a very nasty cough, but all I have to do is give her a few doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Also for myself, and the other children, can find nothing to equal it. In fact, it was only a short time ago that I gave it to my ten months old baby, and found immediately see the difference it made in her. Now, I always keep Norway Pine Syrup in the house, as I feel there is nothing to equal it."

Dr. Henley Henson, Dean of Durham, it would mean national humiliation and imperial ruin.

The wedding took place last evening at the home of the bride's brother, W. W. Wrathall, of Miss Olive Wrathall and H. H. Little, manager of the Union Bank at Hazelton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Kerr. The couple left on the steamer Prince George for Vancouver on a honeymoon trip.

siderable farm property but this is not a liquid asset. As to the national banks, they have not directly loaned money on farm property, it is true. But many of the state banks are correspondent banks of theirs. The state banks in some cases have put up collateral and borrowed from national banks. If the state banks suffer the national bank with which they do business is likely to be dragged in and as a matter of fact this happened in numerous cases. Besides, there has been trouble collecting on strictly commercial loans.

Reserve Banks' Work

Unquestionably, the federal reserve system has been a fortunate thing for the country in this period. Were it not for this, conditions in a monetary way might easily become grave and a panic might come. With the federal reserve system strong as it is, there is no danger of panic and the country's financial system will weather the storm, though there will be and is great hardships in some localities and regions. It is true the federal reserve board is open to sharp criticism for the deflation policy it set on foot about three years ago. This is widely looked on, to say the least, as a blunder. But regardless of this, the federal system has made possible a mobilization of credit that would not have been possible some years ago.

Sport Chat

Certain recent visitors to Port Edward claim to have found on the townsite there a piece of ground which, with comparatively little expense, could be made into a real good 9-hole golf course. The land referred to lies on the top of the hill in "Prince Rupert's industrial annex." While now it looks somewhat rough, it would not take a great deal, it is said, to put it in the required shape. The ground might well be given closer examination for a golf course so near the city would mean a great deal to Prince Rupert. If there were such it would undoubtedly be very popular with many local citizens who would follow the ancient and honorable pastime if they could. Besides, that it would be invaluable from a tourist standpoint. Any town that seeks to be a tourist centre must at least have a golf course to offer its visitors. Larger towns than this realize that necessity.

PLATINUM ONE OF VALUABLE METALS

Worth $125 an Ounce; 90 Per Cent Produced in Russia; Finest of Wires Drawn Says Lecturer

(Special by Radio)

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 6.—Platinum, worth $125 an ounce, used to be plated with gold and passed as counterfeit coin—a hoax for which men were hanged. Now it is more valuable than the gold, says H. L. Cole of the chemistry department of the State College of Washington, talking over radio broadcaster.

Nearly as beautiful and far more useful than gold, platinum has qualities of worth and merit never dreamed of for the yellow glittering metal, Mr. Cole says. The first large quantity was taken to England from Jamaica in 1740 and studied by the English scientists.

It is widely but not abundantly distributed, and is found under the same conditions as gold, the principal foreign deposits being in Russia, Spain, the United States of Colombia, Australia and South Africa. In this country it has been discovered in Alaska, Nevada, California, Colorado, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Utah, Wyoming and Washington.

Russia and Colombia

Russia produced 90 per cent of all platinum thus far recovered, and Colombia 9 per cent more, leaving only 1 per cent from all other countries. Since Russia adopted soviet government it has been necessary to look elsewhere for this regal metal, and Colombia is now furnishing most of the world's supply.

An interesting story is told of a Colombian town where a dry-blowing method was used in gold mining to separate the gold from this metal not then appreciated. Much of the "debris" was thrown into the streets and yards. When platinum rose so enormously in value the government panned the streets, the natives mined their dooryards, and one man burned his house down, recovered enough platinum to rebuild a better house and had $1,000 left!

Dredged From Rivers

Today most of the metal is dredged from shallow Colombian rivers, though a small amount is obtained by natives who use most primitive methods. The scarcity and valuable properties of platinum account for its great demand and high price. There are probably not more than 500,000 lbs. in the world and the United States has not more than a fifth of this.

About 160,000 lbs. are used for

Loyal Lady—Mrs. L. M. Fuller.

Conductress—Mrs. John Bulger.

Chaplain—Mrs. R. J. D. Smith.

MILLIONS and Movies

THROUGH the medium of slender strips of celluloid an actor appears simultaneously on thousands of screens in as many different towns. On the same evening, he entertains great armies of film fans who eagerly pay their money to see his performance.

So the movie star commands a king's ransom for a salary, and a fortune is spent profitably, to provide a proper background for his art. The movie multiplies personality—and earning power.

Advertising does the same thing for a merchant or manufacturer. In a single day it takes his message into thousands of homes—to tell folks why they should have his goods and how to get them. Advertising endows him with a thousand voices with which to tell his story.

But the value of advertising is by no means confined to the advertiser. It has a very definite value to you.

A glance through this paper enables you to sift out the things that interest you. Sitting in your easy chair you can compare values and prices. In a moment you can tell exactly where to go for what you want and how much to pay.

Figure how much useless walking and talking and how much actual money you can save by spending a few moments daily with the advertisements.

jewelry, especially as settings for diamonds. Civilization can get on without jewelry, but to deprive the laboratories, the experimental grounds of big business, of platinum would greatly hamper many phases of industry.

Platinum does not melt until the extreme high temperature of 3,159 degrees Fahrenheit (1,755 centigrade) is reached. It is not appreciably attacked by any single acid, but is soluble in Aqua Regia, a mixture of concentrated nitric and hydrochloric acids. At red heat it is attacked by certain other substances, such as cyanides, alkalis or nitrates.

Very Ductile

A wire so fine that it is invisible may be drawn from platinum, because this metal is ductile to an almost unbelievable degree. An ounce of it can be drawn out into a wire that will reach more than half way across the United States. Precise telescopic instruments used to use cross hairs of spiderwebs about one 5,000th of an inch in diameter. Today platinum wires only a fourth as large or one 10,000th of an inch in diameter, are used.

Youth is always in style— and Gossards prolong youth

"Being slim may be a matter of pounds, but looking slim is a matter of where those pounds are placed." Gossard corsets and brassieres offer an easy way to keep the figure youthful. They do not permit one's figure to "let down" and "spread." The new soft front, offered this year, is straight, giving a flat abdomen without any restriction over digestive organs.

The Gossard Gospel teaches nine ideals— nine types of feminine figure as beautiful and as distinctive as the Nine Muses.

Be Your Best Self and feel yourself upheld in a natural, easy and graceful freedom, by letting our experienced corsetiers show you which one of the nine ideal figure types is yours.

PRISONER REPORTED AT AN ONTARIO JAIL WITHOUT ANY ESCORT

SIMCOE, Feb. 6.— Oliver Robertson, keeper of Castle Robertson, Norfolk county's jail, got the shock of his life when a respectable appearing citizen presented himself at the jail, and, armed with letters of commitment from the Police Magistrate at Dunnville, demanded admission to serve seven days' sentence. The man explained that he had been convicted for running an automobile when under the influence of liquor, but that, being sick at the time, the Magistrate had allowed him to stay at home, until cured, on condition that he went to the jail when he felt fit to stand imprisonment. The man carried out his part of the bargain. This is the first time in the memory of the keeper of the county jail that he had been called on to receive a guest unaccompanied by any officer of the law.

RADIOPHONES ALL WAY ALBERTA TO HERSCHELL

Stork Scheme Being Carried into Effect in Far North Mackenzie Basin

The scheme of communication advocated a few years ago by Fred Stork is being carried into effect north of Alberta in the Mackenzie Basin. Says the Edmonton Bulletin:

The Dominion Government is establishing a string of powerful wireless telephone stations down the Mackenzie to Herschell Island. The materials for construction of the plant at Fort McMurray are on the way, and the stations may all be working by this time next year. The enterprise will revolutionize the conditions of life in the great lone land, Herschell Island and points along the great waterway system will be put in constant touch with the outside world, its markets, its doings, and—perhaps not the least appreciated—the concerts which are broadcasted from all the larger centres of population. Private receiving sets will become common at isolated posts clear down to the Arctic coast, and the most isolated trader or policeman will be able to learn the news of the day, and to keep posted on matters affecting his business or his official duty.

RUSSIA IS TRYING TO BE DEMOCRACY BY PURCHASING FORD CARS

PARIS, Feb. 6.—Russians are to use the ubiquitous Lizzie and very soon the men with the unpronounceable names will be tearing around the country just as are the people of United States and Canada. The country, it is said, will not be a democracy until the Ford has shown it how.

LAST YEAR GOOD ONE BRITISH PUBLISHERS

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Despite unemployment and the bad trade conditions of last year, British publishers were able to bring out 12,274 new books, which places 1923 only second to 1913 in the history of British publishing. The publishers' report for the year states that, so far as volume of output is concerned, the business has entirely recovered from the effect of the war.

EDMONTON, Feb. 6.— Alberta will probably have a new piece of legislation after the present session of the house, entitled the industrial disputes act, this bill being at present in course of preparation by the cabinet.

MINIMUM WAGE

Whether or not the government will bring down this session amendments to the minimum wage act which were prepared last session but never presented to the house, is still a matter of doubt. Labor officials are understood to be pressing the government in the matter and a conference between the labor members of the legislature and Premier Greenfield will be held Thursday on the subject.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS
Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 1,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be accepted for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE
Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 19, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.
