TEN MILLION DOLLAR RUM RUNNING RING

NEW YORK WON FIRST GAME WORLD SERIES BASEBALL IN TWELFTH INNING

Rum Running Conspiracy Found by U.S. Prohibition Agents When Half Million Dollar Cargo Seized

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Prohibition officials claim that they uncovered a gigantic Anglo-American rum running conspiracy with ten million dollars involved when they towed into the harbor the British steamer Frederick B. with a crew of 28 men and two women under an armed guard with a half million dollar cargo of liquor aboard.

Five government agents made the capture after bargaining for 25,000 cases of whiskey from the vessel's master, paying $100,000 therefor.

Bankers in the United States, Great Britain and Canada are concerned in the conspiracy, the leader of the federal forces declared.

FRANK A. BROWNE AND HIS COUNCIL

Victoria Liberal Paper Says His Action a Courageous One

Frank A. Browne, Burnaby's member-elect in the Legislature, has informed the municipal council of that riding that he proposes to attend the session of the House towards the end of October, says the Victoria Times. His communication was filed and the municipal treasurer has been instructed to call for applications for his position.

Mr. Browne is Burnaby's municipal accountant. He was faced with the ultimatum that he could either hold his job by resigning his seat in the Legislature, or obey the obvious wishes of a majority of the electorate in that constituency and end his services to the council.

The choice which Mr. Browne has made is undoubtedly a courageous one. He has decided to serve in the wider field of public duty at the expense of his weekly pay cheque. We shall hazard the guess that those members of the municipal council who seek civic honors at the next election will discover what the voters think of their action towards Mr. Browne.

ONE POLICE FOR WHOLE OF PROVINCE

Scheme Advocated by Some Members of Legislature at Victoria

VICTORIA, Oct. 4.—That the proposal to create a provincial police force to police the entire province will come up before the Legislature early in the session is the belief of some legislators. They point out that the failure to bring to justice the perpetrators of the recent serious crimes disclosed a situation requiring a remedy.

Alleged carelessness by municipal police in handling the Janet Smith murder case in Vancouver is held by authorities to have aided the murderer to make good his escape.

Some members of the Legislature also declare that bootlegging is practically unchecked throughout the province.

BIG TENDER ESTEVAN HERE FROM VICTORIA

While the Estevan is here, the Newington will attend to the work out of Victoria having already gone south.

The Estevan arrived from Digby Island at 11.30 this morning and tied up at the G.T.P. wharf. Capt. Evans is in command of the Newington relieving Capt. Harry Ormiston who has been called ashore at Victoria on account of Mrs. Ormiston's serious illness.

Prince Paying Holiday Vist to Vancouver is Cheered on Arrival at Hotel and Inside

VANCOUVER, Oct. 4.—The Prince of Wales arrived here over the Canadian National Railway at ten o'clock last night. Only Mayor Owen and the members of the city council were in the station to welcome him to the city. He drove in the mayor's car to the Hotel Vancouver where a large crowd outside and in the rotunda cheered lustily.

The Prince repeatedly raised his hat while rapidly crossing the rotunda to the elevator.

The whole eighth floor of the hotel has been reserved for the use of the royal visitor. He will occupy the same apartments and the same bed that he used when previously in Vancouver on September 22, 1919.

No entertainment or functions have been arranged as the Prince specially desired the visit to be regarded as informal and in the nature of a holiday.

The itinerary

The complete itinerary of the Prince's visit has not been arranged but he has agreed to be in Toronto on October 15 and 16 and in Ottawa on October 17 and 18. He is considering invitations to visit New England as well as Chicago and Detroit.

The Prince leaves Sunday morning for Victoria where he will remain until Tuesday night, dining with the Lieut. Governor Monday night. He leaves Vancouver for the east Wednesday morning, arriving at Winnipeg October 10 and remaining one day.

In their end of the sixth, however, the home team put its first man across the plate and, in the ninth inning, tied things up two all. New York scored two in the twelfth and Washington 1.

Professional Games Always Doubtful.

One of the evils of games or sports of any kind in which large sums of money are at stake is that one can never be sure that they are on the square. Horse racing is notoriously crooked and prize fighting is not free from the taint. In big league baseball there have been big scandals before and the confidence of the public has been severely shaken.
It is good news that the person who attempted to do the crooked work has been exposed and punished.

People Always Like A Good Sport.

There is a general impression that the people admire a winner and that the loser is out of favor. That is not always true. Take the case of the American round world flyers. The biggest ovation of the day at Seattle Sunday, we are told, went to Major Martin, the man who failed. He made a good effort and the sympathy of the people of the country went out to him. He acted like a good sportsman and helped welcome the boys who made the flight. It was that element of good sportsmanship that appealed. Even though he was the loser in the game he bore his defeat like a man and showed no feeling of jealousy or resentment at the fact that someone else was able to do that in which he failed.

Close Relations With Australia.

It has been arranged that we shall have close trade relations with Australia but not with the United States. When it was proposed some years ago that we enter into a trade compact with the country that shares this continent with us, the people of Canada turned down the proposition. It was feared that trade relations would mean closer political relations and that the United States would eventually absorb us.
We are not afraid to have the United States own most of our industries and hold much of our natural wealth. We do not object to them working our mines and buying our federal, provincial and civic bonds. Financially they own us today and it was clearly shown during the war that some of the paper mills were able to profiteer at our expense with impunity.
We are willing to hand over our industries to the United States capitalists and we welcome them with open arms, but when it is suggested that closer trade relations all along the line would be beneficial the flag wavers get on their hind legs and shout for the Empire and say that Canadian nationality is in danger.

Welcome Relations With Australia.

We welcome the commonwealth of Australia into closer trade relationship. We shall be glad to do business across the Pacific and Prince Rupert will hope to be able to share in the trade later. It will be remembered that Prince Rupert is closer to Australia than is Vancouver. The distances as shown on the maps issued by the Dominion Government show Prince Rupert to Sydney 6,651 miles and Vancouver to the same port 6,840 miles. Prince Rupert to Melbourne is officially recorded as 7,195 miles and Vancouver to Melbourne 7,360 miles. From a trading viewpoint there is no difference in the distance. The slight differences are not considered but it is clear that we are under no handicaps in that regard. If there is an advantage it is with us. Prince Rupert therefore will be glad to know that trade relations are being established and that some day we may look forward to seeing ships trading from here to Australian ports.

Shingle Mill For The City.

People are often talking of openings for business. The best opening for business here today is the establishment of a shingle mill at or near Prince Rupert on the waterfront and rail. This is an ideal location and there is no competition. Once or twice efforts have been made to start a mill of that kind. One was started at the drydock but it was so poorly managed it could not hope to succeed. If a mill were established in a small way and the industry built up gradually it should prove a profitable venture. There is plenty of cedar in the country. What is needed is capital backed by energy and brains.

JEWISH NEW YEAR WAS THIS WEEK

Time Reckoned From Creation of World 5685 Years Ago, According to Tradition

While there are a number of people of the Jewish faith in Prince Rupert, there is no place of worship here and the residents miss the opportunities for uniting in worship and celebrating the historic feasts.

The Jewish new year opened at the beginning of this week and Hebrews exchanged cards and gifts but the latter, instead of bearing the inscription "Happy New Year," usually had "May you be inscribed in the book of life for a good year." The new year is entered not only with feasting but with prayer and repentance.

The year 5685 from the creation of the world opened this year on September 28 at sunset. According to tradition, the Jewish religious era begins with the Creation, and still follows the ancient lunar year, each month beginning with the new moon.

The New Year festival is thus strictly a religious occasion, as the civil calendar is used by the Jews for all ordinary purposes. The New Year is the first day of Tishri, the seventh month in the Hebrew calendar, the month of high holy days. This great religious occasion is the revival season among Jews. On this day all the synagogues are crowded with eager worshippers, even the most lax and indifferent coming to service at this time.

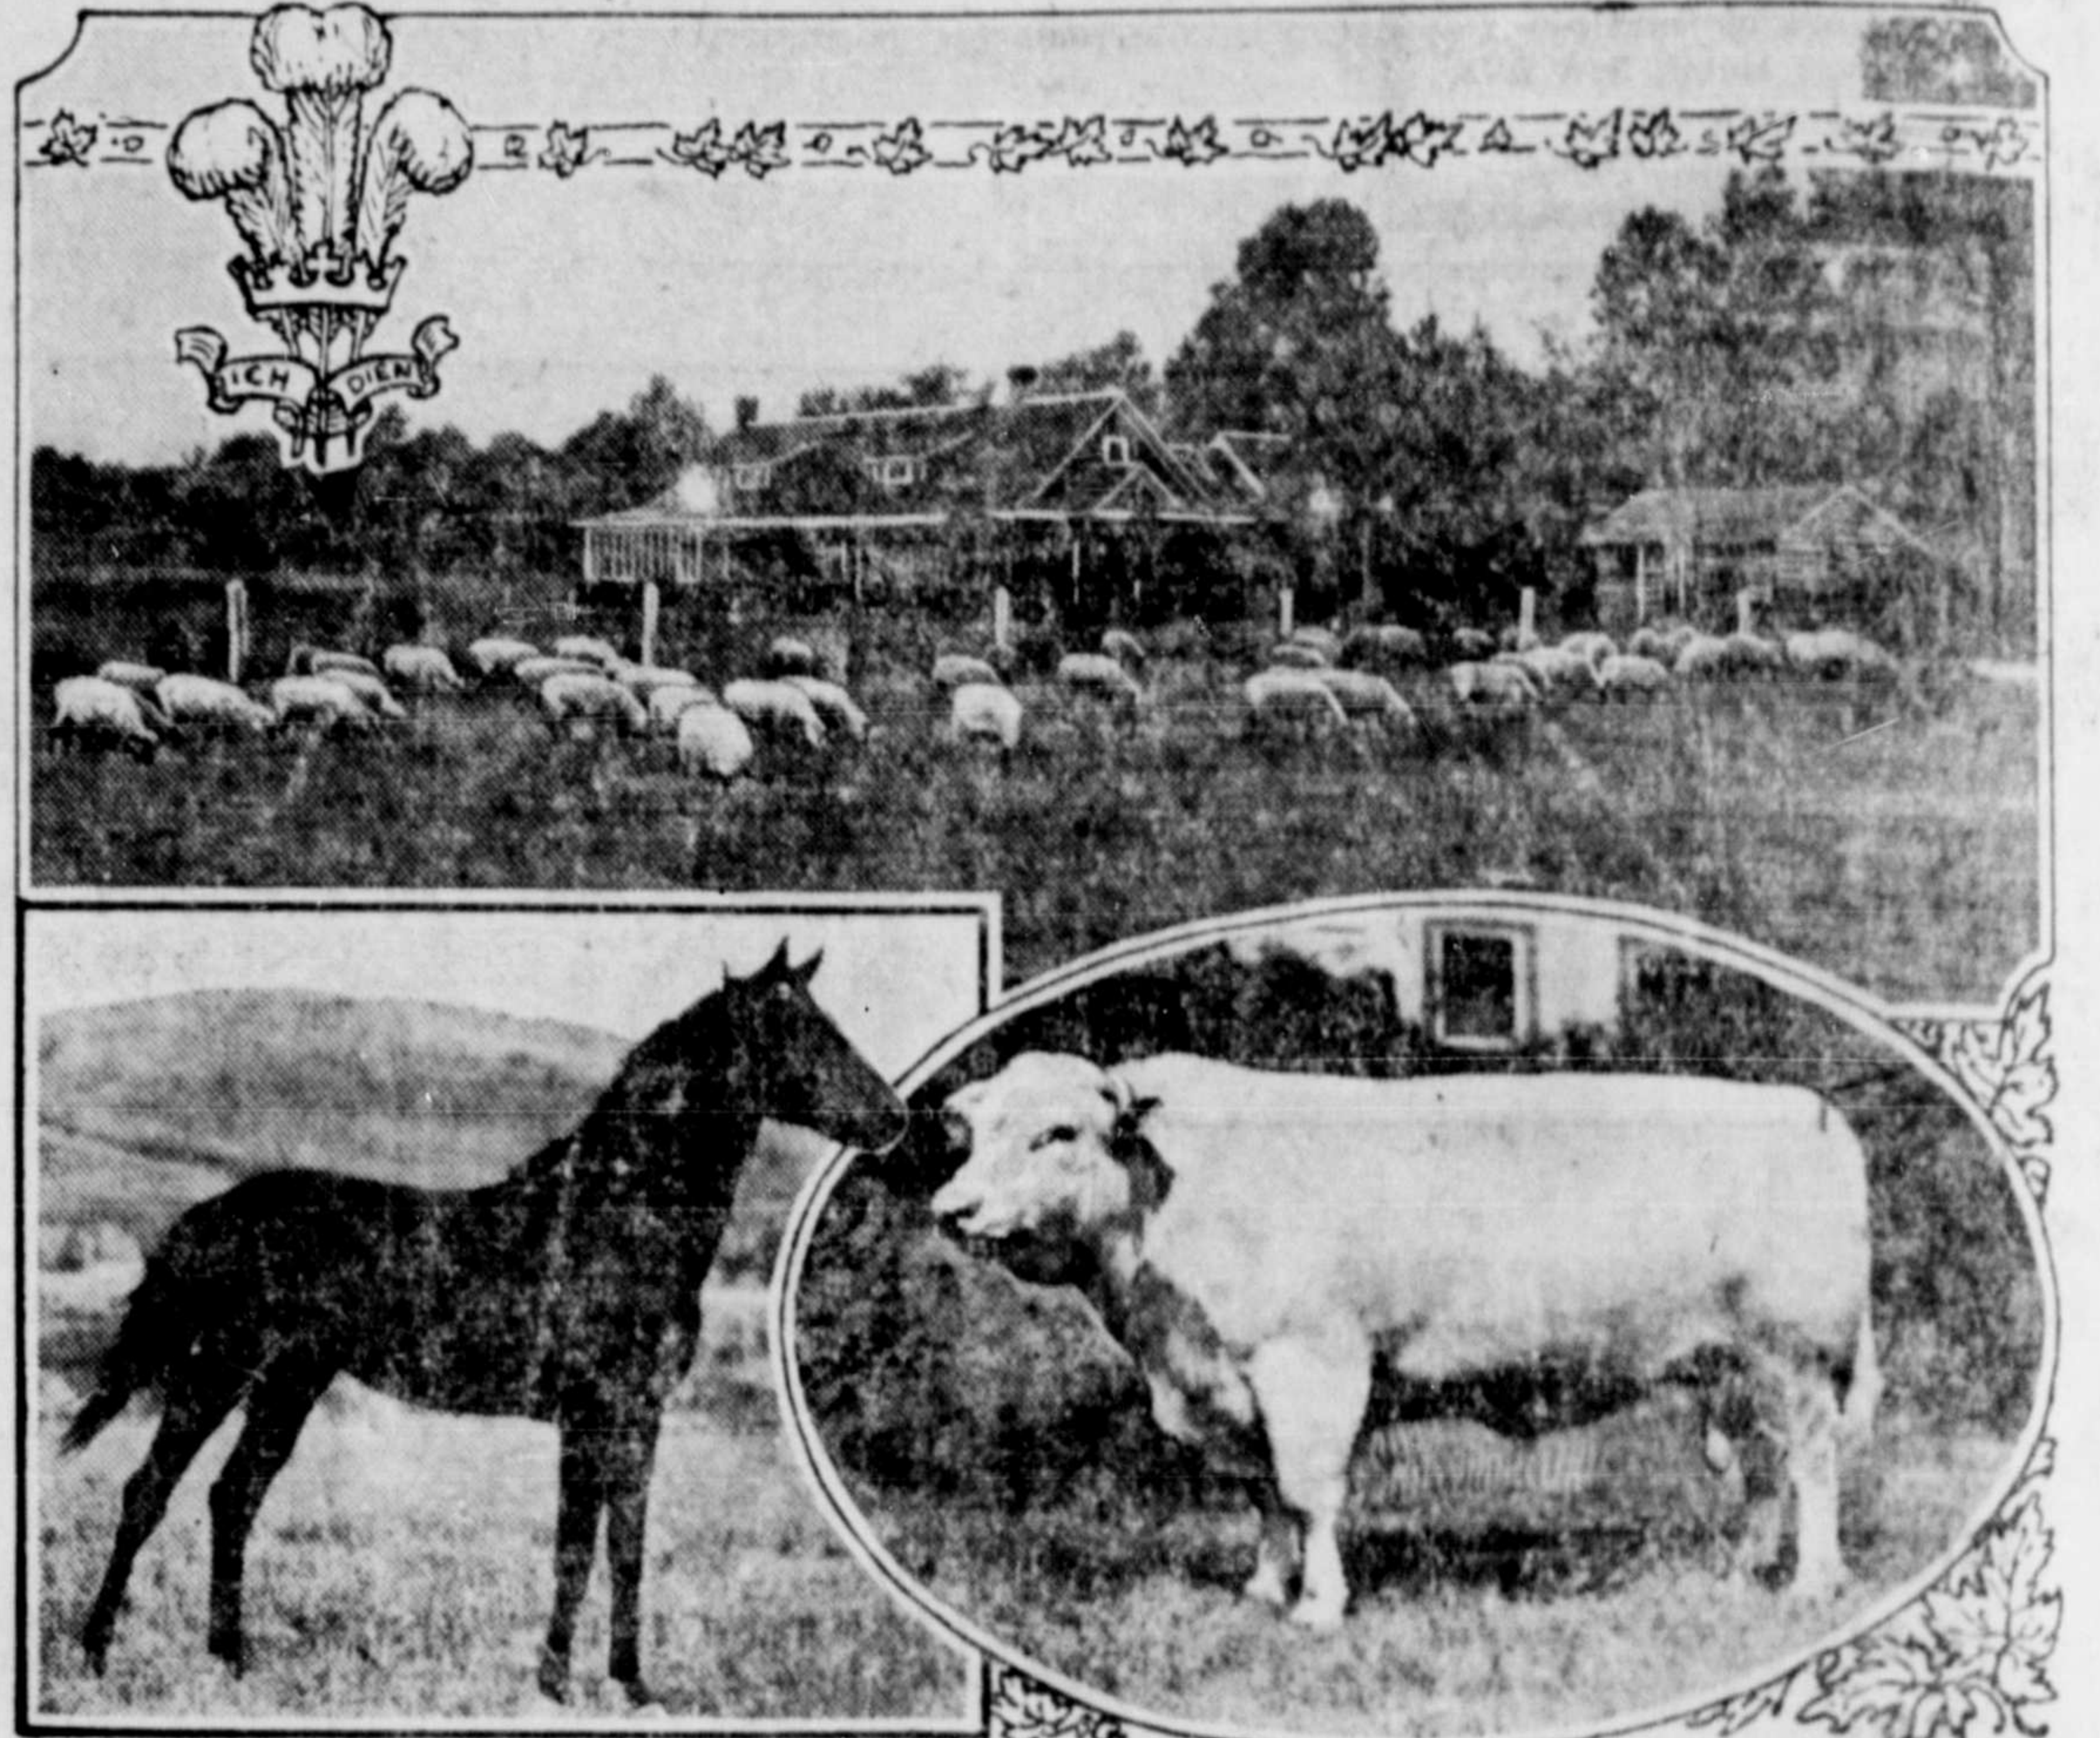

The celebration of the New Year is kept for two days in orthodox congregations, and for one in the liberal synagogues. The custom in the orthodox synagogue is to make a distinction between the Jews scattered all over the world and those living in Palestine, who still observe the ancient custom of keeping only a single day.

Wednesday of next week is a fast day in the Jewish church, the Day of Atonement. On this day many Jewish establishments are closed and locally Mrs. Goldbloom states she will close her shop for the day. She was also closed this week for the new year celebration.

KETCHIKAN SCHOOL BEEN COMPLETED

KETCHIKAN, Oct. 4.—The new school building here is complete and will be opened next week. The unsold bonds in connection with this building amounting to $35,000 have been taken over by the Miners' and Merchants' Bank which now holds about one third of the total issue.

E. P. Ranch Improving Western Stock

(Top)—The Prince of Wales' best grass cutters are here seen at work on his ranch at High River, Alta. They are a famous herd and include many prize winners. (Left)—"Will Somers," a famous race-horse belonging to His Majesty the King, and loaned to the Prince of Wales, who is keeping him on his ranch at High River to improve the equine stock of Alberta. (Right)—"King of the Fairies"—a senior and grand champion Short Horn bull imported and owned by the Prince of Wales and one of the many fine animals on the Prince's Ranch at High River on the Calgary-Lethbridge branch of the Canadian Pacific.

The way to approach the E.P. Ranch is from Calgary to High River, 40 miles south, on the Canadian Pacific Railway. From High River one has to drive southwest a distance of 35 miles through one of the richest grain-growing and stock-raising countries in North America. In the distance the jagged peaks of the Rockies dip the clouds and below, well-wooded, are the foothills. The road cuts through the centre of the "Bar-U" ranch and about one mile and a half from the limits of the "Bar-U" the low rambling bungalow where the Prince is now living is seen through a pretty glen. It is a homelike looking place typical of many a rancher's home in "Sunny Alberta." Here His Royal Highness goes "back to the land."

The Prince of Wales has never ceased to exhibit a keen interest in his ranch, and fresh indications are periodically given of the importance he attaches to it and the work it is doing. After purchasing the ranch, and before returning to England, the Prince made arrangements for the shipment of some of the best stock in the British Isles to the Canadian West. Thoroughbred horses came from the Royal stall, Shorthorns from the King's farm, Shropshire sheep from the Duke of Westminster's estate, and hardy Dartmoor ponies from the Devon Moors, a type of animal previously unknown in Canada. From time to time since then fresh additions of the most excellent stock have been made. The work still continues.

In an area such as Western Canada, which has for years devoted itself to the elevation of the quality of livestock and has become internationally famous for the superior type of its horses and cattle, importations must be of an outstanding distinctiveness to be worthy of special note, but this the E.P. Ranch has effected. At Alberta provincial exhibitions the animals from High River are attractive features.
In its brief history, the E.P. Ranch has come to play an important part in the Western Canadian live-stock industry, and it has done not a little in the development of a more sympathetic understanding for Canadian agriculture in the British Isles. Its establishment was an indication of the importance attached to agriculture in the Dominions of the Empire its continuance and promotion an encouragement to the western live-stock industry, faith in the future, and a stimulus to the attainment of perfection in breeding.

QUOTES CANADA IN THE STATES

Says Freight Rates Lower Here Than Across the Line

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(By Canadian Press)—The freight rates charged on agricultural products in this country in comparison with Canadian rates have become a subject of no little discussion in the presidential campaign. The La Follette forces are laying stress on the high freight rates here on agricultural products as compared with the rates in Canada.

Republican National Chairman Butler in a recent statement sought among other things to defend existing freight rates, or partially defend them. This has led the La Follette forces, through Robert M. La Follette, jr., vice-chairman of the La Follette-Wheeler joint executive committee, to issue a statement in reply to Butler. La Follette in his reply alluded to Canada's freight rates. He says: "Agricultural freight rates are only 60 per cent higher than before the war," says Mr. Butler. Only 60 per cent, and Mr. Butler can see no cure except to reduce railroad wages. Canada has found a cure. Between 1921 and 1924 she reduced agricultural freight rates to pre-war levels. And yet paying substantially the

VERSE COMPETITION WILL NOT LAST LONG

The Time to Write is While You Are Thinking About It: Do Not Put Off

The time to write a verse is while you have it on your mind. Do not put it off until tomorrow. The verse competition will not last long and if you do not write it today you may not do it at all. Judging by the amount of talk about it, one would imagine there would be a thousand entries but there are always so many people who are going to do things and never do them. They are the "never arrive" people. Following are a few of the verses submitted:

Ode to the House Fly
There was once a wonderful fly,
Who spent her days soaring on high,
But a spider, once spied her,
And caught her and fried her,
And that was the end of the fly.

Fishermen's Weakness
A Codfish cried to the Halibut,
"Say,
Yonder is a fisherman coming
this way,
And if he gets you on his line,
He will tell the folks you were seven foot nine."
Then the Halibut said, "Let's swim up higher,
We don't want to associate with any such liar."

Popular Topic
"What a beautiful morning! Let us go out and kill something."
Autumnal mists uprising from the sea,
The cry of loon, of wild goose
winging free!
Ah! Paradise by Omar softly
limned,
Compared with these, how drear
are thou to me!

Crept rustlings in the thick
salsal
The passing of a startled mo-witch tell.
Sharp crack of gun! A downward crashing buck!
Lo! He is dead and I'm a sportsman... Hell!

The verse must have to do with some form of animal life such as a bird, fish, animal, insect or germ. It may take any form desired such as an ode, a quatrain or even the popular limerick. Three prizes will be offered, $5 for first, $3 for second and $2 for third.

The verses will be published as submitted but the name of the author will be reserved to be used only in case of his winning a prize.

The verse should be neatly written on one side of the paper only and addressed to "Competition Editor," Daily News. No manuscripts will be returned.

BAN JOHNSON IS ANNOYED

Refuses to Attend Baseball Games as he Thinks Giants Should Not Play

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—President Ban Johnson of the American League last night wired Clark Griffiths, president of the Washington Club, declining to attend the world series between the Giants and Senators opening in Washington on Saturday. Johnson said the Giants should have been disqualified from taking part in the series owing to alleged bribery attempts and Brooklyn should have been substituted for the series.

A party consisting of Charlie Currie, Sydney Hunter, Herbert Taylor and Rolf Walker returned last night after a four day hunting trip to Elizabeth, Lewis and Porcher Islands. They brought home four deer and some smaller game. The trip was made on Charlie Currie's boat, Ruby Mae.

Sport Chat

Even should the New York Giants win the World Series which opened today at Washington, the edge would be taken off their victory in the face of the scandal which was bared this week in the exposure of the attempt of one of their players to win the National League pennant by the bribery route. The affair will undoubtedly tend to detract from the spirit of interest which had been working itself to the point where, in matter of attendance records, this year's World Series gave promise of exceeding those of all past years. The Senators now become even greater favorites with the hundreds of thousands of baseball fans in North America.

Lack of consideration on the part of grouse hunters approaching downright ignorance has caused a prominent display of "No hunting" signs to appear on the landscape around Smithers. Gates have been torn down, fences broken open and even the hides of cattle were perforated with shot by the careless hunters. The prohibition signs were started by one prominent farmer in the district and have been extended until the pursuit of game is now prohibited on several places so the hunters must travel father now in pursuit of their quarry. The careless hunters are getting off light but the more careful are being made to suffer on their account.

The Fraternal Whist League

will be reorganized for the approaching winter season at a meeting called to take place in the mayor's office this evening. It is expected that there will be just as many teams if not more in the competitions than there were last winter and interest will soon be developed. A very active season is promised both for the Ladies' and Men's sections. Officers will be elected and general plans outlined at this evening's meeting.

Big game hunting in Northern British Columbia will come in for a considerable boost as the result of the success attending a hunting expedition by three Americans in the Thudale Lake country, during which was bagged in less than a week six caribou, twelve big mountain goats, two moose, two grizzlies, and one black bear, says the Interior News. The expedition was the result of a fishing and hunting trip taken by S. Richardson of Fargo, North Dakota, in the district north of Vanderhoof last summer, on which occasion he met with such success and was so favorably impressed with his whole outing that he decided to return. Toward the end of August he returned with S. Stern of Fargo and A. S. Hanford of Sioux City, Iowa, and they organized for a trip further north to the big game country. Upon returning from their trip they declared the country in the Thudale Lake and Stikine area to be the best big game hunting grounds they knew of.

BEATING WIFE AFTER NINE O'CLOCK NOT ALLOWED IN LONDON

Anyone Doing so Was Liable to Fine of 3s. 4d. in Time of Oliver Cromwell

At some famous London auction rooms was sold the other day a copy of a 17th century act of the time of Oliver Cromwell, Lord Protector, "for the better avoiding and preventing annoyances in the City of London." This Act provides that "No man shall after the hour of nine at night cause any sudden outcry to be made in the still of the night, as making any affray, or beating his wife, or servant, or singing, under penalty of 3s. 4d." Presumably there was no objection to wife-beating before the hour of 9 p.m. and it did not matter how much one inconvenienced one's wife, so long as one did not disturb the neighbors.

Olof Johnson failed to appear in the police court this morning to answer to a charge of intoxication and bail of $25 was ex- treated.

he hustled off to find some coal hooks and some hangers on which to place the "gear," said he "I'll take good care of them, of that you need not fear." And so the party upward went, as all hill climbers do, and to note the monkey antics would do credit to a zoo. At last the top was gained alright after many a grunt and puff when appetites were sharpened so they opened up the "stuff." After losing all their appetites, the sequel to the meal, they gazed at one another and asked "How do you feel?" So then the homeward journey was the next thing on the tape, and the way they made the cannery, well, it was to make one gape. To get their coats and hats and things to Eckerman they went who, being such a busy man, was then on business bent. Alas! the joy was ended for the hikers and their host for the personal belongings had been mused up by a "ghost." There was not a single armhole or a pocket in a coat that had not been tied securely. Say, boy, it got their goal! The cause of all the trouble, which nearly made men sob, was afterwards discovered to have been a man named Bob.

Teddy Campbell has resigned from his position as "flapjack flipper" to the crew of the schooner Muirneag and has taken a position as assistant mechanical superintendent with the Booth Fisheries.

The American schooner Wabash, a four man boat, has recently been sold by her skipper, Capt. Winny Pierce, to his brother, Capt. Pierce is going south shortly to either purchase another schooner or have one built to his own specifications.

If you enter the poem don't mention the Whiffs column or the Ed. will throw it out. You can call it what you like, but here she goes.

FOR SAIL

A holiday maker was highly amused at a signboard which read: "This farm for sail." Always ready for a little pleasantry, he asked the farmer's wife when the farm was to sail. She stared at him steadily for a few moments, and then answered: "Just as soon as the man comes along who can raise the wind."—Yorkshire Post.

The transformation of the boats of the home halibut and trolling fleets is occupying the attention of boat owners and the machine shops along the waterfront in readiness for the closed halibut season, which comes into force next month. The Cow Bay floats are filled to capacity and there is a good deal of work going on aboard the boats. Several boats, previously engaged in salmon fishing, are already being overhauled and refitted with the object of flounder fishing, while others are preparing to fish for mud sharks and dog fish which will find a market for oil production purposes. Already some boats of the home deep sea fleet have tied up and their skippers and crews are on holiday bent, many going to their old homes in eastern Canada—the usual custom at this time of the year.

"Doc" Clapperton Returns

All is O.K. with the waterfront now that Doc Clapperton has again returned to the fold after spending a two weeks holiday at Ootsa Lake and Prince George. Doc was visiting his married son Jack at the latter interior town for a while. At Ootsa Lake Doc met his old friend Chief "Skin Tye" who has a pretentious home at Three Mile Lake, and who is one of the best known natives in the interior country. The chief and Doc smoked the pipe of peace together and recounted the days when "Doc" Clapperton, mistaken for the chief for a real medical man, prescribed a diabolical bottle of medicine to cure his imaginary ills. Speaking of the trip Doc remarked that the weather at Prince George was the "worst yet." The town was visited by a thunderstorm during his stay, which, for intensity of rain, put the Prince Rupert showers in the shade. According to the traveler the Ootsa Lake district is the scene of much activity in fox and mink farming. The fur farms visited included those owned by Harry Morgan, A. Bennett, and Bill Moore. While at Wistaria he visited the ranch of Billy Kerr, a former customs officer on the water front who is now busily engaged in rearing pigs, cattle, poultry, and bear dogs.

Mrs. Bla Murray, wife of Bla Murray the "international" goal keeper for the Gallies football team, arrived in the city on Wednesday night from Musselburgh near Edinburgh, Scotland, to join her popular husband.

The Haunted Coats

A ghost story in rhyme with no apologies. Let's go!
 The day broke bright and early, as all good Sunday's will, when lads and lassies for a hike struck out to climb a hill. To old Mount Morse the party went, a party full of pep, and if darkness had not come along they'd all be climbing yet. With coats and wraps they all hiked out prepared to do or dare but the heat was so prolific that it got their goat for fair. Then a brainstorm struck the party as the cannery hove in sight, and in one voice they all exclaimed "We'll leave 'em here, alright." The manager of the cannery store, a man named Eckerman, was glad to meet the ladies and shake hands with the men. The suggestion that they leave the coats and other things behind just suited him entirely, and

A flounder tried to sell some bait to a crab, which lived next door. But the bait was high, too high in price at which the crab got sore.

They argued price all through the day And well into the night. The crab said: "You're a baited shark," Which started up the fight.

The flounder called a sockeye fish to help him in the fray. While the crab called on a dog-fish too, Which chanced to pass that way.

And so the fight waxed thick and hot, It is a dreadful tale, They're scrapping yet about the bait In the inside of a whale.

Capt. Jack Christensen, owner and skipper of the Canadian schooner Margalice, has tied up the little old boat and leaves tonight on a visit to California and later will proceed to Denmark on a visit to his old home.

Earle Haines, who has been fishing on the Canadian schooner Ringleader for the past season, is leaving on tonight's eastbound train on a visit to his home at Freeport, Nova Scotia.

Rough clear spruce totalling 19,000 feet will be shipped by the Big Bay Lumber Company, on the next C.G.M.M. freighter to call here, consigned to the H. R. McMillan Export Company, Vancouver.

High Powered Boats

As the result of a remunerative fishing season several natives of the Naas river district have had high power automobile engines installed in their boats on the waterfront, some of which have been equipped with electric starters. These highly powered engines will drive boats up the river against the strong current which is impossible with heavy duty and ordinary types of gas engines. The advent of the "Naas River," the 200 horse power river boat recently built by John Derby for transportation purposes on the Naas has evidently taught the natives something.

After a prolonged absence Capt. Sorensen, skipper and owner of the power boat Jennie who has been on the trolling grounds in Hecate Straits and around Dundas Island, blew into port early in the week. Cap is undecided as yet as his future movements.

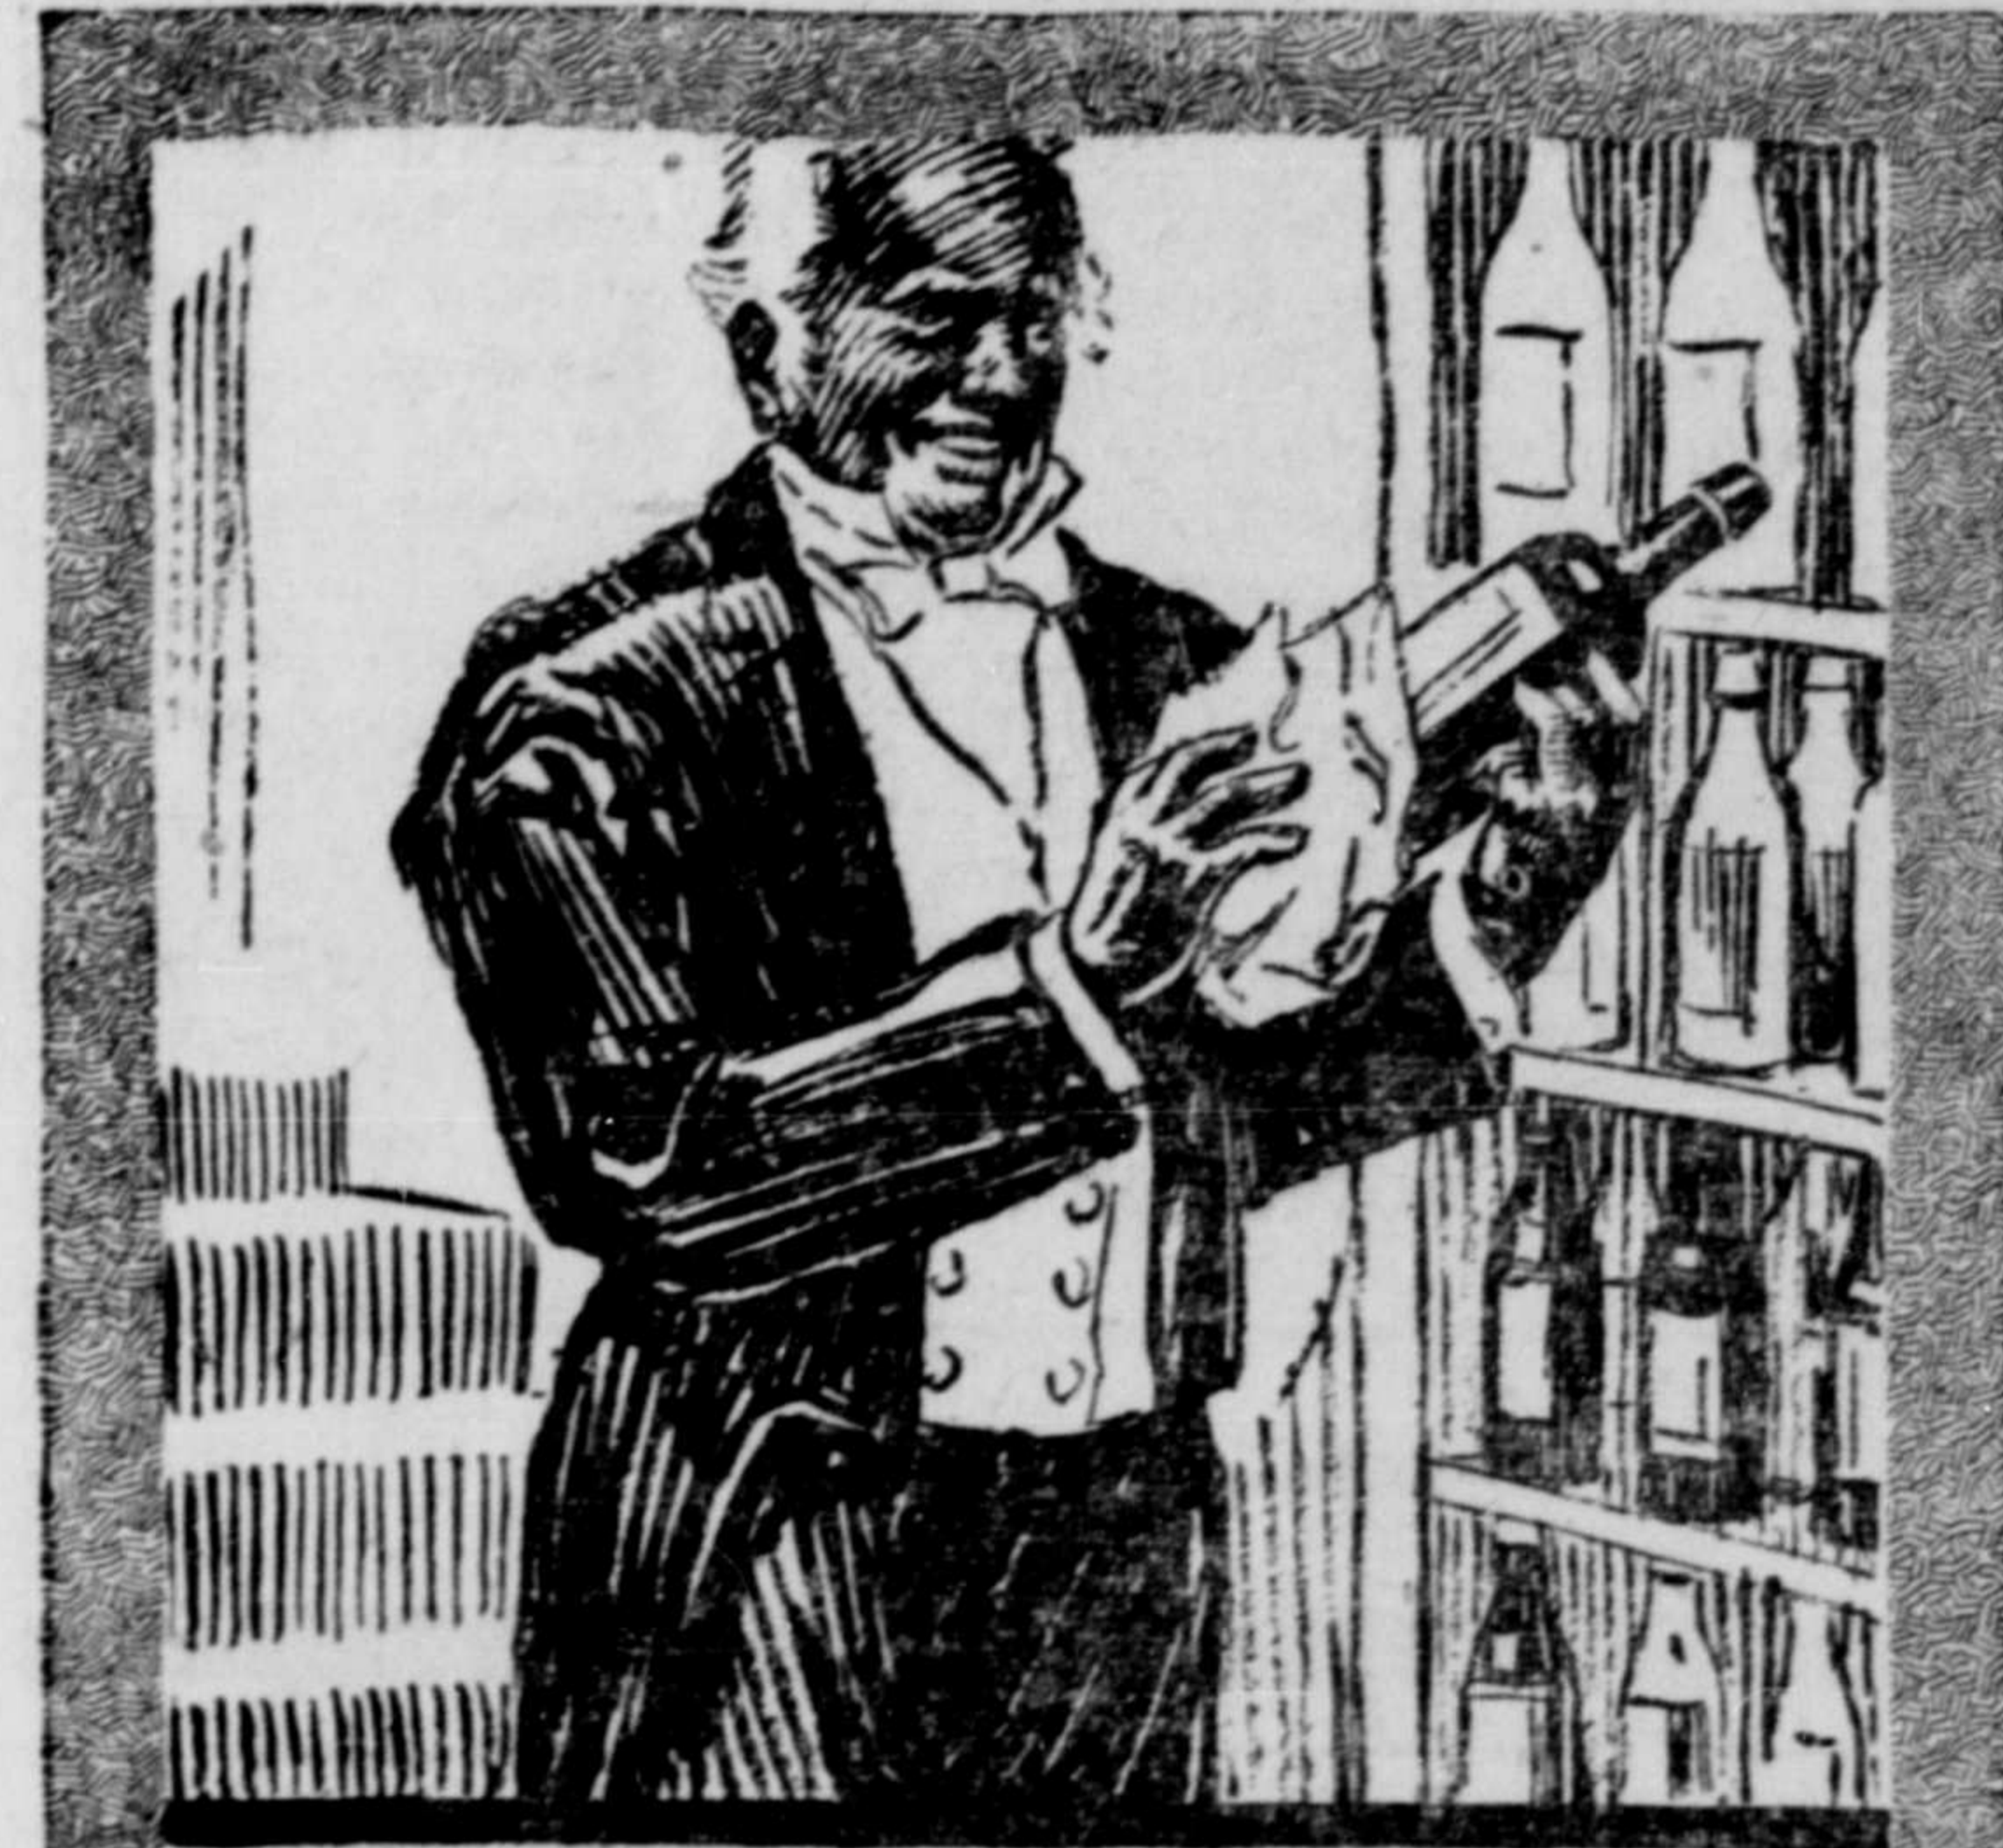

Norman Moorehouse, assistant to the president of the Ray Love electrical works, has been confined to his home during the week suffering with a severe chill. The boys hope it wasn't an attack of cold feet, however.

Capt. King, who is logging in the vicinity of Silver Creek, has some 150,000 feet of logs in the water ready for booming.

Peculiar Accident

E. Larsen, a member of the crew of the Canadian schooner Ingrid H., Capt. C. Lindquist, is confined to the house suffering with his eyes as the result of an accident which took place aboard the boat on Tuesday. The boys were all cleaning down, preparatory to going up town, when Mr. Larsen called for the hose. One of the boys threw the hose to him when the water, at high pressure, inadvertently struck him across the eyes. As a result his eyes became inflamed and it was necessary for him to seek medical attention.

ious that his partner in crime, Bill Nelson, told the Daily News the story of how he put his boat aground in Cow Bay without taking the precaution to consider the tide-table as to when he might be able to get it off. In any case, Charlie is authority for the following about Bill:

It appears that these two doughty mowitch butchers went forward together last week-end on an expedition. For long weary hours, Charlie stalked the shore lines seeking with more or less success to sneak up on something. Of course, he thought Bill was doing the same. Anyway, as he wended his way along, the sound of a deep reverberant droning struck his ears. Sneaking up warily, he thought to surprise some denizen of the wild enjoying an afternoon siesta. Edging up on the opposite side of an aged spruce tree, he stuck his head around the corner and who did he see but Bill—snoring sonorously and undoubtedly dreaming of some happy hunting grounds where the goose is blind and earless. Bill hadn't any game but he sure had a good time and the moral is: Take your slumbers on a hunting trip if you can't get sleep at home.
