BRITISH LABOR BUDGET PASSES WITHOUT DIVISION SUPPORTED BY LIBERALS

Kings and Queens Take Lively Interest in Jasper Park at British Empire Exhibition

MONTREAL, May 28.—The following cable was received this morning by S. S. Melanson, general passenger traffic manager Canadian National Railways from Europe and headquarters of the system in London, England:

"The King and Queen of England, accompanied by the King and Queen of Italy, Princess Maffada, and the Prince of Piedmont, visited the building of the Canadian National Railways at Wembley today. They were received by the Hon. P. C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada, J. E. Dalrymple, vice-president in charge of traffic and Wm. Phillips, European manager of the Canadian National Railways.

"Immediately on entering the building where Mrs. J. E. Dalrymple, Mrs. D. C. Wood and Mrs. R. B. Teakle were present, the Queen of England and the Queen of Italy proceeded to inspect the Jasper Park model. A lively discussion took place around the Jasper Park revolving model, all remarking on the beauty and color effects. The Duke of Devonshire, who was present was greatly interested as he stated he knew every inch of Jasper Park.

"In the meantime, the two kings examined the Canadian National train equipment, the Italian monarch showing particular interest in the sleeping accommodation in the colonist car. Mr. Dalrymple also explained to their majesties the illuminated map which shows the extent of the Canadian National Railways and the route followed by trans-continental trains across the Dominion.

Before they left the building Queen Mary commanded Mr. Phillips to forward to Buckingham Palace a silver and gold model of one of the mountain type passenger train engines, the largest passenger locomotives in service in Canada.

British Budget Passes Without Division Following Speech of Commendation from Asquith

LONDON, May 28.—The finance bill embodying the budget proposals passed its second reading in the House of Commons last night without a division. Right Hon. H. H. Asquith, leader of the Liberals, said he fully agreed with the general lines of the budget, pointing out that Britain's floating debt had been reduced from £1,130,000,000 in 1921 to £590,000,000. If the safe, sound lines of the present monetary policy was continued there was no reason why London should not retain supremacy in the financial markets of the world.

PLATINUM ORE AT ALICE ARM

Considerable Value Found Along With Gold in Rex Property

ALICE ARM, May 28.—Platinum has been added to the long list of minerals found in the Alice Arm district. The discovery was made by Archie McPhail, who sent samples of ore south for assaying. The samples were taken from the Rex property, and the values obtained were platinum, $4.80, and gold $10.80 per ton. Previous assays for gold having given $17.00 per ton. The ore also carries 97.1 silica.

This is, as far as is known, the only ore sample in the district to be assayed for platinum, and the results obtained will undoubtedly encourage prospectors to have similar assays taken.

The Rex property joins the David Copperfield on the south, which joins the Dolly Varden. The ore vein from which the samples were taken is about eight feet wide. It is practically touching the Dolly Varden railway tracks, thus ensuring easy transportation of supplies and ore shipments. With a 30 foot tunnel, a depth of 75 feet can be obtained.

Not much development work has been done on the property, but it is the intention of Mr. McPhail to do considerable work this year, which will consist chiefly of surface stripping of the vein, and open cuts.

This proceeding is extraordinary and is interpreted as an indication of the unusual importance attached to the document. The protest has been cabled to Washington.

DEFINITE SPLIT IN CONSERVATIVE RANKS

Reeve Lockley at Esquimalt Says He is in the Field to Stay

A definite split in the Conservative ranks in Esquimalt riding was achieved when one hundred people, assembled in the Sailors' Club, nominated Reeve Alexander Lockley to contest the riding under the Conservative banner against R. H. Pooley, Liberal-Conservative candidate, says the Victoria Times.

In a fighting speech Reeve Lockley lauded R. H. Pooley, Liberal-Conservative candidate, with timidity in facing an open convention together. Mr. Pooley's nomination, charged the speaker, had come before a hand-picked meeting with pre-selected officers, and this in contradiction to the words of the Provincial Liberal-Conservative organizer, Mr. Merrifield, who said such conventions were to be open.

None were admitted to the Pooley meeting, charged Reeve Lockley, unless they were willing to "sign the pledge" to support that candidate. The speaker challenged W. J. Bowser, K.C., leader of the Liberal-Conservative Party, to come to Esquimalt and say the Pooley convention was fair and above board.

For himself, continued the reeve, he was definitely in the fight and was in to stay. He looked for no favors and would stand on his record as six years a public officer of the township and head of sixty-two British Columbia municipalities, as chairman of the B.C. Union.

Balmoral cannery has already started packing springs but the remainder of the plants are not expected to open until June 20 when the sockeye season will be open.

On the Skeena River all plants but Oceanic, Port Edward and Alexander will pack and, on the Naas, all but Mill Bay will run. The two seaplumes from Jericho Beach, Vancouver, which will be engaged in fisheries patrol work during the salmon season, are expected to arrive from the south some time in June. They will be commanded by Flight Lieutenant Earl MacLeod and Flying Officer Hull.

Are We Being Left In Lurch?

Conservatism may be all right up to a certain point but being too conservative will leave us either as individuals or as a nation far behind in the path of progress. Take as an instance our system of weights and measures. Years ago there was an agitation to introduce the metric system in Canada and initial steps were taken in the matter of education. Then we stopped and from all appearances we shall go on forever using the antiquated system, just as in Britain they continue the antiquated sterling monetary system.

Japan, on the other hand, is showing progress along these lines. That nation is instituting the metric system of weights and measures. The change commences this summer and works gradually until within five years the old system will have been totally eliminated.

Sometimes we think ourselves progressive, yet we shy at innovations and fear to take a bold step. For years we thought we never would be able to keep to the right in driving on the street, yet the change has taken place without much discomfort and we find ourselves among the moderns in that respect. Some people thought women would never cut their hair, yet they are doing it today. Some day we may wake up and decide to adopt a modern system of weights and measures to conform with the monetary system of the country.

Methodists Are Seeing The Light.

In these days of enlightenment even the Methodists are seeing the great light of modernism and adapting themselves to conditions as they find them. The despatches yesterday told of one section of the church in the United States following the Canadian lead and allowing their members to take part in so-called worldly amusements. The Canadian Church did that some years ago without any apparent harmful effects. Now Methodists will be able to dance, attend theatre, and even take part in games of chance without being in danger of expulsion from the church or being severely reprimanded by those in charge of their spiritual welfare. So the world grows in intelligence.

Manson Seems To Be Popular As Ever.

An insidious story came to town recently to the effect that Hon. A. M. Manson had lost his grip on the affections of the people of Omineca and that he would be defeated in the coming campaign. All the indications are opposed to this view. The Attorney General is too good a man for the people of Omineca to give up. They know that, and we are told that he was nominated amid the utmost enthusiasm and that in the evening he was cheered by hundreds of people. Thus one more hope of the opposition is dashed.

Rushing Silk To New York.

A day or two ago a Japanese steamship took about ten million dollars' worth of silk to Seattle and Vancouver and rushed it through to New York. The captain of the vessel received a wireless message asking him to speed up his vessel so as not to delay the delivery of the valuable cargo.

Perhaps it is opportune to suggest to the Japanese people that this port would be much more convenient for the business than Seattle and that by landing the cargo here and rushing it through over the Canadian National much valuable time might be saved. There is all the equipment necessary at this port and very soon it is expected an elevator will be added to the shipping conveniences here.

PACOFI PLANT BEING OPENED

Fish Meal and Oil Mill Established by German Capitalist to Operate this Year

The big meal and fish oil plant, erected twelve years ago at Pacofi, Moresby Island, by Alvo von Alvensleben at a cost of between $500,000 and $600,000, is to be reopened by the Sea Products, Ltd., a new Vancouver concern. Ten men, under J. Graham, who will manage the plant, arrived at Pacofi on the Prince John this trip. The establishment is in good repair and can be operated almost immediately, it is stated. For some time past a small gang of men has been employed getting the mill in shape after its period of idleness. A large staff will be put on there later.

The location of the plant on Moresby Island is one of the best sites on the Pacific, according to fishing experts, who state that large runs of pilchards, dogfish and other fish which can be used for fish meal and fish oil purposes pass close to the island which will be the centre of the new industry.

Arrangements are being made tentatively with the provincial government to see if some of the Hebrideans it is proposed to bring to British Columbia cannot be located somewhere near the plant, which, when in operation, would insure them employment at an industry for which they are well suited.

Only Beginning

"This is only the beginning," said H. J. Metivern, the managing director of the new concern. "The scope for the kind of plant we are opening is enormous. In addition to solving the unemployment situation to a large extent, it will revivify the fishing industry of British Columbia. We intend to handle the industry with the most up-to-date plant possible to procure, and as the plant was specially designed for this particular business we are starting out under very favorable circumstances."

"Meal that can be fed to chickens, hogs and cattle with very beneficial results and oil that has valuable properties and can be used widely will be manufactured at the plant."

Clouds of Prince Rupert

By Audrey Bushby

I don't think anyone should really feel sorry because the rain is darkening the sky. I think (although you won't believe me) that we should almost feel sorry for the rain. After all, the rain clouds are just naturally cranky, and if they see it is a sunny day they don't believe it should last, so across the sky a grey cloud perhaps may be seen, then another and another, until the blue sky is completely obscured by dark clouds, ominously hovering over a disappointed town, letting fall the rain that dampens almost the most cheerful person's soul on earth.

The mountains are soon covered with a thick mist, the trees bow their heads in silent disappointment of such a downpour. The birds, hush their songs, only the seagulls utter now and again a dreary cry, and the only sound otherwise to be heard is the patter, patter on the leaden sea.

The heavens are crying—crying for nothing, crying for everything. The sky does not know what it wants, if it does, it cannot be contented when it gets it. So the roof of the world will always weep. It was God's will that it should do so, when he told Noah to build the Ark.

The rain clouds merely cease their restless lamentations, when tired out from exhaustion, they fall asleep.

So why should we worry about the clouds? They cannot help their natures! It is a little pathetic, don't you think? Too much so to cry over ourselves, because when we storm at the rain, it only makes the sky weep a trifle harder from pure sympathy for itself. So if we decide not to notice the torrents, the clouds will be so astonished that they will probably turn Prince Rupert into a veritable Sahara.

NOW that the political campaign is on, what about a talk on our wonderful natural resources with which nature has endowed us.

SORE spots develop. Some turn into cancers and others into political rebellion.

THE reason some people are not a success in politics is because they are not experts in the expression of meaningless platitudes.

TALK is cheap. If this campaign lasts long you will be able to buy speeches at the rate of a penny a yard.

SO far as we have heard, there never was an official investigation into the Garden of Eden scandal. It might be well to bring the matter up during the present campaign.

VICTORIA PAPER IN PRAISE OF PATTULLO

Says the Victoria Times: "A newspaper story headed 'Big Order Cheering to B.C. Lumbermen,' tells how the first lumber order of any size to come to this province in several weeks has been placed by a company for three million feet of railway ties for Port Sudan. The arrival of the order along with one for four million feet of lumber for Australia, is the best news mill men have had for months."

"Because the Japanese trade has fallen off and orders from the United States are low through the business disturbance caused by the presidential campaign, B.C. mills were down to their last two weeks' run when these orders from distant parts of the world came in."

"Let us think now, who were the people in the Legislature who tried to make Hon. T. D. Pattullo look ridiculous and nothing better than a joy-rider at the public expense when he campaigned in Europe on behalf of B.C. lumber products and worked to open up Egypt as a market for B.C. cut railway ties?"

Bronze Memorial TO AMERICA'S DEAD

WASHINGTON, May 27.—A new shrine to American valor at sea is to take its place soon among the monuments and memorials here in the nation's capitol to the great dead of America. It will be a national monument to those through all the years who have served in the Navy and merchant marine on the sea, and it will be dedicated to "Americans Lost at sea." 11

CALLIES BEATEN BY ENGLISHMEN

Scots Played in Hard Luck Last Night and Went Down in League Game by 2 to 1

The Sons of England beat the Callies by 2 to 1 in last night's league football game. All scores were made by the teams as they played uphill and the game was more evenly contested than the score would indicate. The Callies pressed hard in the second half and missed scoring several times by inches. Besides bad luck, lack of combination play on the forward line and the effective goal keeping of G. Harvey for the Englishmen were responsible factors for the Scottish defeat.

The Callies made their one and only point in the first half when J. Sims scored after a corner had been cleared. In the second half, A. Dickens scored the first for the Sons of England from a scrimmage at the goal mouth. Dick Howe was responsible for the second when the rest of players, having misunderstood a whistle, let him go through with the ball.

Tom Jones was referee and James Johnson and A. Clapperton acted as linesmen.

The teams took the field as follows:

Sons of England—G. Harvey; A. R. Lane and Dick Lambie; P. Cameron, G. Kelsey and F. Hodzkinson; G. Hill, Jr., R. Howe, Percy Tinker, A. Dickens and George Howe.

Callies—J. Lonie; H. Hamilton and W. E. Williscroft; J. Sims, J. Woods and J. Cochran; W. Hamilton, O. K. Lord, S. Elder, M. Andrews and J. Andrews.

RETAIL MERCHANTS' LUNCHEON MEETING

Business Matters Were Discussed and Musical Program Followed—Attendance Was Good

A business luncheon was held by the Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association in the St. Regis Cafe last night. President Thomas McMeekin was in the chair and many matters of interest to the merchants of the city were brought up and freely discussed, especially the boat service from this port to Stewart.

After the business was disposed of, a short musical program was rendered, the soloists being A. D. Plant and C. G. Minns. Syd Thompson accompanied. There was also community singing which was well supported by the members.

It was the first luncheon meeting of the association and it was

MOVING ROCK PLANT

Editor Daily News. In the Daily News of May 27, I am reported as saying the city as a whole should bear the cost of quarrying the rock used in local improvement work now under construction. It is hard for me to believe your reporter understood me to make such a statement, but made it for me. What I did say was that in my opinion the cost of moving and installing rock crushing equipment on new site should be charged against the city as a whole and not the local improvement now under construction. I sincerely recommend that the young journalist who reports at council meetings for your paper, that he read and digest the Brass Check, authored by Upton Sinclair. Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I remain respectfully,

GEO. B. CASEY.

COMMITTEE URGES PROHIBITION FOR BOMBAY PROVINCE

BOMBAY, May 28.—The excise committee appointed by the government of Bombay in 1922 has issued its report. It deals with the question of intoxicating drink as it affects that country and it asks the government to declare that total prohibition of alcoholic drinks and the sale of drugs be the goal of the excise policy.

The committee estimated that the enforcement of prohibition would mean an eventual deficit of about ten million dollars in the provincial revenue and suggests the levying of succession duties, taxes on betting, and speculation in future to make up the deficit.

LA FOLLETTE INDEPENDENT

Will Not Run on Any Ticket or Form New Party But is Important Factor

NEW YORK, May 28.—(By Canadian Press)—Carter Field, Washington correspondent of the Herald-Tribune, writes as follows of the presidential aspirations of La Follette, stormy petrel of American politics:

Easily the most important political factor bearing on the presidential election—whether La Follette is to run as an independent—will be decided at a convention of his followers to be held at Cleveland after both the Republican and Democratic conventions have adjourned.

The date of this convention has been fixed for July 4, although, as a matter of fact, it is questionable whether by that time the Democratic hosts at Madison Square Garden will have picked their standard bearer.

The La Follette leaders, however, have decided on this program and are absolutely ignoring the plans of the more radical element of their group to hold a convention in St. Paul on June 17, after the Republican and before the Democratic convention.

No Third Party

La Follette has swept aside all thought among his followers of a full-fledged bolt from the Republican party. He has no thought of starting a third party or attempting to carry on with one even for the campaign. He does not want to be embarrassed and have his plans cluttered up with candidates for the Senate and House running on the ticket with him. He wants his followers who are running for senator or member of the House to go out and win the nomination from either the Republican or Democratic parties, while he runs without any party label whatever, as a straight-out, independent candidate for president.

Naturally he will have to have candidates for electors, but this, the senator thinks, will not be nearly so embarrassing as to have candidates for the regular offices. No one is ever very much concerned as to who the candidates for electors are, so there will be practically no occasion for bickering, factional rows, with possible cutting as a result growing out of this.

By this plan of running as an independent, Senator La Follette will lose nothing of his present strength with the voters and will avoid the danger of his followers getting into fights for their own personal fortunes, which might result in their presidential candidate suffering.

EDDIE CRAGGS FISTIC WINNER

Gets Decision Over C. Drennan of Alice Arm. Number of Bouts Staged

CYCLONIC PRELIMINARY

(Special to Daily News) ALICE ARM, May 28.—Before a house filled to capacity, five preliminaries and the main bout of a boxing contest was pulled off here as the final event in the May 24 sports. All the fistic encounters went the full rounds and a clean, fast article of fight was dished up. Although some of the preliminaries were to be of the no decision variety, the mills went strong. To scrap was the thing, and no faking or falling down was noted.

The first of the preliminaries was a two round two minute go between the Ness youngsters — Billy and Jimmy. And for 8 year olds they went strong, hard fighting and no quarter asked. Next Ted Kergin and Roy Johnson went their two two-minute rounds. Kergin carried the fight to his opponent, but Johnson, considering he was younger by years, and much less in weight, put up a great scrap, showing a natural aptitude in the fistic line, and was highly applauded.

Jarnell and Moffat of Anyox being next in size put on a bout showing excellent fast work and clean fighting resulting in a draw.

The preliminary between Sherman of Prince Rupert and Gordon of Anyox, was a fast scrappy two rounds of fighting. Sherman led the fighting during the rounds, and as a result of experience gained in previous battles showed the more scientific fighting. Gordon, considering that he has several years to go before he leaves the teen age and has been in only one or two preliminaries in the Anyox Gym, put up a fast, classy scrap, and was highly complimented.

The Cyclone

The last of the preliminaries of the evening was a scheduled two round go between the heavyies "Battling" Hill and Cowboy Sam Winstrom. At least that is the way they were introduced. Hill's initial may begin with a B, but as to whether or not B stands for Battling there are grave doubts and as to Cowboy Sam, we believe the referee meant his brother, for the fellow who fought B. Hill was none other than Cyclone Sam Winstrom. The bout only lasted the greater part of about 12 seconds, it will take much longer than that to chronicle the major portion of the things that happened. It happened something like this:—In the second second after introductions, Cowboy Sam—beg pardon Cyclone Sam tore into B. Hill, knocked him off his guard, off his feet, threw his arms into high gear, rained blows to the right of him and to the left of him, and all other ways in which blows may or could be rained and went into several clinches. Referee James Trinder in trying to break them received a blow on the coco that caused him to see visions of "Her name was Maude, the mule." Spinning around sideways completely forgetting his duties, another clinch and fall from the fighters. The two seconds, dexterously finding an opening between the cyclonic blows rescued B. Hill from under

YOU CAN EAT ANYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOT HAVE HEARTBURN

In all cases of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by a disturbed appetite, as when too much food is taken into the stomach it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, vomiting occurs, and what is thrown up is generally sour and bitter. When you are in this condition you will find that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will give you relief right away.

Mr. Joseph H. Macdonald, Christmas Island, N.S., writes:—"Two years ago I suffered all the time from heartburn. I took one vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have never been troubled since. It is very nice to be able to eat anything you like and not have heartburn any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

the ropes and though not stilling Cyclones' Arms, quieting them to some extent. Just here Referee Trinder got his bearings somewhat and declared the bout off and it is understood he did this because the safety of life and limb of a referee, in so small a ring was not secure with all of Cyclone's arms going at once.

Main Bout

The main bout of the evening was a three round fight between C. Drennan of Alice Arm and Ed. Craggs of Anyox, the fighters weighed in at 140 pounds, and were fairly evenly matched. Craggs seemed to be in the better condition not tiring so easily. Both fighters showed that they had an acquaintance with the knowledge of the manly art, and three rounds of fast, hard fighting were served up. The first round was even. The second and third rounds were in favor of Craggs, who was on the aggressive during most of these. The decision was given to Craggs, both fighters finishing strong.

ANYOX HOLDS CELEBRATION

Children's Races, Presentation of Medals and Dance in Evening

(Special to Daily News)

ANYOX, May 28.—The weather man started out to be unkind to youthful Anyox on Empire Day, and the hopes of many youngsters were blighted at the prospect. Right up to the moment set for gathering at the new school the rain drizzled, but this did not deter the eager boys and girls from assembling, and possibly their ardor had something to do with the sudden change in the manner of the maker of weather, for before the sports were well started, he condescended to smile a bit over the ball grounds.

Assembling at the school grounds, Principal Robertson and the teaching staff conducted flag exercises, the Jack was mast-headed, the children sang and the band played "O Canada." Rev. J. B. Gibson spoke on the significance of the day, after which, led by the band under the leadership of Bandmaster Varnes and playing inspiring marches, the children paraded to the grounds, where noise-making devices were handed out, colored drinks, ice cream, candy and cakes were freely distributed until the sports' program was concluded. The band played throughout the afternoon, contributing greatly to the success of the first of a series of days featured every year by the Community League in conjunction with the Granby Company.

INTO THE ATTIC

Few youngsters today ever saw a horse-hair sofa. They wouldn't know what to do with a fire taper, carpet stretcher, or coal oil lamp. They couldn't braid rags into a rug, or wind yarn without tangling. But they know the how and why of typewriters, phonographs, telephones, automobiles; what happens when a push of the button gives light, or a kodak's flash fixes their image on paper.

Their education is as modern as the advertisements they see. They have no more use for the lamp and chimney of yesterday than you for the wick and tallow of the day before.

Advertisements induce such progress. They urge wide use that means improvement. They help you lift the out-of-date into the attic—rid you of the water buckets and soap kettles of slavery. They bring late improvements within your reach.

Read the advertisements regularly. Keep alert to the new.

Without advertising, you would never know a product's worth until you had bought it.
