SIRDAR OF EGYPTIAN ARMY IS SHOT DOWN

RESOLUTION PASSED BY LEGISLATURE URGING LASH FOR DOPE PEDDLERS

Major General Sir Lee Stack Shot Down at Cairo and is in Serious Condition from Wounds

Sirdar of Egyptian Army and Governor General of Sudan Victim of Attack by Three or Four Men

CAIRO, Nov. 19.—An attempt to assassinate Major General Sir Lee Stack, Sirdar of the Egyptian army, by a bomb followed up by a fusillade of revolver shots just outside the ministry of war today, resulted in the serious wounding of the Sirdar.

The Sirdar's aide, Campbell, the chauffeur and a policeman were also wounded.

Three or four men who were involved in the attack escaped. The bomb, which was thrown by the men, hit the car but failed to explode, falling harmlessly in the gutter.

General Stack's condition is serious. He is suffering from shock and from three bullet wounds, one each in the stomach, hand and foot.

Major General Stack was appointed Governor General of the Sudan and Sirdar of the Egyptian Army in 1919.

The following have been empanelled as jurymen:

Legislature Urges Lash for Those Who Traffic in Drugs; Flogging Women is Discussed

VICTORIA, Nov. 19.—A resolution was passed in the Legislature yesterday calling for an amendment to the criminal code authorizing the lash as a penalty for convicted traffickers in narcotics. It was moved by Major Gus Lyons, Conservative, of Victoria, and seconded by Attorney General Manson.

F. A. Browne, Labor member for Burnaby, suggested that if flogging would alleviate the drug traffic, the traffic in strong drink could be alleviated by flogging the brewers. He asked Lyons if he believed in flogging women. Lyons declared vigorously he would not be a party to resolutions which meant flogging women.

Browne thought this inconsistent and said he did not favor the lash but thought no discrimination should be shown between the sexes.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith of Vancouver, asked if she would flog women, said: "We cannot make the punishment too severe for men and women too who traffic in narcotic drugs. I hold no brief for either sex. If a woman breaks the law she should get the same punishment as a male law-breaker."

Important Resolution to be Discussed by Fishing Vessel Owners' Association Tomorrow

Three important resolutions are to come up for discussion at the meeting of the Canadian Halibut Fishing Vessel Owners' Association to be held tomorrow evening in the City Hall. One recommends the removal of the 1c per pound duty on American caught halibut imported into Canada providing a similar step is taken by the United States government with respect to Canadian fish entering the United States. The second recommends that, in case of the American duty on Canadian halibut not being removed, American vessels be barred from landing halibut in Canadian Pacific ports unless the owners maintain a residence in British Columbia. The third resolution recommends the construction of a wharf-breakwater in Prince Rupert harbor for the convenience and protection of fishing vessels.

The exact texts of the three resolutions are as follows:

PROTOCOL ON DISARMAMENT IS SCRAPPED

British Government Asks For In- definite Adjournment of Dis- cussion by League

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general to the League of Nations, left London yesterday for Geneva with a request from the British government for an indefinite adjournment of the discussion by the League of the security and disarmament protocol recently adopted by the assembly of the League at Geneva.

"The Geneva protocol is scrapped," is the interpretation placed on the government's action by the Daily Telegraph's diplomatic correspondent.

Removal of Duty

Ottawa, Canada.
To the Hon. Minister of Customs,
Whereas, the American government through their Tariff Commission has recently investigated the cost of production of halibut in Canada as compared with that of the United States, with a view to recommending to the President that he exercise his prerogative and reduce the duty by 50 per cent.

And, whereas indications point to this reduction being made, be it resolved that this association recommend for your consideration the abolition of the 1c per lb. duty on American caught halibut imported into Canada.

Closing of Ports

To the Honorable Minister of Marine & Fisheries, Ottawa.
Whereas the American government through their Tariff Commission are investigating the cost of producing halibut in Canada as compared with that in the United States.

This association goes on record as favoring the issuing of temporary licenses to American fishing vessels, permitting them to land their catches in Canadian Pacific ports pending the outcome of the commission's report.

And, be it resolved, that, in the event of the duty on Canadian halibut being maintained the said American vessels should be barred from landing their halibut in Canadian Pacific ports, with the exception of those vessels whose owners maintain a residence in British Columbia.

Wharf Breakwater

To the Hon. Minister of Public Works, Ottawa, Canada.

Whereas, there is no suitable shelter for fishing boats in the harbor of Prince Rupert, and whereas, your government annually spends hundreds of thousands of dollars in building and maintaining breakwaters and wharves for the convenience of the fishermen of the maritime provinces.

Be it resolved, that this association respectfully requests an appropriation for construction of a wharf-breakwater in the harbor of Prince Rupert for the convenience and protection of fishing vessels.

Attorney General Says He is Prepared to Accept Reasonable Amendments

VICTORIA, Nov. 19.—The second reading was given yesterday in the Legislature to a bill to restrict racing to six days on each track during the season.

SURVEYING TO PEACE RIVER

Party Now on Brule Cutoff Getting Fullest Possible Information

EDMONTON, Nov. 19.—Survey parties are still working on the Peace River routes with a view to securing the most complete information possible to lay before the conference of heads of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways with the Dominion government and each of the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia. Last week a party left to go over the Brule cutoff under direction of Engineer Hill.

Should the conference decide that the outlet is to be at Prince George or Vanderhoof, it is understood that the scheme will include the taking over of the P.G.E. and connecting with the main line of one of the existing systems at Ashcroft, so as to give connection with Vancouver.

Which system is likely to undertake the work has not been decided and will not be decided until the conference and possibly not then. Much will depend on the terms offered by the province of B.C. and for the northern section by the Dominion government.

THOUSANDS OF NEW CONCRETE HOUSES

British Cities Use That Form of Construction to Cope With Present Situation

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Fifteen hundred concrete houses are to be erected for the city of Leicester. A London construction firm has secured the contract; 750 to be built with parlors at about $2,500 each; the other 750 to be of the non-parlor type at about $2,250 each. The firm is also making 700 concrete houses for the city of Bradford and one thousand for the city of Birmingham. This is perhaps the best proof of the practicality of this form of construction, an Englishman's invention. A wall cavity of two-inches is continuous in the construction, even through the angles; that is, the eight-inch walls will have a hollow centre two inches wide, free from any interruptions.

The only skilled men employed in the filling of these contracts are the foremen and supervising staff, all the rest being unskilled laborers.

DRUG QUESTION IS DISCUSSED

Dr. C. W. Saleeby Tells of Need of International Action to Stop Production

GENEVA CONFERENCE
Would Plant Cinchona Instead of Coca or Cocaine

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The international conference in Geneva has under consideration this week the question of reducing the consumption of drugs. Along with the late Sir William Bayliss, one of the active movers toward the elimination of the business by reducing production is Dr. C. W. Saleeby, F.R.S., who says the only means whereby the traffic in noxious drugs can be stopped is international action for the restriction of their production strictly to the quantities needed for legitimate medical and surgical purposes.

In the case of cocaine, synthetic chemistry has made great strides since Sir William Bayliss insisted on the utility of novocain in 1917. Most unfortunately none of the team work necessary for achievements in this field has yet been organized in this country, and thus there are no indigenous substitutes which command a patriotic support by doctors and chemists here. But when the value of these substitutes is duly estimated, we shall learn that the quantity of cocaine that should be grown for legitimate purposes is minute and diminishing to vanishing point.

The Need of Quinine
Consider now the contrast of quinine. This is a drug with unique powers of life-saving against malaria, which causes about 2 million deaths throughout the world yearly, including an immense number in India. The Health Commission of the League of Nations has lately been studying the new, war-made, and appalling need of this blessed drug in Eastern Europe. Sir Arthur Shipley has recently told us of the ruthless fashion in which the malaria, imported by the war, is destroying the hapless Russian people. "The greatest and most urgent need of that nation at this hour is not money or trade but quinine, in immense quantities, which nowhere exist. For this drug, with its specific action—direct or indirect—upon the malaria parasite, there is no synthetic nor other substitute. It is a true remedy and there is none other. We are, of course, especially responsible for the prevention and treatment of malaria in India. We have done next to nothing to prevent the disease by mosquito reduction, in accordance with the epoch-making discovery of our own great master, Sir Ronald Ross; and so much the graver is the charge against us if we grow the means of death and degeneracy when and where we should grow the means of life and health.

Cinchona Planting
For this is the choice, and some new data upon it have just been published, most opportunely, by the International Institute of Agriculture in Rome. The Institute undertook a special inquiry at the request of the League of Nations.

"Take the question of cocaine. It is a deplorable folly that mankind plants immense quantities of the coca plant for destruction where we could plant the cinchona plant for quinine, for the delivery of millions from a deadly disease. I rejoice now to learn, from the report that the above-named Institute has just published, that the substitution which I urge is entirely feasible. It has been found that the coca plant could be replaced by the cinchona tree, the tea plant, and the rubber tree; but whereas an area planted with coca yields £146 the same area planted with cinchona produces £134, with tea £98, with coffee £80, and with rubber only £49. Furthermore, land suitable for coca cultivation is not always entirely suitable for cinchona cultivation.

To grow quinine will yield slightly less money than to grow cocaine, and therefore the cocaine has it in terms of return to the grower. But if we rise, with Ruskin, from mercantile economy to political economy we shall agree that, cost apart, what we want is value—the power to make life strong—and the value of the cocaine is priceless, whilst the cocaine is immeasurably worse than worthless.

A Great Opportunity
The opium question is far larger and more difficult. I should briefly mention that the financial problem involved in the case of opium is still less serious. The growth of plants producing certain valuable essential oils would involve the least financial loss; but here again I plead for the growth of the cinchona plant, at least until, many long years hence, we have suitably drained colossal areas of our planet, so that the malarial mosquito can no longer breed. Meanwhile we contemplate the horrible spectacle of the perpetual destruction and devitalization of the Indian people, and the new destruction and devitalization of the Russians, by means of a disease for which a sovereign remedy is known but exists in wholly inadequate quantities. What shall we say, then, to our accusers if we sanction and even encourage the growth of opium in India to aid malaria in injuring the people who might grow quinine for their salvation?

The Union Steamship Co.'s new autumn schedule is out. As far as local services of the company are concerned, there are no changes from those in effect during the summer.

TERRACE PARENT TEACHERS MEETING

Varied Program Included Discussion on Religious Teaching in Schools

TERRACE, Nov. 19.—The regular monthly meeting of Terrace - Kitsumgallum Parent-Teachers Association took place last Thursday in the G.W.V.A. Hall. Business occupied the main portion of the evening. After the reading of the minutes, the president, Mr. Parsons, put before the meeting a resolution regarding religious instruction in schools, on which the Federation of P.T. wish the various branches to vote. It was proposed that duly authorized ministers of the various denominations should be in charge of such instruction. It was decided to leave the matter over for further consideration and discussion at the next meeting.

The matter of serving cocoa to the pupils again this year was discussed. Mr. King, the caretaker, consented to make the cocoa and a committee was appointed to draw up a formula by which it is to be made.

The matter of a Christmas Tree was brought up. It was decided to leave the matter to the community but the secretary was instructed to call a meeting of all interested in the matter.

Miss Gladys Kenney and Miss Mary Wilson gave one of their charming duets which was so enthusiastically received they gave an encore.

Refreshments were served followed by one of the social half hours which have made the P.T.A. so popular.

The meeting then closed with the singing of God Save the King.

OVERWHELMING MAJORITY IN SILENT ELECTION

Prince Rupert Women Register Interesting Vote to Save Money and Lessen Work

It is a sign of the times that women should demand more authority in their homes. Not that they want all their own way but that when comfort and economy are at stake they are usually better judges than their husbands.

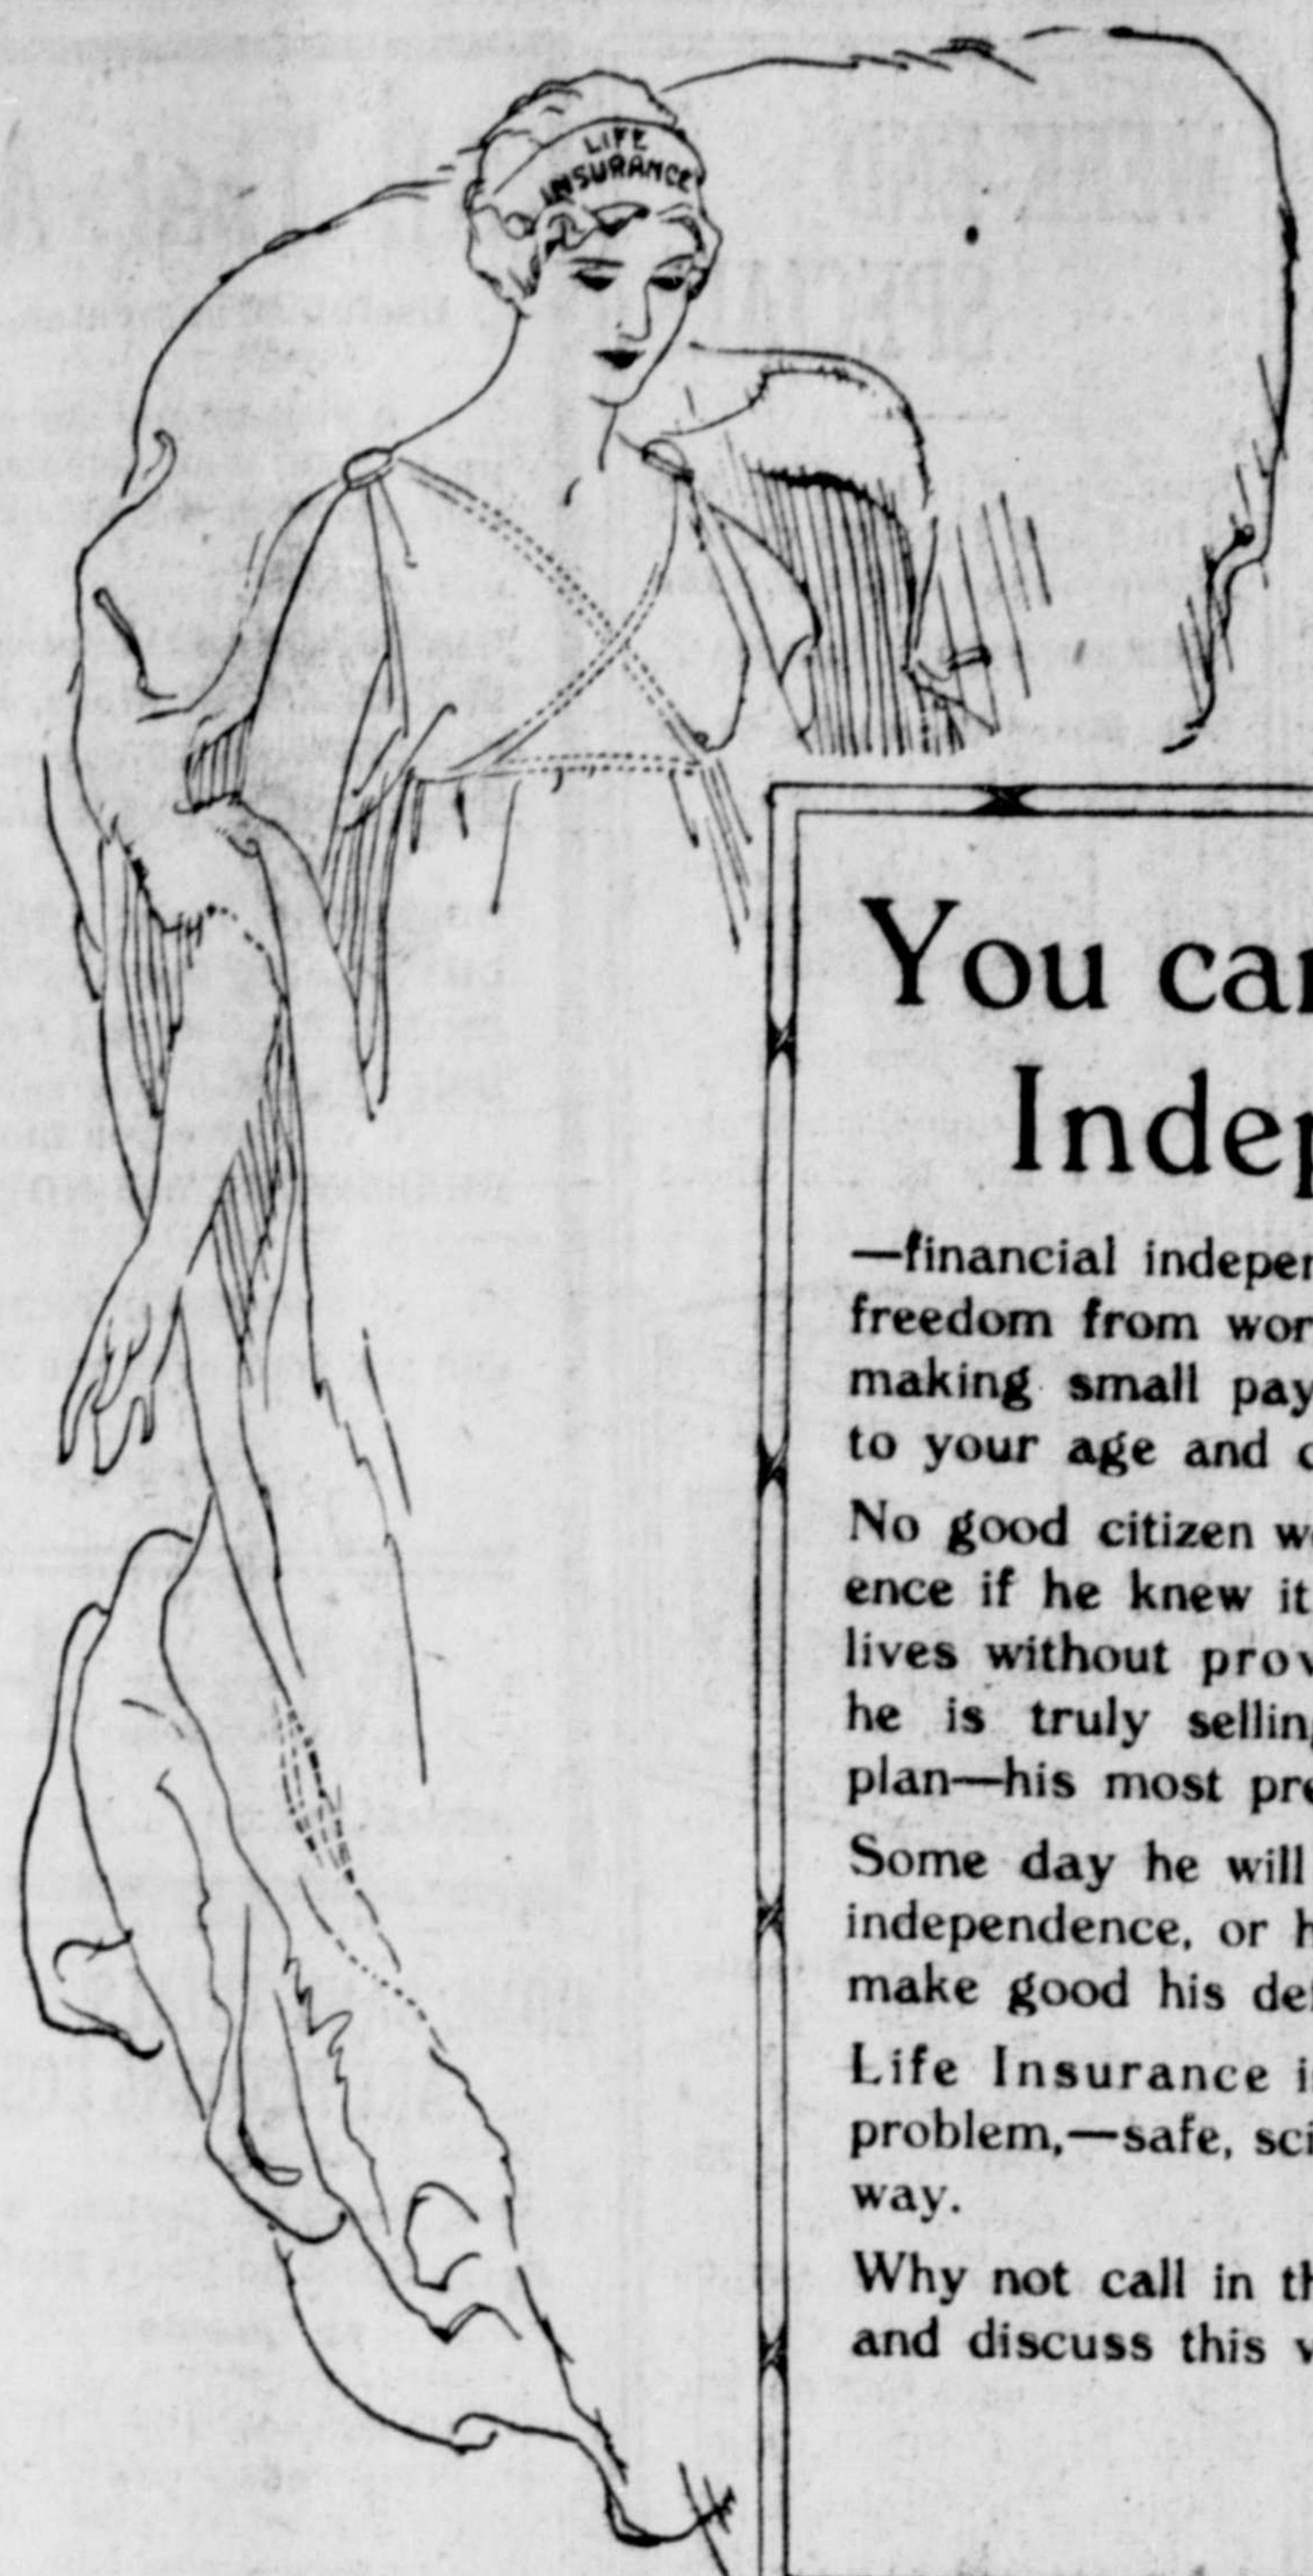

They are at home all day and know more about the things that go to make for the comfort of the home than the husbands who come home at night expecting everything to be just so. This is why so many Prince Rupert ladies insist on having Nanaimo-Wellington coal. They have made a study of coal and have discovered that Nanaimo-Wellington is far superior to its competitors. Very little lasts a long time. If drafts are shut off at night the fire will be there in the morning. No rock, very little ash and no slack are other points in favor of Nanaimo-Wellington.

This famous coal is sold only by Albert & McCaffery. They have their own team and trucks and assure prompt service. Order direct from them and be sure you get the only coal—Nanaimo-Wellington. Their phone numbers are 416 and 564.

JUDICIAL SEPARATION BECAUSE MAN WOULD LIVE WITH ANOTHER

LONDON, Nov. 19.—A decree of judicial separation was granted to Mrs. Alice Gertrude Kirke of Tetworth, Ascot, from her husband, Percy St. George Kirke, civil engineer, on the ground of desertion. It was shown that Kirke was an unusually religious man and in 1916 he joined a sect known as the Pentecostal Christians, who held meetings in the drawing room when members fell into trances and professed to have visions and messages from heaven. Baptism was celebrated in the bathroom and nightly communion services in the kitchen.

The husband became infatuated with a servant girl named Martha, who joined the sect, and attended the meetings with him. The wife dismissed the girl but took her back later at the instance of her husband. Martha became the man's secretary and every evening they were closeted together in the study and eventually they went away and lived together, still professing to live a deeply religious life.

The Love that never Dies

You can buy Independence

—financial independence in old age and freedom from worry in the present,—by making small payments nicely adjusted to your age and circumstances.

No good citizen would sell his independence if he knew it, but each day that he lives without providing for the future, he is truly selling—on the installment plan—his most precious possession.

Some day he will have to surrender his independence, or his family may have to make good his default when he dies.

Life Insurance is the solution of this problem,—safe, scientific, secure in every way.

Why not call in the Life Insurance Man and discuss this vital matter today?

UNIFORM DRESS FOR HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS IS AGAIN PROPOSED

TORONTO, Nov. 5.—Girls attending high schools and collegiate institutions in Canada should all be dressed alike. Such was, in effect, the recommendation put forward by the provincial council of women of Saskatchewan to the National Council during their annual convention just closed. The outlook for uniform attire among Toronto school girls is remote, however. Trustee Mrs. Groves declared uniform dress would at the tightly corseted figure of never come in Toronto. "Did you the school girl of the Victorian ever hear of girls more sensibly era and compares her with the and neatly dressed than those simple, graceful, free and easy who are now attending the Toronto high schools?" asked the trustee. "Truly, when one looks come to pass."
