Campaign at Nelson Proves Exciting to the End and Big Vote is Expected Today

NELSON, Aug. 23 .- The by-election campaign closed here last night with two of the biggest meetings of the week and the indications today point to a heavy vote. The voters are going to the polls in large numbers.

At the Nelson Opera House last night Premier Oliver was greeted by an audience that overflowed to the stairways. At the Gem Theatre the Houston forces also faced a capacity crowd. Both sides were in a confident mood.

The Premier created some diversion by suggesting that General McRae had come to Nelson and had promptly usurped NEAR MASSETT Harry Pooley. McRae was out to gain the leadership of the Con-
