Esquimalt Obsolete and Prince Rupert Neglected is Comment of Army Chief of Staff in Address

General MacBrien contrasts the condition of Canada with that of Australia and Urges Action

IMPORTANCE OF PACIFIC OCEAN
Desire of Expansion of Some Great Power may Cause War and Canadians Could Not be Onlookers

(Special to Daily News).
MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—That the defenses of Esquimalt are out of date and no attempt has been made to defend Prince Rupert, was the comment of Major General J. H. MacBrien, chief of staff of the army department of defense, who gave a stirring address yesterday on disarmament and the duties of the department of defense in peace and war at the anniversary celebration of the imperial order of the Daughters of Empire here.

General MacBrien began by pointing out the importance of Pacific problems to students of military strategy. World policy or the development of the trade positions of Canada, Australia and New Zealand, made the trend of affairs in the Pacific of vital importance to the Empire. "Whatever happens, we cannot be merely onlookers. We shall have to be participants."

Coroner's Jury Disagrees in Investigating Death of Little Norma Munro: Driver Charged

After deliberating for one hour and 20 minutes, the coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of little Norma Munro, who was killed on Thursday afternoon when knocked down by an automobile driven by C. V. Symes, returned to the courtroom at 1 o'clock this afternoon reporting that it had failed to come to an agreement. Disagreement of a coroner's jury is a rare occurrence in the history of British Columbia law courts, but it is provided for by statute by having the enquiry adjourned until the next court of assize and the jury retained until that time. C. V. Symes, the driver of the car, is out on $5,000 bail on a charge of manslaughter.

The inquest opened this morning at 10 o'clock in the city police court before Coroner Norman Wall. The jury comprised John Dybhavn (foreman), Leo Waugh, W. D. Vance, G. P. Tinker, John R. Mitchell, and E. S. Allistone. City Solicitor E. F. Jones and W. O. Fulton appeared as counsel, the latter for Symes.

BUYS ISLAND IN THE GULF
Moresby Taken Over by Wealthy Californian Who Will Lay it Out
VICTORIA, Feb. 14.—Moresby Island, one of the largest of the minor groups of islands in the Gulf of Georgia, about twenty miles from Victoria has been sold to Louis Bradbury, a wealthy mining operator and land owner of California. The occupants of the island are now moving off to turn it over to Bradbury and his associates. It will be developed as a pleasure resort. An artificial lake will be constructed, a golf course laid out and a club hotel erected.

Saw Car Coming
Annie Smith, aged 12, saw the car approaching as the little girl was crossing the street. She thought that the car would run into the child and she turned her back. The driver tried to slow up and the car ran on to the sidewalk. She did not hear the horn of the car tooted. The little girl was lying on the road in front of the Munro house. The car stopped near the Spencer house.

MINING PROSPECTS OF BULKLEY VALLEY
The Smithers Board of Trade has recently prepared a survey of the mining prospects of the Bulkley Valley. The work has been in charge of L. S. McGill, last year's secretary and is very comprehensive. It covers each property in detail and will prove of great interest to miners and others. The report will be published in this paper in serial form, continued for several days until completed.

Exodus of Capital and Political Unrest Cause Price of Franc to Drop

PARIS, Feb. 14.—The continued exodus of capital from this country ascribed to decreasing confidence in France on the government's financial policy is given in banking circles for the sharp flurry in exchange, which sent the dollar to 19 francs 25 centimes today. Capital exportation is said to be going on largely through the purchase of foreign securities on the Bourse. It is estimated that four billion francs have been exported since Christmas.

Another factor believed to be contributing to the situation is the political unrest due to the growing conflict between government partisans and Catholics, which culminated in the recent Marseilles riot. Premier Herriot is confident that when the government's financial policy is understood, the alarm will be shown to have been unfounded.

INTERESTING FISH BOAT CASE HEARD IN COUNTY COURT

A test case to decide the liability of a member of a fishing boat crew for portion of loss on a trip was heard by Judge Young in the County Court yesterday afternoon and judgment was reserved. The case was that of Gavigan vs. Sheppard in which S. W. Taylor appeared for the plaintiff and E. F. Jones for the defendant.

In 1923 the fishing boat Dolphin, the crew of which defendant was a member, ended a voyage at a loss. One of the crew had been drowned and another had gone insane. The plaintiff claimed he had entered into an agreement with Capt. Byrne whereby the captain and crew were to share in losses on trips if any. Defendant claimed that he was not aware of any such arrangement. It was proven, however, that defendant had shared in previous profits and the question arose as to whether this constituted partnership.

DAILY EDITION

Distributing Point For The Bulkley.

The people of the Bulkley Valley are still discussing the possibility of establishing a creamery or distributing station in Prince Rupert. At present some of them are shipping their cream to Vanderhoof but they see greater possibilities in the Prince Rupert market. They are asking the co-operation of the Provincial Government, and this, it is reasonable to suppose they will get.

Prince Rupert is bound to be the market for the Bulkley, just as Vancouver is the market for the Fraser Valley. The present minister of agriculture first made a name for himself in connection with the organizing of the milk distribution system for the farmers of the south. There are great possibilities in it, once we get proper transportation facilities. With a daily train all the year round and a daily mail everything is possible.

Excluding Press From Public Business.

The proposal of Commissioner Coombs to exclude the press representatives from police commission meetings brings to mind that this has been tried in almost every city at some time. City council meetings have also been held in private and other public bodies have thought that they could get along without letting the public know what they were doing. The result has ended in failure. Suspicion has fallen upon them and stories of their doings from irresponsible quarters have made it clear that it is best to trust the people.

Doubtless there are matters in connection with police work that cannot be announced beforehand. Even today good stories could be told about happenings that have taken place, but telling them would not be wise. The primary work of the police is not to secure convictions but to have the city kept orderly and to prevent crime. Too many convictions is an indication that the police are weak and that the law is not respected in the community.

Looking After Little Things.

There is an old saying that if you look after the pennies the pounds will take care of themselves. And the saying is to a great extent true. Yet it has its untrue side. Don't we see men who will never get beyond the handling of pennies? They have no vision, no capacity for doing big things. They always confine themselves to looking after the pennies and the pounds in which they might be dealing are neglected. They lack the sense of proportion and the result is they plod along to the end of their lives always handling pennies.

It is very important to look after the little things, but the bigger things cannot be neglected, if a person is to make a success of life.

Fortifying Prince Rupert Harbor.

General McBrien, chief of staff of the army department of defence, commented yesterday on the defenseless position of Prince Rupert and the obsolete condition of Esquimalt in the matter of defence. He might even have gone further and declared that an enemy could destroy the forts at Esquimalt in an hour and could sail right into Prince Rupert and take the town and convert it into a base of supplies without even a gun being fired. The outlook is not a pleasant one to contemplate. It would not be pleasant to have an Asiatic commander giving orders here, telling us to remain indoors whenever he pleased and ordering us to get off the sidewalk for him as he passed on the street. We know how Asiatics have treated their defenseless enemies in the past and who knows but some day we may be the victims, unless we are in a position to defend ourselves. The fact that our men are brave and our women heroines will not help us in the least against modern machines of war.

"Eczema All Over Arms Suffered for 12 Years"

Mrs. Murray Hough, Warton, Ont., writes:

"I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from the doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. That is over a year ago, and I have had no return of the trouble."

ICE CARNIVAL AT SMITHERS

SMITHERS, Feb. 14. — An ice carnival under the auspices of the boy scouts followed by a moccasin dance on the ice took place here Wednesday evening. The thermometer stood at ten below zero but in spite of this an interesting program of races and contests was carried out and dancing was kept up until after midnight to the strains of the Crescent Orchestra, donated for the occasion. A large camp fire helped to make things pleasant while hot coffee, baked beans and sandwiches were served.

The affair started with a two period game of hockey between the Telkwa and Smithers scout teams, followed by the following races for which prizes were donated by the business men of the town.

Cubs' race—1, Barmam Knutson; 2, Kenneth Warner. Scouts' race, under 14—1, John Deloim; 2, Bud Gazeley.

Girl Guides' race—1, Alice Lalimor; 2, Vina Eby. C.G.L.T. race—1, Avis Wall; 2, Orinda Hartnett.

Scouts' jumping—1, Jack Howson; 2, Frank Howson. Match race, Girl Guides, and C.G.L.T.—1, Avis Wall; 2, Alice Lalimor.

Men's race, open—1, Len Raabe; 2, Jim Millar. Scouts' race—1, Jim Millar; 2, Jiggs Graham.

Scouts' consolation race—1, John Berg; 2, Frank Howson.

Prizes for costumes at the carnival were awarded to Vimy Windt as an Indian Kiooteman, Teddy Allan as Hiawatha, Margaret Windt as Aunt Jemima, and Mrs. H. G. Windt as a clown.

TEN DOLLAR BILL NEEDS AN OWNER

Found on Friday Thirteenth on Floor of "Peddler" Car

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14. — Friday the thirteenth, would have been a good time for Diogenes to have visited Winnipeg with his famous lantern, according to officials of the Canadian National local freight offices, and somebody, presumably in the Oakpoint, Manitoba, district, will have reason to declare that such a hoodoo date is not necessarily unlucky. Lying on the floor of a wayfreight "peddler" from which local consignments had been unloaded all the way between Oakpoint and Winnipeg, freight handlers this morning found a registered letter with indistinct address, mailed from Oaklake, Man., to someone at Oakpoint and containing a crisp new ten dollar bill. The only clue to ownership is that the person to whom the registered letter was addressed has a name beginning with "W" and that it apparently was a payment on an order for fish. Employees of the freight department who found the bill turned it over to the local agent where it awaits an owner.

The subject was referred to by Bishop Du Vernet at the Anglican Church; Rev. J. R. Grant at the Presbyterian, and Rev. W. W. Wright at the Baptist. Among those who attended service at the Anglican Church was Irving S. Linnell, United States consul here. Bishop Du Vernet stated that it was nothing but unmitigated conceit that made neighbors fight.

Last night, the final in the pool tournament of the St. Andrew's Society took place. Allan Robertson beat Bob Robertson after the former had won over James Dunn and the latter over Bob Davie.

THE PRICE CUTTER

Editor Daily News.

The price cutter is worse than a criminal. He is a fool. He not only pulls down the standard of his competitors, but his own goods and the whole trade. He scuttles the ship in which he himself is afloat, as well as the Ford or car in which he rides and says "Two bits to the Cold Storage or anywhere at any time (twenty-five cents)."

Nothing is so easy as to cut prices; and nothing is so hard as to bring them back, once they have been pulled down. Who gets the benefits of price cutting? Nobody. The man himself makes no net profit, and the man who patronizes finds himself getting an inferior article. No business can prosper or keep up the standard of goods or service if the price is persistently cut. Price cutting compels the use of cheap materials, reduction in service and the cutting of wages. If the business world were dominated by price cutters there would be no business at all. Let us co-operate.

CORONER'S JURY DISAGREES IN INVESTIGATING DEATH OF LITTLE NORMA MUNRO: DRIVER IS CHARGED.

and, almost immediately, the scream of Gordon Munro for his father. She saw Mr. Munro dart out to the street and pick up the little girl. She did not hear the footing of a horn. The car was going about an ordinary rate when she saw it.

Sergeant McGlincy told of being called to the scene of the accident by Symes. He also told of a voluntary statement that had been made by Symes.

In giving his own evidence, Symes stated he was travelling west towards town. Coming over the brow of the hill on Fifth Avenue East, he saw a group of children in the road at a distance of about 20 yards. He blew his horn and, in response, the children separated. The most of them went on to the sidewalk on the right but the little girl went to the left where she stood about two feet from the left hand side of the street. When the car was about three feet from her, she apparently took the notion to join her comrades on the right hand side of the street. He did all in his power to avert hitting the child, putting on his emergency brakes and swerving to the right. So suddenly did it all happen, however, that it was impossible to avoid hitting the little girl. The left head lamp knocked her down. A little further on, he stopped the car to go back and pick up the victim but her father was already there. Following the father into the house, he phoned up the police station to give notice of the accident. Subsequently, the child was taken to the hospital and he Symes drove Sergeant McGlincy back to the police station. Witness said he was proceeding at a rate of 8 or ten miles an hour. He did not pull up dead after striking the child. He could have pulled up on the sidewalk.

Had Experience

Further questioned, Symes said he had only recently started driving a car in Prince Rupert. He had had considerable experience driving in London, England, and had recommendations as to his ability, honesty and character. He had never had an accident in London. His experience had been with geared cars and he had never driven a Ford before. He had been driving in Prince Rupert about ten days.

Dr. W. T. Kergin, in giving evidence, stated that the little girl had sustained a fracture at the base of the skull. It was a very serious case of brain concussion. She never regained consciousness. The right side of the face was badly abraded. The fracture might have been caused by an impact, but a vehicle, he felt, would have to be going at a pretty fair rate of speed. This depended, of course, on what part of the car the child had been struck by. A comparatively light blow might cause the injury in the case of such a young child.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Funeral service will be conducted tomorrow, Sunday afternoon at 3.30 in the Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. H. R. Grant, D.D. for little Norma Munro before interment at Fairview Cemetery.

Anton Wells alias Rosang, charged with fighting, pleaded not guilty in the city police court this morning and judgment was reserved until this afternoon.

Has the Habit

The power boat Aileen, owned and skippered by Wall Shaw, spent an exciting time this week when she broke away from her mooring at Cow Bay on Tuesday morning and drifted over to Digby Island on a sand bar. At low tide she keeled over and filled with water. The launch Oh Baby, skippered by Laurie Lambly, went over at high tide on Wednesday morning and towed her back to port. The water did some damage to the engine but the gadgets are being fixed up again. This is the second time that Aileen has strayed from home.

A New Songster

Lance Potterton, the man of many parts and who sometimes wins the toss from Andy McDonald for the foremanship of the Booth Fisheries, has blossomed forth in the role of a singer. According to reports of his first well meant efforts the future looks brighter still for John McCormick and other artists of Victor record repute. Lance's first infliction took place at the Elk's smoker held recently and a number of the listeners have not got over the experience yet. It seems that the lively program of boxing, etc. was going too well for Lance, who suggested to the chairman of the evening that the audience be permitted to listen to him warble. The chairman unsuspectingly allowed the volunteer entertainer the use of the stage and then the fun started. Of course the use of music to a good singer is absolutely unnecessary and in the mechanical college, where Lance evidently learned his singing, they did not even allow the musicians playing the Anvil Chorus to use any effects. However, Lance mounted the platform, and after warning the pianist not to interfere, commenced upon something which sounded like "When you and I are hung, Maggie." Luckily for the gathering there were a number of husky boys present who quietly but forcibly persuaded Lance to get off the platform and postpone the singing until the spring when he could go behind the island and finish the noise by himself.

They're Off

At 12.01 a.m. Monday morning next, when the halibut fishing season re-opens after a close period of three months, the 1924-1925 close season will be a thing of the past. Already the exodus of boats of both Canadian and American fishing fleets has recommenced to the northern fishing banks. All is hustle and bustle along the waterfront and everyone is on his toes to get away as soon as possible.

More Rowboats

It is truly said that coming events cast their shadows before and the Prince Rupert Boat House interests are making preparations for a bumper tourist and holiday season this year. With this influx of business in view, a number of new rowboats are being built at Swanson's shops and already twelve frames have been prepared by Bob Thomas and W. G. Walford.

Fishermen Return

Practically the last of the local fishermen, who usually spend a winter vacation with their old folks back east, have returned to the fold in readiness to re-engage in the halibut fishing. Pete Muse and Earle Haines, members of the crew of the schooner Ringleader, returned to the city from Nova Scotia on Tuesday morning's train, after having visited their homes. Speaking of his trip Pete said that while away he visited in Boston and Chicago where business conditions looked very prosperous especially from a building standpoint. In eastern Canada the business people were very optimistic as to the 1925 trade outlook and things were picking up remarkably well.

Not Introduced

The following yarn is the latest on the waterfront and is a joke on the Englishmen for a change.

The story goes that six fishermen, two Irishmen, two Scotsmen and two Englishmen, were shipwrecked but managed to make the safety of a nearby island. A small boat passing in the vicinity of the island noticed a fire and upon arrival in port notified the coastguard service. A cutter was immediately dispatched to investigate. Upon the captain of the cutter reaching the island he found two Scotsmen singing Scotch songs, the two Irishmen were having a little "friendly" discussion with their fists, while the two Englishmen were walking up and

Passed Schooners

Members of the crew of the steamer Cardena reported having passed a flotilla of American halibut schooners, on Sunday last in Grenville Channel bound for the northern fishing banks from Seattle. The boats looked spic and span after their winter overhaul in the south.

Hurry up you trappers. I want 5,000 mink skins and all the other pelts you can bring in. Highest prices offered. Must have the furs. W. Goldbloom, Second Ave.

Hit Rock

The American schooner Pelican, Capt. E. Rogman, is on the dry dock having a new stem fitted as a result of hitting a rock while coming up the coast from Seattle. The Pelican is on her way to the northern fishing banks. The damage is not very serious, and it is expected Cap will go on his way rejoicing early in the week.

Flat Fishing

A number of Japanese fishermen have been making the both ends meet by fishing from dories in the harbor for flounders and other varieties of flat fish during the close season. The Japs seem to have an uncanny way of fishing and on Thursday morning two of these men in a dory got so many fish in two hours they had to come to the fish dock and unload. After keeping sufficient for domestic needs the

The Iron Pots of Gondricourt

JUST after daybreak a traveler along the narrow byways of a small French village can see the housewife beginning her day. Through the open doorway her fireplace glows like a forge. A heavy iron pot, which she has filled with water from the town pump, is lifted and swung upon the crane. At the other end of the village, perhaps, runs the little stream where she washes her family's clothes upon the rocks.

Throughout the village life of much of Europe, such pictures are multiplied by thousands. Quaint, to be sure, but what grinding and incessant toil these primitive household arrangements mean!

In contrast to this, even the remote districts of Canada boast comfort unknown to the rural life of other countries. Conveniences are found that could not be duplicated in any save the wealthiest city homes of foreign nations.

Adequate heating systems, the farm lighting plant, the washing machine, the vacuum cleaner, the telephone and numberless labor-saving devices have lifted modern life in Canada to unprecedented levels of comfort and ease.

To a large measure this has been due to advertising. Advertising has familiarized all of us with new inventions. Advertising has made possible the wide distribution of new products. By increasing sales, advertising has reduced the price of modern household utilities to the reach of the modest purse.

By reading advertisements we keep abreast of modern progress balance is sold at a remunerative price to Japanese restaurants and private families.

The Canadian schooner Ringleader, Capt. Sollows, is on the McLean ways for scraping and painting and will be in readiness to depart for the fishing banks within a few days.

Three carloads of lumber arrived from Georgetown today in tow of the tug M.T.3, Capt. Reggie Green, for shipment east over the Canadian National railways. A scowload of box lumber also arrived from the Georgetown mill on Monday for local fish house requirements.

HER HEADACHES WERE SO BAD SHE COULDN'T DO ANYTHING

Once the head starts to ache and pain you may rest assured that the cause comes from the stomach, liver or bowels, and the cause must be removed before permanent relief may be had.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

There is no better remedy for head aches of every description than Burdock Blood Bitters as it removes the cause of the headaches in a way that no other remedy will do.

Mrs. Wm. Helgard, Lower Strawberry, N.S., writes:—"I suffered for a long time with my head. It would ache and ache until it made me so sick I could not do anything, but after taking four bottles of B.B.B. I feel that I cannot recommend it too highly to all those suffering from headaches of any kind."

B.B.B. has been on the market for the past 46 years and is recognized by all who have used it to be without an equal as a remedy for headaches, but only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HAYSPORT MISSING SAYS SEATTLE PAPER

Left Vancouver on January 10 and Had Not Arrived Thursday

In the issue of Thursday the Ketchikan Chronicle says:

Some anxiety is felt for the motorship Haysport, which left Vancouver, B.C., on January 10, according to reports, bound for Skagway with a cargo of powder for the White Pass railroad. Inquiry was received in Ketchikan today as to whether the ship had ever entered here from the south.

At the customs office it is said that the ship might have gone on the Juneau or Skagway to enter, but it is not believed likely, as nothing had been heard of it at Juneau. That has been definitely ascertained. Inquiries are being sent south today to see if anything is known of why it has not arrived.

Inquiry is also being made among the fishing fleet, many vessels of which just returned from the south.

"Merton of the Movies"

A James Cruze production. Grade A comedy, genuine novelty and wholesome love-appeal. Glenn Hunter, the original "Merton" of the famous stage hit, in the even better screen version. The hilarious adventures of a movie-mad grocery clerk who wanted to be a Valentino. A clean, clever, photo-play that every family in the town will enjoy. It's the original of all stories of Hollywood behind the scenes, many times imitated but never equalled. Next to getting into the movies, the most fun is seeing "Merton of the Movies." Distinguished cast.
