Point Grey Police Commissioners to be Relieved of Duties until Charges Against Them Tried

VANCOUVER, June 20. — Attorney General Manson stated today that steps would be taken to relieve H. P. McCraney and H. O. McDonald, Point Grey police commissioners, of their official duties if there is legal power to do so pending the outcome of charges against them in connection with the abduction of Wong Foon Sing.

Reeve J. A. Paton of Point Grey stated yesterday that Oscar Robinson, head of the Canadian detective agency, had been employed by the police commission prior to the abduction in an effort to clear up the mystery of the Janet Smith murder, but he disclaimed all knowledge that Robinson had been connected with the abduction as charged by the provincial police.

GOLD PAN NOT LIKELY RICH

Many Prospectors Already Returning From Dease Lake Country

MACHINERY GOING IN

While he is confident that the Dease Lake country presents a fruitful field for company operation where capital is available for development, A. St. Claire Brindle, well known Victoria mining engineer, is of the opinion that it is not the country for a stampede of prospectors seeking to find gold in the raw. Mr. Brindle, who has been starting work on properties on Haskens Mountain on McDames Creek in which A. B. Tritts is interested, is returning south to Vancouver on the Princess Alice this afternoon. He has been in the north for the past six weeks and went past Dease Lake and down Dease River some 150 miles.

Not Prospected

Mr. Brindle is of the opinion that the area around Gold Pan Creek has been too thoroughly prospected in the past to make it possible for there still to be left there any large quantity of free gold. Though no definite conclusion can yet be reached because work so far done has been only of a superficial nature, Mr. Brindle says that the district is not turning out to be so rich as had been expected. Already prospectors are beginning to come back from that section but the old timers are staying on in the hope of yet finding something in the district. Many of these intend to stay until the freeze-up.

The road from Telegraph Creek to Dease Lake is now open and tractors, trucks and automobiles are operating over it. They are taking people and supplies in and there is a movement out. The first vehicle to get through was a Hudson Bay tractor which made splendid time with six tons of freight on two trailers. The road from Telegraph Creek to Dease Lake is being put in excellent shape.

Taking in Machinery

The Dickenson Mining Co. is transporting 40 tons of machinery and supplies into the mouth of Dease Creek which flows into Dease Lake about two-thirds of the way down on the west side. The company is using its own tractors.

The Pendleton Gold Mining Co. is also taking supplies to McDames Creek where they have leases. McDames Creek is 65 miles down Dease River from the lower end of Dease Lake.

Mr. Brindle does not think that there are over 175 prospectors at the present time beyond Telegraph Creek and the rush seems to be waning. As many are coming out as are going in.

At the near end of Dease Lake quite a little settlement has sprung up. It has been named Casew and a post office and (continued on page six)

Such preference to Australia. Such preference to Australia.

New Fishing Company Cure Herring at Queen Charlotte Islands Now

Captain Pete Rovik Heads Standard Fisheries which is being Incorporated for Summer Operation

A new fishing company is being formed here to be known as the "Standard Fisheries" to cure herring for the New York market. Incorporation papers are now being prepared with Capt. Pete Rovik as president.

The new company proposes to fish for herring in the summer months when the fish are fat and in good condition. They will operate mostly on the coast of Queen Charlotte Islands at Rennel Sound, Marble Island and Hippo Island and the fish will be taken with drift nets.

Capt. Rovik has been investigating the possibilities of the business for some time. He recently visited Alaska and saw how the work was done there. Since that he has taken a quantity of herring in the neighborhood of Hippo Island, cured them and sent forward samples to Eastern firms handling that kind of fish. Replies have come by wire showing that the experiment has been completely successful and that the firm is justified in going right ahead and developing the business.

Some of the herring will be cured according to the Scotch method and others following the Norwegian plan. Various methods of packing and marketing will be tried in order to dispose of the product to advantage.

The herring taken at Queen Charlotte Islands are very similar to those caught in Alaska. They are very plump and are in great demand in the eastern states. The fish are there in abundance but this firm is the first to undertake the work of curing them for the market.

Since the whales have been killed off the herring do not run into the harbors like they did when the mammals were plentiful around the islands. The whales, it is supposed, drove them in.

Mrs. Stan. Taylor of Prince Rupert was one of the invited guests at a personal shower given by Mrs. Dwight Ostrosser in Kitsilano for Miss Thyra Runnels who is to be married soon.

SONS OF CANADA WON EASY GAME

Gyro Club in Poor Form at Baseball Last Night and Lost by Score of Nine to One

Effective pitching by Alex Roy and good support by his team mates together with consistent hitting, won last night's Senior League baseball game for the Sons of Canada over the Gyro Club by a score of 9 to 1. The Canucks were in good form but the Gyros were just the opposite and the game for them was a distinct washout. It lasted only five innings. Foley, who opened in the box for the Gyro Club, was freely hit and he was taken out in the third inning and replaced by Teddy Tite. The Canucks made eleven hits, including home runs by Vic Menzies and Dave Balfour and a flock of two baggers. The Gyros are credited with only one hit. Alex Roy fanned eleven men while the Gyro hurlers, according to the box score, had no strikeouts.

The continued wet weather has been somewhat of a drawback in certain branches of waterfront business this week, more especially in the boat painting end of it, while there has been a dearth of activity among the smaller boats in carrying out minor outdoor repair work.

Many native boats have been in port this week, and prior to leaving on seining exploits, have had seining turn tables installed on the stern.

The halibut situation remains satisfactory in that a good volume of fish has been landed, the feature of which has been the excellence of the quality of fish brought in. Incoming skippers report that with the exception of one or two blustery days; the weather on the high spots has been very fair and remunerative fishing has been carried on. There has been a strong demand for Canadian caught fish and prices offered on the Fish Exchange on Monday and Tuesday gave the home boats a lead over the Americans. On Wednesday, while the Canadians received less for first class fish, they gained several points in price for second class fares.

Flying Shrimps

It has taken skipper Claude Leigh of the good shrimping ship Hesquit to discover the latest monstrosity still unknown to science in the form of flying shrimps. Unfortunately Claude was so overcome by the discovery that he failed to bring in any specimens but this he has promised to rectify on his next trip to the shrimp jungles. The Hesquit was fishing for shrimps as usual in local waters, and while dragging the net behind in the blue depths near the rocky shore he chanced to look into the bush. His optics focused on what he thought looked like shrimps with fluttering wings perched in the trees. The sight

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT.

Notice of Application for Beer License

Notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of June next, the undersigned intends to apply to the Liquor Control Board for a license in respect to premises being part of the building known as Hudson Bay Hotel, Telegraph Creek, B.C. upon the lands described as Lots 3 and 4, block 2, map 975, Prince Rupert Land Registration District, in the Province of British Columbia, for the sale of beer by the glass or by open bottle for consumption on the premises.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1925.

was too much for Claude, who thereupon stopped the eager craft and scrambling ashore, armed with a hastily made net and pole, made desperate efforts to capture the peculiar freaks of nature. According to reports from authoritative sources Claude succeeded in capturing what he termed several flying shrimps, but the shock proved too much and the next thing he remembered was being on board the boat with the engine stopped and a broken piece of shrimp hauling machinery in his hand. It is surmised by the fleet secret service that Claude got hit with the broken piece of machinery which would account for the uncanny sight of shrimps perched in trees. The Hesquit is having mechanical repairs done on her now and will leave for the shrimp jungles over the week end.

Two Mishaps

There have been two mishaps to schooners reported this week which fortunately were unattended with any serious consequences. The Canadian schooner Tiernan, Capt. Pederson, caught fire in Hecate Straits but arrived safely in port on Thursday and after having undergone mechanical repairs at the dry dock has since left for the fishing grounds. The Canadian schooner Tillie S., Capt. Tippins, hit a rock while returning from the highspots and did some damage to the hull. Repairs were carried out at the McLean yards and the schooner left port on Thursday.

The Canadian schooner Brandt, Capt. Edwards, is on the McLean ways for re-caulking. Cap, who has a half interest in the schooner Lysekil, will proceed to the halibut banks as soon as the work is completed.

The schooner Osumi, owned by the Tokio Dye Works, is to be taken up on the McLean ways to have a seine turn-table installed.

Skipper John Field has had the power boat Hallett E. on the Ward ways for engine overhaul this week prior to engaging in salmon packing activities.

A Local Toreador

Of course we all know what a wonderful broncho buster E. C. Gibbons proved himself to be at the Smithers fair last year, and with what pride Dave Thomson presented him with a medal for his heroic riding, but to learn that E. C. is a toreador of renown and that he is never happier than when locking horns with a ferocious bull is a new angle on his bravery. Yes, sir, it's a fact and it all happened on

Cy Arnett's Meadowbrook ranch situated in the Fraser valley. On E.C.'s recent trip south Cy invited him to spend a few days at the ranch and become acquainted with the livestock. The morning after the visitor's arrival the ranch owner took E.C. out to the pasture to view the herd. On that particular morning the prize bull of the place happened to be at large and there was something in E.C.'s broadcasting apparatus which did not gibe with the bull's receiving set. In less time than it takes to tell the bull had lowered its fighting apparatus and made for the toreador in an effort to run him off the farm. However, the toreador had not been using packets of Bull Durham all his life for nothing and determined to take the bull around the fields and show it some new scenery. Like a tin lizzie primed with hair oil, Mr. Gibbons set out at the dead run with the bull following a close second and all went well until a small footbridge was reached. Here the toreador decided to get a breathing spell thinking that such a great mass of meat—for such the bull was—could not cross the bridge. Scrambling under the bridge, the toreador sat down to think up new forms of strategy in bull fighting but the bull, evidently sensing the idea, was having none of it. Charging over the bridge Mr. Bovril arrived safely the other side with the toreador in the lead. Eventually our hero gained the shelter of a barn and there gave the bull a good lesson in dodging around corners. The dodging game kept up until the bull eventually lay down with exhaustion when the conquering hero sat on its head and waved his hat. Cy Arnett said he never saw such a moving sight in his life before.

The Canadian schooner Koyousu broke her clutch while on the fishing grounds and had to be towed in. Repairs have been made at the dry dock.

Capt. Jim Morrison has completed the engine overhaul on the tugboat Tide Rip of the George Bushby fleet. The Tide Rip is now engaged on towing work in connection with the building of the elevator.

The Canadian schooner D.C.F. has been up on the Ward ways for painting and rudder repairs.

The electrical work on the new John Wicks' halibut schooner is nearing completion at the hands of the Ward Electric Company. The new boat is expected to be equipped with gear and on the fishing banks by the end of the month. The Vickers-Petters diesel engine, with which the boat is powered, has been fitted with three different starting devices: electrical, torch and cart-ridge.

George Cadwallader and Ed Valpy left for the Port Edward cannery yesterday on the former's power boat Silver Star on a gill-netting expedition. The Silver Star is a 30 foot boat and is powered with a 6 h.p. Adams engine.

Capt. A. Swanson, Prince Rupert Boat House, has purchased the circular saw and planer from the defunct Seal Cove Marine Ways. They are being installed at the boat house for use in connection with boat building operations.

Gravel Contract

The Vancouver Salvage and Dredging Company have secured the contract from Carter-Halls-Aldinger Co. who are responsible for the erection of the elevator superstructure, to furnish between 30,000 and 35,000 cubic yards of gravel for concrete to be used in the work. The gravel will be obtained at Stewart and the tug R.F.M., Vancouver, will tow the Vancouver Salvage Co.'s dredge scow up to Stewart and will bring down the gravel to the elevator as the work proceeds.

The tugboat Wigwag, Capt. Claude Ketchum is occupied at Digby Island in launching the large scow which has been moored there for some months past. The scow will be temporarily repaired here and towed to Vancouver for final overhaul.

Pile Pulling

The Carrie pile driver is employed on lifting piles from the old quarantine wharf at Digby Island for the Northern Construction Company, in connection with their elevator fill contract.

In the Letter Box
NEW PIPE LINE ROAD.

Editor Daily News.

It is a sad sight to see the vandalism that is being carried out on the new road after all the expense the city has gone to provide a beautiful road, walk and drive for tourists and citizens.

The lovely awe inspiring spruce and other trees 200 feet high are cut down and the road smashed up for the sake of a few dollars in firewood.

The late city engineer left everything tidy, cleaned out creeks and everything that added to the scenic beauty, now the road is getting smashed up, the creeks filled with rubbish. What was a fine walk will soon be a disgrace. Talk about spending money to beautify a city with parks, etc., why, Mr. Editor, money could not buy the beauty nature placed there for nothing. Are we to bow to the inevitable? Thanking you for the valuable assistance you could give and let us know if the Provincial government and city are spending money to make a "Scenic Road" or a wood yard.

Yours, etc.,
CITIZEN.

NO TRACE OF STOMACH TROUBLE FOR SEVEN YEARS

Health restored by "Fruit-a-tives".

Mrs. LAURA ALFORD

"For years I was a martyr to Chronic Constipation and Dyspepsia. I tried various Cathartics, salts, and so-called vegetable laxatives, but without relief. Finally I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives", and in a short time found they were all that is claimed of them. They always act naturally, never causing griping, or nausea, nor having that weakening effect which so many other laxatives have. I have been using "Fruit-a-tives" now for seven years and have never had a trace of constipation or stomach trouble since."

—Mrs. Laura Alford, 28 Florence St., Ottawa, Ont.

"Fruit-a-tives" contain the health giving properties of fruits combined with valuable tonics. 25c and 50c at all dealers.

"The Sea Hawk"

An adaptation of Rafael Sabatini's famous story, conceded to be the most dramatic and artistic success of the year, with an irresistible appeal to both old and young. A million dollar production with every cent of expense evident on the screen.

A drama of fierce, vivid color and amazing adventure, through which stalks one of the truly great and masterful figures of romance.

The spectacular adventures of Sakk-el-Bahr, the "Sea Hawk," the most dashing personality that ever leaped through the pages of fiction, the boldest, bravest, the most daring gentleman pirate that ever roved the seas, the most romantic lover that ever fought for a maiden's kiss.

The wickedest, meanest corsair that ever spat in a galley ditch, roved the seas for booty, kidnapped fair damsels and lollied in Moorish harems. The most ruffianly rascal that ever scuttled a ship or stole a maiden's heart.

Battles by land and sea, duels, kidnapping, galley ships and slaves, Moorish castles, harems, pirates, corsairs, buccaners, janissaries, slave markets, Moslem villages, Algeria, cannonading, and hand-to-hand conflicts.

Four pirate ships at the cost of $285,000. More than $85,000 worth of gorgeous gowns and costumes, 3,000 players. Unrivalled cast of principals.

Wallace Beery, Lloyd Hughes, Wm. Collier Jr., Frank Currier, Marc McDermott, Kathleen Key, and Milton Sills as Sir Oliver Tressilian, afterwards Sakk-el-Bahr, the "Sea Hawk." Enid Bennett as Rosamund Godolphin.
