A. CHAMBERLAIN ON IMPERIAL RELATIONS

ALICE ARM MINES SHOWING UP WELL AND LIKELY TO BE PRODUCTIVE

Chamberlain Hopes for British Government to get Closer to the Dominions and Discuss by Cable

LONDON, Mar. 25.—Winding up the protocol debate in the House of Commons, Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, said the government intended to keep in closest touch with the dominions on the matter. "I hope that when we get in closer touch with the issues they will be comparatively so simple that it may be possible to conduct negotiations by cable in the event of a conference in the immediate future. It is a matter for debate whether it will be possible for the dominions to send men here to participate in their deliberations and pledge their own dominions."

"We asked them to allow their representatives, who attended the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva in the autumn, to come to the country in sufficient time before that occasion so that we might be able to communicate together and try to go united to Geneva."

FISHERMEN'S ENGINES HAVE DUTY LOWERED

Export Duty on Electric Power Income and Sales Tax Remains Same
TAXATION CHANGES
OTTAWA, Mar. 25.—Engines of the propulsion of boats by individual fishermen are to be taxed at a lower rate of duty than heretofore, the budget speech announced yesterday. There are few taxation changes made but these include the reduction of an export duty on electric current equal to a 1.25 per horsepower year.

There is to be an increase in duty on slack coal from United States of 36 cents a ton. The duty on well-drilling machinery is to be reduced but the duty on rolling mills is restored. The rates on checks, receipts and other legal documents payable by stamps are due for revised definitions. The customs tariff is amended regarding dumping and the duty on grapefruit is reduced.

RAILWAY INTEREST IS NOT AN ASSET DECLARES MINISTER

Total Amount Was up to March Last About $131,000,000
OTTAWA, Mar. 25.—Touching on railway finances, Acting Minister Bobb in his budget speech yesterday said the National Railway had not been able to meet arrears of interest accumulated on loans made them by the government out of earnings. The total amount of arrears to March 31, 1924, the minister said, amounted to about $131,000,000 but this was not treated in the public accounts as an asset. It is held in abeyance as an overdue account.

Passenger Train from East Will Not Arrive Until Ten o'clock Tonight

The engine of the inbound passenger train due here this morning ran into a mudslide while rounding a curve near Woodcock about 3 a.m. and was derailed together with the front trucks of an express refrigerator car that was immediately behind it. No one was injured and equipment is now at the slide clearing the track and putting the locomotive on the rails again. Ten o'clock tonight was the time set this morning for the arrival of the delayed train. The eastbound passenger train will be despatched on time at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

GUILTY MURDER SEATTLE CASE

Elmer Hanhart Shot Mrs. Morley of Victoria in Taxicab Say Jury
SEATTLE, Mar. 25.—Elmer Hanhart was last night found guilty by a jury of shooting Mrs. Lillian Morley of Victoria in a taxicab on January 4 last. The jury also gave a recommendation for mercy which makes it mandatory for the judge to sentence him to life imprisonment.

BODY WAS FOUND

VICTORIA, Mar. 25.—The body of James Dakers, cook on the tug Red Fir, who disappeared two months ago, was found floating in Cadboro Bay. It is believed he fell into the water while rowing back to the tug.

Mrs. Ian Onslow Dennistoun, wife of Lieut. Colonel Dennistoun and widow of the late Lord Carnarvon who died at Luxor. It was her husband who was sued by his former wife and against whom a verdict was secured yesterday and who has to pay £5,000 loaned him by her. Some superstitious people in London declare the "Curse of Egypt" is following the widow of the famous discoverer of the tomb of Tutankhamen.

Alice Arm Mines Showing Well and Especially the Toric Across River from Famous Dolly Varden

As development work proceeds on the Toric mine across the Kitsault River from the Dolly Varden at Alice Arm, the immense possibilities of the property are being shown up and it is now claimed that the biggest body of ore ever encountered in the district has been laid open. Since starting underground work on October 15 last, the Consolidated Homestake Mining & Development Co. has drilled over 500 feet of tunnelling. Last week the highest grade ore yet found in the mine was encountered. After drilling through 97 feet of ore, the maximum width of the ore body is given as forty feet with expectations that it will widen out as the work proceeds. The whole ledge of the Toric mine is impregnated with silver, the ore being composed of native silver, argentite and galena, native silver being especially predominant. Hopes that Alice Arm will shortly resume its position in the limelight of the mining world are being built up around the Toric mine.

There is an interesting rumor going the rounds at Alice Arm that the Belmont-Surf Inlet Mines Ltd. may acquire and operate the Dolly Varden and Wolf mines now that this company's properties at Surf Inlet are known to be petering out. The rumor, however, lacks any official confirmation.

La Rose Mine
The La Rose mine, located not far from the Dolly Varden Railway about ten miles from Alice Arm, is another property on which development work is planned this year. It is proposed to drive a 400 foot tunnel into ore of established values. This it is considered would be a more economical plan than continuing shaft work. The La Rose mine is controlled by a company of Prince Rupert and Alice Arm men. Dr. W. T. Kergin is president; J. H. Thompson, vice-president, and E. H. Mortimer, secretary-treasurer. Miles Donald, Joe Wells and J. M. Morrison are directors.

It is reported from Alice Arm that negotiations are being made by the Anox syndicate owning the Esperanza mine for a sale of that property. The report is that the intending purchasers are influential Vancouver men who should they acquire the property, would proceed with an active development program including the putting in of a concentrating mill and a short tram. The Esperanza is located a couple of miles up the hill to the west of Alice Arm. It has shipped ore of good values on a small scale for many years.

Thrilling Voyage in Forty Foot Gasboat from Cumshewa Inlet

Caught in the terrific southeast gale which lashed Hecla Straits to fury on Monday afternoon, a 40-foot gasboat carrying a party of Japs from Cumshewa Inlet weathered the storm and arrived here last night after a thrilling 36-hour trip. Everything loose on the small craft was carried away and even the skiff was lost. So rough was the sea that a heavy tool chest in the hold was turned over. It was only the good performance of the engine and the almost uncanny seamanship of those on board the boat that saved the little vessel from foundering.

Victoria Cougars are Favorites for Hockey Game Friday Night Details of Monday's Big Game

(Special to Daily News)
VANCOUVER, Mar. 24.—(Delayed by wire trouble)—After a three to one victory here last night on top of a five to two win on Saturday, the Victoria Cougars are easy favorites over Les Canadiens for the third Stanley Cup world series playoff at Victoria Friday night. Goals do not count, the winner of the first three games in five taking the honors and the Stanley Cup. Dopesters measuring the eight to three margin for the westerners attach considerable importance, however, to the fact that Friday's game will be the first that the Montreal team will enter entirely fresh after the long exacting travelling. It is also known that the Frenchmen are only now getting acclimated to the western atmosphere before nearly eleven thousand wildly enthusiastic fans who cheered the teams impartially but naturally favored the Cougars. The latter dished up fast hockey featured by deadly sharp-shooting, dazzling speed and close checking with body and stick. Walker and Frederickson shone brilliantly again, these players getting the first two goals in the first period.

Scoring
Joliat scored for the Canadiens in the second spasm, a fine piece of individualism, and strangely enough the puck was finally kicked in to the easterner's goal by Clem Loughlin. Eastern rules were strictly observed, giving the Canadiens the edge in this respect. The next game, Friday, will be under western rules.

Morenz and Veniza in goal and Couture scintillated throughout, Morenz at one time toying with the whole Victoria team as he circled time and again to kill time while two of his team mates were on the bench for penalties. Every Cougar was in a snarling, dangerous mood, happy Holmes in goal being particularly safe. The entire team played like world winners with two men attacks and an airtight defence.

Goal Summary
First period—Victoria, Walker, 8:15; Victoria, Frederickson, 7:30.
Second period—Canadiens, Joliat, 1:18.
Third period—Victoria, Walker, 8:52.

Penalties
First period—Halderson and Matz.
It is alleged that Herslak then drew the weapon and fired, the bullet going through Wilson's chest near his collar bone. Herslak went to a nearby drug store, it is alleged, and told he had done the shooting. He is held on an open charge.

Herslak, on being charged in court, was remanded pending the result of the wound inflicted.

MAY EXCLUDE U.S. HALIBUT

Despatch Says Government May Act on Demand Prince Rupert Interests
(Special to Daily News)
OTTAWA, Mar. 25.—The Federal Government may take steps to prohibit American fishing boats from plying their trade in British Columbia waters in accordance with the demand of Prince Rupert halibut interests that United States fishing boats be excluded as they are from the Atlantic.

It is realized here that the only extenuating feature for consideration is the large volume of traffic accruing to the National Railways in hauling refrigerator cars across the continent.

SHOOTING CASE BURNABY DR.

Pole Formerly Know Dr. Wilson at Alert Bay It is Stated

VANCOUVER, Mar. 25.—Dr. H. G. Wilson, formerly of Alert Bay, was allegedly shot and seriously wounded by Alfred K. Herslak, a Pole, at his home last night.

It is alleged that Herslak, who knew Wilson at Alert Bay, sought work and that he returned to Wilson's home by appointment, when he was informed his efforts to secure employment were unavailing.

It is alleged that Herslak then drew the weapon and fired, the bullet going through Wilson's chest near his collar bone. Herslak went to a nearby drug store, it is alleged, and told he had done the shooting. He is held on an open charge.

Group Government Comes To Stay.

However much we may deplore it, group government seems to have come to stay. The tendency seems to be toward greater independence in politics instead of toward greater cohesion of the big parties. Exceptions to this will occur, especially as strong leaders of the Mussolini type arise, but that will be more or less of a freak. With independence of thought must come a desire for independence of action. Members will unite on a great cause but will demand freedom of action on matters of less importance.

The world is finding it difficult to adjust itself to changing conditions. As the younger people grow up after a public school education where all are on an equality, they will be more assertive of their rights as individuals and this will show itself in public life.

Rights Of Farmers To Kill Own Stock.

An effort was made by the city council to secure for farmers of the interior the right to kill their own stock in the Burns abattoir, which is to be built. The idea was commendable. It would be a good thing too if such a right could have been secured. At the same time we must agree with Alderman Larsen when he said it was desirable in a case like this to be fair. It looks simple enough on the face of it but does not work out in practice. If the Burns Company is putting up the cash for the building and the city is granting no privileges in the way of free site or free water or light or power or taxation, it does not seem clear why we should expect to get privileges from the company.

The main objection is that a jobber may also be a small farmer and claim all the rights of being able to kill at the establishment even though he is a competitor in business who would use the privilege to undersell.

If the city expects to get privileges it must give something in return. We have been asking for this abattoir for some time and now we are getting it we can hardly dictate the terms unless we are prepared to pay for the right.

The city has the right to stop the company erecting the abattoir here. Also the company has the right to stay away and put its money elsewhere. If we are to make progress we must have the name of being ready to treat capital fairly when it is proposed to invest here.

If the city wishes to give the farmers some privileges, it should do so and the action would be most commendable. At one time a little shed was built where farmers might come and sell their produce in the city but it was not a success. It might have been possible to have made a deal with the big meat firm to secure privileges for the farmers but hardly without a quid pro quo.

Criticize Measures Not Individuals.

In mentioning this matter members of the council must not think that there is anything personal in it. We do not happen to know who is responsible for the deal with P. Burns Company. If we did know, it would make no difference. We are discussing the principle rather than the individual. In a small place it is difficult for anything to be discussed without a personal element entering. We know nothing of the views of the company except what came out at the meeting of the council Monday, but what we wish to stress is that it is undesirable for a young city to get the reputation of trying to harass a concern that is trying to do something here. We want industries and if we are to have them the only thing to do is to try to treat them well. Make it attractive for them to come. There is no need to give bonuses but we can at any rate make it pleasant for them to operate and refrain from trying to get something from them without paying for it.

PRINCE GEORGE

H. G. Perry, M.L.A., has returned from a trip to Victoria. He says that the people on the coast have at last awakened to the full importance of the Peace River transportation problem. He is strongly opposed to the Brule cut-off route.

Reginald Jobson, fur farmer of the Chief Lake district, resident of the district for fifteen years and returned soldier, committed suicide in his room in the Prince George Hotel last week by taking potassium cyanide. He is survived by a widow at Chief Lake.

The tax rate of the city of Prince George for this year has been set at fifty mills on the basis of a ten per cent reduction in assessment. Unless there is a high percentage of tax collections, there may be a municipal deficit at the end of the year.

The log scale in Prince George district for the month of February totalled 3,415,683 feet. The total for the district this year so far is 7,794,408 feet as compared with 18,985,588 feet for the first two months last year.

A Lutheran Church Ladies' Aid has been organized here with the following officers: President, Mrs. G. Frerichs; vice-president, Mrs. O. Andrews; secretary, Mrs. Kuring.

A bylaw giving the Canadian National Railway a fixed assessment for a period of five years was passed by the property owners here last week. A very small poll was recorded.

Mrs. Allan Wilson is moving into town from Savory.

SEE THROUGH STEEL PLATES EIGHT INCHES

LONDON, Mar. 25.—It will be possible, in the near future by the aid of the X-ray, to see through steel eight inches thick.
Professor Pullin, director of the Radiological Research department at Woolwich Government arsenal, predicted in a recent address before the Royal Society.

It is an easy matter at present by the use of the X-ray to penetrate pieces of steel three inches in thickness. Professor Pullin asserted, but what is sought by scientists is an apparatus to enable them to examine into castings ten or twelve inches through. This is desired so that flaws may be detected in castings, and to avoid serious danger to workmen's lives.

Here and There

Southern Alberta is to have an other addition to its growing list of titled ranchers, according to report.
The Duc de Nemours, a descendant of Louis Philippe of France, it is stated, is sailing in April to visit Lord and Lady Rodney, who have a ranch at Fort Saskatchewan, and, later, to acquire a homestead near the establishment of the Prince of Wales.

The Nova Scotia Technical College assays under direction of the Dominion Council of Scientific Research indicate Nova Scotia oil shales to be the richest in the world, giving fifty gallons of high-grade paraffin to a ton of shale. One hundred million tons of the shale are readily accessible, and vast oil industries similar to those of Colorado and the Western States might well come into being in this province.

"I find general business conditions quiet but improving throughout Canada and undoubtedly the increase in the price of farm products will prove very encouraging to the west," said Grant Hall, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on his return from a recent tour of the Dominion. "Large orders for hardware shipped over our lines of late to the west indicate that the crop money is now beginning to circulate more readily, which in its turn is a mark of the farmer's confidence in the country."

There was a general increase in all phases of the lumbering industry in Canada during 1923, as compared with the previous year, according to the latest report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The average value of the output in that year amounted to $139,894,677, as compared with $114,324,580 in 1922, an increase of 22.4 per cent. In this respect the lumbering industry comes third on the list of manufacturing industries in Canada, with the pulp and paper industry first and the flour and grist mills second.

Passengers aboard the Canadian Pacific steamship "Empress of France," now touring the world, had a unique experience recently while visiting Ceylon. Returning from a run out to Kandy, the old capital of the Cingalese Kings and Site of the Temple of the Tooth of Buddha, a train-load of the travellers was held up by a herd of wild elephants which, hemmed in on either side by the jungle, ambulated along the track ahead. This was a feature of the journey which delighed those of the tourists who were not anxious about missing the ship.

Viola Dana, the famous motion picture actress, whose work has delighted millions, is to be the star of a drama to be filmed at Banff, according to a recent report. Miss Dana journeyed from New York to Montreal and then across the continent via Canadian Pacific Railway, in order to join her company for the film. The remainder of the cast are proceeding to Banff from Los Angeles and it is expected that shooting of the scenes will commence shortly. A very considerable number of big pictures have already been taken at Banff, which seems to have a great attraction for discerning stars and directors who appreciate the beauty of the scenery.

ENVIED GEORGE.
"Did you enjoy the party,
dear?"
"Yes, mother, but I wished I'd been George Washington."
"Why, dear?"
"Well, he couldn't tell a lie, and so when he was at party and was asked if he'd like another piece of cake, instead of saying 'No' just to be polite, he'd have to tell the truth."

SYLVIA'S CHAT ABOUT LONDON

Lady Writer Tells of Fashions and Movements in the Capital of the World

(By Sylvia Mayfair)
LONDON, Eng., Mar. 25.—It is a pity that Queen Mary is such a shocking sailor for otherwise she would have had a delightful couple of weeks cruising round Sicily with King George in the Royal Yacht. King George's attack of bronchitis has been more serious than was generally admitted and two or three weeks in a warm climate was absolutely vital for his health. The Queen naturally felt that she would be with the King during his period of convalescence and as neither of them like the Riviera resorts the yacht was the only alternative.

The "Victoria and Albert," the Royal Yacht, though a badly behaved boat in a rough sea, is a luxurious floating palace. Both the King and Queen have palatial bedrooms, sitting rooms and libraries. The royal chef, who always accompanies them on these trips, used to be in the royal kitchens at Rome, but has since been at Claridge's and the Savoy until he went to Buckingham Palace about two years ago.

Bridge of Sighs
Poor old London! St. Paul's Cathedral in danger, the Houses of Parliament slowly crumbling into the river, the Eros statue gone from Piccadilly Circus—now Waterloo Bridge is again slated to be unsafe. Americans have an affection for Waterloo Bridge. They all have to cross it when they arrive in the city or leave it, and every millionaire who stays at the Savoy looks upon it from his windows.

There is no question of demolishing the bridge, but it will probably be replaced for traffic purposes by another bridge further up the river, and the old classic bridge will be closed and remain a Silent Highway of the Thames.

Dress Parade Cocktails
There had been quite an outcry because a Russian Princess, who has made a name for herself as a dress designer here, sent out invitations for a dress parade, announcing on the card, "Cocktails 11 to 4." One of these invitations went to the 19-year-old daughter of a member of parliament, and there has been no end of a fuss because the young lady took it literally and did drink cocktails from 11 to 4.

Spring Fashions
Nearly all the new spring hats are of the broad-brimmed kind which as the days get warmer will quite replace the cloche. The cloche indeed has already nearly gone. Ostrich feathers, shaded, glycerined or "hemmed" are used plentifully for trimmings, the plumes sometimes hanging down to the waist, and there are ostrich muffs to match. Evening dresses are shorter than ever, so short indeed that you can get one easily into the little bags in which you carry your powder puffs.

16th Century Tortures
If you really want to get the creeps the Tower of London will now be the place to go to. The authorities have just thrown open to the public four more of the Towers, including the dungeons and torture chambers which have hitherto been considered much too gruesome.

For an extra fifty cents you can enjoy the privilege of being trussed up on the identical rack on which Cranmer, Latimer and Guy Fawkes were tortured; and you are also shown what are believed to be the bones of Lady Jane Grey. The French sword with which Anne Boleyn was beheaded is also on view beside the clumsy looking axe that brought Catherine Howard's troubles to an end.

Weighty Ear-Rings
There is an ear-piercing campaign going on in London just now. Fashionable women are wearing ear-rings of such a weight that the ordinary screws are not reliable enough, and piercing is necessary.

Some women, noticeably the Countess of Ancaster, Lady Louis Mountbatten and the young Countess of Plymouth, favor a single ear-ring, generally worn in the left ear and hanging onto the shoulder. The newest ear-rings are either enormous stones of immense value, or tiny bas-

Melba Nights Again
It is now quite definite that there will be a brilliant opera season at Covent Garden in the summer—just now the famous theatre is being used for a dance hall, with a half-dollar admission fee) and Melba will sing at many gala performances. Tescanini, fieriest and most electric of conductors, is coming over to conduct some of the performances. There is a good deal of speculation as to whether he will conduct on one of the Melba Nights, for his disregard of "stars" and their whims is notorious. Melba, by the way, is now completing her memoirs which will be published shortly.

OFFER MADE TO STUFF SPECIMENS OF BIRDS AND SMALL MAMMALS

Museum Board Now in Position to Commence Collecting

At the meeting of the Museum Board last night a reply was received from a communication to the Minister of Lands in regard to natural history specimens. He had taken the matter up with Hon. William Sloan, provincial secretary, who had further passed it on to the curator of the museum, Frank Kermode. The final result is that the curator offers, with the approval of the minister, to mount a few specimens of birds or small mammals for the Prince Rupert museum provided the Prince Rupert people provide the specimens. The curator will also co-operate with the local museum in identifying specimens.

It was decided to take advantage of this offer by forwarding specimens, in which they would ask the co-operation of hunters and others. The idea of the board being to gather a representative collection of local birds and animals for educational and exhibition purposes. It was pointed out that specimens would have to be quite fresh and undamaged as they would have to be forwarded to Victoria to be skinned.

A good deal of correspondence was read relative to collections offered that might be made the nucleus of the collection here but nothing of a very definite nature was done, owing to lack of specific information.

EDMONTON ASKING CHARTER CHANGES

Wants Right to Elect Mayor for Two Years and Number of Minor Changes

EDMONTON, Mar. 25.—Edmonton is asking the Legislature for the right to elect a mayor for a two year term subject to a vote of the citizens. It is also asking for the right to impose a service tax.

Another thing the city is asking is that school trustees or the paid employees be ineligible for seats on the city council. This will also apply to any paid officer or employee of the provincial or federal government, or the employee of any body receiving city grants.

Authority to tax trucks and motor cars is among the requests as is also the right to suspend the early closing regulations on specific occasions.

The assessment of land at its fair value, having regard to the value of surrounding property is among the requests. The assessment is not to be varied on appeal if the valuation bears a fair and just proportion to the value of the lands in the vicinity.

The right to bonus industries to collect taxes from insurance companies on properties in arrears at the time of a fire, are among the chief changes asked in the charter bill before the legislature.

CHOPIN OF JAZZ IS MITJA NIKISCH

LONDON, Mar. 25.—Mitja Nikisch, the pianist and son of the famous conductor, is discovered to be the composer of the new Suite in Syncopated Rhythm which the Savoy bands are going to play at their third concert at Queen's Hall, London. His name has not yet been revealed on this side of the Atlantic because the composer is afraid of what his serious musical admirers will think of his writing for a dance orchestra—

Shop-windows on parade

IN THE quiet and comfort of your home, newspaper in hand, the shop-windows of the town's best stores pass in review. Look at that charming little hat—just the style you have been looking for, and so reasonable!

And say, isn't that coat a darling? . . . Not only do you see illustrations of the merchandise, but you are told in detail of its merits and prices. A passing panorama that may be halted and started and halted at will. A shopping trip at home!

How long do you suppose it would take you to reverse the process—to go up one street and down another, until you had visited personally every worth-while store in town? And how exhausted you would be, physically and nervously.

There's no doubt about it. The modern way to shop is to read the advertisements, then make notes of the stores and the particular offerings that appeal to you. What a lot of time and bother such a method saves. You know beforehand what you want to look at, who has it, and what you will have to pay.

Read the advertisements. Make it a daily habit. The regular reader of advertisements is better informed, makes the family budget stretch further, has more time for recreation, gets more value for her money, and profits in many other ways. Advertisements are frequently the most interesting news in the paper.

Every day these shop-windows are lined up for your inspection in this newspaper even for the Savoy-Orpheans.

Paderewski listened to some fragments of the Suite the other day, and was told of the composer's dilemma. "Child that he is," cried Paderewski. "I'd give five years to have written that. He is the Chopin of Jazz."

CHILD MARRIAGE UNITED STATES

Report on Subject Urges Need of Many Changes in Present Laws

GIRLS ELIGIBLE AT TWELVE

Need of Check on Those Who Would Marry off Their Boys and Girls

NEW YORK, Mar. 25.—There is a need for important reforms in the marriage laws and their administration, either or both, in practically every state in the United States, according to a 150-page report on "Child Marriages," issued here by the Russell Sage Foundation as the result of several years' investigation extending into 90 cities in practically every section of the country.

The report, which was prepared by Mary E. Richmond, under whose direction the study was conducted, with the collaboration of Fred S. Hall, takes the position that at this stage reforms must be effected state by state. It calls upon associations of parents, women's organizations, school authorities, ministerial associations, social workers, legislators and others interested in the problem of child marriage, to undertake the following ten steps toward a solution of this problem:

- Proposed Solution
- 1—Work toward a reasonable and enforceable minimum marriageable age law; the minimum for girls should be at least 16; in many states it is still 12.
 - 2—Procure in states which "I suffered in this way until a friend of mine who had used your now are without it a law requiring five days' advance notice of intention to marry; such a law is now in operation in eight states.

3—Put the marriage market out of business; there are at least 40 notorious Greenhorns where the exploitation and commercialism of marriage are responsible for numerous child marriages.

4—Through co-operation with adjoining states discourage hasty marriages across the state border, where out-of-town marriages are railroaded through either at the license office or the justice of the peace office, or both.

5—Know the work of your license issuers, so that the difficulties with which they are now contending single-handed may be brought to light, and that they may be encouraged to use the discretion which the laws of many states now empower them to exercise.

6—Destroy the fee system; in so far as the system of fees in lieu of salaries to license issuers survives, it interferes with the disinterested character of their service.

7—Strengthen requirements as to proof of age of applicants for marriage licenses; at present no proof of age is required in most marriage license offices and the practice of accepting affidavits leads to falsification by applicants and sometimes by their parents, making possible the marriage of children 11, 12, 13, and 14 years of age.

8—Substitute better evidence of age for affidavits; no other form of evidence is so satisfactory. Aside from birth and baptismal certificates, 16 other forms of documentary evidence of age are suggested in the report.

9—Require both applicants for a marriage license to appear in person before the marriage license issuer.

10—Harmonize the different state laws in which a minimum age is required; the minimum marriageable age should not be lower than the minimum working age, and the compulsory school attendance age should fit into both these others.

Adoption of such reforms, says the report, would act as a check upon those parents who are willing to marry off their boys and girls while they are still children. What is more important, they would protect other parents who at present never know when some designing person or impulse of the moment may spirit away the immature girl or boy from the home and make the child the victim of an administrative system which is without proper safeguards.

LOG BOOM FOR MILL HERE IN FEW DAYS FROM ALICE ARM

Within a week's time a boom containing about half a million feet of logs should arrive at the Prince Rupert Spruce Mill from Miles Donald's logging camp at Campers' Point near Alice Arm. Delivery of logs from the Abbot'sford Logging Co. at Alice Arm will commence in April if it is expected.

WAR ROMANCES END

VIENNA, Mar. 25.—It has been estimated that, of the marriages hastily contracted during the war, 80 per cent have resulted in divorce. Many of these romances began, and culminated, when officers and men came home from the front on short leaves of absence.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE OF ANYOX IS NOT NOW AN EXPERIMENT

(Granby News)

The Community League is no longer an experiment; it is now an institution. From the good it has done in Anyox and the nature of its many activities, proof is not wanting that the League is worth while.

There are still a goodly number of people here who came to Anyox before the days of the League. Being honest, they will tell you about the conditions existing in the camp prior to that time. How little there was offering in the way of entertainment, with practically no recreation facilities. Can you who have lived here during the period of the League's adolescence and its coming to stability imagine the place without some such organization catering to the athletic and other interests of the community?
