WONG FOON SING COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

CAR ROLLS OVER NEAR SMITHERS AND IS SMASHED; OCCUPANTS ESCAPE

Magistrate Commits Wong Foon Sing for Trial at Next Assize Basing Decision on English Book

Says it is his Duty Regardless of Own Opinion as to Guilt of Prisoner Unless Charge Founded on Malice

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Magistrate G. R. McQueen in the Court Grey police court yesterday afternoon committed Wong Foon Sing, the Chinese houseboy accused of murdering Janet Smith, to stand trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction. Unless a special assize is ordered he will remain in Okalla jail until next October or November.

In giving his decision very briefly, Magistrate McQueen said he had practically no choice in the matter. He based his decision for committing the Chinaman on the old English authority known as "Cittily on Criminal Law," published in 1847, to the effect that regardless of his opinion a magistrate should commit an accused unless the charge is clearly founded on malice.

The magistrate made no reference to the evidence or to counsel's arguments. Wong will remain in Okalla.

LONE TRAPPER FOUND IN LAKE
Body of Vic Cluskie of Takla Lake Found by Indians
Word has been received here of the death of Vic Cluskie, who was found drowned close to his cabin. The cabin was situated on the shore of the lake and some Indians who were passing found the body.

Last month Ernest McGorkell called at the cabin and purchased some furs from Cluskie. Constable Van Dyk of Prince George has been sent to the scene of the tragedy to get the body and bring it out and also to make investigations into the cause of death. An inquest will be held at Fort St. James by Dr. W. Ross Stone of Vanderhoof.

Last year Cluskie accidentally shot himself in the head with a gun in his cabin and underwent treatment at the Prince George hospital.

HORSES BURNED BARRACK BLAZE
From 20 to 25 Animals Lost Lives When Winnipeg Stables Destroyed
WINNIPEG, May 19.—Twenty to twenty-five horses were burned to death and the stables of the Strathcona Horse Tuxedo barracks were completely destroyed by fire early this morning. The blaze was prevented from spreading to other buildings of the barracks by throwing a continuous stream of water on the roof.

An investigation into the occurrence is being held today.

Reports from Stikine Delays Launching of Vickers Airplane Here

All was set at the dry dock this morning for the launching on the high tide of the big Vickers Viking flying boat which will carry Archibald Little, Detroit mining engineer, and his party to the Dease Lake mining fields when adverse reports regarding ice conditions on the Stikine River were received and the launching and take-off for the north were accordingly delayed. With stormy weather brewing up here today, it is possible that the machine may not get away now for several days. Col. J. Scott Williams of Montreal, officer in charge of the plane, decided that it would be better to leave the machine safe in the shelter of the big ship shed instead of launching it and leaving it moored at its buoy in the harbor at the mercy of the elements. Anyway there are still some finishing touches that may well be done before the plane is put in the water. Once the machine takes the water, she will be given test flights and, if everything goes well, the departure for the north will be taken the same day. Weather and ice conditions are the only factors now delaying the take-off.

Panic on Train at New York Results in Many Being Injured Thirty of Whom go to Hospital

NEW YORK, May 19.—At least 75 people were injured, two probably fatally, in a mad panic which swept the crowded east side subway train which was about to leave the Grand Central terminal station today. A blown fuse followed by a series of electric lamp explosions is reported to have caused the alarm.

The train jammed with humanity came to a sharp stop, throwing the passenger from their feet in confusion which grew to panic proportions as the cars began to fill with smoke. Scores of people were knocked to the floors and trampled on.

In addition to those taken to a nearby hotel for first aid, thirty were taken to the hospital.

WHALING CATCH IN SOUTH LARGE

Norwegian Fleets Take 674 Mammals and Render 5,500 Barrels of Oil
SAN DIEGO, May 19.—One of the largest whaling catches in recent years in Pacific waters was made between December 12, 1924, and April 15 of this year by two Norwegian whaling fleets based at Magdalena Bay. The catch is reported as 674 humpbacks, greybacks, blue and finbacks.

The factory steamer Mexico rendered enough blubber to secure 5,500 barrels of oil, which sold in the California market at $33 a barrel.

Miraculous Escape from Death when Automobile Somersaults Twice and Smashes into Fence

(Special to Daily News)
SMITHERS, May 19.—An auto accident in which the occupants of the car had a most miraculous escape from serious injuries occurred on Saturday evening when the car of J. E. Kirby, mining recorder, backed off the road going up the hill on the other side of the Bulkley River and turned over twice with Mr. Kirby inside before it was stopped by a fence post on the side of the hill. There were three other occupants of the car besides Mr. Kirby who was driving. They were climbing the hill and had just reached the point where it was necessary to change to low gear when the road was obstructed by some cattle. To avoid hitting them it was necessary to turn towards the bank side of the road. Just at that moment the engine stalled and the car started to back down. The foot brake did not hold securely and before the emergency could be applied effectively the car had covered the few remaining feet of the width of the road and backed over the cribbing, taking a couple of somersaults before stopping bottomside up.

FRASER RIVER RISING FAST

Is Already at Usual High Water Mark and There is Danger of Floods
NEW WESTMINSTER, May 19.—The Fraser River is rising rapidly and within a few inches of the nineteen foot mark at the Mission gauge last night. Anxiety is felt by the farming settlements, at several of the dyked areas, especially at Nicomen Island and the inhabitants are preparing to evacuate should the waters continue to rise. At Liloot the river has already reached the customary high mark much earlier than usual and should the warm weather continue floods are predicted.

It was moved by Ald. Casey W. Nicholls, local agent, 98.28, and seconded by Ald. Larsen that the highest offer be accepted and negotiations be closed by the finance committee.

A bylaw was introduced providing for payment of principal and interest of certain debentures in New York as well as Canada. This bylaw will be finally adopted at a special meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

Swimming Club Needed Badly.

The Swimming Club has in the past been one of the most useful organizations in the city. Last year it did some splendid work at the Salt Lakes in putting up new floats and diving apparatus.

Few people have as fine a place for swimming as we have right here. The slight discoloration of the water from the muskeg means nothing. All water draining from the soil in this part of the country is discolored.

All who are interested in swimming should attend the meeting tonight and see that proper steps are taken to keep up the best recreation ground Prince Rupert has.

Progressives Are Having Difficult Time.

The Progressive Party at Ottawa is having a difficult time. It is trying to make itself a party in the same sense that the Liberals and Conservatives are a party.

Wireless Not Yet Success in North.

Judging by results the wireless communication with northern points does not seem to have been a great success. A despatch from Dawson in regard to the floods was delayed almost a week.

The difficulty about wireless telegraphy in the far north seems to be the large amount of static when it is almost impossible for any system yet discovered to operate.

Wireless has its limitations. A thorough test should be made before the land lines are abandoned and the people of the far north left to the tender mercies of the radio system.

Wong Will Have To Go Up For Trial.

Wong Foon Sing, the Chinese houseboy who is charged with the murder of Janet Smith, will have to stand trial at the fall assizes. That is a very satisfactory outcome of the trial because it gives the police plenty of time to follow up all the trails and in the meantime prevent the Chinese boy from being again spirited away.

Whether Wong is guilty or not it would seem as if he must know something about the murder more than has been told and for that reason alone it is satisfactory that he is being held by order of the court until the assizes.

Value Of Friends Is Inestimable.

It is impossible to set a sufficient value on friendship. A friend is the greatest asset a person can have. Life without friends is almost unthinkable and scarcely worth living unless there is some great purpose in life that has to be carried out.

FOREST FIRES NEAR SMITHERS

Forest Department Working at Full Strength and all Available Men Conscripted

FARMS ENDANGERED

Standing Timber Saved Through Strenuous Efforts of Fire Fighters

(Special to Daily News) SMITHERS, May 19. — This section of the Bulkley Valley is going through a period of exceptionally hot weather and as a result a number of forest fires have broken out that are giving considerable work to control.

Smithers is the centre of a group of fires, to fight which every man in town that could be spared has been conscripted. On Thursday a fire near Lake Kathleen had got beyond control and a large gang of men were immediately rushed down there. Then on Friday a call came in from Canyon Creek for help and by Saturday noon a gang of about 100 men were fighting a fire of huge proportions that was threatening the Carr Bros. and Turner ranches.

On Saturday it was a fire between Evelyn and Doughty that made a call on the Forestry Department and another gang of fire fighters were set to work to protect the timber in that section. On Sunday this fire was still burning but had been checked considerably by Monday morning.

On Sunday dense clouds of smoke were seen ascending from a new point which was found to be at Spring Hill about 14 miles west of Smithers on the Hazelton road, although this fire was raging fiercely during the middle of the day it had died down some by the evening as it was reaching a part of the hill where the snow was still in the green timber.

The Forestry officials have been going night and day as, in addition to organizing the work of fighting the fires, men have to be obtained and transportation arranged, camps erected and provisions and supplies sent out to the different points.

PLAYGROUND ASSISTANCE

Gyro Club Had Delegation Before City Council Last Night on Westview Park Plans

A delegation from the Prince Rupert Gyro Club consisting of H. F. McNaughton, L. W. Waugh and S. W. Taylor waited on the city council last night asking for financial or material assistance to the extent of $500 in connection with the club's project for the installation of playground equipment this year on the city's park site in Westview.

Mr. McNaughton, spokesman for the delegation, stated that the original plan of the club in connection with Westview Park had been dropped on account of the cost that would be involved in clearing and levelling off the ground. Now it was proposed to use a space 400 feet long fronting on Atlin Avenue and 75 feet deep.

equipment in Westview Park. No caretaker would be needed there, as was the case in McClymont Park where there was a swimming pool.

Casey in Favor. Ald. Casey felt that the council should give an expression of opinion on the matter. Personally he approved of the work that the Gyro Club was doing and, though no provision had been made in the estimates, he would be in favor of the city meeting any reasonable expenditure in assisting to provide the playground. He had thought that the city might turn over a couple of tax sale lots to the Gyro Club to raffle or otherwise dispose of so that the money necessary for the grading of the ground might be raised.

Ald. Perry pointed out to Ald. Casey that the Westview site had been selected because it was a city park site.

City Solicitor Jones said that the club would not be permitted to raffle lots as suggested by Ald. Casey. The latter then suggested that the city sell a couple of tax sale lots, the proceeds to be used in the work requested.

Ald. Perry was in favor of advancing the money to the Gyro Club, the lots to be sold later by the city.

Mayor Newton pointed out that it had been impossible to vote more than $150 for the improvement of the Acropolis Hill grounds. It would seem unfair to make a grant to the Gyro Club when the athletic organizations of the city had to be refused.

Stephens in Favor. Ald. Stephens did not think that the requests of the athletic associations and the Gyro Club came in the same category at all. The former, through the use of Acropolis Hill grounds, derived revenue through gate receipts. There was no means for the Gyro Club to obtain revenue in this way. The equipment was purely for the use of little youngsters. He was in favor of the city doing anything it possibly could in the way of financial assistance and suggested that the sum of $295 which had recently been paid by the club to the city on McClymont Park account be remitted.

Ald. Brown agreed with Ald. Stephens that the Acropolis Hill matter and the Gyro Club's proposition could hardly be compared. It would require many thousands of dollars to put Acropolis Hill in the desired shape. He moved that the question be referred to the finance committee. This was seconded by Ald. McKechnie and carried.

It is a hearty breakfast

when it comes to nutrition, but a light breakfast when it comes to digestion. Shredded Wheat contains all the body-building elements in the whole wheat grain prepared in a digestible form. The crisp, flavory shreds of oven-baked whole wheat encourage thorough chewing, and that means perfect digestion. Contains more real nutriment than meat or eggs. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat—saves fuel, saves time, saves money. Two Biscuits with milk make a perfect meal at a cost of a few cents.

Fruit, Flowers and Happy People Greet Weston Coyney in His New Home at Kamloops; Has Friends

"I feel stronger every day and am much encouraged. I am really and truly going to be very happy here and I shall be wonderfully well as soon as I am rested, etc.," says Weston Coyney, pioneer journalist of this city, in writing from his new home at Kamloops.

"I was at Prince Weston to Vancouver and beyond," says Mr. Coyney. "I arrived as played out as a real man is at the 58th round." He then goes on to tell of details in connection with his admission to his new home.

"I like the place, and especially the system. I was impressed with the company I met in the general reading room—everybody was so well behaved, more so than in any gentlemen's club I have ever known.

Not Many Signs
"Now you would naturally expect to see a place like this plastered with more verboten signs than was Berlin after the war broke out but it is not. In each room there is a black square on which is painted in big white letters: "No smoking in bed." Another sign says: "Too much drink aboard means fines or imprisonment." That tells a whole column, doesn't it?

"I have not seen the superintendent yet and shall not attempt to write of the system until I do. I feel confident that it is the greatest and best ever devised and, as a reporter, I have investigated lunatic asylums, jails and other public institutions.

"There is glorious sunshine and the fruit trees are all a-bloom. The deep green of the lawn is dotted with golden dandelions.

"I have a chum now. He is a jolly faced little big man and was a blond before the blizzard took off his roofing. He cannot read so we are unable to converse.

Acquires a Pet
"I have also acquired a pet—a big white cat. She strolled into the reading room and I picked her up, scratched her ears and throat and talked pretty to her. When I got up, she gave a soft little cry, looked very wistfully at me and when I opened the door she stuck up her tail like a mast and made all sail after me. I went straight to my room, threw her on the bed and treated her real rough. She caught my thumb with her mouth gave it a gentle squeeze and then I felt her raspy tongue going over it. When the breakfast bell rang this morning, I found her outside the door. She rubbed herself against my ankle and purred. Then she raised her mast and piloted me down the long corridor with several twists in it and a short flight of stairs, straight to the dining hall. When I can walk better, I shall go in to the woods and get her some catnip. Did you ever see a cat madly rolling on a little catnip sprinkled on the floor? They do that to keep the fleas off them. I can hear the bell for lunch. More this afternoon.....

"Soon after lunch I met with a fine Airedale and I was about to seek his acquaintance when I paused to give the matter more consideration. You know the Airedale is intensely British. If I sought to force myself upon his acquaintance, he might hold it against me ever after. I must wait until I can be properly introduced and the only person who can give me a proper introduction that would be at all likely to prove acceptable would be his master."

Meets Old Friend
Mr. Coyney is continuing the writing of a book which he started in the Prince Rupert were then, and how far they have removed. Mr. Pierce says he remembers seeing a slave girl quartered on the beach, and eaten by the medicine men as a mark of honor at one of the feasts.

His Pastoral Charges

From that welter of savagery he came to Victoria when it was a city of wooden houses, with logs on the present downtown streets, and after determining to be an evangelist, he studied under Rev. William Pollard. Eventually he began his mission, being ordained at the first conference held here in 1887, and at times has opened missions at Simpson, the Naas, Skeena River, Kispiox, Essington, Bella Coola, Rivers Inlet and other coast points. His lifetime covers the whole period of civilization of the Coast tribes. He remembers when it took a month by canoe from his northern home to Victoria, and when they had to form an escort of canoes to escape the angry Cape Mudge, Indians in the Seymour Narrows.

Of the Indians and their future, he declares himself against the system of making them the wards of the Federal Government. He declares for enfranchising as well as educating them and forcing them to be independent instead of dependent. He says it has killed the initiative of the Indians, and destroyed their progress.

DELIGHTFUL TEA AND SALE HELD

Catholic Ladies' Aid Realized $45 at Affair in Home of Mrs. A. E. Wakefield

The tea and sale held by the Catholic ladies at the home of Mrs. A. E. Wakefield, Fourth Avenue West, yesterday afternoon was a most delightful affair, something in the neighborhood of $45 being realized.

Mrs. Harold McEwen, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. Wakefield received; Mrs. B. Curran and Mrs. D. W. Morrissey presided. Mrs. James McNulty was in charge of the sewing table; Mrs. J. Arthur Smith refreshments; Mrs. J. H. Meagher, home cooking, and Mrs. Wilfrid Gratton, raffles; Mrs. Hubert Ward was cashier. Those assisting included Mrs. J. Lorne MacLaren, Mrs. Charles P. Balagoo, Mrs. G. W. Nickerson and Mrs. F. P. Kenny.

The musical program of the afternoon included numbers by a quartette consisting of Consul Wakefield, S. K. Campbell, J. E. Davey and S. G. Jackson and piano selections by Mrs. F. P. Kenny.

The hall table, raffled in connection with the spring sale, was won by Mrs. A. S. Lewis with ticket number 6 and a pair of pillowslips was won by Mrs. McNulty with ticket number 42.

SMITHERS

A novel birthday party was enjoyed by a number of girls on Saturday afternoon when Avis Wall in celebration of her 14th birthday invited her friends to accompany her down to Lake Kathleen, where a most enjoyable time was spent at bathing, games and contests followed by a tea served on the grassy slope on the lake shore.

R. L. Gale acting for the sheriff conducted an auction sale at the hardware store of R. C. Mutch on Friday and Saturday afternoons. At first it was the intention to sell a part of the stock to cover a claim of $300 but other creditors took action and the entire stock is now being sold, the sale being continued this week.

DOES EVERY MEAL CAUSE YOU DISTRESS?

IF IT DOES YOU SHOULD TAKE BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Mr. M. P. Eldridge, Beaver Harbor, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with my stomach for some time, and everything I ate seemed to distress me. I tried many different medicines, but without any results. Finally I was advised to try B.B.B., and after having taken several bottles I was completely relieved of my trouble. I can now eat anything I wish, thanks to B.B.B."

Burdock Blood Bitters puts the stomach into perfect shape by promoting proper digestion; and during the past 46 years it has been on the market has made a reputation, second to none, for relieving all stomach troubles. Put up only by The T. Muburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

How to Play Football

Different ways of dribbling for forwards and halves--taking the tackle

(By "Andy" Ducat, Manager of Fulham Club.)
(Reprinted from "Greenock Herald")

This season there is less dribbling in football than ever. Yesterday I heard a captain speak severely to a back because he attempted to dribble the ball at all instead of clearing it as though it were red hot.

When the defence consisted of three players, a back, and the goalkeeper—this was before my active career as a player—the chief glory of a forward was to dribble the ball clean through the opposing ranks. This was a magnificent achievement, and the dribbler was awarded vast applause.

Today there are six defenders, and the man who tries to dribble clean through them deserves what he gets. This alteration in the form of the soccer team began the decay of dribbling, and the new short passing combined with the tactic of backing up the man with the ball, turned it into a lost art. I am not sure that this is a good thing. The good dribbler used to be a sure shot; achieving a break through, he finished his work in grand style by netting the ball. Today no one man runs the ball down and nets it as well. "Leave it to you, partner" is the impression you get of much modern football, and this way of thinking is the cause of a lot of the present shilly-shallying in front of the goal.

Dribbling and Shooting

When a man dribbled the ball all the way down, he knew exactly who was expected to net it—himself. Today a brisk forward runs the ball down by a concerted effort and falls at the goal mouth. Every man is inclined to leave the responsibility of shooting to somebody else.

There are teams of which this is not true, but many of the men engaged in training and coaching football teams find this tendency to leave the shooting to the next man a difficulty that has to be overcome.

Team work—short passing and the like—is splendid. But one man, and one man alone, has to do the shooting, and that is why so many concerted efforts end in failure.

I have already given my considered opinion that an amateur team must keep the game open if it would win. Few amateur teams have the balanced side needed for the close game, nor the time for the consistent practice that short passing demands. The open game, in which the ball is swung across from wing to wing, means that dribbling will be used to help the ball down. No back should dribble, but the forward—especially the wing forwards—must acquire the art.

Straight Runs

Good dribbling is straight dribbling. The man who threads a zig-zag course round the opposition is too slow for modern football. Yet we even see amateur forwards turn to run backwards in order to get round a pair of defenders. That won't do.

Tackling with most opponents is not so highly scientific that you cannot dribble a ball straight for some distance at least without being robbed. The ideal is a speedy dribble for as long as dribbling is possible, then a pass out when the defence becomes too hot for one man to hold.

First the forward who is dribbling must determine to keep straight ahead. If he goes fast he can run the ball a long way before he is tackled, and one tackler ought not to make him turn.

Body balance is everything in dribbling. It enables you to keep the ball close to your feet, and so long as your weight is well balanced you are not easily charged off the ball. Body balance implies that you propel the ball when it is underneath you.

Beware of Counterfeits

That is you don't have to reach forward to touch it. The moment you have to stretch for the ball, you lose your balance. What you want to do is to keep your knee over the top of the ball. The ball, of course, is not kicked but pushed along by using the side of the boot.

Keep over the ball and go as fast as you possibly can without losing control over it.

Taking the Tackle

The only time when you allow yourself to be diverted from the straight path is when a man comes head on at you to tackle. Here, if he is running fast, it pays to let him get almost on to you and then kick the ball round him. You will be able to get round after it before he has time to pull himself up and turn. This is particularly so on a slippery field.

When a man runs up to the side of you to edge you off the ball, it pays to let him get near—draw him away from your inside man—and then give a forward pass that your inside man can run after and reach.

Dribbling as far as half-backs are concerned is a tactic adopted not so much to run the ball down as to make an opening in the field. A clever half will dribble the ball until he has compelled two of the defenders to close in on him. While they are round him, they must have left another part of the field open. The duty of the forward is to run to this spot, always, of course, keeping outside, making himself ready to receive the pass that the half has planned for.

Backs never dribble. While a back dribbles in front of his goal he wastes valuable time. He ought to pass the ball out. When a back dribbles in mid-field and is robbed—where is the defence as the opposing forwards run the ball past him?

CALLIES BEAT WAR VETERANS

Football Game Last Night Marred by Fighting—Score Was 5 to 2

Last night's Stuart Shield football game between the Callies and Great War Veterans was marred by fighting which resulted in Brick Skinner and Dave Scott being ordered off the field and the most of the match being a ten-a-side affair with the players on both teams being in a more or less argumentative mood which was not conducive to the best of soccer. The score was 5 to 2 in favor of the Callies.

At the outset good football was played with the Callies having the edge. Dave Scott made the two opening goals for the Scots off corner kicks. The Vets were awarded a penalty shot which was successfully negotiated by S. Erskine. The Callies also got a penalty but McDougall lost the shot by hitting the goal post and the half ended with Callies up 2 to 1.

Vets Lose Heart

Ten or fifteen minutes after the opening of the second half differences arose between Skinner and Scott and blows were exchanged. This resulted in both men being ordered off the field by the referee and a ten-man game ensuing with the Vets playing one man back.

The second half was played poorly by the Vets who seemed to lose heart after the Callies had scored again through McDougall on a corner kick from Alex Mitchell. The fourth for the Scots came when Sam Currie was awarded a penalty. Norwood scored the second for the Vets and the fifth and last for the Callies was made from close in by McDougall.

For the Veterans, Barton, full back, G. Mitchell, centre half, and Erskine and Norwood on the forward line were the stars. All the Callies played well with the forward line showing good combination and the defence strong.

G. S. Russell refereed. H. Hanson and James Simpson were linesmen, and the teams lined up as follows:

Great War Veterans—Gawthorn; Barton and Cochrane; Skinner, George Mitchell and Mack; Russell, Norwood, Erskine, Campbell and Gurvich.

Callies—W. Hamilton; R. Woods and W. E. Williscroft; J. Sims, S. Currie and James Harris; A. Mitchell, R. McDougall, D. Scott, W. Mitchell and J. Andrews.

League standing to date is as follows:

	W.	D.	L.	Pts.
Callies	2	1	0	5
S. of E.	1	2	0	4
G.W.V.A.	0	1	3	1

TENNIS CLUB FOR SMITHERS

Racket Welders Sever Connections with Athletic Association and Set up for Selves

SMITHERS, May 19.—A meeting of the tennis enthusiasts was held in the lounge room at the G.W.V.A. club on Thursday evening at which it was decided to sever connections with the Smithers Athletic Club and form an independent organization.

The present Athletic Club was formed at a meeting held in 1921 by the old Citizens Association, when it was decided that all branches of sport should be amalgamated under one governing body, and have the one membership fee cover participation in all sports. This system does not seem to have been satisfactory with tennis however and the tennis players after the meeting on Thursday night formed a new club with R. L. Gale as secretary-treasurer, and a grounds committee consisting of H. Welch, Geo. Heffernan and J. G. Stephens. Tennis should have a good year, there are a number of new players that were not here last year, and as the season advances it is likely that matches will be arranged with the players in other towns along the line.

Sport Chat

Plans are being made to open the baseball season next Monday (Empire Day) in connection with the celebration to be staged by the Elks and Fair Board. Though definite arrangements have not yet been made, it is expected there will be a three team loop in the city this year with the Sons of Canada and the Sawmill already entered, and a team sponsored by the Gyro Club likely to be the third. Fans are looking forward, as soon as the material is organized and placed, to a series of games that will be as interesting as those staged in any season of the past.

In a series with the Lakeviews of Chicago, the Commercial Grads, Edmonton's crack ladies' basketball team and champions of the world for the past few years, were given the first real battle they have had in many a moon. In the final game on Thursday night, the Grads were victorious 22 to 13, winning the round by 51 to 27. The Lakeviews are regarded as the strongest ladies' basketball organization in the United States.

The New York Giants are away to a pretty good lead in the National Baseball League having been ahead of Chicago by ten games at the end of the week. Only three teams are above the 500 mark in the league standing. Cincinnati being the third. In the American League, Connie Mack's Philadelphia team is holding a rather narrow margin of leadership over the second place Washington Senators, champions of the world. The New York Yankees, undoubtedly suffering from the absence of Babe Ruth, are in seventh place

Mrs. J. H. Hallenbeck, 117 1/2 Welland Avenue, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"I was in a gas explosion; it left me with a weak heart, and my nerves were all gone. I suffered everything; couldn't sleep, or endure any excitement, and when left alone I felt as if I could scream. I took dizzy spells, often falling and bruising myself. My mother read about your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and bought me a box, but having taken so many different kinds of medicine it just seemed that I did not have any confidence in any of them. I took one box of H. & N. Pills, and felt so much better I continued with them until I had used five boxes, and after I had taken them I did not need any more. I cannot praise, or recommend, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills too highly after all they have done for me."

The Man in the Moon

OH I like to visit
The second salt lake
And there a peep
At the beauties take.
For the Rupert girls
Are pretty as can be
But only at the lake
Can you all of them see.

If a girl shows her garters on the street some of the prudish say she is immodest, but at the salt lake she does not need garters. That seems like a distinction without a difference.

IT'S a wonder there are not more corpses at Fairview considering the number of cold cures people recommend their neighbors.

The following communication has been received: "Dear Man in the Moon:—Your stuff's rotten. Why don't you make a joke sometimes. Say something bright about the city council and the way they draw their pay every month for serving the public so faithfully, and the mayor for being such a good mixer and the merchants for being such rustlers and going out for business and not getting it, and the president of the Board of Trade for going to run for member, and the tennis players for running around with their little bats, and the bats the other people go on, and the drunks on the streets and the mayor that does not see them, and the boozemen that make money out of them, and all kinds of things I could write about. If you can't do it hire me. I could make it snappy and, you bet it would be funny enough.—Smithy."

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

One of those clean, virile, pulse-stirring dramas, for which Zane Grey is famous, produced under the personal supervision of the author. A swift-moving story of the Southern Idaho Border and of the notorious band of marauders who ruled it.
