WHEAT PRICES ARE AGAIN ON THE JUMP

HALIBUT BOATS MAY CLEAR FOR BANKS PRIOR TO END OF CLOSE SEASON

Wheat Prices Still Climbing Rapidly to Point Well Beyond $2

WINNIPEG, Jan. 27.—The wheat boom is still on. The bulls are pushing the prices up. Wheat on the Winnipeg exchange continued a steady upward climb this morning, the post war record again going by the boards when the price touched 207½ a bushel on a veritable avalanche of buying. The advance today represents a gain of 2½ cents a bushel over yesterday's close. The advance should mean a good deal to the farmers of the prairie provinces, many of whom still stand to gain through the wheat still held by the pool. A few farmers will still have their own wheat but not many, the majority being forced to sell as soon as it is threshed.

The price of flour is likely soon to be affected by the move.

Robbers and Slayers Bailed Second Time in Efforts to Get Free

SEATTLE, Jan. 27.—For the second time within three weeks Sheriff Starwick frustrated an attempt to release a number of alleged dangerous criminals when fifteen saws were found in a package of tobacco sent to King County jail by a woman.

Starwick declared that the attempt was "backed by a $20,000 fund raised in British Columbia" to release several prisoners held for the Nanaimo Bank robbery and for liquor hi-jacking and double slayings aboard the Canadian schooner Beryl G.

The thermometer registers 60 degrees below zero here and 70 at Mayo.

BOOTLEGGERS SUSPICIOUS

SEATTLE, Jan. 27.—There is much speculation in local bootlegging circles over the appearance on the local market of a brand of liquor known to have been in the cargo of the schooner Speedway, which went up in flames and sank off Cape Flattery Saturday.

It is said that the brand on the Speedway liquor is so seldom seen as to be unique here.

Princess Kathleen Makes Maiden Voyage

On her preliminary trials the "Princess Kathleen", built at the Clydesbank yards of John Brown and Company for service on the Canadian Pacific run between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, accomplished all that was expected of her, and the Canadian engineers and other officers who conducted the trials and who will bring this and a sister ship, the "Princess Marguerite", still under construction to Vancouver, expressed themselves as being entirely satisfied. With a speed of 22½ knots the new steamships will considerably reduce time between ports. Built with the object of speeding up and affording even better and more convenient service than is now offered, the two Princesses will be, without a shadow of doubt, the most elaborate yet tastefully beautiful vessels operating on the Pacific Coast. Three hundred and sixty-eight feet in length, their lines were specially designed for the service to which they will be put and those who have seen the new vessels describe them as being beyond comparison with any others of their kind. Five decks are given over to the accommodation of the passengers, whose private quarters and public rooms are most spacious and luxuriously fitted up. The "Princess Kathleen" sailed from the Clyde on January 15, expecting to complete the journey to Vancouver in about thirty days, her route being via the Azores, the West Indies and the Panama, where she will pick up fuel oil. She will be placed in passenger service soon after her arrival. The "Princess Marguerite" is scheduled to leave the Clyde on March 15.

ELECTRIC GIRL IN ENGLAND IS LIKE A MAGNET

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 27.—An "electrical girl" has been discovered at Keighley, Leeds. She is a mill worker, but recently whenever she approached a spinning frame threads began to break and the machine ran as if acting against some magnetic opposition. Directly the girl left the vicinity of the machine it became normal again. "This is the first case of its kind I have heard of," the manager said. "The girl has broken down under the strain of her experiences."

Fishing Vessels May Clear for Halibut Banks Few Days Before End of Close Season Announced

Halibut fishing will not start until after midnight of February 15 but for this year boats will be allowed to leave a few days before that date so that they may reach the halibut banks ready for fishing as soon as the season opens. Information to this effect has been received by the local fisheries department.

It was generally understood that boats would not be allowed to clear before February 16, but this regulation has been amended and fishermen will, as a result, get away a few days earlier than was expected. The following wire in connection with it has been received from W. A. Found, director of fisheries at Ottawa by Adam Mackie, fisheries inspector.

"As the amendment to United States legislation so as to prevent their halibut fishing vessels leaving port during the close season is not likely to be passed in time this year, our customs officers are being instructed to grant clearance to halibut fishing vessels from British Columbia ports during the close season this year but no halibut caught prior to February 16 may be landed."

ALDER PLEASED WITH RESULT AT OAK BAY

Municipal Voters League Represented in Council: Will Run Again

The following letter from W. J. Alder to the editor of the Victoria Times appears in the Victoria paper:

"To the Editor:—Permit me through your columns to express my sincere appreciation of the very fair way in which you have treated the contest for reevehip in Oak Bay and also of those taxpayers who honored me with their support at the polls and otherwise.

"Although unsuccessful, I may be pardoned if I feel elated that far more than half the total votes cast at many previous elections in recent years gave me their confidence, and they must have been ninety-nine per cent from my fellow-residents of Oak Bay.

"I am delighted that our Oak Bay Municipal Voters' League, though organized less than a week, is firmly in the saddle in the Council, on the School Board and on the Police Commission. With the league I shall work during the coming season for the upbuilding of Oak Bay."

"This is the first time that I have appealed for public office in the municipality, and if occasion arises in the near future I hope to secure a still larger support so as to be able to render genuine service to the community."

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—Hon. Geo. P. Graham, acting prime minister, replying to a delegation urging a reduction of the income tax, stated that the Government last year reduced the sales taxation to the extent of $24,000, hoping increased business would make up for the decrease, but the expectation had not been realized.

The Postmaster General announced there would be a reduction of foreign postal rates from ten to eight cents effective in October.

Herrin Again
In The Limelight.

Herrin is again in the limelight. That Illinois town has been heard from often. The people there seem to have the crime habit. The factions hate each other and are ready to kill. It is said that to such an extent is the hate carried that a man or woman will spurn the corpse of a dead enemy. The condition is a deplorable one and the Ku Klux Klan is an organization that will fatten upon such conditions.

Liquor Running
Not Successful.

Liquor running on the coast does not seem to be meeting with much success. Two of the larger craft are in the hands of the United States and the third has just been destroyed by fire on the high seas, the cargo going down with it. Possibly this will put a stop to the business much more rapidly than interference by the Canadian authorities. It has been stated that if one had to wait for interference by Canadian authorities the rum running would still be a flourishing industry in the year 2,000.

Again Delving In An Egyptian Tomb.

Howard Carter is again delving in the musty tomb of the great King Tutankhamen. This time it is being done under the supervision of the Egyptian government, which seems a perfectly correct thing. It is likely, though, that had it depended on the Egyptian government the tomb would never have been excavated. It was only when the British workers began to find treasure that the Egyptians stepped in and wanted a share of it.

Were Any Of Our Ancestors Hogs?

Some of our ancestors in the remote past must have been hogs, else why do so many people still cling to the hog habits. Some wallow in all the filth that is available, while others try to get everything for themselves. There is scarcely a game or sport at which some player does not want more than his share. In football he hogs the ball and refuses to pass to his neighbor, the same occurs in basketball. In badminton the trait shows itself in one trying to get more than his share of games while others are waiting to play. Everywhere one goes the hog is found. Civilization does not remove him or culture cover him. He gets his jowl in the trough every time and helps himself to more than his share at the expense of the others. Possibly our system of business, as carried on today, is partly responsible.

They Also Wallow
In The Filth.

The hogs, besides being selfish in the extreme, like to wallow in the mire. If there is anything dirty they want to be in it. If an off-color story is being told, the hog is there with his loud guffaw. It is the animal in us continually cropping out and in some cases engrossing the whole life.

Selfishness is possibly something for which we are not responsible. We are born that way. At the same time environment and cultivation of the opposite virtues may either remove the hoggish tendencies or so far eliminate them that they do not make us wholly objectionable to our neighbors and that we do not bring up our children to be swine.

Probably many people do not know that they are hogs and have never tried to eliminate the tendencies. They will go on through life with their dirty feet in the trough, always trying to get more than their share of everything while others will live lean lives because they have been crowded out by the hogs.

Anglican Church Committee Appointed to Take the Necessary Steps

OFFICERS ELECTED

Spirit of Optimism Prevailed at Annual Vestry Meeting Last Night

With the object of installing a pipe organ in the St. Andrew's Anglican Church, which is now being completed, a committee was last night appointed at the annual vestry meeting to take steps toward the purchase of one. There is already the sum of $1100 in a fund set apart for that purpose. Archdeacon Rix presided and a spirit of optimism prevailed. Officers elected were:

Glossyman's warden, H. T. Cross.

People's Warden, A. E. Bazett-Jones.

See-Treas., W. G. Orchard.

Auditor, G. V. Evitt.

Delegates to Synod: Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, Thomas Andrew and A. E. Bazett-Jones.

Sidesmen: H. T. Gross, A. E. Bazett-Jones, W. G. Orchard.

Sheriff Shirley, Thomas Andrew, E. W. Tucker, G. W. Homer, G. A. Woodland, S. Bazett-Jones, A. G. Rix.

Scoutmaster, A. Wootton.

Sunday School Superintendent, C. W. Tucker.

Caretaker, John Carroll.

Organist, Miss Marjorie Lancaster.

Choir leaders, W. E. Fisher and Mrs. Akroyd.

Reports from the treasurer, from the Women's auxiliary, Sunday school and choir were all most encouraging. The hope was expressed that the new church would be occupied about Easter.

Hearly votes of thanks were given the many persons and organizations that had contributed to the success of the year's work and a resolution of confidence and appreciation in the Rector was passed by a standing vote.

It was reported that the money for the window to be erected in the chancel as a memorial to the late Archbishop was nearly all in hand and besides this several people had offered to put in memorial windows in other parts of the church.

USING RADIO FOR POLICE PURPOSES

Photographs Would Prove Invaluable in Detection of Crime

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—An instance of the part radio will ultimately play in police work is the fact that an international code for radio use has been completed after several months' work, and is now in actual use between the guardians of law in America and Canadian cities. This was spoken of in a recent address by Chief Dickson of Toronto.

Remarking that a police force was now an international organization, he said this code would enable messages to be broadcast to police everywhere without the ordinary listener-in being able to understand them.

Newly discovered methods of sending photographs by radio would be of invaluable assistance to the police, the chief declared. The picture of a wanted man would be flashed all over Europe and America in a few hours if future developments of this invention proceeded as expected.

C. V. Evitt sails this evening on the Cardena for Vancouver on a business trip.

C. W. Cutforth, I.B.S.A. lecturer, sails this afternoon on the Cardena for Vancouver.

Robert Allen of North Vancouver arrived from the south on the Princess Mary yesterday afternoon. He came north to put in a tender for Wallace's on repairs to C.G.M.M. steamer Canadian Rover.

Passengers booked to sail this evening on the steamer Cardena for Vancouver include Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver for Bella Bella; C. W. Cutforth, C. V. Evitt, Miss A. Moss, Miss O. Morgan and J. Moran for Vancouver.

It has not yet been decided who will do repairs on C.G.M.M. freighter Canadian Rover which is in dry dock here. Seven plates are affected and the stem is also twisted. The job is thus not very extensive although there is competition for it.

Capt. William Oliver, master of the Methodist mission boat Thomas Crosby, sails tonight on the Cardena for Bella Bella to rejoin his craft. For the past few weeks he has been ill in the local hospital. Mrs. Oliver, who arrived a fortnight ago from the Queen Charlotte Islands, will go south with him.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary, northbound from Vancouver to Skagway, was in port last evening from 4 o'clock until 9:50. The vessel unloaded two automobiles at the ocean dock, lumber for the dry dock and considerable general cargo. Leaving here she had about 60 passengers for the north.

COST OF ELEVATOR

The actual contract for the elevator foundation, according to special despatches to the southern papers was $222,000.

Sons of Canada—Vic Menzies, Harry Menzies, R. B. Skinner, G. Hill and Alex Mitchell.

Intermediate League

The Colts again improved their position in the Intermediate League with a handy victory over the Regiment. Alex Mitchell refereed and the players were:

Regiment—W. Horrobin, S. Bazett-Jones, C. McKeown, Spiro Gurvich, Albert Palmer and H. Floyd.

Colts—W. Wrathall, A. Phillips, Chester Clapp, Douglas Frizzell and E. McLean.

TRAINING FOR FOOTBALL

Good Advice to Amateurs, much of which would apply to all Athletes

(By "Andy" Dueat, Manager of Fulham Club.)

(Reprinted from "Greenock Herald")

Football is so much a game of the strong and swift that perfect condition in every member of the team is essential.

Practice in sprinting helps your speed. To kick a ball up against a wall is test for your skill. "Pick-up" games reveal the strength and weaknesses of individual players. Every team should meet two or three times a week. If funds run to it a hall may well be hired.

Your training is in four parts:

"Keeping Fit." — Follow the rules of sensible living every day.

Training—Be careful not to overdo it. Half-an-hour two or three times a week is enough.

Practice—Just as much ball practice as you can get in.

Diet—Don't.

Skipping is marvellous practice for football. There's nothing feminine about skipping. Dempsey is an expert at it. Ball-punching, too, plays a big part in the training of professional footballers. Morning—when mind and body are fresh—is the best time for training. Nearly all amateur teams are compelled to meet in the evenings after a day's work. That is why my earnest advice to trainers is: "Be careful!"

Tiring training—especially of youngsters—is not good for them.

When Athletes Crack

You can train a sprinter up to a pitch where, having broken the hundred yards record, he cracks and takes a long rest. This is good enough for men who are called upon to produce their best only a few times a year. Footballers, however, play regularly for long stretches week after week. Artificial training is deadly. Footballers must never be forced.

Walking is fine exercise. It brings into play muscles used heavily in football. There's a lot of difference, though, between a walk and a stroll. Brisk walking should be indulged in every day by individual members of the team. You don't need a gymnasium to walk in.

Once a week is enough for sprinting. I am talking now of amateurs who have other work to do, not professionals.

Skipping and ball punching provide a lot of fun and may be undertaken as often as you can get your men together.

What Footballers Eat

You might, without dieting yourself, cultivate the habit of taking the other way when second helpings of pudding are about, and asking for more when the meat is lean. Rice—one of the foods we normally dislike—is extremely nourishing for footballers. Such foods as bread and butter and cheese ought not to be eaten before a match. Beading the ball to each other from various angles is also splendid practice.

Even if you cannot get your team out for practice on weekdays, you need never despair while individual players are working for improvement. Private practice is more important than people think.

Team practice is not quite so good as it is sometimes considered to be.

Should you diet? Certainly not. Personally, I have never found it necessary to give up any food I enjoyed. But then I never was a devotee of pastries and chocolates.

Young men who live on dry toast because they play football, however, deserve what they get.

Health experts recommend water. I know a footballer who makes for the tap immediately he gets up and stays there for ten minutes. Most players, however, find liquid in large quantities rather weakening. If you must drink, drink water. Ale is a fine tonic, and a number of sturdy fellows seem to thrive on it.

Toronto would seem to be the "golfies" city in the Dominion. The Queen City has 21 clubs. Dry toast is best. Fish and boiled mutton are also excellent.

Ginger beer, but not too much of it, is popular beverage with all athletes. A lemon—without sugar—is the best refresher of all.

Players who get plenty of fresh air—sleeping with the windows wide open—find more staying power than over-trained athletes. The effect of getting up early in the morning is astonishing. The Prince of Wales.

Mr. W. P. Eldridge, Beaver Harbor, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with my stomach for some time, and everything I ate seemed to distress me. I tried many different medicines, but without any results. Finally I was advised to try B.B.B., and after having taken several bottles I was completely relieved of my trouble. I can now eat anything I wish thanks to B.B.B."

Burdock Blood Bitters puts the stomach into perfect shape by promoting proper digestion; and during the past 46 years it has been on the market has made a reputation, second to none, for relieving all stomach troubles.

who lives an unusually trying life, is always out and about by seven o'clock.

Professional teams are more systematically trained than amateurs. You must remember, however, that what is good for a professional may be too much for men with a day's work behind them. That is why I recommend sensible living and plenty of practice for amateurs.

Sport Chat

A New York sport writer states that Tex Rickard expects to match Jack Dempsey for a title bout with either Tom Gibbons or Harry Wills, in spite of the champion's announcement that he will retire from the ring and marry this spring.

Rickard's plan would be to match Dempsey in a return go with Gibbons early in June. If victorious, the titleholder then would be sought for the long-awaited bout with Wills, negro challenger, in September. If the champion declines more than one bout, however, Rickard will give him a choice of either Gibbons or Wills as an opponent.

Tommy Gibbons will accept a match in London with Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight, if the National Boxing Club will guarantee him $75,000 and $3,000 expenses. According to Gibbons' manager, "Peggy" Bettinson, a well known London sportsman, has made a bid for the match, and is quoted in a cable from London as saying he new what Firpo was worth, but did not know what Gibbons was worth, or was not sure of it. This authority figures that Firpo is worth $25,000 and would be lucky if he got that much. Record books ought to show Bettinson how much Gibbons is worth and how much Firpo is worth. Gibbons went 15 rounds with Jack Dempsey and Firpo did not last two rounds. Firpo was punched into jelly by Charley Weinert. Eddie Kaine said "Firpo doesn't want to fight Gibbons He's appearing so willingly in London and Paris because he knows that Gibbons is worth more money and might not accept the offer. He's pulling the ready stuff purely for publicity if the London promoters want Tom Gibbons, they'll have to meet his terms. It is not our fault if they cannot pay as much money as American promoters can for an important match. They know our terms and it is now up to them."

360 GOLF CLUBS THROUGHOUT CANADA

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—These are 360 golf clubs in Canada according to the latest estimate. As a large number of clubs are to be started this spring, 400 would be a conservative estimate of the number by the end of 1925.

Ontario leads the provinces with 123 clubs, Quebec has 53, Alberta 48, Saskatchewan 47, Manitoba 38, British Columbia 28, Nova Scotia 13, New Brunswick 9, and Prince Edward Island one.

Toronto would seem to be the "golfies" city in the Dominion. The Queen City has 21 clubs. Dry toast is best. Fish and boiled mutton are also excellent.

Among Decker Lake visitors recently were Mrs. F. Carroll, Miss Beatrice Harrison and P. Carroll.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Carr, of Burns Lake, at the Telkwa hospital on Jan. 18.

Twenty-two people crowded a sleigh which left Burns Lake for Decker Lake dance last Saturday evening. Though it took some tight packing to make the grade, everyone managed to survive the trip. They were almost surprised with pressure, sandwiches and the usual good time which Decker residents know so well how to provide.

Mrs. F. Saranovich, of Sherraton, and her two sons were visitors here for several days last week.

1925 WILL BE VERY DRY YEAR

Scientists Base Declaration on New Discovery Recently Made

LONDON, Jan. 27.—The year 1925 will be the driest the universe has experienced this century, an official of the British Meteorological Department told The Canadian Press in explaining a new discovery which departmental experts have made and which, it is declared, enables them to pick out the wet and dry years to come.

This statement was made after much study on the part of weather scientists and as the result of the discovery that a close connection exists between rainfall, particularly in Great Britain, and the frequency of solar prominences. The latter are explained to be the tongues of flaming gas that dart out from the sun's surface, sometimes to a height of 250,000 miles and at a speed of more than 150 miles an hour.

Experts have spent three

HEART WAS WEAK NERVES ALL GONE

Mrs. J. H. Hallenbeck, 117½ Welland Avenue, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:— "I was in a gas explosion; it left me with a weak heart, and my nerves were all gone. I suffered everything; couldn't sleep, or endure any excitement, and when alone I fell as if I could scream. I took dizzy spells, often falling and bruising myself. My mother read about your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and bought me a box, but having taken so many different kinds of medicine it just seemed that I did not have any confidence in any of them. I took one box of H. & N. Pills, and felt so much better I continued with them until I had used five boxes, and after I had taken them I did not need any more. I cannot praise, or recommend, Milburn's Heart and Nerve pills too highly after all they have done for me!"

years studying the relation of this phenomenon with the fall of rain and have learned that the interval between the dates when these giant fireworks are most active has grown progressively shorter during the last half century, while the periodicity of wet years in England has shown a corresponding change. The mathematical curves indicate a relationship that is too definite to be overlooked, say the department chiefs.

Is Nothing New

This relativity is nothing new. It was noticed about 1865, and for the next 25 years, every fifth year in England was wet, the other four being dry or normal. At this time the solar prominences were appearing regularly and normally. At the end of the 25 years the flames appeared oftener and continued to appear at regular periods for 20 years, when every third year was wet. From 1910 to 1921 the flames were more active and alternate years were wet and dry.

The droughty year of 1921 appears to have been the turning point, for now the department experts have figured out for the next period of increased solar activity the years will be in cycles of three, two wet years and one dry one. The year 1922 is reckoned as the last year on the late period, therefore the years 1923 and 1925 have been the wet ones and 1927, if any faith can be placed in the constancy of the solar prominences of the sun, should be a dry one in England and a drouthy one for the rest of the world.
