Situation in China is Grave and British and American Governments Are Sending Reinforcements There

Two Thousand British Bluejackets Landed at Shanghai and more to follow; Trouble is Spreading

LONDON, June 4.—A very grave view is taken here of disturbances in Shanghai and the outlook in China generally is discouraging. Fears are being expressed that things are moving toward a situation resembling the Boxer uprising.

It is announced officially that the government is taking all necessary steps to safeguard British subjects. The Admiralty stated that 2,000 bluejackets had been landed at Shanghai and these would be reinforced. A number of gunboats were expected to arrive at Shanghai today.

LIGHT KEEPER TO BE HONORED

U.S. Government to Recognize Valor of John Moran in Rescue Last Christmas

Information was received yesterday by United States Consul A. E. Wakefield that the United States government is to present a pair of binoculars to John Moran, keeper of the Green Island lighthouse, for his work in connection with the saving of the life of Percy Duranceau, whose boat, Violet, was wrecked on December 22.

It was on Christmas Day that Duranceau, following the wreck, was able to start a fire on Dundas Island by rubbing sticks together. The smoke attracted the attention of Moran and, at the risk of his own life while a heavy sea was running, he rescued the exhausted man in a small boat. Duranceau's partner, a man named Baldwin, lost his life.

TORONTO, June 4.—Rev. Dr. G. C. Pidgeon, minister of the Bloor St. Presbyterian Church, Toronto, was unanimously chosen moderator of the 51st General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He will hold office until the denomination enters officially the United Church on June 19.

WILL PRESERVE NATIVE RELICS

Harlan Smith, Archeologist, is in City in Connection With Totems

Harlan I. Smith of the anthropological division of the Queen Victoria Memorial Museum, the National Government Museum of Canada, and his assistant, H. F. Ballantyne, who is taking charge of work in this part of the district this year with a view to preserving totem poles, grave houses and other native relics, arrived in the city from Hazelton on last evening's train and are registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel.

The work of Mr. Smith is being undertaken in response to agitation that has been under way for several years at the instigation of the C.N.R. tourist department, local organizations and national historic organizations. A railway engineer, Buchanan Campbell, is assisting in the work.

SETTLE LITIGATION OVER ENGINEER MINE

VANCOUVER, June 4.—Further legislation over the famous Engineer Gold Mine at Taku Arm, Allin, is not likely. The Williams brothers who are heirs of the sister who is said to have married Capt. James Alexander before his death in the Princess Sophia wreck on Lynn Canal in 1918, have withdrawn their action, on payment of a stipulated sum as a permanent settlement.

LOOKS BAD FOR THE EXPLORER

Capt. O'Kelly Thinks Possibility of Being Seen Again is Remote

VANCOUVER, June 4.—That Roald Amundsen and his intrepid band of North Pole seekers may be separated from their flying boats, after making a landing, and that the possibility of their being seen again, if this turns out to be the fact, is very remote, is the opinion expressed by Captain T. P. O'Kelly, Arctic navigator and well-known Hudson's Bay Company executive, who was one of the daring band who made their way to shore over miles of polar ice when the Lady Kindersley was lost in the ice last year.

Captain O'Kelly speaks with years of experience in the Arctic behind him.

LIBERALS SWEEP SASKATCHEWAN

Fifty Three Government Members Expected Out of Total of 63

REGINA, June 4.—Fifty-one government candidates were returned in the provincial election which took place Tuesday, according to practically complete returns which have come in. Two deferred elections are expected to add two more members to the government side of the Sixth Legislature of the province, giving the Government 53 seats and the combined opposition ten, divided as follows: Conservatives 3, Progressives 5, Independents 2.

NO GOLD YET FROM CASSIAR

Inexperienced Men Have Had Bad Time Through No Adaptability to Life

TELEGRAPH CREEK, June 4.—Inexperienced men arriving here are suffering a great deal from not being adapted to the life of the country. No work has yet been done on Gold Pan Creek and at no place has bed-rock been reached. Supplies are difficult to obtain and only the experienced men are getting along without discomfort.

It will be some weeks before any results are obtained and it is probable there will be many fake reports of imaginary gold strikes.

Speaking more languages, it is said, than any other person in the world, Prof. Alice Werner, grey-haired London lecturer, teaches 300 dialects of dark Africa. She knows three key tongues perfectly.

Prospecting, Exploration and Development Going on; 86 Shipping Mines in B.C.

It is encouraging and significant to note from the Resident Engineers' reports that prospecting, exploratory, and development work have been actively carried on in the different districts of the province, says the annual report of the minister of mines. In the older camps of the southern part of the province, as in the Boundary, Slocan, Nelson, and East Kootenay, renewed exploration is being rewarded with material successes, and in some instances a return to active life seems probable for some of the mining sections which had been virtually abandoned.

SWELTERING IN THE SUN

Intense Heat Everywhere East of Rocky Mountains and no Change Expected

CHICAGO, June 4.—Little hope for cooler weather was held out today by the weather bureau to millions of people from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic who are sweltering in the intense heat. At many places the temperature is higher than it has been in years.

Continuance of the high temperature is forecast for at least 48 hours.

KETCHIKAN, June 4.—Spread by a strong wind, fire of undetermined origin late on Tuesday destroyed part of the south end of Ketchikan. Three two-storey apartment houses, a large boat shop and seven residences were burned. The fire raged two hours before being brought under control.

The amount of damage is set at $30,000. There are no known casualties.

DEATH TAKES A LOCAL MAN

Harry Day Passes Away at Hospital Result of Complications

Death being due to complications following the extraction of a tooth, Harry Day, limekeeper for the Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Co. for several years, passed away this morning at 3 o'clock in the Prince-Rupert General Hospital. His condition for some time had been critical and death was not unexpected.

Deceased was born in England. He came here about seven years ago and on April 29 last year was married to Miss Ethel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smith, Hays Cove Avenue. They resided at 1040 Eighth Avenue East. Parents of the late Mr. Day as well as brothers and sisters survive him in the Old Country. There is also a sister, Mrs. Fleming, residing in Victoria.

The late Mr. Day was a member of Tsimpsan Lodge A.F. & A.M. and also of the Sons of England. During his residence in the city, he became the centre of a wide circle of friends and his demise will be a matter of general regret. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers.

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL FOR B.C. MINING

VANCOUVER, June 4.—Australian capital has been withdrawn from the mining industry in the Commonwealth owing to uncertainties in labor conditions and is looking elsewhere for investment. This money is available for British Columbia development, according to Mr. Westerton, an Australian mining engineer, who is in Vancouver, preparing for a trip to the Dease Lake district.

OLD PROSPECTOR IS FOUND DEAD

Dave Mawhinney Makes Discovery on Trail Between Hazelton and Telegraph Creek

The provincial police here are in receipt of advice from Constable Ashton of Telegraph Creek to the effect that, about the end of last month, the body of an aged prospector was found in a cabin known as "Dead Man's Cabin" on the Spatsize River, a tributary of the Stikine River, over 100 miles southeast of Telegraph Creek and in the neighborhood of Ground Hog Mountain. Death it was thought had occurred about the end of February and was due to natural causes, deceased having apparently become ill and died. The discovery was made by Dave Mawhinney, Terrace trapper and prospector, who with a partner was going overland to Telegraph Creek from Hazelton. The body was left as it was found and further investigation is being made by the provincial police who today preferred not to disclose the supposed identity of the man pending the completion of their investigation. He was about 70 years of age.

BROKE RECORD GOLD MINING

Ontario Produced Bullion Worth $2,600,000 During Month of May

TIMMINS, June 4.—Northern Ontario gold mines again broke all records in their output for May. Approximately $2,600,000 worth was turned out.

Preliminary estimates show that the mines of the province are producing gold bullion at the rate of $31,000,000 yearly.

While in the north they will investigate the advisability of constructing a wagon road from the headwaters of the Bear River north and west to Dease Lake gold fields.

Mr. Sloan will also give attention to the needs of the district for roads and trails to aid developments in the district.

Saskatchewan Is Solidly Liberal.

Apparently Saskatchewan is more solidly Liberal than it was at the previous election. With somewhere around fifty members out of a possible 63 the people of the province have declared themselves strong for Liberal policies and a Liberal administration. The result was a surprise to people here who looked for a close contest.

No High Tariff Says Commons.

The members of the House of Commons are strongly against a high tariff. When the vote was taken a majority of 140 were against an increase, only 37 in all being in favor of a high tariff policy. That looks as if the question was settled but it is not. Those who stand to make money from high tariff never give up the fight. They are on the job all the time and they have many agencies at work.

The tariff will be made one of the big issues at the next election and people will need to make up their minds definitely how they feel about this big question.

Minister At Washington Will Be Appointed.

A minister will be appointed to represent Canada at Washington and that will be one of the first steps toward Canadian nationality. It will be stepping out a little, getting away from the leading strings of the mother land.

In matters having to do with strictly Canadian affairs, Canada will negotiate herself instead of doing it through Downing Street.

As United States is our big neighbor and we are constantly having questions to discuss as such, the move to appoint a minister should be a good one.

Success Depends On Own Efforts.

The other day there was an editorial article in the Ketchikan Alaska Chronicle which mentioned that it was the live town which succeeded. The editor urged the importance of keeping alive and up to date and looking after their own interests.

The advice was excellent. Prince Rupert can well learn from the advice given the liveliest town in Alaska. If they need the advice how much more so do we.

Today we are publishing a despatch from Smithers which tells about the Indians cutting a road for themselves. They have found that it is useless to sit back and call to the government for help. They are going to cut the road themselves, eighteen miles of it, from Babine Lake to join the Cronin Mine road and this will enable them to drive to town where they can sell their furs and buy their supplies to advantage. Smithers and Telkwa people are co-operating with them by subscribing some money toward the project.

Smithers is a live town and Telkwa is also active. They look after their own interests carefully and take advantage of every opportunity which offers to increase business.

Two Booklets Just To Hand.

Two very nice folders have reached this office recently. One is from the Smithers District Board of Trade and the other from the Bulkley Valley Auto Association, both dealing with the interior country. One appeals particularly to the tourist and the other is designed to forward the interests of mining, agriculture, lumbering, tourists and sportsmen. They are both well illustrated and are a credit to the people who have issued them. The country is wonderfully attractive and needs only to be known to be appreciated.

CATTLE STORY AT WEEK END

Drama is Based on Advance of Civilization in Great Southwest

Cattle from a thousand hills, assembled in a great rodeo, carry the stellar role in the picture "Sundown," epic of the range country, which is to be shown at the week end.

Like "The Covered Wagon," "America," "The Birth of a Nation," it depicts a significant phase of our national life—the close of the pastoral era. "Sundown" has historic perspective and scope; it is a film document of a vanishing breed of men and beasts and the land they prepared for closer settlement.

Human drama rides in stirrup and chuck wagon beside the hoofed legions; drama springing from encroachment of home-seekers upon the cattle provinces of the elder west, from stampede, prairie fire, financial crisis and hard straits.

100,000 Animals

But the individual actors, giving of their best, are dwarfed by the massed animals, 100,000 strong, winding from the foreground to the horizon through the picture in the slow curving line of melancholy, the line of yearning and regret which gives "Sundown" its distinctive touch.

The film is from an original story by Earl Hudson, based upon recent cattle drives from the Southwestern States to Mexico for adequate range, and a pathetic exodus it is to folk along the Rio Grande.

Curious now moving is the sight of a great herd on the march. At rest, grazing, they are merely so many beebes. But in massed motion, they stir emotions of primal majesty. Their very docility adds to the effect of high drama.

Creations of man's dominance, his meat and milk, in turn dominating their owners, forced to go where the cattle may graze, even to the abandonment of home, and exile to an alien land.

Terrible Catapult

Then, in a moment, the placid mass converted into a terrible catapult, wiping out everything in the path of the stampede, including the home of the Nestor family whose daughter provides the love interest—an awesome scene that, with the girl and her lover stranded in a sea of tossing horns.

Again, poignant pathos when the cowhands, after immemorial custom, sing down the herd for the night with a plaintive chant—the prairie lullaby for animals, treated like children.

The concluding scene, where the vast herd crossed a railroad track between impatient passenger trains and so into Mexico, is symbolic period to the words put into the mouth of E. J. Ratcliffe, an actor giving a consummate of Roosevelt:

"You could put your cowboys and cattle a mile deep from Canada to Mexico, but you cannot stop the encroach of civilization."

And that is the historic meaning of "Sundown": Into the wilderness, onto the desert, up into the mountains and down in the valleys, moves civilization, irresistible.

CONGRESSMAN WOULD COMBINE EXCLUSION BILLS OF AMERICA

CENTRALIA, June 4.—Congressman Johnson of Hoquim in his Memorial Day address here presented a plan to combine under one act by congress all exclusion laws heretofore passed. He contended that this would obviate the charge of discrimination and eliminate danger of war. He expressed fear of "tinkering with the laws by those who think we have mistreated the Japanese."

IS NOT WORRIED ABOUT AMUNDSEN

ORLANDO, Fla., June 4.—Samuel W. Entriken, Arctic explorer and an officer of the Peary expedition to the North Pole, and the first man to pitch a tent on the present site of the city of Fairbanks, is not worried over Amundsen's protracted absence. "I'll give him three months before worrying over his safety," Entriken said.

CRIPPLES HOME IS TO BE BUILT

Plans Prepared or Building to be Erected by Women's Institute of B.C.

VICTORIA, June 4.—Another stage has been reached in the establishment of a solarium for the treatment of crippled children on Vancouver Island, with the preparation of plans for the first unit of the general scheme.

The solarium, which the Women's Institutes of British Columbia propose to establish, is an elaborate scheme which ultimately will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. Hubert Savage, in conjunction with S. Maclure, has prepared sketch plans for the initial unit of the solarium, which will be built at Mill Bay, on an ideal site adjacent to the Mill Bay ferry landing.

The plans call for an angle frame structure measuring approximately 230 by 60 feet. In the preparation of the plans every consideration has been given to assure the maximum of the morning sun, which will prove the most effective tonic to the children placed under treatment in the new institution. The building will have a glassed-in veranda along its entire front, and a similar veranda will be located at the rear of the structure with a southwesterly aspect.

The initial unit of the solarium will cost about $12,000. Two other similar buildings, conforming to the general scheme and erected on the slopes so that each building will overlook the other, together with administrative offices and technical workshops, will ultimately be considered, and, if the desirable object is realized, Mill Bay and Vancouver Island will have one of the finest solariums in existence.

HER NERVES SO BAD SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

Mrs. Grace Kitchen, St. George, Ont., writes:—"After having a severe attack of pneumonia I was left in a weak and run down condition. My nerves were so bad I could not sleep nights, and in the day time I had terrible fainting spells, caused by my heart being weak. Finally I got so bad I had to take to my bed for weeks at a time, but one day I read about so decided to try them. After taking one box I felt a slight improvement. I have now taken five boxes, and have gained 35 pounds in weight. I am now more than able to do all my own housework as well as considerable outside work. I cannot recommend Milburn's H. & N. Pills too highly for those suffering as I did."

CABLE STATION MAY REMOVE TO VICTORIA

VICTORIA, June 4.—It is suggested here as likely that the cable station now located at Bamfield may be removed to this city. At present about thirty families are located at the west coast station and it is thought it would be much more convenient to have the cable come right through to one of the cities.

Blue or Purple Jacket and Cream Shirts Much Fritted at Throat and Cuffs

OXFORD, England, June 4. — For several years past Oxford men of adventurous character have been experimenting with new fashions in evening clothes. They have tried coats without tails, and coats with white lapels, and double-breasted coats with knee breeches, but always in vain.

At last a new style has been accepted. Young Oxford men of means and spirit now go out of an evening in silk stockings, light silk knee breeches, blue or purple velvet jackets, and cream silk shirts much fritted at the throat and the cuffs.

GIRL FARMERS WEST CANADA

University Girl on Prairies Prior to Arranging For Migration

WINNIPEG, June 4. — Emily Pinder, a graduate of the experimental farm of Leeds University, is in Winnipeg to begin a year's study of Canadian agricultural methods, with a view to creating a movement to Western Canada of English farm girls, on her return to the British Isles.

"Girls on the farms in all parts of England are intensely interested in Canada. They are seeking an outlet for their energies and would migrate to the Dominion in large numbers if only encouraged," Miss Pinder asserted.

Many of these young women, she declared had sufficient funds to start farms of their own and would prove a valuable asset to the development of the western country.

MANY DOMESTICS ARRIVE IN CANADA

WINNIPEG, June 4. — The domestic servant problem in Winnipeg has been materially relieved by the arrival of a batch of British girls who were included among the large quota of settlers reaching here during the past few weeks.

While the majority of these domestics have remained in this city, a number have proceeded to different points in the West. The girls were brought to Canada under the auspices of the Salvation Army.

Statistics show that the population of Western Canada has been augmented by more than 6,000 newcomers during May, the majority immigrating under the British Empire colonization.

AERIAL PROSPECTORS DROPPED AT BASE IN THE STIKINE RIVER

The Archibald Little prospecting expedition, which left here in the Vickers Viking flying boat on Monday last, dropped safely at its base in a slough on Stikine River about six miles from Telegraph Creek on Tuesday morning according to further word received in the city by wire from the party yesterday.

URGES BRITISH INVEST IN B.C.

Americans so Far Have Secured Plums Says Griffith Thomas

LONDON, June 4.—Griffith J. Thomas, capitalist and mining authority, has returned here from a business trip to British Columbia, as a result of which he has issued a warning through the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in London that "in the past American money has secured most of the plums and will in the future, unless English financiers wake up to the fact that one of the richest areas in the Empire requires our money and our brains."

In his statement to the Canadian Chamber of Commerce here, Mr. Thomas says:

"I have recently returned from a periodical business trip to British Columbia, and it occurred to me that it would be of interest if I brought to your notice certain aspects of the business situation over there, as they appear to me. In the first place, one might mention that capital for development is the greatest need of that province and British capital would be welcomed more than any other."

Strewed with Wrecks

"It is useless, however, taking capital into the country unless it is accompanied by technical and, preferably, British brains. British Columbia is strewn with the wrecks of English concerns that have gone out there, invested large sums of money, and sent out sons or relatives to run them, whose sole idea was to have a good time, and I could give chapter and verse of several such cases. There have, of course, been other cases."

"In the past American money has secured most of the plums, and will in future unless English financiers wake up to the fact that one of the richest areas in the Empire requires our money and our brains. To instance only the mineral potentialities of the Province: "It possesses practically every known mineral, but as yet the ground has hardly been scratched. Today most of the large producing companies are owned and controlled in the United States and the product of the mines is, without exception, almost, sent to the United States and to the East for treatment, thus giving the American stockholder the enormous profitable advantages that naturally accrue under such circumstances."

Develops Claims

"The average prospector is seldom in a position to develop his claims. The banks are useless to him—his interests are in the East where their headquarters are. He finds and locates his claims, does the assessment work, being just enough to hold the property; then, per force, he is compelled to seek some outfitter, or it may be he has sold an interest in his previous find, with which money he is enabled to do further prospecting, but soon he loses control, an agent of one of the large American companies comes along, bonds his property at his own figure, and generally the American investor becomes the owner at his own figure and terms—such in brief is the history of a great number of the operating mines in British Columbia today."

"The opportunities are really tremendous, and even the report of the Minister of Mines does not give any idea of the vast potential assets of the country in metallic and non-metallic possibilities. I brought away

Sport Chat

Activities of the Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club for the 1925 season will be opened with a flourish this evening when the club stages a regatta off the club house at Cow Bay. The waterfront promises to be the centre of attractions as a result. The executive and committees of the club have gone to some trouble to make the event a success and will feel amply rewarded if the affair proves popular. There will be no charges—not even for the luncheon that will be served to all-comers. The program, which opens at 5:30, will include the handicap power boat race (club boats only) for the Yacht Club Cup (now held by M. M. Stephens' Triton) and a handicap sweepstake race for all pleasure boats in the harbor complying with the rules. The distance of the latter race will be six miles. There will also be a men's and ladies' single and double rowing races for substantial prizes. The race committee consists of George Bryant, R. E. Benson and A. Macdonald and the refreshment committee, Jack Lindsay and George Richmond.

With the first soccer match of the season—the Stuart Benefit Shield—already tucked safely away for 1925, the Gallies will play their first game tonight for the more important silverware—the Mobley Cup, emblematic of city championship. Their opponents will be the G. W. V. A. who gave them a close-run for the Stuart Shield. The Scots are undoubtedly out this year to cop off all the honors and, now that they have made such a good start, they are full of confidence and hope. The G. W. V. A. also have a good deal of confidence in their abilities and those who have the material for the year pretty well sized figure that this Veteran aggregation has a good chance as any other. In any case, tonight's game promises to be a good one and there will no doubt be a large crowd of fans out to witness it. Tom Jones will referee.

DECLARES HE IS THE EARL

Man Named Mason of Winnipeg Would Oust Asquith From Title

WINNIPEG, June 4.—Following the startling claim of Captain Samuel Lawrence of Salmon Arm, B.C., to be the rightful Earl of Oxford, supplanting Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, who recently adopted that title on his elevation to the peerage, there now appears in Winnipeg another claimant.

Frederick William Mason, son of Mrs. Emily Julian of Erickdale, Man., formerly of Rosario de Ste Fe, Argentine, has entered the field for the coveted title. His mother is a sister of Samuel Hiram, father of the British Columbia claimant, and granddaughter of the sixth Earl of Oxford.

A strange and romantic tale surrounds the marriage of her mother Sarah Harley to her father's overseer, which was contrary to the will of her parents. The family difference ended with the emigration of the descendants to South America.

It was in the Argentine that Emily Lawrence married to Walter Mason, father of Frederick William Mason of Winnipeg. In 1913 she moved to Bethune, Sask., to reside with her brother Samuel Hiram and later moved to Winnipeg, following her second marriage.

The local claimant is endeavoring to establish priority rights over his British Columbia relative.

The results of operations for the first four months of 1925 show a decrease in gross revenues of $6,740,378, or 8.89 per cent, but that operating expenses during the same period were reduced by $6,764,024, or 9.34 per cent. Net earnings for the first four months of 1925 were $3,774,782 or $36,354 less than for the corresponding period of last year. As compared with a 8.89 per cent decline in traffic receipts, the reduction in net was less than one per cent.

KING DEFENDS THE ELEVATOR

Text of Speech of B.C. Minister as Given in Hansard Report

GENERAL DISCUSSION

Cost Much Larger Here Than at Halifax It is Shown

The Hansard accounts of the debate on the Prince Rupert elevator are rather long, too long for full publication in a newspaper but some of the speeches are interesting.

The Conservative and a few of the Progressive members were critical in regard to the cost of the work and the Conservatives opposed the work as unnecessary. In defending the position of the government Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, and representative of British Columbia in the Liberal cabinet, said:

Kootenay Member

Mr. King (Kootenay): I have no hesitation in justifying this expenditure. Prince Rupert is one day nearer the Orient than any other port on the Pacific. There is an opportunity for the handling at that port of a very considerable quantity of grain from the prairie provinces. I think the most important feature of the development will be the stimulation of agriculture in that large hinterland in northern British Columbia, which is an excellent agricultural country. It will make it possible for the farmer in that area to produce wheat on his land and find a market at Prince Rupert. Today he is precluded from anything of that kind. If he produces wheat it must be sold locally. It cannot get on the world's market, because it cannot be transported back to Calgary or Edmonton and thence on the Canadian National to Vancouver. This elevator will do more to develop that great hinterland in northern British Columbia, which is tributary to what is known as the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, than anything else this government can do, and I have no hesitation in justifying and advising this expenditure.

Mr. Lucas: Perhaps the minister of public works could tell why this elevator at Prince Rupert is to cost twice as much per bushel capacity as the one at Halifax.

Unfair Comparisons

Mr. King (Kootenay): I cannot answer my hon. friend's question. Unfair comparisons are very often made between the cost of elevator construction at Fort Arthur and Montreal and the cost of similar construction on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and very often those who make such comparisons are not fully informed. Elevator construction in Vancouver harbor has been expensive and will continue to be so on account of the conditions in that harbor. At Prince Rupert I believe the same conditions exist. Earth filling had to be brought a considerable distance and dumped in in order to enable the piles to be driven for the foundation. These are conditions that do not apply to Fort William or Port Arthur. As to the other expenditures, I am not conversant with the contracts, though I know that tenders have been called and a number of contractors have tendered on the work. It should be remembered that in construction in the harbor of Montreal, for instance, you are dealing with fresh water where timber-foundations will not be destroyed or affected by what is known as the teredo, which we have on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. The construction on the Pacific has been expensive, largely in connection with the foundation.

"NIGHT IN BOHEMIA" BETTER LAST NIGHT

After Show, Supper and Dance Was Given in Compliment to Mr. Lewis and Members of Cast.

The musical revue, "A Night in Bohemia," staged by C. H. Lewis of Chicago for the local Elks' Lodge, was repeated before another full house in the Westholme Theatre last night. The entertainment it was agreed showed many improvements over the opening on Tuesday night, some of the weaker items having been eliminated and encores curtailed. It was finished by 11 o'clock whereas, on Tuesday, it was nearly midnight before the closing chorus was sung.

After the show an informal supper and dance was given by the lodge in the St. Regis Cafe in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and the cast participating. Three cheers for Mr. Lewis were proposed by L. Murray Fuller, exalted ruler of the lodge, and after the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," Mr. Lewis replied suitably. A vote of thanks was passed to the cast and dancing followed, music being furnished by members of the orchestra assisted by Miss Irene Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will leave tonight for Victoria where Mr. Lewis will take charge of the staging of another show. He hopes that he may be back here next month if arrangements are made to have an excursion to Ketchikan on July 4 when "A Night in Bohemia" would be staged by the local troupe in the Alaskan metropolis.

BABINE INDIANS WANT NEW ROAD

Will Cut it Themselves With Aid From People of Smithers and Telkwa

SMITHERS, June 4.—The request of the Babine tribe of Indians that a road be built connecting the upper part of Babine Lake with Smithers took concrete form at a meeting held in the Catholic Hall on Sunday afternoon.

Father Aylard, who is acting as agent for the Indians in this matter arranged for a delegation of the Babine Indians to come here and place the proposition before the citizens of Smithers and Telkwa.

There was a large turnout to the meeting Sunday and it was agreed that the Indians cut out some eighteen miles of new road that will connect Babine Lake with a point on the Crown Mine Road on the north-east slope of the Babine Range. Angus McLean, a former road builder with the provincial government was selected to go over the route laid out by the Indians and report on its feasibility. He started on this trip on Monday afternoon accompanied by the Indians.

To finance the work, it is proposed to raise the sum of $500 in Telkwa and Smithers.

If this undertaking proves the success it is hoped, it will give access to one of the most delightful tourist districts in the province, as it will only be about 35 miles from Telkwa to Babine Lake or 40 miles from Smithers.

SMITHERS, June 4.—A most enjoyable evening which took the form of a farewell for Rev. M. W. Lees and Mrs. Lees was held in the Union Church on Monday evening. The early part of the evening was taken up with a concert which was greatly enjoyed by the large gathering present. This was followed by an address by L. S. McGill, the chairman, and a presentation of a purse of gold from the members of the congregation. Mr. Lees also received a presentation from the Sunday School scholars and Mrs. Lees from the C.G.I.T. girls.

Mr. Lees suitably replied and expressed his regrets at being obliged because of his ill-health to sever his connections with the church in Smithers.

After the speech making refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies' Aid and a social hour spent before the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

Can You Afford to Speculate?

EVERY time you buy something you are either speculating or making a definite investment.

Few people can afford to speculate. Yet many do it continually, in making their everyday purchases. And it is so unnecessary. The advertisements make it easy for any one to avoid taking a chance.

The merchant or manufacturer who advertises, realizes that the good-will of his customers means money in the bank to him. He knows that the public confidence in his product and public respect for his own character are as valuable as his credit at the bank.

So he makes the individual satisfaction of his patrons, their loyalty and their friendship paramount issues in his business.

When you buy an advertised product, you can know in advance what to expect in return for your money. You can count on its being right. You are making an investment.

But when you buy nameless, unbranded merchandise, you are taking a chance. You are speculating.

Know what you buy. The advertisements will tell you.

RUSSIA IS NOT PROMISED LAND

Doukhobor Investigator Just Returned from Country But Will Not Return There

SASKATOON, June 4.—

Thoroughly disillusioned with regard to conditions in Soviet Russia, Sam Semenov, of Kinley, Saskatchewan, returned to the west recently, after a three months' trip, which he took as representative of 100 Doukhobor families, former residents of Russia, who contemplated going there.

Mr. Semenov had the advantage of meeting practically all the heads of the Soviet government at Moscow, and in addition was privileged to spend a month with the peasantry in their village, a privilege not extended ordinarily to foreign investigators.

"I do not know what act the people who sent me will take after I have made my report, but I will never leave Canada to make my home in Russia under such conditions as I saw," said Mr. Semenov.

Glowing Accounts

Two Doukhobor representatives visited Russia two or three years ago on the same mission as Mr. Semenov and had brought back glowing accounts of the beauty of the country, its fertility and freedom accorded the people. Mr. Semenov's mission was to see if this report was correct, and if it was still advisable to migrate.

In the Southern part of the country, along the Don river, he found the land all that it had been described; much of it better than in Western Canada; black loam nine feet deep and level. Sometimes good water was difficult to get. But beyond these natural advantages, little favorable could be said. The system of land tenure was intolerable, and was largely responsible for the peasants being on the

HAD BOILS ALL OVER HIM

There is only one way to get rid of boils and that is by going right to the seat of the trouble—the blood—as the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

cleanses the system and removes all the foul matter from the blood in a way that few medicines will do.

Mrs. Chas. Rankin, Bulawa, Sask., writes:—"A few years ago my husband had a terrible time with boils. On one arm he had 16 between his elbow and wrist; five on the back of his neck, and several more on different parts of his body. He tried everything he could think of, but got no relief until he took Burdock Blood Bitters, and to his surprise it completely relieved him of his boils, in a very short time."

verge of starvation. In the cities lawlessness was rampant, industry was practically dead and the commercial life of the country at a low ebb.

It was when he got out among the peasantry that Mr. Semenov obtained a true picture of agricultural life in Russia today. The farmers had no chance to make a living. They had no votes only Communist having the franchise and were unable to exercise any influence on the government to improve their conditions.

No Land Title

Mr. Semenov was shown beautiful land, virgin prairie, once the property of the gentry, which he and his people could obtain. But though there were millions of acres of such lands, all the government would grant was a life interest in seven and one half acres per head, counting each member of the family. No definite parcel would be allotted, a different parcel in the same district would be given them each year. This was the system on which those now engaged in agriculture, occupied the land.

This obviously objectionable system, Mr. Semenov declared, reflected itself in the mode of living of the peasants. Their diet for the most part was coarse bread and water. The season had been dry last year and the potato crop failed. In addition to the bread, they made soup by boiling cabbage, rice or wheat with water. It contained no meat or fat of any kind. The children were mere skeletons. In one village, the people he had once known were so emaciated he did not recognize them.

Want to Come Here

He found the Doukhobors, he visited, anxious to migrate to Canada. These were not community Doukhobors, but ordinary independent farmers, interested in the education of their children, and of an altogether progressive type. Needless to say, he remarked, there were no schools there.

Mr. Semenov found the Russian government anxious to buy horses in Canada.
