Motorship Wakena was Burned Near Nanoose; Her Crew All Escaped

Vessel was on way to Alaska to be used as a Floating Cannery by the Latouche Packing Company

So quickly did the fire spread that the crew had no chance to fight the flames and they were forced to flee from the ship. The gasoline exploded soon afterwards.

Colley Exonerated of Charges Brought Against Him of Having Supplied Goods to Government

KAMLOOPS, May 27.—Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in the supreme court yesterday exonerated J. R. Colley, M.L.A., of charges brought against him by a man named Drake of Victoria to the effect that Colley had at various times since his election supplied the government with goods, including a large contract of oats, bran and hay to road gangs.

All correspondence in connection with the sales was submitted to the judge who found the contract in question was entered into before Colley was elected and that Colley was entitled to payment for goods shipped prior to his election.

Smaller sales were made for cash to different parties who gave no intimation that they were for the use of the government institution.

In all the charges, His Lordship ruled that there was no...

J. Scott Williams, pilot of the plane, this morning. The machine will be flown to Wrangell tomorrow afternoon, the expectation being to make the flight in about one hour and a half. GIFT MADE TO LOCAL MUSEUM

John Dore Presents Local Institution with Portion of Cable and Insulator

HISTORICAL RELIC

John Dore has presented to the Prince Rupert museum a piece of wire cable and one of the insulators of the Collins Overland Telegraph line which was to connect St. Petersburg with London by way of Nome and the Yukon, passing through the Bulkley Valley and by way of Ashcroft to San Francisco.

This was the line that Colonel Bulkley was building and he had got just as far as what is now the Bulkley Valley when word was sent that the steamship Great Eastern had successfully laid the cable and it was decided to abandon the overland route. The valley was named after the Colonel.

The Russian government was to build through Siberia to Behring Strait and a short cable would connect the two lines.

The wire and insulator has just been received by Mr. Dore as one of the last remnants of the line which was never built.

Prince Rupert Made The Goat.

Apparently Prince Rupert is being made the goat for the political campaign that is being waged against the Mackenzie King Government, and it is a sample of the political criticisms that are foisted on the public from either side at various times. Just now the Conservatives are seeking campaign material and one of their criticisms is that the present government is extravagant. To bolster up their cause they oppose the elevator appropriation at Prince Rupert as being a useless extravagance. By doing so they expect to make political capital, particularly in southern British Columbia where there are half a dozen members to one here.

Were it not that Prince Rupert's member was on the job and that he stands in well with the powers that be there would have been danger of the project being killed, even though a lot of money has already been spent on it.

Both Way Cargoes For Steamships.

Prince Rupert is in a fair way to a position where she can provide two-way cargoes for steamships plying to and from the Orient. During the coming winter it is expected that grain and lumber will be shipped from this port and Oriental goods brought in. It will be some time before liners will be able to find full cargoes here, perhaps, but tramp vessels will load and sail direct to foreign ports. In regard to lumber shipments they may be made from Swanson Bay, Queen Charlotte City, Ketchikan and other points on the north coast, including Granby. Next year it is hoped one or two of the mills on Massett Inlet will be included in the shipping list. If the price improves, interior mills will be added to the shipping list. There are all sorts of possibilities for improvement of business in this neighborhood.

Everyone Watching For Arctic Explorer.

The eyes of the world are on Amundsen and the North Pole. The intrepid explorer sailed away in an airplane and has not been heard from since and the probability is that his planes will not be seen again. The men, however, are competent. They are used to life in the far north and know how to live off the country. They may take days or weeks or even months to reach a point where they can communicate, but if they are not injured, they are likely to return. There is also the bare possibility that the planes may bring them back.

What Is True Education?

The address of Inspector Fraser, as reported in this paper today, draws attention to the question which has been discussed for ages past as to what is true education. In the early days following the Renaissance it was considered that a knowledge of the classics including the Greek and Latin languages was essential and that no person was educated who had not a sound drilling in them. Now we are changing. We do not consider classic reference necessary or even desirable in a writer. While a certain general knowledge is desirable, the educated man must be so educated that he can do something useful in this life. If he can build a good house or a good boat he is educated far above those who can quote Homer or Shakespeare. In this country we see many sad cases of men who are full of overflowing with the education of the schools and universities and yet cannot do any one useful thing.

Cultural education and practical education must go hand in hand to produce the best results.

INSPECTOR IS P.T. TEACHER

H. C. Fraser Addressed Association Last Night on Current Educational Affairs in B.C.

A meeting of the Prince Rupert Parent Teachers' Association was held last night in the auditorium of Booth Memorial School. There was a fair attendance of members and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. T. M. Spencer. It was decided to suspend meetings of the Association until next September but a strawberry social will be held in the near future.

H. C. Fraser, inspector of schools, gave an address on current educational affairs in British Columbia. He said he had hoped to be able to give the Association a digest of the recent educational survey in the province but the report of this survey had not yet been made public. He, however, gave a resume of the methods that had been employed by Dr. Putman and Dr. Weir who were in charge of the survey. He emphasized the value of intelligence tests, how they enabled teachers to deal with special weakness and adaptations in children and generally made for greater efficiency in school work.

Mr. Fraser spoke on the subject of promotion by examination and the alternative methods of promotion by the credit system or by teachers' recommendation. He expressed the belief that there was a greater degree of thoroughness through the first mentioned system.

Mr. Fraser also dealt briefly with vocational training as a substitute for education. Vocational training, he said, gave men and women nothing to fall back upon while a cultural education not only provided a background but also made it possible for men and women to adapt themselves more readily to new conditions.

After Mr. Fraser's address, which was listened to with a great deal of interest and close attention, refreshments were served and a social half hour was spent.

PADDY SULLIVAN MAKES COMPLAINT

Takes Exception to Treatment Accorded Him by City Foreman—Referred to Board of Works

Richard P. Sullivan had a letter before the city council last night complaining of treatment that had been accorded him by J. McRae, city street foreman. On April 30, he claimed, he had strained his back and had been forced to lay off a couple of days and consult a doctor. On May 2 when he had again reported for duty he was told by McRae that his services were no longer required and he had better look for "an easier job." Mr. Sullivan claimed that he had apparently not been wanted and that the treatment accorded him by McRae had been unwarranted. Mr. Sullivan appeared personally before the council and spoke further on the matter claiming that the foreman was "incompetent and a disgrace to the city." The matter was referred to the board of works with power to act.

MAY USE SLABS FOR MATTRESS GRADING

Proposal Brought Before City Council Last Night to be Considered

The possibility of using slabs from the local sawmill in connection with mattress grading on city streets instead of planks and timber was brought to the attention of the city council last night by Ald. Casey. He felt that the slabs might be used to just as good advantage as the lumber and that, in cases of new streets where old lumber from plank roads was not available, it would be more economical. He asked the Board of Works to look into the matter.

The suggestion was made by Ald. Casey after Ald. Perry had suggested to the council that, in view of it being new work, it might be advisable to lay over until next year the mattress grading of Seventh Avenue in Section 7 possibly putting in a sidewalk on Claude Street to meet the needs in the meantime. Ald. Casey thought that this particular street would lend itself readily to mattress grading. In the absence of old lumber from a plank road, the slabs might be used.

Mayor Newton was of the opinion that the people in the district affected should at least get the sidewalk for which they had asked the council last year.

Finally it was decided to lay the matter over until next week, the question of using slabs to be gone into in the meantime. Ald. Stephens suggest that the city engineer make a report.

The Man in the Moon

—AYS—

SOME people are not quite sure whether Monday was Victoria Day or Dominion Day.

WHAT makes a young man slow to take upon himself family responsibilities is seeing the kind of clothes the paterfamilias wears.

WHAT about appointing a committee to investigate the mental condition of the weatherman. He did not seem to know that Monday was a holiday.

IT'S very difficult for a plump person to persuade anyone that he works or worries.

ONE of these would-be funny men says a girl is like a house because she is shingled and painted, and then comes another and says she has also a wooden attic. The wretch should be starved and feathered.

NEVER imitate Old Man Opportunity. He is the worst knocker there is. He always knocks at the wrong time.

"SOMETHING in men's clothing?" inquired the polite store clerk of the worried man who was peering about all over the store. "No, in women's. I want my wife," was the reply.

WILD flowers fade except a few of the everlasting and the blooming idiots.

HE said the girl was a duck because she was singing "Waddle I do."

FLAT WATER RATE ASKED BY CANNERY

Plans of New Plant at Seal Cove Outlined in Letter from Francis Millard to Council

The Somerville Cannery Co. had a letter before the city council last night asking that a flat rate of $25 per month be given for water supply to the cannery plant at Seal Cove. The matter was referred to the utility committee for report.

The latter making the application, which was signed by Francis Millard, stated that there were now 30 on the payroll of the plant and by summer it was expected there would be 100. Difficulties with the fisheries department had prevented the plant being already extended as much as had been hoped. However, a solution of the difficulties would soon be reached, it was expected. The letter referred to the importance of the cannery to the city and it was stated that the intention of the Somerville Cannery was to employ local white persons in preference to Orientals. Through the operation of the floating cannery Laurel Whalen it had been proven that white labor was more efficient than Orientals and the management hoped that it would be able to obtain white women and grown up boys to work in the plant here.

BORDEN STREET TO BE GRADED NEXT

City Council Puts Local Improvement Bylaw Providing for Work Through Its First Readings

The city council now intends to replace the present plank roadway on Fifth Avenue west of Fulton Street and on Borden Street with mattress pavement similar to that which is being put in in other parts of the city. An initiative local improvement bylaw taking the necessary steps preliminary to the work was given its first readings by the council last night as was also a bylaw providing for similar work on Seventh Avenue between Fulton and Taylor Street.

And, the voyage itself—the bracing sea air to refresh and invigorate you, and the luxurious comfort of a Cunard or Anchor-Donaldson liner. Every hour of the day aboard will be filled with enjoyment—games on the deck, promenades or relaxation in deck chairs, dances, concerts by the ship's orchestra, card parties, wonderful meals.

From first to last the concern of the entire ship's personnel is the passenger's comfort, pleasure and safety. Remember, too, the voyage embraces the educational value of the trip down the mighty, historic St. Lawrence River.

A report from the finance committee recommending that formal application be made to have George Remillard, now a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, admitted to the provincial home at Kamloops was adopted by the city council last night. Mayor Newton explained that the government agent had stated that the cost of maintaining such persons at the provincial home was about $22 per month which was about the same as if the city had to pay 60c per day for them at the hospital. They were not really hospital cases and the management of the hospital was desirous of disposing of them to make room for legitimate hospital cases.

HOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL

Interesting suggestions locally --- how to turn wet weather into goals

(By "Andy" Ducat, Manager of Fulham Club.)
(Reprinted from "Greenock Herald")

Teams who know how to play according to the weather possess a big advantage over others. Weather affects every game. Few footballers study the way to turn bad conditions to good use.

Dribbling becomes the decisive power on a wet pitch. Good dribbling combined with short passing forms a match-winning force after a spell of rain. Slippery ground checks active defence. A really good man with a pair of properly studded boots can get the ball down almost alone.

Backs and halves know the risk of strains to muscles and tendons. They are naturally careful how they tackle. Charging becomes very moderate. This is all to the advantage of the dribbler.

Swinging passes out to the wing should only be adopted as a last resort when the ground is thoroughly soaked. Your wing man is not able to make the best of his speed, and the quickest way of getting the ball through will be to keep it close between the centre and his inside men. They play in together with short passes and spells of dribbling.

The backs need to use their toes—instead of the instep—to shift the heavy ball if it comes dangerously near the goal.

Here a pass out to wing is likely still to produce the most desirable results.

Heavy Ground Tactics

The wing man must be closely backed up by his inside man and his half back. A short-passing triangle game between the three is likely to pay. Keep farther away from the touch line than you would on a dry pitch. A slip may cause loss of control of the ball which, going over the touch-line, means a throw in by your opponents and a chance lost. The inner man must choose an opportunity as they near the goal to dribble inwards a little, so that the pass to the centre forward is a short one.

Though the ball is "sticky" and passes are hard to give, remember they are easier to take. Therefore a short pass that might otherwise have been too quick for the receiver becomes one of easy pace. Ballooned balls are likely to be frequent since players will use their toes when a long kick is needed. Here a man who can head—especially a back who can head the ball away from his own goal—is a tremendous asset to his side.

The ball stops almost dead when it touches the ground. Allow for this when receiving a forward pass. Don't run over it and slip in trying to recover. Many teams who have learned tactics from a blackboard, with out many opportunities for practice, improve amazingly under the influence of a wet pitch. The reason is that they are not able to put their theories into practice very easily on a hard pitch. The ball travels quickly, passes are missed, and the campaign collapses. But wet grounds provide a field day for "blackboard footballers." Passes are easy to take, control is hard to lose, and the theorists are able to carry out their plans.

From this it becomes plain that blackboard lessons are all to the good for those who cannot get ball practice.

Every footballer ought to have two pairs of boots—a pair with short studs for dry grounds and a pair with long studs for wet grounds.

If an army marches on its stomach then a football team outwits opponents with its boots. One reason why teams sometimes show a sudden reversal of form is that they have come equipped with the wrong pair.

I regard a man with long studs

showed the local Cold Storage aggregation a few fine points about soccer last Saturday afternoon and the team could undoubtedly give a local select football team a good run for its money. The baseball game between Prince Rupert and Claxton, won by the home team, outside of the first inning, was not too bad an exhibition. Both sides showed weakness in fielding which will be remedied with practice. The Claxton boys told Ben Self that they could muster a lacrosse team at the cannery which would excel either of the football or baseball teams. If this is the case, there might be another open date later in the season for Claxton when football, baseball and lacrosse games—all three—could be staged.

Both Brick Skinner and his second, Dido Gurvich, came back from Stewart yesterday claiming that they had been robbed of the decision when the boxing contest there on Monday between Skinner and Harold Blanton was decided a draw. Skinner also stated that he had been asked to come back for a return bout on July 1. In view of the claim being made that Skinner was battling in his enemy's camp and for that reason he did not get a fair decision the suggestion would seem appropriate that any return bout should be staged in Skinner's home town and that there be an unbiased ticket of judges. Such a bout would undoubtedly be a drawing card for Prince Rupert boxing fans whose entertainments are few and far between.

PLAYERS SUSPENDED

After hearing the evidence in the case, the board of control of the Prince Rupert Football Association last night suspended R. B. Skinner for five weeks and Dave Scott for four weeks. This is the result of a dispute between the two in the game last week between the Callies and Veterans. At the close of the meeting S. D. Macdonald, president of the control board, tendered his resignation.

A bylaw providing for the temporary borrowing of $50,000 from the bank until tax collections for the year are made and debentures are marketed was put through its first readings at the meeting of the city council last night. This is the third bylaw of this nature that has been put through by the council this year. The first was for $50,000 and the second for $25,000.

ALICE ARM IS PICNIC CENTRE

Large Crowd From Anyox Visits Mining and Lumbering Camp For Holidays

ALICE ARM, May 27. — The 24th of May came to Alice Arm with a largeness and wealth of sunshine and warmth in so far as the weather went, and with a happy crowd of people from Anyox in so far as it relates to visitors. In fact it could very well be called Anyox day. A tally of those that arrived shows that 140 people came in chartered boats, besides several owners of private launches made up parties and brought them over.

Go further and make the day 15 hours long, and let it begin at 9 p.m. Saturday, when a couple of boat loads of Anyoxites, accompanied by their orchestra, came over for a week end dance at the Alice Arm Hotel, and when the dance ended at 3 a.m. daylight was breaking in the camp and residents walked home with the robins singing an orchestration of their own, and it was the 24th.

Saturday Dance

But to return to the earlier period of our 15 hour day which was the hotel dance. The trio of musicians, Mrs. Chapman, piano; Bogwill, saxophone; and Cameron, drums, have a local Anyox reputation as jazz artists and they added to it here. Their playing was highly complimented and greatly appreciated by those in the crowded ballroom. The supper was served by the managers of the Kitsault Cafe, and was in great abundance and variety.

The 24th proper was mostly made into one large picnic by our Anyox visitors. The green grass, flowers, and trees received their due praise and appreciation from those that make their homes in the smelter town.

Band Concert

A pleasant feature of the day was a two hours open air band concert given by the Elks band of Anyox. The first part of the concert was given by Anyox musicians, Austin, piano; Armstrong, violin; McEougall, cornet; Steele, trombone; Waterman, drums; and Hutcheson, clarinet; while L. Falconer, violin; R. G. Gordon, saxophone; and Mrs. Laidlaw, saxophone, augmented the orchestra for the last half of the program. The music was greatly enjoyed by the people of Alice Arm as well as by the visitors.

NEW HAZELTON

Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A., A. A. Connon, S. J. Winsby, W. S. Sargent and C. H. Sawie have been appointed a committee to make arrangements for the reception of the Governor General and Lady Byng when they visited here on June 26. The vice regal party will be driven from New Hazelton to Hazelton and there will be a public reception at the Hazelton Hospital.

Mrs. A. L. Fakeley left last week for Los Allos, California where she will make her future home.

Rev. T. D. Proctor, after spending a month in the south on vacation, returned yesterday to Hazelton.

A daughter was born at the Hazelton Hospital on May 17 to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Keefe of Francois Lake.

Mrs. G. W. Kerr has returned to Prince Rupert after spending several weeks at Hazelton visiting with her son Arthur.

VANDERHOOF

The jury which investigated the circumstances of the drowning of Vic Gluske at Takla Lake recently brought in a verdict of accidental death.

The Tsinkut bridge was raised from its foundations by the high water last week and is now afloat.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McLeod have left for the Houston district where they have taken up land.

William J. McAllan, Indian agent in this district for nineteen years, is being superannuated. He will leave the district in September and will probably spend the winter on the coast.

E. G. Baynes of Douglas Lodge and his sister, Miss H. S. Baynes, and daughter, Miss Doris Baynes arrived from Vancouver last week and motored on to Stuart Lake. They will remain there until the lodge opens.

BURNS LAKE

The Lakes District Hospital Association was formed here last week. M. F. Nourse was elected president; C. F. Ineson, vice-president, and S. Godwin, secretary-treasurer. Directors will be appointed from Wistaria, Ootsa Lake, Grassy Plains, Francois Lake, Endako, Tintagel, Rose Lake, Colleymount and Decker Lake.

Mrs. R. H. Leighton of Prince Rupert is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Martin.

Rev. W. R. Ashford has returned from a holiday trip to Vancouver and other points in the south.

Sam Hepner has taken over the management of the Lakeview Hotel here. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Henderson have moved to Victoria.

Joe Kerr fractured his arm in a baseball game here last week.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY HOSPITAL IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE

The president of the hospital board here has received a letter from the secretary of the Skidegate Inlet Hospital at Queen Charlotte City asking for help for that institution. The letter reads as follows:

Dear Sir—The Skidegate Inlet Hospital at Queen Charlotte, Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C., is seeking assistance, either financial or by way of supplies, such as towels, bedspreads, floor runners, etc., and at a recent meeting held it was decided by vote to ask the different outside merchants, if they could assist in any way.

For your information I may state that the hospital here receives no government grant or assistance of any kind, but is maintained by the residents of the islands for their benefit and also for the logging camps in the vicinity. Last year a campaign was carried on, the hospital was re-shingled, painted and otherwise improved. To do this the directors were forced to place a mortgage on the property and building for $1,000.

The needs now are furnishings or money, the latter to assist in paying the mortgage, the former for equipping the rooms, etc.

Wednesday, July 1, has been set aside as a special day for this purpose, and your assistance would be greatly appreciated by all on the Islands.

J. ROBINSON, Secretary

PRINCE GEORGE

Five crews of men are now working at the lower end of the Prince George-Queensland highway which will be completed within a few weeks now.

Prince George is making elaborate preparations for the reception to Baron Byng of Vimy, Governor General of Canada, on June 25. The city will be brightly decorated and there will be an official reception in front of the City Hall.

Owen W. Ross, appointed to the position of city clerk by the council last week, refused the post which has now been offered to Arthur Wright of West Vancouver. A third choice, in the event of Mr. Wright's failing to accept, has been made in James Fairweather of Vancouver.

Provincial Constable Van Dyck has left for Takla Lake to investigate the circumstances of the recent drowning there of Vic Gluskie.

Dr. R. B. Lazier, who left Prince George in 1919 and who has since been in Nelson and California, has returned here to resume medical practice.

H. G. Perry, M.L.A. has left for Winnipeg on a week's business trip.

Miss Virginia Johnson will enter the Toronto Conservatory of Music in September to complete her piano studies.

ALICE ARM

A new five foot ledge of high grade ore has been uncovered on the Homeguard property by William McFarlane. The ledge is only 300 feet from the east bank of the Kitsault River. The property lies close to the Dolly Varden.

Silver ore to a width not yet determined was encountered last week in the Arberarder tunnel by Archie McPhail and P. Jacob. The Arberarder is only a short distance above the town of Alice Arm.

Robert Henderson has arrived from Vancouver to start development work on his claims near Spring Camp.

C. E. Anderson has arrived from Vancouver to take a position in T. W. Falconer's store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morrison

Can You Afford to Speculate?

EVERY time you buy something you are either speculating or making a definite investment.

Few people can afford to speculate. Yet many do it continually, in making their everyday purchases. And it is so unnecessary. The advertisements make it easy for any one to avoid taking a chance.

The merchant or manufacturer who advertises, realizes that the good-will of his customers means money in the bank to him. He knows that the public confidence in his product and public respect for his own character are as valuable as his credit at the bank.

So he makes the individual satisfaction of his patrons, their loyalty and their friendship paramount issues in his business.

When you buy an advertised product, you can know in advance what to expect in return for your money. You can count on its being right. You are making an investment.

But when you buy nameless, unbranded merchandise, you are taking a chance. You are speculating.

Know what you buy. The advertisements will tell you.

MELLIAR SETTLED IN CALIFORNIA HAS PURCHASED STUDIO

A Santa Cruz newspaper says: W. H. Melliar of British Columbia, who has been touring California for six or eight months, has purchased the Sunbeam Studio, 132 1/2 Pacific Avenue, and is now getting well squared away for an intensive summer's campaign in the photo realm.

Mr. Melliar, who has been doing photographic work for a quarter of a century, declared that both he and his wife are very much pleased with the climatic conditions here, and are doubly interested in the scenic beauties of the country, hence they located here in order to get some of the proverbial California sunshine.

Being a finished workman along his chosen profession, and being well equipped to handle his work in a highly creditably manner, Mr. Melliar is taking up his very pleasant task with a song.

MORE IMMIGRANTS ARRIVE IN CANADA

WINNIPEG, May 27.—Fourteen nationalities, with English, comprising more than half of the total personnel, were represented in a large party of immigrants from the steamships Aurania and Megantie, arriving in Winnipeg over Canadian National lines.

DISCUSSES FISH IN PARLIAMENT

Member For Comox-Alberni Mentions Conditions Which Exist Here in Speech

A. W. Neill, member for Comox-Alberni, speaking in the House of Commons at Ottawa, mentions the fish situation in a recent speech. In opening he said:

"Perhaps, it is right that I, as representing some of the fishermen on the Pacific coast, should speak on this question. I may say that the hon. member for Skeena (Mr. Stork) is at present engaged in the Ocean Freight Rates committee, otherwise I am sure he would be here to lend his views in support of the fishermen whom he represents in common with myself."

Going on to discuss the duties on materials used by fishermen the member defended the government proposals against the conservative critics. He urges that things used in this business should be made as cheap as possible. In the course of his remarks he said:

Halibut Conditions
"The market of the fishermen is a good deal like the wheat market of my hon. friends to my left. The product has to be sold not perhaps in the world market, but in the market of the United States. That market governs the price at which the great bulk of the commodity has to be sold. The amount of halibut consumed in Canada is negligible compared with the amount consumed in the United States. That is where the market lies, and when the American fishermen and the Canadian fishermen go out side by side, the banks being in neutral waters, they have to compete. The American has his boat, equipment and all the material necessary without paying any duty at all. The Canadian has to pay a heavy duty and is handicapped at the start. When they come into port with their fish, the American fish go through Canada in bond to the eastern states market, free of duty, and the Canadian has to pay a duty of two cents on his fish going into the United States. He is handicapped in that way also. What is the result? Canadians go over to the other side, and they have been going over in hundreds and thousands during the last fifteen years. A large number of Canadian fishermen can now be found operating in Seattle, on account of the economic conditions to which I have referred, both as regards the tax on fish and the other conditions. We hear about Canadians going over to the States and we are urged to find means to stop them and to encourage them to come back. The way to encourage them to come back is to make conditions by which they can compete with Americans in the common markets of both of them, which is the United States."

Cost of Living

"Another feature I should like to mention is that this reduction is one which will tend to reduce the cost of living. One of the greatest things statesmen strive for is to reduce the high cost of living. If you reduce the cost of production in a basic industry—and fishing is one of the basic industries—you will cheapen the price to the consumer, and this what the people of Canada want. They want a cheaper cost of living. When my hon. friend from Vancouver South asked a question, he expected a negative answer, but I will give him a different answer. He asked, is it in the interests of Canada to do this? I say yes, it is in the interests of Canada to cheapen the cost of production and keep Canadian citizens in Canada."

BILIOUS AND SICK HEADACHES ARE CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION

Once you allow your bowels to become constipated you will become troubled with bilious and sick headaches, and for relief you must help your liver to remove the poisonous bile that is circulating in the blood and upsetting the entire biliary system. HIGH SCHOOL WON OVER BORDEN ST. JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The third game of the Junior Football League series was played at the Aeropolis Hill grounds last evening, the High School team winning over Borden Street by four goals to nil. The game was arranged so that parents might see their boys in action and a number availed themselves of the opportunity to do so.

The first two-thirds of the game was quite even and there was no scoring until well on in the second half when the High School players, boys of higher stature and greater weight than their opponents, started in. Then the Borden Street boys started to go to pieces. Spiro Gurvich scored two goals; Yoshi Katsuyama, one, and the fourth was kicked by one of the public school boys into their own goal.

Jack Campbell refereed and the linesmen were George Goehring and W. E. Willisoff.
