DEDICATION NEW CHURCH

Bishop DePencier Officiated at Formal Opening New Anglican Edifice

CONFIRMATION SERVICE

Huge Crowds Attend Both Services at St. Andrew's Yesterday

The opening of the new Anglican Church yesterday was a great event not only in the life of the church but of the city. Recognizing this the Presbyterians, Methodists and members of the Salvation Army joined in the event by attending the opening service yesterday morning, and again in the evening the church was crowded to the doors.

Not only was the building dedicated to the service of God by Bishop DePencier but a confirmation service was held when six girls and a man took on themselves the vows made on their behalf at their baptism.

Those confirmed were Miss Grace Ackroyd, the Misses Long, the Misses Cox, Miss Minzor and a Japanese boy.

The Bishop gave a very impressive address and other clergy taking part were Archdeacon Rix, Rev. Canon Rushbrook, and Rev. T. D. Proctor of Hazelton. Two anthems were sung by the choir which was augmented for the occasion and the solo part was taken by Mrs. Ackroyd.

The Bishop also preached in the evening at which service there was also an anthem by the choir and a solo by Miss Annie Dalby.

Many appreciative comments on the interior of the new building were heard by those present and satisfaction that the building which had been started by Archbishop DuVernet and in which he had taken so much pride was now an accomplished fact.

PREMIER IS TAKING MANAGEMENT OF 49

VICTORIA, April 20.—Word has been received here from Toronto that the Premier Mining Company is to take over the management of operations at the Forty-Nine Mine under terms advantageous to the company and to the district.

Geraldine Farrar's private car was searched by customs officials the other day when the prima donna was en route from Montreal to Rutland, Vt., and an assortment of liquors was found.

Plenty of Demand for Salmon says Major Motherwell, Chief Inspector of Fisheries in B.C.

Market conditions as far as the salmon business is concerned promise to be very satisfactory this year, states J. A. Motherwell, chief inspector of fisheries, who is visiting the city today. Stocks from previous years being now all cleaned up, a condition very similar to that of pre-war days is returning. Buyers are begging for the production of the cannery instead of the cannerymen having to extend themselves to find a market as they had to do in recent years. In addition to this, there is no reason to expect a large pack of sockeye on account of this being a light cycle.

With such conditions as these prevailing this summer, it will be necessary to keep a close watch on the fishing and plans are being made for an intensified patrol. Major Motherwell announces that two airplanes from Jericho Beach station, Vancouver, will again be used out of Prince Rupert this season with Flight Lieutenant Earl Macleod and Flying Officer A. H. Hull again the pilots. The machines to be used will be similar to those of last year but, with engines new and fuselages practically rebuilt, it is anticipated that they will be able to conduct a more effective patrol over the same district that was covered last year.

Arriving with Major Motherwell last night was J. W. Allen, gas boat superintendent, who will spend several days here in connection with the annual overhaul of the department's patrol boats at Digby Island.

Looking Into Halibut
Major Motherwell's trip here at this time is for two purposes—first, it is an annual trip of inspection at this time of the year and, secondly, he is giving particular attention to the halibut situation which is being kept in closer touch with on account of the international treaty and

We are assured that the men who are now holding Wong Sing are acting neither for the Scotch societies, nor for the Baker family, nor for the provincial police. They claim to be public-spirited men whose sole object is to remove the stain from the honor of the province which the murder of Janet Smith and the apathy of officialdom has left upon it.

"We have him safe where no one from British Columbia can ever get him. There he will stay until he completes the story that he has partially told. Only one thing will ever release him, and that is the starvation of our whole party," said the spokesman in expressing his confident assurance that Wong Sing will never regain his freedom without their consent and upon their conditions.

Asked if his party has any connection with the Ku Klux Klan, or if it was true as reported at the time of Wong's disappearance that a body of armed men clad in white robes and hoods had seized the Chinaman, the spokesman said that he and his friends had no connection with the K. Chinese Houseboy Held Captive Until He Tells Who Killed Janet Smith

Story when told will shake Shaughnessy Heights
says Saturday Tribune, Cowper's paper

"The mystery of Wong Sing is settled," says the Saturday Tribune, published in Vancouver and edited by J. S. Cowper, formerly editor of the Prince Rupert Daily News. "The Tribune has learned all there is to be learned as yet about his disappearance. We have seen a photograph of him taken in his present place of confinement with his hands tied together, a month's growth of beard upon his face, a picture of Janet Smith upon the wall of his room and beside it printed in ink in large letters, with a brush the accusing word 'Justice.'

The place of his concealment we have taken no steps to find out. A microscopic examination of the photograph shows that the painted letters are on a newspaper published in Seattle and dated April 6, which was probably the date on which the photograph was taken, and affords the only clue to his present whereabouts.

The photograph corroborates the reports of his captors that he is in a bad physical shape as a result of his confinement and fears. He is said to have made some startling admissions during both his waking and his sleeping moments. His captors believe that even without undue pressure they will have the complete story from Wong's lips about the killing of Janet Smith and all the sensational events which preceded and followed the tragedy. From hints that have been dropped, his captors give the impression that the full story when told will shake Shaughnessy Heights to its foundations.

Who are the captors of Wong Sing? To be perfectly frank, The Tribune does not know. We have had extended telephone conversations with the spokesman of the band and we have received a photograph of Wong Sing in his present place of confinement, as proof of their bona fides delivered through the hands of a presumably innocent messenger.

Are Not the Ku-Klux-Klan

We are assured that the men who are now holding Wong Sing are acting neither for the Scotch societies, nor for the Baker family, nor for the provincial police. London Gossip About Clothes

London, April 20.—Not the time, three years ago, a London newspaper tried out a new kind of hat on to man's head has there been a sensation in the men's of fashion as over the new ones. Reported Waiting Outside Local Business Houses this Morning

A person who passed up part of Second Avenue, Sixth Street and Third Avenue this morning shortly after eight o'clock reported what looked like customers trying to get into no less than five places of business, but they were unable to do so because the doors were not yet open. At one place the customer stopped him and asked if he had seen the proprietor and inquired what time he usually arrived. The incident was considered noteworthy in view of the fact that some of the merchants have been saying business is dull.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLES ARE IN EVERY JOURNAL

Every journal is running crossword puzzles these days. They are to be noticed in journals as far apart as the C.N.R. Magazine and the War Cry! They have not yet appeared in the Board of Trade booklet, but doubtless in the next edition there will be some there.

Some of the question you see are difficult and then some of them are very easy, such as a five-letter word denoting "The staff of life." You guess immediately it is bread! But remember at your grocers to say "Electric Bread" and then you get the best

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for taking up the cudgels on behalf of the sick children. As you say in your editorial, not many are sick here but there are a few sad exceptions and for them a child's ward in the hospital is badly needed. BETTER THAN RICHES

Under the dome of the Board of Trade in Manchester, England, is this inscription: "A good name is rather to be chosen than riches." The thought is considerably more than mere sentiment. It is good business.

A good name is recognized as the biggest individual asset a business can have. It is the very keystone of modern industry. Business today is done on such a broad scale--every merchant and every manufacturer has such a long list of customers--that it would not do to have a reputation for "slipping something over"

Advertising has standardized almost every article you can buy. You don't have to bargain and dicker and haggle to know that you are getting as good as you give.

That's why it pays to read the advertisements and to buy advertised goods. A product's advertising is the best guarantee of its faithful performance and lasting usefulness or of definite value. The advertiser would not dare risk his good name by advertising an unworthy product.

If you value satisfaction—if you want to get your full money's worth every time—READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS and buy advertised merchandise.
