N.S. SCHOONER NOSEDIVED WHEN STRUCK

FINAL PREPARATIONS MADE FOR BRINGING CHURCH UNION INTO EFFECT

Nova Scotia Schooner Rammed by Clackamas Nose Dived to Bottom

All of Crew but one Man Went Down with her but Captain and Several Sailors Saved

HALIFAX, May 2.—Five lives were lost late on Thursday afternoon when the Nova Scotia three-masted schooner, Cape Dor, which was to off Cape Lallave, laden with salt, was rammed by a United States Shipping Board steamer Clackamas, inward bound with a cargo of coal.

The Cape Dor did a nose dive to the bottom when she was struck, taking with her the entire crew save one man. Captain Wilkie and several seamen were subsequently rescued by the crew of the Clackamas, but the Captain's wife perished.

COAL BUNKERS PRINCE RUPERT

Edson Petitions Federal Authorities Asking That They be Built Here

EDMONTON, May 2.—A petition urging the early erection of coal bunkers at Prince Rupert to accommodate the product of Northern Alberta coal fields, has been forwarded to the Federal authorities by Edson coal producers and a copy has been received by the Edmonton Board of Trade, whose support in pressing the case at Ottawa has been requested.

In the letter received by the local organization yesterday, it is pointed out that efforts are being made to secure a market in Prince Rupert for Alberta coal. It is believed by Edson coal men that the port is destined to become one of the largest shipping centres on the Pacific Coast and that it is a logical market for Alberta coal. A population of about 18,000 could be served, it is contended, in addition to coaling the numerous ships which carry away Alberta grain and cattle.

It is further claimed that the development of the Edson field would create business for Edmonton, and if the Prince Rupert market is not exploited in the near future, Americans are likely to step in, as they have already done in the east, and supply coal from the Alaska mines.

The petition to Ottawa requests that consideration be given to the early erection of bunkers at Prince Rupert, so that they may be provided simultaneously with the provision for grain shipments.

The remarkable achievement of Miss Mabel Green, blind typist of London, lies behind the publication of a book recently, the entire manuscript of which, extending to 40,000 words, she took down in Braille shorthand and faultlessly transcribed.

Final Church Meetings Before Union in Effect Hacker to Remain Here

The coming few weeks will mark important changes taking place in connection with the churches of the country. The Union of the Methodist, Congregational and a large part of the Presbyterian church takes place on June 10 and in the meantime the church meetings are to be held to make final arrangements for the change.

Rev. G. G. Hacker leaves Monday morning for Vancouver to attend the Sunday School meeting and district meeting to be followed by the B.C. Conference which will be held the following week. He will be away about a fortnight.

There is no delegate going from here to the Presbyterian Synod meeting, which takes place during the coming week, commencing Tuesday night. Rev. Dr. Grant, hopes however, to be able to attend the general conference in Toronto on June 3.

At the Synod meeting this week it is very probable a new synod will be formed by representatives of the non-concurring congregations of which there are 22 in British Columbia. New Westminster went solidly against union with four congregations.

The launching of the new union church is a great movement in church history. It will not affect the local situation as the Presbyterian Church here remains out of the Union and there is no Congregational Church. The Methodist Church will be the only one upholding the banner of unionism here.

Rev. G. G. Hacker, pastor of the local Methodist Church, has accepted a request to remain here for another two years, although he has been invited to go to Ladysmith and also to Ocean Falls. His remaining is of course subject to the approval of the stationing committee.

CHANGING TO OIL BURNERS

New Combustion System at By-Products Plant—Interesting Experiments Going on

The combustion system at the Rupert Marine Products plant at Fuchs Inlet is being converted from coal burning to oil burning, the new machinery having arrived here during the week. The change is being made in the interests of efficiency of operation. This is only one of several improvements that are being made to the plant this year.

G. G. Bushby, head of the concern, stated this morning that interesting experiments with a view to widening the scope of the plant's production are now being carried out. One product that is being worked on is the recovery of pearl from salmon and herring scale and halibut by a flotation process. The concern is also working on a new protein concentrate. The latter would involve considerable extension to the plant, so it is being very carefully gone into before anything of a definite nature with regard to it is decided upon.

Commons Adopts it and it is Read to Senate: Small Changes Made

OTTAWA, May 2.—A resolution approving the treaty between Canada and the United States providing for further demarcation of the international boundary, passed the House of Commons yesterday afternoon and was read in the Senate.

Premier King, in introducing the resolution, stated that the treaty was signed at Washington in February and awaited ratification of parliament. Its provisions included arrangements for the maintenance of monuments marking the Alaska-Canadian boundary and defining the Canadian water area in the Lake of the Woods, hitherto undecided, and straightening a curve in the boundary line through the Rocky Mountains which gave the States an additional 22 acres of land.

Lady was Killed at Vancouver When Automobile Skidded and Struck Light Standard Main St.

VANCOUVER, May 2.—Miss Eileen McMillan, an employee of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was fatally injured last night when the car in which she was a passenger skidded on the wet pavement on Main Street and ended up on the other side of the street where it struck a light standard. So great was the impact that Miss McMillan was thrown from the car a distance of nearly 25 feet, fractured her skull and suffered internal injuries, as a result of which she died soon after she was taken to the hospital.

The driver of the car, James Sandy, escaped uninjured and was later taken into custody and charged with driving to the common danger.

How We All Mumble Our National Anthem!

How we all mumble our national anthem! We seldom sing it properly because we do not know the words. The chief difficulty is that there are several versions, the words of which have been printed from time to time in this paper.

At the recent luncheon to Charles G. D. Roberts it was noticeable that everybody had to look closely at the cards supplied by the club in order to take part in the singing. The difference between the singing of "O Canada" and "God Save the King" was very marked.

At a recent lecture at the Booth School at which a number of young people were present, the result was even worse than at the Canadian Club luncheon, and similar results are obtained at most other events. This is not a credit to the Canadian people.

Admire A Person Who Will Stand Alone.

It is very noticeable that at public meetings most people want to swing with the crowd. A crowd resembles very much a flock of sheep. Those who know animals are aware that if one sheep jumps through a hole in a fence, the whole flock will follow. So it often is with a crowd. They like to follow.

At the public meeting Thursday night only two men voted against the main resolution. Plenty were opposed to it, but they kept quiet because the crowd was against them. The main thing is to stand out for what is believed to be correct in face of all opposition.

Takes No Backwater On Provincial Finances.

Hon. Dr. MacLean, minister of finance for the province, is not ashamed of the record of his department or of the standing of the province financially. He goes to the Canadian Credit-men's Association in Vancouver, men who understand what finance means, and he lays his case before them. He states unreservedly that the wealth of the province is greater than that of any other in Canada per head of the population. He also says that sinking funds of the province, which provide for the paying off of the debt are in better shape than that of any other province in the Dominion.

Had Dr. MacLean been wrong he would have heard of it from the men to whom he was speaking. Let us be proud of our province and give due credit to the men who have brought back its financial condition from one of almost bankruptcy to one of the highest standing. This is not politics. It is business.

Fight Hard When An Election Comes.

We admire the person who fights hard for what he believes to be right at election time. He is fully justified even if we do not agree with his stand. The man we despise is the man who is always playing politics from one year to the next. He is willing to sacrifice his city, his province or his country for the sake of damaging his opponents. If we are always knocking the government of the province we are knocking ourselves because we elected them.

The finances of B.C. have been coming in for criticism from people who should be ashamed to talk finances. There is no election in sight, possibly for years, so why foul our own nest by knocking the financial condition of the country in which we live.

GYRO HOEDOWN PICTURESQUE

Grotesque Costumes of Men and Simplicity of Ladies' Was Noticeable

The Gyro hoedown at the auditorium last night was a picturesque affair — lively, varied and always enjoyable. The popularity of the Gyro boys as hosts proved so great that the ladies, especially, turned out in large numbers, so large that it was difficult to accommodate them all with partners. However, the scene from the side benches and galleries was a full recompense. The costumes of the men varied greatly and wholly transformed them from their ordinary selves. Some wore hunting or fishing costumes, some farmer togs, others sported the clothes of the workshop. The only thing that was taboo was the evening suit or the tuxedo. Hats were worn by some, where they were necessary to complete the costume, but they were mostly discarded as the evening passed. Shirt sleeves were a sign of superiority and daring.

Strong Contrasts

In strong contrast to the grotesque getup of the men were the simple gowns of the girls. Silks and satins had been banished and their places taken by the cotton creations of the kitchen. And as one spectator remarked, "The girls never looked so pretty or carried themselves with such an air of pleasing homeliness" as they did on that occasion. Perhaps it was the memory of the kitchen that made them so popular. At any rate the men worked overtime trying to give them as many dances as possible.

Lionel Holby of course was master of ceremonies. He combined his duties in that respect with those of police magistrate, meting out punishment to those arrested for breaches of decorum or breaking of the rules in connection with dress.

And then there was the supper and the cider punch and the icecream and the hay. Those who could not afford other luxuries ate hay. Quite a number seemed to be doing that, yet in spite of their efforts, several hales were left at the close.

Decorations there were, different, light, artistic, blending with the lights and shades of the floor and set off by the Gyro emblems. They might be said to be grotesque.

Just how long the festivities lasted or how much hot dog and cider and coffee and ice cream and energy were consumed is not handed out for publication. It is averred by those who passed the hall after daylight that the music had ceased and that it appeared as if the lights were out. Two by two the dancers fell away and gave up the pursuit of pleasure, happy to the end. And then the Gyros left also. So ended the second hoedown of the club, one that will help to make Gyro history.

The committee in charge consisted of Norris Pringle (chairman), George R. Tite, Sidney Bazett-Jones, Roy Nichols, Doug, Stork, Stan Taylor and Roland Harlow.

The following were on sub-committees:

- Orchestra arrangements — Doug, Stork.
- Cashier — S. K. Campbell.
- Doorkeeper — Leo Waugh.
- Hot Dogs — George Tite, Frank Pearson, Fred Henning.
- Ice Cream — F. E. Robertson, De. Tait.

Informal Discussion at Board of Trade Meeting But no Business Done

Either discouraged by the criticisms levelled at them at the public meeting the previous night or attracted by the Gyro hoedown at the auditorium members of the Board of Trade last night failed to turn out in numbers sufficient to form a quorum.

Informally some of those present discussed what might be done to entertain members of the Vancouver and other southern mainland boards of trade on the occasion of their visit to Prince Rupert in July.

The proposal to erect large signs at the Canadian National and Provincial government docks to let tourists and other visitors know what is to be seen here, will be left over until it is known what money is available for publicity purposes.

Salvation Army

Diamond Jubilee Self Denial Fund?

THE KING'S MESSAGE

"By its works of love and mercy, both in peace and in war, the Salvation Army has become honored and endeared to the hearts of the Nations of the World."
GEORGE R. I.

If you are in sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army—and who today is not?—this Jubilee Appeal is your opportunity to express it in the most practical form. The Army asks you this year—whether you go to church or not—to send a gift this week to the Diamond Jubilee Self Denial Fund. The minimum to be raised is $100,000; a very much larger sum, as every one knows, could be most usefully employed. The Army is confident that in Western Canada, where its humanitarian work has always been reasonably well supported, this appeal shall not be in vain.

WHAT THE ARMY IS DOING

The object of the Salvation Army in Canada West, as in all other countries of the world, is and always has been, to aid in making it a better country to live in. This can be accomplished only by eliminating distress, vice and crime. Every man and woman transformed into a law-abiding self-respecting citizen is an asset toward the nation's increased production.

success. Its fight against all the forces of evil has never slackened. Its work has been in the open and is known to all. It has sought to rescue the perishing, care for the dying, to lift up the fallen. It has done this from the beginning with insufficient money. The Salvation Army is poor. It lives literally from hand to mouth. If ever it needed money in Canada West, it needs it now. Its own people are poor, but it asks them annually to exercise additional self denial and to give the money so saved to this great cause.

SELF DENIAL

Self Denial Week in Canada West in 1925 begins May 10. The effort extends, however, through most of the month. The seven days commencing May 3, is a week of prayer, and the week commencing May 17 will be devoted to the effort of the young people. Friends everywhere are welcomed and invited to join and take part in this effort, to unite with Salvationists in the practice of special self denial at this time and to make a gift to the humanitarian work of the Army at home and abroad.

For almost sixty years the Salvation Army has been doing its beneficent work with ever growing

Sales Good—Money Tight

The waterfront retailers report an increased volume of sales over the corresponding period last year but state that money is tight as a result of the continued low prices of fish. The local shipyards continue busy and have sufficient work on hand to keep them employed for the next three months. The work includes the building of new halibut, trolling and seining boats while considerable repair work is also being carried out. Owing to the continued low prices, offering for Canadian catches, several old timers in the halibut fishing are seriously contemplating quitting the game for good and, as they put it, going to "work." On the other hand there seems to be an undecurrent of optimism prevailing in certain circles of the nautical fraternity, and in spite of the present lough going, as far as low prices are concerned, a rise in fish prices in the near future seems to be expected. With this belief in mind new halibut schooners are being built.

The persistent wintry weather has been the means of preventing a large number of trolling boats from leaving for the salmon grounds. The wet weather has greatly interfered with painting work. However, the belated trollers are fully occupied upon overhauling their respective boats and gear and early next week the main flotilla of the local trollers will leave for the Hippo Island area.

Price Comparison

While the main topic of discussion on the waterfront is the matter of prices offered on the Fish Exchange for fresh halibut, the following comparison of prices prevailing today as against this time last year should be of interest.

W. Pilling is building a V-bottom 18 foot boat for Joe Anthony, section foreman at Tye. The boat when completed will be powered with a 5-h.p. Gaille-Perfection engine.

A new keel has been laid at the Suga yards for a 28 foot trolling boat for Geo. Papadopoulos. The new troller will have 7½ foot beam, 4 foot depth and upon completion will be powered with a 7 h.p. Halliday engine.

A Columbia river boat is being converted into a trolling boat at the Cow Bay creek ways for Cecil Ross of Port Simpson. The boat will be powered with a new 6 h.p. Vivian engine.

Capt. John Hanson has had considerable remodelling work done recently at the Cow Bay creek ways on his trolling boat Fox, including the erection of a new cabin and the installation of a new 14 h.p. Palmer engine. Akerberg, Thomson & Co. completed the engine installation on Thursday.

Lost His Two Bits

A heated discussion occurred on the provincial dock one day this week on the matter of how many four 7's and an ace counted in crib. So heated did the discussion become that those embroiled in the controversy went home to get their ice cream pants and straw hats. Doc Claperton returning plus a chunk of ice. Frank Davies was the main cause of annoyance and claimed that the holder of the cards could only count 20. This was strongly resented by the crib fiends present, one gentleman claiming that Frank was evidently suffering from a chafed eyelid or some such terrible malady. However, Frankie stuck to his gun and offered to bet two hits, paid in ten yearly instalments, that four 7's and an ace only counted 20. After chewing up a few boxes of matches in wrath, Doc was able to prove to Frank that such a hand counted 24 and not 20 points, and after a little forceful persuasion, the monied man was prevailed upon to pay the first instalment of the stakes. Frank is a sorrowful but a wiser man now on the fine points of the manly art of crib playing.

The keel for a new 32 foot seine boat is being laid at the Suga yards for Andrew Lewis. A 15 h.p. Imperial engine will supply the power for the boat when completed.

A New Captain

"Capt." Dr. H. E. Tremayne is the latest skipper to take an active part in the welfare of the Prince Rupert Yacht Club having recently purchased the nifty little power boat Nadine from Geo. Rorie. Already Nadine is clothed in her summer regalia of white enamel and judging from the manner in which she tugs at her mooring ropes is "rarin' to go." New seats have been installed in the craft and if we don't miss our guess, Nadine will be in the vanguard of all future Yacht Club picnics and other hilarious summer happenings.

W. E. Williams returned to port on Wednesday aboard his power boat Shawatlans from a local timber cruising exploit.

New Gas Generator

The Ward Electrical & Marine Supply Co., Cow Bay, have recently been appointed northern representatives for the latest improved type of Therm domestic gas generator specially adopted for galley ranges. The great features of the Therm generator are economy of operation and cleanliness. These burners will operate on distillate or kerosene and are made to fit any kind of boat stove. The Therm generator has already proved very popular on local boats and a large number are giving entire satisfaction. These burners are in operation at the Cow Bay shop and seining is believing.

McLean Yards Active

There is much activity at the McLean shipyards and the ways are fully occupied with new boats building and boats up for repairs. The keel has just been laid for a 45-foot halibut boat for John Wicks, which will be completed about June 1. This boat will be powered with a 24-28 h.p. Vickers-Peters semi-diesel engine.

The new halibut boat Alken is completed for Kergin & Hanson and with the erection of the mast, is all ready to take the water. A trial trip will be run on Sunday.

Mac has an order for a 38 foot halibut boat for Chris Haymoller and the keel will be laid as soon as the Wicks' boat is finished. Chris will install a 20 h.p. full diesel Denmark engine in his new boat.

Thor Johnson's power yacht, Leinish, is up on the ways for a general overhaul.

Around the Q.C. Islands

The lighthouse tender Newington, Capt. H. Ormiston, is all in readiness for a complete trip around the Queen Charlotte Islands on a visit to 23 light-houses. The Newington will go right around the west coast through Grenville Channel winding up at the Egg Island light. The trip will take a month to complete and the tender will leave over the week end returning to port around June 4.

The Marine station launch Rhiona is up on the ways for painting and the Birnie will take up the jitney run until she is re-commissioned in the Marine

A Wonderful Battery

The Philadelphia Battery Co. have recently appointed the Ward Electric & Marine Supply Co., Cow Bay, their northern agents for the new Philco Battery, which has wonderful possibilities. The Philco battery has been specially built for lighting purposes on boats and has particularly heavy plates and separators giving the battery considerably more capacity and durability over the old type. These batteries are guaranteed for two years and are most reasonably priced.

Shingled or Bobbed?

Chris Nelson, the man who put the "p" in progressive, has recently purchased a lot at Seal Cove upon which he is thinking of erecting a "shingling" mill. Of course it may be that Chris will later instal machinery to take care of "bobbing" also. Let that be as it may, Chris has been busy of late hauling in pieces of timber from across the harbor and if honest hard work leads to success, Chris will soon be sitting on the lid.

On Thursday last the tug M.T.3 towed a boom of logs consisting of 65,000 feet from Silver Creek to Georgetown.

Ed. Paulson is leaving over the week end on his trolling boat Palmer for the Hippo Island district.

Bushby Fleet Doings

The tug M.T.3, Capt. R. Green, flagship of the Bushby fleet, is outfitting a load of planks for the provincial government to Oona River where plank walks are to be erected for the convenience of settlers. On her return trip the tug will tow a boom of logs from Mink Trap Bay to Georgetown. The logs have been cut by Emil Quist. The tug Tide Rip, Capt. Harris Kerr, arrived from Georgetown on Thursday morning with a scow load of box lumber for the Pacific fisheries. The tug P.R.T. is being put into commission this week after having undergone considerable overhaul work, including painting and a general clean-up.

Fairbanks-Morse stationary engine which is to be installed on the suction pump of the gravel scow in place of the 26 h.p. Buffalo which will be presented to Geoff Lambley in memory of happy days. With this new power suction plant aboard the gravel scow, it is on the cards that the government will shortly be petitioned to lay a new ocean bed in local waters.

Alex. Wylie, of Seal Cove, who has just completed the building of his new trolling boat, received a wire from Ottawa this week allotting to his boat the name of Unome. The Unome will be leaving for the trolling grounds during the coming week.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Miss T. Hunter, R.R. No. 8, London, Ont., writes:—"I wish to recommend Burdock Blood Bitters to all women who are suffering from pimples or any other facial blemishes. About two years ago I was greatly troubled with pimples and sores breaking out on my face, and could get no relief until, finally, a friend recommended me to take B.B.B. This I did, and I am now glad to say that your remedy has given me the desirable results, and I now have a nice smooth, clear skin, as it has eliminated all the impurities from my blood."

Get B.B.B. when you ask for it; it has been on the market for the past 45 years; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

G. A. Bryant 13

PRINCE GEORGE

Both the city council and the police commission at meetings this week considered the proposal of Mayor Alward to have the provincial police take over the policing of the city. While no definite decision has yet been reached by the council, members in the discussion seemed to view the matter with suspicion. As far as the police commission is concerned, Mayor Alward and Commissioner R. W. McLeod are in favor of the change while Commissioner J. D. McLeod is opposed to it. The government's offer is to police the city for $4,700 per year which is about the same as the cost under the present system though this year's estimate considerably exceeds that.

A lodge of the Order of the Eastern Star has been organized here. Mrs. Herb Porter is worthy matron and Mrs. A. Platen, secretary.

Joe Keenan's ranch house and barn at Newlands were destroyed by fire last Sunday. The loss is estimated at $5,000, partly covered by insurance.

The R.C. Barn, owned by Dominick Killoran and leased by F. J. Johnson, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon.
