Vancouver Council Told Political Interference Will Not be Tolerated

Manson Defends Policy of Enforcement of Law and Says will be Vigorously Maintained

VANCOUVER, Jan. 10.—At a meeting with local members of the Legislature the city council last night passed a resolution asking why $22,000 was deducted from the city's share of the liquor profits for enforcement of the liquor laws. Each alderman in turn demanded an explanation of alleged provincial government interference with civic affairs.

Replying, members of the legislature took a united stand, asserting that Hugh Davidson, as sole controller, has complete charge of the administration of the Act and there had been no political interference.

HIJACKERS ARE BEFORE COURT

Extradition proceedings and Fourth Held

SEATTLE, Jan. 10.—Release of three of the four suspects and the presentation of the confession of Paul Strumkins in the hi-jacking murmur on the gasboat Beryl G. off Pender Island on September 15 featured the opening of the extradition proceedings in the superior court. The men released were Clarence Cheatwood, Harold Morris, and Ray Kramer, who with Charles Morris had been held in jail as fugitives from B.C. accused of complicity in the murder of Captain W. Gillis and his son on the liquor runner Beryl G. Charles Morris is held.

Strumkins, the Victoria boatman, in a confession, said he was hired by Owen "Cannonball" Baker, now under arrest in New York, and he took Baker, Charles Morris and Harry Sowash to a point near the Beryl G. The three passengers rowed to the Beryl G. in a skiff. Shots were heard by Strumkins, who later saw Baker take the bodies of Gillis and his son to the deck, handcuffing them together and throwing them overboard.

Baker is under arrest in New York.

TUG AND BARGE COMING TONIGHT

The lighthouse tender Newington, Capt. Harry Ormiston, arrived at Digby Island marine station this afternoon at 1:30 after having stood by the anchored barge Bergamon all night at Baron Island.

Capt. Ormiston reported that, when he left the distressed barge at 9:35 this morning, the Marmion had already arrived and was preparing to take the Bergamon in tow. Capt. Ormiston expected that the Marmion and her tow would probably arrive here about 7 o'clock this evening.

The Newington also brought in word that the Bergamon was undamaged and her crew were safe although with wind, rain, snow and all manner of varying weather conditions, they had had a very trying experience.

DEPARTURE TIME OF WAY FREIGHT FROM HERE IS CHANGED

In order to connect with the boat from the south, the weekly way freight from here for interior points now leaves on Thursday mornings instead of Wednesday mornings as in the past. It arrives from the interior on Friday afternoons. A heated car service is now also handled on the train.

Dr. Joseph F. Maguire is sailing this afternoon on the Princess Beatrice for Seattle.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—A definite step toward a solution of the transportation problems of the Peace River territory was made today when the conference of interested parties and railway executives under the aegis of the federal minister of railways invited the G.P.R. and the G.N.R. to work together to produce some working scheme.

A long conference was held with the premiers of B.C. and Alberta, members of Parliament and others. Premier Oliver made a strong plea for development of the Peace River territory and the utilization, if possible, of the P.G.E. railway. Whatever be left to the engineers who are now studying the field,

Premier Oliver expressed satisfaction with the results obtained. These would have been greater, he thought, if the conference had been given data on engineering and maintenance which the railways appeared to possess. However, he felt sure the railways would accept the responsibility invested in them by the conference and will work together to arrive at a working scheme.

The railway presidents promised to make every effort to arrive at a scheme for joint operation of railways in the Peace River, the question of routes to

Barge Bergamon Found Anchorage Between Dundas Islands and is Being Towed to Port by Marmion

Anchored off Baron Island at the mouth of Hudson Bay Passage on Dundas Island, the lumber barge Bergamon, which went adrift from the tug Massett early yesterday morning and for the safety of which fears were expressed, was located at 8:30 last night by the lighthouse tender Newington, Capt. Ormiston. In a wireless message to headquarters at Digby Island, Capt. Ormiston reported that the barge was unharmed and her crew, headed by Capt. Wingate, safe. There was nobody who received this welcome news with more relief than Capt. Pearson of the Massett who was in a very anxious frame of mind all day yesterday.

Immediately news was received of the Bergamon's position, it was decided to send the Coastwise Steamship & Barge Co.'s tug Marmion, Capt. Cameron, out to bring the barge into this port. The Marmion, which arrived in port yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Anyox with a coal barge for the dry dock, went out during the night and was to have been beside the Bergamon by daybreak this morning.

This afternoon, the tug and her tow will probably arrive here. Later, it is expected, she will continue her interrupted voyage to Cumshewa Inlet to spring located near Ketchikan have been taken over by Miss Agnes Herring. The resort was sold at auction.

A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring officers for their excellent work.

Route to Peace River by way of Hazelton Urged by Board of Trade and to be Investigated

The Peace River Board of Trade is in communication with the Prince Rupert board in connection with a railroad outlet from the Peace River district to the coast. A letter was read at the meeting of the local board last night asking if any steps had been taken to bring before the conference the advantages of the route through the Peace River pass at the Forks via the Omineca River and Teela Lake to Hazelton and Prince Rupert. The letter says:

"The two routes of which there is the most talk, that is the Brule line and the extension of the P.G. & E. would neither of them benefit the main Peace River country which lies to the north of the Peace River."

"Prince Rupert is our nearest and natural outlet to the Pacific coast."

G. W. Nickerson urged the importance of taking this matter up and securing a proper examination of the route by Hazelton. He moved that a committee be appointed by the president to wait on Fred Stork and F. G. Dawson with a view to having representations made for an adequate survey.

E. G. Gibbons suggested they should use their influence to get an adequate report and should interest the Provincial Government in the matter.

J. G. McLennan said this was the most important matter at present before them. Hazelton was about half way between here and the Peace River, according to the map. A recent visitor to the city, David Barr, who had been in that country thirteen years, had stated that the bulk of the wheat lands was north of the Peace River and he thought the route should come by Hazelton.

H. H. Little said surveys of the route had been made by the C.P.R. and by Lord Rhondda.

It was decided to have the committee appointed and the new president chose E. C. Gibbons, M. P. Caffery and Olof Hanson.

AIRDROME AND FORTRESS

Flying Corps on Each Ship;
Smoke Stacks May Not be Needed

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The design of the battleships Nelson and Rodney being built in Britain, are so revolutionary, according to the Daily Express, it marks the end of the Dreadnaught era. Both are fortresses and air-dromes and have a radius of action covering a thousand miles. Nine sixteen inch guns are mounted on each of three turrets, all forward. There are no guns aft, as that part of the vessel constitutes the flying deck.

The ships carry their own flying corps and planes.

Probably there will be no funnels, the products of the furnaces being discharged through pipes running alongside the stern.

The deck will be armored to protect the ship against aerial bombs.

TIFLIS, Georgia, Jan. 10.—One hundred persons and a thousand cattle were frozen to death during the unprecedented cold weather prevailing throughout the Caucasus. Several instances of shepherds and farmers, who went to the fields to tend their cattle and sheep, having been frozen with the flocks, have been given. It is feared the effect on the crops will mean a famine next year.

Need Of Life Saving Vessel These Waters.

A life saving vessel should undoubtedly be located in these waters. There is a great deal of shipping passes this port and often there is no suitable vessel to send out in case of need as was illustrated yesterday. What seems to be needed is a vessel suitable for saving life and property. A salvage vessel could be located here but it would have to be large enough to brave the seas of Hecate Straits in a storm.

For many years the Dominion Government subsidized a salvage vessel located at Victoria and possibly does so yet. Here the private salvage company is unable to afford to keep a large enough vessel in readiness to go out in an emergency.

Shipping Logs In Winter Dangerous.

Shipping lumber or logs across Hecate Straits in winter is difficult and dangerous. Seas come up very quickly and as a result many a big raft has been lost when crossing. The barge Bergamon was fitted to withstand the heavy seas but her tug seems to have been unfitted for the big strain. The lesson is that winter transportation of logs is dangerous unless the craft used is able to withstand ocean storms.

Airplane Trip To North Pole.

The British are to make a bid for the honor of being the first to fly to the North Pole. Doubtless the scheme is being promoted by private enterprise as it is hardly a scheme in which a government would be interested. If anyone wishes to win honors of that kind it should be by means of those who have money to spend on luxuries.

The fact that a British Columbian is to take part in the proposed trip brings it home to us and will cause us to take an unusual interest in the proceedings.

Political Interference With Liquor Administration.

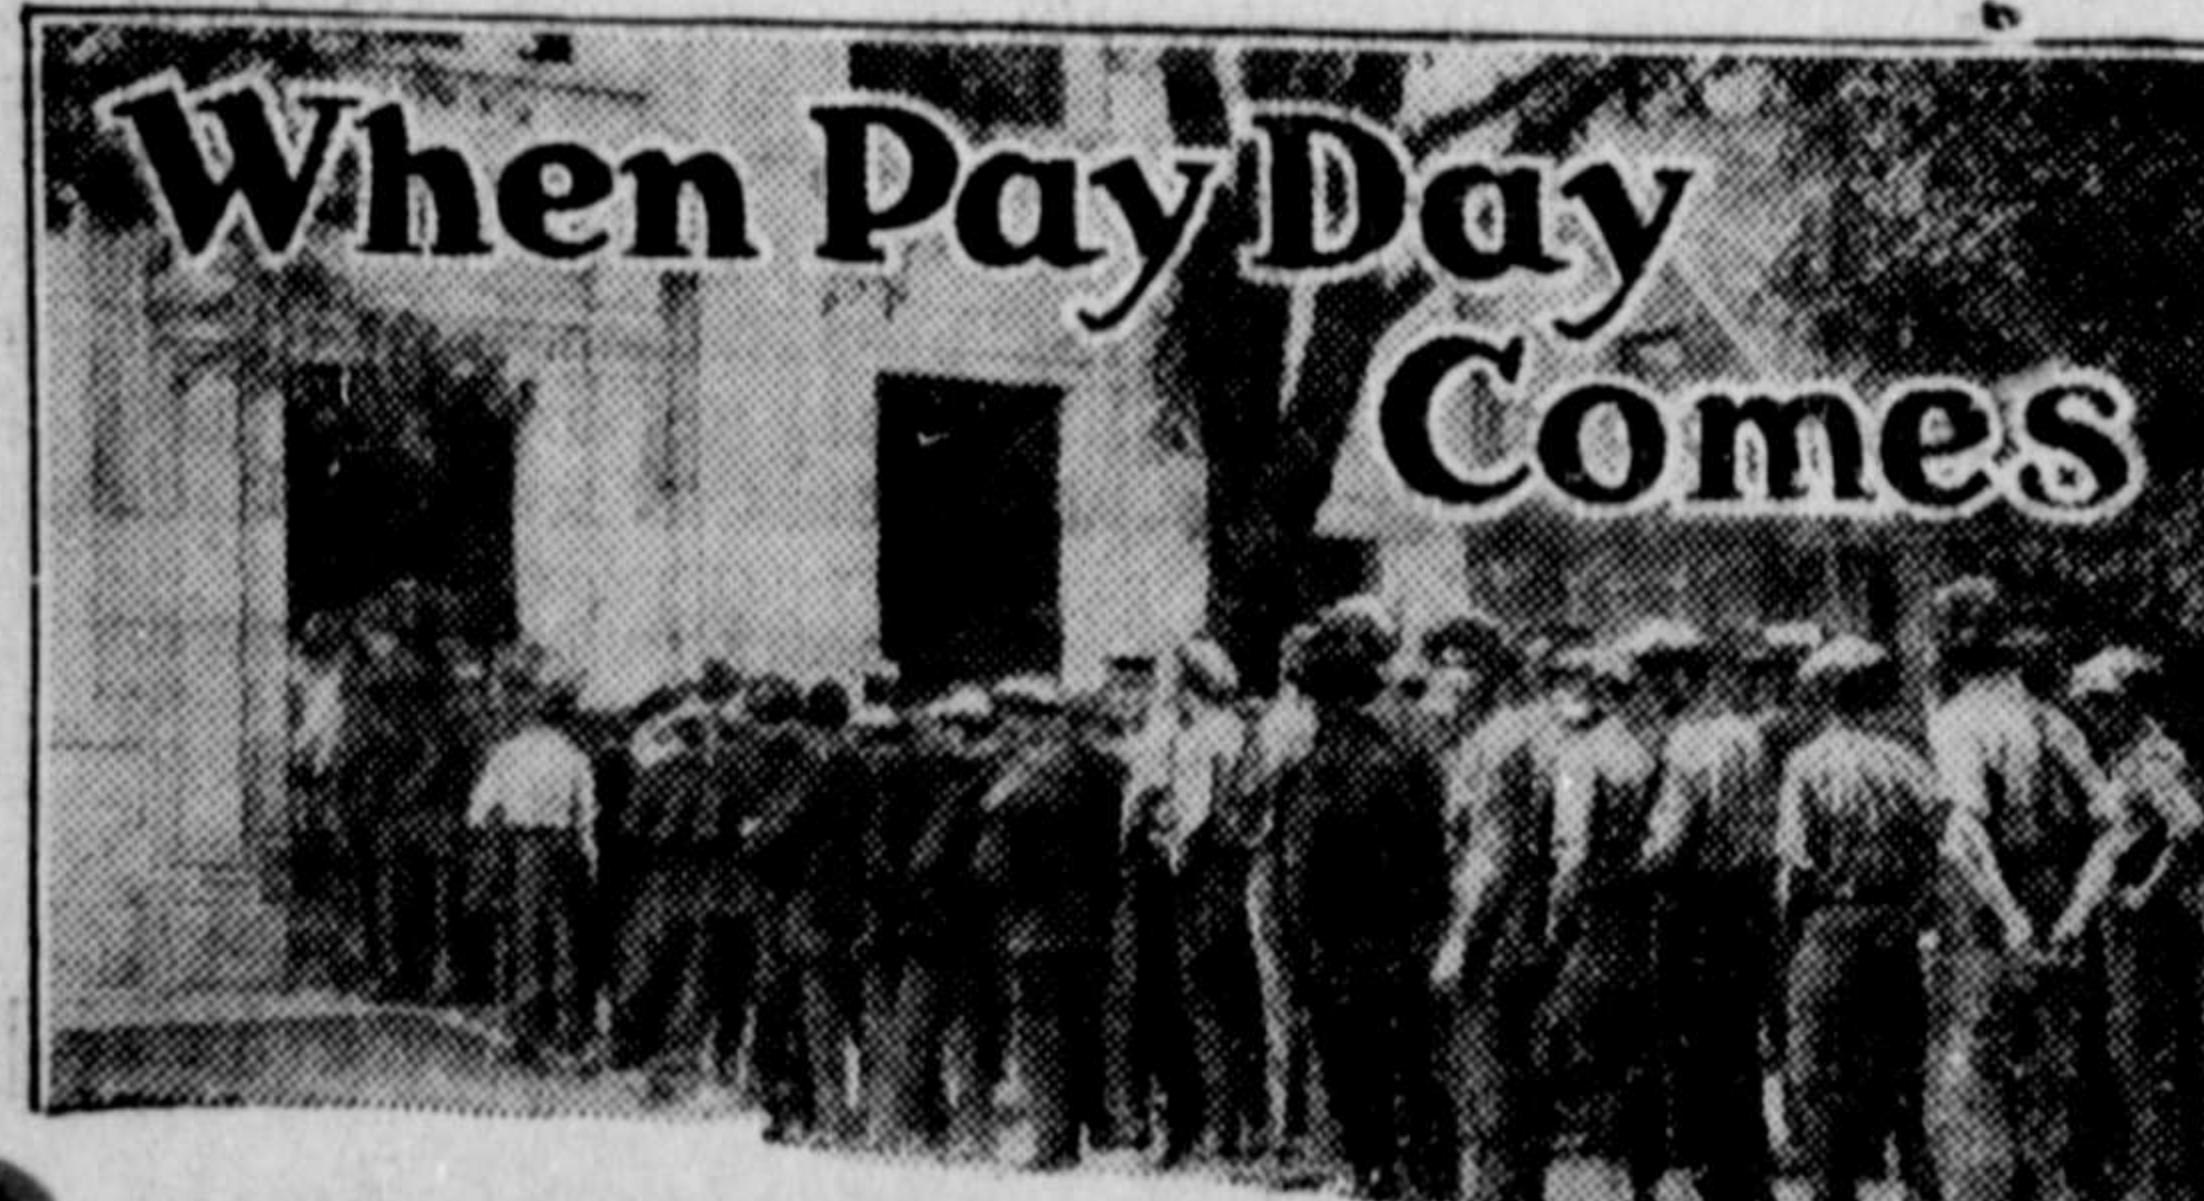

At a meeting with the members of the Vancouver City Council the Vancouver members of the Legislature told them plainly that there would be no political interference with the administration of the Act by Hugh Davidson, who is in sole charge of the work.

That is the correct stand to take. There is altogether too much political interference in government work generally. Every district tries to get advantages without consideration of the general public interest, and it is often unscrupulous as to the manner in which the advantage is secured. People do things in political life which they would not do in connection with their own private affairs and think it correct.

Political Conscience Is Sorely Needed.

What is needed today is a political conscience that will restrain politicians doing things which are incorrect ethically. The difficulty is that people and especially rival politicians are so ready to cry "graft" without first investigating. Politicians are all looked upon as grafters so that there is little advantage in keeping straight. It is easy to denounce and the word "graft" is bandied so often and without anything but the most flimsy evidence that it has become meaningless.

Usually the people who howl about political interference are the first to interfere with the conduct of public affairs if the opportunity arises.

Popular Skipper of Venture Figures in New Year Festivities at China Hat

BAND MEETS BOAT

January 1 Was Occasion For Much Joy and Enthusiasm—Bella Coola Visitors

CHINA HAT, Jan. 10.—The New Year was ushered in here with joy and enthusiasm.

When the steamer Venture arrived that day, making her regular call, the band turned out and serenaded Capt. Andy Johnston and his officers. A snowball fight ensued between the crew of the vessel and the townsfolk and at least one well packed missile was seen to alight on the aristocratic features of the general skipper.

In the afternoon, the band again paraded and the whole community went to church where Rev. George Edgar conducted a special service in the course of which the new church bell was presented and various badges of office were awarded.

In the evening there was a novel Japanese entertainment followed by the serving of refreshments and the making of speeches.

On the day after New Year's, the town was host to a party of natives from Bella Coola. There was a great feast and the festivities were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

COLOR PHOTPLAY THAT IS DIFFERENT

Zane Grey's Story Told in Picture is Full of Ginger and Beauty

"Wanderer of the Wasteland" is different from any photoplay yet made. It is the first full-length feature to be photographed entirely in color! And if that doesn't make it different then we don't know the meaning of the word. Moreover, if "Wanderer of the Wasteland" isn't a real rival of "the Covered Wagon," we miss our guess. High praise, indeed, but a good many people who have seen both will absolutely agree with us.

Zane Grey's story is familiar to many, but for those who have not read the book we will say that it's a story of a man, who is driven out into the desert by an unjust persecution, to become a wanderer and an outcast. The good that he does for others gives him the courage to come back to civilization and fight his own fight and win it. There is virtually every desirable fan interest in the picture—love, thrills, fights, humor — now, honestly, what more does anybody want than that?

And to top it all, there's a tip-top cast of popular players, who actually seem to live the parts they play. Jack Holt achieves a great triumph in his vivid portrayal of the "wanderer." Billie Dove has opportunities out of the ordinary for splendid acting and makes the most of them. Noah Beery again proves he is one of the best character actors on the screen, and Kathryn Williams covers herself with dramatic glory.

"Wanderer of the Wasteland" was shown here last night and will be repeated tonight.

ROTORSHIP TOWERS FOR LAND POWER IS PROMISED BY FLETTNER

KIEL, Jan. 9.—The Flettner rotorship and the statement of its inventor that the principle of cylindrical towers to secure power from the air will also be used in harnessing the wind on land, continue to be discussed here.

Here Flettner is reticent about his plans to utilize wind power on land, saying only that within a year he hopes to exhibit models which will enable irrigation plants, factories and municipalities to take power directly from the wind through the use of the discoveries he has worked out in his study of air currents and their effect upon revolving towers. Towers for use on land will be high, as the constant winds are far above the earth's surface. Here Flettner is confident that eventually there will be a great saving of fuel through the use of air currents.

The inventor declares also that small sailboats of all kinds, including pleasure craft, can be fitted with one rotating tower that will propel them successfully on rivers, bays and lakes.

A FISH STORY

The customer had waited half an hour for the fish he had ordered. At last the waiter appeared.

"Your fish will be here in five minutes," he said.

Another quarter of an hour passed, and then the customer summoned the waiter. "Say," he inquired, "what kind of bait are you using?"

That's the kind of arithmetic we teach with our "Float-Ironed" service. It washes and dries everything, irons everything flat. You may have some touching up to do on some of the wearing apparel—but otherwise the entire task of washday is taken off your hands. It's the cheapest partially finished service—requiring the least amount of ironing at home. Our Float-Ironed Service is the answer to the washday problem. Shall we solve yours?

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

The first game in the recently organized Prince Rupert Gribble League will be played on Monday night next in the St. Andrew's rooms between the following teams:

Great War Veterans' vs. Moose Loyal Orange Lodge vs. Dry Dock.

Sons of Canada vs. Elks.

St. Andrew's vs. Regiment.

The ninth team in the league is the Grotto. The tenth will be either from the Knights of Columbus or the Canadian Fish & Game Storage Co. The schedule for the season will be issued on Sunday.

Now that the new skating rink at Smithers has been opened, the boys in the railway town are getting down to hockey practice and with the fans are anticipating some inter-town games before the season is over. Telkwa is closest to Smithers, of course, and players from that town will compete with the Smithereens before long. There are also creditable teams at such points as Burns Lake, Vanderhoof and Prince George and the most of these teams will probably meet each other, the season probably ending up with a big bonspiel at one of these towns with several outside hockey aggregations in attendance.

Elks—A. Phillips, W. Lambie, M. Budenich, Eddie Smith and Dave Balfour.

Sons of Canada—V. Menzies, H. Menzies, A. Mitchell, G. Anderson, G. Shenton and S. Bazett-Jones.

New Halibut Boat

Jim Burns, an old timer in the halibut fishing, is the latest member of the home fleet to go into the fishing on his own account. Jim arrived in port on Wednesday aboard his own boat Yule, which he brought from Seattle, having purchased her there. The Yule is a husky looking 40 foot schooner with a 10 foot beam and is powered with a 16 horse power Enterprise heavy duty engine. The new boat will be taken up on the McLean ways in the near future to be finally rigged up in readiness for the opening of the halibut fishing season next month.

Tillie the Toiler is now no more. She's sailed away from our friendly shore. We'll miss her smile and cheerful ways. May she not toil to the end of her days.

Skipper John Field is overhauling the engine on his tow boat Hartatt F.

Messrs. J. and G. Currie are installing a 42-15 horse power Sterling engine in their power boat Ruby Mae in place of a former Frishie engine. The Ruby Mae has been tied up for several weeks owing to having sustained a break in her crankshaft.

Fur Arrives

One of the largest consignments of raw fur to arrive in port this season was brought in early in the week by McFadden Bros., who have been trapping in the Gardner Canal district. Fine specimens of marten, mink and beaver were contained in the lot, which found a ready local market.

The halibut schooner Gibson, Capt. H. Newell, will be taken up on the McLean ways next week to have a raised deck built aft. Other minor repairs will also be carried out at the same time in readiness for the initial dash to the halibut banks next month.

New Ways

There is great commotion around the Ward Electric premises at Cow Bay. The old shipways are being supplanted by a

I see a haggis college swathed in sheep. My heart shakes the pennies in my pocket which makes me fear for losing them. If only Muckle owned the haggis college! I beg for haggis but am denied. I offer to pay for haggis but it cannot be done, the sheriff has seized the college. I strike south in search of England and haggis."

Spatville, England, Jan. 25.—"Blessed England, I am saved. It's Burns' birthday. I find haggis everywhere and am a happy Scot."

The schooner Seamaid, Capt. E. Dorreen, is being overhauled at the dry dock.

The Uncanny "Goldie"

"Goldie," otherwise known as Goldbloom the fur man, seems to have an uncanny way of scenting fur arrivals. Goldie will stand on the floats watching the arrivals and will know at a glance what boats coming in have fur aboard. He can almost prophesy how many furs are in the cargo and give a description. Another thing he is clever at is prophesying the price at which they will sell, in fact he has never been known to fail yet. Goldie is down on the waterfront every day in the week, that is when in town, and is Johnny on the spot when raw furs are awaiting for a buyer.

The ice house at the Booth Fisheries has been re-planked and the floor has been re-laid. This work has been considerably retarded owing to the amount of time lost between Andy McDonald and Lance Poterton, the engineers, who have spent hours tossing the coin in an endeavor to settle which of them should be the foreman on the job.

Dog Clapperton has been confined to his bed for the greater part of the week suffering with a severe cold.

Pete May Do It

Pete Solem, of cigarette picture fame, left on an extended holiday trip to Seattle on the Prince Rupert yesterday morning. It is well known that Pete has been in receipt of innumerable letters addressed in a female hand and this fact, coupled with the many rumors on the waterfront, leads the average person to believe that Pete is seriously thinking of joining the grand army of rolling pin stoppers. Another clue to the happening is the fact that Pete has been saving money at a terrible pace for the past year. However, if the assumption proves correct, the nautical boys will meet Pete and his bride in a fitting manner upon their arrival.

Jock Murray, mechanical superintendent at the Royal Fish Company, slipped on the sidewalk near his home on Alfred Street last Sunday and broke two of his ribs. Jock is coming along nicely. Periodical bulletins will be issued as to his condition.

CLASSES FOR FISHERMEN IN
NAVIGATIONMembers of Local Union Ask
That Instructor be Appointed

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade is co-operating with the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union in regard to securing the establishment of a school of navigation here, particularly for the benefit of halibut fishermen. The action is being taken in response to a petition from a number of fishermen and endorsed by the union which asks that Capt. B. C. March be appointed.

The following letter was read at last night's meeting:

"In view of the growing necessity to go farther and farther out in search of new halibut banks, we the undersigned members of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union beg to submit the following petition:

"Whereas it has been found necessary to fish for halibut farther from charted waters than heretofore;

"And whereas a proper knowledge of navigation, chart reading, compass adjustment, rule of the road, etc., has been found absolutely essential to the proper and safe navigation of the vessels;

"We would request that a night school for navigation be formed immediately at Prince Rupert for the remainder of the close season for halibut, that instructions in the above subjects may be given to those desiring such.

The petition was signed by J. H. Meagher, agent of the union.

SHORTNESS OF BREATH

Mrs. Geo. E. Bowman, Morrisburg, Ont., writes:—"I am writing you a few lines to let you know of my experience with Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Two years ago I became very poorly with my heart and nerves and whenever I took the least little bit of exercise my heart would start to jump and flutter. I could not walk up stairs without having to sit down and rest before I was half-way up, on account of my breath becoming so short.

Adapted from Zane Grey's famous, best-seller story.
The thrilling adventures of an outcast who became a hermit of the desert. A remarkable new departure in motion-pictures was inaugurated in this photo-play, every scene being filmed in its natural colors by the Technicolor process, showing a wonderful contrast to the ordinary black and white photography. Stirring incidents include a fight with a rattlesnake, an avalanche in the Grand Canyon, the hero's 60 foot leap into the sand which completely buries him and a first-class fistie battle. A delightful romance runs all the way through mingled with comedy. Strong cast.
