A Victoria paper, in telling of a recent accident at the Victoria Machinery Depot when the Princess Ena slipped off the ways before it was intended, recalls a similar occurrence several years ago to the steamer Camosun. Capt. F. T. Saunders, now at Digby Island, was then in command of the Camosun. He happened to be on the bridge when the ship suddenly slid off and he broke a blood vessel in his leg at the time.

TUG QUALICUM HERE SAFELY

Brings Transfer Barge With Material for Elevator Wharf—Had Rough Voyage

After an extremely rough trip up the coast in the course of which there was considerable delay because of stress of weather, the C.P.R. tug Qualicum, Capt. Gill, arrived in port at 2 o'clock this afternoon having in tow the transfer barge No. 4 loaded with creosoted piles and lumber from North Vancouver for the elevator wharf. Outside of the weather, the voyage was an uneventful one. Over Monday night, when the furious southeaster was raging the tug and barge tied up at Bella Bella after having successfully navigated Queen Charlotte Sound.

The Qualicum and her tow are now tied up at the ocean dock but they will move to the lumber wharf to discharge the lumber. The piles will be floated to Digby Island where they will be kept until needed.

Four Hundred Pound Anchor Hurled Over Nearby Buildings Body Lifted to Adjacent House

HAMBURG, Mar. 26.—Eight people were killed and three seriously injured in a heavy explosion on a lighter at Saturn Harbor today. The force was so great that it tore the 210 foot vessel apart and hurled the 400 pound anchor over several nearby buildings and the body of one of the workers was lifted to the roof of an adjacent house.

The explosion is believed to have been caused by men working with an oxygen blast apparatus on supposedly empty tanks which probably contained a residue of oil.

Senate Reform Urged by Progressive Member in House of Commons

OTTAWA, Mar. 26.—The reputation of the Canadian Senate was hanging in tattered shreds when the House of Commons weighed the Upper Chamber in the balance and found it sadly wanting in just about every particular.

Examining the Senate carefully and with marked fairness, the Commons saw it as a mill-stone around the neck of the Canadian system of government for two clear-cut reasons—it was wrongly constituted in the first place through a fatal compromise among the fathers of Confederation, and it has worked out in actual operation to the great disadvantage of the Canadian people.

But the Commons discussion was not purely negative. It did not content itself with wrecking the Senate's reputation. . . . it advanced definite remedies for what it considers is the canker in the country's legislative organs. Reforms varying from abolition of the Senate to the popular election of senators were proposed and while, of course, they got no further than the proposal stage, they unquestionably will form excellent food for thought when an inter-provincial conference is called this year to consider the whole Senate question. For that reason the Commons debate was extremely useful.

To Joseph T. Shaw, the promising young Progressive member for Calgary West must go full credit for exposing the inherent weaknesses of the Senate in a masterly speech, buttressed by historical facts and strengthened by actual incidents in the checkered career of the only reactionary remnant in the Canadian constitution.

Safeguards Needed

Mr. Shaw admitted frankly in the first place that ample safeguards are needed in all democratic countries against freak or hasty legislation. He pointed out, however, that times have changed since the Senate was established and he was not sure that instead of "trying to curtail democratic intensity we might more properly be engaged in this case in trying to curtail reaction."

"In our day," said Mr. Shaw, "the reactionary has full and complete opportunity for his activities, whereas the man who seeks even the slightest measure of reform finds himself opposed by all kinds of checks and balances."

But Mr. Shaw was confident that the tide of democracy, while it might be held up for a while, would move on inevitably.

The Progressive member then looked into the fundamental defects of the Senate—defects inevitable from the very nature of its constitution. In the first place, he pointed out that while the Senate was originally born to protect provincial rights and sectional interests, yet the Senators were not responsible in any way to any provinces or to any sections of the country, either through legislatures or otherwise. And, he asked bluntly, who ever heard of the Senate, in all its long history, ever doing anything to protect provincial

High Commissioner And Dominions.

At present the Dominion Government is represented in London by the High Commissioner. He is a man whom the Government can trust else they would not have appointed him. It is his duty to confer with the British Government on behalf of the Dominion, when necessity arises. Naturally he would have to keep in close touch with the home government by cable.

If the High Commissioner is to carry on government work of that kind, he should resign when the government resigns, so that he might always be in close sympathy with the party in power and able to forward its policies.

Austen Chamberlain is right when he assumes that the government could not well give plenary power to any one man to act on their behalf without consultation. He must of necessity, in a democratic country, keep in close touch with the representatives of the people.

Halibut Business Discussed At Ottawa.

Apparently the halibut business is being discussed in government circles at Ottawa. Representations have been made several times to get the government to close this port to American halibut fishermen while the two cents tax is against Canadian caught fish. To our mind it would be better to have the Washington government remove the duty, because we do not like that kind of legislation. Possibly the movement at Ottawa will bring the matter to a head. Everyone must sympathise with the Canadian fishermen, who have to accept lower prices for their fish than are paid the American boats.

Let's Go Fishing Pretty Soon.

There comes a time in almost every man's life when he says "Let's go fishing" or something equally bright and cheery. He wants a day off in which he can get right away into the country and forget that the town ever existed.

The country, they say, is the place where food is grown. Possibly so. Why dispute it? There is another use for the country, however, and to most of us it appeals more directly. It is a place to which to go when we wish to get right away from business, and rest and recuperate and enjoy life.

Keep Shop Windows Always Well Dressed.

Always make your shop windows attractive. That applies to the merchant and also to the community. Speaking in Victoria a few days ago Colonel Fred Lindsay, sportsman, soldier and entertainer, said: "I regret to say that in the town of Bellingham, Washington, with a population of 35,000 there is more optimism prevailing than in the whole of Canada."

There is one of the secrets of success. If the philosophy of Coue means anything it means that we become what we say we are because we think what we say. Let the shop window be always attractive. Never let down the bars to strangers and show them the back kitchen. We may not always have perfect order there, but the front window of the shop has the best goods, attractively arranged, and that is for the public to see.

Secret Of Success Of American Towns.

The secret of success of American towns is that spirit of optimism which cannot be destroyed. It is building up the city of Ketchikan. The people there believe in their town, they boost for their town and they invest in their town. And they are making good. What applies to the city of Bellingham quoted by Colonel Lindsay, applies to every other city on the other side of the boundary.

Here in Canada we have too much of the Scottish carefulness and the English self-depreciation and reluctance to dress the front window. We are held back by tradition and tied by our virtues. We do not realize that our attitude toward our own city, our own industries, our merchants, our own institutions will be reflected in the attitude of visitors and outsiders, and also by those who come here to live. We have it in our power to overcome the elements, to rise above circumstances, to build permanently here for all time, if we will but always keep our shop windows well dressed and deliver the goods according to advertisement.

"Eczema All Over Arms Suffered for 12 Years"

Mrs. Murray Hough, Wiarton, Ont., writes:

"I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from the doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. That is over a year ago, and I have had no return of the trouble."

ORIENTALS AND LOCAL FISHING

Reduction in Number of Licenses Issued is Discussed in Journal

The question of Oriental fishing is discussed at this time of each year when the problem of cannery employment becomes pressing. The last number of the Pacific Fisherman has a leading editorial dealing with the situation in British Columbia. It says:

A tabulation was recently prepared showing the reduction in the number of fishing licenses issued in British Columbia to other than white British subjects and Indians for each year from 1920 to 1924, inclusive. It is announced that for 1925 there will be a further reduction of 15 per cent.

The report cannot be conveniently shown here in tabular form, but the changes indicated from year to year are as follows:

In 1920 and 1921 there was no reduction in the number of licenses, but the number for each class of fishing was limited to that of 1919. The number was similarly limited for 1922, except that licenses issued to Orientals for salmon trolling were reduced by 33 1-3 per cent. For 1923 the number of trolling licenses was further cut by 25 per cent, while a 40 per cent reduction was made in the number of salmon gill net licenses, and those to assistant salmon gill netters were limited to the number of gill net licenses available to Orientals. A 40 per cent reduction was also made in the number of boat licenses, buyers' licenses, herring curing, herring purse-seine, herring gill net, crab, smelt drag seine, smelt gill net, and miscellaneous licenses to Orientals for 1923 with a reduction of 100 per cent in licenses to captains of purse seine boats, and licenses to captains of herring purse seine boats were limited to the number issued to date of the department's ruling.

Further Limit

For 1924, the salmon trolling licenses were further limited by 10 per cent; herring curing, herring purse seine, and herring purse seine captains' licenses by 15 per cent; cod hook and line by 40 per cent; while salmon gill net, boat licenses, herring gill net, crab, smelt drag seine and gill net, grayfish gill net, and miscellaneous licenses were limited to the number issued in 1923.

The number of licenses issued to Orientals in British Columbia for the season of 1924 was as follows: Salmon curing, 5; salmon gill net, 1,479; salmon trolling, 222; boat (buyers), 191; buyers', 25; assistant salmon gill net, 535; captain herring purse seine, 8; herring curing, 5; herring gill net, 11; herring purse seine, 3; cod hook and line, 113; smelt drag seine, 5; smelt gill net, 16; cod and rock cod gill net, 37; grayfish gill net, 29; groundfish drag seine, 1; groundfish trawl, 21; oulachan, 1; perch gill net, 6; rock cod trawl, 1; sand lance trawl, 1; and shrimp, 21; making a total of 2,533.

EDMONTON FUR SALE QUALITY NOT GOOD

A Silver Fox Goes for $130 and Other Prices Not Very High

EDMONTON, Mar. 25.—Prices received for the offerings at the regular sale of the Edmonton Fur Exchange held about steady with those of the previous week. Practically the only receipts coming in at the present time are local furs and a good many of them, it is stated, are somewhat off grade or springy. The season for anything but water animals is very nearly at an end and prices for these spring furs are apt to be disappointing to the consigners.

The twelve lots of furs offered in Wednesday's sale were disposed of as follows: 7 weasels, $12.05; 3 wolf, $35.55; 1 cross fox, 1 red fox, 5 wolf, $77.35; 6 wolf, 3 weasels, $10.25; 1 wolf, $1.00; 1 wolf, 1 red fox, 1 weasel $18.29; 1 silver fox $130.00; 1 wolf, 5 lynx 10 beaver $355.00; 1 reserved; 6 wolf, 11 skunk, 8 weasels, 32 rabbits, $65.10; 2 wolf, $16.75; 8 red fox, $120.00; 1 cross fox, $36.00.

ADDRESS GIVEN BY DR. GRANT

Gyros Given Some Good Advice at Luncheon Yesterday; Club Project

Urging that the development of character and personality should be taken as the most important aim in life and that the building up of wealth or the quest for pleasure should not be allowed to eclipse that object, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant delivered an inspiring address before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its luncheon yesterday on the subject of "The Young Man's Problem in Prince Rupert."

Dr. Grant counselled the desirability of observing strict honesty in all business dealings but advised his listeners to adopt habits of thrift that would result in their later years being provided for. While money should not be regarded as the ultimate goal of life, it was something that could not be done without. If one built up character and personality, however, the money would take care of itself. Dr. Grant also referred to the great benefits and sense of happiness that was to be derived from a well-matched married life.

The club heard a violin solo by Gyro Billy Balagno and a vocal solo by J. Harris, Gyro Charlie Balagno accompanying. There was a large attendance of members and the following were guests: Dr. Grant, John McRae, J. A. Edwards, J. L. Christie and J. H. McLeod of Prince Rupert and Neil McAllister of Vancouver.

Stan Taylor who presided in the absence of President Roy McNaughton announced that the municipal board of works had decided to recommend to the city council that a space 150 by 100 feet be cleared in Westview Park for the purpose of allowing the club to proceed with the putting in of a playground there.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

THERE is one thing Prince Rupert people have in common. They all wear slickers. Only the aristocracy wear gum boots though.

THIS is an age of puzzles. If you do not have cross words you can always study the Peace river routes.

FOLOWING a good ice crop in interior B.C. and a plentitude of snow, there should now be a heavy crop of other farm products.

THE attitude of the Canadian Senate to the Peace River Railway will depend largely on the relation of the C.P.R. to it.

THERE'S one thing about religion, it gives us a good subject about which to argue.

I DO not quite know how to reconcile the statement that we are to have a dry summer with the fact that beer parlors are to be opened here.

IF the Government leaves the Senate places unfilled, it is bound to go down to defeat because every third man thinks he would make a good Senator. Good pay and nothing to do is always attractive.

JAKE says girls are no longer tight laced or straight laced, but, although he is a married man, he thinks they are all right.

A NUT is a thing that is tight before it functions properly.

BABY'S COLDS

Children's delicate digestions are easily disturbed by too much "dosing." Still, the little ones' cold troubles cannot be neglected.

At the very first sign of croup, sore throat, or any other cold trouble, apply Vicks VapoRub over the throat and chest. There is nothing to swallow—you just rub it on. Colds go over night, croup is usually relieved in 15 minutes.

FOOTBALL ASS'N ANNUAL MEETING

Four Teams Already Entered in Senior League Which it is Proposed to Start Next Month

GEO. HILL PRESIDENT

Association to Ask That Daylight Saving be Put Into Effect in City

There will be at least four teams in the Senior Football League this year and the season, it is expected, will be opened towards the end of April.

Last night the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Football Association took place and officers were elected as follows:

President—George Hill.

Vice-president—James Black.

Secretary-treasurer — George S. Russell.

Board of Control— S. D. Macdonald, Bert Morgan, Jack Judge, W. Reid and Frank Vickers.

The following were present at last night's meeting in their official capacities: George Hill, president; Frank Vickers, acting secretary; J. Watson and George Abbott, delegates from the Callies; Hugh Killen ad J. Cochrane, delegates from the Great War Veterans' Association; F. J. Fuller and George Kelsey, delegates from the Sons of England; Harry Love and J. Campbell, delegates from the Sons of Canada.

Favorable reports on last year's activities were received and filed. Gate receipts during 1924 were higher than in 1923 and expenses were also higher.

Entry fees for the forthcoming season were paid by the Great War Veterans, Sons of England, Callies and Sons of Canada.

Daylight Saving

A committee consisting of W. E. Williscroft, J. Campbell and George Hill was named to look into the matter of junior football in the city. This committee will meet with the school board and Parent - Teachers' Association with a view to reorganizing the league.

The same committee will take up the matter of having daylight saving put into effect in the city for a part of the season at least.

The Association has decided to present footballs to the King Edward, Booth and Borden Street Schools.

Sport Chat

Billiard fans will no doubt be out in force tonight for the opening of the final in the city billiard championship series between Col. S. P. McMordie and Geo. McIlmoyle. The match which will be to 1000 points in two sessions of 500 each is attracting keen interest and both players have their followings of confident supporters. They were popular opponents in the city league team series as first men on the Great War Veterans and Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor teams respectively and they pretty well shared honors as far as the season's average was concerned, McIlmoyle's having been 241 and McMordie's, 237. Each spoiled each other's chances of possible 250 averages. McIlmoyle is the present holder of the city individual championship, having beaten Jebson, who was eliminated by McMordie on Tuesday night, in the final last year. Jack Allen will referee tonight, C. L. Youngman will be marker and G. S. Russell official scorer.

On Saturday of this week the big annual English college rowing race between Oxford and Cambridge takes place. Oxford is the favorite to win, the Cambridge crew being handicapped through the fact their captain was recently forced to resign on account of ill health and there followed an uncertainty as to the final choice of the crew. Of past races, Oxford has won 40 and Cambridge, 35. In 1877 the crews rowed a dead heat. In 1912 both boats sank at the first attempt and the race was rowed over. The weights of the two crews this year are nearly equal, Cambridge averaging a little over 169 pounds a man and Oxford, 166 pounds. With the increasing interest and participation in other sports, especially rugby football and tennis, university enthusiasm for rowing has waned. It is still a popular sport but no longer the one popular sport.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

GEORGE MCILMOYLE BEAT FRED PYLE BY NARROW MARGIN

Fred Pyle put up another spectacular performance in last night's city championship billiard semi-final and was beaten by George McIlmoyle by the narrow margin of one point. When McIlmoyle had 293 points, Pyle had 166. The latter started on a scoring boom, however, and rapidly gained right up to the end of the game, the final score of which was 500 to 499. Both players were taking no chances and the match took three hours and five minutes—the longest time so far in the series. There were 101 innings and McIlmoyle's average was 4.95 while Pyle's was 4.94. High breaks were 42 and 34 respectively. Each player made ten safety misses.

ROAD RACES TO BE INSTITUTED THIS YEAR ON MAY 24

It was decided at the meeting of the Elks' Lodge last night to institute, in connection with the Victoria Day celebration this year, three annual road races—two, five and seven miles. The two mile race will be for boys up to twelve, the five mile race for boys up to 18, and the seven mile for men over those ages. Suitable trophies are to be obtained for the races which will be held on the afternoon of May 24.

SENATE REFORM URGED BY PROGRESSIVE MEMBER IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

rights or sectional interests?

No one could answer and Mr. Shaw admitted that his careful study of Canadian history had failed to reveal a single instance in which the Senate had sallied forth to do what it was specifically created to do. And this in in the face of the obvious need of study into methods and means of harmonizing the interests and rights of the various parts of the Dominion.

Life Appointment Attacked

That was Mr. Shaw's first objection to the constitution of the Senate. Secondly, he protested against the appointment of senators for life. What kept public men active in the country's business, he remarked, was chiefly the desire to maintaain the esteem of their countrymen who registered their approval or disapproval of the Commons at the polls. Not so the Senate. It could do what it liked, and forget the very existence of the electorate.

Thirdly, Mr. Shaw found the Senate far too large in number. The Canadian Senate, he pointed out, is approximately the same size as the United States Senate —a body charged with the protection of 110,000,000 people.

And in the fourth place, Mr. Shaw found the Senate's membership distributed in unequal proportion. He wanted the senators distributed instead so as to provide equal protection for all the provinces, and he protested against the present rigid system under which the growth of new provinces finds no corresponding increase in Senate representation.

Those were Mr. Shaw's objection to the Senate in theory. Coming down to actual operation he found that all these theoretical objections had been clearly reflected in the Sanate's work since Confederation. First of all, he pointed out what is obvious to everyone, that the Senate is absolutely partizan. This partizanship, he remarked, was the natural result of the life appointment system. A senator naturally felt that he must vote in support of any proposal advanced by the government which appointed him.

Having made out this strong case for Senate reform Mr. Shaw turned his attention to the means of bringing this reform about. Three methods presented themselves to him . . . to abolish the Senate, to strengthen it, or to weaken it. While abolition was becoming increasingly popular because the public saw no other way of restraining the Senate's continual interference in public business, Mr. Shaw did not favor the idea. He felt that a second chamber was needed.

He proposed instead that the Senate be made elective, that the provinces take responsibility for these elections and that senators have an eight year term, going to the country whenever the government of the day ordered a general election. As an alternative to popular election he proposed that senators be appointed by provincial legislatures.

On top of all this Mr. Shaw urged that the Senate's powers be diluted. The absolute power of veto should be removed, he declared, just as it had been removed from the British House of Lords. A temporary power of veto might work out satisfactorily, he suggested.

PROPOSAL TO RAISE TOBACCO IN OKANAGAN

Expert Being Sent into that District by Dominion Department of Agriculture

VANCOUVER, Mar. 26—Brands of British Columbia cigars, equalling the best imported from Havana, may be a feature of Vancouver smoke-shops, and the already far-famed Okanagan valley may have fresh honors thrust upon it.

Large tracts of low-lying land in the valley, useless for fruit growing, may be used to create a great new tobacco growing industry under plans now being shaped by the Federal and Provincial government.

At the request of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands at Victoria, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, federal minister of agriculture, is sending H. E. Freeman, tobacco expert, to British Columbia immediately. Mr. Freeman will investigate the possibilities of the Okanagan for tobacco growing on a large scale. Crops already grown there have amply demonstrated the suitability of the Okanagan for tobacco culture, and on the present occasion the low lying lands will be given particular attention.

Okanagan potatoes may soon be a popular brand.

EDMONTON UTILITIES SHOW GOOD SURPLUS

Waterworks Only Department Where There is Loss as in Rupert

EDMONTON, Mar. 26.— With the electric light department providing nearly one-half of the gain, city utilities rolled up a surplus of nearly $50,000 in February. Reports that have been made to the city commissioners show that the actual profit was $45,732, compared with $44,190 in the same month of 1924.

For the second time this year the street railway discloses a surplus which amounts to $2,220. The surplus in January totalled $5,238 so that this utility has already got $7,400 to put against any low traffic months later on.

Slightly increased surpluses are reported by all civic utility departments, with the exception of the waterworks branch where there was a drop of $1,800 last month. The total surplus of all departments to date amounts to $102,443, while at the end of February, 1924, it stood at $93,675.

Imperial Oil Review Tells of Customers With Whom George Woodland Has to do Business

(Imperial Oil Review)

In his sparsely-settled and rugged territory in the northwest corner of British Columbia, George Woodland serves what is probably the most cosmopolitan list of customers of any Imperial Oil district agent anywhere. Among the fishermen of the Charlotte Islands and the halibut fleets he has north of Europe men of every description: Finns, Swedes, Norwegians, and migrants from many Baltic countries of which the names, on this side of the world, are scarcely known. In the mine camps of Stewart, Allin and Alice Arm he caters to Slavs, Hungarians, Serbs, Italians and Montenegrins. In the salmon fisheries and canneries are Japs, Chinese, Siwashes, Greeks and a sprinkling of Portuguese and Sicilians. In the paper camps, pulp mills, logging camps and pole camps are men of every nationality with Jean Baptiste holding a place of prominence. Up the Skeena and in the Babines are prospectors of every degree of whiteness and a resident population of Indians who have taken on the habiliments and adopted the habits and customs of the whites who have lived among them now for nearly a hundred years.

Scattered through all these, of course, is a percentage of Anglo-Saxons, Canadians, British Islanders, Americans and Australians, and it is they who set the pace and are laying the foundations of the country's culture. But much of the business is done by members of the community who never saw Eastern Canada or the British Isles, and many of the missives that come to the district manager's desk are worthy of a place in the archives.

Here is one from Donald Grey, an Omineca Indian doing business as a merchant at a picturesque little Indian village just below Hazelton. He has a typewriter and uses up-to-date stationery. He does his own stenography and correspondence. A glance at the letter will show that Donald makes himself understood.

AMALGAMATION OF TWO NEWSPAPERS IS CAUSE OF COMMENT

(Juneau Empire)

The purchase and absorbtion of the Anchorage Alaskan by the Anchorage Times is a matter for which Anchorage should congratulate herself. There is no town in Alaska large enough and doing enough business to support more than one newspaper business. Wherever it has been tried there has been failure. That is not a situation characteristic of Alaska only. It is the same throughout the country in towns much larger than those in this territory. It costs real money to produce a daily newspaper in these days of eight-dollars-a-day printers, four and five-cent newsprint and telegraphic service.

It is a good thing for Anchorage that she is able to concentrate her newspaper patronage on one newspaper and printing office. It means that the one newspaper and printing office will be able to give the people better service because it will have a larger income. The greater the income of the papers in the Alaska towns, as in towns elsewhere, the more telegraphic and other news they will be able to give their readers. One good newspaper will give the people better newspaper service than two or three half-starved outfits. Anchorage will get better newspaper service because of the consolidation of her papers.

HER NERVES SO BAD SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

Mrs. Grace Kitchen, St. George, Ont., writes:—"After having a severe attack of pneumonia I was left in a weak and run down condition. My nerves were so bad I could not sleep nights, and in the day time I had terrible fainting spells, caused by my heart being weak. Finally I got so bad I had to take to my bed for weeks at a time, but one day I read about so decided to try them.

After taking one box I felt a slight improvement. I have now taken five boxes, and have gained 35 pounds in weight. I am now more than able to do all my own housework as well as considerable outside work. I cannot recommend Milburn's H. & N. Pills too highly for those suffering as I did."

Are Fortunes Being Earned in Selected German Bonds?

Less than Fifteen Months Ago we recommended and sold to investors in Canada, Newfoundland and the United States the following selected Foreign Government and Municipal Bonds at the following prices, and which now possess the actual cash values indicated in the last column:

BOND	Price Sold 15 months ago	Present Value
German Govt. 5%.....	$10	$1,525
Berlin 4s, 1919.....	20	4,250
Berlin 4s, 1915.....	40	14,750
Danzic 4s, Pre-war.....	200	20,000
Cologne 4s, 1912.....	40	13,000
Dresden 4s, 1913.....	140	13,000
Frankfurt 4s, 1918.....	120	5,000
Hamburg 4s, Pre-war...	195	7,500
Leipzig 4s, 1916.....	85	7,000
Munich 5s, 1919.....	39	6,000
Stuttgart 4s, 1920.....	60	4,500

The above exemplifies only a few of the bonds fortunate investors purchased through our recommendation after we had exhaustively studied the merits of the bonds.

THE LAST OPPORTUNITY TO EARN EXTRAORDINARY SUMS OF MONEY THROUGH DEPRECIATED GOVERNMENT AND MUNICIPAL BONDS WAS DURING THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR IN 1870. At that time French Government Bonds declined to 7% of their gold value. Two years later—after France had paid off the reparations indemnity imposed upon her—the bonds rose to 97% of their gold value, returning fortunes in profits to those farsighted investors who had the grit and courage to buy those bonds when 99 other men and women out of every hundred entertained too pessimistic an outlook to buy them.

THEN CAME THE GREAT WORLD WAR OF 1914

It was the greatest war in the history of the world. Naturally the aftermath of such a mammoth war was bound to be distressing and cause a greater lapse of time for the nations involved to readjust themselves once more to normal conditions.

English, French, Belgian, Italian, German, Polish, Austrian and other bonds depreciated in value. Some more than others. German securities, for instance, dropped in value from $238,000 to $4.!

DID EVERY MAN AND WOMAN BUY those German Bonds when they went begging for practically nothing?

ONLY THE SAME PROPORTION OF INVESTORS PURCHASED: ONE IN EVERY HUNDRED!

That is why, it is generally conceded, there is only one wealthy man or woman in every hundred.

That one man or woman in every hundred buys when the other 99 out of every hundred do not buy.

CAN YOU AFFORD TO IGNORE, after history has continually repeated itself, the opportunities which exist to-day to earn exceptional profits through the purchase of selected German and other foreign government and municipal bonds which are available and within the means of practically every man and woman at their present extremely low prices?

There are certain selected German Bonds to-day which can be purchased for such small sums of money but which have possibilities of rising up to $238,000. Such opportunities do not occur every day—once in a lifetime—if even that.

Should you not hold amongst your investments a selection of such foreign government and municipal bonds as we recommend?

Don't you owe it to yourself to acquire as much money as you can through investment in foreign selected securities which, as the world rapidly settles down to sane business again, are bound to appreciate in value?

REMEMBER: That at the back of every German Government Bond there are 70,000,000 capable, industrious people. Before the war Germany was one of the three most powerful nations in the world, and to-day she is rapidly regaining her former position. She controlled the second largest mercantile marine. German shipping in gross tonnage is rapidly approaching that of pre-war days. Her exports of manufactured products were the second largest in the world. To-day you find German goods scattered throughout every corner of the world. The industry and inventive skill of her people were unsurpassed. To-day it is hard to compete with her. She was almost pre-eminent in iron manufacture; minerals in large quantities were found throughout her territory. Germany is rapidly approaching her pre-war status. A nation defeated on the fields of battle by practically the whole civilized world, she came out of the conflict with hardly a square inch of her territory attacked. To-day her potential wealth is even greater than ever.

Experts which composed the Dawes Reparation Scheme and which were especially appointed to examine Germany's resources, believe that she is to-day far more wealthy than in 1914.

It has been a long time that the name CORDASCO has been identified with foreign securities. The foreign bonds which have risen in value and returned fortunes to investors were such bonds identified as "Cordasco" Bonds. It is important for investors to know whether they should buy and from whom they should purchase their securities. It has been our experience that every time we have brought out before the public selected securities there has followed in our wake a wave of effort on the part of others whom it seems simply live on what we create.

The most important thing, however, that our clients obtain from the efficient and unequalled service we render to them, is that we not only advise them what to buy, but when to buy and what to sell. That means dollars and dollars to the client. We only earn if you earn. If we sold a bond that had no opportunity of rising in value and did not rise, and you did not earn any money, would you come back to us again? Certainly not!

To-day we enjoy the confidence of the majority of investors who have found the field of foreign securities lucrative, because we have acted with them honorably, squarely and satisfactorily.

When a man buys a German Bond from us he gets absolutely the genuine German Bond that he purchased. He does not get a cheque or a draft or anything else as a substitute; he gets what he ordered. That is why we have attained a reputation that is enviable.

We have prepared special circulars on those German and other foreign government and municipal selected securities which we believe at the present time offer the greatest opportunities for lucrative returns.

An opportunity comes only once—do not let it go by—seize it now before it is too late.

Write or call. There is no obligation whatever.

OBJECTS TO WHEAT PIT

Editor Daily News.

Of quite recent date there has again been on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange a ruthless speculation in wheat, a gamble of the worst kind and touching every home in Canada. Surely our legislators, Provincial or Federal, particularly those who have made such extensive speeches, and travelled much or made immigration policies must realize the demoralizing effect that the Winnipeg Grain Exchange has upon the settlers.

If the farmers of our country were deriving some benefit from this gamble it would not seem so bad, wrong though it is, but the trouble is they are not.

I believe it would be safe to say at this time that 98 per cent of the farmers have sold their grain before this.

Play With Foodstuffs

Thees polished slickers who operate on the Grain Exchange who, few if any, ever had the backbone to put their hand to the plow, are permitted by the Dominion Government to play ducks and drakes with the food stuffs of the nation.

Where is the much boasted patriotism of our men who take part in our public affairs.

To date there has not been one dissenting voice. Just a week ago it was reported by radio that wheat had taken another slump, to the extent that the loss on the Winnipeg market alone for that day's business was over half a million dollars.

Don't you see, Mr. Editor, how these manipulators catch the suckers on the Exchange, and the public with the high price of bread.

Then again there is that Tariff question! How the Canadian manufacturer hides behind this fence.

I heard of a man from the American side who wanted to buy a Canadian manufactured article which is selling at $5.35.

When the price was quoted to him, he exclaimed that he could buy the same kind of article from the American side for $3.00.

He was told that the tariff on this article when laid down here from the American side would be approximately the same as the Canadian manufactured article.

Can It Be

Can it be possible that the Governments knowingly allow the children to be deprived directly and indirectly the necessaries of their God given right?

Can you, Mr. Editor, cite of any particular legislation that has been put into effect, during these last ten years for the benefit of our native born and the future fighting strength of the nation? It is easy to be patriotic during the waving of the flags and the tuning of the pipes, but if Canada ever needed Patriotism, it is right now.

GEO. WADDELL.

Shop-windows on parade

IN THE quiet and comfort of your home, newspaper in hand, the shop-windows of the town's best stores pass in review. Look at that charming little hat—just the style you have been looking for, and so reasonable!

And say, isn't that coat a darling? . . . Not only do you see illustrations of the merchandise, but you are told in detail of its merits and prices. A passing panorama that may be halted and started and halted at will. A shopping trip at home!

How long do you suppose it would take you to reverse the process—to go up one street and down another, until you had visited personally every worth-while store in town? And how exhausted you would be, physically and nervously.

There's no doubt about it. The modern way to shop is to read the advertisements, then make notes of the stores and the particular offerings that appeal to you. What a lot of time and bother such a method saves. You know beforehand what you want to look at, who has it, and what you will have to pay.

Read the advertisements. Make it a daily habit. The regular reader of advertisements is better informed, makes the family budget stretch further, has more time for recreation, gets more value for her money, and profits in many other ways. Advertisements are frequently the most interesting news in the paper.

Every day these shop-windows are lined up for your inspection in this newspaper

There is only one way to get rid of boils and that is by going right to the seat of the trouble—the blood—as the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Cleanses the system and removes all the foul matter from the blood in a way that few medicines will do.

Mrs. Chas. Rankin, Bulyea, Sask., writes:—"A few years ago my husband had a terrible time with boils. On one arm he had 16 between his elbow and wrist; five on the back of his neck, and several more on different parts of his body. He tried everything he could think of, but got no relief until he took Burdock Blood Bitters, and to his surprise it completely relieved him of his boils, in a very short time."

URGES PLEDGE TO BE TAKEN BY IMMIGRANTS

Orange Grand Lodge Would Have Them Declare Intention Before Coming Here

EDMONTON, Mar. 26.—In view of the fact that there are so many immigrants coming to this country with no avowed intentions of becoming assimilated into the citizenship of the country, we therefore recommend that our legislation committee suggest to the dominion government that all intending immigrants to Canada be asked for a pledge before leaving their native lands:

(1) That they will be prepared to adopt the English language the language of the country.

(2) That they pledge their loyalty to the flag, the emblem of our empire.

(3) That they will have their children educated in the public schools, as the best means of assimilating them into the citizenship of the country.

(4) That they will become naturalized citizens of Canada when entitled so to do.

Otto Miller Pleads Guilty to Using Firearms and is Fined $10 by Magistrate McClymont

Following the shooting in the east end of the city of an Airedale dog owned by M. L. Steep and a collie owned by Capt. Svendsen, Otto Miller was charged in the city police court this morning with unlawfully discharging a gun within the city limits. He pleaded guilty and explained that the dogs had become a nuisance around his house and he was afraid they would bite his little girl. A fine of $10 was imposed by Magistrate McClymont.

It is probable that civil action will follow this case. M. L. Stepp had offered a reward of $25 for information leading to the conviction of the person who had shot his dog.

VANITY CASE GOES AND UMBRELLA HANDLE USED IN ITS PLACE

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Umbrellas with handles flat as pan cakes have appeared in London and are considered quite the thing among fashionably dressed young women.

The umbrellas are altogether too unwieldy to be carried by the handle, so are attached to the arm by means of a heavy silk cord. But they have the advantage of doing away with the vanity case, for within the flat handle the owner carries her powed box lipstick eye lash crayon, a dainty little box of perfume, a three inch comb, a mirror, and enough hair pins to last her several hours.
