POLAND TALKING OF WAR WITH GERMANY

MEMBER FOR CARIBOO URGES ESTABLISHMENT OF EXPERIMENTAL FARM

Poland Stirred by Proposal of Germany to Revise Frontier on East and Talks of Making War

WARSAW, March 6.—The German proposal to guarantee at the price it is understood of revising the Eastern frontier so as to include some of the present Polish territory, is causing intense feeling here.

The Warsaw Gazette affirms that any attempt to diminish Poland's territory will mean war, as thirty million Poles will never willingly agree to a partition of the country such as existed in the eighteenth century.

The Army Committee of the Diet adopted a resolution inviting the government to put the nation in a state of military defense with the least possible delay.

HALIBUT PRICE MOVES UPWARD

Cents Paid this Morning to Some Boats for Catches.

owing to the smaller supply halibut the price has gone up to more nearly normal. The highest paid was to the largest for a small catch which cost 10.70 and 4.50. This is the first trip for these boats which were delayed in getting to the banks. The sales day were:

American

about 50,000 to Pacific Fishers at 10 and 4.50.

Chinese 50,000 to Allin Fishers at 10 and 3.

Mika 37,000 to Gold Storage at 10 and 3.

Texas 4,000 to Booth Fishers at 10.70 and 4.50.

Canadian

Doreen 4,500 to Booth Fishers at 8.80 and 4.

June May 3,500 to Booth Fishers at 8.60 and 4.

ACTIVITY SEEN AT SHIPYARDS

Prince George Goes on Dock Monday: Other Work is Proceeding

There is a good deal of work going on at the local dry dock these days.

C.G.M.M. steamer Canadian Voyager, which has been undergoing an extensive overhaul, will be floated off the pontoons tomorrow and will proceed to Vancouver where she will load for Australia.

The steamer Prince George will be taken up on Monday morning for completion of annual overhaul. She will arrive from Vancouver on Sunday afternoon it is expected.

The tugboat Bobalink will also be taken on the dock on Monday for annual repairs.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s schooner Chief Zibassa, was taken up this morning. She is having a new engine installed.

Good progress is being made at the yard on the construction of the new cruiser for the provincial forestry department which will be completed before long.

TUCKS INLET PLANT TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

Rupert Marine Products Establishment Has Been Closed Since Last November

The plant of the Rupert Marine Products at Tucks Inlet which has been closed down since November will resume operations in full next week. The full payroll is about 40 men. During the winter there have been half a dozen men working there.

WOMEN ARE NOT LONGER CHATTELS

Jersey State Parliament in Channel Islands Issues New Property Act

ST. HELIER, Channel Islands, March 6.—The Jersey state parliament has issued a new property act giving women the same legal rights as men. Since feudal days they have been legally termed "chattels."

CHILD KILLED BY A MOTORIST

Little Boy Was on Scooter When Struck; Man Ran Away

VANCOUVER, Mar. 6.—An unknown motorist ran down and killed Salvador Nino, a seven-year-old child who was playing on the street on a scooter last evening. The driver of the car stopped, looked back and then sped away in the car, according to witnesses of the tragedy.

A class in readin', writin', arithmetic is shown in rural Turkey, where the teachers are made up almost entirely of instructors educated in Western Europe.

Indian Potlatch was System Permeating the Life of Natives and Affecting them until Death

The Indian Potlatch is more than a custom and is not just a habit, usage, religious ceremony or amusement. It is not simply a feast and dance accompanied by the giving of presents. It is a system permeating the whole life of the Indian and affects him from the day of his birth until his death. That is what W. E. Collison, Indian Agent, impressed upon members of the Rotary Club at their luncheon yesterday in a most interesting address.

The word "Potlatch" means a giving but the word used by the Haidas means "to hold." Accompanying the dance and the feast in former days was the giving of gifts which were held by the recipient and were returnable. It had to do with the election of chiefs and the gifts were made according to the rank or social status of the recipient. Before the coming of the white men they consisted chiefly of marmot and elk skins, canoes and grease.

causes difficulties in administering law among the Indians.

Political System

The Potlatch system was a political system. It legitimized the child, recording his name as a member of the clan. It was absolutely necessary that there should be some such institution in order that everything might be done by common consent. It was an opportunity for public manifestation of assent to the decisions. It would, under Indian custom, be as useless for a claim to be laid without holding a potlatch as for a miner to stake a claim and not register it.

Mr. Collison was thanked by President W. T. Kergin for his interesting address.

Poor Imitation

Today the Potlatch has been shorn of its ceremonial and is a poor imitation of what it once was. It was given on important occasions such as the accession to the chieftainship, the erection of a totem or the building of a house.

In order to help understand what is meant by the Potlatch it is necessary to understand something of the social system of the Indians, said Mr. Collison. They are divided into chiefs, gentry, and the coming people. The distinctions are very clear and even today it is common to hear chiefs today it is common to hear chiefs speak to with deference.

The Indians are organized into families, tribes and confederacies. The family is made up of the brothers, uncles and nephews and is known as the "house"; it has its crest, sub-chief and totem.

The clan-section is a branch made up of one or more families. The clan is the group made up of all the clan-sections with a common totem.

The tribe is a community of different clan-sections living in the same place. This is noticeable in the Ktatas. There are the Kitkatlas, Methakatlas and others.

The confederacy is an alliance formerly for offensive or defensive purposes.

Public Assembly

The Potlatch then became the public assembly when all the people were gathered together for the conduct of business, this business usually being domestic in nature and having to do with succession to chieftaincy. The clan-sections were all called together to give assent to rights, titles and standing affecting such things as hunting rights, fishing rights and similar important matters which often proved very contentious. Most reports of Indians being killed by their fellows had to do with quarrels over these rights and titles.

Under the Indian law people in the same clan could not intermarry. There were four clans, those of the Wolf, Eagle, Raven and Fin-back Whale. All Indians belonged to one of these.

When a man and woman married they were not joined as one, as is the custom of white people but remained distinct and the children followed the clan of the mother. The property of the husband at his death did not go to the wife but to the nephew. As the children belonged to the wife's clan it did not go to them.

Under Canadian law this is changed and the change often by 325 to 153.

COMMENT ON DOMINION ACT

Liberal Member of British House Says Failure to Ratify Pact Serious

LONDON, March 6.—During a debate on foreign affairs in the House of Commons, Sir Edward Grigg, Liberal, declared it was a matter for serious consideration that Canada and South Africa had not ratified the original pact with France although Australia and New Zealand had done so. He considered, however, that a new form of guarantee would commend itself much more to the Dominions.

Reaching Interior Points By Air.

There undoubtedly will be a great deal of exploratory work done in this north country by the air route. The vision of Len Bell is bound to become a reality some day. Hunting and tourist parties will penetrate to the almost unknown wilds by means of air boats and they will use the same means to prospect for gold or other valuable minerals. As fair transportation becomes cheaper and more reliable it will be used more.

The scheme of Major MacLaren to have a fleet of air boats operating to and from Dease Lake for the gold rush is one that will command itself to the miner who wishes to get on the ground early or to the person who wishes to supply those miners with the necessities of life. This was the scheme planned by some of the officials of the Granby Company several years ago.

Foundations Of The Country Not Stable.

The foundations of Canada are not as stable as we thought. In the East they had had a bad shakeup by an earthquake which has damaged buildings and even in one case shaken a building down. On this coast we have had tremors very near us in Alaska and even here there have been slight shocks at times. This means that it is unsafe to erect very high buildings and that we must confine ourselves to a few stories, if we would be safe. If the Woolworth Building at New York had been near the centre of the disturbance in the East it would have been in grave danger of collapsing.

Glory Of Achievement Something To Inspire.

Many people work for money and they get their pay. Others work for the glory of achievement and they also get their reward, a much higher reward than the mere shekels. After all, money is valuable only for what it will buy, and it will not buy peace of mind, it will not buy health or physical fitness. Money is powerless in regard to the real things of life that count.

It will be found among Canadians and British people generally that they try to build up a business for the sake of achievement rather than the desire to be rich.

Aided By Progressive Members Of Prairies.

British Columbia people will have a soft spot in their hearts for the Progressives of the prairie provinces for the aid given them in securing lower freight rates and better outlets on the Pacific. It may be done for a selfish move but it has served the purpose of this province and especially of the ports on the Pacific.

It really matters little what you name a party. It matters not if they are called Liberal, Progressive or Conservative if they, as an organization, are working for the things that really count and which are likely to be of advantage to us. Today the Liberals are in power, kept there through the co-operation of the Progressives. Now and then the Progressives give the Liberals a squeeze which causes a twinge of pain but generally speaking the aims of the two groups are the same, and they realize it.

As long as the Progressives will develop the Pacific ports we are satisfied. They want low freight rates and shipping conveniences. We want the same thing with the business of the farmers added. There we get community of interest. Not being a manufacturing centre, except for lumber manufacturing, we are not interested in protection except to oppose it. Our interests lie with the farmer groups of the prairies whether they call themselves Liberal, Progressive, Labor or Conservative. Just now they are mostly Progressive in name.

Why Exclude Women From Drinking Places?

In Alberta there was a move to exclude women from the drinking halls of the government. Surely this would not be a fair thing. If beer is good for men, it ought to be good for women and if the drinking places are suitable for men, they surely ought to be good enough for women. These are days of equal rights. Women are in most matters allowed the same privileges as men. If beer is good, let them have their share of it and go to the beer halls and have their fill. If it is not good for them, it is not good for men.

JUDGE URGES THEM TO WED

Thinks Differences Between John Hahti and Fiance Can be Patched Up

(Vancouver Sun)

"This matter has not gone beyond remedy—there must still be hope that an arrangement can be reached," suggested Mr. Justice Morrison at the conclusion on Friday of the suit for damages for breach of promise of marriage brought by Miss Lottie Maud Munn of London, England, against J. Hahti, Finlander, and mine owner and manager of Stewart. The trial lasted all day and brought out an entrancing story of an English "picture bride" who travelled from London to Stewart to marry a stranger with whom she had corresponded.

"Would you now marry the plaintiff?" asked His Lordship, turning to the defendant, who was in the witness box.

"Yes, I would," replied the defendant quickly.

"What does your client say?" His Lordship asked J. A. Campbell, counsel for Miss Munn. A brief consultation followed.

"This is not a matter my client wishes to answer," replied the lawyer.

No Barrier

"Very well," replied the court. "But I trust that an understanding will be reached before long and I see no insuperable barrier to the conclusion of the arrangement which was started when the plaintiff left for the coast to meet the defendant in Stewart."

Hahti, natty, vehement and speaking broken English, told the court that in 1921, in Seattle, he knew an Englishman named Bassett who was, he alleged, deported to England by immigration authorities.

From London, Hahti heard from Bassett and, as a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, the plaintiff wrote to him once and a correspondence started which resulted in the departure of the plaintiff for Canada.

Came to Vancouver

Arrived in Montreal, the defendant heard from her again, and then she stayed a year in Hamilton working as a stenographer. Starting once more for the Coast to meet Hahti, she arrived in Vancouver and took the boat to Stewart.

Miss Munn testified that, after meeting on the boat at the dock at Stewart, they found each other mutually agreeable, and marriage was agreed upon. They went ashore, found the road from the wharf to the town so bad that travel over it at a late hour of the night was inadvisable, and stayed for the night at the Ocean View Hotel in Hyder, near the wharf. Here, she said, they occupied the same room and she alleged that Hahti made advances and was repulsed by her on the ground that they were not married.

The next day they went on to Stewart and the dispute was renewed there, with the result that Miss Munn returned to Vancouver and the action was started.

SUIT Ready to Wed

The defendant, giving evidence, stated that he had only asked the plaintiff to wait about a week until his new home was ready and that she had broken the engagement, refused to marry him and returned to Vancouver. He urged that he was always ready and willing to marry the plaintiff. Letters and telegrams were read to the court in the morning session, put in as evidence by the plaintiff of a contract to marry her. Mr. Justice Morrison reserved judgment at the conclusion of the trial.

ONTARIO METHODISTS ARE BEING AROUSED

Properties Valued at $36,000,000 are Involved in Proposed Legislation

TORONTO, Mar. 6.—Possible effects of Church Union legislation in Ontario on property holdings of the Methodist Church are beginning to arouse Methodist concern.

Methodism has in this Province 1890 churches, 763 parsonages, 487 cemeteries, four colleges, its main publishing plant, and numerous missionary and deaconess institutions, all of which would be affected by the bill now sponsored in the Ontario Legislature by the opponents of Church Union. The total valuation of these properties is nearly $35,000,000.

At the last session of the Provincial Legislature the Church Union forces introduced their own bill, but opponents attached to it amendments which would have touched very closely the vital interests of the Congregationalist and Methodist churches as well as of the Presbyterian Church. The bill was accordingly withdrawn by its sponsors on the request of the responsible spokesmen of the three churches.

Now two new bills are before the legislature.

AIDS FOREIGN TEACHERS

TOKIO, March 6.—The educational department proposes to introduce a bill in the present session of the diet to provide houses for the foreign teachers in the government schools. Miss Louisa Robinson of Hazelton sends the editor a drawing which she would like to have published. While the drawing is good the Daily News is not able to reproduce it. There is no engraving plant in Prince Rupert.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. G. C. Sainley, bound from Vancouver to southeastern Alaska, is due in port early this evening. The vessel is inaugurating the spring ten-day service to Alaska which will be in effect until the tourist season starts in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beesley, after a residence of two years in Prince Rupert, have left for Smithers. Mr. Beesley has left the service of the Canadian National Railway to take a position in the office of G. L. Dimock, assistant public works engineer for the provincial government at Smithers.

G.G.M.M. steamer Canadian Freighter, Capt. Carl Bissett, arrived from Vancouver at 3 o'clock this morning and is at the ocean dock loading frozen salmon consigned by the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. to the United Kingdom. The vessel is to sail on her return south tomorrow morning. Capt. Duncan Mackenzie is aboard the ship as pilot.

The city's steam roller this morning struck a weak spot in the embankment on the east side of Atlin Avenue which is being graded and was stalled for a while rather close to the edge but was successfully pried out. The work on Atlin Avenue is now entering on the last stage of surfacing and may be completed in about two weeks' time. Frosty weather delayed the work considerably.

PEOPLE WHO HANDLE
LIQUOR DIE YOUNG

That is Statement of Dr. Andrew Clarke, London's Noted Physician

GOWES, Isle of Wight, Feb. 23.—Brewers, distillers, bartenders, barmmaids, draymen, innkeepers and others in the liquor trade live only half as long as the remainder of the population, according to Sir Andrew Clark, of London, speaking at a temperance meeting in Cowes.

The doctor contended that not more than one teaspoonful of alcohol a day should be taken by the average man or woman. He said that seven out of ten beds in London hospitals were occupied by victims of drink. "If there were no alcohol drinking," he asserted, "there would be plenty of beds available and money to support them."

Sir Andrew said that he could testify himself that out of 24 cases admitted to a London hospital on Christmas, 23 were drunk.

NORWEGIANS TO GATHER AT TWIN CITIES

Fifty Thousand Canadian-Norwegians Will Attend Norse-American Centennial at Minneapolis and St. Paul in June.

King Haakon, President Coolidge and Lord and Lady Byng Invited.

In June next, between three and four hundred thousand Canadians and Americans of Norwegian origin will gather at the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul to celebrate by a great national gathering the hundredth anniversary of the landing in America of the first organized party of Norwegian settlers on the Continent. It was in 1825 that the little sloop Restauransen, of 45 tons, set sail from Stavanger carrying a little band of adventurers who settled in New York state and ever since that time there has been a steady stream of newcomers to this continent from their homeland.

The coming gathering and its purposes were recently discussed at the head offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, by Professor Gisle Bothne of the Minnesota State University at Minneapolis. The professor stated that the Legislatures of Minnesota had endorsed the gathering and had forwarded through the Secretary of the State of Washington invitations to President Coolidge, King Haakon of Norway and the Governor General of Canada. President Coolidge had already accepted and Lord and Lady Byng have given assurances that they will attend. It is expected that about 50,000 Norwegians now living in Canada will attend the Norse-American Centennial.

The gathering will be opened on June 6 next and about forty "Bygdebyar" or Norwegian Clans will hold meetings during the first day. On Sunday June 7 the Bishop of Oslo, which until recently was known as Christiania, will hold a divine service and the succeeding days will be given up to meetings, field sports and musical competitions, and an historical pageant depicting the viking activities of one thousand years ago and the history of Norwegians at home and abroad up to the present time, portraying their contributions to civilization, in discoveries, science, agriculture, industry and commerce, in art and literature will be magnificently and in brilliancy of technique, magnitude and splendour the whole array will rival anything of its kind that has heretofore been produced. The other features of the Centennial are being prepared on the same elaborate scale.

It is already arranged that a large delegation from Norway's parliament will be present and there is some hope that the Norwegian Crown Prince may attend. Five Norwegian-American universities are closing for the summer early so that their faculties and students may be present. Professor Bothne pointed out that the Norwegians had done much in the building up of the central western states and their influence was shown by the fact that the governors of no less than five states were of Norwegian birth or descent. It has been proposed that the Canadian Department of Colonization shall have an exhibit at the convention.

In the course of the interview professor Bothne stated that undoubtedly the new United States immigration laws would result in large numbers of Norwegians coming to this country during the next few years.

PORTUGUESE GIRLS BECOMING MODERN

Slowly Emerging From Moorish Seclusion and Want to go to Work

LISBON, Feb. 19.—The women of Portugal slowly are emerging from the almost Moorish seclusion in which they have lived for so long, and the first thing they do, under the new freedom, is to go to work. The shops and offices of Lisbon are besieged these days by girls eager to follow in the footsteps of their sisters in other countries, and earn their own livings.

Much had to be overcome by these Lisbon girls. There was the resistance and ill-will of the masculine element, grounded in the precedent of many centuries, and a large group of minor state officials, in fear of their own jobs, voiced violent opposition.

In the schools also Portuguese girls have won their victories. They have exploded old traditions, and today are taking their places on the benches along with their brothers.

Your Farm is a Business Proposition

YOUR farm is as much a going concern as a factory, a dry goods store or a railroad system. Your farm is as dependent as any other business on a policy of sound, forward-looking financing designed to meet the various situations that occur in the life of a farmer.

If you will regard your farm in this light—as a clean-cut business proposition—you will find it helpful to form a connection with the Bank of Montreal—a bank that has served the farmers of Canada for more than a century.

Each of our 600 branches has the strength and stability of the entire organization.

PROSPERITY CLOSE AHEAD

That is Opinion of President Coolidge as Expressed in His Inaugural Address

STRONG ON ECONOMY

America Seeks no Earthly Empire But Her Legions are Armed With the Cross

(Delayed Report)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—(Associated Press)—Clothed with a direct mandate from the people, Calvin Coolidge on Wednesday dedicated himself and his administration to the lightening of the tax burden at home and to the promotion of peace through mutual understandings with the nations of the world.

These two purposes were outlined in high relief by Mr. Coolidge in his inaugural address, delivered from a simply-decorated stand at the east entrance to the Capitol just after he had taken his second oath of office as President of the United States.

Dividing his attention almost equally between affairs at home and problems abroad, and between things accomplished and achievements hoped for, Mr. Coolidge spoke with assurance as to the future, declaring that because of action already taken, an era of prosperity lay ahead and a firmer courage and a higher hope inspired the heart of all humanity.

More American

"We have been, and propose to be, more and more American," he declared. "If we have any heritage, it has been that. If we have any destiny, we have found it in that direction."

Accord with this purpose, he asserted, demands the conduct of government along certain definite lines.

These lines in the field of domestic affairs point, first, to the exercise of greater economy in government, and second, to reduction of taxation, he continued. The recent election, he said, had demonstrated that "the policy that stands out with the greatest clearness is that of economy in public expenditure with reduction and reform of taxation."

"I favor the policy of economy, not because I wish to save money, but because I wish to save people," he continued. "The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of government. Every dollar that we carelessly waste means that their life will be so much the more meager. Every dollar that we prudently save means that their life will be so much more abundant."

Tax Reduction

The practice of such economy, he declared, has brought the time when there can be further tax reduction and "when, unless we wish to hamper the people in their right to earn a living, we must have tax reform." He declared his opposition to extremely high tax rates because "they produce little or no revenue, because they are bad for the country, and finally, because they are wrong."

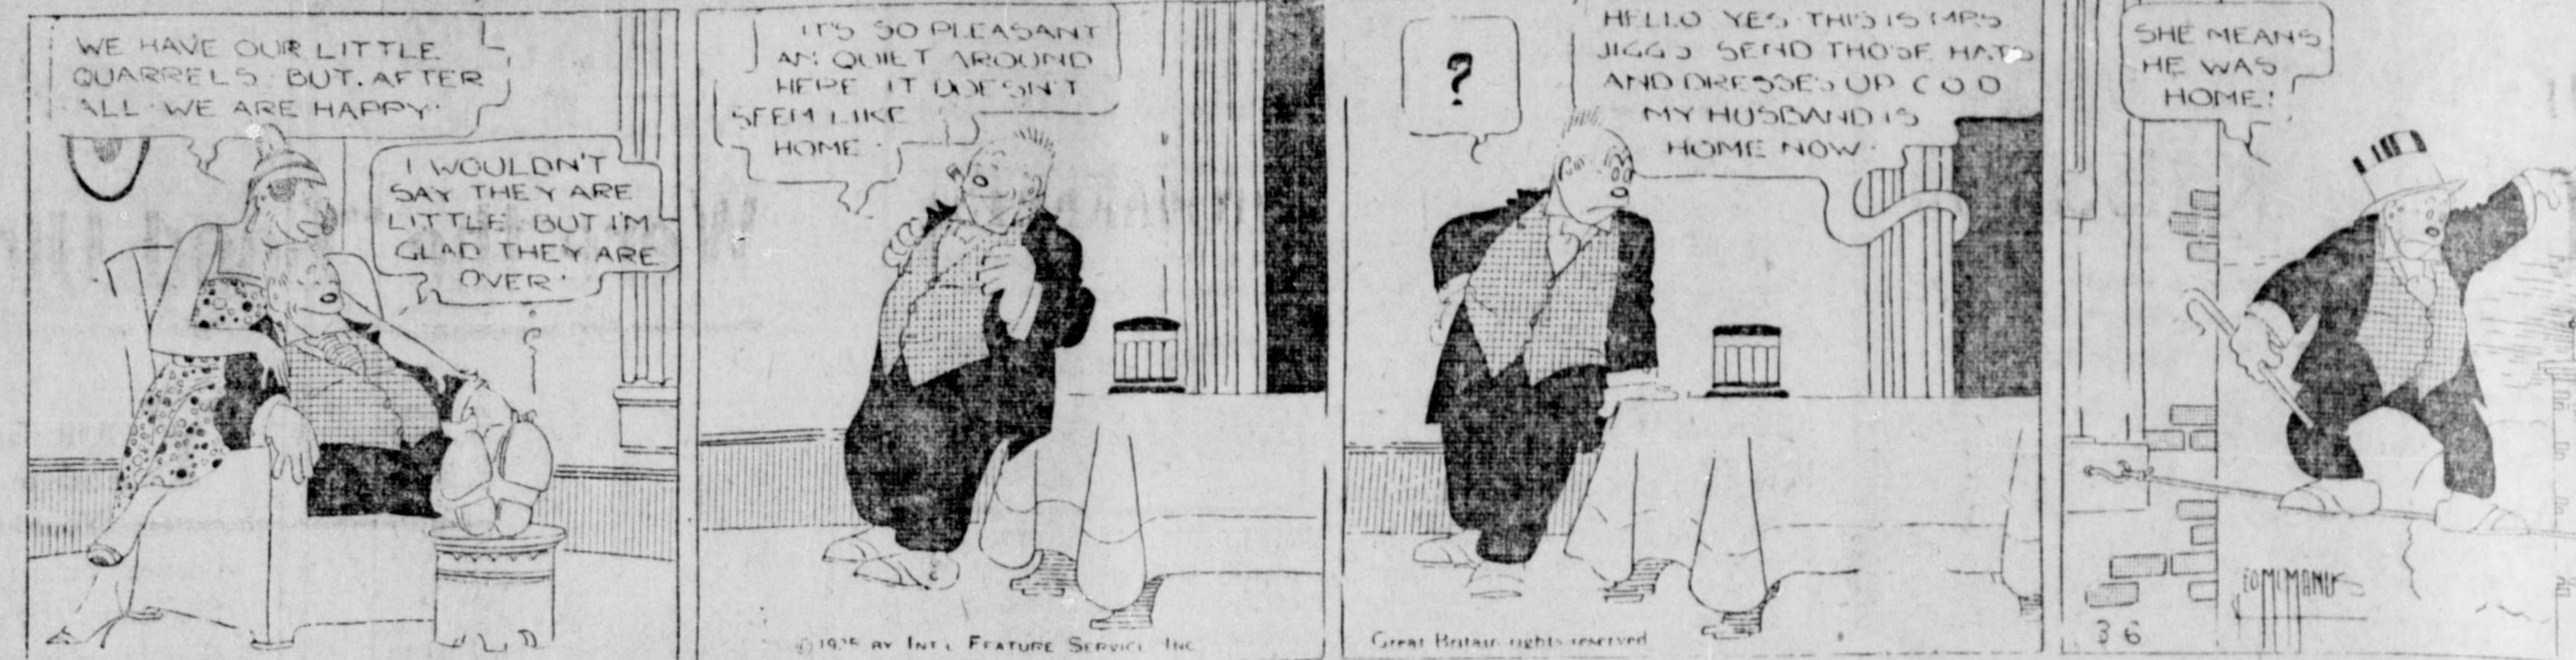

"The verdict of the country has been given on this question," he added. "That verdict stands. We shall do well to heed it."

Prefacing his discussion of America's relation to the world with the declaration that "our country represents nothing but peaceful intentions toward all the earth," Mr. Coolidge set forth ways and means of manifesting that spirit while at the same time maintaining "such a military force as comports with the dignity and security of a great people."

Leads in Peace

He reiterated his advocacy of American adherence to the Permanent Court of International Justice; declared that America having taken the lead in the movement for limitation of armaments, "that lead America must continue to hold;" favored continuation of the policy of participation in world conferences "whenever conditions are such that there is even a promise that practical and favorable results might be secured;" bespoke continuation of aid to mitigate human suffering and assist in the rehabilitation of distressed nations, and expressed sympathy with the movement to clarify international law and to bring about the outlawing of aggression.

BRINGING UP FATHER

sive war.

"We have made a great contribution to the settlement of contentious differences in both Europe and Asia," he said in concluding his discussion of foreign affairs. "But there is a very definite point beyond which we can not go. We can only help those who help themselves. Mindful of these limitations, the one great duty that stands out requires us to use our enormous powers to trim the balance of the world."

Party Government

Only once in his address did Mr. Coolidge refer to the election which today brought him to the Presidency for a term in his own right, and that was after he had declared strongly in favor of strict party responsibility, adding that "common honesty and good faith with the people who support a party at the polls require that party, when it enters office, to assume the control of that portion of the government to which it has been elected."

This administration has come into power with a very clear and definite mandate from the people," he said. "The people declared that they wanted their rights to have not a political but a judicial determination, and their independence and freedom continued and supported by having the ownership and control of their property, not in the government, but in their hands."

Observe Constitution

Pursuing further his discussion of domestic affairs, he declared that "those who want their rights respected under the Constitution and the law ought to set the example themselves of observing the Constitution and the law" and that "we cannot permit any inquisition either within or without the law to apply any religious test to the holding of office."

"America," he concluded, "seeks no earthly empire built on blood and force. No ambition, no temptation, lures her to thought of foreign dominions. The legions which she sends forth are armed, not with the sword, but with the cross. The higher state to which she seeks the allegiance of all mankind is not of human but of divine origin." She cherishes no purpose save to merit the favor of Almighty God."

LONDON GIRLS BUY UMBRELLAS THE SAME COLOR AS STOCKINGS

Some of Them Have to be Made to Order to be Exact Shade

LONDON, March 6.—One of the latest fads among fashionable young women is to choose an umbrella to match stockings and hat. In this connection it may be said that the umbrella departments of the London shops are among the most colorful branches of the business.

Scarlet and emerald have been proved thus far to be the most popular colors of all, but these

This Lassie Has Her Colds "Rubbed Away"

The mother of this attractive little girl, Mrs. E. E. Emmans of 215 Seventh Ave., N.E., Portage La Prairie, Man., is one of the many Canadian mothers who are enthusiastic about the vaporizing salve, Vicks VapoRub, for treating children's colds. Mrs. Emmans writes: "My little girl had a cold at night pretty badly and Vicks did her a lot of good. I have also used it with very satisfactory results for head and chest colds."

Vicks is just "rubbed on" for sore throat, tonsils, bronchitis, croup or deep chest colds. When so applied, Vicks has a double direct action: internally medicated vapors are inhaled while, at the same time, externally, it is absorbed through and stimulates the skin.

Shades are often overlooked by buyers who insist upon matching their hoseery and millinery even if the protectors from the sun or rain have to be made to order.

As to colors generally, especially for women, modistes say that London has never been as gay in this respect as it is today.

Longer sticks are coming back into popular usage for umbrellas but on account of its convenience dealers say the short umbrella has come to stay. Some of the handles of the longer sticks are encrusted with colorful china heads, and are considered very effective, so far as the eye is concerned, but from a practical viewpoint the headed umbrellas are considered merely one of the early spring fads, which will soon pass, because the heads themselves fairly "eat" away very quickly the palm containing $95.

BETTER TREATMENT SUBORDINATE RACES

Turkey Admits League of Nations Representatives to Look After Nationals

GENEVA, March 6.—The protection of minority peoples, in other words, people who, being resident within the confines of a foreign state, are subject to the dominion of that state, recently took on a new and hopeful aspect at Geneva. Following the example of Greece, the government of Turkey notified the League that it would permit the neutral members of the mixed commission, which handles the exchange of populations between Greece and Turkey, to serve as special agents of the council of the League, to protect the interests of the Albanian minorities in Greece.

Importance is given to this new development because it will undoubtedly create a precedent to be followed elsewhere and sets up a system whereby the League council may be regularly and directly informed as to the conditions under which minority peoples are living.

An inter-city football league is to be formed in the south including Nanaimo City, Nanaimo Veterans, Cumberland, St. An drew's of Vancouver, New Westminster and the North Shore of the Vancouver District League. The formation of such a league has been under consideration for several years but has been deferred on account of transportation difficulties.

Jimmie Delaney of St. Paul and Young Stribling of Macon boxed ten rounds in Milwaukee last week to a draw. Stribling refusing to come out of his shell with the exception of the last two rounds. Newspapermen were divided in their opinions. Some gave Delaney a shade the best of it, others, Stribling.

Harry Greb, middleweight champion, had the liveliest fight of his life in Pittsburg this week when he routed five highwaymen who waylaid him and two young women. One of the bandits caught Greb's left ear with a knife and another had a revolver but did not use it. Greb laid out two of his assailants and knocked another down. He dispersed after getting a diamond ring worth $1000 from one of the women and a purse containing $95.

The start of the city individual billiard championship competition has been delayed for exactly one week from March 12 to March 19 and the games will take place in the order as announced yesterday only one week later in each case. This has been decided so that the cushions on the table at the G.W.V.A. rooms, on which the games are to be played, may be renovated. The winner will be decided on the number of games won and lost. One point will be given for a victory and nothing for a loss. In the event of a tie, there will be a playoff to 1,000 points in two 500 sessions.

There is to be an individual billiard championship tournament at the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor in which light balls will be used. The entrants are George McIlroy, B. Jelich

BONUS EFFECT ON CANADIAN PORTS SHOWN

Should Satisfy People of Maritime Provinces Thinks Edmonton Newspaper

The bonus to be paid by the Dominion government to the Peterson Company will apply only to boats sailing from Canadian ports, such ports to be designated by the Minister of Trade and Commerce, says an Edmonton paper. One incidental effect of the arrangement will be to help direct the out-going and in-coming trade of the country through the Canadian ports on the St. Lawrence, the Atlantic and the Pacific coasts. For a beginning the Peterson company is to put ten ships in the service, and ten more when required. Twenty Government Merchant Marine vessels are also to go into the trade. From thirty to forty ships will therefore operate from Canadian ports on either coast under government-controlled rates. That number should be sufficient not only to exert a modifying influence upon rates charged by competing vessels, but to deflect both export and import trade to a considerable degree from United States to Canadian ports.

Wanted Action

The people of the Maritime provinces have been appealing recently for action of some kind which would give them a fair share of the Canadian-made traffic which now passes through the harbors of New England.

WHOOPING COUGH IS A VERY SERIOUS TROUBLE HER 5 CHILDREN HAD IT

Mrs. S. H. Craig, B.R. No. 1, Palmerston, Ont., writes: "Two years ago, last winter, our five children had very severe attacks of whooping cough. We were recommended, by our druggist, to use which we did with the greatest of success. It cleared out the sputum and bronchial tubes, and loosened the phlegm so that they were able to cough it up, and in no time I had quenched the 'whoop-ing'."

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

"Dr. Wood's" is put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, and has been on the market for the past 32 years. Be sure and get the genuine.

Vancouver and Victoria claim that they are losing business which should belong to them, through competition from Seattle and Portland, and fear that they may lose more. On either coast the proposal has found favor that the tariff preference allowed on British goods should apply only when those goods enter at a Canadian port. The conditions upon which the bonus is being given will go a good way to accomplish the purpose of holding Canadian trade to Canadian routes and terminals. If in addition to that, parliament should see fit to re-strict the preference to goods coming in through Canadian ports, the people of the far eastern provinces and of British Columbia will find their wishes granted in a very substantial measure. Even without interference with the preferential tariff, a fleet of three dozen ships sailing all the year round from Canadian ports must make an appreciable difference in the volume of trade flowing through these outlets and inlets.

GERMANS OUST BRITISH FROM OWN MARKETS

Are Selling Steel to India Where They Have Outbid Their Rivals

LEEDS, England, March 6.—British steel manufacturers have found difficulty in selling steel in their own territory, India, because they have been outbid by the Germans and Belgians, it was announced here by A. M. Samuel, parliamentary secretary to the Department of Overseas Trade, addressing the Leeds Chamber of Commerce. The situation which brought this about, said Mr. Samuel, was the high price of coal. The price of steel, which was largely dependent on the price of coal, was so high today that it paid to import steel from abroad. Two or three shillings per ton off the price of coal, he suggested, would make all the difference to the prosperity of British trade, and the existing high price of coal was doing harm which extended much farther than to the 100,000 men who were out of work in the coal fields.

Mr. Samuel, however, was quite optimistic as to the future for British trade generally. With the exception of coal, steel and shipping, he believed that the clouds of trade were breaking, and that there would be a reawakening of prosperity for all and particularly the workingman. With about 1,250,000 men unemployed there was much misery, but through the whole policy of existing government ran the motive of getting the people back to work. He could see in trade today a greater spirit of confidence.

SULTAN JOINS HIM
Is Beautiful Girl But Wanted
Her Old Turk Spouse

PHILIPPOPOLIS, Bulgaria, Mar. 5.—Nedig Eyzad Hanum, the fifth and favorite wife of the deposed Khalif, passed through the railroad station here on the Simplon express the other day to rejoin her husband, the old Turk who is spending his declining days in Switzerland.

Nedig, who took no pains to keep her face veiled as she leaned out of the window of her compartment at the station, is strikingly beautiful, with blue eyes at variance with the American idea of Orientals. She is just twenty years old. When the Sultan was deposed and banished last year, Mustapha Kemal refused to let Nedig join him in his exile. Nedig Eyzad Hanum, however, would not be permanently parted from the ex-Khalif, and she made so many personal applications to Mustapha Kemal for permission to join her husband in his banishment that he finally relented.

Nedig owes her blue eyes to her Circassian origin.

LONDON, Mar. 6.—England began the year 1925 with nearly 80,000 more private automobiles than were in use a year ago, according to recent announcement of the ministry of transport. This brings the total number of private motor-cars to more than 460,000, making one person out of every 80 the owner of an automobile.

At the beginning of 1924 there were 384,000 cars on the road in this country, the proportion being one owner out of every 100 of the population. The increase in the number of cars will

DADS AND SONS AT A BANQUET

Boys and Their Fathers Sat
Down Together at Methodist Church Last Night

One of the most successful events of the year was staged last evening in the club room of the Methodist Church, it being the annual Father and Son banquet in connection with the boys' work activities of the local church. Promptly at 6:45 p.m. forty-five lads and dads sat down at the well laden tables to partake of the sumptuous repast provided by the boys themselves. The committees in charge were:

Program—Art. Cameron, Jack Stevens, Bronson Hunt and Bob Irvin.

Banquet—Jim Parker, Eddie Walters, Freddie Cameron and Cecil Hacker.

Dads from many different walks in life put aside their business and household cares and came with their sons to joke and laugh and eat and enjoy themselves. In fact the men seemed more boyish than the boys themselves. The boys, on this, the gala night of the whole year's work, excelled themselves in the splendid entertainment they put on and thereby won the well merited applause of appreciative seniors.

After doing ample justice to the good things served by the banquet committee, the chairman, Jack Stevens, called the assembly to order and, in a few words very able and forcibly spoken, launched a program which rivalled that at many a board of trade or service club luncheon. The Tuxis orchestra consisting of Cliff, Cameron, piano; Bill Murray and Eddie Walters, violins and Art Cameron, drums, rendered three favorably received numbers and assisted in the singing of those songs especially written for the occasion.

Toasts Proposed

The toast to the dads was proposed by Jim Parker, who proceeded in lighter vein to tell the dads how to get into the good graces of their sons. Concluding his remarks: "Dads, the requirements of your job in regard to your sons are stricter and harder to administer faithfully than the Ten Commandments. You must be a human cash register to unbuckle, a policeman to arrest, a judge to sentence, a warden to imprison, a governor to pardon, a companion to amuse, a guardian to guide and besides you must have sympathy and sternness, kindness and a strong right arm, patience and a hickory switch. The man who has received his honorable discharge from the army of dads has received a fellowship in the college of life and has got a white pass through the golden gates of time with baggage exempt from customs."

In replying to the toast F. Cameron, with characteristic humor and seriousness blended in just the right proportions, voiced the gratefulness of the dads at having the rare privilege of meeting with their sons in this way and stressed the all important goal of life, that of character, which could not be bought by cold cash but had to be acquired by experience.

Principal Speaker

In calling upon the main speaker of the evening, the chairman remarked that it was a treat indeed to have a man of Rev. W. E. Galloway's calibre and ability as the guest of honor and assured the lads and dads that the address to follow would be well worth their interest and attention.

Rev. Galloway lived up to all advance expectations and produced the goods. His address was masterful and convincing.

For three quarters of an hour the speaker held his audience in rapt attention and carried his points home in no uncertain manner. It was a revelation to both fathers and sons. Stressing the relationship of father and son as a true business proposition, in which the spirit of co-operation ruled over that of competition, a circumstance that is being recognized more forcibly in the business world today, the speaker suggested the firm name of "Father, Son and Company" as being more unselfish and productive of finer community spirit than the meager results arising from such firms

as "Myself Incorporated."

In concluding this notable address, sparkling with the wit and intense love of the man behind the message, one that will go down in the annals of local boys' work and linger longer in the memories of those present, Mr. Galloway urged upon the fathers and sons the "chumming up" spirit in their daily relationships one with the other.

Other Speakers

After three rousing cheers and a tiger had been given for Mr. Galloway, S. E. Parker, L. W. Patmore, M. Gillies, S. D. Macdonald and H. Heilbronner voiced, on behalf of the fathers, the feeling of gratitude they wished to express to those who made such a banquet possible and to the main speaker of the evening for his splendid address. When a few more bouquets had been passed around to those who didn't want to receive them, the program was concluded by the singing of "O Canada."
