SOUTH AFRICAN TRIBE CAUSES TROUBLE

TUG DOROTHKALON PILED ON ROCKS AND ONLY TWO OUT OF THREE ESCAPE

Tribe of Half Castes Revolted in German South African Colony

CAPETOWN, April 3.—The South African government is confronted with a revolt in the former German colony of southwest Africa. A tribe of halfcastes, said to be acting under the influence of young extremists, are insisting that they are a religious community and firmly believing that they are protected by Providence, are demanding independence, and appealing to the League of Nations. Rhoboth is the Biblical name given the tribe by missionaries.

An armed force and three aeroplanes have been sent to the scene of the disturbance.

BUDGET DEBATE IN PARLIAMENT

Dr King Says People Were Gold
Bricked by Conservatives In Year 1911

OTTAWA, April 3.—Doctors differed sharply in the House of Commons yesterday on the budget debate. For the Conservatives Hon. Dr. Martin charged the government with having as many tariff policies as a centipede has feet. The only salvation for the country was to drive the government bag and baggage.

Hon. Dr. King, minister of public works, warmly returned that Conservatives gold-bricked the people of Canada in 1911 but having been once bitten the people would be twice shy.

FINANCE MINISTER

Position Accepted by DeMonzie
Conditionally on Compromise

PARIS, April 3.—M. Clementel, Minister of finance, has resigned and Senator Anatole DeMonzie has been named as his successor.

DeMonzie is said to have accepted conditionally on the Government's agreement to a compromise on the question of the Vatican embassy. The compromise is believed to take the form of an extension of powers

INDIAN GIVEN MONTH IN JAIL

Stole Furs and Traps From Trapper's Cabin and Is Punished For Offense

MATTER AT OTTAWA

SMITHERS, April 3.—Wm Green, an Indian of Hazelton, who was committed for trial on Monday on a charge of theft of furs and traps from a white trapper, appeared before Judge Young at Thursday's session of the County Court, and was found guilty and given a sentence of thirty days.

The outcome of this case has been awaited with more than ordinary interest as Green had stolen the furs and traps from the cabin of a trapper, who was catching fur on a trap line that had been used by the Indians for many years, and he considered the white man was encroaching on his territory.

In giving his ruling the judge considered that a trapper's license entitled the holder to trap anywhere in the province, but asked the interpreter to tell the defendant that a delegation was now at Ottawa taking up this question and he felt sure the Indians would be given British justice in the settling of the matter, but at the present the Indians had no legal right to molest a white trapper or interfere with his trapping in their districts.

Ex-Mayor H. B. Rochester is very interested in a recent copy of the Montreal Star which carries pictures of John R. Booth the Canadian lumber king, and the recent shipment of pine—the largest since the war—that he made to the Old Country. Mr. Booth, who is a close friend of Mr. Rochester's family, will be 98 years of age tomorrow. He is still hide and hearty as was evidenced by the fact that he made a personal inspection of the big timber shipment referred to.

Verdict of Jury in Notorious Dennistoun Case is Set Aside; Lady Recovers Only $2,300

LONDON, April 3.—The reserved judgment in the notorious Dennistoun case was delivered today. The alleged agreement for the support of Dorothy Dennistoun, the divorced wife of Colonel Dennistoun, by her former husband after the divorce is declared not legally binding and therefore the suit for breach of contract has failed.

The jury's verdict awarding the plaintiff nearly $25,000 is set aside by the court. Mrs. Dennistoun, however, recovers about $2,300 loaned to the Colonel during their married life. Costs of the action, with the exception of that part involving a breach of contract, are to be borne by the defendant.

Tug Dorothkalon Wrecked at Cumshewa Rocks and Engineer Drowned; Was Well Known Here

(Special to Daily News)

SKIDEGATE, April 3.—T. A. Kelly's tug Dorothkalon is a total wreck at Cumshewa rocks at the mouth of Cumshewa Inlet. She went ashore at two o'clock Tuesday morning during a thick fog with a heavy sea running from the northeast. James Clark, engineer, was drowned. Three men were aboard when the tug struck, Capt. Fleming, James Clarke and Malcolm McKinnon. The lifeboat was launched but immediately swamped. Clark was swept out to sea before the boat could be righted.

Fleming and McKinnon with great difficulty made shore and reported the accident at McKinnon's camp.

Clark was born in Vancouver 25 years ago. He is well known all over the islands and at Prince Rupert and was a great favorite here. News of his death was received with great sorrow. He leaves a father, mother and four brothers and two sisters in Vancouver.

The Clarke brothers are well known in Prince Rupert where they once owned and operated the launch boat Annie S. Leon of which Fred Clarke was the skipper. Mr. Clarke was a personal friend of T. A. Kelly. The body has not so far been recovered but John MacMillan, superintendent of the logging company is doing everything possible to recover the body.

The Dorothkalon was 44 feet long, 12 feet 8 inches in breadth and 6 feet deep. She was of 17 gross tonnage and 11 register.

She was built in 1916 and was powered when she sank with a 32 horse power Penny-Porter semi-diesel engine. The vessel made a call at Prince Rupert a couple of years ago when on her way from Vancouver to Cumshewa. Capt. W. L. Dass was then in command.

PRINCE CHARLES IS NOW AT VANCOUVER

New C.N.R. Steamer Arrived at Southern Port From Old
Country on Tuesday

The new Canadian National coast steamer Prince Charles, formerly St. Margaret, arrived at Vancouver Tuesday from the Old Country. The vessel is to be commissioned at once in the Queen Charlotte Island service relieving the Prince John which is to be given an extensive overhaul.

Later this summer, the Prince Charles will ply direct between here and Vancouver.

The Prince Charles came direct from Dundee, Scotland, to Vancouver making calls enroute only for fuel and quarantine. She was brought out by Capt. A. M. Davies, formerly of the G.T.P. coast service and father of Allan and Frank Davies of this city.

The vessel is 241 feet long, 33 feet wide and 11 feet deep. Her tonnage is 1088 gross and 640 net. She was used in the Old Country in a service very similar to that which she will be called upon to perform here.

Capt. E. Mabs, master of the Prince John, is understood to be slated for command of the Prince Charles. Purser Bert Robson will also move to the Charles it is expected.

Railway Heads Have Divergent
Views With C.P.R. Holding Back

OTTAWA, April 3.—The heads of the two big railroads are being urged by the government to make a report on the best way of handling the Peace River situation. It is understood here that the C.P.R. head is the real stumbling block. He refuses to commit his company to anything which does not seem to be an immediate money-maker.

Sir Henry Thornton is anxious for his company to tap the district and, it is understood, would like to control the situation, believing it is C.N.R. territory and that the grain should come out over the National road.

EDMONTON, April 3.—Another party of Hebrideans intended for the district of Vermilion, Alberta, consisting of about 100 families are expected to arrive in May. It will include about 500 people, men, women and children. They are being sent to Canada by the Scottish Emigration Aid Society of which Father McDonnell is the representative in Canada. The lands secured for the colony were held by Belgian investors.

Oriental Problem Is Always With Us.

The Oriental problem is always with us. When it is not an industrial problem it is a political problem or a social problem. It will constantly come up when there is nothing else to talk about. We may be sure of that.

Just now A. W. Neill of Gomox-Alberni is discussing the subject at Ottawa and is complaining that the agreement with the Japanese is not being carried out. If any officials are allowing lapses in the regulations they should at once be dismissed. There should be no difficulty about that.

The problem of unfair competition is always before us. It is claimed that Orientals have a lower standard of living to the rest of the community. They do not want their houses furnished like we do and do without things in everyday life that we consider necessary. The result is that they can underbid us in the labor market. The merchants complain that they do not spend their money here but send most of it back to their own country. The charges are that they compete unfairly with white labor, they are of no value to the white merchant, and the races do not mix well, consequently social intercourse is not conducive to best racial results.

Best Remedy For Present Conditions.

Let the Japanese and Chinese develop their standards of living in their own country; let the laboring classes demand, as Indians do here, the highest wages commensurate with services rendered; let them get rid of the industrial objection to their presence and the other objections would not worry people much. What people raise a row about is what "touches" their pocket. If money is involved, the agitation is kept up and eventually wins out. The political objection would cease once the industrial objection were settled.

Of late Chinese and Japanese have been opening stores in the white sections of the coast cities. This has aroused a good deal of criticism and had led merchants to join the agitation against their presence in this country.

Beatty Humorous And Also Serious.

E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., at a dinner recently, said:

"The fact that difficulties are before us is just another incentive to overcome them and by our own prudence and sanity and by the support of policies which are designed to improve the whole of the country being about the object which we seek to achieve. In the words of the late Thomas D'Arcy McGee, a man of great eloquence and of almost uncanny vision, 'Each for himself should contribute to the country's prosperity by his own individual effort.'

"You may properly ask what are these difficulties and what steps should be taken to overcome them. I am not speaking in any political sense because politicians and I are almost strangers. In fact, some time ago I was asked if I knew anything about politics and the only reply I could make was that which was made by the young man to the elderly lady who met at a garden party and who said to him: 'Young man, are you married?' The gentleman replied: 'Unfortunately, no, madam, thank God.' But speaking entirely apart from politics, an excess of which in matters of commerce is probably one of our greatest tribulations, we are confronted with a situation which is partly an honorable scar and partly a self-inflicted wound. We have obligations due to our war participation which constitute the most brilliant page in the history of this country; obligations which must be met and which are being cheerfully met and we have obligations which are due to our own miscalculations or lack of judgment, and these obligations must be met but in the nature of things are not so cheerfully met. All of them must of necessity be discharged and none of them should be incurred."

"My own conception of the situation can be reduced to very few words. I believe, first, that we need have no apprehension of the future of Canada unless we ourselves retard that future by acting on false economic principles. I do not know of any country more bountifully endowed by Nature than this country. I do not know of any country whose progress in fifty years with its up and downs has been more steady or on a sounder foundation. On the other hand, a serious if cool and confident consideration of its commercial and economic problems is just now necessary in Canada."

RUPERT GIVEN FINE WELCOME

Delegates Reported on Wonderful Hospitality of Portland
 People

The wonderful hospitality of the Portland people was shown during the recent convention according to the delegates to the district conference of Rotary held there recently. At the Rotary luncheon yesterday George Bryant, Walter Fisher and Walter Vance reported on the trip, telling of the splendid reception they were given. There were in the party Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Miss Fisher and Walter Vance, and they enjoyed it all.

Speakers

Mr. Bryant told of the speakers. There were among others the blind editor of the Portland Oregonian and of the speech by Rev. Leslie Pidgeon, the banner address of the convention.

Rev. Mr. Pidgeon compared the growth of Rotary with that of a flower, declaring that the real meaning of growth could not be fully appreciated until the flower came into bloom. The history of the idealistic side of Rotary was traced from the basic which was declared to be the idea of helping each other in business.

The second stage of the development, he declared, was the recognition and adoption of the idea that every man who was a member of the order and all others holding similar ideals should do their daily task as members of society.

Branching out into the international sphere was considered as the third and final step of the organization to date.

"There is no phase of life which is not social," Rev. Mr. Pidgeon declared in considering the common practice of having one standard of conduct and relationship for social world and another for the business.

In considering the international ideal, he declared that only by universalizing thoughts could a man really decide whether they were right or wrong. "A small man," he said, "is one whose concise life and service takes in the narrowest possible circle of society."

Materialism Not Satisfying

"Man cannot satisfy the infinite," he continued, "by adding one finite thing to another, and he cannot satisfy life by adding one material thing to another."

There is much to be done in fostering the international ideal, the speaker said, and as a first step it is necessary that thinking be on an international scope. "If I were to give my opinion as to what is the matter with the world," he said, "I would state that our intellect has grown faster than our moral conceptions. A man should be true to his own country but it is not necessary that he stop there. Anything that should be done can be done and will be done. Rotary is doing something to foster this international idea and international understanding."

Vancouver showed up well at the convention about eighty from that town being present and forty to forty-five from Victoria.

Hospital Features

W. S. Fisher, telling of the hospitality of the Portland people said there were 350 autos placed at their disposal and they were told they could commandeer any one of them at any time.

They were given a wonderful drive forty miles up the Columbia River highway and in other directions. There was a reception for the ladies at which 900 were present, a fashion show and finally the governor's ball at which there were no wallflowers. The people of the home town saw to it that every visitor danced all the time.

Mr. Vance as struck by the advertising the various towns got from the convention and urged that Prince Rupert be well represented at Victoria next year. At Portland Victoria delegates were all dressed in little sailor hats and each had a telescope which was also a bazaar. Their song leader was a big man with a big voice and they made a great showing.

Vancouver delegates all had to be vaccinated before crossing the border. They capitalized it into a song. Following are one or two of their ditties:

GOT BACK PAY AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS OF ABSENCE FROM B.C.

George Hill Gets Word of Man
 Who Left Years Ago and
 Now is Back in Province

George Hill of this city was surprised the other day to read in a southern newspaper about the return of an old acquaintance to the province. The item was dated at Drumheller as follows:

Misfortune often pursues one to the bitter end, but good fortune, contrary to well established fact, sometimes does the very same thing. At least so thinks Ernie Davis, one of the members of the Atlas mine, Drumheller, and one of the trustees of the Miner's Hall. Ernie also believes that there are a few honest men left in the world yet, and that the officials of the Canadian Pacific railway can be placed in this category.

Mr. Davis worked for the Canadian Pacific railway back in Ontario some eighteen years ago, or to be exact, in April and May, 1907. But being of a roving disposition, he had not time to wait for his pay checks for these two months, so he hit out on his round the world trail and kissed goodbye to the said two months' wages. Of course, in 1907, two months' wages were not what they are today, but still a dollar went a great distance in those days of real sport.

However, after spending some time in the gold fields of Nevada, and many other mining fields, Mr. Davis landed in the Red Deer Valley coal field where he has been for some time. He had forgotten all about his back wages, and the other day, just as he had a trip to Alaska all arranged, he got a notification from the Canadian Pacific railway that if he would send the proper identification papers and satisfy them that he was the same Ernie Davis, they would be only too pleased to send him a check for his back pay.

Now, next to finding yourself suddenly famous, getting a letter like that after eighteen years, is the most pleasantly nerve wrecking experience one could enjoy, and Ernie promises Pat Connroy and the boys the cigars before he hits the trail for Alaska. Of course while he will not object to eighteen years' interest, he will be glad to get the principal and promises never again to forget to call for his pay checks.

"Many women, I've found, choose their laundry soap merely because it is extra hard or because the bar is big and bulky—regardless of the soap's quality.

"As for myself, I always insist on Sunlight Soap, because I learned many years ago that it is more economical to use only pure laundry soap, and I believe that Sunlight is the only pure laundry bar soap made in Canada. Every bar of Sunlight carries a $5,000 Guarantee of Purity.

Here and There

A total of 1,003,672 barrels of apples have been shipped to the English market from Halifax since the beginning of the shipping season up to February 24. London took 354,715 barrels and Liverpool and Manchester came second and third with 267,823 and 172,685 barrels respectively.

Eighty-four thousand automobiles are now being operated by citizens of the Province of Quebec equivalent to an average upkeep of $300 per year each, a total expenditure for maintenance alone of $25,000,000 every year, according to figures supplied by the Montreal Automobile Trade Association.

Around 16,000 horses were shipped from western Canada to eastern Canada in 1924, most of them coming from Saskatchewan. This province is maintaining its lead as the greatest horse-breeding centre of the Dominion, with a total of 1,170,745 head, an increase of 33.44 per cent over 1923.

The steamship "Princess Marguerite" successfully passed her trials on Clydebank when she developed an average speed of 22.56 knots and a best run of 23.2 knots per hour. Together with the "Princess Kathleen" she will be used on the Seattle-Vancouver-Victoria route this coming season.

Monsignor Heylen, Bishop of Namur, Belgium, and permanent president of the Eucharistic Congress, arrived at St. John, N.B., last week on the "Montrose." His Lordship was on his way to Chicago where he will make preparations for the Congress, to be held there in June, 1926.

Ivan Shvegel, Canadian Pacific Railway representative in Jugoslavia, interviewed here recently, stated that his countrymen were 88 per cent agriculturists and that he felt "certain that in the mutual interests of both countries the future will, in the field of immigration, lead to closer and closer relations between Canada and the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes."

A romance of the peerage and the steerage was personified by F. E. Bailey, grandson of the late Lord Glanusk, who arrived at St. John, N.B., last week among the third-class passengers on the "Montrose." Bailey, who is just 17 years of age, was so struck with Canada that he ran away from Bray Court College at Maidenhead and after a number of adventures realized his ambition by sailing on the "Montrose."

The largest batch of Clydesdale horses that has ever sailed from the Clyde, valued at £10,000, was embarked recently on the "Marloch." It consisted of 14 stallions and 3 fillies, and there were also ten Percherons from Antwerp on the "Marloch," while ten more Percherons and Belgians will be shipped at a later date. The horses were purchased by Mr. W. J. McCallum, of Brampton, Ontario, and Brandon, Manitoba.

George E. Buchanan, of Detroit, believes in romance. He believes in it so much that last year he took 48 Detroit boys for a trip to Alaska. This year he is going to take a good many more and he will include Canadian youngsters. He has been visiting in Toronto and his object is to find some boys willing to take a holiday in the Far North next July. Mr. Buchanan, who was born near Chatham in Ontario, has developed this unique hobby owing to having himself been taken on a trip to Alaska forty years ago when he was a boy.

FLIRTING WITH LOVE AT THE WESTHOLME

Picture Features Conway Tearle and Colleen Moore and is Worth While

"Flirting with Love" is the popular picture being shown here tonight with Conway Tearle and Colleen Moore in the principal parts.

Gilda is an actress, and, like many actresses, she is confronted with the problem of holding her audiences by giving up the drama she loves for risque farces. She does it because she and her manager cannot eat on the profits of "artistic successes." Only those who see Gilda's struggle from the factory bench to divine dramatic gifts can appreciate the sympathy she really deserves.

To complete her come-down she has a press agent who surrounds her with shocking tales of his imagination. She immediately becomes notorious, and we see the sincere little creature suddenly transformed into a violently temperamental prima donna in order to live up to her reputation.

Consequently, when she is starred in "The Lost Kimono," a veritable Niagara of fame and fortune begins. But even this is wrested from her within twenty-four hours. Wade Cameron, a psychoanalyst who acts as chairman of the "Better Plays Committee," closes the show as immoral.

"Action" inadequately describes what follows fast and furiously. The camel's back has been broken, and its attempts to pass through the eye of a needle could not be more entertainingly full of humor and pathos than Gilda's revenge upon Cameron.

ODDFELLOWS GIVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT TERRACE THIS WEEK

TERRACE, Apr. 3.—A splendid evening's entertainment was given by the Oddfellows at their minstrel show, Wednesday evening. The band selections and choruses which consisted mostly of the old plantation songs were very popular. The jokes were new and took well. The solos revealed a great deal of latent talent. The guitar and violin made a very pretty accompaniment to many of the songs. There were step dances by J. S. Eggleshaw, Roht, Donald and G. McLaren which were very interesting, especially the first which introduced some Russian steps.

SIMPLE JEWELLERY FASHION OF TODAY

Trade Suffers Through Changing Fashions; Ornate Settings Gone Out

LONDON, April 3.—Women's constantly changing ideas regarding what they shall or shall not wear always affect some trade or another. This time it is the jewellery trade which is suffering, owing to the new simplicity of tastes regarding the wearing of jewellery. All women want pearl necklaces for the moment, and if they cannot get real ones they will have imitations, with the result that pendants with ornate gold settings as well as brooches are out of fashion.

According to the head of a jewellery association in Birmingham, where much jewellery is manufactured, there is today a slump in gold watch wristlets because women are now wearing a plain moire ribbon band, and whereas it was quite usual for a woman to wear four rings it is now, only usual to wear two, a wedding and an engagement ring.

POOREST CATHEDRAL IN ALL CHRISTENDOM

LONDON, April 3.—The poorest cathedral in Christendom is Southwark cathedral, according to the Bishop of Woolwich.

There is practically no endowment, the bishop explains, and the deans, the sub-deans and canons were not paid a single penny. The cathedral is in a poor locality and for 12 years the windows have not been cleaned because of lack of finances. The organization faces bankruptcy.

WALTER VANCE CALLED BLUFF OF HIS FRIEND

Was Not Expected at Hockey Match at Victoria Although Invited

When Harold Campbell, formerly of Prince Rupert, wired to tell Walter Vance inviting him to attend the hockey match at Victoria Saturday night, he had no idea that it would be accepted. He was rather in the form of a teaser. He was much surprised when it was accepted promptly and was followed up by the appearance of Mr. Vance.

Mr. Vance said there was no suspicion that the game was thrown by the Victoria team. It was fought hard and the winning shots of the visitors were somewhat in the nature of flukes.

In telling the Rotary Club this at their luncheon yesterday Mr. Vance said anyone who saw the game would not suspect crooked work. People were too apt to suspect others of that sort of thing.

"There are other much more important things to do in the world, and I have tried to do my little service to mankind by working out a theory of life which is better than the one under which we live. In my opinion, no true philosophy will ever be evolved until we understand how all intellectual and mental values relate to sentiment." Sporting editors on this side of the pond won't be asked to review Hackenschmidt's ten volumes of philosophy, for they are written in German.

MAY CUT DOWN ARMAMENTS

Social Democratic Party of Holland Introduce Project Reducing Cost

THE HAGUE, April 3.—A project for disarmament, to be operative as from January 1, 1926, has been introduced in the Dutch chamber by the Social Democratic party.

Its main provisions are to cut down the standing army from 327,000 men in the active force and organized reserves to a "security" force of 25,000 and to reduce the navy to about a dozen guardships and as many seaplanes. The actual cost is computed at some 17,500,000 florins, compared with 100,000,000 florins allocated for defense purposes in the 1923 budget.

The scheme is based upon the Danish disarmament plan, which is closely followed as far as the navy is concerned while allowance is made for a greater land force owing to Holland's longer land frontiers.

The proposal is accompanied by a lengthy memorial declaring that owing to modern war methods, Hollands, like other small states, is confronted with the impossibility of defending her territory adequately against aggression by powerful foreign nations, or maintaining neutrality by force of arms alone. Either contingency may have to be faced, the promoters say, owing to the prevalence of international hatred, the desire for revenge on the part of the vanquished, and the fear of revenge on the part of the victors in the world war.

EXCURSIONS TO THIS COUNTRY

British People Given Cheap Rates to Visit New York and Canada

LONDON, April 3.—The middle-class, stay-at-home Britons are to be encouraged to get a fleeting glimpse of the new world this coming summer during their regular annual holidays. Vacations for the majority of white-collar workers who inhabit this island consist of 21 days. Heretofore the middle class have counted on no further holiday excursions than jaunts to the countries just across the channel; relatively few get so far away as Italy.

And now the steamship companies for a mere £50, less than $250, offer to take them to New York, whizz them rapidly for a few days around the American metropolis, show them a few spots in Canada, and deliver them back home, all within those precious 21 days of summer holiday.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey of this city and, besides the parents of the bride, there were present a number of intimate friends.

FLITTING SHADOWS AT SUN'S ECLIPSE CAUGHT BY CAMERA

TUSCON, Ariz., April 3.—Photographs of the shadow bands on the sun during the recent eclipse, were made successfully in the east with an apparatus designed and built by Dr. A. E. Douglass, director of the Seward Observatory here. The Arizona astronomer recently received the first prints from exposures made by his shadow-band camera, used at Middle-town, Conn., under the supervision of Dr. H. T. Stetson, head of the astronomical department at Harvard.

At the time the exposures were made weather conditions were perfect. The temperature was four below zero. As the recording of these shadow bands, a source of mystification to leading authorities, had never been achieved successfully in previous eclipses, the present attainment is regarded important to science. Dr. Douglass says the experiment proves beyond doubt that the waves are caused by irregularities in the density of atmosphere, a theory he has held for many years.

The prints show the shadow bands distinctly. They were rendered visible to the camera lens by the smallness of the sun's crescent. The pictures were taken during the minute preceding and the minute following totality of the eclipse. Dr. Douglass points out that the same effect is seen from distant electric lights and on stars viewed through a strong telescope.

The photographic outfit consisted of a 13-inch converging mirror, focusing a beam of light through a small opening on to a film six inches beyond the focus. This concentrated the

Shop-windows on parade

IN THE quiet and comfort of your home, newspaper in hand, the shop-windows of the town's best stores pass in review. Look at that charming little hat—just the style you have been looking for, and so reasonable!

And say, isn't that coat a darling? . . . Not only do you see illustrations of the merchandise, but you are told in detail of its merits and prices. A passing panorama that may be halted and started and halted at will. A shopping trip at home!

How long do you suppose it would take you to reverse the process—to go up one street and down another, until you had visited personally every worth-while store in town? And how exhausted you would be, physically and nervously.

There's no doubt about it. The modern way to shop is to read the advertisements, then make notes of the stores and the particular offerings that appeal to you. What a lot of time and bother such a method saves. You know beforehand what you want to look at, who has it, and what you will have to pay.

Read the advertisements. Make it a daily habit. The regular reader of advertisements is better informed, makes the family budget stretch further, has more time for recreation, gets more value for her money, and profits in many other ways. Advertisements are frequently the most interesting news in the paper.

Every day these shop-windows are lined up for your inspection in this newspaper
