MACKENZIE KING ANNOUNCES RENEWAL CONTRACT WITH SIR H. THORNTON

Freight Rates Victory Will be Supported by Government says Oliver

VICTORIA, Sept. 5.—If Canadian railways attempt to upset the order announced at Ottawa Wednesday requiring them to equalize the freight rate on export grain for Pacific ports, the British Columbia Government will be ready to defend its victory to the last ditch, Premier Oliver said yesterday, replying to a letter from H. H. Stevens, in which the Conservative Vancouver member gave warning that such action was probable.

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.—Dissenting judgments were delivered yesterday afternoon by Commissioners Boyce and Lawrence in respect to the order announced by Chief Commissioner McKeown and supported by Commissioner Oliver equalizing the export rates on grain. Simultaneously with the issuance of the latter judgment there was issued a resolution by Assistant Commissioner McLean, supported by Commissioners Boyce and Lawrence, declaring that the matter of grain export through Western ports and other matters must necessarily be dealt with when the Canadian freights are revised generally as already provided.

The fire started in a house owned by a former fire chief and across the street from the fire hall.

Premier King Announces an Appeal to Country: Contract Sir Henry Thornton Renewed

RICHMOND HILL, Ontario, Sept. 5.—Parliament is to be dissolved at once. Addressing his constituents of North York here this afternoon Premier Mackenzie King declared his intention to appeal to the p.o.s. The date of the election is definitely to be Thursday, October 29.

Two cabinet changes were indicated by Premier King. Hon. J. A. Robb, minister of immigration and acting minister of finance becomes minister of finance, in place of Right Hon. W. S. Fielding. Hon. G. N. Gordon, deputy speaker of the House of Commons, becomes minister of immigration.

The Premier announced also that Sir Henry Thornton's contract had been renewed for a further period.

In announcing dissolution the Premier said: "After four years of government without a visible majority in the House, with a Senate that's practically hostile and an opposition continually thwarting important measures for no reason other than that the Government does not take up one extreme position or another or go in opposite direction at one and the same time, I have come to the conclusion that it is not in the national interest to further postpone the day when pressing questions can be dealt with in a reasonably satisfactory manner."

Premier King announced that the Governor General signed the order dissolving Parliament at 3 o'clock this afternoon. He also stated that they must make an effort to find a middle path between the extremes on the tariff. To this end the Government was appointing an advisory board on tariff on which women would be given representation.

More Entries Than Ever Before for Fair which Opens Tuesday Next

Entries for the annual Exhibition which will open on Tuesday next are far in excess of any previous years announced. McD. Hunter, managing director of the Fair Board, this morning took a few minutes time from the manifold duties now piled up before him to discuss prospects for the week with a representative of the Daily News. So rapidly have the entries been coming in during the past few days that it has not yet been possible to tabulate them all, and reach any definite figure as to the total number.

Local entries closed last night.

Secretary Frank Dibb and other members of the directorate are actively engaged with many other duties, including the preparation of the building for the President Ben Self, Honorary

Alaska Business of Canadian National Railways Proved to be Great Success This Year

JASPER, Sept. 5.—Reports presented at a meeting of Canadian National Railways passenger traffic officials in conference here showed that passenger travel this year on both rail and steamship services has surpassed all previous records. Despite the increased accommodation provided this year at Jasper Park Lodge, the quarters have been filled to capacity throughout the summer. In view of the increasing popularity of the lodge it is probable that extensions will be made to care for the larger traffic which is certain to develop next season.

This summer the Canadian National entered the Alaska trade and this venture proved a great success. The development of the triangle tour, taking in Vancouver, Jasper Park and Prince Rupert, has brought more tourists into the northern Canadian Rockies this year than ever before.

The officials here, who are from all parts of Western Canada and from Chicago westward in the United States, are enthusiastic over prospects for 1926, plans for which are under discussion today. Greater efforts than ever before will be made to place Canada before intending tourists and to develop also traffic east and west within the Do-

Confidence in Fred Stork is Expressed at Liberal Meeting; Convention Delegates Chosen

A vote of confidence in the sitting member of the federal house, Fred Stork, was unanimously and enthusiastically passed at a largely attended meeting of the Liberal Association in the Metropole Hall last night. The meeting was called for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the Liberal nominating convention which will be held next Friday night. There were several brief speeches by prominent members of the Association and the greatest of optimism in connection with the forthcoming election campaign was expressed. James McNulty, president of the association, was in the chair.

The delegates chosen to attend the convention were as follows: J. McNulty, J. Neville, Bert Greer, Col. S. P. McMordie, H. F. Glassey, J. A. Lindsay, L. W. Patmore, Ben Self, Dr. W. T. Kergin, John Dybhavn, David Thomson, Harvey Fraser, S. E. Parker, Duncan Kennedy, Gillis Royer, Jack Bradbury, Jack MacIntosh, G. W. Johnstone, Athol Fraser, John Currie, Robert Gordon and Fred Lanza. The following were chosen as alternates: W. F. Cameron, J. G. Steen, Thos. McClymont, Thos. Trotter and James Bacon.

Secretary Bert Glassey, in the course of the meeting, announced that in addition to the local delegates there would be large attendance of delegates from outside points in Skeena riding, which includes practically all of Altn. Skeena and Prince Rupert provincial ridings as well as parts of Omineca and Mackenzie constituencies.

Delegates Uninstructed

After the delegates had been named, J. G. Steen and James Neville submitted a resolution that the delegates be instructed to support the candidature of Fred Stork at the convention. A good deal of discussion for and against instructing the delegates followed. L. W. Patmore felt that the delegates should be sent free and untrammelled to act as they saw fit. While he personally would be in support of Mr. Stork as the logical candidate and he felt there was no doubt he would be nominated, he thought there should be "a fair field and no favorites" so that any other persons who might desire to be candidates might have the chance. He was much opposed to the principle of making "rubber stamps" of the delegates. G. W. Johnstone took a similar view to that of Mr. Patmore. Harvey Fraser and Geo. Kane were in favor of instructing the delegates, and Ben Self felt that they should at least have the voice of the association which they represented. Finally, Ald. W. M. Brown suggested that the resolution calling for the instruction of the delegates be withdrawn and that a vote of confidence in Fred Stork take its place. The movers of the original resolution agreed to this, and the vote of confidence, moved by Ald. Brown and seconded by George Kane, passed with a good deal of enthusiasm.

Seemed Like Blight

Thomas McClymont, in addressing the meeting, said that it was a little early as yet to comment on the issues of the day. He felt, however, that it would be fatal to the interests of Prince Rupert if there was a change in the government or of the local member particularly as the port now seemed to be entering into a period of prosperity, with the worst times behind. History had a way of repeating itself, and if there was a change of government it might again be harmful to Prince Rupert. Before 1911, when the (continued on page four)

ETHEL COOMBS IS IN TROUBLE

Charged with Theft of $70 and Jewelry from Person of J. S. Hill

While in jail this morning awaiting trial on a charge of intoxication, Ethel Coombs was re-arrested by Chief W. H. Vickers on the more serious charge of theft from the person. She was later granted $500 bail by Magistrate McClymont and her case was remanded until Tuesday.

The arrest of Mrs. Coombs followed a complaint made by J. S. Hill, who charges that, after having been in the company of accused, he woke up in the Suga rooms "cleaned," as the police report says, "of his money, around $70, his watch and chain and a diamond-set locket."

Hill declared to the police that he could remember all his doings up to the time he went to sleep.

Elections Are On And Now For The Fray.

The elections are on and it will be the duty of the people of Canada calmly and dispassionately to choose the very best men, actuated by the highest principles and pledged to the very best policy to represent them.

Independence is a good thing often but in a representative at Ottawa what is needed is a man who will obey the behests of the party that elects him.

Western Party Would Be Great Mistake.

There is talk of a movement to form a western party composed of Liberals and Progressives. This party would unite in trying to secure for the west those things which they want, such as lower tariffs.

Any movement which sets east against west would be harmful to the west. The west lacks population and can be voted down at any time if the East unites against them.

What we want is to unite parties or groups on matters of general policy and not group them according to location. Quebec has voted strongly Liberal for a number of years but it was not always so and it will not be always so.

Location is a small matter. We all have our local needs and we all feel at times as if we are neglected. That is true of every place because there must be times when we think we ought to get things we do not receive.

Schools Open Tuesday Next.

The public schools open on Tuesday next and most parents are making arrangements for their children to be there at the opening so that no time may be lost.

Last year the loggers of Gardner Canal opened a school for a few children and paid a teacher. Most of the young folks had to go by boat but they did not miss although the weather was often bad.

Parsee Member Of British Commons.

The Victoria Colonist says Shapurji Saklatvala is a member of the British House of Commons. The member who bears this curiously un-British name represents Battersea, a district which is in the habit of selecting representatives whose ideas of government are progressive to the verge of revolution.

The Red incendiary has declared in a public speech that he is "out for a revolution," and has warned the authorities to be prepared for cold steel, for they will have to face it.

TERRACE TEACHERS RETURN TO SCHOOL

Building Adjoining to Be Renovated for Night School Classroom

TERRACE, Sept. 5.—Mr. Griffin, public school principal, and Mrs. Griffin are expected home this week end after having spent their holidays in the southern part of the province.

Miss Grace Andrews, Miss Mayme Dobb are each returning to their respective rooms in the public school, while Miss Mallett will have charge of the room Miss Glover had last year.

The building at the school known as the "Teacherage", and which has been the home of the school principal for some years, is being renovated and converted into a classroom to be used for high school work during the coming year.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THE Starbeam man says that women have a lot to put up with but they don't have to bother about keeping their trousers creased.

SOME of those young men must be rolling stones else they would gather more moss on their lips.

THE skipper always haws out members of the crew who displease him. I suppose I'm the crew and my wife's the skipper.

A contemporary insinuates that a Scot would see a joke quickly enough if he was sure it was not at his own expense.

ONE beauty of the local boys' band is that the lads do not learn to blow their own trumpets.

The Dodo Skull

I'm only the skull of a dodo— A bird about which poets write— I was found in the depths of the ocean— Where everything's dark as the night.

I once was a living creation And held the brain works of a bird; But now I'm a skull, dead, whitened and dull, And many folks think I'm absurd.

I was raked from the depths by Ted Shrubbsall, When fishing the halibut banks. My bill it is long and no item is wrong, So forgive me my odd little pranks.

WHY take a vacation when there are such funny things to see walking around the streets? Frinstance, I saw a man yesterday and he sure made me laugh. He looked just like one of Scoop's monkeys.

IT'S about six months now since despatches from Paris have been stalling that bobbed hair is passing away, and yet I do not notice any of the local girls deserting the barbers.

PERHAPS you may have heard of the single man who doubles up with laughter when he remembers that he is not married.

CURIOUS BIRDLIKE SKULL IS CAUSE OF MUCH SPECULATION

Thought to Be Too Large for a Bird, But Much Like One

The skull which has caused so much speculation on the waterfront and which has been presented by Ted Shrubbsall to the Museum, and which has been humorously referred to as that of the extinct dodo, was picked up by H. & R. six miles off shore near Tow Hill, just where the tides of Beale Strait and Dixon Entrance meet.

A Massett Indian who saw it is the head of a species of seal that used to be seen in those waters but which is now extinct. Others say they could not imagine a seal with a head like the one in question.

Four years ago a similar skull was picked up by some fishermen, but what became of it is not known. The head looks much like that of a bird, but the bill, while shaped much like a bird's bill, is of bony structure, much thicker and heavier than the ordinary bird's bill.

Capt. Cliff, master of the C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary, is accompanied this trip by his mother, Mrs. Cliff, a well-known pioneer of the Comox Valley, Vancouver Island; his wife and sister, Mrs. Mackenzie. They are making the round trip.

Capt. J. Leslie Sharpe of the Salvation Army immigration department arrived in the city from Winnipeg on last night's train and is registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel. He is making a tour of the district in the interests of his department.

George Ringstad, manager of the Port Edward cannery, and Mrs. Ringstad and family are returning south this afternoon on the Princess Mary to spend the winter at their home in Bellingham. The Port Edward cannery is now closed for the season.

The Los Angeles party consisting of H. C. Pressey, Edwin Pressey, Dr. S. J. Deavitt and Sherwood Deavitt returned to the city on the launch Ethelda last night after a successful hunting expedition to Gardner Canal. They left on this morning's train for Jasper Park.

Local friends have recently heard from the W. T. Muse family, who moved this spring to the United States and are now located at Mountain City, Tennessee. The health of Mr. Muse, who met with severe injuries in a logging accident last winter, is gradually improving, but the variability of the weather in Tennessee proves somewhat of a handicap to his recovery.

John Tartanville and A. Esslin, who will do twelve and six months respectively at Okalla for assaulting City Police Constable Bailey, and Alex Gallagher, awaiting jury trial on a charge of having brought a stolen boat from Alaska to Canada, will be taken south this evening on the steamer Prince George by Acting Inspector W. Spiller of the provincial police.

The C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Arthur Slater, returned to port at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Alaska and will resume her voyage south, sailing from here at 4:30. The Princess Louise brought down from Alaska an overflow of 85 passengers, who will be transferred to the Princess Mary sailing for the south at 3:30. The Mary arrived from the south at 7:30 this morning, left at 11 o'clock for Port Edward and will return from there at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

FOOTBALL GAME ENDED IN DRAW

Callies and Se'lect Team Scored Three Each in Successful Benefit for Injured Player

One of the largest crowds of the season attended the football game staged at the Acropolis Hill grounds last night for the benefit of E. Bye, Cold Storage player, who is incapacitated as a result of injuries sustained while playing during the season. The contenders were the Callies and a picked team from the line-ups of the Sons of England and the Cold Storage. The final score, after a good clean game which was contested with vigor, was three all. The proceeds, it is expected, will realize in the neighborhood of $200. This amount will go to Mr. Bye to meet expenses apart from hospital and doctor's fees, which are paid by the association from the Stuart Benefit Shield Fund.

The Callies opened the scoring on the upgrade in the first half through Dave Scott, and Wiper equalized for the se'lect team. This was all the scoring in the first half. W. Mitchell got the second for the Callies and A. Mitchell, the third. From this on the Callies had the best of things and it was carelessness on their part which allowed the se'lect team the two goals that tied the score. Wiper got the first of these and J. Johnson, the second. There was no scoring during the last twenty minutes of the game.

G. Krause was referee and A. Clapperton and H. Worsfold acted as linesmen. The line-ups were as follows:

Callies—E. McLean; M. Andrews and W. E. Willisroff; J. Harris, S. Currie and R. Woodie; A. Mitchell, R. McDougall, D. Scott, W. Mitchell and W. Hamilton.

Sons of England and Cold Storage—A. Murray; G. Howe and D. Jack; H. Hanson, A. Bales and A. Dickens; F. Russell, S. Erskine, C. Wiper, J. Johnson and C. Norrington.

Sport Chat

Next week in connection with the Fair there will be a gala of sport for local fans. The program now arranged has never before been exceeded not only as far as the distance covered in order to get teams here is concerned but also from the point of view of competition that may be expected. The sports committee of the Fair Board has gone into the matter carefully with a view to putting up a bill of keenly contested matches and, as far as advance indications go, it appears as if they have been successful. First big event of the week will be the baseball games between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan, these to be followed up with the matches with Anyox. The football games between Prince Rupert and Ocean Falls also give promise of being very interesting affairs.

The week will open in good style with the Trades & Labor Council's celebration on Monday-Labor Day. The program for the day have been in circulation for the past few days and indicates a good bill-of-fare. Besides the women's and children's races, there will be the field sports for men that are being featured this year. In these there promises to be some rather keen competition between local contestants. The Labor Council has also been successful in getting together a collection of valu-

CONFIDENCE IN FRED STORK IS EXPRESSED AT LIBERAL MEETING—CONVENTION DELEGATES CHOSEN.

Conservatives came into power, Prince Rupert had enjoyed its greatest prosperity. With the change in 1911 it seemed as if a blight had fallen on the place and this continued until 1914, and even after the war. Prince Rupert had not gone ahead again until after the Liberals were returned to power in 1921. What had happened in the past would probably happen again in the future. The point, as he took it, was that there should be no change. Nationally he felt Canada had nothing to fear when, with a population of ten million people, it was fourth among the nations in exports.

Future Bright

Altho Fraser, who was the first president of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association and who has taken part in many political battles in this district, said that the future looked bright to him. Prince Rupert undoubtedly enjoyed greater prosperity when the Liberals were in power, and a change, he felt, would only be to the benefit of Vancouver as against this port.

Col. McMorde referred to the work that had been done for his district by Fred Stork, the present member. Besides obtaining grants where necessary for work in his riding, he had been responsible for two outstanding things that had greatly benefited Prince Rupert. The first was the appointment of F. O. Dawson to the board of the Canadian National Railways and the second, the elevator. The latter, through the business it would develop, meant everything to Prince Rupert. It was something that people here had dreamed about but which they had been very doubtful of securing in the near future. These two matters should be enough to decide every voter in Prince Rupert to again extend to Fred Stork the support of which he was deserving.

BASKETBALL GAME PLAYED

Prince Rupert Defeated New Metlakatla by Score of 34 to 28 Last Evening

Though both teams were out of practice, as might be expected at this time of the year, a good game of basketball was put up last night between Prince Rupert and New Metlakatla, the locals winning by 34 to 28. The game was energetically contested and quite interesting.

Prince Rupert started the game with a team consisting of A. Mitchell and D. Frizzell and W. Lambie, H. Menzies and Art Phillips. Ten minutes after the start another team comprising V. Menzies and Eddie Smith and Dave Balfour, Chet Schlenker and W. Mitchell was put in. At half time the score was 20 to 10 in favor of Prince Rupert. There was another switch in the complexion of the local line-up for the second half when the team consisted of V. Menzies and D. Frizzell and A. Mitchell, Chet Schlenker and Art Phillips.

The Metlakatla team throughout consisted of Buckert and Brendible; Dundas, Lang and Sanderson. Brendible was the heavy scorer for the visitors.

The game was refereed by Eddie Mann.

Following the match, the New Metlakatla orchestra furnished music for another delightful dance, which was in progress until midnight.

W. H. Berry presided at the door for the evening.

Ben Johnson and J. H. Meagher, charged with intoxication, were each assessed $25 in the city police court this morning.

Going Up! Airplane flights commence Monday from Prince Rupert Boathouse. $10.00 a flight; three persons for $25.00.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

Picking Up

As is usual at this time of year, waterfront business is picking up well after the lull, occasioned by the fact that all boats put in strenuous days during the summer months on the deep seas gathering in the halibut, salmon, and engaging in fish packing for the many canneries. With the salmon season on the wane a number of the smaller boats are putting into port for overhaul work in addition to schooners of the local halibut fleet which undergo annual overhaul at this time. This work is giving a decided impetus to business at waterfront shipyards and machine shops.

A Proud Bunch

The halibut chasers are very proud of the fact, and rightly so, that the landings of halibut during the month of August created a record for this port, exceeding by 218,900 pounds the previous high record month of August last year. During August 4,060,900 pounds was marketed on the Fish Exchange as against 3,842,000 pounds in August last year.

The month of September got off to a good start with the arrival on Tuesday of 180,000 pounds of halibut and prices have been well maintained. On Wednesday, with a light arrival of 49,000 pounds, the Canadians received better prices than did the Americans.

Arrivals

From Monday to yesterday noon the following boats have marketed catches this week: American—Foremost, Paragon, Seymour, Onah, Yellowstone, Anna J., Eastern Point, Baltic, Rainier, Sirius, Sherman, J. P. Todd, Wabash, Mildred H., Scandia, Reliance, Rambler, Inger, Chelsea, Glacier, Vesta, Arctic, Resolute, Bravo and Sentinel, Canadian—Johanna, Yule, Muirneag, Ringleader, Koyonsu, Bingo, Caygeon, Maud, Margalice, Pair of Jacks, Cape Spear, M. M. Christopher, Tramp, H. & R., Brandt and Nuba.

Great Crabbers

Two of the greatest local crabbers stirred things up in the vicinity of the Yacht Club early on Thursday morning, at an hour when most people were soundly asleep. The crabbers were none other than J. H. Pillsbury and Ralph Harrup, who rowed out to the crabbing wilds across the harbor in a twelve-foot boat. Their early morning labors were amply rewarded and crab meat for breakfast is now the latest thing on up-to-date menu cards.

Having come off the McLean ways after a general overhaul, the power cruiser Sunbeam III, skippered by her owner, Dr. W. T. Kergin, was up to Stewart over the week end, returning to port on Wednesday night.

The Dreadnaught, owned by Chris. Elkins, has been out of the water this week at the Yacht Club for a general going over. The decorative scheme has not yet been decided upon, but bearing in mind Chris' artistic taste it will doubtless be a humdinger.

Poor Old Alf

We always knew that Alf Plant, the man who invented holes in the doughnuts, was a well "bread" young man, in fact is almost province-wide famous for the way he handles the dough, but even such illustrious characters as bakers meet with misfortune at some stage of the game. Alfred, who is an ardent fisherman, went for a fishing trip recently to Shawatlans lake accompanied by Charlie Philister, an even more ardent fisherman than Alfred. The means of transportation was a rowboat, and all went well for a while at the lake. However, the fly bites far exceeded the bites on the hook and Charlie began to get anxious for the result of the day's sport.

Just as things were looking their blackest, Alfred, in an endeavor to seek a better location for the bait, slipped and fell into the water with a mighty splash. Did Charlie get excited or throw the aquatic performer a line? He did not! Charlie quietly suggested to Alfred that while he was in the water he might locate a few fish and hook them on his line. And that is why the fishermen returned home with such an excellent catch of trout.

Coastal cruiser Bonanza is on the Ward ways undergoing an overhaul preparatory to engaging in an extended holiday trip to Welcome Harbor on Monday, having aboard Mrs. Hubert Ward, Harry Ward, H. Perry and Miss Agnes McQuillan.

Capt. Don Yell, skipper of the Reveille, who is engaged in fish packing for the Atlin Fisheries from North Island, O.C.I., arrived in port this week. Don states that the cohoes are not running very well in that district, but that there are still a few springs coming in. While in port the Reveille will go on the dry dock for overhauling.

The Tow Bill cannery, situated on the Queen Charlotte Islands and operated by Capt. H. B. Babington has finished its coho canning operations and is now engaged in clam canning, which work will be continued throughout the winter. Some twenty-five people will be employed during the winter months.

Halibut schooner R.W. is on the McLean ways for overhauling and repainting.

The fish packer Plop, Capt. Clawson, arrived from the Wark Canal district on Thursday morning.

Schooner Lysekil, Capt. Pete Jensen, is now packing fish for the Somerville cannery.

Capt. Philip Rowe, skipper and owner of the power boat Spey I, is installing a 5 h.p. Yale engine in his boat.

Tugboat M.T.-3, Capt. R. Green, flagship of the Bushby towing fleet, arrived from Georgetown on Monday, having in tow lumber for the local fish dock and two carloads of lumber for shipment east via the Canadian National Railway. The tug left port on Thursday morning to bring down a scowload of lumber for the Big Bay Co.'s yards and for the Cold Storage.

What Is It?

The members of the Fish Exchange were trembling with excitement on Thursday morning, caused by Ted Shrubshaw, first mate on the halibut schooner H. & R., producing the skeleton head of some unknown marine monster picked up off Tow Hill recently. It certainly is a peculiar looking business and many guesses were made as to its origin. One said it was a shark's head, someone suggested it was an eagle's head, while one wit said it looked like a piece of an accident looking for somewhere to happen, but not one of the guesses solved the riddle satisfactorily.

Ted is determined to find out what it is, and intends to apply for government aid on the matter if necessary.

All calendars on the waterfront are to be abolished, according to the latest orders issued by the mosquito fleet admiralty court. To tell the day of the week without a calendar has become so common in nauical circles it is considered the wall decorators are useless. John Davey has been the cause of the latest order by wearing a different suit on particular days of the week. A nifty blue serge suit always adorns his majestic person on Thursdays, but to tell the colors of the others would take up too much space.

Schooner Caygeon, Capt. Oscar Yong, has just had the clutch overhauled and is all ready for sea again, having recently completed hull repairs on the dry dock. The Caygeon was recently damaged in a collision in Metlakatla passage.

The new Haymoller halibut schooner, having been completed at the McLean yards, was launched on Wednesday's high tide.

George Murray, who has been catering to the needs of the inner man on the power boat Hope, tender for the Beaver cannery during the summer months, has returned to the city. George states that operations at Rivers Inlet have ceased for the season.

The fishing schooner Wizard while in port this week had pump repairs executed at the Akerberg-Thomson shops.

Trips to Moon

Those persons desiring to take a trip to the moon to see what the man in it looks like, will get all the opportunity next week commencing on Monday, Labor Day. Col. Williams and Jack Goldwell, of tropical valley flying fame, will have their Vickers-Viking airplane all in readiness for the public on that day. In company with Dave Thomson, these intrepid airmen made arrangements on Thursday morning with Capt. Swanson to fly from the Prince Rupert Boathouse. Owing to the large spread of the wings, which is 25 feet, it has been found impossible to moor the plane close to the wharf. It will consequently be moored out in the harbor to a floating wharf and passengers will be rowed from the boat-house to the wharf, from which they will board the plane.

Gordon Robertson of Aiyansh, who has been fishing at Bute-dale for the past few months, called into port this week to have a new exhaust put into his boat.

Joseph Martin, general merchant of Massett, sent over a boat engine this week to be overhauled at the Akerberg-Thomson shops.

The tender Glenwell, owned by the B.A. Cannery at Port Essington, had the tail shaft built and trued up while in port this week.

Halibut schooner Johanna, Capt. John Wicks, was forced to put back to port this week when his gears stripped on the way out to the high spots. The gears were renewed at the Akerberg-Thomson shops and Cap is on his way.

The schooners E. Lipsett, N. & S., Wabash and the work boat Kayax have been on the Ward ways this week for repainting and overhauling.

LOBSTER PACK

ALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 2.—The aggregate lobster pack for the Maritime Provinces this year is expected to be about 140,000 cases, a normal pack, and larger than last year. Shipments will be made to Great Britain, Sweden, France, the United States and domestic markets.
