EXPERTS URGE THAT P.G.E. BE EXTENDED

SUM OF $93,000 STOLEN BY BANDITS IN BUFFALO WHEN DRIVER KILLED

Mining Institute Recommends P.G.E. Be Extended to Prince George but Other Work Dropped

Would postpone North Vancouver to Squamish; cutoff to Ashcroft and extension to Peace River for present

VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—Extension of the Pacific Great Eastern to Prince George and the formulation of a definite policy to eliminate the "demoralizing" uncertainty in regard to the government line are outstanding recommendations in a report made by a group of experts at the instance of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy which the B.C. division has submitted to Hon. Dr. Sutherland, minister of railways.

Other recommendations include a suggestion that the building of the line from North Vancouver to Squamish be indefinitely postponed and the proposal to construct a cut-off from Clinton to Ashcroft be dropped. Another suggestion is that the proposed Hat Creek spur line be not built until the coal measures there are developed and proved. The extension of the line to the Peace River country it is proposed should be left for the future.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—The minister of justice refused an appeal asking for a reprieve for Harry Sowash, under sentence of hanging November 4, for participation in the Beryl G. murders, but said the appeal should be made by a British Columbia judge, according to word received here today. Such an application will be made at Victoria next week, it is expected.

VOTE TO NOON TOTALLED 606

Feature of Polling This Morning Was Large Number of Women Who Recorded Preferences

The inclement weather prevailing today may perhaps be held accountable for the fact that up to 12:30 noon only 606 votes had been cast here in the federal election as compared with 745 votes at a similar hour of the day in the 1921 election. Efforts are being made, however, by the various committees to get the voters to the polls and it is possible that, by six o'clock this evening, when the balloting will be closed, the total number of voters may compare favorably with the total at the 1921 election which was 2,160. There are 2,874 qualified voters in the city this election.

A feature of the polling this morning was the large number of ladies who appeared to record their preferences. Returning Officer E. H. Morlimer estimated that up to 12:30 at least 250 women had voted.

JOE MARTIN RECAPTURED

Provincial Police at Powell River Rearrest Prisoner Who Escaped Last Saturday Night

Word was received by the provincial police here this afternoon that Joe Martin, who escaped from the custody of Constable Smith of Anyox on the steamer Prince Rupert last Saturday night, had been recaptured by the provincial police at Powell River. He will be taken on to the penitentiary to serve the four years for theft to which he was sentenced here by Judge Young. It is possible that an additional charge of escaping from lawful custody may be preferred against him in the south.

MORE RELIGION AND LESS LAWLESSNESS NEED OF THE STATES

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 29.—President Coolidge told the annual council of Congregational churches that more law observance and more religion are needed in this country.

"Lawlessness is too prevalent and lack of respect for government convention by enlightened society too apparent," said the President. "If there are any general failures in the enforcement of the law it is because there have been general failures in the disposition to observe the law. I can conceive of no adequate remedy for the evils which beset society except through the influence of religion."

CONSERVATIVE CAVALCADE ON WAY TO OTTAWA

If Meighen does not make it today he might as well bury himself at Portage La Prairie and give place to another leader

Huge Vote is Expected to be Polled Today in All Parts of Dominion

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—All reports this morning indicate that there will be a heavy poll today, the possibility being that four million people will exercise the franchise throughout Canada.

Both Premier Mackenzie King and Hon. Arthur Meighen will receive the returns at Ottawa.

The Premier wound up his campaign last night, devoting much of his time to statements by Meighen on the British preference. The Premier spoke yesterday at Schomberg, Aurora, Newmarket, and Holland Landing, concluding shortly before midnight in a final speech delivered at Ottawa.

Mr. Meighen expressed confidence in the result of the balloting, declaring that after four years Canadians should put an end to "tariff bargaining and tariff log rolling."

VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—Generally weather conditions throughout the province are favorable for the large vote today although a light snow in the interior has caused difficult road conditions which may interfere somewhat. Much early interest is shown at city polls.

R. L. Mailland, who has been campaigning in the district in the Conservative cause, will return to Vancouver on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning. Mr. Mailland, who is a past president of the Vancouver Gyro Club, was a guest at the Rotary Club luncheon here this afternoon.

Bank Bandits Get Away With Large Sums When They Killed Car Driver and Wounded Two

BUFFALO, Oct. 29.—Bandits today killed Charles Clifford, driver for the Bank of Buffalo automobile and wounded two other bank men, one seriously. The bandits secured $93,000 but overlooked another sum of $24,000 which was carried in the car.

The money was being transferred from another bank in the downtown section.

ALL PARTIES SURE OF WIN

Results of Voting in Federal Election Today Will be Known This Evening

With the committee rooms of all three candidates claiming that today's voting in the federal election contest will show substantial majorities in their favor, the backers of Stork, Busby and Nickerson are still displaying the stiff upper lip as they have consistently done since the campaign opened. It is a case of "never say die till you're dead" with all three. There is one thing certain, however, that the calculations of two organizations are going to be badly disproven tonight after the ballots are counted and, if the race proves close, the whole three of them will be disappointed for extravagant estimates of majorities are being made. One factor that lends support to the predictions of a Liberal victory is the fact that, in betting circles, Stork is still a big favorite. Despite that fact, it is understood that some large wagers have been laid with odds in favor of the Liberals.

All three candidates, wearied after nearly a month of stiff and constant campaigning but cheerful and confident, presented themselves early this morning at their respective committee rooms making frequent calls during the day at the polling stations to observe how things were going.

With the polls closing at 6 o'clock this evening, by seven o'clock the result in Prince Rupert will probably be known. By that time returns from outside points in this district will also be coming in and, unless the vote proves very close, the result in Skeena should be pretty well ascertained by nine or ten o'clock. A pretty fair indication of how things have gone in Canada as a whole will also probably be known this evening. Various bulletin services have been engaged and ample arrangements have been made to keep the public posted on the returns.

PAINLEVE IS FRENCH LEADER

Becomes Premier and Succeeds in Forming Cabinet Satisfactory to all

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Paul Painleve is again Prime Minister of France. He was called upon, following the resignation of Briand, and has succeeded in forming a cabinet which seems satisfactory to everyone and will be presented to President Doumergue. In it Painleve takes the portfolio of minister of finance and Briand remains at the post of foreign minister which he held along with that of Premier.

M. Painleve is 62 years of age. He was Prime Minister before from September 11 to November 13, 1917. He was minister of instruction in a former Briand administration, being a professor of science and a member of the academy of sciences.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Fourteen barrels of liquor, the entire private stock which has been guarded since pre-prohibition days, was stolen by hi-jackers from Jesse L. Lasky, vice-president of the Famous Players Lasky Corporation. The liquor is valued at $10,000 pre-war prices.

FOSSILIZED MAN IS FOUND IN LONDON

Deep Excavation in Leadenhall Street Results in Discovery Which Interests Archaeologists

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Part of a fossilized human skull discovered in a deep excavation in Leadenhall Street, London, may in the opinion of archaeologists, rank in importance with the Neanderthal and Pitdown cranial shells.

It was found at a depth of 26 feet, and, according to Professor Elliott Smith, probably belonged to a woman of about fifty years of age. The right side of the brain cavity, which is very small, is much less developed than the left side, indicating that the woman was left handed. It is much nearer the Neanderthal skull than that of the present day human being, and Prof. Smith says that if it is not of the Neanderthal period, it certainly of a much more primitive type than the Palaeolithic.

Another anthropologist says the skull, which is much flattened, seems to show that this ancient Londoner lived in the upper Palaeolithic period.

Elections Over So What Is Next?

The elections are practically over and there is nothing left to do but cheer the victor. Who the victor will be, no one can tell, although we all have our guesses to make. Before midnight tonight we should be pretty well able to gauge the outlook.

The general conduct of the election has been most satisfactory and the result will be that everyone will be in a position to carry on in a neighborly and friendly manner. There should be no hard feelings over the result, no matter who wins.

What we now have to consider is the future. What is there of interest ahead of us? Some will say let us get back to business. Others prefer to think of Christmas preparations. It seems necessary these days that we should have some interest outside our regular work. Possibly a rest and a devotion of our time and attention to work for a short season may be beneficial.

Dividing Interests Then Re-uniting.

During an election the community becomes divided. Those on the same side of the political fence tend to draw together and others to draw away. When an election is bitter it is difficult to return to normal but when the election is looked upon somewhat in the light of a sport event and everybody keeps his temper and behaves like a gentleman, the election leaves no scars. We are able to go on as before.

That is the case here today. We have all enjoyed the fight. We have given and taken and the losers will lose like men.

Don't Be Licked Before You Start.

Without any reference to the parliamentary contest now going on, it is interesting to note the views of Sir Henry Thornton on success. He says that many people are licked before they go into the fight. They think defeat instead of thinking victory.

Whatever we may think of Sir Henry's treatment of Prince Rupert, we must all acknowledge that he is a big man and has held many big jobs. The very fact that he was centre forward on his college football team stamps him as a man of somewhat outstanding ability. He has had much experience, having fought his way up from the bottom and his suggestion is that defeat is largely mental.

We all know something of the influence of mind over matter. We are aware that as a man thinks, so he is. Courage is a great factor in life and the mental attitude affects everything we do. If we cultivate a spirit of optimism, adopt the courageous attitude, cultivate cordiality, geniality and success, we shall get much more out of life.

LIBERALS HELD BIG MEETING

Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Fred Stork Give Addresses and Nickerson also Speaks

ELEVATOR IS MENTIONED

"Many of the people of Prince Rupert do not yet believe that the elevator is there," declared Hon. T. D. Pattullo amid much merriment at the big meeting in the Westholme Theatre last night. "Others do not believe grain will go through it. The erection of the elevator has made this a world port rather than a coast port. The development is the most important thing that could have happened to Prince Rupert and with it is bound up the freight rates question, for without equal freight rates the elevator will be of no value. Equality of the west with the East is what we want, nothing more."

Mr. Pattullo and Fred Stork were the chief speakers at the meeting but twenty minutes was also allowed to G. W. Nickerson and was taken full advantage of by him.

Alderman Casey presided and introduced the speakers. Mr. Nickerson did not make any new points but reiterated and emphasized some of the things said before.

Fred Stork

Fred Stork spoke of the policy of misrepresentation which had been carried on. He told of what had happened to the railway during the ten years from the time the Liberals relinquished control until they again took charge and prophesied that if the Conservatives were again returned there would be a reversion to the old policy. He spoke at some length on trade matters and took pride in the recovery of the value of the Canadian dollar until it was now above par. This had been made possible through increase in Canadian exports.

Mr. Stork said he still believed in the Laurier policy and the elevator was the first fruits of this. Prince Rupert today had the elevator and the same terminal rates as Vancouver, and he prophesied that great results would follow. While at Ottawa he had given the best that was in him.

Here Since Early Days

Mr. Pattullo took exception to being spoken of as a stranger. He and Alex Manson had been here before the city was started and had worked ever since in the interests of the place. He spoke of the need of unity in Canada and a spirit of toleration among all the people in a country with such diversified interests.

Hon. Arthur Meighen was opposed to the British preference which had been granted by the Liberals. Had the Liberals opposed such a measure they would have been hounded as rebels.

The speaker went on to discuss the trade treaties which he claimed were a great benefit to Canada. He claimed that the United States was great in spite of the tariff and not because of it. At least on either east or production. The sets are truly lavish, notably those showing the Elm Tree Inn and the lawn fete of a multi-millionaire. The photography also stirs one to high praise.

In the cast Miss Moore has Lloyd Hughes as her leading man while the chief comedy role is in the hands of Leon Errol, who created the same part in Ziegfeld's stage version. Errol is at his funniest on the screen.

TERRACE NOTES

E. J. Conway of the Granby Co., Anyox, returned home on Monday after a short business trip to Terrace.

A. Y. Wilson, Remo, who accompanied a number of timber cruisers to Kalam Lake on Sunday, returned home on Tuesday.

Dr. H. R. Grant, Prince Rupert, spent a short holiday in Terrace this week, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gilbert. He returned to Prince Rupert on Wednesday.

Jas. Turnbull, Hazelton, arrived in town on Tuesday.

Chris Haugland who has spent two months at his farm at Yorkton, Sask. returned home on Sunday. He reports crops in that district as very good but bad weather conditions were seriously holding up threshing operations. En route home he stopped off at Hazelton to visit his brother Emil who has been in the hospital there for several months and who is very slowly recovering from his serious accident in the woods here.

THE MAN IN THE MOON
says:

SHE was a flapper gay
And dresses short she wore
And if you crossed her wishes she
Just up and at you swore.

TODAY people are voting and I should like to know just how many know what they are voting about.

SHE, lightly asked a ballot blank
And made her cross so neat.
She voted for the man who
Combed
His hair so sleek and neat.

A LOT of people who vote today will lose their votes and a lot of those who think they have won may find they have really lost.

AMONG the things that are fleeting are the permanent wave, the honeymoon and popularity.

JAKE says that's all rot. The only thing that's really fleeting is the pay check.

THESE are the days when a sock on each foot is worth any number on the jaw.

DOWN in Nova Scotia they are having a real election celebration. Fifty barrels of rum was washed ashore there the other day.

AFTER ELECTION SALLY IS COMING

Musical Comedy Play Shown in Picture Friday and Saturday This Week

Directly following the election "Sally" the musical comedy success is to be reproduced in picture at the Westholme Friday and Saturday of this week.

Sally is a colorful and delightful story, beautifully photographed and "staged," and the direction of Alfred E. Green is worthy of the highest praise.

Colleen Moore established herself beyond question with such successes as "Flaming Youth" and "So Big," but in "Sally" she rises to even greater heights. Her role of the forlorn little drudge in the orphanage, who through sheer force of her own character rises to the fame of a great dancer, affords the star wide opportunities for the exercise of her talents. Miss Moore has long shown a decided penchant for boydenish comedy, and this she indulges in to the fullest. She also takes advantage of those moments of poignant pathos which are provided her and likewise reveals an ability to "get her teeth into" a bit of real drama when the plot tosses it her way.

First National has not stinted in the least on either cast or production. The sets are truly lavish, notably those showing the Elm Tree Inn and the lawn fete of a multi-millionaire. The photography also stirs one to high praise.

In the cast Miss Moore has Lloyd Hughes as her leading man while the chief comedy role is in the hands of Leon Errol, who created the same part in Ziegfeld's stage version. Errol is at his funniest on the screen.

The girl you leave behind you

Just stop a moment and think about the way she spends her day—that girl you leave behind you. While you are working she is at home working with her hands. Perhaps washing the same cups and saucers that she washed yesterday and will wash on many tomorrows.

Perhaps doing the week's washing. In YOUR work is variety—interest—growth; in hers only dullness—sameness—stagnation.

Talk it over with the girl you leave behind you. See how glad she will be to say farewell to wash day.

At the Rotary Club luncheon today J. W. Nicholls told the members of the club of the excellent progress being made by the Boys' Band. The members were invited to attend any rehearsals at the Presbyterian Church rooms and find out for themselves how the work was going on. The club is particularly interested in the band because it is guaranteeing the salary of the bandmaster.

Prince Rupert is getting some nice publicity in the Old Country. In addition to the advertisement in Lloyds List and Shipping Gazette inserted by the city and another by the province of British Columbia in which Prince Rupert is prominently mentioned, there is a neat writeup of the city sent by the local Board of Trade which places this city in the most prominent place in the paper. The same number carries advertisements by two local firms.

A Bit of a Wag

A doctor who posed as a bit of a wag stopped outside the yard of a stone mason one morning for a chat.

"Good morning, how's business?" said the doctor. "I suppose when you hear that someone is ill, you get ready for eventualities, though, of course, you never go beyond the words, 'In memory of?'"

Well, that all depends," replied the old chap. "You see, if you be a doctoring of the patient, I goes straight on."

MISSIONARIES LEAVE WEST CHINA POINTS

Sailing For Shanghai and From There Will Proceed to Interior

VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—Seven new missionaries of the United Church of Canada sail from this port today for Shanghai to join the West China Mission at Chengtu. They are in charge of Dr. John E. Thompson, of Sunderland, Ontario, who has spent fourteen years in Szechwan province. Their sailings were originally set for some time in August, but disturbances in the interior of China led to successive postponements.

Their departure at this time is said to be due to the insistence of one of the new men, Rev. James G. Endicott, M.A., that unless the Methodist General Board of Missions permitted an early sailing he and his wife would find some other way of entering on a missionary career in China. He was born at Kiating, West China, where his father, Rev. James Endicott, D.D., now foreign missions secretary at Toronto, was stationed as evangelist. Mrs. Endicott is the daughter of Charles Austin, Chatham, Ontario, and is a noted girls' worker.

Others in the party are Miss Joan M. I. Graham, matron, Miss E. Caldwell, teacher; Miss L. E. Taylor, matron; Miss M. R. Gould, teacher; Miss S. G. Perkins, teacher; all going out under the Methodist General Board to serve as United Church missionaries. Miss Gould is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan. Mrs. Thompson and daughter accompany Dr. Thompson, who rejoins the dental faculty of West China Union University.

CITY MANAGER DRIVE COMING

Efforts to be Made to Induce Legislature to Pass Measure This Year

VICTORIA, Oct. 29.—A definite drive will be made at the forthcoming session of the Legislature to incorporate an optional clause in legislation, permitting municipalities to introduce the city manager system.

The Associated Property Owners of Vancouver, it was stated by Norman McLean who has been visiting here, has supplied the Government draftsmen with copies of the Westmount and Cleveland regulations and, as far as possible, other places where the system is actually in operation.

This principle occupied some attention at the meeting of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities in Victoria in September when the union had various resolutions presented on the matter. A questionnaire on the subject has been circulated to the various municipal authorities to ascertain their attitude to the situation should a permissive clause be incorporated in the forthcoming legislation.

Mr. McLean, who was in the city yesterday on other matters, says that among the amendments of the Vancouver Incorporation Act which will be sought is one of great interest to all municipalities, and that is to extend the principle of voting on behalf of corporations to non-resident property owners, so that an authorized agent would be permitted to vote for a private individual who could not exercise a property qualification vote owing to absence from the city, just as a corporation may certify now for its local representative. The effect would be, Mr. McLean thinks, to place an important franchise in the hands of real estate men who may represent several estates in a municipality.

MIRACLES IN S.E. EUROPE

Almost Epidemic of Alleged Marvellous Occurrences in Various Districts

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—So many miracles are alleged to have happened in southeastern Europe of late that the miracles may almost be said to have become epidemic. People see and hear things which cause much excitement. A few weeks ago in Dubrovnik (Ragusa), Jugo-Slavia, a statue of the Madonna, in the church of the Franciscan Friars, was alleged to have moved its eyes. Thousands of pilgrims said they had seen the miracle, and the friars asked the Vatican to send out a commission to investigate.

I also reported recently the supposed miracle at Nagy-Szakaesi, in Hungary, where two young girls asserted that the Holy Virgin appeared to them in the water of a little brook. This "miracle" also drew thousands of pilgrims, and caused serious clashes with the authorities.

Another miraculous occurrence is now reported from Kolecove, Slovakia. A peasant woman, Anna Saffa, whose husband has emigrated to America, claims that she heard the voice of the Madonna; that a cloud descended, and its dewdrops crystallized into holy pictures. Pilgrims came from distant places to see the old woman, and, digging near her cottage, the visitors found a spring of fresh water near the foot of a tree.

LADIES' MUSIC CLUB MET AT JAP MISSION

Dance—(a) "Aki no yo," (b) "Yuguri," Mrs. Doi, accompanied on the samisen by Mrs. Katsuyama. Solo—"Hanare Ojima," Mrs. Yamana, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Kanaya.

Dance—"Uji Cha," Sumiye Nakamoto, accompanied on the samisen by Mrs. Nakamoto. Song—"Go Sho Guruma," Mrs. Katsuyama.

MURDERERS TELL HOW THEY DID IT

Lady Told Forum Club How They Had Committed Ghastly Deeds

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Escorted by twenty murderers, Mrs. Eleanor Mordaunt made a journey through New Guinea, and she told the Forum Club here a few of her experiences during a dinner in her honor.

She said that when travelling in New Guinea she required twenty natives, sixteen to carry her impedimenta and four to convey her through the forest. The governor allowed her to select twenty convicts, and as she would not trust her property with thieves and had a prejudice against wife-beaters she selected twenty murderers. The men, curvetting with delight in their liberty, stuck flowers in their armbands and anklets (which were their only garb), and catching the butterflies of every brilliant hue which flew beside the path tied them with fine fibres to their hair till they marched with tinted haloes around their bushy heads.

Throughout the journey the men behaved well, but Miss Mordaunt admitted that it was rather trying to her nerves when they would come into her tent at night and describe in pantomime—since they spoke no English—just how they had committed their murders. One man who had spent five nights in the attempt to kill his victim was "dying to tell her all about it." She stood the first four instalments very well, but confessed to alarm when he then suddenly disappeared. In the dim light she could not imagine where he had gone. Then there was a

SPORT CHAT

Featuring the meeting tonight in the second division billiard league of the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor and the Prince Rupert Fish Co. will be the number of new men on the line-up of the latter aggregation. With the exception of Darton, none of the five men on the team have played league billiards here before and their performances will be followed with interest by the fans. The teams will meet as follows:

Stickney (Billiard Parlor) vs. Baithie (P.R. Fish Co.)
M. Andrews vs. Krause.
Aldridge vs. Corbett.
W. Mitchell vs. Carlson.
R. Howe vs. Darton.

The greatest surprise of the pugilistic season in Montreal was furnished last week when Jack Ward, a second rate local heavyweight, forced Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight champion, to go the limit before Renault got the decision in a ten round bout at the Mount Royal Arena. Renault weighed in at 204½ pounds and Ward at 197½. Ward was not only handicapped by weight but also by lack of experience. Renault floored him in the first round but he retaliated in the second with a blow in the solar plexus which lifted the champion off his feet. In the fifth Renault floored Ward for the second time. The second round was awarded to Ward and the two fighters divided the fifth round. The other round went to Renault.

The sporting section of the last Vancouver Sunday Province carries a picture of the Callies football club of this city which went through the 1925 season without loss of a single game and won the Dominion Day Cup, Mobley Cup, Gilhuly Cup and Stuart Shield. "They won sixteen matches and drew three of the nineteen played. The best of harmony exists between the players which has had a big influence on the success of the club on and off the field," says the accompanying write-up. Those who are to be seen in the picture are James Irvine, Tom Beattie, George Abbott, E. McLean, J. Watson, S. D. MacDonald, W. E. Willisoff, James Hamilton, M. Harris, M. Andrews, George Mitchell, James Harris, Sam Currie (captain), H. Hamilton, R. Woods, James Andrews, B. Ferguson, Alex Mitchell, R. McDougall, Dave Scott, W. Mitchell and W. Hamilton.

MANY ATTEND BUSHBY RALLY

Three Speakers Addressed Meeting in Empress Theatre Last Night

George G. Bushby, Conservative candidate, George W. Nickerson, Progressive, and R. L. Maitland of Vancouver were the speakers at the final Conservative meeting of the federal election campaign which was held last evening in the Empress Theatre. An attentive hearing was given by an audience which, before the meeting ended, had taken up pretty well all the seating accommodation in the hall. The only disturbance was the ill-timed howling of a large wolfhound dog which visibly annoyed Mr. Bushby in the course of his address and which he had to ask his ushers to remove from the hall.

C. H. Orme presided and, in his opening remarks, expressed gratitude for the fact that a fair and above board campaign had been carried on by all parties concerned. It had been a pleasure for him to participate in it.

Mr. Bushby was the first speaker. After declaring that, if elected, he would not go to Ottawa with a flourish of trumpets and with his list of demands in his hand but would sit and listen and talk where necessary in the interests of his district, he dealt at some length with the government railways and ships.

He charged mismanagement in connection with both and, in speaking of coast service, pointed to the efficiency and reliability of the Union Steamship Co. which the government lines might well emulate. He urged the development of the Alaska business through Prince Rupert and greater use of the Canadian National line from Jasper to Prince Rupert. Coasting freight rates came in for criticism and Mr. Bushby said it was high time they were looked into. Referring to the remark that had been made that he was too old for the job, Mr. Bushby remarked: "I may not be as young as I used to be but I think I am still a pretty lively corpse."

ADDRESS BY REV. BAISLER

Pastor of Lutheran Church Spoke to Gyro Club Yesterday on Subject of Service

A thoughtful address on the subject of service was delivered before the Gyro Club yesterday afternoon by Rev. P. E. Baisler, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Mr. Baisler stressed the importance of measuring success in life from the standpoint of service given to one's fellowmen rather than the viewpoint of accumulation of material wealth.

Mr. Nickerson opened by thanking the Conservatives for giving him another opportunity to speak on their platform. They were not afraid of his criticisms like the Liberals were. He said he had just come from the Liberal meeting where he had only been allowed to speak five minutes although he had been promised twenty. Mr. Nickerson then proceeded to deal with local matters such as the fishermen's wharf which the board of trade had been urging, the elevator which he said Mr. Stork had had to point a gun at the head of Premier King to obtain, and the contracts which he charged were given to favorites of the government.

He spoke in favor of Old Age Pensions and, referring to the tariff, said that it was necessary for Canada to sell her war resources to the world until such time as population came when industries could be embarked upon. A tariff on lumber entering the United States, for instance, would be fatal to the business in British Columbia.

Railway Company Agrees to Lease Line for Thirty Years from Company

MONTREAL, October 29.—The following statement was issued by Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the C.N.R. from the headquarters of the system here.

"There has been more or less discussion in the press with respect to the construction of a railway from O'Brien on the National Transcontinental to Rouyn, Quebec, for the purpose of serving a large mining development which important interests propose to make. An investigation made some time ago by the experts of the C.N.R. disclosed the importance of the district and the necessity for the provision of transportation facilities for new enterprises and the development of the traffic interests of the Canadian National Railway system.

Keep Out of the Puddles

COURTLY Sir Walter Raleigh—cynic savant and first-class fighting man—desired a favor from good Queen Bess. A puddle in the queen's path made his opportunity. Across it he flung his costly cloak. Her majesty, smiling at his devotion, trod on, dry shod, and Sir Walter's unique self-advertising produced results.

Though most advertising is less spectacular to-day, it is far more serviceable. It smooths out the every-day pathways of each one of us.

Because of advertising, luxuries and necessities that once would have been worth a king's ransom are yours at little cost. Advertising pits merchant against merchant, artisan against artisan, manufacturer against manufacturer. This competition brings out the best there is in everything for your personal benefit.

You wouldn't know about many boons of modern life were it not for advertising. That is why you are not taking full advantage of the better things in life to-day if you overlook ADVERTISEMENTS.

TREAT COLORED RACES AS EQUAL

Prominent Speakers at Church Congress in England Urge Changed Attitude

LONDON, Oct. 20. — At the meeting of the Church Congress at Eastbourne Lord Willingdon and other speakers urged the necessity of treating all colored races with perfect equality, with especial reference to the treatment of the people of India. The subject was "Race Problems," and the president introduced it with the blunt reminder that Jesus Christ was an Asiatic, and that three of the great saints of the Church, St. Cyprian, St. Athanasius, and St. Augustine, were Africans. Later an Indian speaker, Mr. Shoran Singha, gave yet sharper point to the Bishop of Chichester's reminder by asserting that today, as an Asiatic, Jesus Christ in some of the British Dominions would find the door of the Christian Church slammed in his face.

Lord Willingdon's Warning
Lord Willingdon is a long, lean, handsome Englishman, blessed with more than English urbanity. He has a beautiful voice, perfectly trained, and was easily heard by his large audience. Everyone knew, of course, that he had returned from India recently after eleven consecutive years of administration in Bombay and Madras, and that he was not a mere theorist. It was no comfortable doctrine that he had to preach. Though, he said, India had been received at the Imperial Conference and into the League of Nations as a full partner in the Commonwealth of peoples, yet certain incidents which had occurred since the war had led educated Indians to doubt the good faith of the promise to give India ultimately responsible government. The white races, declared Lord Willingdon, must treat all colored men in a spirit of absolute equality and give up the attitude of color superiority. "It is not the color of a man that makes the man; it is the character that counts. The white man must no longer dominate the colored men even for their good. There will be difficulty for the white man has to meet upon terms of absolute equality those whom he previously regarded as his inferiors."

The address was frequently interrupted with loud cheers, and there was great and prolonged applause at the end, though, it must be added, many members of the Congress remained dubious and silent.
Color Bar
J. H. Oldham, was, if possible, more bewildering to the old guard than Lord Willingdon himself. Moslems, he reported, were becoming Bolsheviks, not because they believed in Bolshevism, but because the Bolsheviks treated them as equals, while other white peoples regarded them as inferiors.
Rev. W. W. Cash, of the Church Missionary Society, stated that the brotherhood of Moslems of different races was more real than the brotherhood of Christians, and for that reason both the Pagans and the Christians of the East were going over to Mohammedanism.

TURKS ADOPTING WESTERN HABITS

Church and State Separated, Monogamy, Hats, Posture, Result of Change

DEMOCRACY IN FORM ONLY
Little Real Change Beneath Surface in Life of Common People

(Manchester Guardian)
There can be little doubt that the rulers of Turkey have to a large extent realised their avowed ambition to create a sovereign and independent nation-state of the western type. They have adopted a democratic constitution; they are thoroughly at home in the crude nationalistic phraseology of the west; they have achieved by their deposition of the Khalif even more than a complete separation between church and state, and have assumed to the state many of the tasks (such as education) that were previously carried out by the priesthood; and we know to our cost their importance in international affairs. But they are endeavoring also to change the customs and habits of their country. They are insisting on monogamy, they are encouraging the use of western dress, even of western hats; and now we learn that innovations are to be expected in the practice of religion—that soon the devout in Turkey will be praying seated instead of in prostrations, and (most significantly) in Turkish instead of in Arabic.
Deep Changes
All these things seem to point to deep changes in the national life—as we might indeed expect after such an event as the abolition of the Khalifate. But it is significant that they are all the result of legal enactment, or at least of official encouragement from above, not of spontaneous growth from below; the government of Turkey (like that of Russia) is really as much concerned to remodel and re-create the social and economic life of its subjects as to cause disturbances in international politics. But we are inclined to wonder how far this is possible, how far the copious legislation that is being enacted is in any fundamental way changing the lives of the Turkish people.
After all, the democratic forms of government that have been adopted do not in any real way express the popular will; they only veil a despotic authority that will not last for ever. It would be rash, therefore, in view of the secular conservatism of the east, to assume that any permanent westernisation of Turkey (or indeed of any eastern people) is possible.
Nationalist Movement
It is true that the highly industrialised state of Japan and the growing nationalist movements in China and India suggest that we may be on the threshold of a new and incalculable period in world history, in which the political and industrial conceptions of the west may transform, in ways not to be foreseen, the whole life of the east. But even in these countries the plain man, and more especially the peasant, goes on cultivating his garden and worshipping his gods with little regard to what the politicians or industrialists may do; and even if they disturb him it is not unlikely that he will relapse into the old life as soon as the grievances created by them have been remedied.

WAIT UNTIL CALLED
An old country couple were in an omnibus for the first time, and as they went along the streets of London they became very uneasy. On hearing the conductor call "St. John's" and then "St. James," the old chap became fidgety, and said to his wife: "Mary, isn't it time we got out?"
"Divent show yer ignorance Harry," she said, "wait till yer name is called. — Burntisland Shipyard Journal.

COST OF LIVING IN ENGLAND EXPENSIVE

KETCHIKAN, Oct. 27. — "The cost of living in England is equal to if not higher than in Ketchikan," said Captain W. H. Barton of the lighthouse service who this week returned from a four months' visit to his former home in England, after an absence of 19 years. "Clothing is cheaper than in the United States but the cost of other commodities is much greater and Alaskan housewives spend little money, if as much, for the upkeep of their homes as do their English sisters."
VERY TRUE.
The old man went into a life insurance office and asked for a policy. "Why, sir," said the clerk, "you are too old for us to take the risk. How old are you?"
"Ninety-seven next August," said the old man.
"And," he added testily, "if you will take the trouble to look up your statistics you'll find that mighty few men die after they're ninety-seven."

AND AFTER THAT?
Smith—Lend me five quid till Thursday will you?
Jones—Why Thursday?
Smith—Well, you don't expect me to make it last longer than that, do you?—The Windsor.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS
Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.
Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.
Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 3,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.
Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made in printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner. Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.
For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE
Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."
Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.
HOMESITE LEASES
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.
LEASES
For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.
GRAZING
Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to 100 head.
