Mine Owners Withdraw Notice of Wage Cut; Government Aid to Industry is now Proposed

Efforts of Premier Baldwin result in continuation of work which was to have ceased tonight

LONDON, July 31.—The efforts of Premier Baldwin met with success today when the owners of the coal mines withdrew for a fortnight their notice of expiration of the present working agreement. The decision of the owners will permit of a discussion of methods of financial assistance to the industry which the government has offered.

It was officially announced this afternoon that the government's assistance to the coal mining industry will be in the form of a bounty on wages for nine months, during which period the miners will be paid in accordance with the 1924 agreement which expires tonight.

British School Teachers, Due at Montreal Today, Will Visit Prince Rupert on Canada Tour

MONTREAL, July 31.—British teachers of both sexes to the number of eighty are due to reach Montreal during the week end and will constitute quite a formidable educational invasion of the metropolis. These teachers, who are coming to Canada on board the ss. Alania, of the Cunard line, are in distinct parts and will follow no less than three itineraries after they arrive at Quebec.

The principal party on board the Alania is a group of forty individuals travelling under the auspices of the League of Empire and directed while on tour by Mrs. E. Marshall, C.B.E., honorary secretary of the league. This party has arranged to visit Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Jasper Park, Prince Rupert, Vancouver, Victoria and returning via Vancouver, Jasper, Winnipeg, Toronto and Niagara Falls. They will sail for home from Montreal by ss. Antonia from Plymouth and London after 22 days spent in the Dominion travelling by lines and steamship lines of the Canadian National Railway.

The League of Empire party is due to reach Montreal next Sunday morning and, while here, the visiting teachers will at times be guests of the authorities of McGill University and of the Protestant Board of School Commissioners. Tea will be served at the University and the visitors will have ample opportunity of inspecting the buildings and equipment of the institution. The local program includes sight-seeing tours while a number of persons prominent in civic and educational spheres including Mayor Duquette and Hon. Athanas David, provincial secretary, have been invited to meet the teachers.

The members of the League of Empire party will leave Montreal on Monday morning for their westward journey to the Pacific and will arrive back at Bonaventure station on the morning of August 22, proceeding to the harbor to embark on the steamer for home.

Other parties now approaching Quebec on the Alania include a party of 32 members of the National Union of Women Teachers, accompanied by Miss Grace A. Coombs, organizing secretary, a party of eight travelling under the auspices of the National Union of Men Teachers and Miss A. C. Price, winner of a competition organized by a teachers' journal. They will visit Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls, travelling over the lines of the Canadian National Railway from Niagara Falls the women's party will proceed to Washington and Philadelphia, while the men will go to Albany all eventually reaching New York from which port they will sail for home.

Arrangements have been made at various points for sightseeing and visits to the universities and other educational institutions. Such tours by teachers from the Old Country promise to become very popular as they possess a distinct educational advantage in addition to the opportunity for a pleasant holiday by sea and land.

Treasury Finds Offer of French not Worth British Considering

LONDON, July 31.—The Daily Telegraph says that preliminary negotiations with a view to settling the French war debt to Great Britain have broken down. The new French offer, although better than that made last spring, is deemed so inadequate by the British Treasury that it does not warrant serious consideration from the standpoint of the British taxpayer.

The French delegation is returning to Paris to report to Finance Minister Caillaux and, unless he is able to make a much more substantial offer, it is probable that Great Britain will prefer to await the outcome of the Franco-American funding conversations before resuming "pour parlers."

MEIGHEN WANTS ELECTION DATE

Preaches High Tariff Policy in Speaking at Stonewall, Manitoba

STONEWALL, July 31.—Speaking here, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, challenged Premier King to relieve the business anxiety in the Dominion by stating immediately whether an election was to be held in the fall or whether he would face another session of parliament.

Mr. Meighen dealt at length with the tariff question and maintained that a protectionist policy was the only one that would put Canada on its feet economically. Far from reducing the tariff, he claimed that it should be raised following the example that was being set by the United States.

Invention And Future Wars.

While descriptions of terrible inventions designed to revolutionize warfare may strike the average person with uneasy feelings of dread, there is nothing more certain than that such inventions, if they can be put to practical use, will tend to shorten future wars even though the first blows may result in terrible mortality. With recent developments in the way of offensive and defensive armaments and also in the air, the old method of long fighting in ditches under cover of guns will disappear just as bows and arrows gave place to guns and group fighting displaced smaller individual engagements.

The progress of human invention along these lines may mean that future fighting will be prevented. The highly scientific nation may be in a position to dictate to one less developed along these lines. It may constitute might as right but it will at least be less brutal.

Local Business Political Campaign.

"It would be good newspaper business as well as good service to Canada for all of the newspapers to stress election news and try and work up such a local interest in the matter as would get every voter to go to the polls," says the Sault Ste Marie Star. Publishers would be doing something for themselves and their towns as well as discharging a patriotic responsibility.

The next general election should be made a local matter, each paper endeavoring to get its readers interested and thoroughly informed as to local business conditions, and what might be done to improve them, insofar as political action can.

Many excellent editors believe in the time honored method of discussing only "national" questions in a campaign. The Star has been found fault with for frankly taking the ground that the welfare and development of Algoma is its first consideration as well as its last. This attitude has been adopted because this paper has come to believe that if a local newspaper has a duty at all to discharge, it is to see that its own district's case is properly presented. Until Algoma's needs and problems are understood by its own people as well as by outsiders, the Star thinks it shouldn't put in much time in the League of Nations or the problem of evolution. Local matters that press for attention are thought by the Star to need its earnest attention before the general problems of the world which have so many able men to decide them.

The Star believes that not alone should it specialize on Algoma's local problems as touched by a federal election, but that it would not be doing its duty to its readers if it did not do so. It believes that members of parliament's first care should be to exhaust local topics before going on to show how Canada can be saved by a particular party. It believes that if each community will decide what is best for itself, the result will be a prosperous Canada.

GRANBY BIGGEST COPPER CONCERN

Most Important Enterprise of Its Kind in Canada Says Mining Review

Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Company, Ltd., has been, and still is, the largest and most important copper mining enterprise in Canada, says an analysis of the copper situation by the Copper Exploration Co. of New York. The company is about 24 years old, but most of the property and equipment, etc., is of comparatively recent acquisition and installation. The principal properties today consist of the Hidden Creek mine at Anyox, and the Allenby properties which are situated near Princeton. Granby, in addition, owns coal lands, and an interest in the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company Ltd. Present day production and earning prospects for Granby Consolidated are predicted on an entirely different set of conditions than those obtaining prior to 1920, and which gave the company its past dividend record.

At the end of 1924, the Hidden Creek property had developed ore reserves amounting to 8,469,870 tons 2 per cent copper, in addition to which there was developed 1,587,070 tons of 1 per cent copper and 500,000 tons of probable ore carrying 2 1/2 per cent copper. The Allenby properties have developed about 5,640,000 tons of ore averaging 1.84 per cent copper, and it is estimated that the property will be found to contain upwards of four times this amount.

In 1924, Granby Consolidated made the best showing of any year since the close of the world war, despite the fact that the average price realized for copper was 1.8c a pound less than the average for 1923. The company earned, in 1924, $2,411 a share before depreciation and depletion. After charging off $1,604,765 in 1924 for depreciation and depletion there was a deficit of $72,373. The company closed the year with a net surplus of cash and quick assets amounting to $1,636,440, equal to $4.74 a share. Since the end of 1924 Granby has reduced its bank loans, and, taking account of current earnings, a much stronger treasury position is now in evidence.

TONIGHT'S PICTURE IS MASTERPIECE OF MIRTH

"Introduce Me" is Said to Show Douglas McLean at his Best Yet

"Introduce Me," Douglas MacLean's new screen comedy which comes to the Wesholme theatre tonight and Saturday, cannot be compared with any other MacLean picture. The story has a delicious vein of humor, laughs which come with gasping suddenness, a beauty of background and a finish in its technique. It is tensely and comically dramatic.

Do you take Yeast for your health?

If so, use ROYAL YEAST CAKES—the standard of quality for over 50 years. Soak a cake of Royal Yeast, with a little sugar, in tepid water over night. Stir well, strain and drink the liquid. Flavor is improved by adding the juice of an orange.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

and it has a lilt of clean romance as fresh as a sea breeze.

The story opens with scenes along the fashionable boulevards of Paris and drifts with startling suddenness to a little chalet high in the Swiss Alps where an international mountain climbing contest is being held.

Douglas plays the role of a young American tourist who falls in love with a beautiful American girl he chances to see in a Paris railway station. His friend manages to meet the girl but refuses to introduce the youthful hero, who is therefore forced to pose as a great American Alpinist that he may follow his sweetheart to the Alps.

The picture breezes merrily along through romance, fun and thrills to the climax, when Doug is compelled to climb the mountain, or lose the girl. He scales sheer precipices, braves an avalanche, is chased across bottomless chasms by a bear and finally arrives at the summit far ahead of his competitors. But the descent of the peak tops all. Accidentally rolling himself into a tremendous snowball, Douglas crashes downwards—splintering trees, tumbling over cliffs and—but to tell the rest would spoil the picture.

Anne Cornwall plays opposite the star and is a very attractive leading lady.

Robert H. Mainzer, honorary deputy chief of the New York City fire department, was a caller at the local fire hall this morning. He was a passenger going north on the Princess Louise en route for Dawson on a holiday trip. He found Prince Rupert very interesting. It was his first trip here.

FOOTBALL GAME ENDED IN DRAW

Match Last Night Between H.M.S. Capetown and Prince Rupert was Good Exhibition

A very large crowd watched the football game last evening between men from the H.M.S. Capetown and a team of local players which ended with a tie score of 2 all. From the very opening of the game it was evident that the fans would witness a very fine brand of football and that there would be very little to choose between the respective merits of the teams. The visitors probably were a little better in combination play and on more than one occasion they threatened the locals' goal by a fine series of rushes. The locals on the other hand were always ready to take advantage of any opening which offered and at certain periods of the game pressed their opponents' defence consistently. It was a fine brand of clean football which delighted the fans and they showed their appreciation on more than one occasion as either locals or opponents were responsible for brilliant plays. Leg in goal for the visitors was called upon in the second half to make several brilliant stops which he did in such a manner as to bring applause from the grandstand and the goal which did get by him in the first he could not in any way have stopped.

The first half, the locals played down hill and the visitors scored first. This was followed shortly before half time by an equalizer from the locals. In the second period, with positions reversed, the visitors were accorded a penalty in front of the goal which was readily converted. From then on the locals pressed hard and kept continual pressure on their opponents goal until rewarded by a goal, tying up the score again. The remainder of the game was a see saw with both sides having some splendid rushes to their credit.

Referee from Ship Mr. Pierce of the Capetown acted very efficiently as referee, and his work readily met with the approval of the fans. In the first part of the game there seemed plenty of whistle but when it was apparent that nothing escaped the eye of the referee, the teams settled down to a fine exhibition which has seldom, if ever been bettered in Prince Rupert.

The teams lined up as follows: Capetown—Lee, Nicholls, Burrows; T. Burrows, Wild, (Capt.) Bramwell; Dickson, Starkey, Wiper, Bowser, Woods. Prince Rupert—A. Murray; W. E. Willisroff and H. M. D. Lambe; J. Harris, S. Currie and R. Woods; A. Mitchell, R. McDougall, D. Scott, J. Johnson and C. Norrington. Messrs A. Clapperton and P. O. Marsden acted as linesmen.

Soccer Association Gave Impromptu Social Evening in St. Andrew's Rooms Following Game.

Following the football game last night, the Prince Rupert Football Association gave an impromptu social evening at the St. Andrew's rooms in honor of the team from H.M.S. Capetown. Refreshments were served and there was a program of songs and speeches. George Hill, president of the Association, occupied the chair.

With a new battery to face the Sons of Canada, the Gyro Club expects to come into its own in the Senior League baseball league. The injection of Fortin, as hurler for the Gyros, and Robideau, as backstop, into the league may bring about interesting developments. The Gyro Club is still rather far down in the cellar but it still has a chance and the management says that the Sawmill and Sons of Canada from this on will have to look to their laurels. There has been good baseball in Prince Rupert so far this season and now it promises to be even better. Many fans are expected to climb Acropolis Hill for tonight's fixture even though Fortin may not be on the mound for the Gyro.

Fear that America may lose the Davis Cup in September through its notorious weakness at doubles play, has prompted the United States lawn tennis association to schedule an official tryout for the international team August 3 to 5, for the first time in its history. American tennis it seems regards the impending issue with more than concern. It really fears the worst. This much has been admitted by Edward B. Moss, executive secretary of the tennis association in declaring that it would surprise no one, least of all, the Davis Cup committee if victory in the 1925 international series would go with the decision in the doubles.

Jack Dempsey will not be allowed to fight any pushovers in the state of New Jersey, it has been agreed by Newton A. K. Bugbee, commissioner of boxing in that state. Only logical contenders will be tolerated as an opponent for the champion, Bugbee declared and added that in his opinion, only Harry Wills and Gene Tunney could be considered in this light. "It seems strange to me that a real champion should insist on having one or two bouts for 'tune-up' purposes before meeting a logical contender for his title," Bugbee said. "Inasmuch as the public is sick and tired of seeing champions fight set ups, Dempsey will not be allowed to fight in New Jersey."

The visit of the Capetown is affording a little opportunity for local football players to meet outside players. The matches should draw good crowds. Local billiard players will also have an opportunity of meeting some of the players from the cruiser on Sunday afternoon, and doubtless, several good games will be played.

Prince George, Ketchikan, Stewart, Ocean Falls and New Metlakalla have been communicated with in respect to sending baseball and football teams to Prince Rupert at fair time or any other time which might be convenient. It is expected that it will be possible to have both baseball and football teams visit the city from some of the outside points during the fair week and it is quite possible that some teams will be able to be here before Fair time. New Metlakalla expects to be able to play Rupert a series of return baseball games sometime after the middle of August, and word is expected from them in the course of the next few days.

THRILLING TRIP MADE BY NUN

Sister Carrier Makes Perilous Journey from Lac la Plonge to Regina

REGINA, Sask., July 31.—By canoe and train for six days—through swift torrents, punted along by brawny Indian guides, shooting rapids and skirling cataraets, Sister Carrier of the Grey Nuns' Order recently travelled 500 miles to Regina, primarily to see a dentist.

Sister Carrier comes from that inland mission in the cold hinterland of Northern Saskatchewan, Notre Dame of the Sacred Heart, Beauval mission, five miles west of Lac la Plonge. This is her first peek at civilization in five years.

"I like my mission so much, I would not like to be transferred to another one, unless I am commissioned to go further north, to work among the Eskimos," Sister Carrier declared. She gave a colorful picture of life in this outpost.

Beauval Mission and that of Ile a la Crosse, are generally recognized as the two most difficult missions in the North. In the spring and fall, the Mission often is cut off from all except telegraph communication. No mail comes and none is sent out. If the Mission cook runs out of tea or other supplies, members of the community do without. In the summer time only the minimum of travel is attempted on the river, owing to its treacherous rapids. The winter season with its blizzards, and sub-zero temperatures, is the open season for travel and the hauling of supplies.

Haulage High

The expense and labor of haulage, Sister Carrier, explained, is tremendous, when it is considered that the Mission feeds and clothes an average of 100 persons. Considerable food also is raised in the district. The wheat fields are large and thriving, while all kinds of vegetables are grown. The mission workers have themselves installed an electric plant and steam heating system. They also built their own telegraph line and completed the connections.

The only neighbors are scattered bands of Indians. "They are friendly, and 'fire water' is unknown to them," said Sister Carrier. The country which is heavily timbered, is dotted with lakes and threaded with rivers. The fur catch, she said, in win-

Editor of Daily News Goes Holidaying Mountain Philosophy

TRIUMPH BAY, Gardner Canal. — Every time I see immense mountains I wonder if we do not very much over-estimate ourselves. Looking at any mountain reminds us how small we are and looking at mountains such as those I have seen today reminds us how incompetent we are to do anything real big or beautiful.

Set a man to make a mountain and what will he do? He might possibly imitate the size although even that is doubtful but he could never imitate the perfect artistry displayed in the work of nature. Whoever made those mountains was some being so far greater than man that it is impossible to think of

Beneath the shade of the stupendous work of the great artist it is almost impossible to conceive of men disputing over such trivial things as Church Union, religious denominations or beliefs, the meaning of scripture texts, the right or wrong of prohibition, gambling, smoking, Sabbath observance, and the hundred and one little problems that often make life miserable for some people. The mountains stand as one of the tokens of the greatness of the Creator and the pettiness of mankind.

We decided not to go any farther than Brin River, not because we were tired of it but because Dick must be home at the first of the week and Gwen, like many other females, is somewhat uncertain. Dick says she was out all night with a swell and after that could not be depended on. At any rate we are homeward bound but are taking in some of the side shows we passed up last week. Triumph Bay is one of them. We are close to the foot of a waterfall and, as we sit, can look up the narrow bay a couple of miles. We have been amusing ourselves trying to find goat on the mountain in front of us with the binoculars. So far we have not succeeded. A water ouzel is eurytising on the rocks among the riffles and I suppose it is from the habit of bobbing that it gets its name "dipper." The sun set an hour ago and it is now

Lunch at Long Bay

This morning we took a run up Long Bay. We took several photos of the mountains there and had lunch at the mouth of a mountain rill but the deer flies were very bothersome, the only place they have worried us since we left. There has been a few but not persistent like the Long Bay flies.

We propose testing the stream here for trout in the morning. It has a good reputation and we have done hardly any fishing so far. There has been little time. We take a lot of time getting our meals and preparing camp. Last night we slept in the open and propose doing the same tonight. As long as the flies are not bad it is rather attractive. Here there are a few little black beach flies but they are already ceasing from troubling.

I have just stopped to make up the bonfire in order to try to get enough light to finish this. We have no other light except a flashlight and one cannot write by it very well.

Beds have yet to be made up and then we turn in after giving the launch the once-over to see if she is all right. We expect to spend a good deal of tomorrow right here.

ESKIMO BEING EXTERMINATED

Are Falling Prey to Diseases of Civilization Says Mounted Police Medical Officer

EDMONTON, July 31. — Not many years will elapse before the Eskimo will be exterminated by disease through adopting white men's method of habitation, declared Dr. D. E. Scott, who recently returned to Edmonton after spending one year at Akavik, in the delta of the McKenzie River. He has been acting as medical officer to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Arctic posts, and working among Indians and Eskimos in behalf of the department of Indian affairs.

While this prediction has been made by others in the past, Dr. Scott adds that Eskimos and Indians of the Delta are also suffering from intestinal parasites, attacks, due to eating raw fish, rabbits and other meats. This, however, he claims, is not a serious problem to contend with, but such diseases as cancer, appendicitis, he states are becoming too prevalent among the Indians. In the old days when snow houses were their temporary homes, the Eskimos were healthy, states the doctor, but since they commenced living in cabins and shacks, tuberculosis has broken out among them, and this dread menace threatens to wipe them out. Among the Delta Indians, Dr. Scott found that in all but ten per cent there were symptoms of tuberculosis. Their methods of living were such that the disease was on the increase.

Are Law Abiding

Speaking of law and order in the north, Dr. Scott declared that the Eskimos and Indians of the western Arctic regions are the most law-abiding people in the world and he could not recollect one police case during the year he was among them. In the eastern regions, however, where missionaries have not penetrated, an occasional murder was committed, but this, the doctor says, is really the Eskimos' own law at work.

Excellent fur catches were reported by trappers in the district, and in the eastern Arctic, two Swedes have begun shipment of their three-year catch, which is estimated at $120,000. The

SIR HENRY TO OPEN STATION

C.N.R.V. at Vancouver Will go on Air on August 11

MONTREAL, July 31.—Designated to be the most modern radio station in Canada and to furnish the last word in broadcasting, C.N.R.V. will go on the air at Vancouver on the night of Tuesday, August 11, when Sir Henry Thornton K.B.E., chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, will in person officially inaugurate this latest addition to the chain of broadcasting stations operated by the radio department of the system. Sir Henry Thornton is now in the west on his annual tour of inspection and gladly made the inauguration of C.N.R.V. part of his Vancouver program, because he is a firm believer in the value and usefulness of radio. Sir Henry has frequently availed himself of opportunities to use the broadcast as a means of reaching the people generally and of getting into touch with the large army of employees who go to make up the staff of the C.N.R. C.N.R.V. is the first station erected in Canada under the new regulations of the radio branch, department of marine and fisheries, which department has control of wireless in the dominion. The station is of the remote control type. The operating room and aerials being situated ten miles from Vancouver where the studio control are most conveniently in the Canadian National Railways station building. At the latter place all broadcasts from the studio, or from other points in the city are controlled and amplified before being returned to the transmitting point. The location of the transmitting station is an admirable one, being on Lulu Island at the mouth of the Fraser River where it flows into the Pacific.

DISTRICT ENGINEER CALLS AT JUNEAU

J. P. Forde There at First of Week on his way to Western Alaska

JUNEAU, July 31.—Coming north in the interest of the Dominion government of Canada, J. P. Forde, of Victoria, engineer with the International Boundary Commission, arrived in Juneau at the first of the week on his yacht the Waldrona and left for Skagway. From that point he will go to Glacier Bay to make an investigation of the position of the Alaska-Canadian boundary line in that locality and estimate the distance Grand Pacific Glacier has receded behind the Canadian line. The water port allowed by the receding of the glacier is the only one owned by Canada on the northwest coast, north of Prince Rupert. Mr. Forde is accompanied by his son and his daughter, who is at Skagway, will join the party on the yacht to make the trip west. He plans to stop over at Juneau on his return trip. Mr. Forde is chairman of the commission which arranged for the Mt. Logan Mountain Climbing expedition and is a well known mountain climber. He met Capt. M. H. McCarthy and three members of the party who are aboard the Yukon, when the steamer docked in Juneau. Col. W. W. Foster, a member of the expedition, said that he and Capt. McCarthy were taken on their first strenuous mountain climbing trips, in the Canadian Rockies, by Mr. Forde.

GOLD BRICK WORTH $18,000 TAKEN FROM SASKATCHEWAN MINE

SASKATOON, Sask., July 31.—A gold brick valued at $18,000, from the Webb mill at Elbow Lake, which began operations early in July, will be shipped to the federal mint before August 1, barring serious mishap, according to Thomas R. Webb, manager of the company. The company is controlled exclusively by Saskatoon business men. Referring to the history of the mine, Mr. Webb declared great difficulties had been overcome in bringing the mill machinery over the long trails in soggy spring weather. The mine is now fully equipped and can produce steadily, he said.

The Webb interests are the first to do any mining in the Elbow Lake area, and while others have been in the field, they have confined their efforts to prospecting and staking. The mill which recently started operation has a capacity of 30 tons per 24 hours in hard quartz, and as the ore in the Webb mine is 80 per cent schist structure, it can be more readily handled and could probably be put through 45 to 50 tons. The mill has a crew of forty men, with two shift in the mine. In August 1924, the syndicate became incorporated as a limited company and began development of the mine. The average assay of the whole dump taken from early operations was $204 a ton.

Douglas MacLean in "Introduce Me"

A girl with tantalizing brown eyes, a love-sick swain, an irate father, a double-crossing best friend, a trick, exploding cigar, a case of mistaken identity, the highest peak in the Alps, a man-eating bear, a revengeful mountain-climber, an avalanche of giant snowballs—mix these ingredients with thrills and romance and the result is a tip-top, rollicking comedy-drama. Some mountains don't care who climbs them. Jimmy got dizzy looking out of second-story windows. Someone told him there were no windows on mountains and when he tried to climb the Matterhorn in high-heeled shoes, he got dizzy. And all because he had fallen for a pair of soft-boiled eyes. Superb cast: Douglas MacLean, Anne Cornwall, Robert Ober, E. J. Ratchiffe, Lee Shumway, Wadw Boteler, and others. COMEDY—"STAGE FRIGHT." PATHE REVIEW Admission 50c and 25c

DOCTOR KERGIN RETURNS HOME

Local Surgeon Made Trip to Europe With Other Members of Medical Fraternity

Dr. W. T. Kergin returned to the city last evening after making a tour with medical men, to many of the principal cities of the Old Country and France. The tour, known as the Interstate Post Graduate tour, was one of great interest and profit to the medical fraternity and occupied practically all the available time for three months.

Dr. Chas. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., was chairman of the party and among the cities visited were Liverpool, London, Manchester, Dublin, Belfast, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Paris. On the return trip Dr. Kergin stopped for a while at Rochester, Minn., which has become famous on this continent as a medical clinic as well as possessing many fine hospitals and surgeons which are world famous.

Will and Fred Kergin were in the Old Land at the same time as the doctor and they spent some little time together. Since the doctor left they have been on a tour of the continent, enjoying the picturesque and quaint scenery of the Old World from a motor cycle. They will return to Canada in time to resume their studies at Toronto University this fall.

A certain magistrate was taking coffee in his club one summer evening when a fellow-member remarked that hot coffee was not a good summer drink. "You should take cooling drinks" this member advised. "Have you tried gin and ginger beer?" "No," answered the magistrate dryly; "But I've tried a number of men who have."
