MANSON SAYS STORK'S ELECTION CERTAIN

LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO DEAL WITH GREEK-BULGARIAN SITUATION MONDAY

Manson Says Election of Fred Stork Assured; Interior is for Him

Former member will get several hundred of a majority east of Hazelton declared Attorney General on return

"Fred Stork's election next Thursday to represent Skeena riding again in the House of Commons is assured," declared Hon. A. M. Manson, K.C., attorney general and member of the legislature for Omineca, who returned to the city on last night's train after accompanying Mr. Stork for the past week on a campaign trip through the interior and who sailed this morning on the steamer Prince Rupert for Victoria.

"Although I do not pretend to be a political prophet," commented Mr. Manson, "it is not difficult to observe that the preponderance of feeling in Skeena is in favor of the return of the Mackenzie King government and its supporter, Mr. Stork. I suppose it would be surprising if feeling were otherwise in a constituency lying tributary to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway as does Skeena. It is satisfactory, however, to know that the people of the interior are not being distracted by side issues from the realization of the fact that this country must look to Mr. King for support and has nothing to hope from Mr. Meighen. Mr. Stork's majority from Hazelton eastward will be several hundred and, although I have heard from good authority that it will be proportionately as great along the Skeena, I prefer to refrain from making any close estimate in this territory with which I am not so familiar as I am with the interior.

TRUE BILL ABDUCTION CASE TODAY

V. Robinson and Son William to go Before Petit Jury: Others Considered

VANCOUVER, Oct. 23.—After examining 22 witnesses the grand jury brought true bills against B. V. Robinson and his son William charged with illegal detention of Wong Foon Sing. Evidence against the others is being heard this afternoon. The trials in connection with this case will probably commence early next week.

TWO YEARS FOR YOUNG CUMYOW

Young Girl Astray and Lived on Proceeds of Her Vicious Life

VANCOUVER, Oct. 23.—Richard Cumyow, son of a wealthy Vancouver Chinese citizen, was today sentenced to two years imprisonment on a charge of procuring.

The evidence, which was of a sordid nature, showed that the Chinaman had obtained control of a white girl and had made profits from the vicious life into which he had led her. The girl was too ill to appear for several weeks and in court she was tottering and pale and excited the sympathy of all those present. She was under twenty years of age.

BAYCHIMO IS IN VANCOUVER

Arrived from Arctic After Being Locked in Ice for Some Time

VANCOUVER, Oct. 23.—The Hudson's Bay Company's steamer Baychimo which escaped from the Arctic ice last month after it was believed she was locked in for the winter, arrived this afternoon, apparently little the worse for the experience.

The Baychimo took the place of the Lady Kindersley in trading to the Hudson's Bay posts in the far north.

Not Weaken Position
"It would appear clear now that Greater Vancouver will elect at least two Liberals and, possibly, four. Greater Vancouver is a very populous area and the people of Skeena should not forget the importance of giving Mr. Stork a whacking majority so that he may continue to hold in the new House his position as senior Liberal member from this province. Mr. Stork has been Liberal whip for British Columbia for four years and he has served on every special committee of the House during those four years. To anyone familiar with parliamentary practice this signifies clearly that Mr. Stork stands well with the Prime Minister and his colleagues. We in Prince Rupert and Skeena should have no desire to weaken his position in any way. It is distinctly to our advantage, where competition arises as between ourselves and Vancouver, that our member should have the senior position as against the Liberal members from that city."

FISH ARRIVALS ARE VERY SMALL TODAY

Fish arrivals today were very small, only two boats offering their catches on the exchange. They were:

Polaris, 15,000, at 19c and 8c to Pacific Fisheries.
Western, 20,000, at 19.20c and 8c to Cold Storage.

The New England, owned by the New England Fisheries is here today discharging 40,000 pounds at the Alin Fisheries.

P. Anderson is being charged in the city police court this afternoon with supplying liquor to two Indian girls, Winnie Watts and Hester Dick.

LOST MILLION MADE $100,000

Wonderful Record of Son of Major General Wood in Acquiring and Losing

PICKED UP ON REALTY

Million Went on Gaming Tables of Europe and He Came Home on Tramp Ship

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Broke six months ago, Osborne C. Wood, son of Major General Leonard Wood, governor of the Philippines, says he has recovered one hundred thousand dollars of the million he made in Wall Street and lost later over the gaming tables at Athens, Cannes and Deauville.

Young Wood claims to have made the $100,000 in Tampa, Florida, real estate. He arrived in Florida from Europe on a tramp steamer with only a few dollars left of the million and spent this while looking around for a job. He secured employment as a real estate salesman at 850 a week with D. P. Davis, who was selling hot dogs on street corners a few years ago. Woods arrived yesterday to buy clothes.

Southbound from Alaska ports to Vancouver, C.P.R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. Arthur Slater, was in port from 11.30 until 1 o'clock today.

Nominations Completed for Federal Elections Yesterday; Plenty of Candidates Offer

OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—Owing to the fact that the Liberals are in a number of cases supporting independents, Progressives, or Labor candidates who have in the past session shown a disposition to vote with the government on questions of vital interest to each and in opposition to the reactionary Conservative movement, there are not as many Liberal candidates in the field at this election as Conservatives.

The total candidates standing for 241 ridings throughout Canada number 542 and of these official nominees of the Liberal party number 216, Conservatives 239, Progressive party 69, Labor, including farmer labor candidates 21, Independents 37.

British Columbia has 41 Liberals, 14 Conservatives, 5 Labor, 5 Independent.

Yukon, 1 Liberal, 1 Conservative. In the three Maritime provinces 28 Liberals, 29 Conservatives. In New Brunswick there are two Independents and one Labor in Nova Scotia.

Of 149 candidates in Quebec for 65 seats, 68 are Liberals, 63 Conservatives, 1 Independent.

United Grain Growers Director Visits the Interior and Tells of Splendid Progress of Farmers

C. E. Whitney-Griffiths Says Much Grain Grown in Wistaria District; Confers With Local Grain Board Last Night

That the central interior of British Columbia between Prince Rupert and Prince George had made remarkable progress from an agricultural and stock raising standpoint in the last three years, and that particular attention would be paid to that section of the province by the United Grain Growers and subsidiary branches in helping the farmers to increase and market their crops through this port was the cheering message of C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, a British Columbia director of the United Grain Growers and secretary to the advisory board of the Farmers' Institutes of B.C., upon his arrival in the city on yesterday's train after attending an organization convention of farmers at Terrace.

Much Impressed

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths, who operates a large farm at Malchosin, fourteen miles from Victoria, was particularly impressed with the farming country around Francois Lake and Ootsa Lake. Threshing operations this year had been very successful, he said, an average of some 600 bushels each having been threshed by farmers while in one instance a farmer had threshed 1,400 bushels of wheat. Speaking generally this was an increase of 100 per cent in production in three years.

The raising of cattle was also on the increase to a marked extent and over 60 head of steers had been shipped to Prince Rupert from the Wistaria district this year by members of the institute, and as high as $90 for a single animal had been realized.

Co-operative Marketing

Speaking of co-operative marketing Mr. Whitney-Griffiths stated this method of marketing farm produce was rapidly gaining favor among the farmers, and that in B.C. today over 75 per cent of all farm products were sold through co-operative marketing concerns.

He predicted a wonderful future for the farming industry of central B.C. which, he claimed, had not received the attention and consideration as was its due.

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths returned south on the C.N.R. steamer this morning.

Interviewed Grain Board

M. P. McCaffery, chairman, and J. H. Pillsbury, member of the local grain board interviewed C. E. Whitney-Griffiths upon his arrival in the city yesterday afternoon after attending an organization convention of farmers at Terrace, in the interests of grain shipments through the elevator.

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths stated he had had a conversation at Terrace with C. P. Riel, who is on his way to the prairies to make a survey of grain shipping possibilities through this port, and that he had given him a letter of introduction to Rice Jones, general manager of the United Grain Growers for Calgary and Winnipeg.

OLIVER SPEAKS OF RETIRING

Says he Wants Freight Rates Settled Before he Leaves Public Life

SUCCESSOR DISCUSSED

VICTORIA, Oct. 23.—Premier Oliver is beginning to talk of retiring from the premiership of British Columbia and already tongues are wagging over the question of who is to succeed him. At a meeting in support of T. B. Booth, Liberal candidate for Nanaimo, the premier said he wanted to have this freight question settled before he retired from public life. Without fairer treatment it would hardly be worth while for British Columbia to remain in the confederation. He warned his audience that fairer treatment could be expected from the Liberals than from Conservatives.

The hint in regard to retiring was rather vague, but it is looked on as an indication that the premier will not hold office long and that before another provincial election some other man will be leading the British Columbia Liberal party.

Prince Rupert's member is one of those spoken of as a possible successor to Premier Oliver.

Value Of Dollar Under King Government.

When the Mackenzie King government came into power the Canadian dollar was worth eighty cents in New York. Today it is worth just a little more than an American dollar. That is worth a lot to the country.

Today a Canadian is not ashamed to travel and to offer his money for he knows it is good. He has a prosperous country back of him.

When Mackenzie King came into power there were bread lines in Vancouver and doles in Prince Rupert. Today there is nothing of the sort. Yet the Conservatives will tell you the country is going to the dogs and they wail and moan and howl and demand that the tariff will be built higher so that a few may become rich.

Interesting To See Confidence Of Speakers.

The speakers at the Conservative meeting the other night expressed the opinion that Arthur Meighen would be the next premier of Canada and that George Bushby would be elected. Either they were professional optimists or they were deluding themselves and the people. If they have sized up the whole situation fairly and well they must know that the Conservatives have no chance of being returned to power at this election and that George Bushby, good man as he is, will have to take second place when the votes are counted.

Possibly when reference is made by Meighenites to Arthur Meighen being the next premier they are meaning after some future election. Today people are not prepared to risk a change of government with a dangerous policy.

Possible Trouble In Balkan States.

Perhaps by the time this is in print news will come that there is war in Bulgaria or it may be that the smaller state will step down. In any case the fact that there is serious friction in the Balkans is a danger to the world.

Narrow Outlook Of Balkan People.

The Balkan states have been a source of worry to Europe for many a year. It was there that the Great War started and as long as the present wrangling goes on there is always danger of other countries being embroiled.

The people of the Balkans lack education and the world outlook. They do not see beyond their own borders and lack that tolerance which is necessary to the best life. People who live on an eminence and look out over an expanse of country tend to become broadminded whereas those cooped up in narrow valleys become cramped in their ideas. So it is with nations. The world outlook is necessary. Even in Canada, especially in the villages and in places like Prince Rupert where we are cut off from the rest of the world, we are apt to become introspective and lose broad sympathies which are necessary to civilization.

FAREWELL TO ROTARY CLUB

Rev. H. R. Grant Gives Final Address to Members at Luncheon

At the Rotary Club yesterday afternoon Dr. H. R. Grant, pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, who is leaving soon for Fort William, gave his farewell address to the members, urging upon them the value of fellowship in advancing any cause. He said that he was sorry to leave the good fellowship of Rotary, one of the most important aids in the way of service, an aid in carrying out the aims and objects of Rotary.

The doctor spoke of the harmony that had prevailed. The spirit of good will was latent in the community before the advent of Rotary but the reserves had been broken down and a great change had taken place among the members.

Divergent as Waves

Opinions held by Rotarians were as divergent as the waves. Were there not differences, conversation would be dull. The man who never made a foe never made a friend.

Dr. Grant spoke of various friendships and incidents in his Rotary experience and referred feelingly to an address, one of the best he had ever heard delivered by the late Archbishop Du Vernet on "Democracy and Industry." He told several stories and called upon Consul Wakefield to repeat the famous Gettysburg speech.

In concluding Dr. Grant said he was leaving splendid friends, and he felt very keenly the going away. He was leaving just at a time when Prince Rupert was developing as a port of the future. Perhaps it would become greater than any port in Canada. Perhaps it was a mistake to leave just now. If he were a young man and were going into business he would locate at Prince Rupert and grow up with the town. However he was getting on in years and would make room for others.

Man First

The Doctor said he had been a pioneer for thirty years and he knew he was taking a risk in going east but he intended to be there as he had been in Prince Rupert. He wanted to be a man rather than a minister. He had always liked to play games and take part in the activities of other men. He had never stood on the dignity of his profession if he was not respected as a man he did not want to be respected as a minister.

In leaving Dr. Grant said he sincerely believed he was following the path of duty. He could not carry his Rotary membership with him but it would be a pleasant memory. On Thursday afternoons he would still see the men gathered around the board and think of them in their places. It was impossible to live among men here without their having a large part in one's heart.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

October 23, 1915.

The Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society elected officers as follows at the annual meeting which was held last night: President, Judge F. McE. Young; vice-president, Mrs. R. L. McIntosh; treasurer, Mrs. G. A. Woodland; secretary, J. B. Roerig; executive committee: Mrs. A. E. Wright, Mrs. T. D. Pattullo, Mrs. F. G. Dawson, Mrs. W. T. Kergin, Mrs. G. A. Rix, Mrs. Olier Besner, Mrs. E. H. Shockley, Mrs. H. E. Tremayne, Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Cambie, Mrs. G. P. McGill, Mrs. A. E. Bazzett-Jones, Mrs. W. G. Humble, Mrs. Hal Peck, Mrs. K. Henning, Mrs. William Manson, Mrs. Munn, Mrs. G. H. Arnold, Mrs. R. O. Jennings, Mrs. A. J. Galland and Mrs. Jarvis McLeod.

The hospital board, at its regular monthly meeting yesterday, decided to increase the salary of Miss Carmichael, the lady superintendent, to $75 per month.

The wedding took place last night at the home of Mrs. Seaman, Rev. W. W. Wright officiating, of Miss Freda Anderson and Paul Wicks. The groom is a lineman on the Government Telegraphs and the couple will reside at North Pacific.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

BABE Ruth came very near joining the ranks of deposed monarchs a short time before the end of the season.

THE pendulum is swinging both ways at once, according to the political speakers.

HIS stock is up

He's making votes

All round the town.

He's losing out

'Tis plainly seen

He can't win now

When backing Meighen.

THE Conservatives in town are quite sure all the Liberal speakers are liars of the first water and the Liberals are just as confident that every Conservative orator is a modern Ananias.

THE candidate goes into the village. "Now boys, what do you want? Whatever it is I am with you as long as it's not free beer or anything I shall have to pay for myself."

I WONDER if the courses for salesmen include those rather colorful stories that all drummers learn to tell when they go on the road.

JAKE says he feels like an auto tire. A girl gave him the air the other night.

TRUTH is stranger than fiction and much more lurid.

ONE of the aviators at Digby Island station this summer said his machine could do anything a bird could do except lay an egg.

UNITED GRAIN GROWERS' DIRECTOR VISITS THE INTERIOR AND TELLS OF SPLENDID PROGRESS OF FARMERS.

the wheat grown in the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba is offered for sale through the wheat pools, said the director, and these wheat pools are in turn controlled by a central board of management.

It was his opinion that the wheat pools had come to stay as the co-operative marketing on this system had proved very beneficial to individual grain growers. Several thousand new members had already been signed up for the wheat pools this year as a result of the success of the 1924 pool operations.

Must Come West

A considerable quantity of the grain controlled by the pool must come west and Prince Rupert should get its share" stated Mr. Whitney-Griffiths, and it is his intention to make a recommendation at the annual convention of the U.G.G., to be held in Winnipeg next month, that a share of the pool wheat shipment be sent via this port. The director was much impressed with the excellence of the situation for shipping grain through here owing to the lack of congestion of shipping.

The U.G.G. organization is working in close co-operation with the wheat pools and have already loaned them a number of trapped officials and leased them elevator space, three-quarters of which the U.G.G. controls on the prairies.

THIRD TRIAL GILLIS MURDER

Charles Morris Before Court Today at Victoria and Stromkins Gives Evidence

VICTORIA, Oct. 23. — Paul Stromkins, star witness for the Crown in the Beryl G. murder case, whose testimony was the main factor in the conviction of Baker and Sowash now under sentence to hang on November 4 for the murder of Captain Gillis, took the stand yesterday afternoon at the trial of Charles Morris, similarly accused. Stromkins swore that Morris was a member of the hi-jacking expedition that resulted in the killing of Gillis and his son. The trial will continue all day, it is expected.

WERE ADRIFT FOR 53 HOURS

Fishermen of Schooner Skandia Had Trying Experience in Storm Off Alaskan Peninsula

To drift for 53 hours in an open dory on the stormy waters off the Alaskan peninsula was the recent experience of A. Miller and Saxe Chilberg, fishermen of the American schooner Skandia, when they were separated from their boat during a storm near Seal Rocks about 150 miles south of Nuka Bay. Their craft drifted ashore with both men suffering from exposure and lack of food. The captain of the Skandia, a brother-in-law of Chilberg, broke down and cried when the missing men were found.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 23. — Nobu Kabayashi, a six year old Japanese girl, whose parents recently brought her from Rivers Inlet where they had spent the summer, was fatally injured yesterday when she was struck by an automobile driven by Roy Kelly.

MUCH GRAIN BEING SHIPPED TO COAST

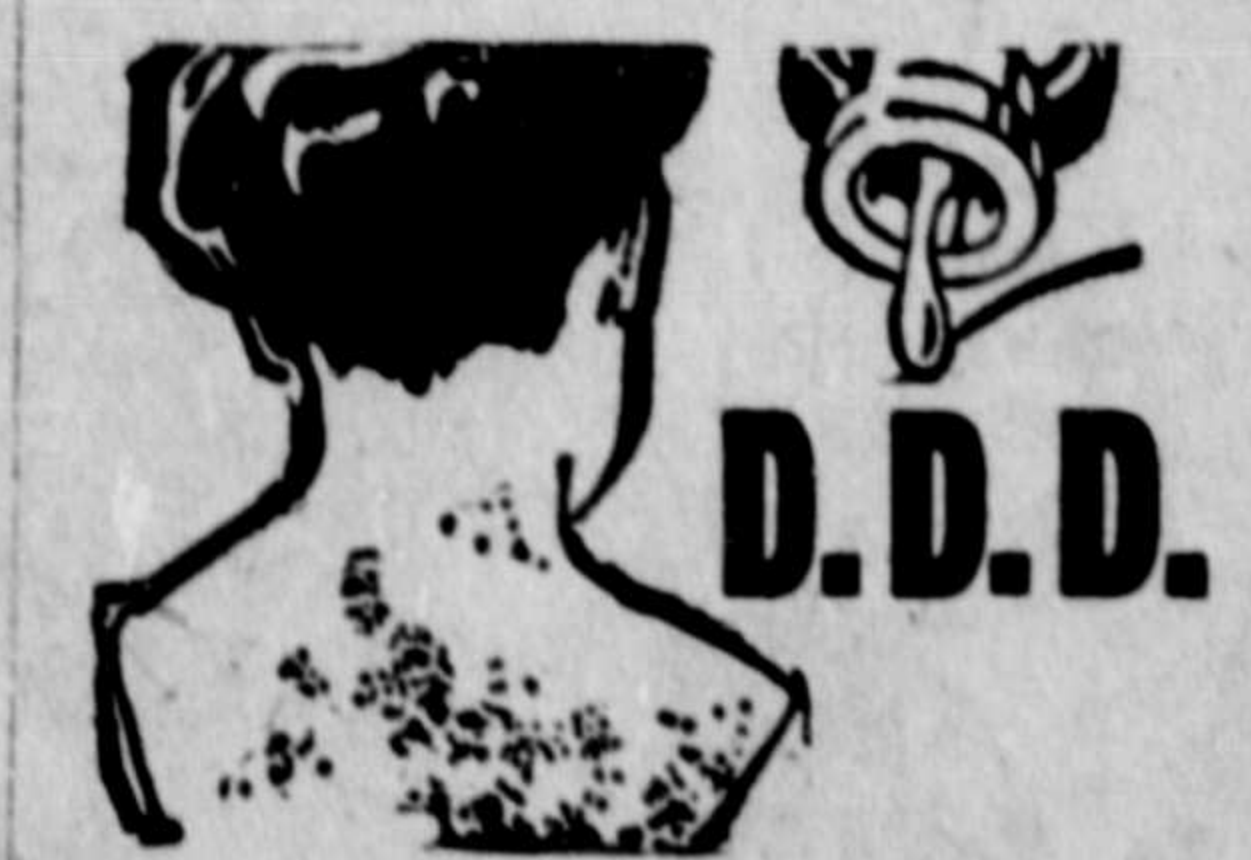

Advantage to Grain Growers of Eight or Nine Cents a Bushel in Western Route

VANCOUVER, Oct. 23. — A special despatch to the Sun says that shipments of grain from the prairies to Vancouver are increasing rapidly.

"We inspected the largest number of cars on record of grain consigned directly to Vancouver," stated T. W. Young, Dominion grain inspector at Calgary.

All told there were 334 inspections and of this number 245 cars were consigned directly to the Pacific Coast, 83 to Calgary firms and six to Medicine Hat milling firms. But 245 were not all that will find their way to Vancouver, a safe estimate being that 50 or 60 of these billed to Calgary will eventually be laid down at the coast.

The reason advanced by prairie grain men for the increased flow to the Pacific is the advantage which the Vancouver premium provides the shipper. It is estimated that the difference in price between Vancouver and Winnipeg is in the neighborhood of 8c to 9c a bushel, and this is certainly a very great incentive to the westward flow.

NORMA TALMADGE IN "THE LADY" TONIGHT

Is First a Soubrette and After the War Seeks Night Life of Monte Carlo

Norma Talmadge has a dual role in "The Lady," her new First National picture, at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

She first appears as a pretty soubrette of the year 1900. Surrounded by a double sextette of beautiful Gibson girls, Norma sings the "Floradora" songs of other days and takes part in the scenes of wild revelry which followed the Spanish-American war.

Twenty years pass and Norma is seen as a woman who has passed through the maelstrom of the Great War. For four years she runs a little cafe just behind the battlefield where the troops of many nations take their "petit verre" as they go up into the Valley of Death.

From the heights of London theatrical life, a feted beauty and the toast of all the young bloods of London, Norma descends to the depths with the American and British troops who fought the long fight in the Great War.

She is seen on the edge of the night life of Monte Carlo, with its gaming tables, its beautiful women, its half world, its tragedies, amours and romances.

She is thrown into the sordid life of Marseilles, where the human dregs of all nations mingle in the cafes of the waterfront. And she finally finds peace in a little seaport town of France.

LEARNING OF RUPERT FISH

Canadian Gazette Published in London Publishes Article With Illustrations

PLANT HERE DESCRIBED

Through an arrangement with the Agent General for British Columbia the Canadian Gazette publishes an article in a recent number on the cold storage plant, the fishing fleet, frozen halibut and salmon, and a herring boat surrounded by gulls. The article follows:

"One hundred and fifty thousand pounds of fish in one boat," answered my guide with a smile at my visible astonishment at the answer to my query as to the largest single load of fish brought by any one boat to the plant of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company at Seal Cove, three miles out from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, where the greater part of the catch from the fishing grounds of the North Pacific finds its way.

I was visiting the plant and at the moment was standing in one of the big cold storage rooms piled high with frozen salmon, the number of which to me seemed stupendous, but which my guide regarded as but a drop in the ocean of the season's takings. On arrival, when walking round the packing shed with Mr. Johnson, the general manager of the company, I had seen pens filled with 20 and 25 tons of fish unloaded by the three electric hoists on the company's wharf from three large fishing boats which had just come in from the fishing grounds.

Spoils of the Sea

There they lay in two vast heaps, those spoils of the sea, halibut and salmon, shining white and sparkling in the June sunlight filtering into the spacious shed. Halibut and salmon lay there heaped up in separate pens, the former running from 10 to 250 lb. in weight and the latter from 5 to 80 lb. The largest halibut I myself saw in the pen was, I was told, only 150 lb. in weight, and it was not until I visited the cold storage department and saw a veritable giant, frozen hard and stiff, that I realized the size and weight to which these fish run. The monster, hard as iron, was standing against the hoar-frost-covered wall—stretching inches above my head. Its height, my guide said, was 6 feet 4 inches and its weight 240 lb. Big as it was, however, it was not near the record, for my guide remarked he had had a halibut in that room in 1924, a Goliath amongst the giants, measuring in length 8 feet 4 inches and weighing 344 lb. Some fish! as we both agreed.

Preparing for Packing

In the unloading and packing sheds, where the white-bellied halibut and silvery salmon lay in heaps, I watched the fresh fish being prepared for packing preparatory to being dispatched by the next morning's train to the markets of Eastern Canada and those of the Eastern United States. On a low platform, so as to raise them above the debris of severed heads, stood a row of men at a long wooden slab on which lay the fish (already cleaned on the fishing grounds) they were to decapitate with their formidable-looking knives. As the heads were severed the fish were collected by another man and weighed in lots of 200

Notice of Application for Beer License. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 15th day of October, 1925, the undersigned intends to apply to the Liquor Control Board for a license in respect to premises, being part of the building known as Skidgate Boarding House, situated at Skidgate, upon the lands described as Lot 19, Block 4, according to a registered map or plan deposited in the Land Registry Office at the City of Prince Rupert, and numbered 148, for the sale of beer by the glass or by the open bottle for consumption on the premises. lb., and then were passed on to another long wooden slab running at right angles to the decapitators. On to this slab, or narrow table, a long inclined wooden chute descended from the floor above to a big trough filled with crushed ice, which had descended to the trough from the ice-crushing machines above. Into this trough a man was plunging a heavy metal scoop and jerking the contents into the yawning cavities presented by the headless halibut before they were packed into the big boxes for shipment. Filled in this manner with crushed ice and packed in heavy boxes loaded into refrigerator cars, the fish will at the end of a six to eight day journey arrive fresh and sweet for consumption in the eastern cities.

Weight of Head

The fish are bought by the Cold Storage Company with their heads on at a rate of 14½ cents per lb. As on the average the head weighs 14 per cent of the total weight of the fish, 44 per cent is deducted for the weight of the head from the total weight of the fish with the head on, making the average price per lb. actually received by the fishermen 10 cents per lb. when the fish have been decapitated.

The boxes in which the fish are packed for market are of two sizes, the small ones taking 200 lb. of fish up to 80 lb. in weight, the large taking fish over 80 lb. and having a carrying capacity up to 450 lb.

The boxes of various sizes are all made at the plant in the spare hours of the men, usually between 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. When packed they are loaded into the refrigerator cars standing on the Canadian National Railways spur to the plant from Prince Rupert. Each of these cars has a tank in the roof, which is filled with 4 tons of crushed ice and brine from the ice room on the second floor of the plant, a platform level with the roof of the cars communicating with the ice room. The carloads of fresh and frozen fish, also barrels of mild cured salmon, leave the plant every morning in time to be attached to the passenger train from Prince Rupert to the East.

The Mild Curing Shed

Passing from the fresh fish shed, we entered the mild curing shed. Here the salmon are split, washed, and bones and heads removed. They are then immersed in "tierces," or barrels, of a 825-lb. capacity, filled with brine of a 80 per cent strength and a temperature of 30 deg. F. The salmon remain in this brine for 14 days and are then transferred to another 825-lb. barrel and packed in brine of an 80 per cent strength, in which they are shipped in the refrigerator cars to the East, each car on the average carrying 32 barrels. The season's output of mild cured salmon is 500 "tierces," most of which is shipped to Norway and Sweden.

The visit to the actual cold storage plant requires some preparation, as naturally in the building it is intensely cold, so I was given a heavy Mackinaw coat to put on underneath my slicker and a pair of warm cotton gloves. In the building there are six floors, with a total of 66 rooms, the five upper floors being devoted to cold storage, the first floor being used for freezing and glazing and for packing the fish in boxes for shipping.

We entered from the fresh fish shed through heavy double doors into the wintry atmosphere of a big room in which is a huge tank of water kept at a fixed temperature, in which the fish are dipped to glaze them when frozen.

Freezing Room

On entering the sharp freezing room through massive doors one receives quite a shock, for the difference from the average temperature of 12 deg. above zero throughout the cold storage to 20 deg. below zero in the sharp freezing room is distinctly startling. The whole of the big room is covered white with thick hoar-frost, and through its frosty atmosphere I saw piles of frozen salmon mounting up to the roof in orderly rows, 37,000 lb. of fish all frozen as stiff and of such an iron consistency that, as my guide remarked, a blow from one of them would fell an ox. Honestly I was not sorry to get out of that room, where "pallid mors" reigned supreme.

Coming out again into a temperature of 12 deg. above zero I could see nothing until I had wiped them. By that time we had entered a room full of frozen red spring salmon, and then passed to another of fall (autumn) salmon, which are considered particularly good fish.

We next entered a room nearly full of frozen herring used for bait, 285 tons of it, which my guide said was nothing, the full capacity of the cold storage for herring bait being 1,400 tons. This bait sells to the fishermen at $40 a ton, and on the average 15 to 16 tons of herring bait are sold by the plant every day throughout the fishing season, lasting from June 21 to October 1. Frozen cod is also used with herring for bait.

In another room we saw piles of "steelhead" or salmon trout, which are frozen "round" and shipped to England. Each of these fish is packed wrapped in a sheet of waxed paper with a

WOMAN WOULD BE A HAREM SLAVE YET IF NOT FOR LIBERALISM

Triumph of Commonsense, Common Justice and Progressive Qualities at Basis of Movement

(Vancouver Sun)

So long, so bitter and so difficult was woman's fight for the franchise, so progressive was the political impulse that gave it to her, that it is hard to conceive of that franchise being used to further other than progressive policies.

The whole, long fight for the suffrage was a fight against tradition, a fight against the immovable, fixed principles that lie at the basis of Conservatism.

Victory came through the triumph of common sense and common justice, progressive qualities that lie at the basis of Liberalism.

Conservatism held women in political shackles. Liberalism freed them. And Liberalism guarantees the perpetuity of their freedom.

Every measure of justice that has been handed out to women, every step taken to liberate them from political, social and economic thralldom, every relief that has broadened their horizon and created new opportunities for a richer, wider life, have been dictated by the Liberalism in men's minds.

Women owe no political debt to the statesmen who voted them the suffrage. What they secured was no more than justice. But they do owe a political debt to the type of thinking that had the courage to violate a 10,000-year-old tradition for the sake of justice.

They owe a debt to Liberalism, that subordinates tradition to justice. They have reason to fear Conservatism, that maintains tradition, right or wrong, simply because it is tradition.

Without Liberal thinking throughout the generations, woman would still be a harem slave.

PATTULLO SAYS BIG MAJORITY

Even British Columbia he thinks Will Turn Down Meighen

VICTORIA, Oct. 22.—"I cannot conceive of Western Canada taking any other stand than that of equality for all Canada as laid down by the Mackenzie King Government," Hon. T. D. Pattullo said in an address here, before leaving for the north. "We only ask to be put on a party with the East."

He declared that some interests in Toronto and Montreal wanted to continue to receive tribute from all parts of the country.

"There is an even more important issue at stake than the freight rates and that is the straight declaration that all parts of Canada must be treated on a fair and equal basis," Mr. Pattullo said. He declared that the Liberal Government had taken the step in advance for the West, and he asked whether the West was going to give up this advantage.

No Conservative Majority
Mr. Pattullo asserted that he was willing to wager that the Conservatives won't have a majority even in British Columbia.

"How about Harry Stevens in Vancouver?" a woman in the audience asked.

"We'll leave him to Jerry Meighen," Pattullo replied.

"I hope they do throw Stevens out, I look upon him as a rattlesnake," the woman replied.

Mr. Pattullo said that Mr. Meighen was the strongest fighter in the cause of lower freight rates for the West and there was no man better equipped to carry out that fight.

Escape GERM PERILS

The germs of colds, grippe, influenza, and throat troubles are a real peril to everybody. Carried in with the air we breathe they fasten on to the soft delicate membrane of the breathing passages, multiply rapidly and spread irritation and inflammation wherever they go.

The safest and best means of combating this germ peril, is to dissolve a Peps tablet in your mouth whenever the throat feels in the least sore or inflamed.

Peps are a soothing, invigorating and germ-destroying medicine. Their volatile fumes thoroughly disinfect the throat, bringing quick relief from pain and irritation. They put an end to mischievous germs before they are able to carry trouble along into chest and bronchials.

Genuine Infection-Killing Tablets.

Note that every genuine Peps tablet is wrapped in a silver jacket to preserve its freshness and strength. It is also stamped with registered name—PEPS.

PEPS

What Peps are an expensive remedy to purchase the demand has become so great that it has now been found possible to reduce the price to 25c. box of 15 silver-jacketed tablets. Of all druggists.

SUGAR DOWN; EGGS RISING

Butter Market is Firm — Effect of Tariff on Dried Fruits is Felt

There has been another decline in the price of sugar 20c per hundred during the past two weeks. Due to heavy exports the price of butter has gone up and the market is firm. Eggs are also taking the usual seasonal stiffening and the effect will soon be felt on the local retail market, some of the stores having already applied advances.

The raising of the tariff on California dried fruits imposed with the coming into effect on October 1 of the Australian preferential treaty has had the tendency of increasing the price of dried fruits retailed here. Importation of Australian dried fruits under the new treaty have not yet arrived here. Retailers question whether the Australian varieties will stand up to the American in quality and the belief is that the latter may still hold the market even at higher prices.

Brussels sprouts are due next week on the local market. Few new vegetable or fruit lines are being offered this week while a number of seasonal varieties of produce are over for the year.

NORMA TALMADGE "THE LADY"

The throbbing life story of a little dancing beauty who won noblemen with her twinkling toes. Just listen to Polly, the girl with the glad eye—who dreamed of being nice—talking like nice people—reading the books that nice people read—being a lady—dreaming and hoping for the chance—and, in the end, in the depths of despair realizing that it is the heart that makes a lady.

Many striking settings. Superb cast.

Norma Talmadge, Wallace MacDonald, George Hackathorne, Walter Long, Marc MacDermott, Dorris Lloyd, Emily Fitzroy, Margaret Seddon and others.
