PITTSBURG PIRATES WIN VICTORY OVER WASHINGTON SENATORS TODAY

Pirates Won Fifth of World Series by Score of Six Runs to Three

GRIFFITHS STADIUM, Washington, Oct. 12.—The Washington Senators used four pitchers in today's game of the world series but were unable to stop the batsmen of the Pittsburg Pirates who won the game by a score of 6 to 3.

TERRORIZED MRS. NELSON

Man in Uniform of Police Invaded Home With Revolver in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12.—Pending identification by Mrs. John Nelson, as the intoxicated man in provincial police uniform who terrorized her small son and herself with a revolver in their home here Saturday night, no charge is laid against Constable E. B. Irving, who is held at headquarters.

A qualified barrister, Irving had been brought from Victoria for duty at the Assize Court sittings in Vancouver.

SHIP STRIKE IS AT AN END

Men Will Return to Work in all Ports Except London, is Announced

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Termination of the unofficial strike of British seamen, which interfered with shipping in many parts of the Empire for several months, was announced today by leaders. The termination will be effective in all ports except London.

R. H. Cairns, inspector of Indian schools, after spending a couple of weeks in the district on official duties, sailed by the Prince George last night on his return to Vancouver.

KEEP AWAY FROM RUPERT

Notice is hereby given to all persons living outside the city and who at present have intentions of coming to Prince Rupert for the purpose of obtaining work that it is advisable that they should give up their intention of so doing.

The City Council has decided that no dolo are to be given this winter and that all city work will be given to permanent residents of the City.

Notice is further given that so far as the labor market in Prince Rupert is concerned it is fully supplied with labor and that Prince Rupert is a very undesirable place for persons to come to at present for the purpose of obtaining work.

E. F. JONES, City Clerk.

LEAVES FOR MONTREAL.

Journalist, formerly managing director of the Vancouver World and previous to that business manager of the Vancouver News Advertiser and of the Victoria Times, has been appointed supervisor of public relations by the Sun Life Assurance Company. Mackenzie King Best Friend of West

R. P. McLennan, Liberal candidate for Burrard, and the head of the firm of McLennan & McFeeley Ltd., one of the oldest established and one of the largest wholesale houses on the Pacific Coast, says:

"My candidature is as much of a surprise to myself as to the many of my friends, but the problems involved in this election are too serious, too vital in the interests of the province, and so affecting the whole Dominion, for anyone who takes an interest in public affairs to allow personal inclinations to be his entire guide.

"I am no apostle of gloom, no calamity howler, no whisperer of death, and no whiner; neither do I belong to the party who countenances such sentiments.

"Contrary to all such ideas, I am convinced that the foundations for the greatest prosperity Canada has ever known now lies within the reach of the people. The gradual but insistent growth of trade and development in all primary industries convinces me that Canada is well on the way to that prosperity we have been working for.

"The reports and interviews from President Beatty of the C.P.R., the heads of banks, trust companies, insurance companies and industrial institutions, are of the most sanguine and optimistic character.

"The Mackenzie King government has been our best friend. On the Pacific coast, the foundations for great world ports, with an immense import and export trade, has been laid. It is for the citizens of this province to give that government a mandate to go on with the great work."

SENATORS SHUT OUT PITTSBURG

Yesterday's World Series Baseball Game Won 4 to 0 by Washington World Champions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Goose Goslin and Joe Harris each touched Emil Yde, the Pittsburg hurler, for home runs in the third inning of yesterday's game when four runs were scored and the Washington Senators won their third victory in the World Series. The only scoring of the game was in the third inning, the final score being four to nil in favor of the Senators.

After the fatal third inning, Pittsburg worked two more pitchers—Jughandle Morrison and Adams. Johnny Gooch was behind the bat. The Washington battery consisted of Walter Johnson, whose pitching again puzzled the Pirates, and Ruel.

JOHNSON WAS HERO

It was Walter Johnson's second victory for Washington in the series and gave the Senators three games to one in the championship battle. One more victory means the second straight world's title for them.

Goslin's home run with Rice and Stanley Harris on bases in the third gave Washington a winning margin and caused the downfall of Emil Yde, the Pittsburg southpaw, who was withdrawn after Joe Harris had followed with a second homer and Joe Judge had walked. It was the second circuit clout of the series for both Goslin and Harris and gave Goslin the record for the most home runs in championship games.

The Pirates got six hits off Johnson and had several chances to score but found the big veteran's "smoke" and the Senators' defence invincible in every emergency.

Declares Conservative Members Last Year Showed Lack of Sympathy With Rates Case

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12.—G. G. McGeer, Lib. candidate for Vancouver Centre and freight rate counsel for the provincial government during the past few years, is carrying the war into the camp of the enemy here. He was late in opening his campaign owing to having been engaged in his freight rate work at Ottawa but on Saturday night he launched a broadside. He declared that the Conservative candidates, who are asking re-election in Vancouver showed lack of sympathy as members of the last parliament with British Columbia's efforts to secure freight rates equalization. McGeer is opposing H. H. Stevens.

Old Country Conditions Much Improved Says Local Business Man Who Returned Saturday

Unemployment Due to Increased Population and to Slackness in Coal and Shipbuilding; No Internal Dangers

"Conditions in the Old Country I found to be much better than I had expected after reading newspaper reports reaching this country," states G. P. Tinker, broker of this city, who returned home Saturday afternoon after a visit to Scotland and England. "True there is a good deal of unemployment due to the slackness of the coal and shipbuilding industries, but, on the surface at least, there seems to be a general air of prosperity. The woollen and cotton industries are picking up as is also the boot and shoe trade. A great many of the tradespeople seem to be doing very well and the farmers, having had good crops this year, are particularly prosperous. I was informed that there was as many people employed in the Old Country now as there were in 1914. The increased population is the cause of increased unemployment."

BAYCHIMO LEFT DUTCH HARBOR

DUTCH HARBOR, Oct. 12.—The Arctic trader Baychimo left Sunday for Vancouver, 30 days behind standard, owing to having been held in an ice pack at Herschel Island when her port bow was damaged seriously by the ice. When the boat docked here she had but ten tons of fuel coal left.

Building Activity

Living conditions are improving in the Old Country, Mr. Tinker found. Great building activity is in progress and particularly is this to be observed in London. The borough of Southwick has a ten year program for the building of 15,000 houses per year. This building activity is general throughout England and Scotland, the result probably of the fact that there was no new building during the five years of the war. The program is being contributed to by the (continued on page two)

All Will Regret

Dr. Grant Leaving.

The news that Rev. H. R. Grant, D.D., was about to leave the city to take charge of the larger congregation of Fort William was received here with great regret not only by members of his congregation but by people of all religious opinions and even by those of no-religious opinions.

Seldom has a church been so fortunate as to have had the services of a man of such outstanding ability and such broad sympathies as the Presbyterian Church here during the past eleven years.

Everyone here will wish Dr. and Mrs. Grant and the family every success in their new home.

Board Of Trade And Grain Business.

There is to be a meeting of the Board of Trade tomorrow evening for the purpose of discussing what steps shall be taken to deal with the grain business here.

Grain Is Rolling To Vancouver.

The grain business is difficult to understand by most of us in Prince Rupert who never had anything to do with it. There are all sorts of sidelights which have to be considered in discussing it.

Grain is today rolling to Vancouver, partly over the C.N.R. and partly over the G.P.R. The railway is the carrier, the elevator the handler, and the city goes out to get the business.

That is the present status of the business. The elevator will be completed and ready for operation probably by the middle of next month.

TWO ORPHAN GIRLS IN CURIOUS SITUATIONS

Sackcloth and Scarlet is Story of Life of Girls of Opposite Dispositions

The story "Sackcloth and Scarlet," at the Westholme tonight concerns two orphan sisters, Joan and Polly Freeman, two New York girls, of good social position and moderate wealth who are both more than ordinarily attractive and beautiful.

Registering under an assumed name at a California mountain resort, she plays with the love of one of the guides, Edwards, a handsome, manly fellow.

At last Polly is forced to confess to her sister, who rises splendidly to the occasion. They go to a little town in France where the boy Jack is born to Polly who runs away to Paris and marries a dancer.

Finally, one of her few real friends persuades Joan to live with her in Washington, Edwards also is in Washington. He has worked hard, struck it rich and has been made a congressman.

She declines marriage, saying there is a barrier. He says he has a shadow in his own past life but that their love will overcome all that.

She is jealous of Joan and determines to take Edwards now that he is successful. This situation builds to a dramatic finish that is said to be one of the most remarkable ever put on the screen.

SILENT SANDERSON STORY OF THE YUKON

Story of Fight and Man Who Woman Whom he Loathes

A woman's screams came from the dingy room above the stuffy Yukon barroom. Silent Sanderson—once a gentle kindly ranch owner, now a hard cruel, silent miner—jumped from the faro table and wheeled about.

With a leap he was on the rickety old balcony raining mighty blows in the face of the bestial cur who sought to hold the woman in his brutal embrace. The two men battled desperately—one fought for the possession of a woman he desired—the other, a mighty battle for the safety of all women in a desolate man's country.

A shout rang through the echoing walls—"Claim your woman!" She was his! The woman he loathed—the murderer of his brother—the betrayer of his love—was his—bought and paid for!

How would he avenge his brother's death—how make her pay for his broken life.

OLD COUNTRY CONDITIONS MUCH IMPROVED SAYS LOCAL BUSINESS MAN WHO RETURNED ON SATURDAY.

municipal government and private interests. Building costs are two or three times greater than they were before the war.

Both the coal and shipbuilding industries, Mr. Tinker found, were suffering from lack of orders and high cost of production, thus giving rise to labor troubles. Oil was proving a serious competitor of coal.

Road Building

A great improvement in roads in the Old Country was mentioned by Mr. Tinker. Throughout England, Scotland and Wales there is now a network of fine macadamized roads. The ministry of transportation has a large program in hand and the county councils are also doing extensive road work. Motor traffic is increasing by leaps and bounds and the railways are feeling the competition.

Mr. Tinker spent the most of his time in the Old Country visiting his home in the Lake district of Cumberland but also visited most of the large centres of population both in England and Scotland. The weather was splendid, June and July being perfect with the temperature going as high as 92. The month of August was showery.

Coming across Canada on the return journey, Mr. Tinker found the weather rather cold. He visited the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton. There was a veritable cloudburst in Quebec during the day he spent there. On the prairies in the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta there was snow on the ground, the depth around Calgary being about twelve inches. It was expected that the snow would break up and permit of a continuance of threshing operations which had been interrupted.

With Politicians

Mr. Tinker was not long in Canada before he became fully aware of the fact that a general election campaign was in progress. He travelled on the same train from the Maritime Provinces to Montreal with Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, and on the same train from Montreal to Winnipeg with Premier King. He heard the latter deliver an address at Cochrane, Ontario, where the train stopped an hour.

Of course, on coming home to Prince Rupert, the most striking thing Mr. Tinker saw was the elevator. It presented a very imposing spectacle to him, as when he left on May 22 foundation work was still in progress and the superstructure had not commenced.

He Missed the Train

If Robinson could have caught the 8:45 he would have landed a four-thousand-dollar order. But he trusted to an untrustworthy time-piece, thus missing the train and losing the business. A Waltham would have cost him a little more money than the obscure make of watch he carried, but in the long run he would be money ahead. That's why we say that the Waltham is an inexpensive watch. Spread its cost over years of good service and its price comes mighty reasonable. You can't develop the habit of being "on time" unless your watch is reliable. ARCHBISHOP IS SPEAKER

Powerful Sermons Were Delivered Yesterday in Anglican Church by Metropolitan of B.C.

Archbishop A. U. De Pencier, metropolitan for British Columbia, conducted both services in St. Andrew's Anglican Church yesterday. Powerful sermons were delivered on both occasions. In the morning the ordination of Rev. Walter Allen took place and Archbishop De Pencier dealt with the importance of the ministry. In the evening, he took as his text: "Who is on the Lord's side, let him come unto me. As for me and my house, I will serve the Lord."

DR. GRANT ANNOUNCES HIS LEAVING CHURCH

Mentions It at Both Services Yesterday and Speaks of His Regrets

Yesterday at both services Rev. H. R. Grant announced to his congregation that he was leaving the city if the Presbytery confirmed the move and that he expected to be away about the end of the month. As previously announced he is going to Fort William.

"After eleven years I am going to leave you," he said. "The Managers and Session the other evening passed a nice resolution regretting that my health necessitated me leaving, but in a sense I was never in better health, were it not for the damp climate, consequently, I felt this change must come sooner or later."

It is a great disappointment to me after eleven years to have to leave as I looked forward to spending my remaining years with you.

I have always striven to follow God as He leads, and it seems to me He has opened this way to me for a larger measure of health. In doing so I have thought of nothing except you.

I am going to a larger sphere and to me that is one of its drawbacks but I am sure God is with me and that God is with you.

I did not think it would be so hard on me to make this intimation as it has been and I feel in leaving Prince Rupert that I am leaving the very nearest and very dearest friends."

GOOD WORK OF INDIANS IN BABINE DISTRICT

Smithers Paper Commends Them for Building Road for which Town Paid Part Cost

(Interior News) Ten Indians of the Babine tribe have, at great personal sacrifice, constructed a road from Babine to connect with the Cronin mine road to give them an outlet to Telkwa and Smithers. From all accounts they have made a creditable job of their undertaking. This work has kept them occupied for almost four months, and the only compensation has been a sum of $500 donated by the people of this town. The road is not a whim of the Indian mind; by white and natives alike it has been requested for several years as a necessity it undoubtedly was. The road is over a route and on a grade established by local engineers of well known competence, and as a necessity that was bound to be supplied sooner or later it appears rather unfair that these ten men should be asked to bear the whole load of its construction. Had the government undertaken this work it would have cost many times the amount received by the Indians from the people of Smithers, and out of consideration of the money saved, if not out of common humanity, the government might with propriety reimburse the Indians for some portion of their losses due to their decision to live up to the pledges given, and at the loss of the opportunity for storing up their winter's supply of food.

DEFENDS NICKERSON

Editor, Daily News:

It was only a few days ago in your paper that you said you hoped that the present campaign would be conducted in a clean, gentlemanly manner with no mud-slinging, etc. It looks to me in your editorial of Friday night that you are deliberately asking for it, especially in the first part of your editorial when you say people were disappointed not to hear something rip and smash. To my mind Mr. Nickerson answered his critics as your report shows. Surely a man can defend himself. Your cry seems to be against Nickerson personally, nothing about the completion of the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Anybody who thinks, knows that the government must practice economy, but not at the expense of Prince Rupert as in the past.

It seems to me that the voice in the wilderness was heard all right when the vote for the elevator was taken. What would the government have done if the Progressive Party did not get behind them then?

The elevator is fine, we all agree that Mr. Stork deserves all the praise and thanks for the way he fought for it, but, Mr. Editor, the elevator to me seems only a side line. As yet we have a main industry here and that is fishing. One elevator or two elevators won't bring us as much prosperity or create as much industry to our city as our fishing fleet, yet what has our member got for them? They have been asking for years for some shelter for their boats, life saving protection on the west coast of Queen Charlotte Islands and at other places, also lights and buoys in the channels, shortage of refrigerator cars has occurred as per last week, and a square deal and no discrimination in our home port.

Alaskan Traps

In 1916 I was fishing at a cannery in Alaska which operated three seine boats and two traps, and they put up a pack of over 50,000 cases, that estimated roughly at 700,000 fish. The average, roughly, for a troller is 3,000 fish, gillnetter 7,000, seine boat 45,000. There are two men to a gill net, six men to a seine boat and one man to a troller, so you can see how the traps hurt our men who invest their all in boats and nets, helping to build up an industry and make themselves self-supporting.

Now, Mr. Editor, the reason I am supporting Mr. Nickerson is that he told me that he is against traps unless such traps are in a position to catch fish going in to American waters that our men would have no chance to catch. Also that he will go out and personally inspect each proposed trap site. If our member was against traps why did he not put that in the report of the commissioner, instead of cutting the license fee from $500 to $50?

We want a member who will help to build up and foster small industries thus creating a bigger and more prosperous Prince Rupert.

Yours for the progress of our city and surrounding district.
B. J. BACON.
