COWPER LIBEL CASE STARTED YESTERDAY AND IS PROCEEDING TODAY

Great Reception Given Mackenzie King at Calgary and Preparations for Monster Meeting Vancouver

CALGARY, Oct. 2.—With the possible exception of the Quebec open air meeting, Premier Mackenzie King addressed the largest audience of his campaign so far here last night. He dealt with the tariff and renewed his plea for western co-operation with a view to enabling the government to carry out its policies. He showed clearly that with divided forces nothing could be done but with a solid West behind the government and with the West represented in the cabinet still further, western policies could be carried through to fruition.

WHARF CAVED IN; BIG LOSS

Salted Salmon and Box Shooks Lost at Jedway on Wednesday

Loss which is estimated at $20,000 was sustained by the Moresby Island Fisheries Co., a Japanese mild curing concern, when its wharf at Jedway caved in on Wednesday afternoon and the entire saltery plant, together with the season's pack and equipment went to the bottom of the bay. The loss included 125,000 salted salmon, about 2,000 box shooks and 130 tons of salt. There was no insurance on the plant covering the accident. The plant has been in operation for sixteen years and was one of the oldest of its kind on the Islands. The accident, it is thought, was due to the wharf being overloaded. Workers were busy in the saltery at the time but there was no loss of life. Word of the accident was brought to the city by gasboat yesterday afternoon.

Packers Ask That it Commence at Once Instead of on January 1

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Seattle herring packers announce that they have requested the United States bureau of fisheries to order a closed season on herring fishing in Alaskan waters to commence Monday instead of on November 15. The closed season now ends on January 1 and Lee Wakefield, one of the largest American packers, said it was felt the extension was necessary for "conservation of the fish and perpetuation of the industry."

FRENCH DEBT IS ARRANGED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A temporary agreement covering a period of five years was reached at a final meeting yesterday of the American-French debt commissioners for the funding of the war loans. It is expected that the first barge load will be loaded there before Christmas and, after the organization is complete, it is hoped to ship a barge load per month. While definite arrangements have not been made it is expected that the Hecate Straits Towing Co.'s barge Drumrock will transport the logs south. #### Hon. Arthur Meighan Holds Big Meeting at Winnipeg and Talks on Live Questions of the Day

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Addressing 6,000 people at a Conservative rally here last night Hon. Arthur Meighan devoted much time to the question of railways and the tariff. He reiterated the contention that if the railway debt continued to pile up, bankruptcy or amalgamation would be bound to follow. He thought the latter would be better than the former. Speaking on the railway rates, the Conservative leader maintained that any adjustment worked out should benefit all parts of the country. On the tariff he remarked: "Follow the interests of the wage earners and you can't go wrong."

Most Important Sitting of Railway Board Ever Held is Just Concluded

Impression was that it was final effort of big interests to hold something not rightfully theirs

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The sitting of the board of railway commissioners which has just concluded was one of the most important ever held, certainly the most important to the West. It has been a straight fight between East and West but which will win cannot be forecasted. If the West loses, it is certain that the fight will be continued until the Pacific coast gets fair treatment from the railways.

Colonel Thomas Vren took his seat on the board for the first time so anything may happen. G. G. McGeer, who has been leading the fight for the West, continued to do so during the present sitting and he was ably backed by S. G. Woods, former attorney general of Alberta and other counsel. The claims of the West were fully discussed and the legitimacy of the order issued by the two commissioners, McKeown and Dwyer, who were the only ones present at the Vancouver hearing, was attacked by the opponents of the Western route.

To a British Columbian the whole argument seemed like a demand on the part of the more powerful interests of the East including the Canadian Pacific Railway, the city of Winnipeg, and the Board of Trade of Montreal to hold on by sheer force to a business which their smaller neighbor considered was his by right.

MOSTLY AMERICAN CATCHES ARE SOLD

Vancouver Assizes Are Full Of Interest.

The Vancouver assizes this year are full of news interest. Not only is there the Janet Smith murder case, the kidnapping case of Wong Foon Sing and the Cowper libel suit but there is sprung a fraud trial in connection with fruit dealers and others which has a wide interest as far east as Winnipeg.

The last mentioned case was somewhat of a surprise to the public. There had been an investigation, it was known, but the extent of the ramifications of the alleged fraud are only just being brought to light.

How Much Will You Pay To Further The Cause?

When a person is intensely interested in a cause he is usually ready to pay to forward it. Trades Union members pay regular assessments for their own protection. Those who talk wildly and would upset the whole world are usually the people who spend every dollar they possess and who then howl because someone else has saved a little. They are not willing to contribute even to forward the cause they profess to espouse.

At the Labor Party conference in England that was made clear by James Sexton, the Dockers' member of Parliament, who charged that all the wild group had contributed only thirty shillings to the movement they professed to support.

Do Not Depend Too Much On Library.

The public library is filling a great need in this community and strangers coming here compliment us on the bright, cheery and useful institution we have here. The large number of borrowers testify to the value locally. All kinds of people use it and it has a good effect in providing the right kind of occupation for those who have long evenings to spend.

While the library is doing good work, sometimes it has a deleterious effect in preventing people from owning books. For ordinary reading it is all right to borrow but there are always books that one wants to own. They are like family friends that are missed if away.

Every person should have a private library. The books there will indicate to some extent what sort of person he is. The books should be in sight and readily available.

A library lends a note of distinction to the furnishings of a room. No sitting room can be said to be complete without at least a shelf of books and some magazines.

Now that the autumn is coming on, is a good time to start a new library or to build up the old one. New books will be coming out and will be available soon. Right now, before the Christmas activities, is the time to plan what books to buy and what line of study to carry on.

In a part of the country where the winter evenings are long and the days short and sometimes the weather is disagreeable, there is a tendency for people to miss the amount of exercise which seems necessary for health. Keeping oneself fit is really part of the winter duty. It may not be attained by taking part in any vigorous or stimulating games, for that often is not possible. What is possible is to take some physical exercise at least once a day, possibly in the bedroom. Walking of course everybody knows is splendid exercise but many do not care for tramping alone and possibly do not have a suitable companion. It is the duty of each one to solve the exercise problem in the best way possible. Keeping fit is necessary to health.

We often talk of developing the mind. We discuss subjects which have to do with mental activities but the body is the first care, the mind coming second. There cannot well be a sound mind in an unsound body. That is why we believe so thoroughly in playsheds and playgrounds for the children.

The average child does not need any spur to activity. You cannot keep him quiet. He will take exercise in spite of everything. The chief difficulty is with older people who let themselves go to seed and become old when they should yet be young and active and muscular and keen and bright and fit.

DORE SPEAKER AT ROTARY CLUB

Tells of Advances in Communication Through Development of Electric Devices

John Dore, superintendent of the government Telegraphs, was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon yesterday afternoon with H. H. Little presiding. In the course of his remarks he said:

Electricity travels at a speed of 186,000 miles per second, while sound travels at only 1,100 miles per second. Electricity travels 185 times faster than sound. Electrical communication makes use of this great speed.

The telegraph came first, then the telephone. Today the telegraph and telephone everywhere supplement each other. They operate simultaneously on the same wires without interfering with each other. The telegraph current is usually direct and steady while the telephone current pulsates or vibrates. Lately radio has entered the field. The cable and telegraph have a background of nearly eighty years. Radio is just an infant but we must consider electrical communication as a whole and the art is still in its early youth. The cable, telegraph, telephone, and radio each have their own field. They do not supplant each other, they supplement. They are certainly shrinking the world to a very small size.

Before the day of electrical communications the arts of communication were sailing a ship, riding a horse or building a road. Less than a hundred years ago there was not a mile of steam-railroad, nor a mile of electrical telegraph or cable, no radio, no automobile, no communication facilities except human or animal legs, wheeled vehicles and sailing ships.

First Wireless

The Romans had the first wireless, they used codes of alternating smoke and flame to flash the orders of the Roman generals from one point to the other. The Indians in the West later used a development of this system. They flashed a blanket before their camp fires. This was really a system of heliographing which gave rise to the heliograph or system of signalling by sun flashes used in military signalling. The tribal runners gave rise to the Pony Express used in the Western States. There were five hundred horses in the Pony Express and eighty riders. Buffalo Bill was a Pony Express rider. Letters had to be written on tissue paper and the postage was $5 for half an ounce. That was in 1858, not so long ago.

All this great advance in electrical communication has taken place in the last eighty years and it is still only in its infancy. The world is shrinking to a very small size these days and with the advent of radio the end is not yet. Submarine cables, telegraph and telephone land wires are being extended rapidly every day. 24,000 miles of new submarine cable having been laid last year.

A few weeks ago the Mexican Consul General at Ottawa put in a call to talk by telephone with Habana, Cuba. He was put through in fifteen minutes. This circuit passed from Ottawa to Montreal, New York, Richmond, (Virginia), Jacksonville, (Florida), thence under water 90 miles to Habana. It would have taken him two weeks to send a letter that distance.

I haven't said a word about our own Yukon Telegraph system which, without exaggeration, is one of the most unique telegraph and telephone systems in the world. This may sound fantastic but nevertheless it is a fact. Despite great physical difficulties in keeping up the lines it is performing a wonderful social service.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

The sum of $15 was realized at a Red Cross sale conducted yesterday by Mrs. A. E. Bazzet-Jones and Mrs. R. E. Walker.

A dividend of $1.50 per share has been declared by the Granby Co., a similar dividend having been paid last July.

NEW LIBRARIAN IS INSTALLED

Miss Cruikshanks Takes Charge In Place of Miss Mortimer Who is Leaving

The new Librarian, Miss Cruikshanks, took charge of the public library yesterday after having spent several days with Miss Mortimer, learning the routine work as it is done here.

Both Miss Cruikshanks and Miss Mortimer were at the Board meeting last night.

The Librarian's report for the month of September showed that 2,434 books were loaned during the 25 days the library was open, an average for the month of 96.9 a day. There were 57 new registrations and 19 were cancelled, there being now 1991 borrowers on the list.

New books were received during the month, 13 by gift and 33 by purchase while 9 were cancelled as being unfit for further circulation. There are now 1,483 books either on the shelves or in circulation.

Miss Mortimer is being married here next Thursday.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

WHEN the bees went into the ark Noah kept them in the archives.

THE latest description of a doctor is that of a "two was usher."

PEOPLE here go hunting for their health, for recreation, for a breath of pure air, for pleasure, to enjoy the great open spaces, to get game and for an excuse to be away from home.

I WISH I were a Tory And could swallow any rot I then could vote for Meighen's crowd An' would not care a jot.

I might have been a progressive And stolen the Liberal stuff I'd take the program with a Forke Until I had enough.

A Liberal I might have been With loyalty to King With cheers for elevator and For Stork the welkin'd ring.

But thank the powers I pick and choose Without a party tie And if a party ask my vote I answer with a sigh:

My man what have you there worth while To bring prosperity If you have something up your sleeve Put it where I may see.

THIS is the way a poet in one of the college papers expresses the woes of the modern student: Can't study in the fall, Gotta play football, Can't study in the winter, Gotta play basket ball, Can't study in the spring, Gotta play baseball, Can't study in the summer, Gotta girl.

Not What Ma Wanted

Schram, who had run out of gas on the outskirts of a country town, saw a boy coming along the road carrying a big tin can. "Say, boy!" he yelled. "I hope that's gasoline you have in that can."

"Well, I hope it ain't," returned the boy. "It would taste like the dickens on ma's pancakes."—Boston Transcript.

CHIEF RANGER VISITING CITY

Arrangements Made to Ship Spruce Cones to New Westminster

James Selkirk, Dominion chief ranger with headquarters at New Westminster, returned on the Prince Rupert last night from Alice Arm where he has been spending the past week and will proceed tomorrow night to Massett Inlet where arrangements are being made to ship 1,200 sacks of Sitka Spruce cones to the seeds reduction plant at New Westminster. Of late these seeds have been much in demand especially in the United Kingdom where attempts are being made to propagate Sitka Spruce. Mr. Selkirk looked over the Sitka spruce stand in the Alice Arm district but found the cones unsuitable, almost all the timber being affected by the Anox smelter fumes.

SKIDEGATE

Pete Rovik, skipper of the seine boat Malamute, was fined $150 at Queen Charlotte City for having his seine out ahead of time. He was reported on by the seaplane in charge of Flying officer Hull.

On Saturday the seine boat Naas was caught fishing illegally by the fisheries protection cruiser Marfish and towed into Lockport.

Jack McMillan, superintendent of the Kelly Log and Lumber Co., came into port last night on his speed boat the Melba L. and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens while here. Mr. McMillan reports everything going splendidly at his camp but owing to the extreme dry weather he is finding a little trouble supplying some of his camps with fresh water.

The seiner President H. came over from Lowe Inlet and brought over Mr. and Mrs. Rudge who wish to thank their many friends who so generously came to their aid when their home was burned at Sandspit.

There are now 25 trollers for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. here and all are doing well, the catches running from 50 to 400 a boat. The prices paid for cohoes is 5 1/2 cents each dressed.

My clothes used to be yellow - now they are snowy white

"I always had trouble with my clothes—they used to come out so yellow. Then a friend told me about Rinso. I found it makes a wonderful soap solution. This removed every bit of dirt and then it all rinsed out completely. There was nothing left to yellow the clothes—as there was no soap to stick—it was all dissolved.

"I am now delighted with my wash—my clothes are always snowy white."

Just shake some Rinso into a saucpan, add hot water, and you'll get the wonderful soapy solution that is the only soap you need for your set tubs, your boiler, your washing machine. Rinso soaks dirt out.

WOULD HAVE LAWS AGAINST STEEL TRAP

Propaganda Commences With a View to Ridding Country of Torturing Device

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2. — The general public and organizations of sportsmen, as well as some officials of the U.S. Biological Survey, are charged by the newly-organized Anti-Steel Trap League with adopting an improper attitude toward the use of steel traps in the capture of animals.

The point at issue is the degree of suffering experienced by entrapped animals.

Officials of the league are preparing a pamphlet written by Edward Breck, writer, lecturer and former navy officer who is president of the organization. It will contain an appeal for general support of the league's program, which covers both the United States and Canada. This program the organization's officials summarize as follows:

"We propose to bring about the passage of a law by all the State and Provincial Legislatures making illegal all use of the torturing steel trap and other non-killing devices for taking fur, except by the authorities in the case of vermin.

Every woman who ever wore fur will be asked to contribute one dollar.

SEVENTEEN DAYS WITHOUT RAIN IS RECORD THUS FAR

Some arguments have arisen as the length of the present fine weather spell that Prince Rupert has been enjoying. Inquiry was made at the Dominion meteorological station this afternoon and S. C. Jackson, officer in charge, announced that the last rain had fallen on the morning of Tuesday, September 15, making the present fine weather period so far seventeen days. Indications are that it will continue, the barometer being high and steady.

SCOTTISH NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL IS NOW TAKING SHAPE

Will be Located on Edinburgh Castle Rock: Gallery of Honor Proposed

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 2.—The scheme for the creation of the Scottish National War Memorial on Edinburgh Castle rock, is steadily taking shape under the direction of the Duke of Atholl's committee and the architect, Sir Robert Lorimer.

The design consists of the conversion of the old disused barrack building known as "Billing's Building" into a gallery of honor, and the erection of a shrine abutting the north side of this old building.

The great arch, nearly 30 feet high, that leads from the gallery into the shrine—the work of a young Edinburgh sculptor Pilkington Jackson—is with its sculpture and carving already complete.

The shrine is to contain a series of seven stained glass windows—each measuring about 3 feet wide by 16 feet high. In the stained glass windows the subjects are destroyers a camouflaged transport, the deck of a battleship and submarines. The Air Force window shows aeroplanes, airships, seaplanes and kite balloons.

It is hoped that if the present rate of progress is maintained the structure work will be completed in the autumn of 1926.

WOMEN'S MEMORIAL HALL TO BE BUILT

Site to be Adjoining Arches Building at Ottawa Facing Driveway

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—A site has been granted by the Dominion Government for the National Women's Memorial Hall. The choice will probably be in the square facing the Driveway adjoining the Archives building. Memorial Hall will provide headquarters for the national women's organizations. It will be a tribute to the women of Canada in all activities; those who were pioneers, war nurses and mothers. In the building their conventions would be held. The concert hall will be the largest feature of the building. Centrally located it may become an important factor in the cultural life of Ottawa.

Ladies of the Ottawa Women's Club have been especially active in promoting this patriotic undertaking. They have been encouraged by the sincere and vigorous efforts of leaders of women's activities in Ottawa and throughout the Dominion. They have undertaken something worthy and splendid, says the Ottawa Journal in an editorial.

SHINGLE MILL AT VICTORIA BEGINS

VICTORIA, Oct. 2.—Construction upon the foundations of the McMaster-Horton shingle mill, south of Point Ellice bridge began this week. The C.N.R. is extending the rails to the site from the terminals on the other side of the street, in order that the delivery of the materials may be made directly on the spot where needed and so that when the work is completed and the mill is running, shipments may be made by rail without extra handling.

At the commencement the mill will confine itself to shingle manufacture. Having its own markets in the East, it starts with a market already established and Eastern distributors provided for. The undertaking, therefore, is not one which will come into competition with existing mills.

PRICE OF SALMON LIKELY TO BE HIGH

Alaskan Newspaper Explains Why There is Likely to be Big Demand

(Juneau Empire)

There has been a shortage of fish products this year in Europe as well as Alaska. Norway's fish exports have shown a decline in everything except fresh herring. The herring catch was only slightly greater than last year, but shortage of other varieties of fish caused a larger demand for fresh herring than usual, so there has been a decrease of more than 25 per cent. in the exports of cured herring. The Norwegian mackerel catch is 25 per cent. lower than last year and less than 50 per cent. of that of 1923. It is said there will be no mackerel canned in Norway at all this year. The exports of split cod have also decreased by almost 25 per cent. The decrease in the shipment of canned fish of all kinds from Norway has been more than 30 per cent.

Likewise the sardine fisheries of France and Portugal have suffered from a combination of adverse conditions that will entail a marked reduction in the output. There are indications of larger catches of sardines later in the year but it is not believed the pack can be built up to normal. So far the shipment of French sardines to the United States has been about 10 per cent. of normal.

French tuna fishing has also suffered this year, and the supply of that and other fish has not fully supplied the local market, which has drawn heavily on Norwegian fresh herring to make up for it.

All things considered it is believed that those Alaska and British Columbia packers who have not sold their outputs will be able to get fancy prices before the end of the shipping season.

SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAME TOMORROW TO BE WELL CONTESTED

The Booth School football team is to play the High School tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. The smaller lads are all on their toes and excited over the possible prospect of victory. While the High School team is heavier, there is real fighting mettle among the younger lads and they are likely to put up a good game.

The Booth team will be: Pierce; Crate and Donald; Colli-son, Kelsey and Morrison; Smith, Dickens, Nelson, Murray and Kami.

BADMINTON SEASON OPENED YESTERDAY

Membership in Prince Rupert Badminton Club is Complete and List Closed

The badminton season opened yesterday and there were quite a number of players on the courts in the De Luxe Hall. In the evening the executive of the Prince Rupert Badminton Club met and decided to close the list for members. Already rather more than the required number had applied but all were admitted provided the fees were paid before October 15, after which any not paid up will be struck from the roll.

It is expected that a large number will play in the afternoons and some possibly mornings so as to avoid overcrowding of the courts.

SPORT CHAT

Fred Clarke, chief assistant to Bill McKechnie in molding the destinies of the champion Pirates of the National League this year, was one of the best players the circuit ever turned out and was manager of Louisville, later the Pittsburgh club for 19 successive years, including the world's series campaign of 1909. Clarke came from his ranch in Kansas on June 13 of this year to aid in the drive for the pennant and what has happened is perhaps in large measure attributable to his steadfast attention to details, his coaching and strategic aid. When Clarke appeared on the field in uniform after a lapse of several years during which he has attended to widespread oil and ranch interests in his home state, there was an immediate spurt and the Pirates have been fighting as seldom before.

Fred Clarke was born in Des Moines, Iowa, and started his professional baseball career with Hastings, Neb., in 1892 at the age of 19. Two years later he was with Louisville and hit .406 and the following season added a batting figure of .327 to his record. In 1896 the New York Giants offered $5,000 for his services, an immense figure in that day, but it was refused and a year later he became manager at Louisville, to remain in that capacity throughout his major league career. That year was his best. He stole 60 bases. In 1898 Clarke added a heavy, ungainly outfielder who was to become one of the game's greatest stars. It was Hans Wagner from the Paterson, N.J., club. At the same time Tommy Leach and Claude Ritchey entered the fold and in 1900 they went along to Pittsburgh under transfer. Clarke playing in the outfield along with Wagner and Ginger Beaumont. Sam Leever and Charley Phillippe, pitchers, were saved from the Pittsburgh forces in the amalgamation.

The club of 1900 gained second place to Brooklyn and the following year gave Clarke his first pennant. At this time Fred Ely became too much interested in the newly formed American League and lost his position, opening the door to one of the greatest shortstops of all time—Wagner. And again in 1902 the Pirates won the flag, being out of first place only one day during the season. In 1903 they made it three straight pennants but fell back to fourth in 1904. They were always strong contenders until 1909 they were at the top and won the world's series for Detroit. After this conquest Clarke realized that his playing days were nearly over and he obtained Max Carey from South Bend to under-study for him in left field. The manager played in 118 games that year but in 1911 gave Carey plenty of work and in 1912 directed the club from the bench. He played only two complete games in 1913 and in 1914 acted as pinch hitter twice. The year 1915 was his last as a player. On September 23 he went into left field, got one hit and retired in favor of Carey, never to don a glove again in active play.

SEAL HUNTING IS GOOD SPORT

Arthur Einarsen Urges Killing of These Mammals Order to Save Salmon

BOUNTY IN STATES

OLYMPIC, Wash., Oct. 2.—Hair seals have increased in recent years to such numbers that they are becoming a serious menace to the salmon fishing industry in the Northwest. As a means of getting rid of the menace, Arthur S. Einarsen, formerly with the Washington state fisheries department, has suggested that the aid of American sportsmen be enlisted in a drive against the animals. Sportsmen, he declares, would find seal hunting a game worthy of their skill and one which would enable them to fill in July and August when the season on big game is closed in most localities.

Increase of Late

Puget Sound Indians formerly hunted the seals for food and material for moccasins and since the white man makes no use of them whatever, the seals consequently have greatly increased since the disappearance of the Indians. In a recent check Mr. Einarsen reports that he counted 7,600 of the hair seals sunning themselves on the beaches at low tide. Rookeries invariably are established at the mouths of salmon streams and the seal-lake heavy toll of this food fish. Feeding tests have shown that an adult seal requires about 30 pounds of fish for a meal.

At present the only checks on the increase of the seals are the operations of the few professional hunters who pursue them for the $3 bounty offered by the state and the occasional forays of local sportsmen.

Aid of Sportsmen

"In view of these facts, unless the state wishes to subsidize the extermination, the most logical solution of the problem lies in soliciting the aid of interested sportsmen," Mr. Einarsen declared. The sport is a very keen, one and requires skill and returns a greater thrill than anything we have with the exception of big game hunting. The seal is a sagacious animal and persecution leads to extreme wariness on their part. The fact that there is such an element of chance in seal hunting discourages any great effort to exterminate them by professional seal hunters.

While the original method of hunting seals was to approach them from the shore at low tide and shoot them with a heavy rifle of buckshot, the use of a semi-speed boat by sportsmen has added zest to the chase.

DRIVING YOUNG PEOPLE AWAY

Conservative Campaign Doing Untold Harm to Canada Says Eastern Paper

(Montreal Herald)

We wonder if the Conservative orators who talk so much about the emigration of Canadians to the United States ever pause to wonder what the effect of their speeches is on the younger generation in Canada?

They paint the United States as a land of opportunity and Canada as a land of decaying trade, and they picture a constant flow of enterprising and ambitious Canadians into the Republic to the south.

The result is to create a tendency towards the very thing which they deplore. The younger generation, listening to speeches of this character by a former Prime Minister and his supporters, wonder if they are not wasting their time by staying in a country which these leaders speak of in such doleful terms.

Inspiration Needed

How much better it would be if they were to inspire the younger generation of Canadians with faith in their country, and demonstrate to them the opportunities for expansion and enterprise which exist right here. Canada is a beautiful country, a country richly endowed with everything that makes for prosperity, a country which has made and is making great strides in modern progress and development. It is a land that will richly reward perseverance and enterprise; a land that will provide worthy careers for everyone of its sons. Furthermore, the United States provide no paradise in contrast with Canada, and mute evidence of this is the fact that in fifteen months ending June 30, 1925, no fewer than 52,946 Canadians domiciled in the United States returned to their own country.

Kind of Leaders

We need leaders in both political parties who will be a source of inspiration to their fellow countrymen, and it is greatly to be regretted that the leaders of one of our two great parties should have so lost the patriotic view of their responsibilities that by their zeal in efforts to belittle their opponents they have become recruiting agents for the United States.

PSYCHIC PARSON SEEING SPIRITS

Ghosts of Animals as Well as People and Also Spirit Photographs

LONDON, Oct. 2.—"We have seen ghosts of animals in this house and we have seen our cats see apparitions and rear up at them," Rev. C. L. Tweedale, vicar of Weston, who has been called "the psychic parson" professing a belief in the survival of animals after death, based on apparitions he has seen.

Mr. Tweedale gave some experiences on "his word of honor as a gentleman and a minister." He said his wife and mother had seen a white dog in a cupboard. "It was my aunt's dog," he said. "Twice an apparition of my aunt, accompanied by that of a large bird, appeared, and struck a gong in the hall. Once the apparition of the white dog bounded into the gong and made a sound. And it sprang at my wife and caused her to break a lamp she was carrying. The apparition of my aunt spoke to us in a tremendously loud voice which rang through the house." Mr. Tweedale has a number of "spirit photographs" of his wife, himself and his son, which show dim figures and "spirit faces."

RADIO CRAZE HAS SPREAD TO JAPAN

TOKYO, Oct. 2.—The radio craze has grown to such an extent in Japan that some of the middle school authorities in Tokyo have issued orders that students shall not "listen in" during certain hours of the evening, but shall devote these hours to their studies. The school heads found upon investigation that the youngsters were neglecting their school work in the evening to listen to the radio.

INDIAN LEADER NOT CHRISTIAN

Tells Missionary Conference He Finds More in Hinduism Than in Sermon on Mount

ARE NOT HEATHENS

Temporal Power Creates Impossible Barrier Against Success of Missionary Effort

At a recent conference of Calcutta missionaries Mahatma Gandhi, the great Hindu leader, addressed them, explaining why he was not a Christian.

Mr. Gandhi said that it was not generally known that his association with Christians—"not Christians so-called, but real Christians"—dated from 1888 or 1889, when as a lad he found himself in London. "That association," he continued, "has grown riper as years have rolled on. There was a time in my life when very sincere and intimate friends of mine had designs upon me, one of them a great and good Quaker, thinking that I was too good not to become a Christian. I was sorry to have disappointed him, but I know that he never left off praying for me. One missionary to South Africa writes every six months to me and asks 'How it is with you?' I have always told these friends that, so far as I felt, it was all well with me."

Not Convinced

In 1905, Mr. Gandhi said he had sought out one of the greatest Indian Christians, the late Kali Churn Banerjee. I told him "I have come to you as a seeker. . . but I came away not sorry, not dejected, not disappointed. But in one way I was sorry. I do not profess Christianity today—and I am here to tell you in all humility that for me Hinduism, as I find it, entirely satisfies my soul, fills my whole being and I find a solace in the Bhagavad-Gita, in the Upanishads, that I miss even in the Sermon on the Mount. When disappointment stares me in the face and all alone I see not one ray of light, I go back to the Bhagavad-Gita. I find a verse here and a verse there and I immediately begin to smile in the midst of overwhelming tragedies—and my life has been full of external tragedies—and if they have left no visible or no indelible scar upon me, I owe it all to the teachings of the Bhagavad-Gita."

Not Idolators

Turning from the story of his own spiritual pilgrimage, Mr. Gandhi directly addressed the missionaries present. "You, the missionaries," he said, "come to India thinking that you come to a land of heathens, of idolators, of men who do not know the true meaning of religion. One of the greatest of Christian divines, Bishop Heber, allowed himself to write those two lines, which have always left a sting upon me—'Every prospect pleases, man alone is vile.' I wish he had not written those lines. From my experience of the masses of India he is not vile, he is just as much a seeker after God as you and I are, possibly more so."

EDITORIAL WRITER HAS WRONG SLANT ON COAST

(Juneau Empire)

A Vancouver paper sees on account of the recent development in the Cassiar country, great good to come to Canada through the circumstance that receding ice has caused Glacier Bay to penetrate into Canadian territory. Which means that there is one Vancouver newspaper writer who ought to make a trip up the coast. The fact that Vancouver is a Canadian port is more closely association with Cassiar potentialities than the circumstance that Glacier Bay now extends into Canada, and Prince Rupert is not nearly as remote from Cassiar as Glacier Bay.

Notwithstanding that it was never contemplated when the English-Russian treaty was made a hundred years ago that Canada should have a seaport on the Pacific north of Dixon Entrance, Alaskans would be more than pleased if the Canadians would develop a large seaport at Glacier Bay. Under the terms of the boundary decision the waters of that estuary enter Canada and it would be a fine thing for the country if Canada would use them—if development were practicable.

"I think Lord Salisbury was literally true. The relevance of what I have just told you is that the Christians, the missionaries, who come today to India come also under the shadow, or, if you like, the protection of a temporal power; and it creates an impossible bar. If you give me statistics to show that so many orphans have been brought to Christianity, so many grown-up people, I will accept them, but I do not feel convinced thereby that that is your mission. In my humble opinion your mission is infinitely superior. You want to find the man in India and if I miss that receptivity, I miss that humanity, that ability, that willingness, on your part to identify yourself with the masses of India."

Mr. Gandhi also said that if Christ "was a convertible term with that which he felt to be the power within him, then he realized His presence."

LONG MOTORBOAT TRIP ACROSS THE CONTINENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—With only one portage of 400 miles across the continental divide, John Edwin Hoag and Frank S. Wilson have completed a trip across the continent by motorboat. The trip took almost exactly four months.

From Oregon the motorboat headed up the Columbia River was shipped over the northern range of the Rockies to Fort Benton, Mont., and there resumed the journey down the Missouri River into the Mississippi at St. Louis. Up the Missouri and the Illinois rivers to Ottawa, Ill., the motor boat chugged, then through the Chicago Drainage Canal into Lake Michigan, from where it was plain sailing to Montreal. The trip concluded down the Hudson.

LA ROSE MINE TUNNEL NEARLY FINISHED NOW

Intention of Company is to Ship
Ore This Winter From Promising
Alice Arm Property

Miles Donald of Alice Arm, president of the La Rose Mining Co. Ltd., is a visitor in the city on business having arrived from the north on the steamer Prince Rupert last night. He will return to Alice Arm on the Cardena Sunday evening.

Mr. Donald reports that 380 feet of the tunnel being driven on the La Rose mine to strike ore at 130 feet depth has been completed and it is expected the high grade ore will be reached with another 35 feet of tunnel. If this materializes and ore of the high value that was encountered in the shaft is opened up, it is the intention to start shipping at once and continue throughout the winter. Ore values found in the shaft on the vein ran 300 ounces of silver. Further mining from the shaft was impracticable on account of water. Mining may be carried out throughout the year from the tunnel which is of sufficient pitch to give good drainage. The ore will be rawhided during the winter down the mountain to the Dolley Varden Railway grade and teamed from there to Alice Arm.

The La Rose mine which lies in the Paul Klayduc Creek valley some seven miles from Alice Arm is controlled by Alice Arm and Prince Rupert men.

BLAME PLACED SHENANDOAH LOSS OF LIFE

Having no Parachutes was Like
Sending Ship to Sea Without Lifeboats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Before Coolidge's Aircraft Board, Col. W. E. Mitchell today placed responsibility for the Shenandoah disaster and failure of the PN9-1 to reach Hawaii, directly on the heads of the Navy Department.

Col. Mitchell said the sending of the Shenandoah to the Middle West was a "direct violation of the law" because in peace, land activities belong to the Army.

Arrangements for the PN9 plane flights looked like the work of "bungling amateurs."

Col. Mitchell severely criticised the work of arranging the equipment of the Navy contingent accompanying the MacMillan expedition.

Flagrant mistakes, Col. Mitchell said, made it impossible for air men to remain silent longer.

Col. Mitchell charged the Shenandoah was not equipped with parachutes and was "like sending a ship to sea without lifeboats."

Col. Mitchell said engineering data showed the PN9 planes could not reach Honolulu without refueling enroute, and no preparations had been made for this, and that planes sent into the Arctic were built for the tropics and along the Atlantic Coast "yet officers in charge were expected to give satisfactory service."

LAKEHURST, Oct. 2.—Lieut. Joseph B. Anderson weather expert on the dirigible Shenandoah, testified before the Naval Court of Inquiry, that Commander Lansdowne did not heed the advice to change the Shenandoah's course to take the south, half an hour before she was wrecked, because Anderson could not point to specific danger in the signals from the skies to warrant the change.

DEMOCRATS MAY CONTROL SENATE

They Think They are Almost
Sure to Win in 1926 Elections

EMBARASS COLLIDGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(By Canadian Press).—Democratic leaders profess to be highly encouraged over the prospects for gaining control of the Senate in the election of 1926. They say that as things stand now they are almost sure to win. They are less confident of gaining control of the House and point out that it is easily possible for them to gain the Senate and lose the House. The chief reason why this is so is that it so happens that a number of senators—republicans—will have to stand for re-election next year in normally democratic states. They were swept into office in 1920 in the landslide for President Harding and can hardly hope for reelection in 1926. This applies especially to Maryland, Missouri, Kentucky, Oklahoma and Arizona. The democrats hope to elect senators in those states to succeed republicans now in the Senate. In a number of other states, moreover, they hope to make gains.
