Local Totem Pole Raised on Fifth Avenue, New York, is Proving Centre of Interest

A totem pole from the Queen Charlotte Islands recently erected by the Canadian National Railways in front of the company's offices on Fifth Avenue has attracted a lot of attention in New York City. The New York Herald Tribune of December 20 commented on the pole as follows:

During a considerable history there have been a number of things on Fifth Avenue: parades, principally, and shops. The Irish have paraded on Fifth Avenue on March 17 for years; so have the police; also the firemen, and during the war years there was of course, an unlimited parade. At that time life on Fifth Avenue was just one procession after another.

Yesterday something came to Fifth Avenue which had never been there before. The Canadian National Railways was responsible for the innovation. The innovation was a totem pole. Never before had Fifth Avenue had a totem pole.

Census Figures Are Conservative.

Mr. McLennan's estimate presented to the city council this week gives the first intelligent idea of the population of Prince Rupert that has been forthcoming for some years. It is likely, however, that there are more people in Prince Rupert than the 6,464 shown in his report.

Mr. McLennan took on the work of census taking in addition to his regular duties as assessor and without extra emolument. His records cover only people who were living on city and other property that he was called up to inspect in course of his assessment work. This being the case, it may be expected that some people were missed in the count—perhaps, several hundred.

Taking Mr. McLennan's estimate as a basis, it may be assumed that the population of the city at the present time is just about 7,000. This seems to be a little more than a good many people thought.

Pulp and Paper Development Here.

That extensive timber cruising operations which have been going on this fall in the Kitsumkalum and Lakelse districts may result in the ultimate establishment of a pulp and paper industry in that region is the interesting suggestion that is now made. The district abounds in timber more suitable for pulp and paper manufacture than for any other purpose, and sooner or later undertakings along that line will undoubtedly be embarked upon.

With the raw material for pulp and paper gradually becoming depleted in other parts of the continent, it may not be many years before the manufacturers turn their eyes in this direction and start actual production. When that time comes, there may be several large plants started in the immediate vicinity of Prince Rupert in the interior, on the coast and on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

There is an abundance of raw material, the development of which would not only be greatly beneficial to the city and district but would also be in the best interests of the district timber stands. Pulp and paper manufacture has for some years now been recognized as the logical use for the greater part of the timber wealth of this territory.

In The Civic Election Arena.

With the municipal election scheduled to take place on January 14—two weeks from Thursday—it is now getting about time for the candidates for the mayoralty, five aldermanic seats, three school trustees and two police commissioners to be announcing themselves. So far only one definite announcement has been made—namely that of Co. S. P. McMordie for the mayoralty. People are beginning to wonder, especially in view of the rumors that have been going around lately—whether there will be anyone to oppose him.

It is desirable that the citizens should take a keen interest in municipal affairs but, during recent years, about the only time any such interest has been shown has been just immediately prior to the elections. Civic government is just as important to the people residing in the city as federal and provincial representation. Candidates should make their intentions known early instead of holding back until the last minute to see what "the other fellow" is going to do. It is to be hoped that a list of good names for the various offices will be placed before the electors and that this will be done early enough so that the citizens may have the opportunity of learning what the policies and aims of the various candidates may be, thus being enabled to exercise their franchise accordingly.

THREE KILLED AT CHRISTMAS DANCE

Quarrel Over Partners Followed by Shooting in South Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Three unidentified men were shot and killed last week as the climax of a Christmas dance at the Adonis Social club, a south Brooklyn resort.

The police state that the men came at midnight to the club, where dancing was going on. They were accompanied by girls and it is believed that a quarrel arose between the strangers and the dancers over choice of partners.

The triple crime was discovered when a policeman found one of the bodies lying in the street. He made his way to the dance hall and found the other two dead men lying amid broken furniture, which had apparently been wrecked in a terrific struggle. The hall was deserted. Residents of the neighborhood said that they had heard no shots nor any sounds of a struggle.

COMPILING DICTIONARY OF AMERICAN ENGLISH

Words Originated and with New Meanings Supplied on this Side of Atlantic Will be Included

CHICAGO, Dec. 30. — Call a man "awful," a play "awful" and a meal "awful" and you make use of a word moulded into its sense by New Englanders. In England they refer to the same group of dislikes by the word "frightful."

Add "bogus," "caucus," "germynder," "boom" and "buncombe" to your vocabulary and you have increased it by six purely American words, says Prof. William A. Craigie of the University of Chicago.

The professor came to Chicago from England, where he edited the Oxford dictionary, to compile a dictionary of American English which is to include only words that have originated in America and those that have had meanings supplied by American writers.

Need of Dictionary

While at work in England, Professor Craigie discovered that no serious effort had been made to trace the history of the whole vocabulary which had been in use in America from the coming of the first colonists.

"Early American writers and records, if cited at all," Professor Craigie points out, "were usually quoted for the use of some uncommon word or phrase, while modern writers are commonly cited only for some Americanism."

"The natural conclusion was that there was a need for a dictionary of a new kind—one of the American tongue as a whole."

The cooperation of laymen and students throughout the country will be secured in compiling the dictionary. The method consists in writing out on separate slips of paper, such passages from selected books as contain either unusual words or phrases, or good examples of the use of common words and phrases.

"Not only will the main stream be clearly mapped out," says Dr. Craigie, "but there will be many little tributaries and quiet backwaters to explore for those who delight in the byways of knowledge."

Special Studies

Special studies in the vocabulary of particular authors of definite periods, of types of literature, of areas of the country, of farming, mining and lumbering; the names of plants, trees, birds and fishes will be made by the same method of noting each item on a separate paper with clear indication of the source.

From these millions of slips the editors, under Dr. Craigie's direction, will begin the process of tabulation and compilation.

The place for slang, Professor Craigie says, is either on the tongue of those who like it or in a slang dictionary. He admits, however, that a small percentage of the slang of one generation will be the usual speech of the next and will in the end become a natural part of the written language.

To this extent he says it must be recognized in any dictionary, and one of American English will afford numerous examples of this rise and fall of words.

Attached to this morning's train arriving from the East was an International Correspondence School instruction car which will remain here for a few days for the benefit of local railway employees. J. Gill of Montreal is in charge of the car.

With the Gardena due for her annual overhaul, there will be a change of steamers within a week or so in the Union Steamship Co.'s local service. It is expected that the Catala will take the place of the Gardena on the Prince Rupert-Stewart run and that the Venture will replace the Catala in the Prince Rupert-Anyx cannery route.

Sidney Bazell-Jones will leave next week for San Francisco where he has accepted a position with a large accounting firm. On a recent visit in Frisco, he successfully passed examinations qualifying him as a chartered accountant there. Sid has been active in athletic and service club circles here for a number of years and his departure will be regretted by many friends.

C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. H. Nodden, having been delayed by fog and storms coming up the coast, arrived in port at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Passengers for Prince Rupert included Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Keeley, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Baldwin, D. B. Carswell, J. H. Hunter, Mrs. E. Edwards, W. Spiller, P. M. Ray, C. O. Montgomery, Miss Adeline Christensen and Mrs. Duff; for Stewart, J. Crawford and N. Belysis.

PATENAUDE RALLIES HIS DEFEATED ARMY

OTTAWA, Dec. 30. — Hon. E. L. Patenaude would now gather together the pieces of the balloon which burst on October 29 last. He has sent out a call to the candidates whom he so successfully led to defeat on that date to meet in convention for the purpose of solidifying their position as the new Nationalist movement and again to serve notice to Mr. Meighen that he is not the man for Quebec.

As a counter-demonstration to this Patenaude activity there is the liveliness of Senator David L'Esperance, who is seeking to reconcile the Quebec people to the Conservative party, and who, it is said, cherishes ministerial ambitions should Mr. Meighen be called upon to form a government.

Between the cabinet aspirations of Messrs. L'Esperance, Fauteux, Monty and Bellay, on the one hand, and the attacks of Mr. Patenaude on the other, the fortunes of the Conservatives in Quebec, according to local comment, will be subjected to some interesting vicissitudes.

The Mining Laws of this Province are more liberal and the fees lower than those of any other Province in the Dominion, or any colony in the British Empire. Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees.

Absolute Titles are obtained by developing such properties, the security of which is guaranteed by Crown Grants.

Full information together with Mining Reports and Maps, may be obtained gratis by addressing—

THE HON. THE MINISTER OF MINES

N.B. — Practically all British Columbia Mineral Properties upon which development work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C. Reports of the Geological Survey of Canada, Pacific Building, Vancouver, are recommended as valuable sources of information.

Mrs. P. Stephen sailed last evening on the Gardena for a two week visit in the south.

Miss Adeline Henriksen, who has been holidaying with relatives in Vancouver, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this afternoon.

One of the most enthusiastic send-offs ever given a bridal couple in Prince Rupert was that which was accorded Mr. and Mrs. Cecil G. Nason when they sailed for the south on the Gardena yesterday afternoon following their marriage earlier in the day. There was a host of friends at the dock to see them off and wish them happiness and prosperity in their wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Nason will proceed to California for their honeymoon and will later return to Vancouver where they will reside.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e. carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to 100 head.

BRINGING UP FATHER

THIS WOMAN STILL NEEDS HER HAIRPIN

Declares She Will Never be Caught Again Without One

LONDON, Dec. 30. — Even in these days of shingled locks the hairpin remains a woman's indispensable tool in mechanical emergencies.

Mrs. Elliott Lynn, the airwoman who was lost in a fog for several hours while making a solo flight to qualify for her pilot's certificate, has admitted that she almost regretted her shingled coiffure when she was forced to land and borrow a hairpin to make a connection in the ignition system of her aeroplane.

"I was a dispatch rider for the old flying corps and drove for the navy in France during the war, and during all that time I never was caught without a hairpin, and I never will be again," she declared firmly.

The test, which includes the cutting five figures of eight at 600 feet and landing within 50 yards of a set mark, will be taken again by Mrs. Lynn, as it was through no fault of her own that she did not succeed.

Mrs. Lynn, after leaving the London Flying club at Edgware, ascended to 6,000 feet as required, passing through a thick bank of fog. When she came down again she found herself over strange ground. She had neither compass nor map, and, being unable to see the sun, took the wrong direction.

Mrs. Lynn does not see any reason why women should not take up flying as a profession, and feels that there should be room in the commercial world for women pilots who "love the game."

Little of Contentious Nature on Agenda so Far

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL IS GROWING

Total Membership Now Nearly 36,000 with 3,457,597 Acres Signed

EDMONTON, Dec. 30. — A total of 5,192 new members have signed contracts with the Alberta wheat pool between January 1 and December 15, 1925, according to a statement issued this week from the head office of the pool in Calgary. This increase in membership represents an additional area of 501,707 acres signed up to the pool during this time.

On December 31, 1924, the membership for the pool was reported to be 30,711, while at December 15, 1925, this had risen to 35,903. The total acreage signed up to the pool had increased in the same time from 2,952,890 acres to 3,457,597 acres. Officials of the pool are very gratified that the drive for additional membership, which has been in progress for the past few months, has been attended by such successful results.

PROTEST METHODS OF SECURING CONVICTIONS

Hotel Keepers at Head of Lakes Allege False Pretences

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 30. — Hotel keepers at the head of the lakes, it is said, may appeal to the Hotel-keepers' Association of Ontario for protection against operatives in the employ of the Ontario Government Liquor License department, registering at standard licensed hotels under assumed names and inducing persons in the employ of hotels to secure liquor for them in order to secure convictions under an amended section of the O.T.A.

The action is being taken, it is stated, because of the arrest and conviction before a local magistrate of a bell-boy from the Prince Arthur hotel, owned and operated by the Canadian National railways, for obtaining liquor. The boy's evidence in the court was to the effect that the men urged him to procure a bottle of liquor. The boy secured a forty-ounce bottle from a taxi-driver, he said, and was given a fifty-cent tip by the men, who afterwards had him arrested. The lad was fined $200 and costs and thirty days in prison. Friends have appealed the case.

A Fort William doctor was also sentenced to jail under what friends declare as evidence secured by false pretences.

THESE RUSSIANS NEVER HAD BATH

IRKUTSK, Siberia, Dec. 29. — Government sanitary inspectors have discovered several hundred miles from here a large community of Russians who have never washed or bathed and who have never used water for any other purpose except to drink. When the inspectors tried to induce the natives to bathe, there was almost a riot. The first man who was compelled to bathe was reported to have died of fright.

The members of the community, who live in great isolation and under the most primitive conditions, had never even washed their clothes or their cooking and eating utensils.

RETURN OF FOREIGNERS TO YOKOHAMA IS SLOW

TOKYO, Dec. 30. — The destruction of Yokohama by the 1923 earthquake drove many foreigners from that port. There were but a few hundred left after the catastrophe. The progress of construction work, however, caused many to return, and at the end of October it was estimated there were more than 3,500 foreigners living in Yokohama. This is less than one-half of the number who resided there at the time of the earthquake.

SPORT CHAT

Mild weather which has been prevailing so far throughout the north has delayed the starting of the skating season and hockey schedules at various points where by this time of the year, the sport is usually well under way. At most of the places the rinks are still wet and outdoor lakes and ponds have had little more than a skim of ice upon them. The advent of Jack Frost is being awaited with a good deal of impatience at such places as Alice Arm, Smithers, Burns Lake, Vanderhoof and Prince George.

The finish of the first half of the basketball schedule at Anyox found a winner in only one league—namely the Ladies' where the Mine Girls won. In the Intermediate League, the Concentrator and High School are tied while, in the Senior League, the Elks, by winning two straight games at the very end, upset the dogs and made it all even with four wins for each team. With the situation such as it is, there will be a great deal of interest attached to basketball when schedules resume after the New Year in the smelter town.

YEAR'S MINING MAKES RECORD

Total Value of Production Was $61,491,600 as Against $48,704,604 Last Year

VICTORIA, Dec. 30.—All previous records for annual mineral production in the Province of British Columbia were broken during 1925, according to the preliminary estimate of the year's production just issued by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines and Provincial Secretary, and based upon figures compiled by John D. Galloway, Provincial Mineralogist.

It is estimated that the total monetary value of the mineral production of the Province for the calendar year 1925 will be approximately $61,491,600.

This is a record output for the mining industry of the province and is a large increase over the previous year of 1924 when aggregate production was valued at $48,704,604. The actual increase amounts to $12,786,996, or 26.2 per cent. The increased output is mainly due to increased quantities of several of the products of the industry, and partly due to increased metal prices. The estimated production of the various metals and minerals for 1925 as compared with the previous year of 1924 is as follows:

All Deductions Made

In the above table the estimated quantities of metals for 1925 are the amounts of refined metals recovered by treatment processes of the various ores, whether treated in British Columbia or outside the province. All deductions for treatment and slag losses have therefore been made.

The prices used in calculating the various metals are—for gold, the world's standard price of $20.67 an oz.; for silver and copper—the estimated average price of these metals on the New York market, and for lead and zinc, the average price on the London market converted to cents a lb. by using the average rate of sterling exchange. In former years the New York metal market price has been used in valuing the lead production for the province; similarly for zinc the average St. Louis price has been used. As all lead and zinc ore and concentrates are bought and sold in British Columbia on the London prices of these metals, it is considered that these prices should be used in order to obtain a correct valuation.

Price of Lead

The average lead price in the New York market is nearly always considerably higher than the London price, owing to the United States tariff on lead and zinc ores. The London price is the recognized world market price, whereas the New York price is an artificial one applicable only to the United States. The estimated lead production of 236,408,000 pounds if valued at the average New York price for the year would have a valuation of $21,418,564, or an increase of $2,836,890 as compared with the valuation given in the above production table. The average London price for the year for zinc (December estimated) is slightly higher than the St. Louis price, the difference being approximately a quarter cent a pound. By using the London price for the provincial zinc production, instead of the St. Louis price, an increase of $254,878 is obtained in the valuation.

The above production table, Mr. Sloan points out, shows that the largest increase in metal production was in lead, followed by zinc and then copper. The large increases in lead and zinc production are due to the increased output of the smelter and refinery of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd., at Trail; the bulk of the production coming from the company's Sullivan Mine at Kimberley, and of the remainder from the treatment of customs ores and concentrates.

Increase at Anyox

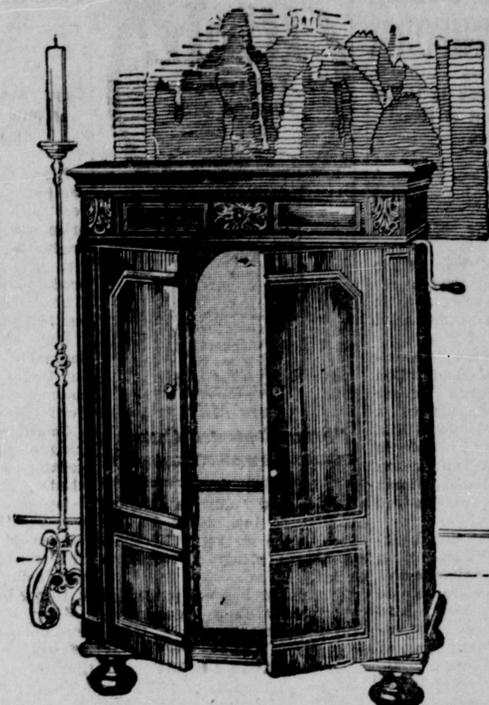

The increased production of copper due to increases from the Granby Company's mine, mill and smelter at Anyox, and the Britannia Company's mine at Britannia Beach, and to the commencement of operations in August of the Allenby Copper Company's mine and mill near Princeton. Offsetting these increases, there was a large decrease in copper output from the Rossland mines of the Consolidated Company, which were not producing appreciably during the year. The estimated production in 1925 shows an increase of 6,957,607 lbs. as compared with 1924. The average price of copper on the New York market for the year 1925 (December estimated) is 14.98 cents a lb., which is nearly a cent a lb. higher than the average of 13.024 cents a lb. for 1924. During the year 1925 the price fluctuated considerably, going up to 14.3 cents a lb. and then declining. The outlook is for a price level of about 14½ cents for the year 1926.

Mr. Sloan points out that although the production of placer gold in 1925 was slightly less than 1924, the year was a very active one in placer development and testing of low grade deposits of gravel. An interesting feature of the year's placer mining was the successful operation of the Kafue Development Company's dredge near Barkerville, which made an output of gold valued at $100,000.

Lode gold shows a decrease of $694,004 as compared with 1924. This is accounted for by a greatly decreased production from the Rossland mines, which were non productive during most of the year.

Minister Satisfied

Mr. Sloan expressed his satisfaction at the substantial increase in coal production in 1925, as compared with 1924, the increase amounting to approximately 389,638 long tons. The large increase in output was from the Crows Nest Pass district, where over three times as much coal was produced as in the preceding year. The mines in this district were closed during a large part of 1924 owing to labor troubles, but have since been reopened, and the output was very much less than normal. Amicable arrangements have now been made with labor, lost markets have been regained, and the industry is now in a healthy condition in the Crows Nest district. A decrease in production of coal occurred in 1925 in the Nicola-Princeton district, and a very slight decrease in the Vancouver Island District. Competition from foreign crude oil is still keenly felt by the British Columbia has steadily increased with but few yearly setbacks. Thirty years ago, in 1895, the province only produced minerals to the value of $5,643,042, and even ten years ago in 1915, the production was less than half that of the present year, being only $29,447,508.

"The year 1925 has, however, been an important one, not only for a record production, but also for the large amount of development, exploration and prospecting that has been carried out. Production in any one year is largely the result of previous development, so that to have a healthy industry, development and prospecting must keep pace with production. It may be conservatively said that in the year 1925 a greater amount of real development has been done than in any previous year in the history of the province and much of this development has been satisfactory in adding substantial new ore reserves to the industry. A large number of prospects have been bought or optioned and more or less development work done on them. Prospecting has been fairly active and some new discoveries have been reported. The movement which has taken place in acquiring and developing prospects which have lain dormant for years, will be a great incentive to still further prospecting next year," said Mr. Sloan.

CHANGE OF COLOR ARMY UNIFORM

This is Contemplated in United States on Account of Khaki Shortage

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. — A careful survey of American resources for the manufacture of khaki breeches has convinced army officials that if it became necessary to put a force of two million men into the field in less than eight months, most of them would have to fight in their shirt tails.

Faced by this appalling possibility, the industrial mobilization wing of the national defense planning machinery started a study of its own. It found that it would be entirely possible to completely uniform two million men from head to foot in fifteen days, provided blue cloth instead of khaki was used.

The trouble with the khaki outfit is that not enough cloth of that color is in ordinary civilian use. There are ample stocks of blue and gray, both wool and cotton fabric. The result has been the working out of a tentative blue training uniform which would be supplied in ample volume for a mobilization, to be discarded as units completed their preliminary preparation and moved out for final training near the zone of operations.

By that time complete khaki outfits with tan leather trappings would be ready for them, giving them the necessary degree of low visibility in the field. The contemplated blue training uniforms would consist of a four button blouse, dressed with red shoulder knots to give a military touch, blue cloth overseas caps; blue breeches, tan canvas leggings of the facing variety and black shoes. Tan shoes would be preferable, but the sur-

FLOUR PRICE IS ON RISE

Eggs Are Down on Account of Mild Weather—Tangerines Almost Over

Flour has advanced 50 cents per barrel recently and the present outlook portends that the price will continue to creep up gradually. Consequent upon the rise in flour, wheat and wheat products have also advanced. Wheat has advanced 20 cents per 100 pounds or $4 per ton.

Eggs are down 10 cents per dozen due to the mild weather and the excess number of pullets coming in. Butter, lard and cheese prices remain firm.

Cauliflower will soon be a thing of the past also bothhouse tomatoes are pretty nearly finished.

Jap oranges are practically over and the last shipment of the season is on the way. This fruit will be higher in price probably selling at around $1.00 and $1.10 per box.

Sugar is steady and from present indications the sugar market will remain firm for some time.

From present indications the tea and coffee market is going to advance rapidly, due, it is thought, to an over-estimate of the crop.
