FRED STORK NOMINATED AT LIBERAL CONVENTION TO CONTEST RIDING

Cyclonic Storm Hits Montreal and Causes Half Million Damage

One life lost and number injured when city is struck by electric disturbance and deluge of rain

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—Preceded by an hour of semi-darkness a rain and electric storm, which almost amounted to a cloudburst, descended upon Montreal yesterday afternoon. Trees were uprooted and the windswept streets became literally streams of water.

The storm was of cyclonic proportions causing much confusion and a general stoppage of business in the city. One man was killed and a number of persons were injured while the property damage is estimated at not less than half a million dollars in the district.

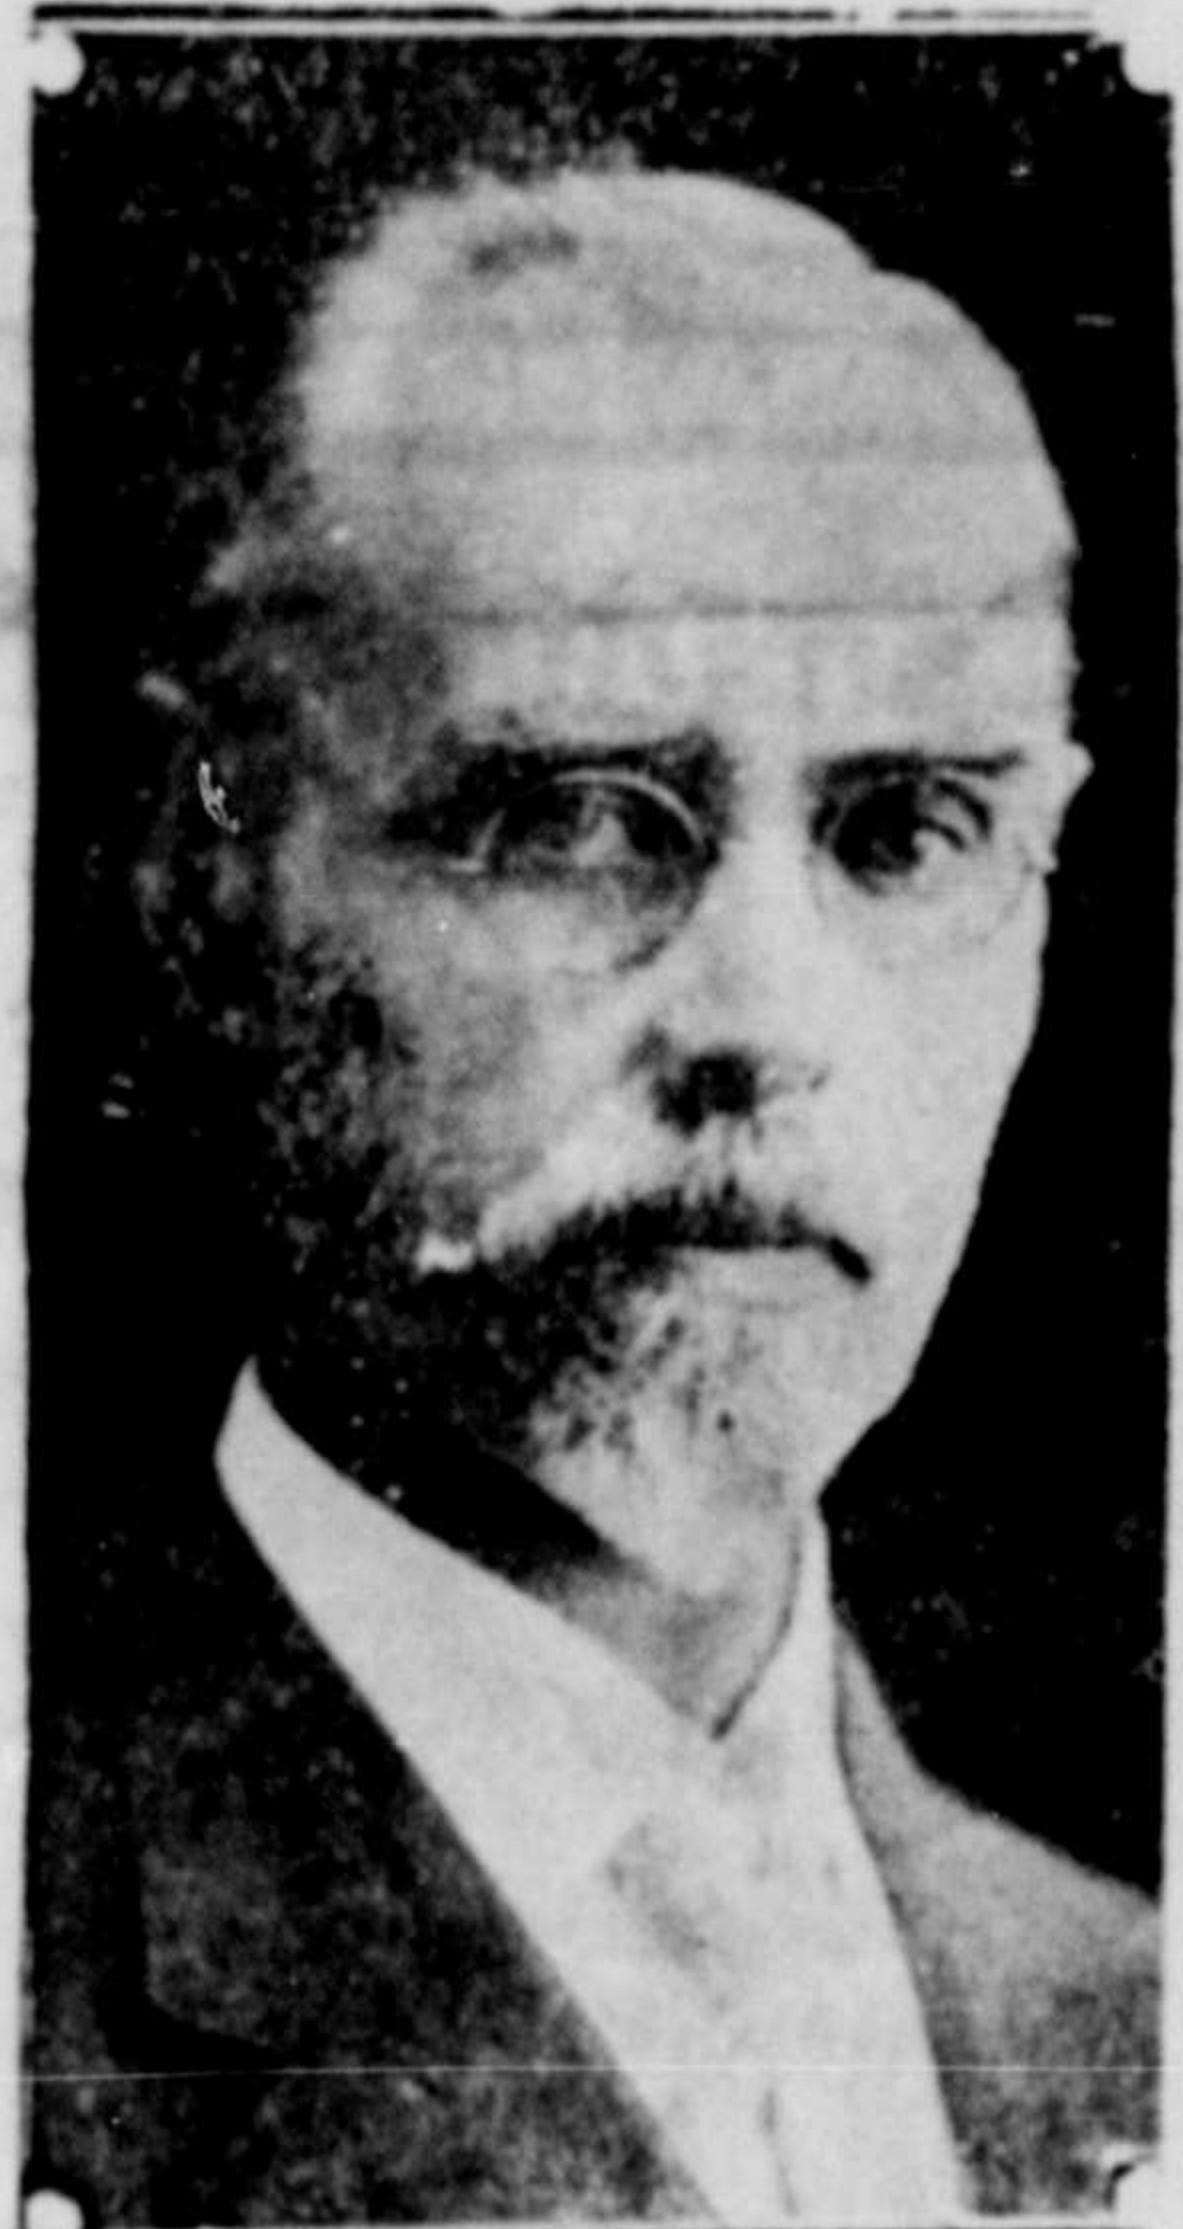

Outside the city, buildings were wrecked and orchards and growing crops destroyed.

Sharks Followed Wrecked Plane Which Sailed Fifty Miles a Day Until Picked up by a Submarine

HONOLULU, Sept. 12.—Commander Rodgers issued an official statement telling of events connected with the plane that was missing for 9 days before being picked up by a submarine, states that he was 50 miles from the fuel ship when forced down. He made a perfect landing and after alighting rigged a sail from the fabric of the lower wing. In this way he made 50 miles a day, and when rescued had sailed approximately 400 miles.

Seaplane survivors tell a story of sharks following the disabled craft most of the time. "The big fellows trailed us day after day, always waiting for a choice bit of human flesh," one member stated.

Stork Was Nominated at Liberal Convention Held Here Last Night

Delegates from interior points say that good majorities will be rolled up for nominee of party

Fred Stork was last night nominated to contest the constituency of Skeena in the Liberal interest for the third time. The nomination was unanimous, no other name being mentioned. Olof Hanson of Smithers, presided after being elected president of the Skeena District Liberal Association, prior to that the chair being occupied by Colonel McMordie, who was chosen vice-president.

After the convention the delegates, the majority of whom were from out of town points, were the guests of the local Liberal Association at a banquet in the St. Regis Cafe, where a number of congratulatory addresses were given and delegates from a number of centres expressed the opinion that Mr. Stork would secure good majorities in their districts.

Out of 148 voting centres 120 were represented at the meeting, either by proxy or by delegate. Fifty delegates were actually present.

The first duty of the gathering was to organize, which they did officers being elected as follows:
Hon. Pres., Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.
Hon. Vice-President, Hon. John Oliver.
President, Olof Hanson.
1st Vice-president, Col. S. J. McMordie.
2nd Vice-president, Pete Corrigan.
Sec.-Treas., H. F. Glassey.

Executive to consist of the presidents of all local associations.

Prior to nomination a resolution was passed pledging the nominee to carry out as far as possible the wishes of local organizations.

The nomination of Fred Stork was moved by H. F. Kergin of Alice Arm, who said that the member had done a lot of good work. While in baseball terms it was not always possible to make a hit, Mr. Stork's batting average had been very high. He believed the convention would do well to nominate him and the district to elect him. The nomination was seconded by S. J. Mayer of Smithers.

Some discussion then arose in connection with the Yukon telegraph line and a few local matters in various places in which delegates were interested and Mr. Stork was asked several questions. A motion by L. W. Patmore that nominations close was withdrawn and every opportunity was given for discussion before Mr. Stork was declared to be the nominee of the party.

Mr. Stork, who was received with enthusiasm, thanked the convention for the nomination and promised to do his best to deserve the confidence that had been placed in him by the electors who had now chosen him as their standard bearer three times. The delegates then adjourned to the St. Regis Cafe where a sumptuous repast was provided.

Dinner Speeches

At the dinner President Hanson again welcomed the delegates and said he was pleased to see that all the sections of the constituency were represented. He liked everyone to have a say and then when they had expressed themselves to work together and elect their man.

H. F. Kergin urged unity of purpose and determination to the purpose and determination to (continued on page two)

TERRACE, Sept. 12.—Specimens of galena brought from Thornhill Mountain to Terrace and exhibited at the office of Fred Nash, land surveyor, are attracting a lot of attention here. The discovery was made by William Dahl, a veteran prospector. Assays of the ore show values of $3.60 in gold, 36.5 ounces in silver and 64 per cent lead.

The specimens are said to be the finest ever found in the district, and it is thought will bring Thornhill Mountain to the attention of mining men.

English Is Most Important Study.

The study of the English language and the training which will give the ability to express clearly is one of the first essentials of education.

Clear writing is a part of the process of clear thinking. Expression is the great aim of life. Some people express themselves with a pencil or brushes in art, others in music, others in business and again others in the mechanical trades.

Ability to understand the writings of others and cultivation of ability to write oneself is the aim of a good deal of our education or should be.

Abolition Of Capital Punishment.

When a person commits a brutal crime in this country he is tried by a jury and hanged. In New South Wales a similar custom has prevailed, but today this is changed and the murderer's life is not summarily snuffed out but he is left to languish in prison for the rest of his days unless he can manage to escape.

It is claimed that hanging is vengeful and brutal. It is argued that the committal of a crime is no reason for the state committing another crime. Opinion is divided on the subject, but the tendency of the day is rather toward abolition.

Frost Comes On The Prairies.

Frost is reported in the prairie provinces. There was a former frost which was confined to a few districts and was so slight it had little effect on the grain. The wheat is now all safe and is rapidly being threshed and sent to market.

Visitors to the prairies and to interior B.C. have complained of the cold evenings, something that does not bother us here.

Six Week Session Is Proposed.

A six week session of the Legislature is proposed this year. It is thought that all the necessary business can be concluded in that time. As a matter of fact it could be done in half the time if everybody would get down to business at once instead of trying to make political capital.

Anti-Smuggling Boosts Revenue.

The result of the anti-smuggling treaty with the United States has been that the customs revenue is boosted. There was an actual increase in the amount collected in August of something like three million dollars. Of course it is hard on the smuggler, but the nation benefits.

win. J. Mason Adams of Smithers, said that he was glad that most of the snags had been pretty well ironed out. He urged that no grievances be harbored but that now the convention was over and their man in the field they should unite to elect him.

S. Goodwin of Burns Lake said he represented the extreme left wing of the Liberal party. He was a radical. He saw no hope of anything in the Conservatives. The lakes country was the biggest and best part of the constituency and they would like to see their member oftener.

L. H. Kenny told of being instrumental in forming the first Liberal Association in Terrace. Liberalism was not strong in those days. He prophesied that Fred Stork would poll a good vote in Terrace and he hoped they would be able to give him a good majority there.

L. Maro of Kispiox wished Mr. Stork luck in the election, but hoped to see him in the district oftener.

Barney Mulvaney of Burns Lake spoke of Mr. Stork as the future member. He hoped that the Government telegraph line would not go out of business. The line trail was useful for big game hunters and prospectors and if the line went out of business the trail would be closed.

W. Little of Woodcock said he had been a Conservative but he did not see how any person could vote anything but Liberal and live in the Skeena district. His district voted fifty per cent Liberal at the last election and he thought they would vote one hundred per cent Liberal at the election now coming.

Captain Willman told of the difficulties they met at Usk, largely as a result of excessive freight rates. He thought the best thing they could have done was to nominate Mr. Stork but he urged that the member stop off there sometimes.

C. Harr of Ootsa Lake said they would help the Liberals provided the Liberal Government would help them.

R. E. Allen of Hanall said he was pleased the convention had been so successful. Now what they had to do was to stick together and bury any differences they may have and the result would be satisfactory on October 29.

S. J. Mayer of Smithers said now they had had a successful convention the only thing to do was to work together for their man. They could not expect to satisfy everyone. There were bound to be differences of opinion but they should bury the petty stuff remembering they had one great cause to fight for.

Fred Brown of Anyox said the boys there had already started to work and things looked favorable for Stork.

Pete Corrigan promised to make his speech to Mr. Stork personally when he came to his district later.

Stork or Bushby

L. W. Patmore said he had been listening with pleasure to promises of majorities up the line. The issue was clearly defined. It was Stork or Bushby and the Conservative party and Sir Henry Drayton. It was no good for Mr. Bushby to say he would go to Ottawa and chastise Mr. Drayton. Drayton said: "Why build the elevator at Prince Rupert? Send the wheat to Vancouver." Drayton will be a cabinet minister if the Conservatives are elected.

them an opportunity to ship grain, but when Conservative cabinet ministers said they could not grow grain in the interior of B.C. and that the country was no good, they were bound to vote the other way in self-preservation. The only thing to do was to vote for Stork.

James Bacon, who held proxies from Skidegate, said he had had a wire to support the best man. He was going to wipe back urging that they get behind and support Fred Stork.

Athol Fraser said they simply had to send Fred Stork back to Ottawa if only to continue to worry Sir Henry Thornton. That gentleman had said Stork never gave him a minute's peace.

John Dybhavn said he fully realized what Mr. Stork had to contend with at Ottawa. Personally he would not have the job for anything, but as long as Stork was willing to put up with it they should get behind him.

Candidates Speak

Fred Stork, who was the last speaker, said he keenly appreciated the honor done him. He had been a Liberal all his life. The tactics of his opponents were to tell around the district that "Stork is not able to carry even Prince Rupert." In the first election he had had 310 majority. In the second contest with Colonel Peck as his opponent—and a better man never lived, a man with a war record—yet still his majority in Prince Rupert was 240. The statement was now made that he had lost out in the town. "We shall see on election night, but I believe then my majority will be anywhere from three to five hundred."

The Conservatives claimed they would sweep the country, said Mr. Stork. He asked that they analyze the situation. In the new House there would be 245 members and it would take 125 to give a working majority. Today Mr. Meighen had 50 members, so he must add 75 to the number in order to command a majority. Where would he get them? Would it be in Quebec? No. Mr. King would still hold Quebec intact. The Liberals might lose one or two in Nova Scotia, but he did not think so. In New Brunswick they would make gains. Prince Edward Island could not lose more than one of the three members.

The Liberals would improve their strength in Ontario because last election there were 26 Progressives and they would practically go out of existence. Liberals would get at least half of those 26 seats.

If the Conservatives could not get the majority in the East, then they must do so in the West. But it is conceded that no high tariff party can carry the prairies, and Liberals only had three seats in British Columbia in the last House. Dr. King is sure of his seat with a larger majority than before, so where is Mr. Meighen to make his necessary 75 members to make up his majority?

Mr. Stork said that the condition at Ottawa of late had been unbearable. The Conservatives voted against the budget because the tariff was too low and the Progressives because it was too high. Now they were attacked because of their inability to do things. He spoke of the huge debt they had inherited and of the savings that had been made. The country had lost $18,000,000 a year through the Conservative government issuing tax-free bonds.

Progress of Country

Mr. Stork spoke of the progress the country was making. He spoke of the huge number of autos at the Telkwa barbeque, which indicated prosperity. With courage they would march forward and excel what they had done before. Mr. Meighen tried to raise a smoke screen over the acts of the former Conservative government.

Mr. Stork told of the huge sums that had been lost to the country by that government, and then when they asked for an elevator for Prince Rupert they were told it was a political elevator. Even today it was being referred to as one of the sins of the Mackenzie King government.

The speaker showed how H. H. Stevens, a member of the last Conservative government and a man who would be in the government if Conservatives were again returned, had opposed the policy which would benefit fishermen on this coast. If a Conservative member was sent from this district he would be a follower of Meighen and Drayton. He would follow those leaders blindly and the policy of Meighen, Drayton and Harry Stevens of Vancouver would prevail.

Mr. Meighen was a man who was never generous. He would never admit that the government was right, and yet they must be right sometimes. He was soured because six provinces out of the nine never gave him a supporter. It had poisoned his disposition and his physical being. On the other hand, they were all proud of Premier King and of his ability. Insurrection was rampant in the Tory party, but Liberals were united behind their leader. He said he could tell them what was going to happen. They were sure of a glorious victory and Premier King would go back with a majority over all of twenty to thirty.

Prince Rupert Shut Out Anyox in Second Baseball Game; New Pitcher Was Star for Locals

Fanning seventeen men while he allowed only three hits during the entire nine innings, W. Stickney, Prince Rupert's new southpaw hurler, assisted by good work on the part of his field when such was necessary, shut out the visiting Anyox baseball team yesterday by a score of six to nothing. This evens up the series with Anyox and there will be a great deal of interest in the third and last game that is to take place tomorrow afternoon.

As far as the Prince Rupert team was concerned, it played its best game of the Fair Week series but the Anyox players were not up to the form shown in the opening game on Thursday. Ross' pitching was not effective, nor was the fielding as good as the day preceding, though the visitors did save a lot of hot ones in the infield and in the fifth pulled off a snappy double play.

Having nine hits off Ross while the visitors could only touch Stickney for three, the locals were fully deserving of their victory, though, had it not been for the fact that Anyox was unable to get runs on one or two occasions when men were in a threatening position on bases, the score might not have been a shut-out. In the fourth and sixth innings, Stickney pitched himself, by the strike-out method, out of what bore the appearance of becoming tight corners. Anyox made eight errors and Prince Rupert three. The bright sunshine made it difficult for a while at third base and short, and this was responsible for some of the errors.

There was no scoring in the first five innings. Prince Rupert started in the sixth, when two runs and two hits were made; also two errors by Anyox. In the seventh Vic Menzies made a two-bagger, but there was no follow-up and he was put out at the home plate on a fielding choice. A series of errors resulted in another run for Prince Rupert in the eighth, and, with Ross weakening in the ninth, the locals got two two-baggers, a safe hit and three more runs.

Anyox—Brown, ss; Smith G; Sheen, 2b; Gody, c; McKeown, 1b; McDougall, 1b; Ross, p; Beaulieu, rf (Deane after the sixth); McColl, lf.

P. Laporte was umpire of balls and strikes, and Jack Ratchford of bases.

The largest Fair Week attendance on the Acropolis Hill grounds this year witnessed the game.

BASEBALL GAME DREW GOOD CROWD FRIDAY

Paid Admissions to Match Yesterday, Exclusive of Season Tickets, Were 365

The Prince Rupert - Anyox baseball game drew the biggest gate so far this week to the Acropolis Hill grounds, 365 persons paying admissions. The Prince Rupert-Ocean Falls football game should draw another big crowd this afternoon and the final baseball game tomorrow between Anyox and Prince Rupert will also be an attraction.

So far the total gate to the sports ground this year is not as large as last. By the end of the games, however, it will probably be much larger.

INDIAN FOOTBALL

Port Simpson retains possession of the cup for native football competition in connection with the fair. There was to have been a game yesterday afternoon between Port Simpson and Skeena Crossing but no team from the latter point put in an appearance.

GYMNASIUM PLANNED FOR SALVATION ARMY

Work of Remodelling Building is Proceeding to Make it Suitable for Young People's Work

It is being remodelled to take care of all the young people's activities and it is hoped to be able to complete the work by making it useful for gymnastic purposes. The remodelling is well in hand.

Sport Chat

With the Fair Week baseball and football games ringing down the curtain on the outdoor sporting season in Prince Rupert, the next thing to think about will be the indoor sports of winter. Some preliminary thought will shortly be given to basketball but it will be a few weeks yet before the organization gets under way. In the meantime, prospects are that

The Association have, as their special object in view this year, the placing of a piano in the school and a drive is to be started immediately to raise funds for that purpose. The funds left from the 1924 Xmas tree fund, some $28, have been turned over by the Xmas tree executive toward the piano fund.

Authorities permitting the Association plan to hold a Tag Day on Fall Fair Day, and arrangements are under way for a whist drive and dance to be held about the end of the month.

It was also decided to place contribution boxes in the class rooms in order that the children might be given a chance to do their bit in helping out the Piano Fund.

MASQUERADE LAST NIGHT

Final Windup of Fair Was Attended by 573 Persons Besides Ticket Holders

The masquerade ball, closing the fair last night, did not attract as large a crowd as usual, although 573 persons paid admission besides the holders of season tickets and passes.

The masquerade itself was disappointing because there were so few people in costume. There seemed to be a general misunderstanding among the public about it being such an affair.

The winners were: Mrs. P. J.
McCormack, best dressed lady, as Dahlia Queen; Harry McMaster,
best comic costume, as Charlie Chaplin. Judges were members of the Fair Board with Miss S.
A. Mills and Mr. W. D. Vance.

Music was provided by Balagono's orchestra and dancing was generally enjoyed until after midnight. S. D. Macdonald and Ben Self were masters of ceremonies.

During the evening checks in the scholarship contest were awarded as well as prizes to several of the exhibitors. Ben Self, president of the Fair Board,
made the presentations. Miss Laura Frizzell received a pass-book showing $500 to her credit to be used for scholastic purposes. This was the grand prize.
Ten per cent commission prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Adeline Henriksen, $63.35; Miss Katherine Harvey, $28.40; Miss

DISTRESSING KIDNEY TROUBLE

Terrible affliction quickly relieved by "Fruit-a-lives".

Mrs.
ALBERT
YOUNG

"Eight years ago I was laid up with inflammatory rheumatism,
scarcely able to move hand or foot.
There was Kidney Trouble, miserable indigestion and liver difficulties. As soon as I began to use
"Fruit-a-lives", I could see an improvement. I was relieved of my Constipation and Liver trouble, and have been 100% better of Rheumatism and Kidney Disease"
—Mrs. Albert Young, 39 N. Aspland St., Worcester, Mass.

"Fruit-a-lives" combine the concentrated essence of luscious fruits with valuable tonics. They restore the kidneys and liver to normal action, increase the flow of gastric juices, and make the digestion
complete and natural again. 25c

THE exhibition is over and the people are going away, and now there's nothing to do but carry on like we used to do before.

IF people worked as hard as they think they do, what successes we should be able to record.

NONE so blind as an umpire,
unless it is a referee.

THE queer thing about this political campaign is that people on both sides seem to think they are right.

IT'S useless to hunt among the grass for a grass widow. Go up street and you will see her looking in at the shop windows.

IF you wish to think of auto horns, talk about Hong Kong.

THE way to cope with the yellow peril is to treat Orientals
white.

TOO much attention is apt to cause people to be puffed up. It is the same with mosquito bites.

THE apple may have been responsible for the trouble in

seems to cause the friction around here.

little absent treatment.

I ruminate upon the ways
I might have had some fun.

concerned, in arranging for the visits of the various teams, particularly with respect to accommodation. He asked the visitors to express candidly their opinions as to the treatment that had been accorded them and to submit their suggestions for improvements.

Opinions of Visitors

J. McSwan, manager of the Ocean Falls football team, had no complaint to make. "We have had the best time this trip that we ever had in Prince Rupert,"
he stated. As far as the Ocean Falls football team was concerned, arrangements could not have been better.

J. Cody, manager of the Anyox baseball team, said that there had been some slip-up at first as regarded the accommodation of the Anyox players, but that had been squared away and everybody was happy now. Any-ox could be counted upon, he said, to co-operate in the staging of inter-town games. Mr.
Cody suggested that arrangements should be made to meet visiting teams when they arrived in the city.

George Hill, president of the Football Association, said the Fair Board had done everything in its power to make satisfactory arrangements for accommodation, and it was not the fault of the board if there had been any slip-ups. He wished Ocean Falls good luck in its games for the championship of Northern B.C.
and expressed the opinion that

Norma Talmadge

"Secrets"

The secrets of a wife! A photo-play with a theme so strong that only an artist such as Norma Talmadge could portray it. A play of springtime love that lived through life's cold winter; a play of emotions; a play of a wife's secrets, things that no one but the man and woman should know; a play of mysteries, for all of wedlock's secrets are in a husband's life he leads away from home! Can a husband love others—but love his wife the most? Can happiness be where a mother's smiles hide a father's indiscretions? Only a play as searchingly truthful as this can answer so vital a problem. The secrets of a wife are laid bare in this all compelling photo-drama portrayed by the screen's perfect lovers—Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien. Distinguished cast, Norma Talmadge, Eugene
O'Brien, Charles Ogle, Winter Hall, Frank Elliott, Gertrude Astor, Emily Fitzroy, Clarrissa Selwynne and others.
