CREW OF 330 MEN NOW EMPLOYED

Two shifts worked and plant quiet only three hours of the day; work is of complicated nature

The 1,500,000 bushel terminal grain elevator being built here by the Carter-Halls-Aldinger Co. The big storage bins, pouring of concrete on which was last night up to the 70 foot mark, will be completed by September 1 and by September 26 this part of the work, including the floor and cupolas surmounting the bins, will be finished. The 186 foot high workhouse, just east of the storage bins, on which pouring of cement has been started, will be up by November 1. After this about two weeks will be required for the installation of machinery and, this done, the elevator will be actually completed. Then the contracting company will start to clear up and move away the mass of equipment and machinery that is being used in the erection of the huge structure.

MILLING ORE AT STEWART

E. H. Haggen Says Future Depends on Production From Large Low Grade Bodies

STEWART, Aug. 26.—E. A. Haggen, mining engineer and newspaper writer, who has been visiting this district, expressed himself as having great faith in the Portland Canal district as likely to become a steady producer. He did not enthuse so much over the high grade prospects, although there is a lot of high grade ore there, as on the fact that there are big bodies of good milling ore which will last a long time and bring good results for the owners if properly handled. Money is needed to provide transportation to a good many of the properties and also to install machinery and get the mines ready for shipping. He predicts that an enormous tonnage of gold, silver, lead, zinc and copper ores will be shipped and that arsenic will also be produced. Mr. Haggen has been experimenting with an ore deflector with good results.

CONCESSIONS TO FRANCE END

Newspapers in England Declare Can be no Settlement Without United States

LONDON, Aug. 26.—It is unlikely that any more concessions will be made by the British government in the settling of the French debts, even to save the present conference with Finance Minister Caillaux from failure. Newspapers here declare there can be no settlement without the participation of the United States, which is the real arbiter of the situation here.

FOUND BODIES TWO TRAPPERS

Men Were Taken Ill in Wilds and Succumbed After Leaving Note

HAD $2,000 IN FURS

VICTORIA, Aug. 26.—The badly decomposed bodies of Peter Ackerman and George Williams, trappers, who went into the wilds from Prince George more than a year ago, have been found by the provincial police, it is reported at headquarters today. The bodies were found in a cabin littered with furs scattered about by wild animals. The diaries of the men indicated that they were overcome by sickness.

As a result of a search conducted by Corporal T. Vandyke, who made the trek of one hundred miles before coming on the cabin, it was found that Williams left a note for his ten-year-old son living in Edmonton. After giving directions for finding caches containing two thousand dollars worth of furs, the note concludes: "The roof leaks. Goodbye."

SOCKEYE PACK EXCEEDS 1921

Estimated That 74,000 Cases of Sockeye Have Been put up on Skeena River This Season

The total sockeye pack for the Skeena River this year is estimated at 74,000 cases as compared with 144,000 cases in the bumper year of 1924 and 41,000 cases in the low cycle year of 1921. Sockeye fishing closed last Friday night but Sunnyside, Balmoral and Inverness canneries will continue to pack fall varieties. The rest of the canning plants on the Skeena River are understood to be closing now.

The total pack this year of all varieties, which will be increased through the packing of cohoes and chums at the canneries continuing to operate, now stands at 230,000 cases as compared with 390,000 cases in 1924 and 233,000 cases in 1921. The 1924 pack, it is expected, will be exceeded by this year's pack which will, of course, fall away short of the 1924 pack.

Figures so far obtainable are only estimated. It will be some time before the accurate box-up count will be known.

NET REVENUE OF RAILWAYS ON INCREASE

Good Showing Made Canadian National for Seven Months of This Year

TORONTO, Aug. 26.—Official figures issued here today on the arrival of Sir Henry Thornton show that the Canadian National Railways have made a notable advance in net revenues during the seven months period ending July 31, and that the improvement has been made in the face of decreased gross receipts. The gross receipts were $8,934,871 or 6.63 per cent below the corresponding figures in 1924, but operating expenses were reduced by $11,387,477 or 8.65 per cent, so that the net position stands at $5,667,287, an increase of $2,452,606 or 76.29 per cent as compared with the first seven months of 1924 and an increase of $459 per cent over the 1923 figures.

The favorable showing that has already been achieved should be accentuated during the balance of the year as an upward movement of gross earnings is now proceeding. During the month of July, 1925, the gross increase by $383,944 or 1.92 per cent over July, 1924 operating expenses were decreased by $955,746 or 4.69 per cent. The resultant increase in net revenues for July is $1,339,690 or 228.91 per cent in the first three weeks of August, 1925. Gross earnings have shown an increase of $1,773,594 or 14.5 per cent as compared with the gross earnings for the first three weeks of 1924.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Five shots were fired this afternoon at a meeting of striking seamen in progress outside the office of the National Sailors and Firemen's Union.

Mr. Meighen states further that something might interfere, such as the announcement of an election, which might render the visit impossible. He will undoubtedly come, however, unless something absolutely prevents.

Globe Is Becoming Non-Partizan Paper.

The Toronto Globe has since its inception been a Liberal paper. It saw little good in anything that the Conservative party did and all its editorials had a Liberal bias.

The change in policy of the Globe is simply another development along the line of modern journalism. The day of blind partizan papers has gone and the tendency everywhere is toward a fairer and more judicial viewpoint in dealing with politics or any other matters.

Taking an attitude such as that mentioned does not mean that a newspaper will be always on the fence, but it does mean that it will not support any party through thick and thin, right or wrong.

United Empire And Canadian Flag.

The United Empire, a propaganda monthly review of Empire affairs, published in London by the Royal Colonial Institute, mentions the Canadian flag incident editorially.

What the United Empire does not realize is that every trivial event is used for political purposes in this country and efforts are made to turn such matters as the choosing of a flag to party advantage.

Strong Objection To Railway Amalgamation.

The Manitoba Free Press comes out very strongly against amalgamation of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railway systems.

The West when it says that the people of this part of the Dominion will not stand for any amalgamation of the two railway systems.

Nothing could be much worse than the Senate plan for amalgamation of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National systems.

The Senate plan, according to its sponsors, would leave the country with one railway system over which the government and the people of Canada would have control.

It is a fine thing for any corporation to have its dividends guaranteed for all time by the people of the country.

Capitalists at Montreal and Toronto, if they find it amuses them, may go ahead and draw up half-a-dozen plans to merge the two railway systems.

It values its neck it had better keep it away from the block.

Medicine Man Prevents Girl Marrying Man of Her Choice at Kitkatla Indian Village

Former Missionary Tells Story Which is Published in Alberta Capital

(By Edna Baldwin in Edmonton Journal) Superstition is deep rooted. It is born in the blood and bred in the bone of the North American Indian.

The lives of these Indians, belonging as they do to Tsimshian tribes, are bound up with mythology. Should you ever wander over from Prince Rupert to this little island you will be assured of a real feast in story-book lore.

Blacy-Eyed Maiden

Katie was a slim little black-eyed Indian maiden. What matter that her skin was nut-brown? Hadn't she the smallest feet in Prince Rupert?

Young Heber Robinson thought so too, and to Katie's way of thinking he was the one man, the Prince Charming of her dreams. At night they met when dusk was lazily closing in upon the island.

In another part of the village lived Henry Lewis, the one time witch doctor. Henry was plotting and planning to regain his power. Occasionally he did extract a few blankets, canoes and $400.00 or so from his victims in case of sickness or trouble.

Sorrowful Time

There was a sorrowful time on the island for the two young people. The witch doctor had pronounced a curse upon Heber Robinson. Should he marry Katie White, he would die within the year.

There is a humorous incident connected with Katie's wedding day which relieves the tragedy somewhat. She went up to Prince Rupert to purchase her wedding finery. The day set for the wedding dawned. Tables set in the town hall were loaded down with fruit.

much everything had cost, from the food to the bride's gown. This is a custom and is rigidly observed.

Note of Tragedy

Katie's story with its note of tragedy and its example of the strong influence of witchcraft exercise, does not end here. In the winter of 1918 sickness fell upon the village. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, acting in the capacities of doctor, nurse, minister and teacher, toiled tirelessly among the sick.

The Indian is no longer the fierce blood-curdling, blood-spilling character some books of fiction would have us believe. The Tsimshian Indians along the British Columbia coast are fast annexing the mode of living of the white man.

The village of Kitkatla has its school, town hall, mission house, church and fire hall. In fact the fire hall contains the very first fire engine complete with rigging and manual, ever owned by the city of Vancouver.

Art in Woodcraft

These Indians have developed a wonderful art in woodcraft. Their carved figures of birds, animals and flowers are truly beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver both cherish the hope that the men and women who write about the red man will tell the true story of his evolution from the tents of his ancestors instead of coloring their stories with the terrifying war-whoops of a distant past.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

August 26, 1915.

A general provincial election is now expected about October 6. Various parties are making preparations for the campaign.

The Man in the Moon SAYS

A NEW shingle mill is to be established at Victoria and the mayor of that city is jubilant because he says it will be another market for the city's water.

What would the restaurants have done for a living if there had been no service clubs and little social dinners?

ACCORDING to a friend of mine (there are just two classes) of people in the world, those who believe in evolution and heathen.

I HAVE been wanting to join the proletariat and have been wondering how to do it. Jake says quit work.

SOME people matriculate into the school of experience while others like a poor fish swallow a hook and enter the school of matrimony.

YOU can't tell a magazine by the cover. You can't tell a man by his clothes, you can't tell a girl by her paint. As a matter of fact you can't tell the modern young lady anything.

From the workhouse will run a complicated system of conveyors to all parts of the elevator and also to the wharf.

Carpenters are also working now on the trackshed, containing three tracks, on which the rains will bring the grain into the elevator.

Between the storage bins and the workhouse, work is also starting on the drier and boiler house. At the end of the workhouse will be a sacking room.

Crew of 330 Men

There is a total crew of 330 men now employed on the elevator construction. Two nine hour shifts are being run—one from 7 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon and the other from 6 in the evening until 4 in the morning. The plant is quiet only three hours of the twenty-four, namely between 4 and 7 in the morning. The most of the men employed are laborers engaged in the pouring of concrete. The concrete is being stoutly reinforced with horizontal and vertical iron bars.

In charge of the whole work is D. M. Shearer, superintendent of construction for Carter-Halls-Aldinger Co., Ltd. G. D. Howe & Co. of Port Arthur are designing and supervising engineers. W. N. Chater, their engineer, is personally supervising the work with Harvig Os, his assistant.

The Western Steel Products Co. of St. Boniface, Man., whose superintendent is George Skuce, is to do all the sheet metal, roofing and spouting, this work having already commenced.

L. O. Larsen of Prince Rupert has the contract for painting the entire structure. He already has the first coat on the shed for sacked grain which is situated on the wharf near the workhouse.

GYROS WON BALL GAME

Fielding Errors of Sons of Canada Lost Game to Them

Untimely fielding errors were responsible for the Sons of Canada losing in last night's baseball game to the Gyro Club by a score of 6 to 1. The Canucks made five hits and only got one run while the Gyros got their six runs though they are credited with having made only three hits. The Sons made six errors and the Gyro Club, two. It was a six inning game.

The box score was as follows:

GOLF PLAYERS TAKE UP TENNIS

Question Discussed as to Whether They May Become Stars

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The announcement made recently that Cyril Tolley and Miss Joyce Wethered, British Star golfers, (Miss Wethered is the leading lady player) intend to take up lawn tennis "seriously," is discussed by the Sporting Life, which intimates that it is not possible for a golf player of some years standing to become a "star" tennis player.

"In the absence of any confirmation the news must be taken with reserve," the article is prefaced. "The mere fact that both Tolley and Miss Wethered have been playing a stationary ball on the links for some years will render it impossible for them to attain high honors at lawn tennis; on the court a moving ball will present difficulties to which the golfer is not accustomed.

"To play a game free from disturbance is one thing, but to match skill with skill and brain with brain is an entirely different matter. The golfer plays his own ball, and the superior mechanic must triumph. Provided the two golfers possess normal intelligence, the question of brain power hardly concerns the result. On the other hand, the superior stroke player does not always win at lawn tennis, at which court-craft weighs heavily.

Fair Player Now "Tolley already happens to be a fair lawn tennis player. That he will succeed as a tennis player is quite feasible, but the idea that he will develop into an international is absurd. In the

SEES VISIONS FOR VICTORIA

Special Despatch Indicates that Grain Will Profit that Port Greatly

A special despatch from Vancouver to the Victoria Times is rather visionary as to the future outlook as the result of the erection of an elevator at that port, a smaller one than that being erected in this city. The despatch reads:

"Establishment of a branch of the board of grain commissioners of Canada will be made at Victoria, following erection at Ogden Point of a $1,000,000 terminal grain elevator by Panama Pacific Grain Terminals Limited, it was announced here by Commissioner James Robinson, of the Board of Grain Commissioners of Canada, with headquarters at Fort William, Ontario.

Sport Chat

With the first hint of fall weather now in the air, local nimrods are commencing to think about the season for the shooting of birds and deer which will open about the middle of next month. True hunting may not be regarded as really good in this district until a good many weeks after shooting becomes permissible but just the same there will probably be as many parties as ever start out about September 15. In the meantime, some of the prospective hunters have taken down their weapons from summer resting places to oil them up in readiness for action.

The Gyro Club is expecting to open its new playground in Westview within the next week or so. The opening would have taken place some time ago had it not been for a delay in the arrival of the mechanical head for the ocean wave which, in fact, has not yet arrived here. The Westview playground will constitute the club's playground objective this year. Early in October a big carnival will be held by the Gyros in the Exhibition Hall to raise funds for future playground work.

DANCE IN AID OF BOYS' BAND WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The Boys' Band fund was substantially aided as a result of a dance which was held last night by the Elks' Lodge. There were about 80 couples present and a very enjoyable evening was spent from 9.30 until 2 o'clock. At midnight, refreshments were served. A. Donald was master of ceremonies, W. H. Derry was on the door and the committee consisted of W. H. Derry, A. Donald, L. Potterton and Ben Self. Music was dispensed by an orchestra consisting of Miss Irene Morrison, W. Cooper, Kenny Road and Howard White.

Having completed docking here, C.G.M.M. steamer Canadian Voyager sailed this afternoon for Victoria where she will load a cargo of lumber for Australia.

SEES NO HOPE CO-OPERATION

Star Editorial Writer Thinks Competition Between Railways Will Continue

There is little to justify the hopeful headlines in the press regarding the joint operation by the C.P.R. and the C.N.R. railways of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B.C. road from Edmonton to the Peace says the Vancouver Star.

Nor is there much hope of close operation between the two systems in any other part of Canada.

The heads of these two railways are keen rivals; from end to end of both systems the fiercest competition extends.

There has been much talk in parliament of this desired co-operation. And the officials involved meet in courteous counsel, as gentlemen should.

In the larger field Canada will never permit the absorption of its national system by a privately owned railway and thus give that railway a monopoly of Canadian traffic.

EDMONTON LADY VISITS NORTH

Tells of Wonderful Sights at Herschel Island and Other Places Seen

ESKIMOS FRIENDLY

People Got Water by Chipping Ice From Bergs Floating in Arctic Ocean

After spending the past two years at Aklavik and Herschel Island, Mrs. M. Lyman has returned to the city and is staying at Rosary Hall, says the Edmonton Journal.

Mrs. Lyman signed up in 1923 to go north in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company. She spent some time at Fort McMurray and was on board the S.S. Arctic Distributor when Judge Dubuc and party went up for the purpose of holding court at Aklavik.

The Arctic froze up October 4 and later broke up and froze again on no fewer than three different occasions.

She received her Christmas presents sent by mail, July 4 Hunter's Paradise. Ducks and geese abound at Herschel Island in thousands.

One of the finest sights seen was when the huskies arrived at Aklavik in the spring to do their trading.

At Aklavik the sun disappears November 26 and is not seen again until January 15.

Polar bears are still seen at Herschel Island. Last winter there were several shot.

for the twelve month period. Shipments to Holland and Germany this year amount to 430,954 tons and to Canada 153,843 tons, a total of 584,797, whereas last year the greater portion of the entire output went to Canada. The local Daily News points out in an editorial that shipments to Germany and Holland so far this year are 65.7 per cent greater than last year when the total for the twelve month period was 260,029 tons. The newspaper also points with satisfaction to the showing of shipments to Canada this year in view of the fact that the chief user, the steel plant in Sydney, and its operators, rested in the shadow of a complete tie-up of the Nova Scotia coal mines for a period of five months.

RUSSIA TO BE DISCUSSED BY U.S. CONGRESS

Question of Recognition to be Opposed but Trade Continues to Grow

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(By Canadian Press).—The question of recognition of Russia will be up in the coming session of Congress once more. Indications are that it will be discussed with more animation and acerbity than ever.

On the one hand, Senator Borah, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, is preparing to force the issue to the front on all occasions when it seems opportune. On the other hand, conservative leaders in Congress and in officialdom are as much opposed to recognition as ever.

Recently, trade figures have been made public through Russian sources showing that the trade between the United States and Russia is steadily and perceptibly increasing. The Soviet government, it is said, is seeking to promote trade with the United States on the theory that increase of trade will tend to bring about the recognition. The fact that trade is growing in spite of statements of some government officials that Russia has no trade possibilities is not disputed or has not been to date.

The fact that Russia in the last year has bought heavily of grain products from Canada is being dwelt on here by the friends of Russian recognition. It is the general understanding that President Coolidge is showing much interest in the subject but has not reached the point where he is willing to take any step towards recognition.

Statements recently made by William R. Castle, Jr., chief of the division of Western European affairs, Department of State, are typical of the strong opposition against recognition in some official quarters. Mr. Castle, who assumed to speak for the administration held the Soviet government and the third international are practically one, opposed recognition, and said the administration was against recognition or extension of any loans to Russia. Mr. Castle was more pronounced on the subject than it is generally understood here the chief executive himself is. It is known he has gone over the subject in much detail with Senator Borah and other friends of recognition.

Estimating the grain crop to be worth $100,000,000 more than last year's, Sir Henry described it as "good, though not perhaps a bumper one."
