Pictures Show Wrong Call Umpire in World Series

NEW YORK — A picture sequence of yesterday's world game appeared today to show that American League pitcher Art Passarella made a wrong call—and Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick admitted it.

Passarella called New York Yankee pitcher Johnny Sain first base in the 10th inning. Pictures, taken by Associated Press photographer John Lindsay, showed Sain's foot on the base and the ball not yet in first baseman Gil Hodges' hands.

According to the pictures, it looks like Passarella called "out." Frick said.

"I did, he's only human. I assure you it's not the first time ever made by an umpire."

Winston Churchill ends first year as peacetime P.M.

Controls are plentiful. Rents are frozen. With the country hardup financially all parties agree many controls must stay.

STILL THE MASTER

The doughty Churchill, who rallied a nation in war, warns that times will be difficult and even dangerous for some time yet, in peace.

"I should be misleading you if I led you to suppose that greater efforts were not needed," he told the country a few weeks ago. "We have got our head above water. Our future task is to swim up against the stream."

Churchill's "personal type" leadership that worked magic during war has brought grumbling among some of the

New Program For Oakalla

VICTORIA — Attorney General Bonner today announced an emergency program to correct the "shocking conditions" in overcrowded Oakalla prison, the scene of last week's riots.

The government plans to hire 68 additional guards and abolish the trust system of using a trusted prisoner to help administer the prison; to build temporary additional huts to accommodate 640 prisoners; and change the entire locking system of the jail.

Plans to transfer some prisoners to the penitentiary as a stop-gap measure also will be studied.

Bonner paid tribute to Warden Christie and his staff for the manner in which they handled the riots.

Three Springs Weighed in Salmon Derby

Three spring salmon were weighed in the Rod & Gun Club derby yesterday with Eric Martin's 11-pound 10-ouncer heading the list.

Two others were weighed in by Tom Wilford, each in the four-pound class.

Martin got his salmon while fishing off the Yacht Club floats, while Wilford, who hooked and landed a third, got all three in the harbor between the drydock and Seal Cove.

This is the final week of the general and weekly derbies. The Grand Derby opens Oct. 11.

Yanks Edge Dodgers in Sixth Game

BROOKLYN (CP)—A pair of mighty homers by Yogi Berra and Micky Mantle matched the pair by Brooklyn's Duke Snider as the Yankees beat the Dodgers 3-2 in the sixth game of the World Series today.

This squared the series at three games each.

The four homers, bringing the series total to a new record high of 14 were the big blows, but a freak single by Yankee starting pitcher Vick Raschi also helped to decide the game.

Just after Berra's homer had tied the count at 1-1, Raschi caromed-hit a liner off the knee of opposing pitcher Billy Loes for a base hit that scored Gene Woodling from second.

That put the Yanks ahead 2-1 in the seventh inning, and Mantle made it 3-1 in the eighth before Snider unloaded his circuit blast in the last half of the eighth. He got his first in the sixth inning.

Woman Still Active Nearing 103rd Year

MONTREAL — Mrs. Auguste Forget will celebrate her 103rd birthday Oct. 6. Despite her age, Mrs. Forget wears glasses only for reading and sewing.

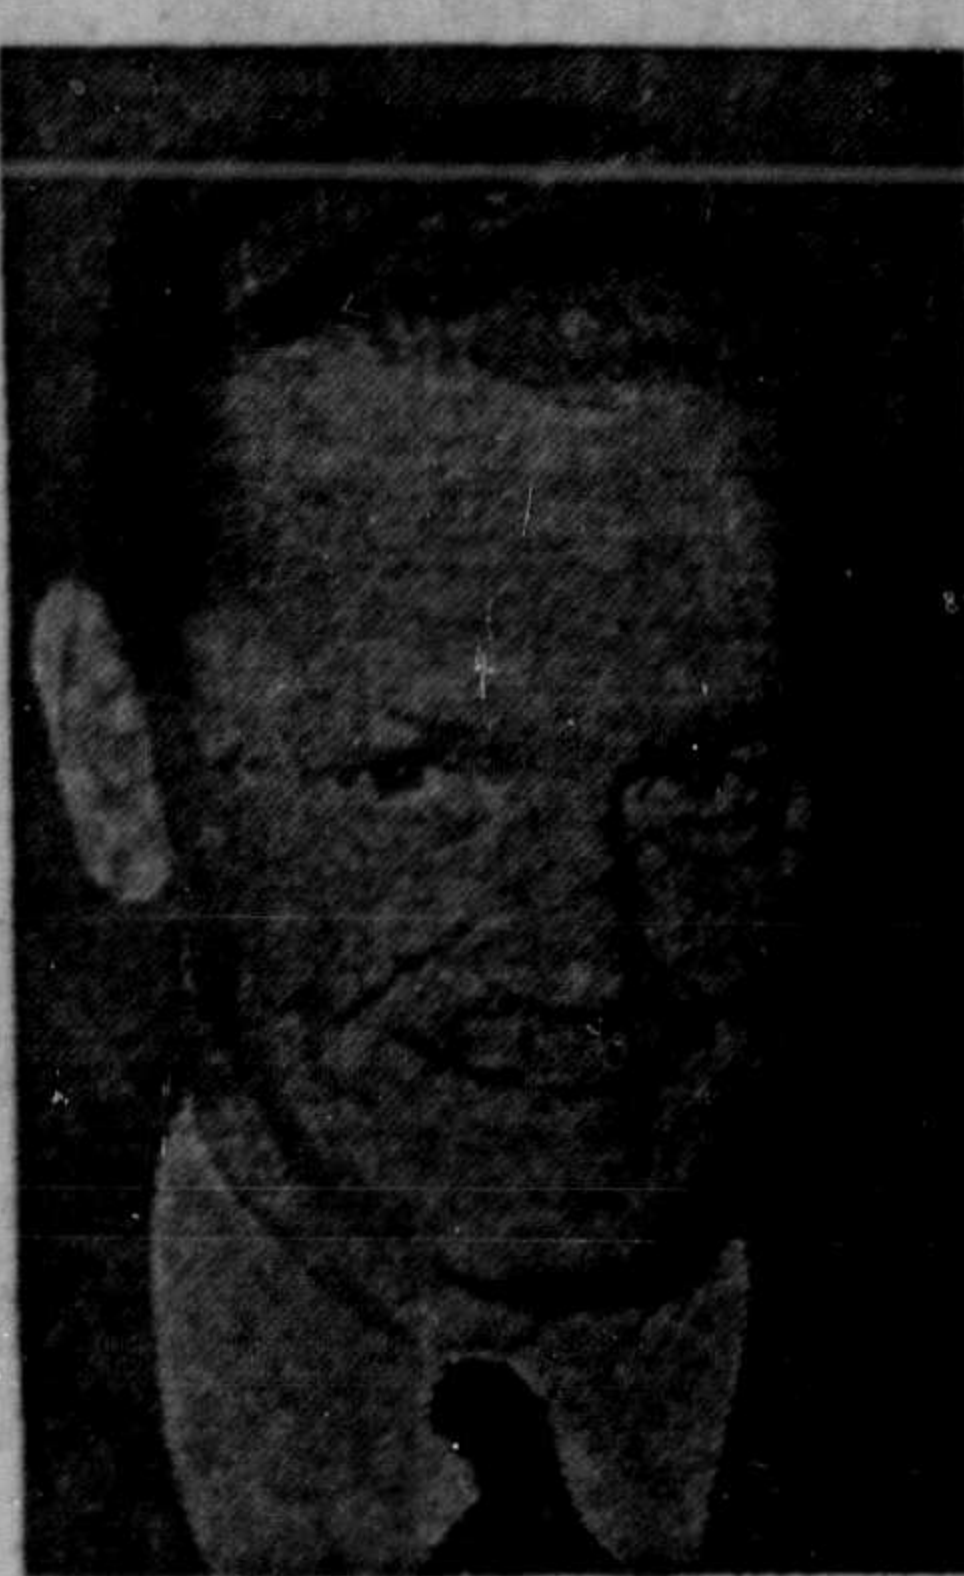

She reads the newspapers and religious literature, but no novels. She has never seen a movie. The doctor says her heart is good and her blood pressure normal. Two years ago she shook off an attack of double pneumonia.

A widow for 30 years, she lives with a daughter here. She has four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She takes an interest in all that goes on around her, says her daughter.

GEORGE SHERWOOD... on "Bond Beat"

B.C. Coast Organized in Bond Drive

One of the more rugged "Bond Beats" in Canada is the Coast Division, B.C. Region.

Each year, when the opportunity is given Canadians to save by buying Canada Saving Bonds, organizers throughout Canada start in to help plants and industrial firms set up the pay-roll deduction system.

This man in the Coast Division starts in on an area from Howe Sound to Prince Rupert and deep into the rugged hinterland.

This man, too, is George Sherwood, who did the same job last year. By public and private boat, car, planes and rail, he is lining up the mines and mills, plants and camps, in the area that last year bought $1,188,300 worth of thrift through the payroll plan.

The "Lucky Seventh" loan opens Oct. 14.

Mr. Sherwood, who is borrowed from the T. B. Read & Co., Vancouver, took over the Coast Division from the veteran organizer, Harry Bird, last year.

Young Viscount Shows Early Love for Music

LONDON — A little-photographed royal baby is David, Viscount Lascelles, who will be two years old Oct. 21.

Twelfth in line of succession to the throne, the young viscount already shows something of his parents' love of music. He sits enthralled listening to records and "Children's Hour," a BBC radio program for the younger set.

David's parents are the Earl and Countess of Harewood, whose mutual love of music led to the wedding-of-the-year in 1949.

The dark-haired Lady Harewood formerly Maria Stein, believes that a mother should bring up her own children. So, although there is a "Nanny" for general routine, David spends much time with his mother, mostly outdoors at the Harewood estate near Leeds.

If she has no engagements, Lady Harewood takes charge of her son after his afternoon walk—and there's always a music session before bedtime. David likes it best when his mother plays the piano.

Once a week at least, he goes to see his maternal grandparents at their home in Kensington. He is also a great favorite with his father's mother, Princess Mary. An ever greater occasion is a visit to Marlborough House to see "Great Grand-mamma," Queen Mary. She is a favorite with all the royal children.

HISTORIC HIGHWAY

The first highway in Canada was that built early in the 18th century between Quebec and Montreal.

One-Quarter Remains to be Done on Road Near Galloway

The Public Works Department has ordered a halt to work on the last portion of the project now underway on Highway 16, just east of Galloway apids Bridge.

Jack Barber, superintendent of Wood & McClay, contractors on the mile-long job which involves elimination of a series of dangerous curves, said today he was advised verbally by resident engineer Harry Little on Saturday to cease operations on the eastern end of the project.

"We have not received official notification but the engineer said that because of lack of money the size of the project must be reduced with the result that about a quarter of the road under construction will have to be left uncompleted unless we get new instructions."

Stan McClay, who left here Saturday for Vancouver after a week-long survey of the project, in a telephone conversation with Barber said he will take the matter up with the Public Works Department immediately.

Contract for the job totalled approximately $200,000.

Barber said the contractors have gone ahead with bulldozing and other excavation work on the assumption of completing work called for under the contract.

"We were told the government has only $150,000 of the money allotted for the job and on Saturday we pulled all our equipment and men from the eastern end."

W. W. Meighen, divisional engineer for the Public Works Department, asked to comment on the move, said "the contract is going to be a little smaller than originally planned but the major portion will be completed."

He indicated that the amount of work will be completed by the contractors will cost approximately $150,000, but the remainder cannot be done unless further money is allocated.

WILL BE GRAVELLED

The uncompleted portion will, however, be gravelled, to allow freedom of traffic during the winter months. With this graveling and completion of graveling near Kwinitsa, the 1952 works program on the highway will be completed.

If the government goes through with its move not to complete the job with the Woman Botanist Loves the North

CHURCHILL, Man. — The Arctic way of life appeals so much to Margaret Oldenburg of Grand Maris, Minn., that she has come back 10 times since her first visit in 1939.

Miss Oldenburg says she fell in love with the north on her first visit. On that trip she collected botany specimens and presented them to the University of Minnesota. On each succeeding trip she has been a one-woman botanical expedition.

One of her contributions to science was a plant she found with the long-winded name of chryso-pleniunlowianian. This plant is found in Iowa and has a yellow blossom. That of the Arctic is green.

Much of Miss Oldenburg's collecting has been in uncharted areas, reached only by plane. Once she was presented with a collection of mounted plants. This she says is typical of the northern way of life—kindness, generosity and helpful interest.

October Contract Awards Hit Slump in '51

Total value of construction contract awards of $150,213,300 for the month of September, 1952, was $85,082,200 below the figure for the same period last year. Total value for September 1951 was $185,294,500.

Cumulative total for the nine month period of 1952, as compiled by MacLean Building Reports, Ltd., stands at $1,370,145,300 as compared to $1,878,035,800 for the same period of 1951. This represents a drop in dollar volume of $507,890,500.

Fractional provincial gains in the residential, business and industrial categories were not sufficient to overcome the drop in engineering projects, with the result, drops were registered for the dominion in both the industrial and industrial fields.

Carelessness Starts Most Fires Says Commissioner

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 5-11

OTTAWA (CP) — Some 60,000 fires, most of them caused by carelessness, took 493 lives in Canada last year.

Besides the human toll, the fires caused property loss of $76,000,000.

All this could have been prevented if Canadians understood that the main causes of fires are their carelessness and their lack of knowledge of simple fire prevention.

Fire Prevention Week, to be marked this year from Oct. 5 to Oct. 11, was designed to advise, teach and inspire Canadians to take their responsibility in respect to fire seriously and to apply the knowledge they have gained to the reduction of this dreaded scourge.

CALL FOR INSPECTION

A thorough inspection should be made of homes, factories, stores, institutions, assembly buildings and transportation facilities for improperly designed, constructed and installed heating and electrical appliances. Protection should be provided in cases where they are close to combustible materials.

This particularly concerns chimneys, flues, stoves, furnaces, boilers, pipes, oil burners, electric light and power appliances and devices. It applies to handling of hot ashes, coals, open fires, smoking, matches, lights—other than electric—and rubbish.

Responsible Canadian citizens seek the advice and instruction of the fire authorities — the municipal fire chief, the provincial fire marshals and commissioners, the Dominion Fire Prevention Association, fire insurance companies and others. They use the appliances, devices and materials approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories of Canada and the Canadian Standards Association Approvals Laboratories.

HOME LOSSES HIGH

Responsible citizens know that fire prevention and the protection of natural resources are essential to our living and the prosperity of our people and our country.

It is in our homes that 75 per cent of the fires and 20 per cent of the loss occur. It is here that we must be intensely interested and observe our responsibility by taking action to correct the deficiency that tends to destroy our lives and property.

A guide to fire safety can be obtained from your municipal fire chief. The home fire inspection form has been printed and distributed by the Dominion Fire Prevention Association to municipal fire departments.

In 1951, fire attacked 45,000 homes and caused damages of $16,958,702; 6,2000 stores with a loss of $22,443,129; 1,800 factories with a loss of $17,045,215; 3,500 farms with a loss of $5,549,354; and 800 institutional and assembly buildings with a loss of $5,892,516.

STRUCTURAL FAULTS

Britain Ignores Iran's Demands

LONDON (CP) — Britain today pointedly ignored Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh's terms for the Iranian oil settlement and stood by the Aug. 30 Churchill-Truman offer of money and talks.

A message from Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, released by the foreign office here, sought to persuade Iran's leader to take a new look at the Churchill-Truman plan. Eden plainly implied that Mossadegh had missed the point of the plan.

G-A Blast Clothiers to Win City Baseball Championship

Carolee Hurls Final Game Shut-Out in Bid For Victory

The two-hit, shut-out pitching of Vic Carolee yesterday afternoon gave Gordon & Anderson the 1952 city baseball championship smashing Abel & Odowes 7-0 before 100 fans under an intermittent drizzle.

The deciding game of the best-of-five final series had been postponed three consecutive Sundays on account of rain.

Carolee was easily the leader in yesterday's frontal defence against Abel & Odowes as he kept the clothiers in check for seven out of nine innings.

hitless ball to the end.

The new champions scored their first run in the second frame when pitcher Carolee singled Don Scherk to third and Marshall singled him home. Scherk, including his second inning single, hit twice more, once in the fifth and in the sixth.

Winners scored three runs each in the fifth and sixth innings. Three errors and Scherk's single brought home Monkman, Hartwig and while a fourth error scored Scherk.

In the sixth, two errors, a single each by Cornwell and two-base hit accounted for runs by Monkman, Cornwell and Scherk.

WINNERS AGGRESSIVE

While Abel & Odowes' fielding was weakened by the absence of Cliff Dahl who is sick, the young hardware team showed most of the aggressiveness during the game as it has done throughout the season in winning first, the pennant, and now the final series crown.

This is the first season in two that Gordon & Andersons have come through winning. The team is made up of mainly young players of high school graduate and near-graduate ages.

ON THE ALLEYS

Ladies Still Lead Mixed Bowling League

The ladies are still leading the parade in the mixed five-pin bowling league and Bertha Peterson of Miller Bay has set a neat 349 for high single of the year.

She's also got a high-three figure of 798, so the men now have some real totals to shoot at. Bowling in Group 1 against Penguin's Hobby sextet last week, the Miller Bay crew managed only three points as Albert McFadden also found the groove and racked up a 328 count in one game against the Hospital opposition.

That smiling barber, Jerry Lemire, came through with high three of 750 for men and Miller Bay had high game of 1,304 while Penguin Hobby with 3,342 had high three of the night.

All the tricks in the trade and even the return of Jean Nixon failed to help the Daily News sextet.

The Newsies and Orphans tied in their second game but class paid off for Nick Mazzoni's crew as they won the game handily with their counts in the first frame of the third game.

The Daily News got a big zero for their night's effort while the Orphans chalked up four points for a good night's play.

In Group 2, Ian Dunbar led Pushovers to victory with his three-game total of 808, which included top single effort of 346.

Lois Keays had high single of 260 for the ladies and also chalked up the high three of 630. Fashion Footwear with 1,258 was tops for a single game and the Pushovers 3,556 count was highest for three games.

The mixed ten-pin league started off with a bang on Sunday with Art Olsen of Spares leading the parade. He had scores of 147, 158 and 224 for a three-game total of 529. His 224 was also the high single among the men.

Edith Scherk had high single for the ladies and Linda Erickson had high three with scores of 149, 155 and 165.

Team high single of 759 was rolled by the spares and the Chumps had high three of 2,113. Here are results:

Mixed Five-Pin League

Group 1 — Acme Clothiers 4, Bulgars 0; Thom Sheet Metal 4, HI-Jackers 0; Jerry's 4, Conrad Street 0; Orphans 4, Daily News 0; Booth 3, Harold's 1; Miller Bay 3, Penguin Hobby 1.

Group 2 — Cook's Jewellers 4, Headpinners 0; Pushovers 4, Jersey Farms 0; Fashion Footwear 4, Canada Life 0; Waders 3, Broadway Cafe 1; 99 Taxi 3, Northern Glass 1; Shenton's 2, Wood-butchers 2.

Mixed Ten-Pin League

Snider's Bat, Erskine Join For Victory

NEW YORK (CP) — Duke Snider's blazing bat and Carl Erskine's clutch pitching brought the Brooklyn Dodgers an 11-inning, 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees Sunday in the fifth game of the World Series and gave the National League club a 3-2 edge in best-of-seven competition.

Snider and Erskine were great. They had to be or the day's honors would have gone to Johnny Mize, 39-year-old New York first baseman, whose bid for a second home run that would have tied the score in the 11th was frustrated by a spectacular leaping catch by Carl Furillo.

Erskine retired 19 batters in a row after the Yankees had counted five runs in the fifth, three of them on Mize's homer. Snider's bat drove home four runs on a two-run homer, a single and a game-winning double.

The Duke was the big gun against Ewell Blackwell and Johnny Sain, two National League waiver castoffs. His homer in the fifth built up a 4-0 Dodger lead. His single in the seventh tied the score to repair the damage of Mize's three-run blast into the lower right field seats in the fifth.

In the 11th, Snider came through once more. Following singles by Billy Cox and Pee Wee Reese, he bounced a double off the screen in front of the Yankee bullpen to score Cox with the winning run.

But all of Snider's slugging would have given Dodgers no more than a tie, if it hadn't been for Furillo's leaping stab of Mize's homer-labelled smash in the last of the 11th.

Remember When

New York Yankees won their fifth World Series in six years by defeating Brooklyn Dodgers 3-1 in the fifth game of the series 11 years ago today. The finale of the 1941 battle was marked by a wordy battle between Joe DiMaggio, ace hitter of the Yankees, and pitcher Whitlow Wyatt of the Dodgers.
