MEIGHEN CONTRACTS CANCELLED BY KING

GOVERNOR GENERAL GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION AT OTTAWA ON ARRIVAL

Contracts Entered Into by Meighen Government Cancelled by Mr. King

New hotel at Vancouver one of projects to be stopped by present administration result of election

OTTAWA, October 5.—Contracts entered into by the Meighen Government on the eve of the election have been cancelled, including that for the big hotel proposed to be built by the Canadian National Railway at Vancouver.

After a brief cabinet council this morning, Premier Mackenzie King said that he had no announcement to make, referring to orders in council passed by the Meighen Government. However, he intimated that the general attitude of the government was that the previous government had no right to enter into any agreement except such as were absolutely necessary and urgent, on the ground that the late government had no mandate from Parliament and was not properly constituted. For this reason, said the Premier, a number of contracts entered into for public works have been stopped.

Premier King said the Government had cancelled the lease between the department of railways of Canada and certain power interests entered into by the late Conservative administration in connection with the Carillon power project on the Ottawa River. The contract entered into by the Meighen Government for the construction of a new hotel at Vancouver was also cancelled, he stated.

The Premier leaves Friday for Quebec whence he will sail for England to attend the Imperial Conference.

SEATTLE, Oct. 5.—The University of Washington regents last night demanded the resignation of President Henry Suzzallo. They said Dean David Thompson of the college of liberal arts and sciences, had been named as his successor.

Dean Thompson is a Canadian by birth having been born at Orillia, Ontario, in 1871, and graduated from the University of Toronto.

The regents are of the opinion that politics should have less prominence in the president's office at the university. Behind their action, political observers are almost unanimously pointing out, are discussions between Governor Rogers and Hartley and Mr. Suzzallo. Hartley's speeches throughout the country have denounced the University head.

Suzzallo remained silent under the attacks.

The majority of the regents are appointees of Hartley. Throughout Seattle, educators and business and professional leaders have been quick to express condemnation of the action of the regents.

MINERS LOST LIVES BELOW

ROCKWOOD, Tenn., Oct. 5.—Twenty-eight miners are believed to have been instantly killed in an explosion in the Rogers Mine yesterday. Four bodies were recovered last night and two men were brought out unconscious while two made their escape uninjured.

This morning rescue workers abandoned all hope of saving the remainder, numbering 24, as the workings were badly infested with "afterdamp."

The explosion occurred 800 feet under the mountain side and nearly three miles from the entry. Two hundred men who were working in an adjoining entry, escaped unharmed.

ORIOLE MURDER CASE GETS OPEN VERDICT INQUEST YESTERDAY

QUESNEL, Oct. 5.—After a few minutes deliberation, the jury returned a verdict that Morice Oriole met his death by a gun shot wound at the hands of some persons undetermined.

Aaron Kostl, who had been formally charged with the murder of Oriole, attended the inquest, but no date has been set for the preliminary hearing.

INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION

DR. BLACK SAYS OUTLOOK FOR NEXT FEW YEARS IS VERY GOOD

WINNIPEG, Oct. 5.—Since the beginning of the year there has been an increase of 63 per cent over last year in the number of immigrants brought to Canada by the Canadian National Railways stated Dr. W. J. Black, director of immigration and colonization of the Canadian National system, who arrived in Winnipeg last night.

"The present condition of and outlook of immigration to Canada is most hopeful," continued Dr. Black. "There has never been a time since the days before the war when the European people displayed as much interest in Canada as they do at present, and I look for a very large increase in the number of these people who will make their homes on the farms of the Dominion in the next few years. If further evidence of this interest were required, it is to be had, I think in the fact that more representatives of European governments had visited Canada this year for the purposes of studying settlement conditions than in the total of all previous years since the war."

ADJACENT TO RAILWAY

Dr. Black also stated that the number of families from northern European countries who have settled on land adjacent to the lines of the Canadian National Railways in Saskatchewan and Northern Alberta during the past two years has shown a decided increase over all previous years since the war and that these families have cleared an area broken more than 100,000 acres of land in that time. He also pointed out that more than 80 families from the United States, all of them with experience, and at least $5,000 cash capital, each have settled in central Saskatchewan this year and he expects that this number will be increased to at least 100 families before the close of the year.

St. Louis Wins Second Game of World Series Today by Four to Nil

ST. LOUIS, October 5.—Jesse Haines' clever pitching enabled St. Louis Cardinals to win the third game of the World Series today from the New York Yankees four to nil. The big pitcher who held the Yankees to five hits also drove in two runs lashing out a circuit drive into the right field bleachers in the fourth inning scoring Thevenou who was ahead of him. The game was stopped at the beginning of the fourth frame for more than half an hour and, when play was resumed, the field was muddy and covered with water. Reuther, who started pitching for the Yankees, was hit freely and, in the fifth inning, was relieved by Shawkey who, in turn, was replaced by Thomas in the eighth inning to permit a pinch hitter to bat. Haines was complete master of the Yank sluggers at all stages of the game. The score:

New York	0	5	1
St. Louis	4	8	0

AFRICA WILL BE HELPFUL

LONDON, Oct. 5.—"I wish to assure the people of Great Britain that representatives of the Union of South Africa at the Imperial Conference have no wish to be other than helpful in advancing the interests of the British community of nations," Premier Hertzog of South Africa said in an interview, just after his arrival as a delegate to the Imperial Conference which is to open on October 19.

Deputy District Attorney Ryan Declared Ormiston Grocery List in Handwriting Mrs. McPherson

LOS ANGELES, October 5.—Deputy district attorney Ryan, testifying yesterday at the criminal conspiracy hearing, swore that a grocery list found at the cottage at Carmel, occupied by Kenneth Ormiston and a woman was obviously the handwriting of Aimee Semple McPherson, Angelus Temple religious leader.

Ormiston, who is charged jointly with Aimee McPherson and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, is still at large.

Ryan, who devoted weeks to investigating Mrs. McPherson's story of being kidnapped and held in a Mexican border shack, spent most of the day in the witness box detailing apparent discrepancies between Mrs. McPherson's statements and the result of his inquiries.

New Governor General Takes Over Official Residence at Rideau Hall and Welcomed to Ottawa by City

OTTAWA, October 5.—Rideau Hall, which was vacated a week ago by the retiring Governor General, Baron Byng, has a new master, Viscount Willingdon, who was welcomed to the capital yesterday with traditional pomp and by the presentation of a civic address on behalf of the people of this city.

To the Mayor's welcome Lord Willingdon replied that he hoped he and Lady Willingdon might enjoy a close community of interest in the welfare of Ottawa and the Dominion.

DISTINGUISHED CAREER

Lord Willingdon has a long and distinguished career in political life in Great Britain and India, and he recently headed the British Government Commission negotiating with the authorities at Peking for the disposal of the Boxer indemnity of $55,000,000 which was returned by Great Britain to the Chinese treasury to be expended to the best advantage of China. He was in the Orient when the message reached him inviting him to be Governor General of Canada in succession to Lord Byng.

Lord Willingdon, who as Sir Freeman-Thames, was a member of the British House of Commons, was raised to the peerage as Baron Willingdon of Raiton, Sussex, on July 29, 1910. He was Liberal M.P. for Hastings from 1900 to 1906, and member for the Bodmin division of Cornwall from 1906 to 1910. He was junior lord of the treasury from 1905 to 1912. He was lord-in-waiting to the King from 1911 to 1913, and held the rank of Major in the Sussex Yeomanry.

Canada's new Governor-General was Governor of Bombay, India, from 1913 to 1919, and Governor of Madras from 1919 to 1924. When Lord Brassey, his father-in-law, was Governor of Victoria, Australia, 1897 to 1900, Lord Willingdon was A.D.C. to the Governor. Lord Willingdon was recently appointed by the King a Knight of the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. He is a Knight of Grace of St. John of Jerusalem.

EDUCATED AT ETON

Born on September 12, 1866, Lord Willingdon was educated at Eton and at Cambridge University. At both of these institutions of learning he achieved fame on the cricket field as player and captain. He married Lady Marie Adelaide, daughter of the late Earl Brassey, on July 20, 1892. Two sons were born to them, the older of whom, Gerald Frederick, was a lieutenant in the Coldstream Guards and was killed in the war on September 14, 1915, at the age of 22 years. The second son, Captain Inigo Brassey Freeman-Thames, was born on July 23, 1899, and served with the Indian Infantry and is now on the Reserve of Officers. He was A.D.C. on his father's personal staff, 1919-20. His wife is Maxine, daughter of the noted actor, Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson.

IDEAL OF DUTY

Lady Willingdon's ideal of public duty was indicated in his address at a dinner given in his honor in London on July 22. Among other things his lordship said: "The Empire is to all citizens a great trust and a great responsibility. Indeed I think it would be outrageous for any one of us to shirk that responsibility. It is in that spirit that I go to Canada, heartened and encouraged by the wish of friends and encouraged by the wish of friends and the confidence and friendship of the Canadian people. I am determined, as far as it lies in me, to do my utmost to ensure the prosperity and progress of the great Dominion."

MONOPOLY CASE MAY BE TRIED BY PROVINCES

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—The Proprietary Articles Trade Association is doing business as usual following the finding made by the Minister of Labor Heenan that the price fixing agreement of the Association is in violation of the Combines Investigation Act.

It is declared by Secretary Pearson of the association, that the organization welcomes investigation into its methods. The matter will likely be referred by the Federal Government to the attorney general of the various provinces for action but it is not known which province will take steps first.

RUSSIANS PAY CASH FOR LAND

EDMONTON, Oct. 5.—Pleased with the prospects offered by Canada and warmly praising Canadian law a group of 27 Russian refugees who since the overthrow of the Czarist regime have been living in Manchuria, China, have just been settled on farms in the Battleford district by N. S. McGuire, local representative of the C.N.R. colonization department.

"These Russians," said Mr. McGuire, "are all of the better type of middle class people and all have considerable money. They have paid cash for their farms. Since their flight from Russia they have been earning their living as taxi drivers, farm laborers and in various other walks of life in competition with the Chinese amongst whom they were living. The money they brought to Canada represented their savings taken on their flight from Russia. They are all enthusiastic about Canada and hope to make good citizens."

There were about 10 families in the party and a few single men.

SHIPPING ORE FROM BABINES

SILVER KING AND LITTLE JOE PROPERTIES SENDING OUT HIGH GRADE FOR TRAIL SMELTER

SMITHERS, Oct. 5.—As a part of the extensive program of mining development planned when they recently secured options on a number of claims in the Babines, Messner Bros., Harter & Messner have started to bring out ore from the Silver King and Little Joe claims for shipment to the Trail smelter. Ben Nelson with his pack train is bringing the ore out of the mountains to Hollands farm, a distance of twelve miles, and from there it will be brought to town on motor trucks.

Besides the mining development this firm is doing considerable work on the Babine Mountain trails, putting them in shape so that the pack train can keep going until the snow gets too deep.

QUESTION OF TAX BEING DISCUSSED.

For years there has been agitation against the personal property tax, the chief objection to it being that in times when no profits are made the manufacturer has to pay a large tax on the plant.

Now it is proposed to make a change and the form of tax recommended and accepted as a good one by boards of trade and others is the turnover tax. Under it, if adopted, a small levy will be made on the business turnover.

Under the old tax, the plant had to pay, whether it was operated or not. Under the new proposal there will be no payment demanded unless the plant is operated.

The Government has sent out notices in regard to the proposed change and if there is any objection to it, this is the time to make the objection and not wait until the legislation is formulated or possibly passed. Then it will be too late.

Perhaps it may be well to note that the turnover tax does not affect those who pay income tax but it is a substitute tax for those who carry on business without making profits.

COMMERCIAL SURVEY OF VICTORIA PROPOSED.

In order to place Victoria more permanently on the commercial map of the world the citizens have been discussing ways and means and have decided on a course of action. This is what the morning paper of that city has to say of the matter:

Topsy was not mentally concerned about the mystery of life when she was asked if she knew who made her. Her reply was that she suspected she just grew. Topsy was a very active young person, indeed, but she did not realize that action was necessary to growth. Everything endowed with physical life must be active and aggressive if it hopes to attain the ultimate object of its creation.

We are told that man, by taking thought, cannot add a cubit to his stature. But the great cities of the world did not become great by adopting passive attitudes towards their commercial, industrial and transportation relations with the rest of the world. Glasgow became a great and important business and industrial centre by converting the Clyde from a comparatively insignificant stream into a river capable of supporting on its flowing waters the largest ships in the world. Liverpool straightened and deepened the Mersey and made it one of the great shipping highways of the world. London, although we believe it is still the chief city in the world in population and business, is still aggressive and striving for larger growth. It is making provision for further development by improving its great water highway, the Thames, and constructing docks which will be one of the wonders of the world. Vancouver owes its rapid growth in population, commerce and industry to its connection by water with all parts of the world and to its connection by rail with every part of America.

SOMETHING PRACTICAL MUST BE DONE.

Now the business men of Victoria, who have never been apathetic or passive in their attitude towards the future prospects of this port, but have never been quite definite in their views as to what should be done to achieve the objects of their ambition, appear to have reached the conclusion that something practical must be done to determine the status of the city as a world shipping port, continues the article. There has been a great deal of what we hope we may be permitted to call desultory declamation about the advantageous situation of Victoria on the great commercial highways of the world and about what should be done to turn those advantages to practical account. But successful and aggressive business men are not necessarily practical authorities on matters of transportation. The business of transportation today is conducted and directed by specialists. The Victoria Real Estate Board and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce have decided that the only way in which the matter of the future of Victoria as a transportation centre can be definitely determined is by engaging a transportation specialist to make a survey of the situation and to make suggestions based upon the result of the investigations.

The matter is now in the hands of the Victoria City Council, and we trust it may be favorably considered by the members of the Council. At the same time we are not in the slightest degree sceptical as to the business future of this city. Whether the report of the specialist be highly favorable or slightly non-committal, there are other elements in action which assure the growth and prosperity of the city. The rapid growth in the population of the surrounding districts, the establishment of numerous industries in almost every part of Vancouver Island, and the great increase in the population of the cities on the Canadian and the American mainland, are all factors favorable to the growth of Victoria. Victoria is instinct with life, and therefore is destined to grow.

CLOSE LIBRARY ON THURSDAYS

LIBRARIAN TO BE GIVEN HALF HOLIDAY ALONG WITH OTHER CIVIC OFFICIALS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Library Board held in the Library building after closing last night it was decided to give the librarian the regular civic half-holiday on Thursday. This will enable her to devote more time to cataloguing and other office work of the library, with which work it is difficult to keep pace. The change will come into force next week so the library will be open on Thursday as usual this week.

At the meeting the librarian reported a circulation for last month of 2368 volumes of which 1685 was fiction, 275 non-fiction and 368 juvenile. The library was open for 20 days so the average circulation per day was 118.4.

During the month, ten books were received by gift and 53 by purchase while ten had to be discarded. This leaves on the shelves or in circulation 5,302 volumes.

The librarian was authorized to make up a shipment of books for re-binding.

Those present were Mrs. Kirkpatrick (chairman), G. V. Wilkinson, Alderman W. J. Greer, James Black, F. J. Fuller, Rev. G. G. Hacker and H. F. Pullen.

THE MAN IN THE MOON says:

The British Museum has just mounted a fine specimen of Canadian dinosaur but so far has failed to exhibit a sample of the genus mosasaur. These English institutions always were rather out of date.

Aimee McPherson continues to hold the centre of the stage along with the world league ball games.

The Nelson newspaper is calling on the people of that wonderful city to erect an auditorium to accommodate big conventions, big meetings and a big exhibition. It's nice to see such ambition in a little mining town. As a metropolis which has arrived we can look with amusement on these puny efforts of others.

After all it must be fine to be a lobster. He does not have to wear suspenders.

Crabs may sidestep but they do it openly and brazenly and do not lie about it or pretend to walk straight.

When Vancouver remarks that Prince Rupert is having another spell of bad weather, the reply is "So's your old man."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

OCTOBER 5, 1916
Experts of the Geological Survey at Ottawa are showing deep interest in the combination of gold and cobalt ore taken from Roche de Boule mountain states W. S. Harris, well known Hazelton mining man, who is in the city. Mr. Harris is at present conducting operations on the Hazelton View Mine.

By forming combines for shipping on the Atlantic Ocean, British ship firms will probably cut the Germans out of the carrying trade altogether after the war.

Word has been received that Major C. T. Partington and Sergeant Alex Stowell, both of whom left Prince Rupert for the war, have been killed in action.

MONTREAL IMPORTERS TEN DAY SALE BRINGS OUT GREAT CROWDS

Local Prices That Compete With Mail Order Houses Being Taken Advantage of by Prince Rupert People

J. B. is happy these days. That's J. B. Miller, proprietor of the Montreal Importers. He is selling goods fast—faster than he expected—and that's what makes him happy. And he says that his customers who have been buying ought to be happy too, for they have been buying goods at prices never before equaled in Prince Rupert. The Montreal Importers store has been thronged since last Friday and the turnover in stock that they wanted they are getting.

The whole stock of men's and boys' clothing and furnishings is being offered not only at Montreal prices but at Montreal prices cut down to sale prices and those who buy are certainly getting wonderful value. Take men's winter overcoats for instance. There is a great assortment and the prices run from $8.45 to $35.00. Nobody can beat that! And that is only one representative item of these wonderful sale prices.

More goods are arriving regularly and during this sale, they are being offered at the same reductions, as they arrive. This sale is to last for ten days and will end next Tuesday. But for your own sake, don't wait until the last day or two. Get there quick before the stock is picked over and while you can, have your own choice. It will pay you. But it's up to you. And it's worth while, anyway, to see J. B. looking so happy.—Adv.

Here and There

Vancouver.—According to statistics prepared by the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange, the foreign trade export of the port has increased 400 per cent. in the past five years, while the import trade has increased 51 per cent.

In a recent report from the Canadian Pacific Agent at Shanghai received at Montreal it is stated that the summer in vicinity of Shanghai has been trying on account of drought. This may have a disastrous effect on the crops. The long and intense heat wave was only recently broken by a typhoon which struck the Coast near Shanghai.

A plan is projected by the Osaka Prefectural Government authorities in Japan for the promotion of a large exposition in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the restoration of world peace. It is expected that the exposition will be opened in Osaka in 1929. The plans for the exposition, which will be carried out at tremendous cost, have been approved by the Prime Minister.

So successful on Canadian farms have been young bachelors, who, prior to residence in this country were students in agriculture at the Hodleigh Salvation Army Schools in Essex, England, that the Army will shortly receive into those institutions their first classes of married men destined for farm lands in the Dominion. The course will be given during six months, and will mean a thorough training in branches of agriculture, particularly adapted to conditions in Canada.

Prospects for the establishment of an air route in Japan for mail and passenger service have brightened with the announcement that the Ministry of Communications have included an appropriation in the budget of the Communications Department for such a service. It is anticipated that there will be enough passengers willing to pay double the railroad fare for the sake of speed between Osaka and Tokyo, the leading cities of Japan.

The Hebridean emigrants who are leaving their lone shellings and misty islands for a new life in Canada have, curiously enough, hitherto been ignored by the novelist, although the romance of this migration, extending over a hundred years provides a wonderful field for fiction. The extent of this field has now been realized, however, in the new novel "Eyes of a Gypsy," by the Canadian writer John Murray Gibbon, who is the well-known author of "Drums Afar," etc., and Dean of Publicity of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Action should be taken by the authorities in the Province of Quebec to shorten the open season for hunting deer and moose, according to Ozark Ripley, well known writer on animal and wild life and prominent hunter and angler. Mr. Ripley also believes that the deer season is too early as in September the deer are still in their red coats, and their numbers are only conserved through their ability to hide amongst the leaves of the underbrush which have not yet fallen. He believes that a scarcity of this game will result from the lengthy season.

The Earl of Clarendon, Under Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs in the British Government, who has been touring the Dominion investigating the conditions under which the 3000-family scheme from Great Britain is working out, declared, in an interview at the Canadian Pacific Windsor Street Station at Montreal recently, that one of the greatest things upon which the success of the scheme depended was the loyalty and cheerfulness of the mothers of families brought out to Canada to be located on farms. His Lordship paid a special tribute to the type of women brought out under this scheme whom he had met during his personal visits among immigrant families.

Never Let a Cold Get a Start.

Vapors Check a Cold Overnight

There are many way to treat a cold but only one DIRECT way—with vapors that can be inhaled. Vapors penetrate immediately into every corner of the air passages and lungs, soothing and healing with every breath. Vicks is so remarkably successful in treating cold troubles because it acts like a "vapor lamp in salve form." When rubbed over throat and chest the body heat releases vapors of Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme and Turpentine. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster. This double, direct action often checks the worst cold overnight.

POLICE ACTIVE AT SMITHERS

NUMBER OF CASES BEFORE COURT AND CONVICTIONS SECURED AT WEEK-END

SMITHERS, Oct. 5.—The local provincial police put in a couple of extra busy days the latter part of last week and as a result of their energies the provincial coffers have been increased considerably.

Three offenders under the Game Act were up on Friday and each found guilty and fined $15 and costs. Two for having beaver meat in possession out of season and one for shooting grouse without a gun license.

On Saturday Nick Alvo appeared before Magistrate Hoskins charged with supplying liquor to Indians. He was found guilty and fined $250 or five months in jail. The fine was paid.

Kate Jockson and Esther Green, Indian women, were each fined $30 and costs for drunkenness.

Jacob Barth, the lad held for stealing from passengers on the railway trains, was up on Friday and convicted of having stolen goods in his possession, but sentence was deferred. Among the articles found in his possession when arrested was a camera and the police in their hunt for evidence had the film developed, one of the pictures showed a portrait of Mrs. Thos. Jeffrey of Francois Lake who was communicated with and in court Friday identified the camera and a couple of other articles as having been stolen from her.

BOYS TO PROTECT INDIAN TOTEM POLES

Company of Guards Formed at Kitwanga Indian Village on Skeena River

KITWANGA, Oct. 5.—The Dominion government work of totem pole preservation was closed for this season here at the week end by the appointment of four Gitksan Indian boys as Kitwanga boy guards. These boys constitute Troop 1 of the Skeena Boy Guards, those appointed being Willie Lacknitz, Gordon Johnson, Frederick Benson and Robert Williams. They were selected by W. C. Washburn who was in charge of the Indian workmen.

Harlan I. Smith of the Dominion Totem Pole preservation committee decorated each boy with a sleeve badge consisting of a gilt crown embroidered on scarlet and "Number 1" similarly embroidered.

The troop will be enlarged to the number of twelve but admission to the troop depends upon the boys doing conspicuous service in guarding the totem poles and the plant specimens in the Kitwanga garden of native plants.

Invitations have been received from the natives to preserve the poles at Kitwanga, Gysigyuca and Hagwilget and it is hoped that next season the work will be continued at Gysigyuca where the totem poles are within sight of the railway most of the way from Skeena Crossing to Nash and are on the route of the automobile road now being surveyed for construction next season.

MOTION PICTURES OF KITWANGA TOTEM POLES WERE TAKEN

HAZELTON, Oct. 5.—Harold McCracken, F.R.G.S., associate editor of Field and Stream and writer of stories of the Northwest, spent a day making motion pictures of the decaying totem poles of Hazelton for Pathé Review of New York City in co-operation with the publicity department of the Canadian National Railways. At Kitwanga he filmed the story of the re-erection, restoration and repainting of the poles there which are now nearing completion under the Dominion Government.

Mr. McCracken has spent the last two months making motion pictures of the wild life and scenic attractions of that part of British Columbia served by the Canadian National Railways.

He was also greatly pleased with the spirit shown by the members of the organizations in Smithers interested in this work and for the assistance given to his officials during the planting of the eggs and in their efforts to exterminate fish in the lake that prey on Vincent Richards, Olympic champion and third ranking tennis player of the United States, has pointed the ranks of professionalism under C. C. Pyle, who thus completes an array of tennis players for a professional tour of United States and Canada which will start this week at Madison Square Garden, New York. With Richards will be Suzanne Lenglen, Miss Brown and Paul Feret. Richards' departure from the amateur field came as a surprise to tennis followers as he had been looked to to form the nucleus of the United States Davis Cup team next year. Likelihood of the doubles championship, now held by Richard and Richard N. Williams, passing from the States also looms strongly now.

Eddie Graney, known wherever fight fans gather as the dean of western referees, is smiling these days when the Dempsey-Tunney fight is mentioned. One year ago in Sunset Magazine, Graney made the following prediction based on close observation of the then champion: "Jack Dempsey has laid off fighting for so long that he is virtually out of the picture and circumstances may arise that will force him into accepting terms for a match

BRITISH LABOR IS ATTACKED

FULLER REPORT OF RECENT EPISODE IN WHICH UNION CONGRESS RESENTS DICTATORIAL METHOD

For the first time in its history a sitting of the Trades Union Congress had to be suspended at Bournemouth owing to scenes of great disorder, says a special correspondent of the London Times. The uproar, which occurred during the period of nearly half-an-hour, had been threatened by the miners' delegates when it first became known that John Bromley, M.P., of the society of locomotive engineers, had been chosen to second the resolution on the mining dispute. Mr. Bromley has earned the deepest resentment of the miners and the extremists in the Labor movement by criticizing, soon after the end of the general strike, the leadership of the miners, and by suggesting that bad leadership made it imperative for the General Council to call off the general strike.

Mr. Smillie, the aid miners' leader, had proposed the formal resolution commending the miners' cause to the generosity of fellow trade unionists. He demanded that not only Mr. Bromley but the whole general council should apologize before such a man should be allowed to second the resolution. Other delegates joined in shouting against the chairman. They would not listen to Mr. Bromley and uproar, which was stayed a moment by the appeal of Mr. Richardson for an orderly protest, swelled into a roar of boisterous, countered by a certain amount of applause, when Mr. Bromley rose to second.

DELEGATE WALKED OUT

Mr. McGurk, of the Miners' Federation, shouting "You are a lot of cowards, every one of you on the platform," walked out. Some miners' delegates and others who sympathized with them continued to shout protests, and at three attempts Mr. Bromley was shouted down.

The chairman finally ordered one delegate to leave the hall. He refused and the hubbub continued until the miners' group began to express their lament through "The Red Flag." Thereupon Mr. Pugh promptly adjourned the sitting for half-an-hour. On resuming Mr. Bromley's speech was heard with an ill grace by his critics and without enthusiasm by the bulk of the delegates. The rest of the discussion concerned relief measures, and when a vote was taken the only opposition came from a small group who had sought unsuccessfully to introduce the question of a trade union levy for the assistance of the miners.

RUSSIAN DICTATION

Some excitement was caused earlier in the day by the circulation of a remarkable message telegraphed to Congress at the beginning of the week by M. Tomsky, on behalf of the All-Russian Central Council of Trade Unions. This telegram, which came under the guise of a fraternal message, was hectoring and dictatorial in tone, seeking to order the line of action which Congress should take, criticizing the abandonment by the general council of the general strike, and definitely citing J. H. Thomas as the cause of its defeat.

and as attempting by his absence now to evade all responsibility. It insisted at the outset that the first business of the Congress must concern helping the miners. It reviled the British Government for keeping out the Russian delegate, complaining that at the same time it admitted the representatives of the Amsterdam International and the American Federation of Labor, who "either blackmail on miners" or "speculate like usurers on the unheard-of distress of miners."

CONSERVATIVE AUDACITY

"In this way," added the message. "The Conservative Government has the audacity to control the policy of the trade unions." The All-Russian Council explained how sound were all its estimates and pieces of advice during the general strike, asserted that it made a just appraisal of the "unforgivable tactics" of the general council leaders on the basis of its own historic experience, and indicated the sort of proletarian victory which would have been won before now if the strike had not been quashed.

It directed Congress to make a frank admission of its errors. Beyond the grievances against the British Government and the British Labor leaders there are grievances against the Anglo-Russian Committee, which at Paris said Berlin "turned down" all the Russian schemes for helping the British miners.

PUNGENT COMMENT

The comment of the general council was brief and pungent. It registered the strongest possible protest against this abuse of the courtesies normally extended to fraternal delegates, and condemned the assumption of the right by the All Russian Council "to indulge in unwarrantable censure" of the general council and "to abuse personally certain of its members." The General Council declared finally that it had no intention of replying to "this ill-structured and presumptuous criticism," and stated with emphasis that it could not permit the position of a fraternal delegate to be degraded into a tirade against representatives of the British Labor movement.

On Friday the Congress endorsed by an emphatic vote the general council's comments on the telegram from the All-Russian Central Council of Trade Unions.

BRIEF REVIEW FASCIST PARTY

The ultimate aims of Fascism and of its chief are still uncertain, says the London Times. Even the internal program of the Fascists Party is still, to some extent, experimental. There are many strands in the political fabric which the Duce and his counsellors are weaving, and some have not yet been harmoniously matched with the rest. But the attempt to blend a vigorous nationalism with certain Socialist or rather syndicalist elements, to combine a Roman conception of the State with modern economic organization and theory, is of surpassing interest and importance in this age when the conflict between the innovators, whether evolutionists or revolutionaries, and the traditionalists has reached its height.

Of equal importance to the European world is the recovery of Italy under Fascist leadership from the almost anarchical confusion of the three years that followed the Great War. There is nothing negative or purely static in the new Italian State; the national forces have been firmly gripped and are boldly led, and, if the end to which they are being directed is still obscure, there can be no question of the remarkable increase in their cohesion and efficiency. With this increase has come a change in the Italian national temper. How deep, how permanent, this change has been or is destined to be no foreigner and few, if any, Italian observers can yet decide. But all the available evidence indicates a growth of self-confidence, of discipline, and of initiative which may have a profound and durable effect on the importance of Italy as a factor in European, and more especially in Mediterranean, politics.

That the political triumph of Fascism was attended by certain excesses is undeniable; there are features, perhaps temporary features, in its political practice and philosophy which are repugnant to British political tradition; and it has suffered from the follies of non-Italian parodists. But Italian Fascism is a fact and Fascist Italy a force of unexhausted potentialities, represented by the compelling and original personality on whose escape not Italy alone is to be congratulated today.

POLITICAL PURITY BEING DEMANDED BY PARTY NEWSPAPERS

(Toronto Globe)

One feature of post-election comment contained in the Liberal newspapers, both in the West and in the East, is the frank gratification expressed at the defeat of Liberal party candidates whose reputations have in the remotest degree been darkened by connection with occurrences of a suspicious or doubtful nature. Such reflections are an intimation to the party that it must not recognize or support for Parliament men who have personally been concerned in questionable political incidents.

The Regina Leader voices its satisfaction at the defeat of C. W. Cross, the Liberal candidate in Athabaska, and declares that the "party is well rid of Mr. Cross as a representative at Ottawa." The Lethbridge Herald gives utterance to similar views, and indulges equal gratification. The defeat of Mr. Duff, the Liberal candidate in Queens-Lunenburg, affords satisfaction to The Ottawa Citizen, which observes that the gentleman has "done enough damage to Liberalism."

Frank declarations of this kind will help to purify the political atmosphere and strengthen popular sentiment demanding decency in public life. Had the Conservative newspapers during the past few months adopted a similar tone with regard to undesirables within that party's rank—with regard to the De Witt Posters, the Garlands, the Boyeses, the Joneses—they would have accomplished something useful to their cause. They would have done their Leader and their party a real service had they talked to Mr. Meighen as the Liberal press is now talking to Mr. King.

DEPLETION OF THE HALIBUT

WINNIPEG PAPER COMMENTS EF-FORT TO STUDY AND CONSERVE
FISH

Everyone recognizes the halibut as one of the finest fish that we obtain in Canada. It is a sea fish to be found on each coast, but the waters of the Pacific off the northern coast of British Columbia has yielded a great supply, and the fish, caught by Canadian and American fishermen, have been shipped all over the continent. One of the interesting sights at Prince Rupert or Vancouver is to see the halibut being thrown out on the dock from the fishing boats—big flat fish, dark on one side and white on the reverse.

To the consumer the only objection to this splendid food fish is the price, and under present conditions there is no hope of an improvement in this respect. The fact of the matter is that there has been in recent years a rapid depletion of the halibut fishery off the coast of British Columbia. There is hope, however, in the very sensible co-operation which is now being undertaken by the Canadian and American governments to make an exhaustive study of the situation and ascertain just what regulations must be adopted to allow the halibut to increase again and to maintain the supply.

JOINT COMMISSION
For this purpose a joint commission has been appointed and experts have begun the task of learning the whole life history of the halibut and all about their movements about the coast. One of the best fishing schooners on the coast is being employed and is specially fitted up for the purpose. It will be a thorough scientific study that should lead to a solution of the difficulty. An interesting feature of the investigation will be the tagging of thousands of fish to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timber-feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption may be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.
For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes. Minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (gras-ing) land $2.50 per acre. Further in-

OIL DESTROYS BIRD LIFE ON COAST WATERS

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Most people who have wandered on the sea beaches during these holidays have come across some pitiful evidence of the suffering caused to sea-going birds by the waste oil that ships persist in discharging into the sea. To impress inland folk with the extent of the mischief the Natural History Museum at South Kensington has placed in its central hall a case showing what happens to the unfortunate birds who encounter a patch of

On a bit of beach brought from birds, including gullmots, razor-bills, and a red-throated diver, just as they were found washed up by the tide. The beautiful breast plumage is blackened and the wings are coated and clogged with oil, showing how impossible it was for the birds to escape their fate by flight.
