Z. Gudieff, one of the bandits who robbed the Royal Bank of Canada at Hazelton during construction days on the railway, was released from New Westminister penitentiary last week after having served twelve of the twenty year term that was imposed upon him by Judge F. McE. Young of this city in 1914. His pardon was granted by the Department of Justice for good conduct with the understanding, however, that he leave Canada and never return. Accordingly he sailed from Vancouver aboard the Empress of Canada last Saturday for Shanghai enroute to Russia, the land of his birth.

Gudieff was one of a band of eight bandits who participated in the big robbery, the only bank robbery in the history of this district. #### Horrible Murder of Japanese Woman and Child in Vancouver Bodies of Whom Were Mutilated

VANCOUVER, April 20.—Horribly mutilated by knife wounds, the bodies of a Japanese woman, Mrs. Kimi Furukawa, 29 years of age and her three-year-old son were discovered lying on the floor of their diningroom at their home, Sixth Ave. West, shortly before noon yesterday.

Before succumbing to attacks made on her the dead woman evidently put up a desperate battle for her life and that of her child. The attack on her was apparently made at the head of the stairway from which place a trail of blood led down the steps to the dining room where the bodies were found.

At the time of the murder, the husband of the woman was at work in a sawmill.

The police are seeking Soitsu Furukawa, a brother-in-law of the dead woman, who is believed to be the author of a note saying he intended to commit suicide.

Confesses to Crime

At noon today a well dressed Japanese walked into the police station and announced "I killed the woman and her baby yesterday."

After admitting that he was the man named Soitsu he was charged with the double murder and removed to a cell where he made a statement which was taken down in writing and will be used as evidence against him.

Inspector Thompson, after an interview with the Japanese, said apparently he considered he had done no wrong in committing the crimes for which he accepted the responsibility.

Soitsu's wrists were badly slashed.

Colonel McMullin Coming to Negotiate with City Regard to Provincial Policing Scheme

Word has been received in the city that Superintendent McMullin of the Provincial police will arrive here tomorrow for the purpose of entering into negotiations with the city for taking over the policing of the municipality. His visit is the result of an invitation extended to the department by the city council at a recent meeting.

Since the passing of the amendment to the police and prisons legislation act in the session of the Legislature of 1924, the province has by mutual agreement taken over the policing of the cities of Duncan, Courtenay, Prince George, Rossland, Port Coquitlam and the municipality of Matsqui. Prince George after seven or eight months trial submitted the matter of continuance to the ratepayers and it was endorsed by about two to one.

Case for Change

An advocate of the change says that if Colonel McMullin takes over the work there is likely to be a general tightening up. He argues that as Prince Rupert is the divisional headquarters of the provincial force there would usually be a number of spare officers on hand who could give time to city work so that few men would have to be added to the present force.

The force being provincial, it is possible to transfer officers who are top well known to another locality, and this he thinks is a very distinct advantage. People who are too well known often hesitate to enforce the law against friends.

With a single force, there would be greater uniformity of enforcement and greater co-operation. The whole force of the provincial police is behind it in emergency when extra men are required.

No Extra Charge

Under the provincial system there would be no extra charge for administering the liquor act, as at present. Police officers get the benefits of superannuation and more opportunities of promotion.

All this is in addition to the matter of economy, which it is considered would be very considerable but which only the direct negotiations will prove.

Doubtless Colonel McMullin will lay before the council all the advantages and disadvantages of the proposal he has to make and the public should be informed so that they may be in a position to back it up or turn it down as they see fit.

For And Against Provincial Policing.

On the front page of today's issue will be found a short article showing some reasons why it would be wise to place the policing of the city under the provincial force. It is well worth considering. Should anyone wish to give the reasons why it should not be adopted and why we should allow the policing to remain as it is, we shall be glad to publish it also. Colonel McMullin is coming to open negotiations and this is the time to discuss the change if it is to be made.

Few Realize What It Means To Be Premier.

Few people realize just what it means to be premier, even of a province. Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, the other day paid a visit to Nelson and the schedule laid down for him during the day would have been enough to tire a young man full of vigor. For a man seventy years of age it was a prodigious amount and a strain such as would seem almost dangerous. Here is the program:
 9 a.m.—Inspects Garrity Creek cut-off.
 11 a.m.—Meets Mayor McDonald to discuss isolation hospital.
 4 p.m.—Addresses Rotary Club.
 2 p.m.—Receives Crawford Bay delegation.
 2:30 p.m.—Confers with Liberal Association.
 4 p.m.—Meets Board of Trade.
 8 p.m.—Meets Prospectors' Protective Association and Chamber of Mines.
 9 p.m.—Invited to address Auto Club smoker.

CANADIANS FOR THIS CANADA

Lecturer Gave Inspiring Address in United Church Here Last Night Under Native Sons

NEED NATIONAL SPIRIT

Nothing Wrong With Country But Some of Residents Consider it Only Meal Ticket

One of the most stirring, stimulating and eloquent addresses ever heard in Prince Rupert was delivered last evening in the First United Church by Walter McRae, prominent lecturer and traveller and Canadian patriot, under the auspices of Prince Rupert Assembly, Native Sons of Canada, before a large audience which was presided over by Ald. M. M. Stephens, president of the local assembly. Mr. McRae handled his subject, "Canadianizing Canada," in a forceful manner and made many exhortations based not on radicalism but on the true spirit of Canadian nationalism under British sovereignty. He showed the glories of Canada in the past—the heritage of every man and woman born in the Dominion; deplored the indifferent Canadian spirit of today in scathing terms and pointed finally to the future and its possibilities.

The spirit which enabled the early pioneers to overcome what were apparently insurmountable obstacles, the indomitable courage of Canadian troops in the war and the spirit of unity amongst them, the lack of an appreciation of Canada by those living here, and the need for unity coupled with an appeal for more instructive teaching of Canadian history were stressed by Mr. McRae.

"The need of Canada today," declared Mr. McRae, "is a Canadian conscience." Proceeding, the speaker referred to the spirit of the Canadian forces at Ypres, and said that there the men going over the top did not look to see if the man next to them were from the west or from the east, they saw 'Canada' on his shoulder, and that was enough."

Past Worth Study

Mr. McRae referred to the glorious past of the Dominion, recalling the early pioneers, the Indian wars, the story of the Hudson Bay Company, the laying of the C.P.R. tracks. "All these," said the speaker, "are epics of which any country might be proud, and yet how much of them is taught in our schools."

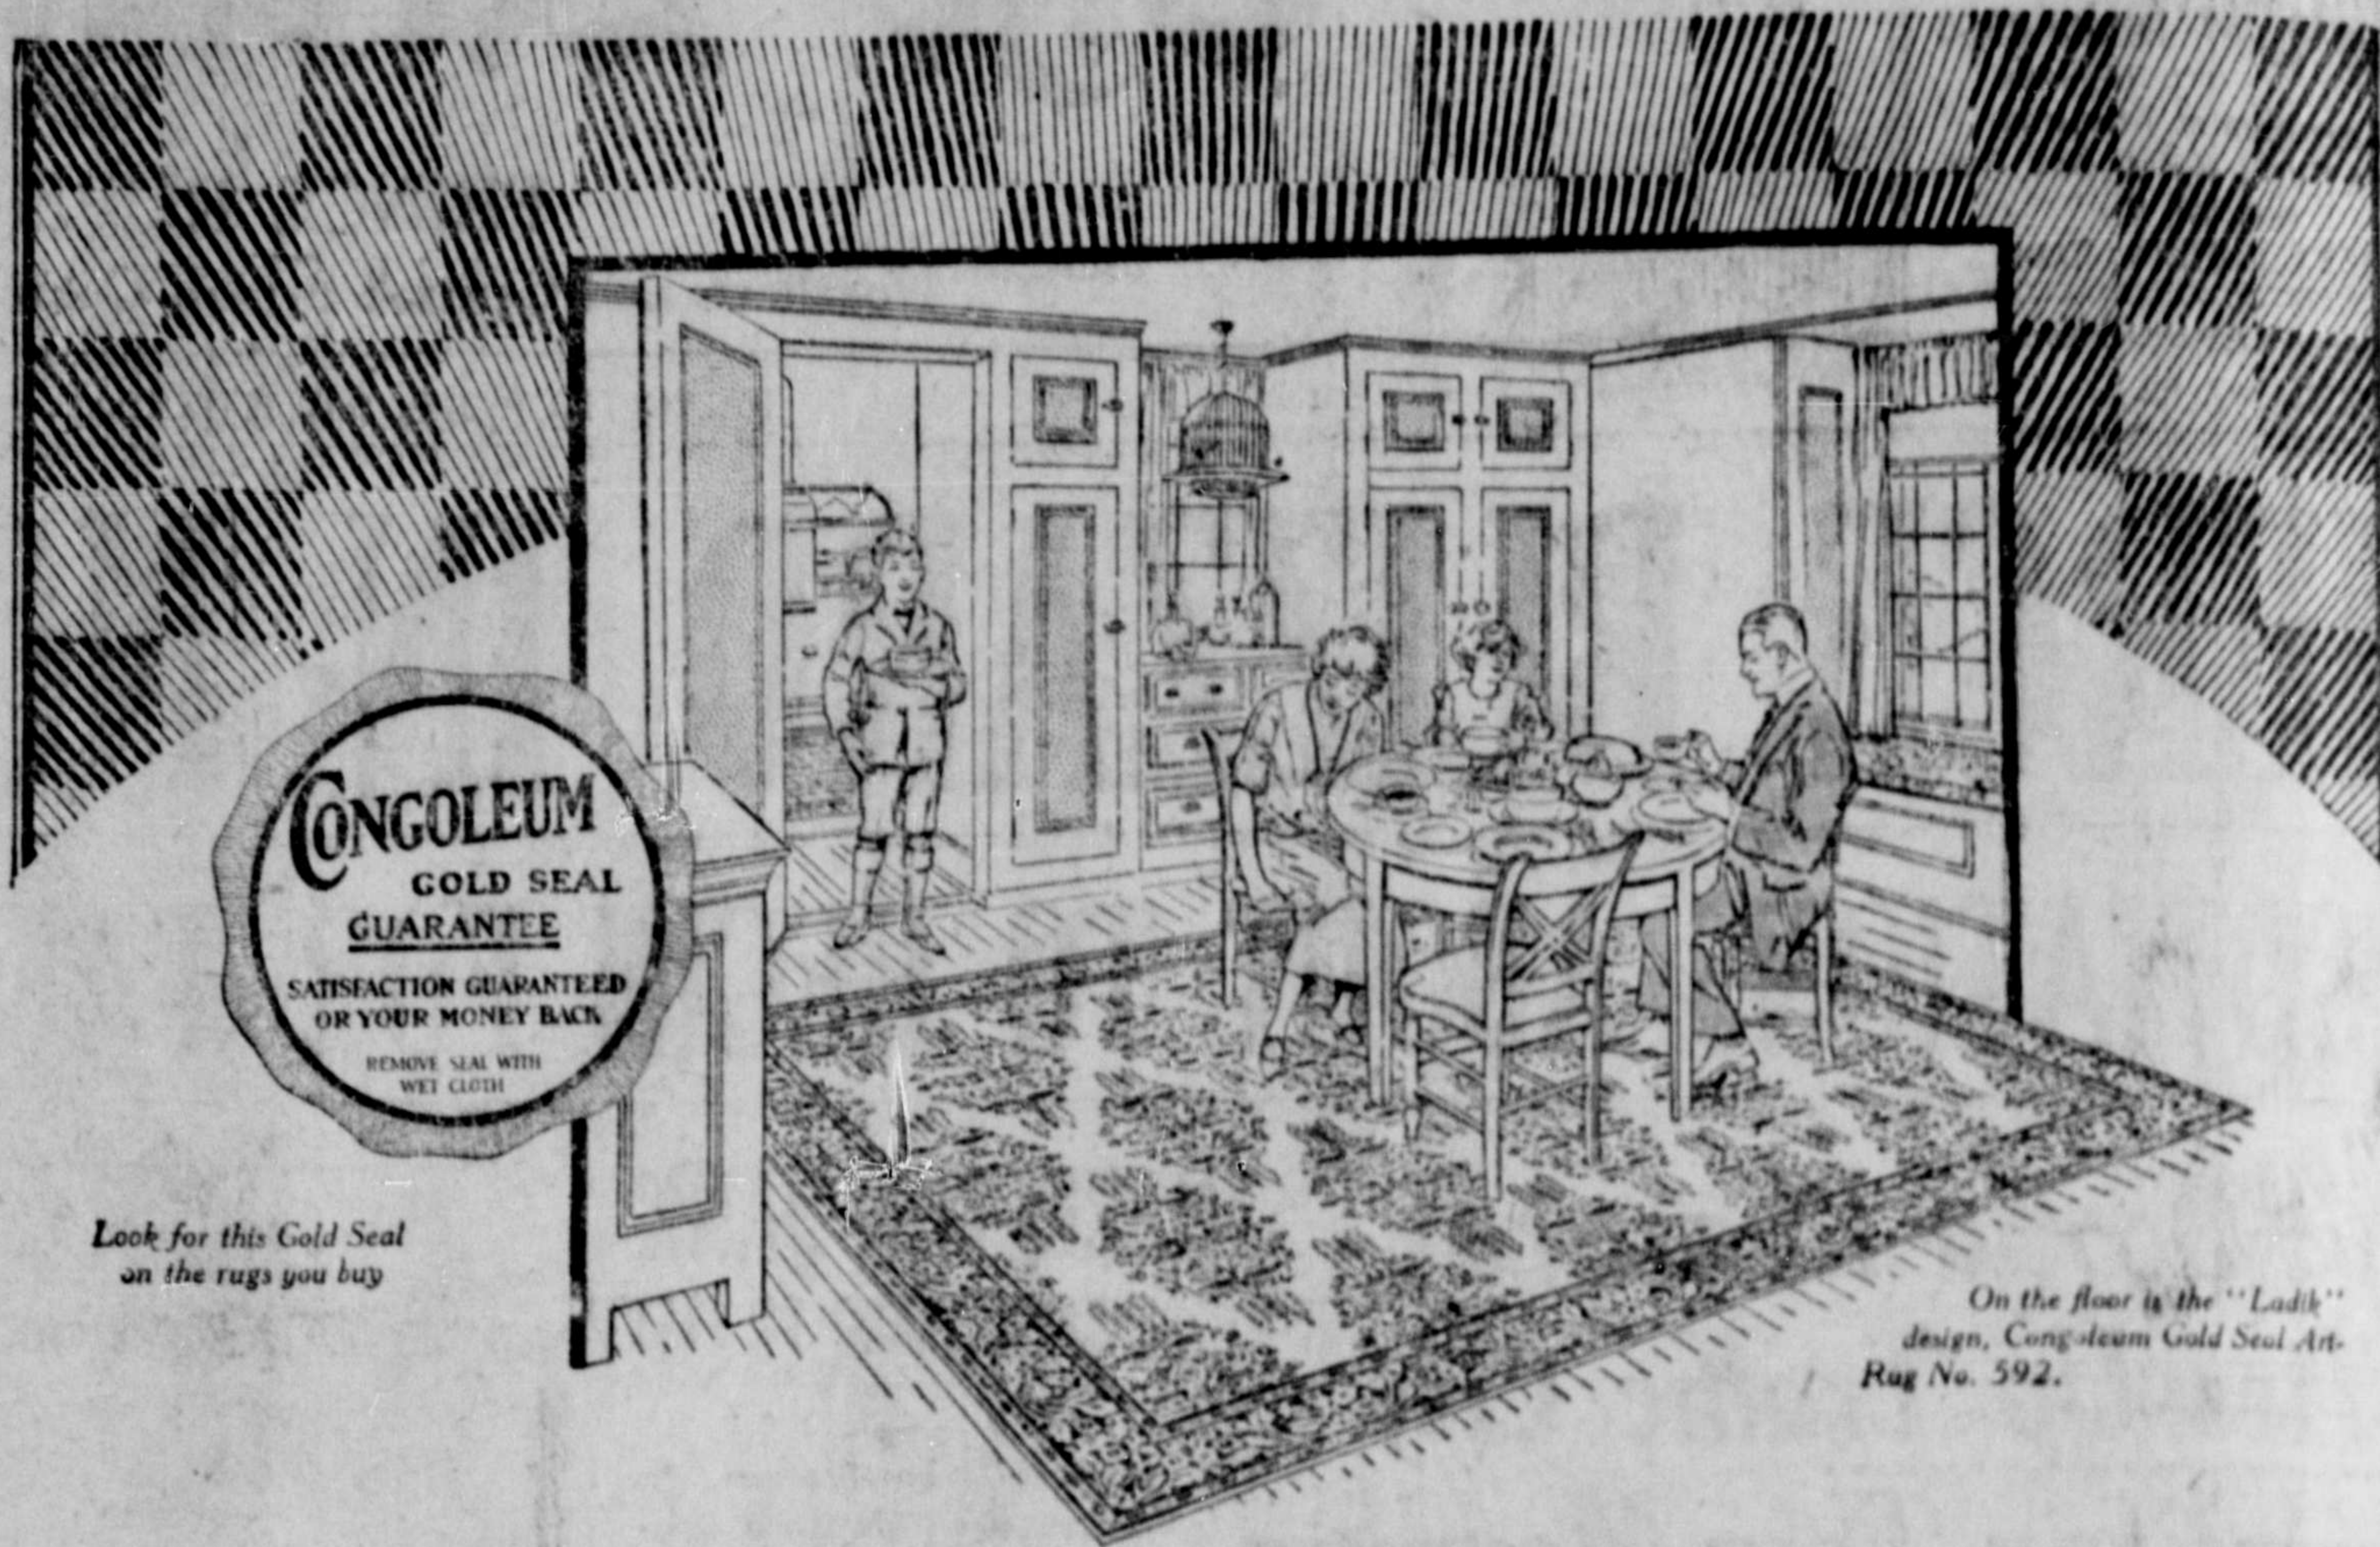

"The history of Canada," he continued, "is founded on the success of earnest endeavor. In its pages one sees optimism at its best. Yet we Canadians are not enthusiastic. Why? Because we have never been taught about our own wonderful history."

"The trouble is that we have no national conscience, our outlook is proverbial or local. We cannot rise to a national aspect. The government is seeking to change this, but before it can educate the nation, it must educate itself," declared Mr. McRae. "It is hard to realize, but nevertheless, unfortunately true, that no child born in Canada today is a Canadian. The very birth certificate robs it of its birth-right. On this certificate it is clearly stated that nationality must be stated as that of the parents because there is not Canadian nationality, that term merely denoting citizenship."

Real Canadianism Needed

"I am a Canadian 100 per cent," declared the speaker, "and I take off my hat to the Englishman, or the Irishman, or the man of any other nation who comes out here and is not ashamed to own his country. But if the children of that man, born in Canada, declare they are sons of their father's land rather than sons of Canada, then those are the very worst kind of aliens we could have. They will undermine the rights and the traditions of our land."

"I yield place to no man in Prince Rupert or in Canada in my loyalty to the British Empire, but I say this advisedly," said Mr. McRae, "that when a Canadian is prouder of belonging to the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, or to the Sons of England, or to the Sons of Scotland, than he is of belonging to Canada he is an alien in sense and spirit. Don't worry about the British Empire; it has been here a long time and it will be here a long time after you and I are gone. What we Stressing the legal side of the case as outlined by the laws, Mr. McRae said, "If the Prince of Wales had been caught in the country on a visit when the census were being taken, he would, according to our laws, have been classified as a German."

What is Wrong?

"What is wrong with Canada?" asked the speaker. "Nothing! It is Canadians that are wrong. We have the most wonderful country in the world, and how do many of its inhabitants regard it? Merely as a glorified meal ticket, to be worked until we have made enough, and then back to the country we are proud to own."

In conclusion, Mr. McRae said, "Get away from the jazzy restless wave to today. We must drop our sectional differences, and take a national view. Let us change our motto of Canada for the Canadians to the Canadians for Canada. Do this and we will be building up the unity between north and south, between east and west, between the Dominion and the Empire, and we will be making Canada worthy of her gallant sixty thousand sons who laid down their lives on the fields of France and Flanders."

At the close of the lecture Mr. McRae gave some very excellent renditions of Dr. Drummond's habitant poems which were much appreciated by the large audience present.

HILL 60 CHAPTER TO NAME CHILDREN'S WARD IN GENERAL HOSPITAL

The hospital board decided last night to give Hill 60 Chapter L.O.D.E. permission to name the children's ward "Hill 60 Ward L.O.D.E." Other organizations who contributed to the drive for funds will be asked to express their concurrence. Reporting on a conference that he and L. W. Waugh, on behalf of the board, had had with Hill 60 Chapter, J. H. Thompson stated that they had come to agreement with the contention that, while other orders had given financial assistance, the chapter had originated the idea and had contributed a great deal more money than any other organization to the ward and was thus entitled to the recognition that was sought.

Thoughts of Local People Turn to Preparing of Salt Lakes for Swimming and Picnic Parties

Need of Leadership Just Now to Improve Picnic Grounds and Put Swimming Paraphernalia in Shape: Caretaker Needed

Recent visitors to the Salt Lakes say there is need of some little improvements at the swimming pool. The dam has been washed away and should be renewed and more sand should be taken in for the benefit of the youngsters who are learning to swim. Also this would be a good time to remove some of the rocks which spoil the pool for the beginners.

The whole question of administration of the Salt Lakes Park is likely to come up for discussion now. Last autumn the provincial government placed control of the park in the hands of a Provincial Parks Board of which Dr. W. T. Kerwin is chairman. The idea of doing this, it seems, was not to displace the swimming club but to strengthen their hands so that they would have authority at the lakes to make such charges as might be necessary in order to raise money to properly care for the place.

Caretaker Necessary The popular opinion seems to be that for two or three months, especially during the school holidays, a caretaker is necessary at the swimming pool to see that the dressingrooms are kept clean, to rake out the weeds and other debris brought in by the periodic high tides and to act as a safeguard in case of need for those learning to swim. Also the caretaker might be a swimming instructor, possibly. However, all this would cost money and the patrons of the place are the ones, who, apparently, will be expected to pay for it. The city already has its hands full in looking after the play grounds in the city.

Land to be Cleared The Trades and Labor Council recently interested themselves in the matter with a view to clearing up the land at the entrance to the first lake so that it might be used as a picnic ground. It has been suggested that this work should be left with the Trades and Labor Council to organize. Already much clearing has been done there and if working bees were established on several occasions, it should not be long before a sufficient space would be made so that races might be held there by picnic parties and others. Forty or fifty men with axes could do a lot in half a day.

Leadership Needed What seems to be needed just now is leadership by a group that would take a real interest in the place, preferably of those who have no conflicting interests to take them elsewhere.

SPORT CHAT

In spite of the balmy spring weather, outdoor sport in Prince Rupert is not rushing into organization. There is considerable to do yet before the footballers get in action and the annual meeting of the baseball association has not even been called yet. There will, as usual, be nothing much doing before May 24, although it is possible that football may get started before that date.

MEETING OF FAIR BOARD LAST NIGHT

Plans Being Perfected for Big Hard Times Dance and Parade-Indian Day Discussed Business at the meeting of the Fair Board last night was mainly devoted to plans for the big hard times dance which will be held tomorrow evening in the Exhibition Hall and which will be preceded with a parade from downtown. It was reported to the meeting that the building had been cleaned out from top to bottom. Mitchell and Currie had sanded the floor which was now being polished by Frank Morris with his electrical machine. It was expected that by tomorrow night it would be a dancing floor second to none in the district.

Plans for the holding of an Indian Day in connection with the Fair this year were discussed. A letter was received from Port Essington in connection with the matter.

That is unless he is familiar with Dr. Chase's Ointment for many doctors recommend this treatment to their patients. For nearly half a century Dr. Chase's Ointment has been the never failing relief for itching, bleeding and protruding piles. It is now very generally known by the medical profession, and the public generally, as the standard treatment for this torturing ailment. EXTENSION OF DIET KITCHEN PROPOSED

Difficulty of Keeping Meals on Men's Floor is Placed Before Hospital Board

The question of providing heating facilities for the purpose of keeping meals for patients on the men's floor of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was brought up at the board meeting last night by J. H. Thompson, chairman of the house committee. Two suggestions were offered. One was that the present diet kitchen be extended by taking in another small room and removing the partition and the other was that a portable heater, like those in use in the Vancouver General Hospital, be installed. The matter was left with the house committee for further investigation.

HOSPITAL WAS BUSIER THIS MARCH THAN LAST

Disbursements Totalled $5,216.73 and Collections, $3,739.50

Mr. Tinker also reported that the finance committees of the hospital and city council had met and had agreed upon a per capita grant this year of 60c, the city undertaking to come to the assistance of the hospital if it later becomes necessary to do so.

ROUGH HOUSE AT POLICE STATION

Officer is Assaulted, Car Damaged and Window Broken During Arrest of Neil Bruce

The assaulting of a police officer, damaging of a patrol automobile and breaking of a window in the front of the police station were the results of the arrest just before midnight last night of Neil Bruce of Vancouver by City Police Sergeant Hugh McGilnechy. The officer responded to a call from the Dominion Cafe where Bruce was creating a disturbance and, before he got his man in the lock-up, there was a pretty strenuous time of it. Bruce put up strong resistance and caused the officer considerable injuries about the face and eyes in the close quarters of the automobile which was itself damaged. In the scuffle as officer and man were entering the station, they crashed into a window which was shattered.

Bruce will be charged with assault of a police officer and probably other offences. Ed. Hearn, also alleged to have been involved in the fracas at the cafe, was arrested on a charge of intoxication.

RELIGION OF A SCIENTIST

Late Luther Burbank Started Western World With Declaration of Infidelity

ALREADY IN ETERNITY

Power to Cure by Laying on of Hands But Nothing Supernatural About it

Luther Burbank, the scientist, who died last week recently declared "as a scientist I cannot help but feel that all religions are on a tottering foundation." He also repeated former assertions that he was "an infidel in the true sense of the word."

Most of the comment was in opposition to the horticulturist's statement, a group of Chicago clergymen branding his remarks as "unscientific" and "nonsense," while Chauncey M. Depew, in New York, said he regretted "sincerely that such a prominent man as Mr. Burbank should adopt this attitude, as it is contrary to the sentiment of ninety-nine per cent of the American people today."

Appearing in the pulpit of the First Congregational Church in San Francisco, Burbank declared he had "nominated" himself an "infidel" so as to cause people to think.

"I reiterate: The religion of most people is what they would like to believe, not what they do believe and very few stop to examine its foundation," he said.

Damnable to Him

"The idea that a good God would send people to a burning hell is utterly damnable to me. The cravings of insanity; superstition gone to seed, I don't want to have anything to do with such a God. I am a lover of men Christ as a man and His work, and all things that help humanity but, nevertheless, just as He was an infidel then, I am an infidel today."

"I prefer and claim the right to worship the infinite everlasting almighty God of this vast universe as revealed to us gradually step by step by the demonstrable truths of our savior science."

None Are Dead

"Do you think Christ or Mohammed, Confucius, Baal or even the gods of ancient mythology are dead? Not so. Do you think Pericles, Marcus Aurelius, Shakespeare, Spinoza, Aristotle, Socrates, Plato, Empedocles, Humboldt, Darwin, Tolstoi, Franklin, Emerson, are dead? No one lives who is not influenced more or less by these great ones according to the capacity of the cup of knowledge which they bring to their ever-flowing fountains to be filled."

"All plants, animals and man are already in eternity, travelling across the face of time, whence we know not, whither he is able to say. Let us have one world at a time and let us make the journey one of joy to our fellow passengers and just as convenient and happy for them as we can and trust the rest as we trust life."

"Let us read the Bible without the ill-fitting colored spectacles of theology just as we read other books, using our own judgment and reason, listening to the voice within—not to the noisy babble without."

Power to Cure

Following this, the naturalist claimed he had the power to cure the ill by the "laying on of hands."

"Why, many years ago my nearest neighbor was dying," he was quoted as saying "Four doc-

Still Enjoying Life at 84

That Wonderful Remedy

Mrs. F. H. Miller, 1848-11th Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "Five years ago my husband suffered terribly with severe attacks of palpitation of the heart and smothering spells, and two doctors stated that he could not possibly live six months."

A friend recommended Milburn's H. and N. Pills, with the result that my husband is still enjoying life at the age of 84 years.

He has improved so wonderfully that he can now climb the stairs without having those awful pains in his heart."

tors had given him up. He sent for me and I went to his bedside. He told me 'I am going to die tonight. I told him 'you are going to get well. Tomorrow morning I will see you at your wood pile as usual.' He was there the next morning. That is only one of so many cases."

Asserting the "power" was not supernatural, he added: "And bear in mind that I will not allow the afflicted to be brought to me; I cannot have my door thronged with patients. I am far too busy to take on any more work than I have now on hand."

Message to Children

On March 6, the eve of his seventy-seventh birthday, Burbank addressed a message to "the children of the world," telling their happiness will be in direct proportion to their loving thoughts, "toward every person and animal and even toward stars, planets, oceans, rivers and hills."

Better Human Race

Burbank felt there was still more important work than his own to be done by someone else who could breed a finer human race. "Inferior human beings cannot be treated as if they were inferior plants," he said. "But if civilization is to endure, some way must be found to produce more of the fit and fewer of the unfit."

PRINCE GEORGE

Returning last week from a two weeks' trip to the Herriek River district where he investigated the death of a trapper, Thomas Meaney, who was killed in a fight with a silver tip bear.

Provincial Constable Muirhead told an interesting story of how Martin Dayton, McGregor River trapper, had an encounter with a pack of twenty timber wolves and with the assistance of his dogs, beat them off in spite of the fact that he had no ammunition in the rifle with which he faced the beasts.

O. B. Hughes, Blackwater rancher, has returned to Prince George after having spent two years in Idaho and Wyoming for the benefit of his health which is now greatly improved.

VANDERHOOF

The Vanderhoof branch of the Great War Veterans' Association is being merged with the Canadian Legion, an organization comprised of members of the several military and naval organizations throughout the Dominion.

The Vanderhoof Board of Trade is taking up with the provincial government the matter of road communication to Stuart Lake where Sir John Pitka's colony is established and where more settlers are expected to establish themselves this year.

Mrs. William Ewen is seriously ill with pneumonia and is under the care of Dr. W. Ross Stone.

R. H. Moore, Stuart Lake Indian Agent, has left for Kamloops and, on his return, will bring a new car with him for official work.

After spending the winter months in Alberta, Harry Stokes has returned to town.

Mrs. Frank Reid has returned to Chilco after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Ontario.

Seeding operations have commenced in this district and the farmers are looking forward to a bumper crop next autumn, the land being in good shape and indications being for a most successful season.

PRINCE GEORGE

G. R. Fitzpatrick of St. Andrew's College, University of Saskatchewan, has arrived here to assist Rev. R. T. McFarlane in the Vanderhoof and Fort Fraser United Church mission field during the summer months.

PRINCE GEORGE

Harry Brawn and Carney Monteith are establishing a sawmill on the island at the foot of George Street on lots which they have leased from the provincial government. The plant they purchased recently from the Mitchell estate. The initial output will be 15,000 feet daily.

JEAN JOHNSON IS FINED $100

Found Guilty by Judge Young on Charge of Keeping Disorderly House

Jean Johnson, 819 Second Ave., was found guilty at noon today by Judge Young on a charge of keeping a disorderly house and was fined $100 which she paid. The court was engaged in the hearing of the case yesterday afternoon and again this morning. After the evidence for the prosecution had been taken yesterday afternoon, His Honor decided that there was sufficient evidence to warrant it being answered by the defence and court then adjourned until this morning when the witnesses for the defence took the stand. Giving evidence on her own behalf, accused flatly denied that prostitution or illegal sale of liquor was carried on upon her premises. The witness who had given evidence of prostitution, she said, must have been drunk. She absolutely denied the incident referred to by that witness. She had not been responsible, for any disorders such as cutting that might have arisen on her premises. Her husband, she said, was not all that she thought he was before she married him.

E. F. Jones, city solicitor, conducted the prosecution while Milton Gonzales appeared in the defence.

PORTLAND COMPANY MAY GO TO VICTORIA

Pineo Sees Great Opportunities For Utilizing Vancouver Island Port

A Portland company, which is operating in the way of shipping grain, may move to Victoria as a better point from which to carry on its operations, says the Victoria Colonist. This is the information conveyed to the delegation from this city which visited Seattle last week through Roger Pineo.

The latter has information relative to port development here which has been overlooked hitherto in the plans for development of trade. It was in this regard that C. P. W. Schwengers, president of the Chamber of Commerce, gave the information that Mr. Pineo was of opinion that perhaps there might be a moving of the plant of the Portland firm here so that the opportunities might be afforded to enter the world markets in the matter of grain shipments.

By coming to Victoria the hard wheat of the Canadian prairies would be available, as it was not by operating out of Portland.

Mr. Schwengers says that while Mr. Pineo is not a large investor himself, he ascertained that anything that he puts his name to can be readily financed. He stands so well among conservative investors that it is regarded as sufficient that he recommends the investment to have the proposition taken up.

H. B. Rochester, after making the round trip to Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart, returned to the city on the Cardena this afternoon.

with temperatures which would make human life possible, without man's ever being able to reach it over the ice." It has often crossed his mind, he writes, that, if this Arctic continent should be discovered, human beings might be found upon it. Whalers, he proceeds to explain, have been caught in the ice in Behring Strait and carried north with it. They always had native hunters and women with them and, if in their drift northward they struck land at last, they may have been able to live, thrive and multiply there, though cut off entirely from civilization. "To see people, live human beings," the veteran explorer tells us, "on any land in the midst of the Arctic ice would make the traveler on a dirigible pinch himself hard and a great many times to make sure he was awake. It just couldn't be, and yet it is not impossible. Nothing is."

POOLEY ATTACKS OLIVER METHODS

Takes Exception to Allowing Him to Handle P.G.E. Sale

VICTORIA, April 20.—Speaking before the McBride Conservative Club R. H. Pooley, leader of the party in the Legislature, attacked the methods adopted by the Oliver Government in the matter of delaying important legislation in the House until near the close of the session, for its policy on the Sumas reclamation matter, and for the way in which the P.G.E. land proposition was proposed to be handled.

Mr. Pooley said that Premier Oliver had blundered in the construction of the P.G.E. and was the last man to be entrusted with the sale of it. The speaker called attention to the fact that during the last session Parliament marked time for five weeks before the Government brought down its legislation. The result was that at the end of the session the members worked morning, noon and night to get through.
