WELL KNOWN SALMON TROLLER IS DEAD

Late John Olund, Resident of Lewis Island, Was 47 Years of Age

The death took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Prince Rupert General Hospital of John Olund, well known pioneer salmon troller of this district. He had been a patient in the hospital for two months.

Having made his residence at Lewis Island, deceased had lived in this district for many years. He was a native of Sweden and his age was 47.

A sister, Mrs. Anna Dahl, resides in Vallejo, California, and instructions were received from her this morning to hold the funeral locally. Arrangements are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers and interment will probably take place on Monday afternoon.

JAP LICENSES AND CANNERIES

Department of Fisheries Asked to Include all Operating Companies in Distribution

PROTEST COLD STORAGE

The Board of Trade at the annual meeting last night passed a resolution which has been telegraphed to the minister of marine and fisheries and also to Fred Stork asking that "so long as Japanese licenses are issued all companies operating in District 2 should be included in the distribution of the same."

The passing of the resolution followed a good deal of discussion in which it was explained that the Somerville cannery in this city was last year unable to get any of the licenses allotted to it, whereas canneries which were closed were able to use licenses and pack their fish at other canneries.

Cold Storage Position

J. W. Nicholls, on behalf of the Cold Storage Company, stated that while their cannery had been closed, the fish caught had been taken care of at the Cold Storage plant. He mentioned that a good deal of salmon was exported or frozen and some was salted. Other companies than those engaged in canning had a right to some of the licenses.

In order not to discriminate against the Cold Storage plant, the word "cannery" was eliminated from the resolution, which was passed after an attempt had been made to refer it to a committee for report to the executive. It was pointed out that so important a resolution should not be sprung on the meeting without thorough consideration.

It is understood that the matter of distribution of licenses is now under consideration at Ottawa and this influenced the meeting in favor of immediate action, it being felt that hardship had been worked against the local cannery.

Wonderful Tale of Stolen Identity by Man Who Posed as a Physician in Alaskan Town

CORDOVA, Jan. 9.—Building a successful practice, although the only medical knowledge he had was what he gained in the penitentiary hospital, a man said to be Arthur Webb, alleged to have twice stolen another's identity, is the second man arrested within two months in this section of Alaska while posing as a physician. Webb is held at Kodiak on telegraph advices from the sheriff at Seattle.

Arthur Webb is alleged to have broken jail in Okanagan, Washington, in 1919, where he is alleged to have stolen Masonic credentials from Robert Johnstone of British Columbia, then gone to Juneau, where he assumed Johnstone's name. While visiting a brother Mason the report says he stole a government check and fled to Cordova. There he cashed the stolen check and departed. He was arrested in Utah, brought to Valdez and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

The man was released last August on good behavior. He then stole a doctor's surgical outfit, went to Kodiak, posed as Dr. E. A. MacGibbon and introduced himself as a former surgeon of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Board of Trade Annual Report Made by President Nickerson is Optimistic as to Future

At the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade held last evening, the retiring president, George W. Nickerson, gave a review of the year's work and an optimistic prophecy for the future with a number of recommendations in regard to work that should be carried on as follows:—
Gentlemen:—

In presenting this, the 17th annual report of this board, it is gratifying to note that during the past year, Canada seems to have turned the corner and is now on the road to prosperity; and unless we meet with unforeseen reverses should continue upon an unbroken period of national development, in which event, we have every reason to believe that Prince Rupert will participate, providing its citizens have faith and do their share towards the developing of our natural resources.

Canada today has a balance of trade in her favor of $360,000,000; this is an increase of $100,000,000 over 1924. Our wheat crop in dollars and cents has been the greatest we have ever enjoyed. Returns from mining in British Columbia have increased by $13,000,000, giving us a total return from this source of $64,000,000. Our fishing industry as a whole has shown greater returns than that of 1924. I regret to report however that our halibut fishing, on which Prince Rupert relies for its principal source of revenue, has not been as lucrative for our fishermen as was that of 1924. The principal cause of this was the low price paid for fish. It is my opinion that our fishermen would obtain better returns for their product, if they were not compelled to compete with the American fish sold at this port, and it is to be hoped that this discrimination will shortly be removed.

Northern B.C. Northern British Columbia as a whole is making progress but not as fast as we had expected, or would like to see; this is particularly true of the interior, as on account of the lack of markets the farmers have little courage to increase their productions; potatoes being about the only product that they can readily dispose of. Here I wish to express my disappointment over the failure of the C.G.M.M. to give us a rate on hay from here to Stewart, that would allow the farmers of the interior to reach that market in competition with those of the south. It will probably surprise some of you to learn that the freight on hay from here to Stewart is $10 as against $12 from Vancouver, notwithstanding that the distance is almost three times as great. This board has repeatedly brought this to the attention of the heads of the freight department of the C.N.R. and the C.G.M. (continued on page two)

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—The National debt on December 31 was $2,417,749,930, which is twenty millions less than it was a year ago.

Is it not time for a change?

Mayor Newton has been chief magistrate of this city for six years. Are the people satisfied with his services? Is his "strong following" still going to rule Prince Rupert? Is that "strong following" still going to be the main voice in the Police Commission? Who does that "strong following" consist of? Are you going to be a follower of Mayor Newton or are you going to vote for Ex-Alderman McMordie, who will carry the office with dignity and decision, with common sense and firm judgment, with fear of none and favor for none, a man who is not to be influenced by personal friendships, close factions or other interests.

Has Prince Rupert not had enough of Newton? Would not Ex-Alderman McMordie well fill the office of mayor?

Is it not time for a change?

Published Every Afternoon, except Sunday, the Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue, H. F. PULLEN, Managing Editor.

DAILY EDITION  Saturday, January 9, 1926.

Plenty Of Good News Yesterday.

There was plenty of good news here yesterday. Perhaps the most important was the announcement that in two weeks work would commence on the erection of a new shingle and lumber mill at this port. Already much of the machinery is here and the work will be under way just as soon as the company is incorporated.

The loss of the big mill was a serious one and while the small mill will not replace the other, it will help to fill the gap caused by the big fire. It is to be erected alongside the burned-over area.

Must Be Another Mill In North Soon.

It is understood that the pulp limits held by the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills Ltd. are held at the specially low pulp rate conditional on a pulp mill being erected in the neighborhood within a short time. That would seem to indicate that a mill must be built or the limits revert to ordinary timber limits and the higher rate be paid. So far these limits have not been touched. They are situated in the neighborhood of the Khul-zamaten River and are said to carry a lot of good pulp and lumber timber.

Cannery Development On Queen Charlottes.

The cannery development on the Queen Charlotte Islands had been forecasted in these columns on more than one occasion. A dispatch from Skidegate before the holidays told of one of the new canneries to be built. It is excellent news that there is to be general activity on the Islands, all of which will tend to make this place busy. The interests of the Queen Charlottes and Prince Rupert are one. Anything we can do to help them should not be omitted. If they make progress, we shall naturally benefit. While Vancouver will also benefit, and so will other places, we must, owing to our position, reap some of the reward of the industry of the Islanders.

Just now this good news was needed to cheer up the local people who were feeling rather downcast at the loss of the mill and at the failure so far of any shipments of grain to head this way. The difficulty with us is that it takes very little to depress us. We see blue ruin ahead when there is really no reason to be downcast.

Speech From Throne Looks Like Business.

The speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament yesterday mentions a number of activities that will prove interesting to Canadians generally. On the whole it may be said to show the influence of the farmers on the Government. Yet it has much with which all will agree. We all agree that taxes should be as low as possible. We all agree that the land should be settled and brought under cultivation as quickly as possible. We want the tariff as low as possible. We all in the West would like to see grain flowing through Canadian ports instead of through American. We may not be in agreement with the building of the Hudson's Bay Railway, because many of us consider it a useless expenditure at the present time, but, as we have often mentioned, government has to be a matter of compromise. We cannot all agree with the whole policy of a government. What we have to consider is which group is most favorable to the district in which we reside. If in a group of legislative proposals there is but one to which we can take exception, we have to consider ourselves fortunate.

Peace River Is Not Mentioned.

So far as the first brief telegraphic report is concerned, there is no mention of Peace River development. It would seem to us as if the development of the Peace River country was of more importance to Canada than the completion of the Hudson's Bay railway. We expect to refer to this matter again at greater length at a future time.

BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL REPORT MADE BY PRESIDENT NICKERSON IS OPTIMISTIC AS TO FUTURE.

M.M. So far we have not met with success. The combined rail and boat rate gives southern farmers an advantage of about $2.00 per ton. Again the interior has suffered through the quietness of the timber market. Should wheat start moving through here to the Orient, there is every reason to believe that we would again start shipping hemlock to Japan, as the demand for that lumber is 20 per cent. of Japan's total imports. This would greatly benefit the Skeena Valley.

Silk Trade

This year the Canadian National Railways made arrangements with the Blue Funnel line, whereby the latter company is landing its silk at Vancouver instead of at Seattle as in the past. It has always been the hope of this board, that this was the company that would ultimately make this their first port of call from the Orient, particularly as their boats are not as fast as other competitive lines, and it has been our opinion that the 480 miles saving in water haul would be an attraction that would offset any advantage that other ports might have by reason of their larger population.

It is hoped that the management of the C.N.R. will eventually have the road bed between here and Jasper in a condition that will allow the running of trains at a speed equal to if not greater than is possible for their trains from Vancouver to attain. When they reach that state of efficiency, I have no doubt but what the majority of silk and other highly valuable commodities from the Orient will move by the port of Prince Rupert.

Co-operate on Grain

It is indeed gratifying to note that with the completion of the elevator, the building of which this board persistently advocated, Prince Rupert is now in a position to handle the out-going and in-coming of all commodities exported or imported by us. It remains now for the Government, the C.N.R. and the citizens of Prince Rupert to co-operate in an effort to have a continual flow of grain passing through this elevator to ships destined for those countries which are importers of grain, as well as making this the principal port of the Pacific for the export of salmon. Without being a bit pessimistic I cannot refrain from at this time impressing upon the citizens of Prince Rupert that we have in the city of Vancouver a very powerful rival whose position is very greatly enhanced by the fact that it has been a grain exporting port for the past four years. Grain and ship brokers representing practically all the buyers and sellers of wheat, as well as the agents for all ships in the wheat carrying trade have their offices at Vancouver, therefore they largely control the export trade of this coast, and as Vancouver is their home they naturally exercise all their efforts to have the wheat pass through that port. As an instance of the means that they are prepared to take to obtain their ends, we learn from their papers that the Merchants Exchange has broadcasted a half a cent a bushel premium as a freight rate from Prince Rupert as over that from Vancouver. It is possible that some carriers may demand that as a premium, but it is equally true that the C.G.M.M. has optioned ships for Prince Rupert or Vancouver loading at equal rates. This must have been known by the Exchange yet evidently to serve their own ends they failed to give this to the press.

Valuable Member Lost

It is with regret that I report that during the year, W. E. Williams, one of our most faithful and energetic members, has moved his residence to Vancouver, and correspondingly so is my sorrow at the prospect of J. H. Pillsbury passing to larger fields of endeavor. This board has too few members equally imbued with the spirit of service in the public interest, to see these men go from our midst, without a wish that they might have stayed to help in the development of this great north country.

I take this opportunity of expressing to my fellow officers, and members my appreciation of their co-operation. I regret that more of our members do not make an effort to attend our monthly meetings, and may say on behalf of my successor that this year, I trust that every member will make an effort to attend our regular meetings. At the most it is only for an hour and a half, and usually less than an hour a month and I can assure you that small attendance does not have a tendency to enrage your president, whomsoever he might be.

Want Young Men

To me it is regrettable that so few of our younger men become affiliated with the Board of Trades work, as it is to them that we must look to carry on the future work of the Board.

To the incoming officers I extend my congratulations and pledge my loyalty, and for their consideration pass on to them as work not completed that of a weekly service from here to the Queen Charlotte Islands and return for nine months of the year and a fortnightly service for the balance of the year.

The continuance of the agitation to have Prince Rupert published as a terminal point for tourist traffic from the East, as well as giving rail passengers who wish to embark or disembark at this port the benefit of the differential existing between here and Vancouver on the Alaska boats, instead of, as in the past, compelling them to pay the same fare as if the trip had been made via Vancouver both ways.

Jap Fishermen

I also submit for immediate action, the correction of the abuse in the allocation of Jap fishermen to canneries as now practised. It is now the policy of the marine and fisheries department to give Jap licenses only to those canneries in existence in 1922, and to further aggravate the situation they permit the closing down of a cannery and leave the owners of said cannery free to turn over their licenses to any cannery they wish. To any of you at all familiar with the salmon fisheries, it became apparent that canneries without Japs having to compete with those that have them are at a serious disadvantage as they are compelled to go out and get fishermen who have never been on the river before. I am quite in accord with the effort to eliminate the Japs, but so long as there are Japs fishing, I contend that they should be allocated yearly on the basis of the number of canneries operating. Last year the Somerville Cannery Co., opened a cannery within our city. They were refused any Japs and I believe that it is the intention of the department to continue this policy for the coming year. There is nothing that means more to this city than canneries operating within its limits, therefore it behoves the board to start an urgent campaign to have an equal distribution of these licenses.

Meetings

During my term of office there have been held, ten general monthly meetings, five council meetings, and two special meetings, besides a great number of special committee meetings. The attendance at the monthly meetings has not been of the best, the average attendance being twenty-six out of a membership roll of one hundred and one.

Summarized briefly the following subjects have received attention:

Hydrographic survey on west coast Queen Charlottes

Dredging of Metlakatla passage.

Establishment of school for fishermen.

Marine insurance adjustment.

Vicks not only penetrates like a poultice or plaster, but the ingredients, vaporized by the body heat, are inhaled all night long.

Frank Morris, manager of the B.C. Undertakers, will leave on tonight's train for Hazelton where he will take charge of funeral arrangements of the late Provincial Constable J. P. Egleshaw of Terrace. The body will be forwarded south for interment.

At the meeting of the board of trade last night season's greetings were read from Francis Millard on behalf of the Somerville Cannery and from J. H. Todd & Sons, following receipt of a letter of thanks from the board for patronage extended the city during the past year.

The financial report of the board of trade submitted at the meeting last night showed a good sum in the bank. About two-thirds of the income had been provided by the members in fees and the balance by the city. The whole amount contributed by the city had been spent in publicity work.

On behalf of the insurance committee of the board of trade, H. H. Little reported at the meeting last night that they had recommended to the Marine Department the establishment of lights at Bonilla Island and Wallace Rocks and the question of insurance rates should again be taken up with the London underwriters.

From the summary charge of having a revolver in his possession, the case against George Saxman was amended in the city police court this morning to the indictable offence of having a pistol in his possession for a purpose dangerous to the public peace contrary to the Criminal Code of Canada. At the request of City Solicitor Jones, the case was adjourned until Wednesday. Assisting in the prosecution is Milton Gonzales, on behalf of A. E. Wright, in whose house accused is alleged to have shown the revolver.

BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL REPORT MADE BY PRESIDENT NICKERSON IS OPTIMISTIC AS TO FUTURE.

suburban properties. Provincial taxation. The gasoline tax and construction of roads by provincial government. Reduction of telegraph rates. The locating of publicly boards in the city for the information of tourists and visitors. The Peace River railway outlet at or adjacent to this port. The placing of buoys and lights in waters leading to our harbor. Steamship freight rates. The construction of a grain elevator at this port. Freight rates on grain. Locating of shrimp fisheries here.

The getting of grain in local elevator (previous to formation of special joint grain committee). During the year 557 letters have been sent out in response to inquiries of every nature.

Entertainment. During the past year your board has done a great amount of entertaining. On Friday, August 14, a luncheon was given in honor of Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways. On June 21 and 22 the Vancouver Board of Trade was entertained, including a steamboat excursion to Skeena River canneries and harbor points, dry dock and cold storage.

The following parties:—The field force of the Commercial Life Insurance Co.; Commander Jones of the Hebridean settlement; the United Society of Christian Endeavor of Tennessee; representatives of British Passenger Agents' Association; Officers and crew of H. M. S. Capetown; Dominion government grain commission; Mr. Buchanan and Bill Miner, the Canadian naturalist with a group of seventy boys—were all met and entertained.

Publicity. Four thousand booklets have been distributed during the year, also a large number of government publications. A number of photographs have been sent to several journals for publication. Two large "Information to Visitors and Tourists" boards have been erected in conspicuous locations on the waterfront, etc. Five thousand attractive booklets were published jointly with the city of Prince-Rupert.

Railways and Steamships. Strong endeavors have been made during the year to get a better and more frequent passenger, mail and freight service from this port to the Skeena River, Queen Charlottes and other adjacent ports. The 1923 board should follow this up until it is accomplished.

The matter of the overhaul of all C.G.M.M. vessels at the dry dock has also been vigorously prosecuted, and indications now point to our requests being complied with.

Agriculture

Having covered the interior country during the past year, I am convinced from observations and conversations with farmers that agriculture is not more than holding its own. The fertility of the soil is there and the willingness of the farmers to cultivate, but lack of market seems to be the handicap. It is only by increasing the population of this city that the market necessary for the farmer can be created. Therefore it is to the interest of the businessmen of this city to regulate their purchases so as to give the greatest amount of employment possible within the city.

Baby Eczema Soon Disappears with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment

Only mothers who have witnessed the suffering of their babies when tortured by eczema fully appreciate the remarkable soothing, healing effects of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Most babies at one time or another fall victims to skin irritations, chafing of the skin or eczema. For this reason it is a fine habit to always have at hand when bathing baby a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You never know when roughness and redness of the skin is going to develop into something more serious. A touch of Dr. Chase's Ointment keeps the skin smooth and velvety and prevents serious skin affections. There are scores of uses for Dr. Chase's Ointment. Once it finds its way into the home it is soon considered indispensable.

Federal. The Federal government this year made further appropriation sufficient to complete our million dollar elevator, and this, in spite of financial stringency. The elevator is now an accomplished fact, and about ready to ship grain, it is of the most modern type, has a wharf in front of it 1,000 feet long and is capable of loading two large freighters at one time. In addition to this the needs of the district have been taken care of in the way of looking after wharves, etc.

The customs returns for the past year amounted to $386,543.62, while shipping returns show a tonnage of 800,737 inwards, and 797,504 outwards.

Mining. There has been a steady development of mining during the past year, and indications are that several shipping mines will develop this year in the Stewart camp.

Mr. Duthie has again taken over the Duthie Mine and is again putting it in operation. Indications are that other developments will take place in that district this summer.

Lumbering. Our mills have had a very unsuccessful year on account of low prices which have been particularly hard on mills in this territory as the principal market has been on the Atlantic and the southern mills have monopolized this by reason of the cheap water haul.

Fisheries. A report from John Dybhavn, chairman of the Fisheries committee is appended:

While the final returns covering the entire production of fish are not so far obtainable, and in spite of the fact that the year 1925 was expected to be an off-year as far as salmon was concerned, it is generally conceded that the year's production was very good. The total production of halibut was slightly less than for 1924, while the average prices were better last year.

The following figures are available: Canadian halibut, 6,181,600 pounds, value $571,568.00. American halibut, 22,469,500 pounds, value $2,169,540.00. The following are the approximate quantities of salmon packed in district No. 2:

Table with 2 columns: Fish Type and Quantity. Includes Sockeye (330,562), Red Springs (26,949), Pink Springs (3,680), White Springs (3,722), Steelheads (1,954), Cohoes (79,738), Pinks (265,246), Chums (380,775).

Total cases 4,091,726. This will equal approximately 92,000,000 pounds of salmon canned. In addition a good quantity was marketed in a fresh state or frozen.

Civic. A great improvement in our roads has been made during 1925 remaining plank roads have almost disappeared, and have been replaced by macadam roads. These now require tarred surfacing, and this work will most likely be done during the present year.

The total indebtedness of the city is $2,107,417.97, the assessed value of property was $15,189,862.00, and during the year building permits were issued totalling $1,337,769 of which $867,000 is accounted for by the

Waterfront Whiffs
Rush of work will soon start--Jack Bradbury back and Pete Rovvik coming--new seine boat building--Leila R. alterations--two boats burned

While there is already in a quiet way a good deal of work going on and caterers along the waterfront to the fishing fleet in the matter of boat equipment, etc., report considerable goods changing hands, it will probably be a couple of weeks or more before the halibut fishermen get really busy on their craft in anticipation of the reopening of the season on February 15. In the vicinity of Gow Bay, owners of halibut boats and salmon trolling vessels are making use of their spare time in painting up, making small repairs and overhauling engines. The work is not general, however, and for every boat on which there is something doing at this time there is another on which hardly a vestige of activity is to be seen. About January 25, the mad rush will probably commence.

His many friends along the waterfront were pleased this week to welcome back Jack Bradbury who returned to the city on Wednesday after an absence of about a year during which time he has been residing in Victoria. After leisurely looking over such cities in the south as Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle, Jack has returned with the statement that "Prince Rupert looks the best bet of all. Don Yelf, Jack's partner in the fishing business, will also be back in about three weeks' time after having been absent since last May. The Bradbury and Yelf boats Bethune and Tip Top are to be put in shape at once for herring fishing and the Revellie for halibut. Two herring pounds will again be established by the company, one at Captain's Cove and another at a point yet to be selected. The gear will be taken out to start operations about February 1.

Rovvik Returning
Pete Rovvik, who went south last fall with the N. M. & R. Fish Co.'s outfit to engage in salmon fishing around Vancouver Island, will be back with his fleet about February 1. The Malamute and Rose Point will be used by this company during the forthcoming season but it is understood that the N. M. & R. has been disposed of. It is supposed that the concern will also engage again in herring pounding, later going into the salmon game. Pete is said to be pretty well in control of the destinies of the N. M. & R. Fish Co. now, though George Macdonald still has an interest in it. Jimmy Neville, formerly active in the affairs of the company, has taken the position of foreman on the permanent elevator staff and, when last heard of, Major John McGregor, V.C., was working at Powell River.

TAKE NOTICE that Gosse-Miller, Limited, of Vancouver, B.C., intends to apply for a lease of the following described lands:
Commencing at a post planted about 15 chains, more or less, west from northeast corner of Lot 1548 (T.L. 825P); thence north 325 feet; thence south 652 feet, more or less; thence west 900 feet, more or less; thence south 400 feet to the high water mark, in a north-easterly direction 200 feet, more or less, to the point of commencement, and containing six (6) acres, more or less.

have been caught in the harbor during the week but there is as yet no appreciable quantity of them to be obtained. The season for springs opened again on January 1 after being closed during December. In view of the scarcity of the fish, it will be some time yet before fishing for springs starts to any extent. At that, it would only need two fish a day for fishermen to make good money as the public is prepared to pay almost any price at this time for such delicious fresh fish as spring salmon.

New Seine Boat

The keel has been laid at the Siga ways for a new 42 foot seine boat designed especially for cannery work. The vessel, whose purchaser is not yet being announced, will cost about $8,000 and will be completed in March. It will have a 20 horse power Frisco Standard engine.

The Royal Mail Ship Asawalget, Capt. Billy Miller, arrived in port on Thursday from Refuge Bay on a regular business trip and returned home on Friday. Included in her cargo was 200 pounds of fresh Porcher Island pork for the local market. The Asawalget brought the report to town that Porcher Island is having a "busy winter with no unemployment." A passenger to town was Mr. Nayber who brought in some work for a local machine shop from Olof Ouse who is preparing his boat, the Westerner, at Refuge Bay for the opening of the halibut season. Another bit of interesting news from Porcher Island is to the effect that the Peterson mine there was so successfully operated during the past season that its owner is contemplating the building of a scow this year to transport his ore direct to Anyox smelter instead of bringing it in here as has been the custom in the past and transshipping it by steamer.

While up-town residents seem to be taking the municipal election contest with more or less indifference, a keen interest is being displayed in the contest on the waterfront where the popular question of the hour is "Who is going to be the next mayor?" It might be said that neither of the candidates have a corner on the waterfront vote and, if comment to be heard there may be taken as any indication, it is still anybody's old election.

Real Hunting Boat

When work now under way at the dry dock under the personal supervision of Capt. Alfred Swanson on the Prince Rupert Boat House power boat Leila R. is completed, that vessel will be second to none in the business for which she is being prepared—namely that of catering to tourist and hunting parties. The Leila R. is being remodelled above decks and, when next she makes her appearance, she will have a new wheelhouse and toilet. The 40 horse power Union engine is also being re-bored and new pistons are being installed. Leila's name is also to be changed but under what title she will in future be known has not yet been decided by Capt. Swanson. It's bad enough to have to think up one name but when, to suit the government, you have to submit three for consideration, it's too much of a task for an honest seaman. Why not give the names of your three favorite lady friends, Cap., and blame the rest on Mackenzie King?

One onward indication of the fact that the G.G.M.M. really means business at the dry dock is the fact that the boarding house is being put in repair. Since ship construction days, the windows of his structure have suffered considerably at the hands of the windy blasts—of youthful dependants.

Jimmy Bantz reported this week end that he and his fishermen were about recovered from the Merry Christmas and Pappy New Year and that business would be resumed as usual next week when the seekers of the why cod will once again commence to ply their toil.

On Trapping Bent

Eddie Peterson and Nels Robinson left on their trolling boat, Torberg, on Friday for the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands where they will be engaged in trapping until the trapping gets bad and the fishing good.

Frank Davies has received advice that his chief, Jim Lee, manager of the Atlin Fisheries, had reached Southampton after a trip which was disturbing to all the other passengers, aboard the Aquilania but through which Jim slept without a qualm. It is supposed that Jim is now eating scenes and haggis under the parental roof at Fraserborough near Aberdeen. He is expected back towards the end of February.

While Jim is spreading the gospel of Prince Rupert in Old Caledonia, Charlie Starr, high mogul of the Pacific Fisheries, is painting California red and C. W. Kirkendall of Booth Fisheries fame is down in Seattle telling them how it's done.

George Wikdal and Ed. Lindseth, halibut fishermen, have chartered Joe Jack's trolling boat Birdie B. and, after doing some overhaul, left this week to engage in hand logging down the coast.

Doing of Bushby Fleet

Dirty weather outside during the early part of the week was reported by the boats of the Rupert Marine fleet which still keep busy. The M.T. 3, Capt. Reg. Green, returned to port Monday night after towing a boom of 160,000 feet of logs from Kitkalla North Arm to Georgetown for Louis Locker and left on Tuesday to tow H. Auriol's logging camp from Somerville Island to Warke Channel, then going to Khutzamaten to deliver a tow of logs to Georgetown. The P.R.T., Capt. Harris Kerr, arrived Thursday night from Georgetown mill with two scows of lumber, one for the Cold Storage and one for the Big Bay local yards.

Bill Hanson was in port during the week having the engine of his trolling boat, Thelma H., repaired before leaving for his winter home at Spiller River. W. McKinnon has also been getting the Oswego ready for the trolling season and Capt. Kohri is putting his Bonita in shape for an early start. Joe Nault is having a winch installed on the Spot.

The halibut schooner Mayflower, Capt. George Cook, was taken on the McLean ways on Friday to have a new pilot house built. The seine boat Moresby, recently acquired by J. Field from Philip Douglas, is also at the McLean ways for repairs.

The trolling boat Taplow was in port during the week from Port Simpsons getting supplies for G. B. Flewin and George Brown.

Two Boats Burned

Two small pleasure boats, belonging to Jim Hastie and Claire Smith, formerly of the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills staff, were destroyed in the fire that wiped the sawmill out last Monday morning. The boats were moored near the mill.

Many expressions of regret were heard this week along the waterfront that S. G. Webb, who has made this department of the Daily News his specialty, has now taken up new duties and will not be so frequent a visitor to Gow Bay and other sources of information. In charge of the "Waterfront Whiffs" in future will be G. A. Hunter, who will be glad to receive visitors or phone messages at the Daily News office or call if so desired.

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household--every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare--should make a habit of reading the ads.

Read the advertisements in order to buy wisely

A Pimply Face Is Unsightly

Miss C. C. M. Smart, South Battleford, Sask., writes:—"A while ago I was troubled with facial blemishes, especially pimples, and was really ashamed to go out with such a bad looking face.
I tried 2 or 3 different remedies, but they didn't help me any, so one day a friend, who had been troubled the same as I was, advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters.
After I had taken two bottles there wasn't a pimple of any kind left on my face, and I now have a clear, smooth and velvety complexion."

UNUSUALLY MILD WINTER ON NAAS

Aiyansh Rancher Arrives in City Today After Having Made Trip Down River by Gasboat.
Reporting unusually mild weather in the Naas Valley for this time of the year, S. C. Gordon, well known Aiyansh rancher, reached the city on the Catala this morning. He made the trip down the Naas River all the way from Aiyansh to Mill Bay by gasboat. This is exceptional for, if the river is not frozen over, it is generally so low in January that navigation becomes impossible. Mr. Gordon states that there was nine inches of snow at Aiyansh in December but the ground is again clear as a result of recent heavy rains.
Mr. Gordon will remain in the city for a few days before proceeding south to spend six weeks' holidays at Alert Bay and Vancouver.
