H. H. Stevens Clearing Illicit Liquor Vessels at Ontario Lake Ports

Customs Department Under Conservative Administration Carrying on in Same Old Way Declares Former Attorney General of Ontario

The insincerity of Hon. H. H. Stevens in connection with the customs charges and the bootlegging of liquor as shown by V. J. Bowser at the meeting here recently when the Government of Mackenzie King was severely criticized is well shown in a letter to the Toronto Mail and Empire by Hon. W. E. Raney, former attorney general of Ontario, who makes clear that Stevens is doing today just what he charged the Liberals with doing month or two ago. The letter says:

DESTROY FISH BY BLASTING

Illegal That Thousands Are Being Killed at Toba River, North of Vancouver.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 3.—Thousands of salmon and other fish are being killed by blasting operations on Toba River, 120 miles north of Vancouver, according to a radiogram received yesterday by William Malden, secretary of the fishermen's protective association.

J. A. Motherwell, Dominion fisheries inspector of Vancouver stated that investigation would be conducted immediately, as blasting on rivers without special permission is against the provisions of the fisheries act.

STORK PLEASED OVER PROSPECT

Says Things Look Better For Victory Than on Any Previous Occasion.

Much enthused over the reception given him at interior points, Fred Stork, Liberal candidate, returned last night from a speaking tour and tonight will address a meeting at Port Essington and will proceed to Ossland tomorrow.

Asked if he was going to be elected, Mr. Stork said in all his election campaigns prospects never looked as good as they do today. He considered that Mr. Bowser was not helping his opponent but rather was injuring his cause.

"The campaign could not be going better," the Liberal candidate said. "We are going to win by a large majority."

Cost of Living Kept Down by Liberal Policy of Exemption on Implements of Production

RICHIBUCTO, Sept. 3.—Declaring the cost of living had been reduced to everyone by the late Liberal administration through reductions in the cost of implements of production, Mackenzie King last night promised the electors here that if the Liberal party is returned to power there will be a continuation of the prosperity which has been brought to Canada of recent years.

"The fisheries is one of the great industries of the country," declared the former premier. "Our government has tried to help the fisheries by the reduction of duty on gas engines for

DEFLATION IN ITALY PLANNED

Industrial Crisis is Expected to be Faced by Mussolini Government.

ROME, Sept. 3.—The Italian government is prepared to face a tremendous financial crisis as a result of the financial deflation campaign launched by the council of ministers, Signor Grandi, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, said today. "No other government in Europe could carry out the program we have embarked upon without placing machine guns in the streets," said Grandi.

JAPANESE FREIGHTER ON HELMCKEN ISLAND

The Japanese freighter, Aikyu Maru, went ashore on the southwest corner of Helmcken Island in Johnston Straits this side of Seymour Narrows and not on Ripple Reef, as originally reported, according to officers of the Union steamer Catalpa, which arrived in port at 5 o'clock this morning and which passed the wreck about noon on Wednesday. At high tide the bow of the vessel is submerged with the after part sticking out of water. The Salvage and another vessel are standing by. The Aikyu Maru is lying in quiet waters and should be salvaged. It will be necessary to remove the deckload of logs she put on at Fanny Bay.

Smuggling Operations

If you will make inquiries you will discover that at Sandwich and Port Dalhousie and Belleville the smugglers are reporting inward light and being cleared outward by Mr. Stevens' officials, laden with Canadian brands of whiskey and beer to be landed somewhere on the other side of the United States boundary or perhaps somewhere in Ontario. And what is there in August, 1926, to prevent these international outlaws from taking on return cargoes of denatured alcohol, or something else, to be landed somewhere on this side of the boundary line, just as they did in Mr. Bureau's time?

In his Toronto speech on the 8th of July, Mr. Stevens attributed the origin of the trouble in the department of customs to the association of customs officials with the men who were marketing the output of the Canadian distilleries and breweries to the bootleggers of two countries. Now, of course, there was not the least difficulty in putting an end to that association. All that it was necessary for Mr. Stevens to do was to follow the suggestion of his own committee by putting an end to the granting of Government clearances to the rum-

"Radio telephones used for this purpose are an important phase of our work," said Mr. Haughton. "The experiment is being watched with interest in other parts of the world. I believe that the success of B. G. will mean that the Grimsby trawlers will be fitted with radio telephone stations. Operators of those fleets out of England made inquiries a year ago and are keenly interested. They decided, however, to wait twelve months. The results we can give them now will show that the phones are practical and of great value in operations of vessels of this sort."

Mr. Haughton said that improvements were being made at Alert Bay and Cape Lazo stations to make them more efficient.

TRAPPER PICKED UP NEAR CIRCLE CITY IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

CIRCLE, Sept. 3.—After lying five days without food or shelter and suffering from a fall on rocks, James Walsh, a trapper, was picked up by the river steamer Yukon three miles from here. Walsh signalled the boat with a bonfire and was taken to Fort Yukon for treatment.

MILO EGERS COMES TO B. C.

Must Stand Trial in This Province on Hi-jacking Charge.

TACOMA, Sept. 3.—Milo Eggers must stand trial in Canada on a charge of participating in hi-jacking the motorboat Hadsell in British Columbia waters last year. After an all-day hearing Superior Judge Chapman late yesterday announced that he would sign the formal extradition papers Tuesday.

George Vanderveer for the defense attempted to plead an alibi for Eggers but the judge declined to consider evidence of this character. He held that special crown counsel Patterson and Ross had shown sufficient evidence of guilt to justify removal of the prisoner to British Columbia.

COLLISION OF INTERURBANS

Eight Killed and 26 Injured and Number More May Die Result of Accident.

MONROE, Mich., Sept. 3.—Eight deaths resulted from a head-on collision between two shore line interurban cars near here yesterday afternoon. An addition to the list of dead, it is feared will result from the list of 26 injured.

The cars crashed on a curve and telescoped a third of their length. The southbound car, going from Detroit to Toledo, is said to have run ahead of her schedule by which she should have met the northbound train at the siding.

DRY DOCK TO REPAIR SHIP

Extensive Work on Canadian Coaster Will Be Done Locally.

The local dry dock will make complete repairs to the freighter Canadian Coaster, which was badly damaged at the first of the week when she struck Pine Island in Queen Charlotte Sound. The work, which will take about three weeks' time, will consist of replacing twenty plates, putting in a new stem and taking out and repairing between 30 and 40 frames. R. Knox, assistant superintendent engineer for the C. G. M. M., will superintend the work, which will start at once.

Sir George Foster in Sensational Attack on United States Attitude

At World Court Geneva Conference Canadian Delegate Speaks Plainly Regarding Anomalous Position of U.S.

GENEVA, Sept. 3.—Sir George Foster, former minister of finance for Canada, delivered a sharp attack at the world court conference yesterday afternoon on the United States' attitude particularly with reference to the fifth reservation relative to adherence to the court.

"The world has awaited and expected more than this from the United States," said Sir George in the course of his remarks which were almost sensational in character and impressed the European delegates. "The reservation whereby the United States demands the right to deliver advisory opinions to the world's court on questions in which it claims an interest," declared Sir George, "is virtually a command to the court you shall not do thus and so." That is going very far for a country which is outside the league," he said.

PREMIER GIVEN GOOD HEARING

Immense Crowd Went Out to See Head of Canadian Government in Quebec City.

Imperial Preference Only to be Given if Preference Given in Return.

QUEBEC, Sept. 3.—In the heart of Quebec, Premier Meighen yesterday faced an open air crowd that was rarely given a public man in Canada to face. They jammed the market square, St. Pierre and abutting streets and it is estimated that the number ran as high as 20,000. Mr. Meighen was given a good hearing and in his address declared that Conservatives stood for preference with the sister Dominion and the motherland, provided there were preferences in return and sufficient protection remained to enable Canadian workmen to sell in the home market.

"We can see no reason why we should give preference to either sister Dominions or to the motherland herself unless they are prepared to give us preference in return," the Premier said. The matter of obtaining a new home was discussed but no action was taken, the matter being left in the hands of a committee for further attention.

A committee consisting of Bert Morgan, chairman, Dave Balfour and Howard Frizzell was delegated to make arrangements for the reception of the Ketkishi Elks on their visit here during Fair Week.

Music was furnished during the evening by Arthur's Orchestra which donated its services and there were solos by A. Sabourin, Dr. F. P. Kenny, exalted ruler, presided.

The financial loss of the owners of these and of the three recaptured elephants is conservatively estimated at approximately $3,000.

Election Dodge of H. H. Stevens.

The letter of Hon. R. W. Raney published elsewhere today shows that the Stevens charges were just electioneering propaganda. Mr. Raney, who is a prominent Toronto lawyer and was formerly attorney general of the province, makes a definite statement that rum-running is going on just as of old, contrary to the recommendations of the committee that investigated and whose report is made so much of by the Conservatives.

Speed launches still clear the Canadian customs for far-away points just as humorously outlined by W. J. Bowser at his recent meeting, and that under the direct control and domination of Hon. H. H. Stevens, the new minister of customs and apostle of purity. It reminds Prince Rupert people of the fish trap order which was issued after the fishing season ended and the traps partly dismantled.

It seems to a good many people curious that the electors can be led away by such people. It is the same old electioneering tattle as has been used since time immemorial. They go on the assumption that the people like to be fooled, so why not fool them.

May the Lord Deliver Us From Our Friends.

"May the Lord deliver us from our friends," may well be the cry of the Conservative party at this election. Everything goes along nicely until some one of their following spills the beans. He lets out what is going on behind the scenes and then they are all upset about it. Bury of Edmonton makes an attack on the Prince Rupert elevator and urges the people there to forget Prince Rupert and concentrate on Vancouver. He forgets that Sir Henry Drayton and the others who did that sort of thing last year have changed their tune temporarily until the election is over, and he is expected to do the same. He reminds us all that Prince Rupert is taboo to good Conservatives down east and that a vote for Brady means a vote against Prince Rupert.

Then there comes this man Wright on the platform with Premier Meighen and the other ministers and gives the game away by telling how they would like to disenfranchise every person who is not born in Canada or the British Isles.

What they need in the Conservative camp is a muzzle on their speakers.

How Much Majority Will Mackenzie King Get?

Speculation is rife today as to the size of Mackenzie King's majority. Some think he will have only about a dozen or fifteen, but the better informed believe he will have at least twenty to the good. The one point on which there seems to be agreement, except among partisan politicians, is that he will have enough to carry on with comfortably. The great thing to do now is to increase that majority and to do it so thoroughly that there will be no doubt in the minds of the people down east as to what the west thinks.

Skeena constituency, of all places in the world, should make itself known as resenting the treatment meted out to it by a former Conservative government and the sentiments expressed by Conservative leaders.

Electors usually have short memories, but not so short that they can forget everything.

Can't Understand Miners Voting for Meighen.

It seems difficult to understand how miners could possibly vote for high tariff. Most of them are Liberals but it would seem as if they ought to support Mackenzie King to the man. The immense tax placed on the country in the name of "protection," which is paid by the producers of the country, cannot help a miner, but it always injures him. He has everything to gain by getting his supplies cheaply and it is useless to try to "protect" the mineral he produces. Protection for him should be the last thing he would favor. He is already realizing that and is turning to the party that refuses to raise the tariff and that gives special exemption to articles used in the development of the natural resources of the country.

running craft. And this is just what Mr. Stevens promised in his Toronto speech to do. Mr. Stevens could have carried out his promise within a day, or not to put too fine a point on it, within a week. He could have issued orders that all exportation of intoxicating liquor in future should be by one of the international railways or by a recognized ferry operating under the eyes of the customs officials of the two countries. He could, for instance, have recognized the ferries between Sarnia and Port Huron, between Windsor and Detroit, between Port Stanley and Cleveland, between Toronto and Beauport, between Cobourg and Charlotte, between Prescott and Ogdensburg and so on. And that would have put an end practically to rum-running boats. And by putting an end to the rum-running; he would, as he admitted in his Toronto speech, have put an end to the return cargoes by wafer.

Bold Language

Mr. Stevens promised his Toronto hearers that he would put a stop to the granting of bogus clearance papers "without regard to the profit to be derived therefrom by the Canadian liquor exporters."

That was bold language. Needless to say, it did not have the approval of the distillers and brewers. They read it the next day and then something happened. On the 12th a delegation of liquor men visited Ottawa and the purpose of the visit, as explained to the newspaper men, and reported in an Ottawa despatch, was:

To find out the lay of the land so far as the new government is concerned, and particularly with reference to the immediate intentions of Hon. H. H. Stevens, acting minister of customs and excise.

Mr. Stevens was a new hand, and he had put his foot in it in his Toronto speech. At all events, after the visit of the delegation nothing happened to interfere with the profits of Canadian liquor exporters on their immense export business.

Arguments Effective

It is not publicly known what the arguments were that were addressed by the liquor man to Sir Henry Drayton and Mr. Stevens, but, whatever they were, they were obviously effective—so much so that a few days later Gooderham & Worts stocks jumped 45 points in one day.

This good fortune to Gooderham & Worts shareholders, coming hard on the announcement of the issue of nine shares of bonus stock for one, with a prospect of profits of 120 per cent, per annum on the original stock issue (or 12 per cent on the new), is a straw indicating the confidence of investors in Canadian distillery stocks and in the permanency of the rum-running industry, which is the chief source of their huge profits.

I do not doubt for a moment the sincerity of Mr. Stevens' promise on the 8th of July that he would "never allow the customs department to be used as a medium for bootlegging liquor into the United States."

But up to today the distillers have been too strong for him, and they think they know what the prospects of their business are for the future.

Campaign Funds

You say in your leader of the 11th that I speak "confidently but rashly about campaign funds," and you ask me what facts I can produce. Let me refer you to the official report of the proceedings of the Stevens investigating committee of the 11th of June. Mr. Nash, the auditor, was on the witness stand. Mr. Nash was a reluctant witness and the facts were elicited by Mr. Kennedy, M.P., a Peace River farmer, against the strenuous opposition of R. B. Bennett, now Mr. Meighen's Minister of Finance. Mr. Nash told the committee that he found "payments in all distilleries at large, substantial amounts of money, which we questioned the officials of the distilleries about." . . . These payments did not have to do with the business of the distillery company. . . . "They did not deny subscriptions had been given. . . . There is no doubt some of these funds have been directed to campaign funds." . . . "I asked the direct question whether any of these monies were used for campaign purposes and they said some of them were, and as to how much, they did not say." . . . "On a visit to Hiram Walker & Sons, Limited, I saw Mr. Walker and I asked Mr. Walker if he had made a contribution to campaign funds, and he said, 'Yes to both parties.' That was his exact answer."

Then Mr. Nash gave the amounts of money and the name of the accounts in each case under which the entry appeared in the books of the different distilleries, as follows:

Hiram Walker & Sons, Ltd., "Protesting Trademarks," 1925-26, $62,900.

And the same company in 1925 under "Profit and Loss," $79,137.50.

Gooderham & Worts, "Sales Promotion," 1924-5, $69,100.

St. Hyacinthe Distillery Co., "Reserve for Contingencies," 1924-5, $63,000.

Sinister Picture

Mr. Hiram Walker's candor furnishes the finishing touches to the most sinister picture that has yet been painted in connection with the customs scandals and the association of the liquor trade with the government of Canada.

In conclusion, may I refer to the excellent editorial leader in your issue of last Friday, dealing with the new agreement with regard to rum-running between the government of Great Britain and the United States. Your article is headed "Britain Plays Fair." Apart altogether from the return cargoes and the debauchery of her own customs officials by this "united business," do you not think it high time that Canada, too, began to play fair?

RICH PEOPLE DIRTY, SAYS ENGLISH MARQUIS

DAVENTRY, Eng., Sept. 3.—The Marquis of Northampton holds that many rich people in England are dirty and have been badly brought up. He so expressed himself in a recent speech at the grammar school here.

"I know many rich people who have never been clean all their lives because they have never been taught otherwise," he said. The noble marquis also took a slap at the cooking in English homes, which he declared was worse than in any other country he had visited.

"There is no doubt some of these funds have been directed to campaign funds."

"I asked the direct question whether any of these monies were used for campaign purposes and they said some of them were, and as to how much,

A bachelor I live
A bachelor I'll die,
O who so birth and happy

Nat is scheduled to return to his home town, where he is believed to be a millionaire, and afraid to face them broke, he returns in the borrowed car with his friend acting as his "secretary."

All sorts of complications arise when the town expects his business genius to make the village prosperous. He succeeds in interesting outside capitalists in the city, and is given the rights to the waterfalls in the town. After the deal had been completed, his real financial condition is discovered, and he starts to leave, heart-broken. But Phyllis, the girl, points out to the committee of citizens that despite his fraud, he really had done a tremendous service to the town, and she runs and brings him back to carry out the business venture he had started.

Montreal Importers CAN COMPETE WITH MAIL ORDER HOUSES

Local Partnership Dissolved and J. B. Miller is Carrying On Business Here.

The partnership hitherto existing in the business of the Montreal Importers on Third Avenue between J. B. Miller and A. J. Richmond having been dissolved, J. B. Miller is now the sole owner of this newly established business.

When looking over this city a couple of months ago as a possible place to locate, one thing Mr. Miller noticed was the large volume of business being done with the mail order houses in the east. And that fact alone decided him to locate in Prince Rupert, as his business connections in the east are such that he can compete successfully. Buying his goods direct from the manufacturer in Montreal, he is able to sell as cheap as the mail order houses.

To see the goods before purchasing is a great advantage to the buyer besides the saving of the trouble and cost of sending money out of town. The Montreal Importers can equal the price of any mail order house in the Dominion and on that ground alone appeal for the support of the Prince Rupert People. Why send away for what you can buy at home at the same price? Buy at home and help your own town!

Everything in the line of gentlemen's furnishings is right here in Prince Rupert in the Montreal Importers' store for sale at prices as low as can be got in the whole of Canada today.

You are invited to look around the store, inspect the stock and compare the prices for yourself. And be convinced! Drop in when passing—you will be welcome. Advt.

GYROS WINNERS OF FIRST GAME

Defeated Sons of Canada in Baseball Play-off by 9 to 1.—Too Much Stalling.

The Gyros Club defeated the Native Sons of Canada by a score of 9 to 1 in the first game of the city championship baseball play-off last night.

The Gyros got away to a big start by scoring seven runs in the first two innings. In the first frame George Hill knocked out a three bagger with the bases full and in the second Teddy Tite repeated the performance with two on. Fielding errors, including a couple of bad overthrows on the part of the Sons, started the Gyros on the uphill track.

After the disastrous first two innings, there was a decided inclination on the part of the teams to stall, this being much to the disgust of the spectators. The result was that the game only went five innings when it was called on account of darkness.

Schenkler and McKeown composed the Gyro battery, while Vic Menzies relieved Bill Lambie on the mound for the Sons in the third inning, Balfour being the catcher.

It was the superior fielding of the Gyros, particularly on the part of Haveland on third base, that to a large extent decided the game.

F. Gordon was umpire of balls and strikes while Herman Lobie and Ralph Smith officiated on the base lines.

BOYS UNDER 17 ARE REFUSED LICENSES TO DRIVE AUTOMOBILES

VICTORIA, Sept. 3.—No longer can boys under seventeen years of age procure special permits from Chief of Police John Fry to drive automobiles, either trucks or private vehicles, according to instructions issued by the Board of Police Commissioners in session. Commissioner W. E. Staneland recalled the tragic death of a boy on Hillside Avenue on July 30, who was riding with the 16-year-old driver of a milk delivery wagon, when they collided with a street car.

"We must take steps at once to prevent a recurrence of such accidents," said the commissioner. I move that no special licenses be given by the Chief of Police to persons under seventeen years of age."

Chief Fry explained that he had not issued any such permits unless the applications for such were signed and approved by the parents of boys. He said that if the father of a boy or girl was willing for his child to drive a car, it must be that he considered them competent.

Mayor Pendray considered Commissioner Staneland's point well taken and said that such action would be beneficial to the public at large.

FORMER BISHOP OF VANCOUVER ISLAND IS RELIEVING IN LONDON

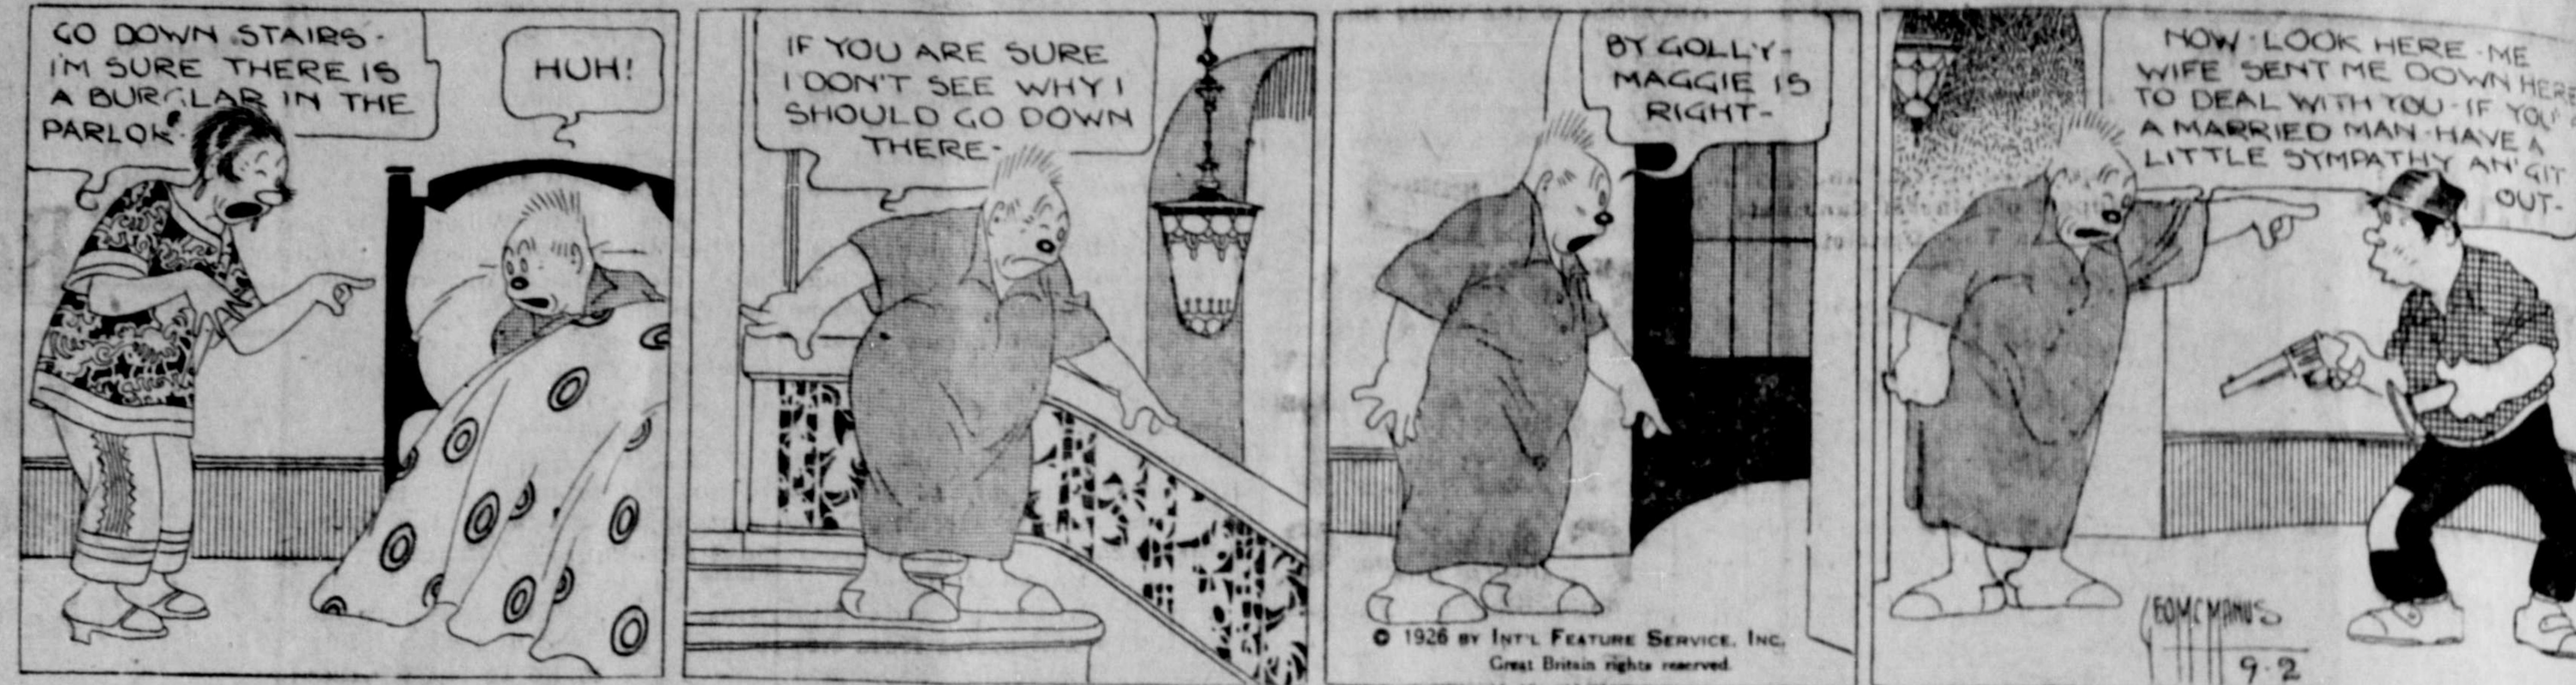

Perrin Was Conspicuous During War in Rebuking Mansion House Banquet

LONDON, Sept. 3.—During the absence of the Bishop of London, the diocese is in charge of the Rt. Rev. W. W. Perrin. Before assuming his present office, Bishop-Suffragan of Willesden, in 1911, Bishop Perrin was for many years head of Columbia diocese on Vancouver Island. In the second year of the war he publicly reproved the Lord Mayor of London for "the exhibition of intemperance in eating and drinking as indicated by the Mansion House banquet." The Bishop's reproof extended to Prime Minister Asquith for attending the function. He thought the Lord Mayor ought to have invited his guests to tea and coffee, to be followed by the usual speeches. The King's lead in forswearing intoxicants while the war lasted had been made impotent by His Majesty's ministers, the Bishop declared.

Bishop Perrin has also urged the younger married clergy to go to the Dominions. An appointment overseas, he says, may not mean much in increased pay, but it frequently provides better openings for a clergyman's children.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MINER'S RACE AGAINST TIME

Thomas King Made Rapid Time in Midnight Tramp Over Mountain Trail to Catch Train

LIFE OF PROSPECTOR

SMITHERS, Sept. 3.—An instance showing that the life of a prospector is not all contentment and pleasure was brought to the fore last Saturday night when two of our citizens volunteered to carry a message to a comrade who was working with his partner on a mining claim high up in the canyons of the Babine Range.

Mrs. Thos. King has been ill in Prince Rupert for some time, and on Saturday night when the telegram came that there was a change for the worse, Tommy King was at the Little Joe Mine, twenty-three miles from Smithers. The last few miles of the trail is not very well-known but Frank Messner and Ben Nelson, who had both been over it once or twice volunteered to tackle the trip that night and try and have King in town in time to catch the passenger train for Prince Rupert due to leave at six o'clock the next morning.

Messner had just come in from the Babines a couple of hours previous but in a few minutes was ready for the trip. W. F. Boyer took the men as far as he could by car or about half way and they then started to break records for mountain trail climbing.

Reached Cabin

The cabin where King and his partner were staying was reached at 2:30 a.m. and in five minutes Tommy was up and had started for town, alone, telling the boys to get a cup of tea and they could catch up to him. In fifteen minutes they had also started on the return trip. Day was now starting to break, but there were still shadows in the canyons and around cliffs where the trail had to be closely watched to prevent accident. Tommy King is by no means a young man and Messner and Nelson, thinking to catch him in a couple of miles started out at a dog trot, but as the miles passed and they were not overtaking him, their pace quickened, until when still about five minutes to go to where the car was waiting, they heard the motor start as Boyer left town with King.

Splendid Grit

In his race down the mountain trail against time, King had taken many tumbles and his clothes were torn, and knees and elbows cut and bruised, but his grit had kept him going only to be disappointed, as the rain was on time and had pulled out for Prince Rupert a couple of minutes before he reached the station.

Missing the train delayed Mr. King's arrival at his sick wife's bedside by several hours, but it enabled him to remove some of the effects of his trip.

Messner's little jaunt during the night brought his total mileage for the twenty-four hours up to fifty-two miles not counting the car rides.

Not a single Conservative newspaper in British Columbia has dared to explain or discuss Mr. Meighen's imperial relations policy in the event of a war in which the Empire had become involved. Yet it is one of the chief planks in the Conservative party's platform. What is the matter with it? Why do the Tories dodge it? Imagine a great party afraid to discuss its foreign policy?

If Mr. Meighen is returned to office on September 14 one of the first things his government would do would be to restore the old scale of import duties on automobiles. Of course he would. Did he not take two men into his cabinet who are actively interested in the automobile business—Mr. Chaplin and Mr. Ryckman?

FAMOUS BATTLES FOR THE HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE

Jim Jeffries Wins

Jim Jeffries knocked out Bob Fitzsimmons July 25, 1902, in the eighth round of a bout in a vacant San Francisco lot with a high board fence around it. A crowd of 8,300 was attracted to the enclosure.

Fitzsimmons appeared on the scene in considerable style, arriving in a carriage.

Not to be outdone by the carriage used for transportation by Fitz, Eddie Graney, the referee, was all dressed up in the "conventional" dress.

A few heavily veiled women sat in boxes but no demonstration of disapproval was made by the crowd.

The ticket sale was estimated at $35,000.

"I have now retired permanently" was an announcement authorized by Fitzsimmons after the bout.

SPORT CHAT

The first game of the Gilhuly Cup football series will be played this evening at Aeropilot Hill grounds, the kick-off being set for 6:45 sharp so that the game may be completed and not called on account of darkness as was Tuesday evening. The Moose and Grand Terminals showed on Tuesday night that they are still full of pep and enthusiasm so a good matinee should be forthcoming tonight when they enter the field for the last trophy of the season. Two games will be played and, should the teams be tied, there will be a third.

FLAG OF SECESSION FROM THE DOMINION

(Victoria Times)

Mr. Meighen is reported as saying that a Liberal candidate in the Maritime provinces is running on a secession platform that candidate must have been listening to the speech by Mr. Meighen in the same section a few weeks ago in which he declared that in certain circumstances the sooner we unfurl the secession flag the better. There always has been a feeling in some quarters in the Atlantic provinces that the secession flag had to be closely watched to prevent accident.

AMALGAMATION OF GREATER VICTORIA POLICE ADVOCATED

Urged by Commissioner Staneland That Better Results Could be Obtained if Under One Head

Continuing the speaker covered the so-called "Customs Scandals," and gave proof that the Liberal government were free from any collusion with the grafters. "We have no distillers in the Liberal party," he said, "but you will find that they are all members of the Conservative party." To high tariff Mr. Stork attributed the temptation to smugglers and to the resulting bribery.

Speaking of the Progressive party, Mr. Stork made the accusation that while the Grain Bill was in the House of Commons, the Progressive members supported the Liberal government, but as soon as the bill was up before the "Conservative" Senate the Conservative leaders bought the Progressive support at the price of the bill passing the Senate.

Crowd on Toes

Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general for British Columbia, followed Mr. Stork and kept the crowd on their toes with interest during an hour and a half of oratory, facts and figures. He spoke sympathetically of the effort of the people to get away from the domination of eastern interests by the formation of the "third party," but keenly appreciated the difficulty of parliament following constitutional procedure, with a minority party liable to defeat the government. He regarded the Progressive and Labor element as being essentially a part of the Liberal party. In reviewing the part in our country's administration played by the Liberal party since the Meighen government was put out of power, Mr. Manson pointed out the splendid position of Canada today as far as trade, taxes and administration were concerned.

Spur to Industry

"Does the Robt Budget mean anything to you?" asked Mr. Manson of his audience. Continuing he pointed out that it had effected immense savings and given a spur to Canadian industry. The Liberal government is to be thanked for free machinery for the lumber industry; this has given a great impetus to the timber industry in the interior. 97 per cent of the interior's lumber is exported to the United States, and this helps to make our favorable balance of trade with the United States.

Summing up the case for the Liberal administration, Mr. Manson claimed a reduction in duty on all machinery imported by the four basic industries. Meighen added 173 millions to the national indebtedness, but each year the King government had reduced the debt. The Liberal government had made more trade treaties with other countries, which had resulted, each year, in an increasingly favorable balance of trade reaching the maximum last year of 401 million dollars, and, with the reduction of the debt, this year put our dollar at 1.164 on New York exchange. Mr. Manson said that under the Meighen administration a Seattle hotel clerk could only give him 85¢ for his dollar; now, with his dollar at 1.164 above par he can tell anyone who doesn't like the Canadian dollar where to go. Taxes reduced; business prosperous; good financing were recommendations for the Liberal administration.

Both speakers received a hearty ovation at the conclusion of their addresses.

That the mineral deposits of the Bulkley Valley are receiving the attention of the mining world was again in evidence on Wednesday morning with the arrival in town of H. J. Emery, mining engineer, representing the British Metals Corporation who have their Canadian office in Montreal. L. S. McGill, acting for the Jack Aldrich estate, accompanied Mr. Emery up to the Mamie mine on Hudson's Bay Mountain on Thursday for an inspection of that property, and arrangements are being made for a visit to the Cronin mine in the Babine range. Mr. Emery is also gathering general information on mining matters while visiting the district and it is hoped that British capital will take a part in the mineral development as a result of his visit.

Her quick thought saved a woman and four sons, who escaped in their night clothes.

The Mining Laws of this Province are more liberal and the fees lower than those of any other Province in the Dominion, or any colony in the British Empire.

Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees.

Absolute Titles are obtained by developing such properties, the security of which is guaranteed by Crown Grants.

Full information, together with Mining Reports and Maps, may be obtained gratis by addressing—

THE HON. THE MINISTER OF MINES

Victoria, British Columbia.

N.B.—Practically all British Columbia Mineral Properties upon which development work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C. Reports covering each of the six Mineral Survey Districts are published separately, and are available on application. Reports of the Geological Survey of Canada, Winch Building, Vancouver, are recommended as valuable sources of information.

Sixty per cent of all school children suffer from weak eyes. You cannot begin too young to care for the eyesight.

Don't let your child study under the handicap of faulty vision. Keen eyesight means a keen brain as well as physical vigor.

Bring the children here for testing and advice.
