Directors of auto industries fail to agree on line of policy in view of tariff change announcement

On the other hand Dodge Brothers close their plant today and six hundred men are affected in this factory. Head of Prince Rupert Spruce Mills Takes His Own Life in California

LODI, California, April 17.—Having been in a sanitarium here ever since last November suffering with a nervous breakdown believed to have been occasioned as a result of the destruction of his big sawmill at Prince Rupert by fire during the fall, John A. Smith, president and managing director of the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills Ltd. and the Smith-Dollar Timber Co. Ltd., took his own life early this morning. He had spent the night at the home of an old friend, J. E. Nelson, and upon calling him for breakfast, it was found that he had been dead for two hours.

The late Mr. Smith, who had been long connected with the lumbering business on the British Columbia coast, more particularly with logging than sawmilling, was born in Pennsylvania. Besides his other interests, he was managing director of the Keystone Lumber Co. and director of the Warren Timber Co. He was also a past president of the British Columbia Loggers' Association. He was about 55 years of age and is survived by a widow and three children, all of whom are in California.

Mental Hygiene Commission Asks That Those Marrying Get Clean Bill of Health

VICTORIA, April 17.—The mental hygiene commission sitting here yesterday asked for three important changes in the laws with a view to improving the general mental condition of the people. Possibly the most important of these was a recommendation that those about to marry undergo physical examination from a physician and be compelled to get a clean bill of health before being permitted to enter the state of wedlock. The second was that stricter immigration laws be enforced to prevent the entrance of mentally diseased immigrants. The third was the establishment of psychopathic wards in British Columbia hospitals.

Local Man Reports Loss of Money and Furs on Gasboat Wrecked at Bonilla Island

Claiming to have lost a wallet containing $3,100 in cash as well as a quantity of furs when his gasboat Leneish, which he recently purchased from Thor Johnson of the city, was wrecked on Bonilla Island last Monday night, A. T. Eckoff, local fur dealer, was brought back to the city last night by the provincial police who effected his rescue.

Eckoff had been on a buying trip to the Banks Island neighborhood and his boat, being unable to face a stiff south-east blow Monday night, was anchored for shelter in a small bay on Bonilla Island. The anchor failed to hold and, the propeller striking a rock, the boat was crippled. It then drifted further on the rocks and the hull was considerably damaged. Eckoff and his employee, B. Saul, together with Jimmie Ryan of Metlakatla made shore and the boat was pulled up as far as possible with the high tide. Eckoff and Saul made camp while Ryan, at considerable risk, undertook to make the twenty-mile trip in exposed waters to Kilkatla for assistance. Reaching there safely, he came on into Prince Rupert and notified the provincial police.

Late Thursday night, Constable Camm was despatched on the gasboat Zanardi, Capt. Gammon to the rescue accompanied by Ryan. Arriving at Bonilla Island yesterday morning about 7.30, they found Eckoff and Saul asleep and quite comfortable ashore. They had been able to remove blankets and food, etc., from the stranded boat. Picking the stranded men up, the rescue party returned to the city with them late yesterday afternoon.

It appears that nobody suffered much hardship although it may not be possible to salvage the Leneish. In any case, Eckoff proposes to return there to see if the boat can be saved and if the money and skins, he claimed to have lost, can be found.

Little Chance For Whales Against Seaplanes.

The whales will have little chance for their lives when the seaplanes are used in spotting them. Not that it matters much except that it seems a pity such huge monsters which must have taken such almost endless ages to develop should be totally exterminated.

It will be remembered that it took but a few short years to practically exterminate the buffalo and the life of the carrier pigeon was not any longer, once the white men got the idea of killing it off. The whale is also doomed and probably in a few years there will be no such thing as watching the blow of the leviathan of the sea from a passenger vessel when crossing the ocean.

Voyage Of Norge Is Being Watched.

Although many thousand miles away from the scene, the voyage of the air-ship Norge is being watched with keen interest by millions of people on this continent. It is the first attempt to utilize the dirigible in exploratory work of that kind and no one can say what will be the result. Many seem to fear she will never reach her base at Spitzbergen. The experience with dirigibles seems to have been that they are never secure against the vagaries of the elements.

Yesterday's despatches told of the arrival of the Norge at Leningrad in Russia.

Dean Of Publicity Men Was Humorist.

Colonel George Ham who was reported dead in some papers many years ago, being a humorist took it as a rich joke, clipped out the item, framed it, and hung it in his office in the publicity department of the Canadian Pacific Railway. He used to say that when things looked blue he would glance at the obituary notice and think: "Oh, well, things could easily be worse. This might have been true." George Ham, whose death was recorded yesterday, carried this humor and philosophy into everything he did in the course of a long life in which he played many parts, including those of soldier, newspaperman, author, raconteur and publicity man for a great transportation system. His geniality and unflinching good humor were immense assets to the Canadian Pacific Railway because in his capacity of super courier he was called upon to escort thousands of people through Canada on tours of inspection. For many years no party of visitors of any note to the Dominion was complete without him. He could have boasted that in his time he had met everybody of importance in the world. He did not, but referring to the thousands of miles he had travelled on these expeditions he would say: "I know every C.P.R. hotel bed and every tie from Halifax to Vancouver." George Ham knew dozens of good stories about the eminent travellers in Canada and published many of them in two volumes of reminiscences.

In The Letter Box

LETTER TO MAYOR.

To His Worship, Mayor Newton, Dear Sir,

Your letter of yesterday is fair, frank and gentlemanly. We admire you always for these characteristics.

The Police Department and Fire Department in any city are too tremendously important to be undermined. Ratepayers seldom complain against the cost of sufficient and efficient service in either of these departments.

You say, "The patron most usually will not peach." We admire him for it. If he did not would be the meanest kind of a cur. The police have access to all houses at all times. They have power to search and power to arrest. That is their business, not mine or that of any private citizen. It is passing the biscuit to expect private citizens to dig up stated cases for the authorities. We pay them to do that. I hope I am not expected to do what I would scorn as a mean thing for "patrons" to do. You would resent volunteer service from citizens offering to help out your telephone girls or the city engineer in doing their various duties. Why expect them to bolster up the police department?

Sincerely, GEO. G. HACKER.

INDIANS READY FOR FISHING

Rev. Oliver Mann Tells of Life on Queen Charlottes at Skidegate Mission

By Oliver E. Mann SKIDEGATE MISSION, April 17.—Handy mechanics, the Haidas will have their boats ready for salmon trolling by the first of May when the season opens. During the winter they have lived a community life with councils in the village hall and constant labor at improving their homes and village at Skidegate. Every Sunday evening the whole population has been attending church. Their homes are as clean and comfortable as anyone could wish. Soon they must leave all this behind and risk their lives on the water.

When April ends they will be expecting word that a packer is to appear soon on the west coast. This will be the signal for nearly all of the thirty fishing boats to proceed through the narrows into the Pacific, en route for the fishing grounds.

Wives and families will accompany many of the men to the anchorage. On the west coast of Graham Island is Hippo Island, another of the Queen Charlotte group. Between Hippo and the mainland is a spot sheltered from the fury of the storms sufficiently to provide a harbor for the frail gas boats. The women and children have an encampment on the rocky wooded shore and this provides some kind of a home for the men also when it is too rough for fishing.

There will be two months of the hardest kind of work for both men and women. The hours of battling with the waves last too long for the crews to get sufficient sleep. When the boats reach the shore the fish have to be cleaned each night.

When the season is over the boats return to Skidegate for a few days and then the families scatter to the canneries, not returning until November with the earnings that make possible a civilized life.

The progress achieved by the Haidas is attributable to several factors, among which is the influence and example of the missionaries who have lived among them. Records on hand at Skidegate Mission show that during October, 1885, Rev. Thomas Crosby of Marine Mission fame, visited the Indians and baptized 32 infants and adults into the Christian faith. Among the babies appears the name of Peter Kelly, now United Church missionary at Nanaimo. He is the one and only Haida minister and the Skidegate Haidas are justly proud of him.

CONVICTION IS QUASHED

Finding of Queen Charlotte Justice is Reversed by Judge Young

Finding that there was no evidence to warrant the conviction, Judge Young in the County Court yesterday afternoon reversed a decision of J. L. Barge, J.P., of Queen Charlotte City who fined T. Kamei, Japanese, $500 or six months' imprisonment for keeping liquor for sale. The testimony of Constables Gibson and Wymann, was reheard. On searching Kamei's place at Queen Charlotte City, they found a gallon of port wine, a bottle containing a small amount of rum, and empty whisky and lemon extract bottles. The bottle of port had not been opened and was in a bedroom, the rum was in a sitting room and was said to have belonged to a man other than the accused. The empty whisky bottles smelled of gasoline and the empty extract bottles were in the other man's room. There was no other evidence to support the charge. A third witness was E. S. Glaspie, manager of the Sitka Spruce sawmill, who, more than a month previous to February 25, when Kamei was arrested, had warned Kamei regarding liquor selling after an admission to that effect had been made by him. The defence contended that such evidence was not relevant to the charge in point.

Not Enough Evidence In allowing the appeal, Judge

Young sounded a warning to Kamei or all and sundry on the Queen Charlotte Islands who might be engaged in the illegal sale of liquor. A close watch, His Honor said, would be kept on people so suspected and, if they were brought in court and found guilty, they could be assured of severe punishment. The evidence in this case, however, the judge ruled, was not strong enough to warrant conviction.

E. F. Jones appeared for the crown and L. W. Palmore for the appellant. Z. Obata acted as interpreter.

Twins!

The new Orthophonic Victrola is John McCormack's "other self." Startling—but true.

This remarkable new musical instrument is the "other self" not alone of one great artist—but of all.

The Orthophonic Victrola gives you in music, exactly what great artists like John McCormack give you. And it gives you everything in orchestral music, not part; everything from the sonorous boom of the bass drum to the piping treble of the piccolo.

The thousands who have heard it—artists and music lovers—go into raptures about its performance.

Schumann-Heink said of it: "Marvelous!" "Real band music!" exclaimed Sousa, the March King; "Magnificent!" commented Journet, and could hardly restrain himself from rushing to the recording laboratory to make a record for this new marvel.

That is real enthusiasm! Now do you wonder why everyone wants to own this new instrument? Have you heard it? "His Master's Voice" Dealers are demonstrating every day.

TO IMPROVE SCHOOL YARD

Terrace Parent-Teachers Hear Address and Listen to Music at Last Meeting

TERRACE, April 17.—The regular monthly meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association was held on Wednesday evening in the school house with the largest attendance of any meeting since the association was organized.

A committee composed of Mrs. E. T. Moore, C. H. Thomas, J. McLaren and G. Griffin was appointed to take charge of the work of beautifying the school grounds. It was also decided to hold all the remaining meetings of the year in the school house instead of alternating with a meeting in town, as has been heretofore practiced.

Fine Address

After the close of the business meeting Dr. Large of Hazelton gave an interesting talk on The Importance of Health in the Pursuit of Happiness, which is one of the fundamental aims in life. He particularly stressed the advisability of preventing disease and ill health, and explained methods by which it might be carried out with the children in the way of cleanliness, care of teeth, nose, throat, etc. He also spoke very favorably of vaccination as a preventive measure.

Mrs. R. Haney then delighted the audience with two vocal solos. These were followed by two others by Dr. Large which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

A Pimply Face Is Unsightly

Miss C. C. M. Smart, South Battleford, Sask., writes:—'A while ago I was troubled with facial blemishes, especially pimples, and was really ashamed to go out with such a bad looking face.'

I tried 2 or 3 different remedies, but they didn't help me any, so one day a friend, who had been troubled the same as I was, advised me to use

TENNIS CLUB GAVE DANCE

Distinctive Event Last Evening in Elks' Home Proved Very Enjoyable

There is always something distinctive about the tennis club ball and this year was no exception to the rule. The event last night in the Elks' Home proved to be quite up to the standard set by this sports organization and was much enjoyed by those privileged to be there. The number was restricted to just about enough to make dancing pleasurable.

The hall was decorated with low paper streamers with nets, rackets, and tennis balls, while at the side of the hall was a small table on which trophies were displayed. The whole scheme was in the club colors of blue and white.

Music was provided by Kenny Rood's orchestra which played in a specially constructed and nicely decorated orchestra booth at the centre of one end of the hall, allowing sitting-out nooks at either side. A. H. Carmichael was master of ceremonies and committees were as follows: A. H. Carmichael (chairman), E. W. Marentette, Douglas Stork, Howard Frizzell, R. Howard, A. E. Walters, F. H. Smith, W. Cruikshank, Miss Grace Curtin, Miss Caroline Mitchell, Mrs. E. S. Tait, Miss Etanda Marsh, Miss Pete Tremayne and Miss Virginia Riel.

Officers as follows were elected at the annual meeting of the Hazelton Athletic Association which was held this week: President, R. S. Sargent; vice-president, C. W. Dawson; secretary, treasurer, S. J. Winsby; executive committee—J. Tyeonster, Allan Benson and Cooper Winick. There has been talk of getting a new athletic ground at Hazelton but it seems most likely that the same grounds as last season will be used again this year. Smithers has offered to come down to New Hazelton for a baseball game on May 24 and Hazelton has been invited to go to Telkwa for the day.

STANLEY NEWMAN IN FINAL APPEARANCE BEATS LOCAL MEN

In his farewell exhibition game at the Grand Terminal Billiard Club last night, Stanley Newman, the British professional billiard champion, met four local men and, playing each 200 to 100, won by an aggregate score of 800 to 552. Inclusive of their starts, Don Brown made 150, Fred Kyle, 136; George Waugh, 100, and W. Long, 166. Waugh was not given a chance to make a shot as he ran into Newman's high break during his visit in the city, 236.

In an exhibition game yesterday afternoon especially for ladies, with about twenty present, Newman beat Mellmoyle by a score of 500 to 350 after having given Mellmoyle a start of 250. After the game, refreshments were served. Newman, after having spent the past ten days here, will leave on Monday's train for the East and will visit Prince George, Edmonton and Saskatoon before proceeding to England.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Hand trollers doing fairly well now but gas-boats not so good---much shipbuilding going on---another halibut record

Hand trollers who fish from rowboats and use herring bait are doing quite well now, particularly in the Warke Canal area, but the gasboat trollers, who use spoons, are not having much luck yet. The appetite of the luscious springs still seems to be for the real thing and they are not to be beguiled very much with the artificial.

Bert Flewin, who is making regular trips to Prince Rupert three times a week now with salmon from the Flewin & Brown camp at Warke Canal, reports something in excess of 100 hand trollers and about thirty gas boats engaged in fishing there. An improvement in the run is expected immediately, the prediction being based on past records kept at Warke Channel which consistently show an increase of fish caught toward the end of April.

Gas boats predominate in the fishing at Butler Cove, Stephens Island, and the catches are being brought in by the packers Narbethong and Hippo. Trolling at Dundas Island will commence soon. There does not seem to be much doing on the north end of the Queen Charlottes yet although a number of boats, some from here, are operating there. Salmon landings at the Fish Exchange have increased during the past week and the price has ranged from 15c to 17c for red springs and 3c for whites.

Capt. Paul Armour of the Pachena is looking for quiet weekend at home if nothing unforeseen happens. The Pachena has put in a pretty busy time of it during the past fortnight what with a week's trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands with a provincial police party, a two day pilot job and bringing in the scows and dredge that were used in connection with the salvaging of the steamer Famous on the Skeena River, besides the Ekoff rescue trip. The "28," formerly Leila R., was also active

The schooner Inez H., belonging to the Ness Brothers, was another arrival in port during the week and, before proceeding to the banks again, came in from the Kikalla fox farm on Thursday with a couple of blue foxes which were sold to a Francois Lake purchaser who plans on breeding them there.

The last thing that had to be done to the schooner Unome, recently placed in the halibut game by Capt. Dave Ritchie, to make the perfect vessel out of her was to have her compass adjusted and this was duly done during the week while the Unome was in port by Capt. T. M. Wilkie, hon. president of Arthur Little's celebrated Pepto-Optimist Club.

Ship Shops Busy
Unprecedented activity in the way of boat building and repairing is reported by the shops along the waterfront. The business has started earlier than usual this year and already it has been found necessary to turn work away. The yards are practically all booked up until July 1, most of the work being for the district canneries. Several new boats are included in the list.

With a ruby red kerchief around his neck to match the oldest clothes he could find in the family cupboard, Ald. M. M. Stephens was a real working man at Cow Bay instead of a bloated up-town capitalist and legislator this week. It is even said that he forgot all about civic economy and tax sale lots in the work of giving his workboat Vera S. Frye a thorough overhauling after having spent an active winter under charter logging the in Warke Canal district.

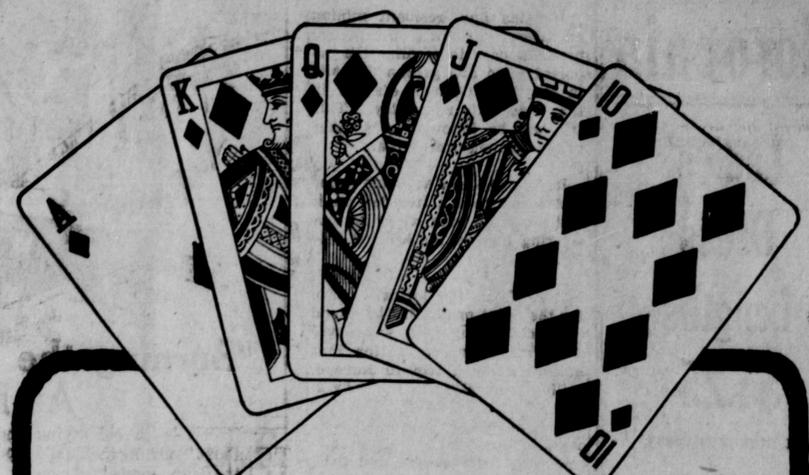

Two new seine boats are in the early stages of construction at the Suga ways for the B.C. Packers. One will be forty-four feet long and will be powered with a 20 h.p. Standard engine; the other will be 35 feet in length and will have a 14 h.p. Vivian. Both are to be operated this season out of Lowe Inlet cannery.

On Wednesday, a 28 foot trailing boat for S. Wilson of Gardner Canal was launched at the Suga plant. It will have a 5 h.p. Palmer engine.
Another job Suga is handling is the replacing of the 12 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse engine in the Wallace Fisheries packer Polly W. with a 16 h.p. Vivian.

Pressure of business and congestion of the premises has made necessary the erection of an addition to the Star Welding & Repair Works which will give the plant something more than double of its present working space.

Provincial police officers claim for Andrew Grant of the dry squad the distinction of being the first man to cross Heale Straits in an open rowboat. We are not going to dispute the claim but it might be just as well to state that the hero of the story might have performed his feat under more arduous circumstances than he did. He merely took the open air mal de mer cure by sitting in the dinghy behind the Pachena as that vessel was returning from the Queen Charlotte Islands on Monday after a blind big hunt. At that, his stunt may have been more discretionary than it was valorous for Grant seemed to be the healthiest of a sick looking lot that arrived in port after another lumpy passage across the straits.

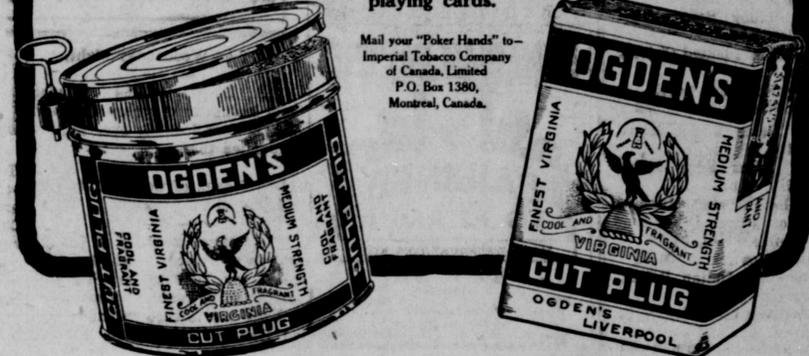

A Night at Sea
The O Baby looks an awful sight but Jeff Lambly, her skipper, optimistically grins and says it might have been worse. Even the best of us sometimes make mistakes but mistakes often lead to trouble and when Jeff started off last Monday afternoon for his chicken ranch at Lewis Island forgetting to take on a gasoline supply he sure let

The Belmont Surf Inlet Mining Co.'s cruiser Belmont was in port on business yesterday. With the Surf Inlet mine now about to be abandoned, the Belmont, which has been a frequent visitor at this port for the past several years, will be missed here unless she becomes the property of other local interests before the Belmont people take her south with the rest of their effects. The boat brought F. H. Penn, manager of the mine, on a business visit to the city.

"Burning the Candle At Both Ends"

THERE is an old saying about "burning the candle at both ends" which seems to apply to modern life.

How is a girl or boy, or man or woman to enjoy social life to the limit, keep up their daily work and escape a breakdown of health.

The nervous system will not stand the strain. There is too short a time for recuperation, too little rest and sleep. The energy consumed in daily activity is not replaced—bankruptcy is sure.

You find yourself nervous, irritable and sleepless. You are worried, have nervous headaches and spells of dizziness.

A restorative is necessary and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food exactly fills the bill. Most women and many men know this from personal experience and use it as occasion arises.

Prevention is by far the wiser plan with disorders of the nerves. By using this great restorative at the first indication of trouble you avoid a physical break down and weeks of tedious treatment. Keep the vitality at high water mark and you will know the joys of healthful living.

Hospital. The Ingrid H. was bound home from the west coast and passing through Skidegate Channel when his heavy clothing became entangled in a shaft coupling and his leg was drawn in with the result that the ankle was fractured in two places. The injured man was taken into Queen Charlotte City where first aid was given by Dr. Palmer before he was brought on home for hospital treatment. Charlie's many friends, regretting to hear of the accident, will sincerely hope that his recovery may be speedy and entirely successful.

Jim and Frank in Style

Jim Lee and Frank Davies, the administrative staff of the Atlin Fisheries, no longer deign to mingle with the common herd. They have been initiated into the mysteries of Ford-dom and have ridden the goat called Lizzie. In other words the plenipotentiaries of the Atlin Fisheries have succumbed to the pleadings of Jim and Frank that walking is no longer in style or efficient in Prince Rupert and have bought them a roadster. So these two dignitaries now motor to and fro instead of using shanks' mare. Neither have been pinched as yet for exceeding the speed limit but give them time—that will come.

Good Spuds

The packer Shizu has been taken over by Robert Wolff and will continue packing this season for the Somerville cannery.

Robert Bennett has arrived in port from Massett with his seine boat Cordelia B. which will operate this season out of Sunnyside cannery.

The Balmoral cannery tender Wawanesa was in port this week having repairs and minor readjustments made.

The power boat Osumi has been sold by Matsukubo and Hamada of this city to H. Kameda of Port Essington and will be used on the Skeena River this year for packing purposes. The boat was sold for about $3,000.

William Dudoward of Port Simpson has his Porchroloc in port this week for engine repairs. The vessel brought in word that another member of the Dudoward family, Reuben, had a narrow escape recently in Warke Channel when he became entangled in salmon fishing gear. He was fortunately rescued before he was compelled to give up the struggle for his life.

Another Record Week

Halibut arrivals at Prince Rupert for the past week (Saturday to Friday inclusive) totalling 1,042,550 pounds set up a new high record for a single week's handlings this season. Of the total, 721,500 pounds was from American vessels and 321,050 pounds from Canadian. The total for the year to date is 5,760,050 pounds, 4,367,600 pounds from American boats and 1,392,450 pounds from Canadian. Prices for the week varied from 12c to 16c for American first class fish and from 11c to 14c for Canadian. Second class prices ranged from 6c to 8c.

The boats landing catches here during the week were as follows:

A 40-foot seine boat is being built at Cow Bay by Y. Suyehiro for H. Brown of Kitkalla. The vessel will be powered with a 20 h.p. Atlas engine.

The Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Co.'s packer Chief Zibassa, Capt. Bert Hanson, will sail on Tuesday next for the Queen Charlotte Islands on a fish buying trip—her first of the season. She will first go to Skidegate and later will proceed to the Hippo Island trolling grounds. Capt. Hanson and Chief Engineer Moorehouse have been putting in a busy time lately on the vessel getting her in ship shape, the work including some important mechanical changes. It is understood that a big welcome awaits the popular Bert at the Islands where he has a host of friends, a dance being on tapis at Skidegate.

SKIDEGATE

G. Woodlands of the Imperial Oil Co. has been looking over the Maritime Fisheries plant at Skidegate with a view to taking it over and converting it into an oil station. This would be the finest location on the Islands.

The Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Company's boat in charge of Capt. Bert Hanson is expected about April 20 to buy salmon from the trollers.

The B.C. Packers big tug Niskah is doing the towing for the company on Skidegate Inlet.

Captain Bert Roberts of the launch Old Nick was in port the other day. He is getting his boat ready for the Hippo Island trolling.

RICHARD BARTHELMESS

"Just Suppose"

The tale of a boy prince who would rather be a peasant in the kingdom of love than emperor of a nation. The love story of an ace who trumped a king for a queen—played in hearts. The adventures of a young prince who knew how to be a sportsman when his country called "Play the game" and love beckoned from the side-lines. For reason of state they wanted him to marry but he didn't because he was in love with someone else. Just suppose it was you. Magnificent dressings. Strong cast.

Richard Barthelmess, Lois Moran, Geoffrey Kerr, Harry Short, George Spelvin, Bijou Fernandez and others.
