MACKENZIE KING

DAILY EDITION

PREMIER AGAIN. Premier Mackenzie King is once more at the head of affairs in Canada but under more favorable circumstances than he has been heretofore. He now has a good working majority of men pledged to his policy and there is nothing to hinder his making good. We look to see the country make progress under his administration.

It is to be hoped that Mr. King will not try to pass too many laws. . What we want in this country is fewer laws instead of more. . Some changes will be needed but not very many. Stability does not come from constant change but from carrying on with as few as possible.

It is to be hoped that the Premier will stick to his policy of modifying of the time so cold that the barometer in the picture minus his national garb. the powers of the Senate to bring it in line with modern ideas of government. persisted in hovering around the seven If, as has been stated, the Government does not propose to rid the country of above zero. this sinecure altogether, the next thing is to clip its claws and prod it into use- "First call for location trips was tors are much agog over the reported ful action.

He has made a good effort in face of great difficulties inside his own party but unhappily for him he has failed. Not only has he failed to carry his party to victory but also failed to retain his own seat. Now he says he will not seek a seat in PaPrilament but will drop out. It is to be hoped that he will be induced to change his mind and will continue to give his services to his country. There are not many men capable of leading.

REGRET DR. KING LOSING HIS POSITION.

Dr. King, member for Kootenay, was for several years minister of public works in the Mackenzie King Government. He has dropped out of that important position and has been given a minor one. Without knowing the circumstances, it looks like a little chastisement to British Columbia for her opposition to Liberal policies. If the province has no appreciation of Liberalism ture. it cannot be expected that she will get much representation in the cabinet which . "And yet they say-pretty soft for stands for Liberalism. It is the first fruit of the recent election. However, there these movie actors!" is nothing to do about it. Protesting will not help. The protest was made at the polls.

WITH SHOCKER, HOYT AND REC THER WILL STRIVE TO DOWN ST. LOUIS

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 .- The five star pitching staff that carried the New York Yankees to victory in 1921-22 and 23 has undergone several changes since the American Leagues last faced the National League opponents in a World Series. The New Yorkers will place their main dependence in the seven game series against St. Louis on Herb Pennock and Urban Shocker, aided by Waite Hoyt and Dutch Ruether. Shawky and Sam Jones will probably share the relief work.

Pennock is generally conceded to be the best left hander in the big leagues today. With over twenty victories to his credit the slender slinger of the Yanks has rounded out his best year in baseball. His control has been uncanny and he has pitched several games without giving a base on balls, something rare for a southpaw. Pennock employs a spinning curve that breaks down and in to right-hand batters and keeps them popping the ball in the air He requires at least four days of rest between games and will doubtless face the National Leaguers in the first game. He beat the New York Giants two games in the World Series of 1923.

CUNNING SPITBALLER

Shocker came to New York from the St. Louis Browns in a trade for Joe Bush. Shocker showed little last year because of illness but this season found him again the cunning spitballer that made him so feared when with St. Louis. Shocker is a right hander and will doubtless be selected to pitch the second game of the series. He has won about a score of games this year. He has never been in a World Series.

blaze of glory but an injured elbow threw him back and it was not until this month that he flashed his early shortstop and second base, and with a season's form. In the American League, the Yanks worked up from seventh place last season to the top this year in spite of the fact that few experts earlier in the season believed that the Yankees would cop off the pennant this year.

Miller Huggins has brought the New York Yankees to the top of the American League playing heap four times since he joined the club as manager in 1918. Twice the team ran third under his management; once it finished fourth, the first year that he was at the helm, and last year it bogged down to seventh place when the team cracked and crumbled from sheer old age. The feat of bringing the Yanks back to a pennant from a seventh place club in one season might establish Miller Huggins as a miracle man. But the Yankee pilot is still plain Mister Huggins who sits back in the dugout and simply manages. Huggins eschews the limelight; is rarely seen on the coaching line and as he seldom talks for publication baseball fans know lit-

DEMOCRAT IS TO RE-ELECT HIM GOVERNOR

Nobody here doubts that Governor Smith is going to sweep New York again this fall. He seems sure to be chosen governor again by a heavy vote. The Republicans are worried lest he carry the senatorship with him and defeat Senator Wadsworth. But regardless of the senatorship, Governor Smith will get the governorship again and that fact for president by his party in 1928. PAVING WAY

For months, the Smith lieutenants bave been working in many states to pave the way for his nomination in 1928. Other Democratic aspirants have

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare--should make a habit of reading the ads.

NEW BIOLOGICAL STATION READY

MOVEMENT OF INSTRUMENTS TO COMMENCE AND NEW APPOINT-MENT TO STAFF MADE

The new biological building is almost completed and should be handed over to the Biological Board at the end of this month. Moving the scientific apparatus will then commence and it will take probably a couple of weeks.

For the official opening J. J. Cowie, secretary-treasurer of the board, will be here some time next month and probably there will be a meeting of the western executive at the same time. D. B. Finn, the acting director, is at present assisted by R. W. Pillsbury, who is making a survey of the fish handling plants for the board.

A new appointment to this station is Horace Brocklesby, a graduate of the University of Manitoba in organic chemistry, who will specialize on fish oils, tion fish meal and glue. He is at present finishing up some research work on laboratories.

Next summer it is expected the staff will be increased and possibly scientific workers will make this their headquar- think that way. But, curiously, they

SUGGESTS LLOYD GEORGE GET TIP ON WINNING ELECTION

LONDON, Sept. 27 .- "It will be regrettable from every point of view if, as seems only too probable, Mr. Mackenzie King will be unable to attent the Imperial conference," says the Liberal weekly paper Truth. "The Liberal leaders in the mother land will have particular cause to regret Mr. King's absence from London." Truth adds, "for who is more fitted than he to give useful tips on the way to sweep the country?"

Continuing in a humorous veli. Truth proceeds to suggest that Mackenzie King should be invited to preside over a friendly and strictly private conference at which Lord Oxford and Asquith, Lloyd George, Walter Runciman, M.P., and a few other choice spirits could consult with him freely on the best method of leading a party. Failing this, the next best thing would! be for all of them to go to Canada for a winter course of instruction.

A rugged story of the cattle country packed with action, thrills and romance. More people have read the book than any other cowboy story ever written. Hoot at his best as "Chip," the bashful cowpuncher. First he fell in love with the girl, then his horse ran away with her, then he ran away with her himself. The more he loved her the more he got in wrong so he just naturally stole her to put things right. A big, rarin', tearing' rodeo is one of the highlights of this picture. Strong cast.
