HOUSE PASSES RESOLUTION OF MARITIMES

LEADER OF PROGRESSIVES TELLS OF CONFLICT BETWEEN EAST AND WEST

Commons Resolution on Maritime Rights Passes Without any Opposition

Demand made that freight rates over Intercolonial be adjusted to accord with Confederation understanding

OTTAWA, April 13.—Without a dissenting voice the House of Commons today adopted the Maritime Rights resolution moved by W. A. Black, Conservative member for Halifax. The motion read as follows:

"That in the opinion of this House good faith should be kept with the Maritime provinces and other interested parts of the Dominion in regard to the recorded assurance and undertakings of governments and parliament and agreements set out in statements of the Dominion respecting the routing of Canadian trade over Canadian territory and through Canadian ports and that freight rates over the Intercolonial Railway be adjusted in accordance with the understanding of Confederation."

TARIFF CHANGE NOT PROBABLE

Government Likely to Await Report of New Advisory Board Before Taking Action

OTTAWA, April 13.—That the tariff change will be shown in the budget to be introduced Thursday is the opinion here, although members of the cabinet, who are the only ones who know, are not talking. While the Progressives would like to see tariff reductions, many Quebec and Ontario Liberals would prefer to see tariff increases and a compromise of allowing the duties to remain as they are is thought likely to result.

The government has a good excuse for putting off revision as the Tariff Advisory board has just been appointed and it will take many months investigating conditions before they will be in a position to suggest change.

The duty on motor cars has been discussed here recently and an intimation has been given that income tax and sales tax may be reduced.

T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, following a controversy here regarding the possibility of Cadboro Bay beach being closed.

LUMBER MARKET OUTLOOK BETTER

Demand for Poles and Piling also Improved Says Olof Hanson on Return from Trip East

Lumber demand is improving in the Middle West both in Canada and the United States and the market outlook is much improved this spring states Olof Hanson, head of the Hanson Lumber & Timber Co., who returned to the city yesterday after a trip east. Yards in the east, however, have been carrying reserve stocks and though the tendency may be upward, there is as yet no appreciable advance in price. The outlook for the marketing of poles and piling is also improved with a tendency to rising prices.

During his trip east, Mr. Hanson received orders for poles that will probably keep his camps up the line going throughout the summer.

The cutting in the interior for the Canadian National Railway is completed and loading is in progress. In spite of the mild weather which made transportation difficult, Mr. Hanson says that his company was able to fill all the railway orders which were considerably reduced this winter.

Canada Needs Public Spirited Men Even More Than Capital Declares Progressive Leader

TORONTO, April 13.—"Talk as you will," said Robert Forke, leader of the Progressives, when addressing the Canadian Club here today, "there is east and west and it is one of the great political factors of this Dominion. Canada today needs public spirited men of broad vision even more than she needs capital."

Continuing, the Progressive leader said that if Canada was to have prosperity in power and influence she must have national unity.

Referring to the proposed Hudson Bay railway, Mr. Forke, in an interview here, said it would pay for itself as a colonization road and in opening up the vast stores of minerals.

VALUABLE GIFT OF BOOKS TO LIBRARY

One Lady Sent in 150 Volumes, Many of Them Literature Such as is Used at University

The public library has received a number of volumes of late which have been donated by those having no further use for them. Notable among the contributions was one of 150 volumes given the Library by a lady. They include some fiction and also a good deal of what is classed as literature, books that are used in the University courses and standard authors. The gift was very acceptable and will be a great help in supplying the demand for that class of book without having to draw on the meagre supply of money voted by the city for the purchase.

WHEAT GROWING FOR ELEVATOR

District Agriculturist Says Making of Market Will Stimulate Farmers

ALREADY MUCH GROWN

Hopes to Have at Least a Thousand Acres This Year as a Starter

R. G. Sutton, district agriculturist, has been very much impressed with the announcement that the western wheat pool has secured a lease upon the Prince Rupert grain elevator, says the Prince George Citizen. He sees in the operation of the Rupert elevator the making of a market for wheat grown along the line of the railway in his immense district, stretching from Tete Jaune Cache west, which should have a marked effect upon farming methods.

Last week, in furtherance of a suggestion from F. G. Dawson of Prince Rupert, Mr. Sutton made a request that the farmers who have been producing wheat in the districts contiguous to Prince George should submit samples of their grain to him. So far three farmers have complied, D. Turcotte and T. Houghmaruck, of the Vanderhoof district, and Andy Miller, of the Mud River district. The samples received are of high grade and Mr. Sutton is advised that others are on the way to his office.

Hay Declining

The operation of the Rupert elevator, in the opinion of Mr. Sutton, cannot fail to have a stimulating effect upon wheat production all along the line of the Canadian National within the provincial boundary. There are a number of reasons for believing this result will be achieved. For years the chief crop of the lands along the railway has been hay. Wheat will not give the same return per acre that hay has in the past, but hay prices have been steadily falling and most of the farmers are reconciled to smaller prices for the future. Last year may yield the farmers from $18 to $23 per ton, and in one or two cases, in which the producer reached his market direct, a price of around $23 was secured. With an average of two tons to the acre this would give the farmer a return of about $10.

On these prices the return on wheat production is not so bad in comparison. From such experiments as have been made it is estimated an average yield of 25 bushels to the acre could be expected throughout the district on lands suitable for wheat production, and at a price of $1.25 per bushel this would give a return of $30 to the acre. Wheat production, however, would put the farmers in a comparatively stable market, and would enable them to adopt one of the best four-year crop rotation systems known. Wheat is conceded to be the best nurse crop for the seeding of grasses and clovers, and the advantage afforded for a desirable four-year rotation-crop system would go a long way to make up the first disadvantage on crop sales as compared with hay and wheat.

Not Generally Hazardous

Experience gained during the past few years has in a great measure altered the prevailing opinion as to the hazard of wheat production in the district. There are admittedly a number of localities in which wheat production may be extra hazardous, but results secured over a number of years precludes this handicap from being applied to the district generally. If the matter can be properly presented to the farmers there is no reason why at least one thousand acres should not be sown to wheat this year and a start made at entering the district in the list of wheat producers, and this without disarranging the settled program of the farmers in their plan of crop rotation, but rather improving it.

In the Vanderhoof district Messrs. Turcotte and Houghmaruck are but two of the farmers who have had considerable success in wheat production. E. Smedley will have 20 acres in wheat this season, and there is so much land under cultivation that it would be rather difficult to set a limit upon the acreage which might be limited to wheat. J. P. Myers, of Fort Fraser, demonstrated what could be done in his section last fall when he threshed 200 bushels of excellent wheat in spite of unfavorable weather conditions.

Near Prince George

Closer to Prince George, perhaps the greatest success in wheat production has been scored by Gustave Hiller of the Beaverly district. For some years past he has been cropping around fifty acres each season. One year he was badly frozen out, but this happens in the best of wheat districts, and taken over a period of years it is asserted his crops have been more uniformly good than those from most of the wheat-growing sections on the prairies. Andy Miller, of the Mud River district, has been producing wheat for a number of years and has no doubt as to the ability of the district to produce it once a stable export market is secured.

In the Pineview district R. J. Blackburn has been producing wheat for a number of years and B. Bendickson, Fred Bonnett and Gus Lund in the same neighborhood have also had success with it.

In the Woodpecker district uniform success has attended the efforts of William Koling, the Kerkhoff boys, Joe Dale, E. O. Hutchinson, and Pete Holtzwaert in the growing of wheat, and given a chance to reach a market there is every reason to expect that wheat would become an important factor in the crop yield of this section.

Increases Will be Steady

Wheat has been grown successfully in the Salmon River valley for a number of years by S. Johnson, Jens Andrews, the Lockyer brothers and Fred Hammond, in the vicinity of McBride. The experience of John Oakley has been most encouraging. All that is needed to bring about a very substantial wheat production is for the farmers to realize it will be to their advantage to sow a given acreage of their lands to wheat each season.

Right from Tete Jaune Cache, Croydon, Dunster, McBride, Newlands, Willow River and Giscome there are areas favorable to wheat production. There is every reason to believe the ice will be well broken this season, and that each succeeding year will see a substantial addition to the flow of the golden grain to the elevator at Prince Rupert.

BASEBALL IS PLAYED TODAY

Good Weather Ushers in all Eight Games in Big League Series for Opening

MANY AGED PLAYERS

Babe Adams, Pirates' Veteran Pitcher, is Now 43 Years of Age and Going Strong

NEW YORK, April 13.—With the opening of the major baseball season today last year's pennant winners in the American and National Leagues face stiff opposition in their initial games. Washington Americans are pitted against the Philadelphia Athletics while Pittsburgh meets the St. Louis Cardinals. The New York Giants try conclusions with Brooklyn. Bright clear weather is promised for all eight games.

Age of Players

Despite the popular conception of baseball as ever beckoning to the athlete of the early twenties, rosters of the clubs indicate a growing tendency of managers to pin their faith largely on men between the ages of 30 and 40. This year the veterans responded in increasing numbers to the call of base-ball warfare, with no less than 23 players of 35 or more years among outstanding dependables.

Outstanding exceptions to the rule of age are found in the two Boston clubs, which have the youngest teams in their respective races. The Braves have a club whose average age is 26 years and 9 months, while the Red Sox average approximately 26 years.

Ten Veterans

In sharp contrast are the Washington Senators, twice winners of the American League flag, with a team averaging 30 years and 6 months. Ten of their players have reached the veteran class, with Walter Johnson, pitching ace of the club, now in his fortieth year. Hank Severdik, Roger Peckinpaugh, and Sam Rice are next in line, all at the 35-year mark, while Joe Bush, Johnny Tobin, Dutch Reutter, Stanley Coleskie, Joe Judge and Joe Harris are between 30 and 35.

Three teams in the thick of the National League pennant fight of 1925, all rates by critics as leading contenders, depend largely on players over 30.

Despite an inclination to refer to the champion Pirates as a youthful team, their roster reveals 12 players who already have passed their thirtieth birthdays or will reach that mark during the coming race. The Giants go even higher with 13 men in the same class, while the Cincinnati Reds, third in 1925, will have an even dozen.

Pitching Veterans

On the roster of the Pirates is the grand old pitching veteran, Babe Adams, now 43. Six other Pirate hurlers are in the zone between 30 and 35—Vic Aldridge, Ray Kromer, Lee Meadows, Red Oldham, Tom Sheehan and Johnny Morrison. Max Carey, captain of the club, is 36, while Carson Bigbee, Clyde Barnhart, Stuffy McInnis and Johnny Rawlings also are in the veteran division.

Grover Hartley tops the Giants' playing field at 38 years, two more than carried by the little third sacker, Heinie Groh. Others between 30 and 35 are George Kelly, Irish Meusel, Hugh McQuillan, Art Nehf, Jack Scott, Bill Southworth, Al Tyson, Ross Young and Frank Snyder.

Cuban Star

Heading the veteran Cincinnati warriors is the Cuban pitching star, Adolfo Luque, now nearly 36. Eppa Rixey, another slab veteran, soon will be 35. Carl Mays, Bubbles Hargrave, Val Pichinich, Sammy Bohne, Frank Emmer, Babe Pinelli, Wally Pipp, Rube Brossier, Eddie Roush and Curtis Walker are either over 30 or will pass the mark this season.

It remains for the Brooklyn Dodgers, however, to top both leagues in veteran material, for President-Manager Robinson will call upon 15 athletes between 30 and 40 years. Zach Wheat, perennial clouting star of the team, is now 38. Jacques Fournier, Dazzy Vance, Milton Stock and Burleigh Grimes have reached 33, two years short of Rabbit Maranville's age. Also in the 30 to 35 year zone are Jess Barnes, Jess Petty, Tiny Osborne and Bill Marriott.

Baby Eczema

Soon Disappears with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment

Only mothers who have witnessed the suffering of their babies when tortured by eczema fully appreciate the remarkable soothing, healing effects of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Most babies at one time or another fall victims to skin irritations, chafing of the skin or eczema. For this reason it is a fine habit to always wash at hand when bathing baby a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You never know when roughness and redness of the skin is going to develop into something more serious. A touch of Dr. Chase's Ointment keeps the skin smooth and velvety and prevents serious skin afflictions.

There are scores of uses for Dr. Chase's Ointment. Once it finds its way into the home it is soon considered indispensable.

Given the opportunity to see him display his wares, Ben Selt, proprietor of the new Grand Terminal Billiard Club, is to be congratulated not only on opening such a fine resort in the city but also for his initiative in bringing Stanley Newman here to take part in its baptism.

NEW REGULATIONS REGARDING TRAFFIC

Right of Way Will be Given on Highways so Designated and Cars Entering From Side Must Stop

VICTORIA, April 13.—May 1 will see the enforcement of the new regulations designed to make traffic on British Columbia roads and highways safe and comfortable for everybody. This date for the beginning of the new era in road conditions is announced at the Public Works Department.

Previous to the enforcement of the new rules Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, will take under advisement any representations that are made to him in regard to the proposed traffic code. The regulations as announced last week are subject to alteration in some details if it is found that they work an unnecessary hardship on anyone.

Bus operators, whose business is vitally affected by the regulations, are expected to make representations to Dr. Sutherland regarding bus rules. These are strict, describing the weight and size of busses which may be used here and setting up a new system of speed schedules and guaranteed compensation in case of accident.

While the roads affected by some of the new safety regulations have not been definitely fixed yet, a number of Island roads will be infested in this class. The Island Highway and the Saanich Roads will be regarded as highways of first importance, before entering which from side roads motorists must stop their cars. The Minister of Public Works can designate roads for the enforcement of this rule from time to time as he sees fit.
