Customs Department to be Organized by Committee Appointed

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—Announcement is made of the taking steps toward a complete reorganization of the department of excise and customs. Sir Henry Drayton, acting premier, in statement says that Clarkson, Gordon and Dilworthy, chartered accountants of Toronto, employed in the recent parliamentary customs probe had been engaged under an order-in-council to make a careful study of the administration of the customs department as a whole, including all the various branches and to make recommendations with a view to a complete reorganization as contemplated by Parliament at the last session.

The work will be carried on in conjunction with the special advisory and consultative committee which will act in conjunction with the accountants. This committee is composed of Hon. W. J. Roche, chairman of the civil service commission; Georges Gonthier, auditor general; George Taylor, deputy minister of customs and excise; R. W. Bredner, commissioner on taxation; and E. S. Busby, chief inspector of the customs department.

CHARGES STEVENS WAS UNCHIVALROUS

How Vancouver Minister
Now Felt About Death of Mr. Boivin

NORTH BATTLEFORD, Aug. 10.—Reviewing the customs investigation in a speech here last night, W. L. Mackenzie King, leader, again referred to the death of the late George Boivin, minister of customs. He said it had been charged that Boivin was guilty of some offense. "I wonder how Mr. Stevens feels about that now," he inquired. "Never was there a more unchivalrous act than his. He had been on a committee which reported unanimously that he had made charges based upon evidence which had been only before that committee. I think Canadian people will have to pass judgment on this matter."

Mr. King challenged Mr. Meighen to state publicly whether W. A. Black was to be minister of railways permanently.

STOCKS DROP MANY POINTS

High Priced Industrials Suffer
Most From Bear Raid on Exchange

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A sudden bear raid on high priced industrials brought about a series of sensational declines in the stock market today. General Motors breaking fourteen points, Dupon fifteen and United States Steel Iron Pipe eight, while dozens of others fell back from two to seven points.

A large increase recently in brokers' loans and the calling of a large part of it was responsible for the setback, it is thought.

Al Simmons' homer with one on enabled Philadelphia to defeat Chicago.

The Giants defeated Chicago mainly through the effective hitting of Jackson, who had a homer and two doubles and a single to his credit. New York is now tied with Chicago for fourth place.

HIGHER TARIFF SAYS MEIGHEN

Would Make Protection Applicable to all Products he Says
in Speech Last Night

ST. JEAN, Man., Aug. 10.—Speaking here last night, Premier Meighen said under a Conservative administration the people would be assured of honest and stable government and Canadians would find work at home. He warmly denied that he proposed to amalgamate the Canadian National and C.P.R. systems. "We propose to be fair between our own system and the C.P.R. to give both a chance and to see to it that both of them give service to the country for which the country extended its credit so generously and for which the country supports them now."

Discussing the tariff, Mr. Meighen said what they wanted was a stable protective tariff. The tariff should be revised on a distinctly protective basis applicable to all products. He gave warning that if advantage was taken of the revised tariff to force prices up, down would go the tariff and they would be left without protection at all.

Large Space Required for New Westminster Exhibit at Fair on September 14 Next

Dave Thomson, fair board manager, has received notification from the secretary of the New Westminster fair that the prize exhibit, which is being shipped north for the forthcoming fair, will require a space of 40 feet clear and 16 feet deep, and the necessary space has been reserved in the exhibition building.

The space booked will give some idea of the size of this prize agricultural exhibit, which is to be staged by experts, and will doubtless prove one of the great attractions of the fair, especially to those interested in agriculture.

The New Westminster prize exhibit will not be in competition with any exhibit shown from surrounding districts, but is purely being staged as of educational value to other exhibitors as it will give them an idea of just how agricultural and horticultural exhibits should be staged, and will be a pattern to go by when exhibiting at future fairs.

GRAIN TRADE WITH CHINA

Increase This Year Over Last Says Visitor.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—Export of Canadian wheat to China this year will advance at least 20 per cent over last year's trading, according to Chas. Sun, of Tientsin, president of a large Chinese milling company, who is en route to Vancouver, where he will buy a large quantity of wheat.

Mr. Sun passed through Winnipeg today and while here remarked: "This will be the biggest year yet in the grain trade in history between Canada and China."

BELLINGHAM GOES ASHORE

Struck Digby Island When Leaving Harbor Early This Morning

Motorship Bellingham, Capt. Anderson, of Kelchikan, ran ashore in a heavy fog at 5 o'clock this morning at a point on Digby Island opposite the picnic grounds, no damage resulting. The Bellingham was returning to Kelchikan after unloading two carloads of fresh salmon at the Ocean Dock for trans-shipment to New York.

Hubert Ward, representing the insurance underwriters, accompanied by Capt. A. Swanson of the Prince Rupert Boat House, made an inspection of the vessel this morning. The Bellingham floated off on the high tide at noon and proceeded on her return north.

Premier Meighen Will Be Here Saturday and Will Address Meetings

Word was received by the local Conservative Association today that the itinerary of Premier Meighen had been changed and that he would arrive here on the train Saturday afternoon. Arrangements have been made for him to address a mass meeting in the Westholme Theatre on Saturday evening and an overflow meeting the same evening at Boston Hall.

Premier Meighen has never visited Prince Rupert before and most of the people here will wish to hear him speak and to see what he looks like. As leader of the Conservative party in Canada for the time being and will be treated as such.

It is probable that other speakers will accompany the Premier, and J. C. Brady, the Conservative candidate will also be on hand and will possibly speak briefly.

Following the meeting, Mr. Meighen will proceed south to Vancouver on the Canadian National steamer.

THE PUBLICLY EXPRESSED OPINION OF A CONSERVATIVE

"In my view the whole of this western movement should be directed to the port of Vancouver; and all public monies expended upon the Pacific coast should be expended here. There never was a more grossly flagrant instance of expenditure of public monies for purely political purposes than the building of the elevator at Prince Rupert by the Liberal government."

Judging By Acts, Not By Words.

In the political campaign now going on, it is well to discount words when not backed up by actions. Premier Meighen belatedly says in general terms to the people of the prairies and the west that he is in favor of equality of freight rates. Yet when he was in power he did not take any action to remove the inequalities under which British Columbia groaned.

Mackenzie King did not talk about the matter much but he ordered the Railway Commission to base its rates on equality for east and west. The commission ordered the railways to file an export grain tariff giving B. C. mile for mile the same rates as the grain going to the head of the lakes.

That action of the Mackenzie King Government speaks louder than all the words of a pre-election campaign. Under these circumstances, seeing that railway rates mean everything to the west, there is but one thing to do and that is vote for the Liberal candidate. Doubtless voters in Skeena constituency will remember this on election day.

Hopeless Job For Western Conservatives.

One of the Vancouver newspapers remarks that Vancouver Conservatives who think they can convert their party to a western program are up against the same hopeless job as a woman marrying in the hope that she will convert a hopeless drunkard. Conservatism faces inevitably and eternally eastward.

Vancouver to Get Fine New Hotel.

Vancouver is to get a fine new Canadian National Railway hotel. That is quite right and proper. A Canadian National Railway hotel is needed in that city. Prince Rupert people will take no offense to it. The next step will be to get a railway hotel for this city. We need it more than does Vancouver. We have the elevator and soon it will be in operation. Possibly if Premier Meighen were to be as prompt in authorizing a hotel for this city as he was for Vancouver there might be a chance of electing his supporter here. We throw this out as a suggestion. We do not want a promise. That means nothing. The thing to do would be to order the work to proceed, as was done in Vancouver.

Getting Together To Secure Majority.

One of the encouraging aspects of the present election is the attitude of the Liberal, Progressive and Labor groups in getting together more than ever they have before. They stand for pretty much the same thing and there is no good reason why they should not unite on one candidate and make it a straight fight between the Conservatives and Liberals. There are today very few Liberals and Progressives opposing each other and in a number of constituencies the Labor group is holding back in order to give the Liberal a chance to win, as is shown in Vancouver Centre. This should result in the Liberals getting a much larger number of victories to their credit and being able to carry on with a strong government in the next Parliament.

Alberta to Operate E. D. & B. C. Railway.

The Government of Alberta has semi-officially announced that it will operate the E. D. & B. C. Railway after the expiry of the lease to the C. P. R. at the end of October. That is, of course, if they do not get what they consider a reasonable offer from either of the railways. They have not been satisfied so far with the offers made.

We do not think it a good thing for the province to operate the railway, but yet they must do so if they cannot get an offer that protects the people to some extent for the money they have put in. It is a case somewhat parallel to the Pacific Great Eastern, except that the production along the Alberta line is much greater than the B. C.

FARMERS AND GRAIN MARKET

Are Urged to Get in Touch With Manager of Elevator for Information

IS BUMPER CROP

(From Interior News)
With wheat crops in Bulkley Valley coming on in an encouraging way for a bumper harvest, farmers throughout the district are manifesting interest in the procedure for marketing the crop. Many such enquiries have reached the Interior News and public organizations in Smithers in relation to the operation of the government elevator recently constructed at Prince Rupert.

In this connection the only situation that can be accepted is that in actual existence and not what might be brought about by the ultimate development of the grain business in this section of the country. Undoubtedly the future will see a full quota of grain dealers and brokers acting in what might be termed the gambling end, but at present the only ready market is the elevator for any surplus the district may have after supplying home needs in the cheaper grades of wheat for feeding purposes. Up to the present, however, no private enterprise has been started for buying grain for the Prince Rupert elevator.

Membership Easy

The new elevator at Prince Rupert is under a two-year lease to the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers', Ltd., of Calgary, commonly referred to as the Wheat Pool. The new manager of the elevator is Leonard Green, and farmers of this district should get into immediate correspondence with Mr. Green in regard to marketing their 1926 crop.

From information received it would appear to be one of the essentials that, inasmuch as the wheat pool is organized for systematic marketing of the crops of its members, farmers of this district wishing to dispose of their wheat through this organization must first become members. The membership fee, it is understood, is $1.00, and the fee can either accompany the application or will be deducted from the first payment for the wheat shipped to Prince Rupert.

Gradual Payment

Farmers shipping wheat will not receive full payment upon delivery. About $1.00 per bushel will be advanced as first payment and further advances will be made as the crop of the wheat pool is moved out to market. One of the big objects of the wheat pool is to stabilize the price by regulating the supply to the market so as to avoid a glut, and while the banks will finance the pool for the first payment and subsequent advances are made as the crop is marketed.

All grain shipped to Prince Rupert will be inspected and graded by an official of the Dominion government at Prince Rupert. Farmers may ship in sacks or in bulk as desired, and farmers may combine in bulk shipments upon mutual agreement to accept average grades, or different grades or different grains may be handled in the same car by bulkheading. As few farmers are at present equipped for bulk shipments, however, it is likely that most shipping from this district will be in sacks, in which case it will be simple to arrange a mixed shipment of grain or grades.

Get in Touch

Farmers having grain to market this year and who are depending on the Prince Rupert elevator as an outlet should lose no time in getting in touch with the manager of the elevator at Prince Rupert, or by writing to the Alberta Wheat Pool, Calgary.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

W. C. C. Mehan, general superintendent of the G.T.P., who has been in Winnipeg on official business is expected back today.

LIMERICK CONTEST BASED ON ELECTION

Prizes of Five Dollars and Three For Best and Second Best Verses Submitted

The Daily News has decided to put on an election limerick contest and offers prizes of five dollars and three respectively for first and second best limerick submitted. The verse should deal with some phase of the present election campaign and should not be objectionably personal. It should deal with one of the candidates or the policies or leaders of the respective parties. Here are two examples:

There once was a member named Stork
Three thousand miles from New York;
He was greatly respected
And again was elected,
And Brady was sent back to Cork.

You have heard of the candidate, Brady,
Who refused to do anything shady;
He expects to be member
Long before next November,
And to Ottawa go with his lady.

Rules of Contest

The rules of the contest follow:
Each verse should be written on a separate piece of paper and signed by the author, not for publication but as a guarantee of good faith. Only the names of the winners will be published.

The verses must, as far as possible, be perfect limericks. No other class of verse is admitted.

Many of the verses will be published but not necessarily all.

Verses should be mailed to "Contest Editor," Daily News or to be left at the office.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

It is reported around town that the Conservative candidate made a wonderful impression at Stewart and the utmost enthusiasm was shown. Jake says he remembers some other candidate going to Stewart and rousing the people there to a pitch of red hot enthusiasm but is not quite sure how many votes that candidate got.

PROSPERITY IN WEST APPARENT

Dr. Black, of Immigration Department Says There Will Be Good Average Crop.

EVERYONE OPTIMISTIC

Building Programs in All Towns and Settlers Doing Well on Land.

MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—"Western Canada shows every sign of a continuation of the general spirit of optimism which developed with the harvesting of last year's crop and as a result I found business good, the people cheerful and every one of the towns and cities with a building program under way, more ambitious than in any year since before the war," stated Dr. W. J. Black, director of the department of colonization, agriculture and natural resources of the Canadian National Railways, on his return today from a tour of the western provinces.

As for this year's crop, while some districts of north central Saskatchewan and Alberta have suffered from dry weather, the crop will be a good average and will be an economical crop for the farmer to harvest. Straw is fairly light, but with promises of good yields. One of the striking things of his journey, Dr. Black stated, was the fact that many districts in Alberta, where newly arrived immigrants had been placed on farms by the Canadian National colonization department during the past two years, had more new land broken up this year than at any time since before the war. The new settlers were clearing their land and breaking it up and many of them preparing to harvest their first crop this year. They have splendid prospects. The Edmonton land office, Dr. Black stated, had recorded more filling of homesteads in the twelve months ending July 31 than in any year since the war.

The labor situation in western Canada has been promising this year also, the Winnipeg office of the company having made three times as many placements this year as last. Not one experienced farm worker passing through the office of the agricultural and colonization department offices in Winnipeg, had been unemployed, and at several periods during the season there were many more jobs available than there were men to fill them.

"On the whole, I found the west decidedly optimistic and even those people who were previously ranked among the pessimists, have changed their views and look cheerfully to the future," Dr. Black stated.

TERRACE MAN IS MISSING

Mat and Cane of Fred Nelson is Found on Bank of Skeena and Suicide Suspected.

TERRACE, Aug. 10. — Suicide by drowning is believed to have been the fate of Fred Nelson, an old timer of this district, who left the home of Mrs. A. Olson, situated on what is known as Little's Island road, early Saturday morning and has not been seen since. Mrs. Olson was absent from home but her son Stanley became alarmed at his long absence from the house and notified Constable Service. A search revealed his hat and cane on the bank of the river not far from the Olson home and the belief is that he drowned himself.

Dependancy over ill health is undoubtedly the cause of the tragic act. He was injured about the knee in falling over a log in the woods at Giggey & Little's mill last winter and has spent a good part of the time since in hospitals. He had returned from the Hazelton hospital just a week before and was staying at the home of Mrs. Olson. He was able to move about with difficulty, even with the use of a cane.

He was 70 years of age and was a native of Sweden, but had been in this district since 1908 when he took up a pre-emption in the Lakelse Valley, which he still owned. Distant relatives are supposed to be living in Saskatchewan.

PORTUGUESE MEN OF WAR

Writer Tells of Visit of Nautilus to British Columbia Waters Recently

William E. Maiden of the Givenchy writing to the Vancouver Province says:

In the issue of The Province of July 29 is a story about the visit of the true Nautilus to Northern B.C. waters. In the last paragraph of the account it says the two-inch sail creatures were skipping and flitting around like an endless myriad of sand fleas. From that sentence I am led to presume that what the mariners saw were Physalia, of the genus Hydrozoa or genus Acalophs, sub-order Siphonophora but in the lexicon of sea listed as "Portuguese Men-of-war."

On June 3 of this year, while making the triangular run from Hope Island across Queen Charlotte Sound to Calvert Island aboard the C.G.F.P.C. Givenchy, we passed millions of the "Portuguese men-of-war," and in two

N.B.—Practically all British Columbia Mineral Properties upon which development work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C. places they were massed so thick that they made livid, grass-green patches on the water, this being the more noticeable because the colors of the individuals are white and purple.

Mass Fornation

On June 9 we found many dead men-of-war off the Pearls and Virgins, in Queen Charlotte Sound, and picked up several "sails" that had no base. Captain A. M. Henderson of the Givenchy picked up what appeared to be a chrysalis, off the Virgins. It resembled a bunch of crocus. In Queen Charlotte Sound the following day we passed the "men-of-war" massed in a group from ten to thirty feet wide and a quarter of a mile in length. That same afternoon, in Fitzhugh Sound, Captain Laird of the Malaspina informed us that the "men-of-war" were all along the northern coast of British Columbia. When we left Rivers Inlet for Vancouver on June 20 we saw very few of the "men-of-war" and there were none whatever, encountered after we reached Hope Island.

Enquiry among fishermen in Rivers Inlet elicited the information that in other years occasionally a few "men-of-war," half a dozen or so, had drifted into Sea Otter Cove, north end of Vancouver Island, but never before had they been as numerous as this year. C. Petersen, of San Josef Bay, reported that at Cape Scott dead "men-of-war" were piled a foot deep and three or four feet wide on the shore, and the stench therefrom was terrific.

Japanese Current

In reporting to the department of marine and fisheries on the subject, it being such an unusual occurrence, Captain Henderson employed the phrase "spherical current" in referring to the reported, eastward trend of the Japanese Current as perhaps being responsible for the strange visitors to British Columbia waters.

I preserved two specimens, one of which is in the possession of a University of British Columbia student, and the other I have at home. While some of the Physalia were almost four inches in length the majority were nearer two inches—the one I have is about three inches long.

Are Tropical Visitors

As the "men-of-war" are tropical and sub-tropical growths, it is rather a puzzle how they came to be so numerous in the far-from-tropical waters of Queen Charlotte Sound, the temperature of which Chief Engineer Banks, of the Givenchy, ascertained was 52 degrees above zero at the time we encountered the "men-of-war."

It is up to the scientists to find out what the "men-of-war" are doing along the coast of British Columbia, and they might also tell us if they are the true Nautilus, for they are certainly not the pearly Nautilus.

WHO WILL BE PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES?

Coolidge Renomination Discussed With Other Possible Republican Candidates.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 10. (By Canadian Press)—The flood of anti-Coolidge sentiment which is spreading over the west, as indicated by recent developments in the Des Moines agricultural conference has received a check with the endorsement of the President by Iowa Republicans at their state convention. The convention, which had been expected to condemn Mr. Coolidge and the national administration for their reputed attitude toward congressional relief for agriculture, wound up with commendation for the president and merely asked for the carrying into effect of the "Republican policy of economic equality of agriculture with other industries."

Symptoms of Revolt
There has been no end of speculation and talk concerning the presidential situation in 1928 as it relates to the Republican party at the capital. There are still strong symptoms that the president will find some of the agricultural states opposing his renomination. In case his renomination is forced, as it is likely to be, the question will arise whether there will be such a revolt among agricultural republicans as to bring about election of a democrat.

At present, it seems doubtful whether the president in the next twenty months can make peace with the mass of the middle western and northwestern voters. On the other hand, he may be able to line up the southern and eastern delegates to the next Republican national convention. Some of the best advised politicians in Washington look on the president as an active candidate for another term and think he will secure renomination.

Active Aspirants
Lowden, Dawes and Hoover are now named as the most active aspirants other than President Coolidge. Lowden has strong agricultural support. Senators Borah, Watson, Willis and Capper, as well as Wadsworth, are also possible candidates for nomination. Senator Borah has planned a series of speeches on the World Court, to which he is opposed, on prohibition, which he favors, and other issues, and the prevailing view is that these speeches are really for the purpose of initiating his campaign.

Activities of Speaker Longworth of the House of Representatives are commanding attention in many quarters. He is said to have lined up C. Bascom Slemm, former secretary to the president, in his support, for the purpose of having Slemm get the southern delegates. Slemm is from Virginia and is part and parcel of the southern Republican machine. On the other hand, certain politicians predict Slemm will be found in the long run lining up for Hoover if Coolidge does not run. The Hoover lieutenants are hoping to get the administration support if Coolidge should drop out.

GOLFERS AT JASPER TO PLAY FOR TOTEM

Handicap Match Against Parover And Other Events at Tournament.

One of the most interesting and ambitious golf tournaments of the western Canada season is that arranged by the Canadian National Railways to be played over the Jasper Park Lodge course during the week of September 11 to 18. A handicap match against parover 18 holes and an interprovincial and state competition over 18 holes, together with play for the unique Jasper Park Lodge silver totem pole trophy are the main events on a program that has already attracted many well known amateurs from various parts of Canada and the Pacific Coast states.

Something New
The totem pole trophy is something entirely new in golfing awards. It is a replica of the pole displayed in the window of the company's office at 505 Fifth Avenue, New York, and it stands two feet high on a square base. On all of the upper four corners of the base there is a silver bear, modeled after those frequently seen in the vicinity of the lodge. This trophy bowl and will be sent to the club of the winner for a period of one year. Any golfer winning this trophy any three years will earn its permanent possession. The winner each year receives a replica for his personal ownership. Five days will be occupied in the play for this trophy at the qualifying round of 18 holes commencing on Tuesday, September 14.

WONDERFUL CROPS SEEN ON PRAIRIES

Situation Not As Bad As Some Reports Seemed to Indicate.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—"I have been in this country over 40 years and have never had as much faith in it as I have today," said A. Wilcox, general superintendent of transportation on western lines of the Canadian National Railways, who had just returned from a tour of inspection between Winnipeg and western points in Saskatchewan.

Commenting on the crop situation, Mr. Wilcox said he did not think the crops were as bad as some reports would indicate. Summerfallow is very fair, although some of the late crops and stubble are poor, but recent rains should help these to some extent.

"I saw more breaking and summerfallow," he stated, "than I have ever seen in any previous year and I believe there's a very marked improvement in the progress being made in the country generally. Farmers are improving their places by planting trees and I noticed considerable building going on. South of Prince Albert I saw some wonderful crops and not a weed to be seen among them."

ROMAN CATHOLIC ANNEXES SEALED IN MEXICO YESTERDAY

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 10.—All Roman Catholic annexes containing church valuables except actual places of worship have been placed under government seal throughout Mexico until the present controversy between the government and the Catholic episcopate have been settled, it was announced by the department of the interior yesterday.

Several persons arrested for plotting against the life of President Calles have been discharged for lack of evidence.

TOUCHED ON ISLAND NEIGHBORHOOD DUNDAS

The steamer Prince Rupert touched on Holliday Island off Dundas Island yesterday on her way here from Kelchikan. An examination was made on her arrival and it was found that while plates were dented she was not leaking, so she proceeded south. It is possible the boat will go into drydock before returning and this may delay her slightly. She could not dock here as the Canadian Prospector is on the pontoons.

Mrs. P. I. Palmer will sail for the south on the Gardena this afternoon.

Hoot is a likable dumb bell who turned out to be a hard-riding, scrapping, fire-eating buckaroo. A dressed-up top who swung the meanest fist in seven counties. A peaceful chap who had a dizzy hobby for photographing everybody who solved and conquered one of the most thrilling and dangerous mysteries in the west. Stirring action, break-neck horsemanship, glorious, rugged, open country, laughs galore and unusual characters. Strong cast.
